Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Statement of Purpose

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to prepare God-called men and women for vocational service in Baptist churches and in other Christian ministries throughout the world. This purpose is implemented through programs of spiritual development, theological studies, and practical preparation in ministry.

Statement of Mission

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is an institution of higher learning established and supported by the Southern Baptist Convention in order to "contend earnestly for the faith which was once and for all delivered to the saints." The Seminary maintains an administration and faculty of God-called members whose convictions and calling reflect consistent adherence to the institution's Articles of Faith. The Seminary's administration and faculty are qualified by personal commitment to Christ, by academic preparation, and by personal and professional experience to provide guidance in spiritual, intellectual, and practical endeavors. Through its administration and faculty, the Seminary offers a program of instruction which focuses on three primary areas: (1) spiritual development, (2) theological studies, and (3) practical preparation.

I. Spiritual Development - The Seminary seeks to foster spiritual growth in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ as essential preparation for Christian ministry and service. The foundation for spiritual development is an unqualified commitment in obedience and faith to the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. Spiritual development also requires seeking and following the Holy Spirit's guidance in the formation of Christian thought and character and in the pursuit of one's Christian calling.

II. Theological Studies - The Seminary seeks to prepare men and women for Christian ministry and service by helping them discern, defend, and proclaim God's revealed truth. The Seminary pursues high academic standards in providing courses of study for understanding the Bible and the history, content and contemporary relevance of the Christian faith. The Seminary is committed to the complete veracity, inerrancy, and infallibility of the Bible as an essential foundation for effective Christian ministry and service.

III. Practical Preparation - The Seminary emphasizes a wholesome, intelligent and intentional evangelism in obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ's commission to make disciples of all nations. Spiritual development in Christlikeness and Bible-based theological studies will produce a compassionate desire to minister to the human suffering caused by individual, social and spiritual evils. The Seminary program provides practical preparation for a wide variety of Christian ministries, with special focus on proclaiming the Gospel and extending the ministry of the local church.

The Abstract of Principles

Southeastern's Articles of Faith

Article IX of the By-Laws of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Inc., adopted December 7, 1950, provides that "All members of the faculty shall be required to subscribe to the Articles of Faith, or Beliefs, as adopted by the Board, and publicly sign these Articles at the opening of the session at which they enter upon their duties." These articles were originally prepared for and adopted by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, founded in 1859.

I. The Scriptures.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the only sufficient, certain and authoritative rule of all saving knowledge, faith and obedience.

II. God.

There is but one God, the Maker, Preserver and Ruler of all things, having in and of Himself, all perfections, and being infinite in them all; and to Him all creatures owe the highest love, reverence and obedience.

III. The Trinity.

God is revealed to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit each with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

IV. Providence.

God from eternity, decrees or permits all things that come to pass, and perpetually upholds, directs and governs all creatures and all events; yet so as not in any wise to be author or approver of sin nor to destroy the free will and responsibility of intelligent creatures.

V. Election.

Election is God's eternal choice of some persons unto everlasting life—not because of foreseen merit in them, but of His mere mercy in Christ—in consequence of which choice they are called, justified, and glorified.

VI. The Fall of Man.

God originally created man in His own image, and free from sin; but through the temptation of Satan, he transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original holiness and righteousness; whereby his posterity inherit a nature corrupt and wholly opposed to God and His law, are under condemnation, and as soon as they are capable of moral action, become actual transgressors.

VII. The Mediator.

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the divinely appointed Mediator between God and man. Having taken upon Himself human nature, yet without sin, He perfectly fulfilled the law, suffered and died upon the cross for the salvation of sinners. He was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended to His Father, at whose right hand He ever liveth to make intercession for His people. He is the only Mediator, the Prophet, Priest, and King of the Church, and Sovereign of the Universe.

VIII. Regeneration.

Regeneration is a change of heart, wrought by the Holy Spirit, who quickeneth the dead in trespasses and sins, enlightening their minds spiritually and savingly to understand the Word of God, and renewing their whole nature, so that they love and practice holiness. It is a work of God's free and special grace alone.

IX. Repentance.

Repentance is an evangelical grace, wherein a person being, by the Holy Spirit, made sensible of the manifold evil of his sin, humbleth himself for it, with godly sorrow, detestation of it, and self-abhorrence, with a purpose and endeavor to walk before God so as to please Him in all things.

X. Faith.

Saving faith is the belief, on God's authority, of whatsoever is revealed in His Word concerning Christ; accepting and resting upon Him alone for justification and eternal life. It is wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit, and is accompanied by all other saving graces, and leads to a life of holiness.

XI. Justification.

Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal of sinners, who believe in Christ, from all sin, through the satisfaction that Christ has made; not for anything wrought in them or done by them; but on account of the obedience and satisfaction of Christ, they receiving and resting on Him and His righteousness by faith.

XII. Sanctification.

Those who have been regenerated are also sanctified by God's word and Spirit dwelling in them. This sanctification is progressive through the supply of Divine strength, which all saints seek to obtain, pressing after a heavenly life in cordial obedience to all Christ's commands.

XIII. Perseverance of the Saints.

Those whom God hath accepted in the Beloved, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere to the end; and though they may fall, through neglect and temptation, into sin, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the Church, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be renewed again unto repentance, and be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

XIV. The Church.

The Lord Jesus is the Head of the Church, which is composed of all his true disciples, and in him is invested supremely all power for its government. According to his commandment, Christians are to associate themselves into particular societies or churches; and to each of these churches He hath given needful authority for administering that order, discipline and worship which he hath appointed. The regular officers of a Church are Bishops or Elders, and Deacons.

XV. Baptism.

Baptism is an ordinance of the Lord Jesus, obligatory upon every believer, wherein he is immersed in water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, as a sign of his fellowship with the death and resurrection of Christ, of remission of sins, and of his giving himself up to God, to live and walk in newness of life. It is prerequisite to church fellowship, and to participation in the Lord's Supper.

XVI. The Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Jesus Christ, to be administered with the elements of bread and wine, and to be observed by his churches till the end of the world. It is in no sense a sacrifice, but is designed to commemorate his death, to confirm the faith and other graces of Christians, and to be a bond, pledge and renewal of their communion with him, and of their church fellowship.

XVII. The Lord's Day.

The Lord's day is a Christian institution for regular observance, and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, resting from worldly employments and amusements, works of necessity and mercy only excepted.

XVIII. Liberty of Conscience.

God alone is Lord of the conscience; and He hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men, which are in anything contrary to His word, or not contained in it. Civil magistrates being ordained of God, subjection to all lawful things commanded by them ought to be yielded by us in the Lord, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

XIX. The Resurrection.

The bodies of men after death return to dust, but their spirits return immediately to God—the righteous to rest with Him; the wicked, to be reserved under darkness to the judgment. At the last day, the bodies of all the dead, both just and unjust, will be raised.

