My dear Mrs. Williamson:

Your letter came on Saturday, but a busy Sunday and an associational meeting at some distance from home today, have kept me busy.

I do sympathize with you sincerely in your desire to have Normand Jr. in a Baptist school, but I understood his feeling to, I think - I am sorry that he didn't find a place for himself at Mass Hall - the boys who have gone from our community are happy in their work there.

Duke is a truly magnificent place, but is so big that I feel overwhelmed when I think of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Herring are great friends of many Duke students. Dr. Herring is pastor of the Wall's Street Baptist Church. and they have right many students in their congregation. Mrs. Herring was a student worker in the Southern Convention. I can think of no more sympathetic friend than Mrs. Herring - I am sure if you write her, she will do all in her power to help the son, with no embarrassment to him.

Mrs. Owen F. Herring, 90 Watts St. Baptist Church, Durham, N.C. will reach her.

I think if you could come up for a visit with me, and Normans would come over, it would be fine.

I shall be happy if I can be of some help in a very tactful way -

Mr. C. E. Norman is pastor of the Lutheran Church in Raleigh - While Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Dozier were with me, the Normans came out once or twice - I thought I'd see them often, but I just have it seemed to find time.

I saw Cecile Lancaster in San Antonio - had lunch with her one day, and sat with her at the Missionaries' Breakfast. I saw Mr. Mills, too, and Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Ray, and Herron. Last summer my sister and my children and I drove out to the West Coast. We saw Florence, and Mrs.

J. H. Rowe and Mary Elisabeth, the Rays, and dear Mrs. Valne - Helen, Lue, and Sallie Sue spent a day with us last summer. I did want to go to see Naomi Schell when I was in Ridgeway at the Western N.C. Ga. Home-Party ^{week before} last, but I just couldn't make it.

I went up on the bus, if I had had my car
I would have gone over to Asheville certainly.
Naomi is in the Sunshine Nursing Home in Asheville. She is almost helpless.

- I must stop, for I have a number of letters I should write.

I do hope that the summer will be happy and helpful for your boy -

- I'll be so happy if you could come up to see him, and me -

My daughter has just finished her Soph more year at Meredith. My son will a Senior in High School next year.

Much love to you. May our Father richly bless you.

Very sincerely yours,

Jay J. Farmer
