Dear Co-Laborer in Kingdom Enterprise:

Do not lose this book. Its value far exceeds the way it appears, and its value far exceeds the cost involved to bring it to you. You may well ask, "Why should I protect it and what is its value?"

First, you will use it later more than you use it now. For the rest of your life there will be press releases and information pieces that will come your way that involve people you went to school with. "Oh, yes, I think I remember that person, but I can't get the face in my mind." How many times have I said that? And I have found the book with the pictures of my fellow students immensely valuable time and again.

Second, your grandchildren will love it. It is amazing how much styles change across time. Your grandchildren will pull the book out when you least expect it. You will find them collapsed with laughter in the living room floor as they point to various ones of your fellow students and their strange expressions, clothes, and haircuts. And, of course, there will be special hilarity devoted to the picture of you. "Can you believe that Grandpa looked like this?"

Third, some day (as inconceivable as this may seem) you are going to love your professors! Of course, some of you love them now, but then again some of them may seem pretty unlovable to you at the moment. There will be a time to sit around (and you don't have to come to retirement to do it) and look at the pictures of your professors and reminisce about what happened in their classes and how each one made some contribution to your life.

For these and many other reasons this book of pictures of your colleagues in Kingdom enterprise will be of value to you for years to come, indeed possibly for your entire life. So use it now, but put it carefully away and treasure it for the years to come. Your best friends in the ministry will usually end up scattered across the world in the work of the Savior. Some of them you will see only once every five years. At least if you correspond with them by mail you will have a picture to look at to remind you of how precious this person is to you. God bless you in your days as you labor as a student here at Southeastern Seminary.

Until He Comes,

Paige Patterson

Dear Southeastern Family,

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as your Student Body President. I look forward to the challenges we face as a going, glowing and growing body of believers. We are truly blessed to be called by God to Southeastern Seminary which I believe is becoming one of the finest seminaries in the world.

Southeastern Seminary is experiencing considerable growth in the student body. As a result, a large percentage of students are new to the campus. It is my hope and prayer that you will adjust quickly to Wake Forest and begin a fruitful outreach ministry according to the will of God.

As you already know, Seminary life is no bed of roses. There are many difficult times in pursuit of a theological education. Always keep in mind that God has brought you here for a reason and will never leave you nor forsake you. My charge to you is to prayerfully surrender your life and ministry to the sovereign authority of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Finally, to all our professors and leaders, let me say on behalf of the entire student body, thank you for your dedication, sacrifice and commitment which is essential to the welfare of all students at this seminary. You are making an eternal contribution to the Kingdom of God and our prayers are with you. God Bless you in your constant obedience to the high calling of Christ. May we all grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord.

Your brother in Christ,

Dennis Patterson