XX. The Judgment.

God hath appointed a day, wherein he will judge the world by Jesus Christ, when everyone shall receive according to his deeds: the wicked shall go into everlasting punishment; the righteous, into everlasting life.

Introduction

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is an institution of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). It is governed by a board of Trustees elected by the Convention, which in turn elects the President, Administrative Cabinet members, and the Faculty. The Seminary receives a major part of its operating expenses and capital needs from the SBC's Cooperative Program. These funds are supplemented by student fees and special gifts from alumni and friends.

Location

Wake Forest, North Carolina is home to the approximately 300 acre campus of Southeastern Seminary. The school is located 10 miles north of Raleigh and 25 miles east of Durham, both medium-sized centers of education and business. Coupled with Chapel Hill, the three cities comprise an area known as the Research Triangle of North Carolina. The vibrant Triangle area is home to three of the nation's major universities: Duke, The University of North Carolina, and North Carolina State. Wake Forest is on US 1 at NC 98. It is serviced by the Raleigh-Durham airport (RDU) and is easily reached from Interstates 95, 85 and 40.

Campus Visits for Prospective Students

Arrangements can be made for prospective students to tour the campus, see seminary housing, visit classes, and meet other students, professors, and administrators. Accommodations and meals will be made available to prospective students for up to two days without charge. To make reservations for such a visit write the Admissions Office, P. O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, N. C. 27588-1889 or call toll free

History

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary became a reality on May 19, 1950, by vote of the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Chicago, Illinois. To house the Seminary, the Convention purchased the campus of Wake Forest College in Wake Forest, North Carolina—recognized then and now as one of the most beautiful in the South. But more than beauty, the campus claimed a Baptist heritage. The property was originally obtained in 1832 by the Baptists of North Carolina in order to build a college for educating ministers.

Trustees, elected by the Convention, secured a charter and adopted the Abstract of Principles as the Seminary's Articles of Faith. Next they elected the Seminary's first president, Dr. Sydnor L. Stealey.

In the Fall of 1951, Southeastern began classes. Opening day, September 12, was attended by 85 students and three faculty members. The Seminary met in the classroom building now known as Appleby Hall on the Wake Forest campus. In the beginning, the Seminary offered only a basic theological program leading to a Bachelor of Divinity degree.

In 1956, when Wake Forest College moved to its new location in Winston-Salem, Southeastern inherited the rest of the Wake Forest campus which covered five hundred acres and consisted of more than twelve major buildings. The number of faculty members and students grew and plans to remodel and renovate buildings were initiated. In 1957 Southeastern instituted a summer school session.

In 1958, the Seminary achieved recognition from the American Association of Theological Schools, now known as the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada.

In 1963, after thirteen years of devoted service, Dr. Stealey retired and Dr. Olin T. Binkley was elected president. Enrollment stood at 575 and the school had 28 faculty members.

Under Dr. Binkley's leadership the Seminary continued the renovation program begun by Dr. Stealey. Four outdated buildings were removed, and thirteen new buildings were constructed and paid for—all during Dr. Binkley's eleven year administration.

Dr. Binkley also guided major academic changes: the general curriculum was revised; the Bachelor of Divinity degree became the Master of Divinity degree; the Master of Religious Education and the Doctor of Ministry degrees were implemented, bringing the total number of degree programs to seven. Furthermore, he inaugurated the annual Alumni Giving Program before his retirement in 1974.

Southeastern's third president, Dr. W. Randall Lolley, was elected in 1974. Enrollment had reached 663 with 24 elected faculty members. His leadership also effected remarkable progress for the Seminary in the areas of facilities, academics, and enrollment. The Certificate of Theology was restructured in 1976 and became the Associate of Divinity degree. In 1977, the Emery B. Denny Library Building was modernized and enlarged. And, in 1978, Southeastern received accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

To meet the needs of an ever-increasing married student population, the Seminary constructed 100 townhouse-style apartments in 1979. Renovation of Lea Laboratory, now known as Broyhill Hall, was begun in 1980. In 1982, the ground floor of Binkley Chapel was transformed into classrooms.

The modernization of Adams Hall in 1984 provided the Seminary with more classrooms, seminar rooms, an auditorium, and a photography darkroom. The Ledford Center, a $2.5 million complex completed in 1986, provided a gymnasium, snack bar, lounges, meeting rooms, book store, sauna and exercise rooms. Seminary enrollment peaked at 1,392 in 1983 with a faculty of 36.

Dr. Lolley resigned in the Fall of 1987 and was succeeded in 1988 by Dr. Lewis A. Drummond. The Drummond presidency marked a transitional era for Southeastern. Student enrollment declined and a major turnover occurred within the faculty. Nevertheless, Dr. Drummond led in an administrative restructuring of the Seminary in 1988 and in the establishment of the Center for Great Commission Studies in 1991. Reconstruction of the perimeter rock wall, replacement of the brick walkways, and a major refurbishment of administrative and faculty offices were also begun. Southeastern's commitment to biblical inerrancy and to historic Baptist theological principles was made clear in new defining documents such as the Seminary's "Faculty Profile" and "Statement of Mission" in 1992.

For the academic year, 1990-1991 the enrollment stood at 784 with 27 elected faculty members. Dr. Drummond retired in the Spring of 1992, and trustees elected Dr. Paige Patterson as the fifth President of the institution.

Statement on Accreditation

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) to award associate, masters, and doctoral degrees.

The Seminary has been accredited by ATS since 1958 and by SACS since 1978.

Disclaimer

This catalog reflects Seminary policies as of the date of publication. However, Southeastern Seminary reserves the right to make such changes in educational and financial policy—due notice being given—as the Seminary's Board of Trustees may deem consonant with sound academic and fiscal practice. The Seminary further reserves the right to request a student to withdraw at any time.

Southeastern professors stress academic as well as spiritual growth in their students.

Faculty Profile

Elected members of the faculty at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary serve the Christian community as ministers who are personally committed to the lordship of Jesus Christ in every area of life; they seek to obey Christ's command to love God with heart, soul, and mind; they are able and ready to testify of a personal experience of regenerating grace in their life; they affirm and maintain biblical standards of sexual morality; they defend and honor the biblical reverence for life; and they are dedicated to the task of equipping students for service through local churches, mission work, and other forms of Christian ministry.

Elected members of the faculty are Baptists in sympathy with the mission of the Southern Baptist Convention: during their time of service at SEBTS they are active members of a cooperating Southern Baptist church, and they are personally committed to intentional evangelism, Christian social concerns and world missions.

Faculty members are expected to have a basic theological education and an earned research doctorate (such as the Th.D., Ph.D., or a degree with similar recognition) from an established institution of higher learning. Moreover, they are required to maintain an appropriate expertise in their teaching field.

They are competent teachers committed to the purpose and the mission of the Seminary and to the historic evangelical Christian faith, while employing all useful methods of research and avenues of legitimate theological inquiry in the free pursuit of truth and knowledge.

They accept, affirm, and subscribe to the Seminary's doctrinal "Abstract of Principles"; further they are guided doctrinally by the Baptist Faith and Message of 1963; they affirm and teach the Bible as the inspired and infallible Word of God, a perfect treasure of divine instruction, with God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth without any mixture of error for its matter, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried.

Admission Policy

Prerequisite to entrance into any master's degree program at the Seminary is a baccalaureate degree from a college or university accredited by an agency that is recognized by the Council on Post-secondary Accreditation (COPA). Graduates of colleges and universities located outside the United States will be considered on an individual basis. All questions about admission policies or requirements should be directed to the Director of Admissions, SEBTS, P. O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588.

Academic Prerequisites for Master's Programs

The applicant's undergraduate degree program must have a strong liberal arts background as evidenced by the completion of approximately sixty (60) semester hours of courses well distributed among the subject areas listed below.

English language and literature.

Modern and classical languages, including French, German, Latin, Greek and Hebrew.

History, including non-Western as well as American and European.

Philosophy, particularly its history and methods.

Natural Sciences, both the physical and the life sciences.

Social Sciences, including psychology, sociology, and anthropology.

Fine arts and music, with emphasis on creativity and symbolic communication.

Religion, both in the Judeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions.

Whatever their background, students should bring to the Seminary an understanding of the world and should possess the ability to communicate well. An awareness of the world in which we live includes a knowledge of persons and ideas, an understanding of significant movements in human affairs, and an appreciation of the physical universe. Communication is of central importance in ministry. The entering student must be able to think rationally, read with comprehension, and write and speak clearly and effectively.

Additional information and specialized requirements for A.Div., Th.M., and D.Min. applicants are included in descriptions of the respective degree programs.

Admission Procedures

Application for admission is made through the Admissions Office. The following items must be submitted before an application is presented to the Admissions Committee:

1. A completed application form and recent photo.
2. Three personal reference forms.
3. A non-refundable application fee of $25.00.
4. A completed medical information form and an immunization form.
5. Official transcript(s) sent directly to the Director of Admissions from the Registrar of schools previously attended.
6. A completed Church Recommendation Form.
7. Spouse's Personal Statement (if applicable).

In some cases additional documents may be required. Contact the Admissions Office for further details.

Application Deadlines

Applications for the A.Div., M.Div., M.Div./C.E., M.Div./C.M., M.A./C.E., and M.A./C.M. programs may be filed up to 12 months early but should be received in the Admissions Office at least 30 days prior to the matriculation day of the semester or summer term in which the student expects to begin. Housing requests are prioritized by the date of Admissions Committee action. Late applications may require delayed enrollment. Under no circumstances may a student be enrolled in classes until his/her application has been approved. Applications for the Th.M. or the D.Min. programs must be submitted to the Admissions Office at least 60 days prior to matriculation for consideration by the appropriate committee.

Admission Process

When the application materials are complete, they are reviewed by the Director of Admissions and members of a standing Admissions Committee of the Faculty. A personal interview with the Admissions Committee may be required. Students may expect to be notified in writing of the decision of the Admissions Committee within 30 days after all their materials are on file in the Admissions Office.

Applicants who have completed as many as 112 semester hours toward a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and who otherwise meet all admission requirements may be granted conditional admission by the Admissions Committee on the condition that they complete all work for the baccalaureate degree. No more than thirty (30) semester hours of seminary work may be undertaken until the prerequisite degree has been completed. Under special circumstances, other conditions and/or restrictions may be applied. Details of any condition or restriction upon enrollment will be stated in the official letter of admission from the Dean of the Faculty.

Students applying for Special Student (non-degree) status may take up to 30 hours for credit. Contact the Admissions Office for further details.

International Student Admissions

The admissions procedure for international students requires additional information and processing time due to seminary policies and the requirements of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. International students are required to have a credit deposit in the business office to insure their financial security while studying at Southeastern. An international student admissions guide which provides details of these special requirements is available from the Admissions Office.

Fees and Expenses

Because the Southern Baptist Convention strongly supports theological education, gifts from the churches through the Convention's Cooperative Program provide the financial foundation for our students. In 1992-93, the Cooperative Program provided approximately $5,500.00 per student. As a result, matriculation fees are significantly subsidized.

Schedule of Fees for 1993-94

Listed below are the fees applicable to students attending Southeastern Seminary. Expenses for food, insurance, travel, and personal needs are not included. Privileges for the use of the Library, Ledford Center, and recreation facilities with the exception of the golf course, are included. It is estimated that textbooks will cost approximately $250.00 a semester. All student accounts, including the fees listed below, must be paid in full in order to register each semester.

In Graduate Studies programs, continuous enrollment is required until the thesis is completed for the Th. M. degree and the project report is finished for the D.Min. degree.

Graduation

Applications for graduation in May must be turned in to the Registrar's Office before February 1. Applications for the December graduation must be in the Registrar's Office before October 1. Student accounts must be paid in full prior to graduation.

Refunds

Fees: A student who withdraws between the first day of classes and the close of registration may be refunded two-thirds (2/3) of the total fees. Total fees constitute matriculation and student services fees.

Deposits: Deposits made for reservation of rooms and apartments will be refunded only if cancellation is made ten days prior to beginning of the term. The deposit will be returned when the student releases the facility in good condition and returns the key to the Physical Plant. Deposits are applied to balance due on account before refunds are made.

Housing Regulations

The Seminary has dormitory space for 250 men and 84 women and apartments for 211 families. Many students live in parsonages furnished by the churches they serve.

Application

Applications for housing require deposits of $100.00 for rooms and $100.00 for apartments. Address application to: Housing Office, Southeastern Seminary, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27588-1889. For description of housing facilities, see pages 26 - 27. Costs of operation may necessitate changes in rent. Rooms or apartments reserved by deposit will not be held beyond the opening date of the term. All rent is payable monthly in advance.

Eligibility

Apartments are available to married students who are residing in Wake Forest with their families and are enrolled for at least ten (10) hours in a degree program. Housing is available for students enrolled in the Associate (A.Div.), Master of Arts in Christian Education (M.A./C.E.), Master of Arts in Church Music (M.A./C.M.), or any of the Master of Divinity (M. Div.) programs. Housing for Th. M. and D. Min. students will be assigned only if space is available after students enrolled in the basic degree programs are housed. Students occupying seminary apartments are required to sign a lease agreement and housing regulations in the Housing

Office. Students should read carefully and be acquainted with the terms of the lease agreement and any other applicable housing regulations. Failure to observe these regulations will disqualify the student/family for seminary housing. Please note that no pets are permitted in seminary housing.

Vacating

Students are required to vacate seminary housing within 30 days after completing class work for the A.Div., M.A./C.E., M.A./C.M. and M.Div. degrees at the end of the fall and spring semester. Dormitory students who complete class work during summer school and who will not be enrolled in the fall semester, must vacate the dormitories during the weekend following the end of the second summer session. Students in seminary apartments who complete degree work in either summer session must vacate their apartments within one week after completing their degrees.

Dormitory Housing Statement of Policy

Southeastern Seminary is committed to providing adequate basic services for all of its students. As this commitment relates to housing, Southeastern seeks to make available on-campus housing at affordable rates.

Dormitory housing is provided primarily for single students and students who commute from other areas and need temporary housing during the week. Residents must be enrolled for at least ten (10) semester hours in a degree program.

Housing policies and regulations are devised to be consistent with the Seminary's commitment not only to its students but also to the Southern Baptist Convention and the people who support it. Their primary aim is to help maintain an atmosphere that promotes the welfare of the individual student, maintains a comfortable setting conducive to study and learning and provides as much privacy as possible in a shared environment.

All seminary housing residents are guided by specific policies and regulations. Regulations which define the use of dormitory facilities are somewhat restrictive, due primarily to the nature of dormitory housing in which residents must share accommodations, facilities and equipment. Since students are not required to live in seminary-owned housing, potential residents should read carefully the policies and regulations regarding their particular dormitory. Those who feel that these may be confining or inconsistent with their particular lifestyle are encouraged to seek other alternatives for housing.

At best, dormitory housing is temporary in nature and should not be equated with or expected to function as housing which is of a more permanent type.

The assignment of a dormitory room is not a commitment on the part of the Seminary to the student for continuous occupancy of a particular room. At the discretion of the Seminary, residence halls may be closed, or students may be required to make moves within dormitories.

In order that necessary maintenance and cleaning can be accomplished prior to the fall term, residents will be required to vacate their rooms during announced periods.

Room rent is due one month in advance, at the beginning of each calendar month. Residents are responsible for the rent until they have followed the proper procedure for checking out of the room and turning in the key.

Cafeteria

Meals in the cafeteria will cost approximately ten dollars per day, depending on individual requirements.

Although seminary life is not easy, the beautiful campus of Southeastern provides many sanctuaries for students.

Student Financial Assistance

A student's preparation for entering the Seminary should include a determination of personal financial needs and the provisions for meeting these. Southeastern believes that its students should, as much as possible, be self-supporting. However, it is recognized that some men and women who give promise of outstanding usefulness in Christian service may require assistance to complete their seminary program.

Financial aid at Southeastern Seminary is administered through an assistance program which includes on-campus jobs, scholarships and emergency assistance through loans and grants. The dimensions of the program do not make it possible to provide for the total budget needs of students. Any assistance which can be provided is, therefore, supplemental to other income which the student may have. Funds for these programs are made possible primarily through the generous gifts of friends and alumni of Southeastern.

In the event that a student who received financial aid withdraws from school before a semester is completed, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary may require that all scholarships be repaid to the foundations from which they were awarded. This includes any scholarships and grants awarded by SEBTS, The Charles B. Keese Foundation, The Frasier Scholarship Fund, The Georgia Baptist Foundation and any other scholarships where full time enrollment is required. Upon withdrawal, the student's account will be charged the amount of the scholarship(s) and the foundations from which awards were given will be notified and refunded.

Possibilities of Self-Help

To facilitate adjustment to seminary life, it is recommended that entering students carefully anticipate fees, basic living expenses and moving costs and make provision in advance for meeting these financial obligations.

Church Work - The seminary encourages students to work in the churches as student pastors, assistant pastors, supply pastors, interim pastors, mission pastors, revival preachers, youth revival preachers, song leaders for congregations, directors of music, directors of religious education, directors of recreation, organists, pianists, and workers in church organizations. All students are urged to seek the counsel of the Formation in Ministry Office concerning such employment.

On the Campus - A limited number of work opportunities are available on campus, both for students and for spouses.

Employment for students is part-time in one of three categories: 1) work grants, on the basis of financial need and qualification for a particular job (information and applications from the Dean of Students); 2) hourly employment in areas such as Book Store, Cafeteria, Child Care Center, Communication, Library, and Plant Services (by application directly to these areas); and 3) fellows, graders and research assistants (by invitation of faculty members).

Employment for spouses may be either full-time or part-time. Applications received in the Business Office are available to all Administrative Offices; however, applicants with skills and interest in specialized areas may also apply directly in those areas.

Wake Forest and other Communities - Students may secure remunerative work in Wake Forest and nearby cities and towns. Wake Forest is within 20 minutes driving distance of Raleigh and within 30 minutes of Durham. Many students and their spouses find employment in these centers.

In no instance can definite employment in the churches or in the adjacent communities be guaranteed by the Seminary.

Student Aid

Student aid at Southeastern Seminary begins with the commitment of the Southern Baptist Convention to theological education. This commitment is most evident in the generous funding of the seminary's entire operation. Gifts from churches and individuals given directly and through the Cooperative Program amount to an annual subsidy for each student of approximately $5,500.00. The result is that basic fees are kept at a minimum.

Other types of aid are made possible through gifts and funds established by individual and corporate donors. These make it possible to provide work grants, loans, emergency grants and scholarships to qualified students.

Grants-in-aid and loans are available in small sums to meet urgent or emergency needs of students. Scholarships are awarded from available funds each semester after registration closes. Applications may be submitted a month in advance of this date. Applications for grants, loans and scholarships are reviewed and awarded by decision of the administrative Loan and Aid Committee. Information and applications may be obtained by writing the Dean of Students.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary does not participate in any federal or state funded student aid programs involving loans or grants. Prospective students should not anticipate such aid being available while enrolled at the Seminary. However, Southeastern Seminary is approved to certify enrollment eligibility for repayment deferments for most federal or state education loans received in college. Students should contact their lending institutions for advice and information. Qualified students who are veterans are eligible to receive V.A. benefits.

Academic Load and Employment

When a student assumes responsibilities in addition to academic work, there is an ethical obligation to fulfill all these tasks in a satisfactory manner. The Faculty recommends that a student with as many as 20 hours per week of secular employment or as many as two weekends per month of church-related responsibilities on a regular basis not register for more than 12 semester hours. Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average will not be permitted to enroll for more than ten hours.

Students who find it necessary to engage in outside work in the amounts indicated above are strongly advised to take a four-year sequence.

Special Scholarships and Aid Funds

Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards

The Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards are Southeastern's most prestigious scholarships. These are awarded to qualified entering students in the basic master's level degree programs. Academic excellence (B+ or better), commitment to ministry, promise in the service of Christ and Christian character are considered in making these awards. Scholarships are $1,200.00 each and are made available during the recipient's first year. Application materials are made available each fall on selected college campuses or may be obtained by writing the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Seminary. Applications are accepted through May 1.

President's Scholars Awards for Leadership in Excellence in Ministry

The President's Scholars Awards for Leadership in Excellence in Ministry are provided in recognition of exceptional leadership qualities and demonstrated commitment to Christian ministry. Scholarships are $1,000.00 each and are awarded for the first year of study. Applications are accepted through May 1 and can be obtained from the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Seminary.

Charles B. Keesee Education Assistance Awards

The Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc. of Martinsville, Virginia, is a private foundation which offers financial assistance to qualified Southern Baptists who were residents of the states of Virginia or North Carolina prior to entering the Seminary and who are enrolled in a full-time basic degree program (A.Div., M.A./C.E., M.A./C.M., or M.Div.). Applications may be secured from: Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc., P. O. Box 431, Martinsville, Virginia 24114. These must be returned to the Keesee Office by March 1 prior to the academic year for which assistance is requested.

Charles S. Coleman Holy Land Study Tour Scholarships

Generous gifts of Charles S. Coleman, a layman and a 1976 graduate of Southeastern Seminary, have made scholarship help available to students for the seminary's Biblical Study Tour of the Holy Land, B 1030. These scholarships are open to second or third year students enrolled in the A.Div., M.Div., and M.A./C.E. degree programs at Southeastern Seminary.

New Seminarian Financial Assistance Award

Awards are provided as non-renewable, unrestricted grants and may be applied to moving costs, seminary fees housing, or other expenses related to beginning seminary studies. Following enrollment as a full-time student (10 hours) in the first semester of study, the award will be made available to the student. Applications are accepted through the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Seminary.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is composed of all graduates and former students of Southeastern Seminary. It endeavors to perpetuate friendships formed in the Seminary and to foster the cause of theological education in general and specifically at Southeastern. Its purpose is "to provide a mutually helpful relationship for the glory of God by interrelating effectively and efficiently the alumni with the Seminary and with each other through fellowship, communication and service." With its Spring commencement in 1993, Southeastern has granted 918 Associate of Divinity, 5,820 Master of Divinity, 290 Master of Religious Education, 50 Master of Arts in Christian Education, 14 Master of Arts in Church Music, 319 Master of Theology and 413 Doctor of Ministry degrees. The number of degrees granted totals 7,788, which includes multiple degrees received by the same person.

The Association meets annually during the Southern Baptist Convention. The officers, with the presidents of the state chapters, comprise the General Board. State Chapters of the Alumni Association are active in the following states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. These meet at least once a year, concurrent with the meetings of their respective Baptist State Conventions. The National Alumni officers for 1993-1994:

President	Rev. Charles Page, '72, '74 Charlotte, NC
President Elect	Rev. Jim DeLoach, '59 Houston, TX
Vice President	Rev. Ronnie Owen, '69 Asheville, NC
Secretary	Rev. Lawrence Clapp, '80 Greensboro, NC

Campus and Facilities

Even though Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary has a history covering less than five decades, the campus has a heritage spanning more than 150 years. In 1832, the Baptists of North Carolina purchased the 615 acre plantation of Dr. Calvin Jones for the purpose of establishing a teaching facility for young ministers.

The institution they established became Wake Forest College and in 1950, more than a century later, the Wake Forest campus was purchased by the Southern Baptist Convention as the home of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Southeastern's campus is noted for its splendid natural beauty as well as its graceful classic Georgian architecture. The grounds are rich with magnolias, elms, pines, oaks, cedars, firs, maples, and other varieties of trees. There is also an abundance of azaleas, camellias, sasanquas, dogwoods, and flowering fruit trees.

As a result, the campus offers resplendent views all year around, but especially in fall and spring. Many of the trees were growing on the land even before the plantation and are centuries old. Several massive white oaks, part of a magnificent grove near the plantation house, still stand on the Southeastern campus. In fact, this grove was called Wake Forest and gave the town its name.

Another historic landmark, the stone wall now surrounding the central campus, was begun about 1885 by Wake Forest College president Charles E. Taylor and "Dr. Tom" Jeffries. The wall is currently being rebuilt by Doug Buttram, a Southeastern graduate. The three year project is approximately half completed.

Over the years, Southeastern has complemented the natural setting with boxwoods, hollies, an array of flowers, and the stunning Mackie-Robinson Rose Garden with its charming three-tiered fountain. The original Wake Forest College buildings have been renovated, and new ones have been added. Yet, with each change, the goal has been to maintain the character of the original campus and land. Today Southeastern's campus comprises a full range of excellent facilities for living and learning.

The idea of a Prayer Garden was begun by students in the Class of 1983 with a graduation gift of $546.00 and has been expanded as funds have become available. In 1991, an anonymous donor gave a gift of the gazebo which is placed in the center of the garden as a formal place of quiet prayer. The Prayer Garden's landscaping design is based on the classical gardens of peace and solitude found throughout the Orient. The Prayer Garden and gazebo are located at the southwest corner of the campus between Lolley Dorm, the Shaw House and Mackie Hall.

Stealey Hall was built by Wake Forest College in 1934. It replaced the Old College Building, later named Wait Hall, which had been destroyed by fire in 1933. In 1956 it was completely renovated for offices of the administration and faculty. It was renamed in 1961 in honor of the seminary's first president, Dr. S. L. Stealey.

Binkley Chapel commands the center of the campus. Its tall spire is visible for several miles along every approach to Wake Forest. Work was begun on the chapel in 1942, but World War II prevented the completion of the interior. When the college moved to Winston-Salem in 1956, the work was resumed and completed in 1958. In 1959, a three-manual Reuter organ was given and installed as a memorial to Walter M. Williams of Burlington, North Carolina. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named the chapel in honor of the seminary's second president, Dr. Olin T. Binkley. The ground floor of the chapel was redesigned in 1982 and furnished as five modern classrooms and church music facilities, including organ and piano practice areas. In 1987, the organ was renovated and enlarged to 70 ranks by the Schantz Organ Company, Orrville, Ohio.

Appleby Hall was begun by Wake Forest College in 1942 and completed during World War II. From 1951 to 1956, this building housed the new Seminary. It was remodeled, and in 1962, renamed in honor of Mr. Scott B. Appleby in recognition of his generous support of the student aid fund. It contains a small chapel, classrooms, offices and a fellowship room, named in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Percy A. Bethea. Refurbishment in 1981 made it a beautiful and even more useful building.

The Emory B. Denny Building was constructed by the Seminary in 1958 to replace the old Heck-Williams Building (1878) which was razed in 1957. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named it in honor of Dr. Emory B. Denny, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, a trustee of the Seminary and its longtime friend and supporter. It houses the Seminary library.

The seminary library is dynamically involved with faculty and students in the achievement of educational objectives. It provides resources and services to support the research and study of the faculty and to meet the needs of students for the free and independent study which is stimulated by classroom, chapel, and other components of student life situations. Provided also is a broad range of materials for the general educational, cultural, and recreational interests of students, faculty, and their families.

A major building project, completed in 1977, has transformed the Library's Emory B. Denny Building into a modern facility, enlarged by fifty percent and redesigned functionally. Individual study-carrels and materials on open shelves are dispersed throughout the carpeted, air-conditioned building. Audiovisual facilities, microform readers and printers, a computer lab, typing rooms, group-study rooms, and photocopying equipment are also provided. In this setting, personal service is emphasized by a staff of seven full-time and twenty part-time persons.

The Library's collection has grown to more than 250,000 items including books, periodical volumes, music scores, music recordings and audiovisual materials, microforms, computer software, and Baptist documents. Currently received periodicals total over 1,100 titles. The microforms, containing approximately 95,000 volumes of books, periodicals, and dissertations, make this young library's collection strong in Early American and Early British materials, including important Baptist history resources. The collection is more than adequate to serve the Seminary's programs of study.

The resources and services of the Library are augmented greatly by the proximity of excellent university libraries and by an increase in both the scope and degree of cooperation with these libraries and others throughout the nation. As a charter member of the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET), the Library is using a shared computer facility by means of an on-line computer terminal. The Library also participates in the North Carolina Information Network.

In addition to funds allocated to the Seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention, the Library benefits from the generosity of many individuals and organizations. Each year, a number of cash gifts are received for the purchase of books. Eighty-four gifts, each of one thousand dollars or more, are providing endowment income for "memorial book shelves." Several gifts of private book collections have added significantly to the Library's strength.

Adams Hall, erected in 1933, first housed the Wake Forest Medical School (now the Bowman Gray School of Medicine). Renovated in 1956, it has served as a classroom building for the Seminary. In 1984 it underwent a complete modernization, with additional stairwells, an elevator, air-conditioning and other modern conveniences. In the fall of 1984 it was dedicated to the memory of the late Theodore F. Adams.

The Ruby Reid Child Care Center was made possible by a bequest of Miss Ruby Reid of Wake Forest, North Carolina, and gifts from the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. It was constructed in 1959. Five spacious classrooms, equipped with observation booths, open onto covered porches and fenced-in playgrounds. An office, teachers' lounge and a multi-purpose library/lunchroom add to the usefulness of the building.

Broyhill Hall is the oldest building on Southeastern's campus and is listed in the National Register of Historic Buildings. Built in 1888 as Lea Laboratory, it served Wake Forest College as a science building and then as the chemistry building. After the college moved, it was converted into a student center for the Seminary. In 1980 it was extensively renovated and renamed Broyhill Hall in appreciation of the generous gifts of J. E. and Paul Broyhill, trustees from Lenoir, North Carolina. It now houses various faculty and The Great Commission Center.

Mackie Hall was dedicated on May 9, 1968, as the seminary's new student center. It is named in memory of Dr. George C. Mackie, "a distinguished physician" who "devoted his life to the well-being of students" at Wake Forest College and at Southeastern Seminary, and in honor of Mrs. Mackie who as "a creative leader" has participated in the beautification of the campus. Mackie Hall is temporarily being used by the Wake Forest Boys and Girls Club. In the future, it may be converted into a faculty office center.

The Seminary Cafeteria was built by the Seminary in 1956 and provides dining rooms for conferences and small groups as well as facilities for large banquets and regular meals.

The Ledford Center/Cannon Gymnasium is an expansion of the Gore Gymnasium which was first dedicated by Wake Forest College in 1938. Renovations and additions to the original building in 1986 provide a comprehensive activities facility containing over 50,000 square feet. The three-floor complex includes a multi-use gymnasium, fully equipped fitness facility, racquetball courts, and locker/dressing rooms for women and men. In addition, there are lounges, a post office, recreation room, sandwich shop and campus bookstore. Offices for administrators and student organizations plus conference rooms are also included. The center is named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert F. Ledford of Raleigh, North Carolina. The gymnasium area has been named for the late Charles Cannon and the Cannon Trusts.

The Health Center was constructed by the Seminary in 1968 and contains offices for diagnostic consultation and treatment.

Wake Forest Baptist Church, organized in 1835, occupies the church building (1913) within the campus enclosure.

The President's Home, built in 1928 as the residence of the president of Wake Forest College, is located off the southwest corner of the campus and was renovated and refurbished in 1975 and again in 1989.

Purchased in 1960, the Manor Guest House, near the main campus, provides pleasant accommodations for prospective students and other guests.

The seminary has set aside three apartment for the use of missionaries on furlough who wish to study at Southeastern Seminary. The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, with the assistance of the WMUs of neighboring Baptist churches, has furnished these apartments located on Hipps Drive.

Hockaday House is a completely furnished guest apartment for seminary visitors. It is named for the late Dennis W. Hockaday of Savannah, Georgia.

Reece House is a completely furnished guest apartment for seminary visitors. It is named for the late James Thaddeus and Nina Davis Reece of Yadkinville, North Carolina.

The Athletic Field is located near the campus and is utilized for recreational activities such as softball, baseball, flag-football and soccer. Five tennis courts are provided. Arrangements have been made with the Paschal Golf Club (owned by the Seminary and leased to a local group) for seminary personnel to play golf at a special fee.

The Physical Plant is located on the northern perimeter of the campus. It houses the heating plant, administrative offices and the air conditioning, electrical, plumbing, carpentry, paint, grounds, and environmental services shops. Campus security is also housed in this building.

Housing

Johnson Dormitory provides air-conditioned rooms and facilities for 150 men with lounge areas and other conveniences. The availability of single rooms is determined each semester by the total number of requests for rooms. This three-story building, constructed in 1946 in separate sections for quiet and privacy, offers pleasant living conditions for its occupants.

Shaw House, located next to the main campus, has rooms for eight persons, and is currently used as a residence for commuter students. The former town residence also contains an area lounge and kitchen facilities.

Lolley Hall, formerly known as the Women's Dormitory, was renamed and dedicated in 1988 in honor of Dr. & Mrs. Randall Lolley in recognition of his 14 years of service to Southeastern as its third president. Constructed in 1965, Lolley Hall provides air-conditioned rooms for 52 women. It contains 13 two-room suites with connecting baths, and has parlors, study rooms, kitchenette, laundry space, recreation and game rooms.

Simmons Dormitory, built in 1936, and recently renovated, provides apartments for families with two or more children. There are four apartments with three bedrooms and 12 apartments with two bedrooms.

The Duplex Apartments, built from 1959 to 1975, can accommodate 100 families. There are one-, two- and three-bedroom units, each with living room, kitchen and bath. Each apartment has its own central air conditioning and heating system, light and water system. The occupant is responsible for all utilities. These apartments are unfurnished, except for stoves and refrigerators which are permanent installations. Located on West Pine Avenue, Rankin Court, Judson Drive, Rice Circle, Stadium Road, Wingate Street and Hipps Drive, they are within easy walking distance of the main campus. Apartments have washer and dryer connections.

The Townhouse Apartments, built in 1979, can accommodate 100 families. There are two- and three-bedroom units, each with living room and kitchen-dinette area. Living room, bedrooms, and stairways are carpeted. Kitchen and bathrooms have vinyl tile. Each apartment has a central air-conditioning and heating system. Occupant is responsible for utilities. These apartments are unfurnished, except for stoves and refrigerators which are permanent installations. Apartments have washer and dryer connections. Located on McDowell Drive, they are less than a mile from the campus.

Wake Forest and the campus of Southeastern offer an environment that is family-oriented and safe.

Seminary Community Life

The Seminary seeks to develop the whole person through numerous opportunities both on and off campus. Organizations, special events, and campus facilities present a versatile mix of activities.

The Ledford Center, the heart of extracurricular campus life, complements the challenges of academic life. The center offers a multi-use gymnasium, fitness rooms, racquetball courts, recreation room, and lounges. Tennis courts and a nine-hole golf course are also situated on campus.

The town of Wake Forest offers public parks, swimming pools, and summer recreation programs. The larger community, encompassing Raleigh and the Research Triangle, offers a year-round variety of cultural, leisure, athletic, and educational options.

Worship

As Binkley Chapel is the center of the campus, so worship is the center of seminary life. Under the leadership of the president, professors, students and guest speakers, chapel services are held at 10 a.m. each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday while classes are in session. On selected days, missionary speakers, scholars, and other Christian leaders inspire the entire community with special lectures and addresses.

Opportunities for Ministry

A majority of Southeastern students find remunerative employment in the churches within a 200 mile radius of the Seminary. Although the Field Ministries Office of the Formation in Ministry Program offers assistance to every student who wishes the opportunity for ministry, it cannot guarantee a position to any student.

Southeastern students minister in hospitals, prisons, shopping centers, rest homes, campgrounds, schools, churches, colleges and other institutions, and in other areas of special need. During the summer, many students serve as pastor-assistants, retreat chaplains, evangelists, youth directors, chaplain interns at hospitals, missionaries, and special urban workers.

Student Spouses

Student spouses may enroll in seminary classes for a reduced fee; special night classes or lectures are arranged for their convenience. Spouses also may take part in such campus organizations as the Seminary Choir and the Southeastern Women's Fellowship. They are included in campus social functions and various special interest activities.

Spouses seeking employment have a wide choice of possibilities in the area. Nurses readily find work in nearby hospitals. The scope and variety of industries, businesses, educational institutions, and public service agencies in Wake Forest, Raleigh, and the surrounding area offer excellent job opportunities.

On-campus positions are also available. The seminary employs a number of secretaries, telephone operators, and other skilled persons.

Children of Students

Children of seminary students are recognized as important members of the Seminary community and, therefore, benefit from various campus resources. Modern housing affords them comfortable living quarters, while recreational facilities offer diverse opportunities. At the Health Center, the services of the Seminary physician are also available free of charge. Churches and public schools are within walking distance of campus.

Ruby Reid Child Care Center

The Ruby Reid Child Care Center serves the Seminary family by caring for children ages 18 months to public school age. The Center is open year-round, except for one week in August and one week during the Christmas season. Seminary students may enroll their children only for the periods when school is in session, or they may request interim care between semesters. Part-time care is available when space permits.

In caring for children, the center has three purposes: to provide a laboratory for teachers and students who desire to explore ways of working with children; to provide a setting in which parents may discover new ways to enrich their family living; to provide a facility through which staff members of churches and other agencies involved with child care may receive counsel related to improving their own programs.

Enrollment for each age group is limited. Registration begins in April for the following fall. For more information, contact the Director of the Child Care Center. It is strongly advised that incoming students place their child's name on the waiting list as soon as possible. Students and spouses may also seek full-time or part-time employment at the Center.

Health Center

During sessions, the Seminary operates an on-campus Health Center directed by an on-staff physician. Students and their families may use the physician's services without charge during regular office hours. Residence calls are subject to charge by the physician.

Students may purchase general medicines and certain medical supplies through the Health Center as prescribed by the campus physician. All medicines must be paid for at the time they are issued.

Baptist Book Store

The Baptist Book Store, located in Ledford Center, is operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. It carries the required textbooks and supplies for classes as well as a variety of other books and personal accessories. The bookstore is also open to the public.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of representatives elected by students, assists the faculty and administration in coordinating various campus activities and in promoting the general welfare of all students. The various aspects of campus life that concern the council are reflected in the titles of its committees: arts, spiritual life, ethics, off-campus ministries, social, student welfare and communications.

Organizations

Habitat of Wake Forest is an organization to provide support in the form of people, resources, promotion, and other appropriate means for Habitat for Humanity (International, National, and Local Affiliates). Its purpose is to be a conduit for support from individual students and student organizations, faculty, and staff of our school, and to be able to share the Habitat program with local church congregations.

SEBTS Chapter of the Southern Baptist Religious Education Association is an organization to bring together students from the field of religious education into a cooperative spirit with the national organization for fellowship, counsel, inspiration, discovery, discussion, interpretation of trends, and the encouragement of sound educational practices.

Southeastern Women's Fellowship is an organization for student wives and women students. It seeks to respond to specific needs of seminary women through special events, family recreation, missions awareness, personal growth opportunities and preparation for ministry.

State Organizations are composed of students from the same state, promote fellowship and provide a setting for sharing mutual concerns and interests. They include: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

World Missions Fellowship seeks to heighten the awareness of the need for missions through prayer, fellowship and opportunities to confront issues related to personal and corporate missions commitment.

Opportunities in Music

Seminary Choir rehearses on Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. Many couples make this choir a family affair. Spouses are encouraged to sing in this group without audition or fee. The Chapel Choir rehearses two hours per week, and performs weekly in Chapel, singing a wide variety of anthem and cantata literature. The Male Chorale is an auditioned ensemble of 16 men. This ensemble sings for chapel and off-campus events. Private voice and organ lessons are offered at modest fees. An Instrumental Ensemble and Handbell Ensemble offer additional opportunities for musical expression.

Peer Support Groups

Peer groups are an integral part of the orientation of new students to the campus. Groups, led by selected students, provide support and information to facilitate adjustment to seminary life.

Special Days and Lectures

The regular curriculum of the Seminary is enlarged and enriched by guest-lecturers, visiting preachers and special speakers. These sermons, lectures and addresses are given in Binkley Chapel at 10:00 a.m. on designated days and are open to the general public.

The Carver-Barnes Lectures were established in 1961. These lectures, given in the fall semester, honor W.O. Carver (1868-1954), and W. W. Barnes (1883-1960) for their outstanding contributions to theological education. These lectures address the history and the mission of the Church, and are funded in part by the income from a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Fechner of Lee's Summit, Missouri and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee Beaver of Chesterfield, Missouri.

The Theodore F. Adams Lectures on Preaching and the Pastoral Ministry were established in 1976. These lectures, given in the spring semester, honor the contribution to Christian ministry of Theodore F. Adams (1898-1980) who taught at Southeastern Seminary 1968-1978. These lectures are funded from the income on a corpus given by friends of Dr. Adams.

The Page Lectures were established in 1979. These lectures, given in the fall semester, address a variety of subjects of interest to a seminary community. They are funded from the income on a gift of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Page of Plainfield, Indiana.

The Kendrick-Poerschke Lectures in Christian Education were established in 1983. These lectures, in even-numbered years in the spring semester, address the educational dimension of Christian Ministry in the Church. They are funded from the income on a fund begun in 1973 by Robert and Katherine Poerschke of Wake Forest, North Carolina, to honor their parents, Mary Kemnitz and Ernst Johann Poerschke, and Martha Bryant and John Wesley Kendrick.

Spring Lectures alternating with the Kendrick-Poerschke Lectures, bring scholars to the campus to lecture on a variety of subjects relating to theology and the practice of ministry.

Commencements Prominent speakers participate in both the winter and spring commencements.

Convocations The fall convocation address is usually given by the President, and the spring convocation address is delivered by a faculty member.

Faculty Lectures Each fall and spring a member of the seminary's faculty gives a public lecture.

Founders' Day is observed each March during the spring meeting of the Board of Trustees, with an address by a prominent denominational leader.

Missionary Day is observed twice annually, emphasizing missions through home and foreign missionaries and other persons who address and meet with students.

Conferences

Esther Jillson Adams Seminars were established to provide special programs, seminars and enrichment events each year in order to emphasize the role of student ministers' wives and to encourage their personal spiritual growth. These seminars are planned and directed by the Southeastern Seminary Women's Club, Southeastern Women's Fellowship, and the Dean of Students.

Chaplains' Conference is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and is open to military, institutional and industrial chaplains and those interested in these areas of service.

The Pastors' Seminar is held in conjunction with the Theodore F. Adams Lectures and affords alumni and other friends a week of study, fellowship and recreation. It is planned and conducted by the Alumni Association.

The Spring Conference is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Activities are planned and directed by a student steering committee in consultation with a professor of Christian Education and are open to all members of the Seminary family and visitors.

In addition, special conferences on campus will be available both to members of the Seminary community as well as to members of local churches. The Lewis Addison Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies sponsors special conferences, and the Seminary's Continuing Education program also sponsors events open to the Seminary community.

Publications

NewsLine is a weekly circular announcing campus activities and events and is published by the Office of Communication for campus distribution.

Catalog is a special issue of the Southeastern Seminary Bulletin which contains information on the educational policies and programs of the Seminary. It is published by the Office of Communication and is available upon request from the Registrar.

The Directory is a pictorial handbook of students, faculty members and administrative personnel, with addresses, phone numbers and other biographical information. It is a publication of the Office of Communication.

Enquiry is a student newspaper, published by students for the Seminary family. Issues are published approximately once every four weeks and are distributed throughout the campus.

Faith and Mission is a scholarly journal of the faculty published twice a year. As an aid to persons engaged in Christian ministry, the journal features articles dealing with current theological and biblical issues as well as book reviews related to the field of Christian thought and practice.

International Student Handbook is published annually by the Dean of Students Office to assist international students in their orientation and adjustment to American culture and in maintaining their visa status.

Student Handbook, a publication of the Dean of Students Office, is designed primarily for the benefit of entering students and contains information pertinent for their orientation.

Outlook (Southeastern Seminary Bulletin) is a quarterly, general interest magazine, published by the Office of Communication. Upon request, copies are sent gratis to alumni, trustees and other friends of the Seminary.

Academic Policies and Procedures

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary offers eight degree programs: Associate of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian Education, Master of Arts in Church Music, Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity with Christian Education, Master of Divinity with Church Music, Master of Theology, and Doctor of Ministry. Descriptions of these programs of study and a summary of academic policies appear on the following pages.

Doctrinal Guidelines

Since its founding in 1950, each elected member of the faculty at Southeastern Seminary has subscribed to and publicly signed the Seminary Articles of Faith (known as The Abstract of Principles) at the beginning of his or her teaching career at the Seminary. Southeastern is also guided doctrinally by the Baptist Faith and Message Statement adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963.

Academic Regulations

The Dean of the Faculty administers the academic policies and procedures of the Seminary. These academic regulations are established by the Faculty of the Seminary under the authority of the Board of Trustees. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary reserves the right to make changes in academic policies and requirements as needed. Questions concerning the current status of all academic matters should be addressed to the Registrar, who serves as the Assistant to the Dean. Generally speaking, students will follow the degree requirements as outlined in the catalog under which they entered the Seminary. Students may take advantage of any improvements that appear in later catalogs while they are enrolled. A student who withdraws from enrollment for two academic years will reenter under the catalog current at that time.

Changes in Registration

After registration, any changes in a student's enrollment must be arranged through the Registrar's Office. No changes are permitted in enrollment or academic status after stated deadlines except by permission of the Dean of the Faculty.

Attendance

Class attendance is considered an important part of the learning process. Regular class attendance is expected and students are responsible for the mastery of materials required for credit.

Use of Tape Recorders in Class

Recording a teacher's lecture or conversation without expressed written permission is prohibited and constitutes grounds for disciplinary procedures. Students desiring to record class lectures should seek this permission in advance. Professors often state their policy on this matter during the introductory sessions of the class.

Inclement Weather

When the public schools of Wake County are closed because of dangerous weather conditions (ice, snow, major storms), seminary classes will not meet. If Wake County Schools close early or open late, seminary classes will close or open on a similar schedule. An absence from class due to dangerous road conditions due to weather will be an excused absence. The inclement weather policies regarding the closing of seminary classes and/or offices will not apply to the Ruby Reid Child Care Center. The Ruby Reid Child Care Center will be open for the children at all times as stated in their official schedules.

Student Records

Southeastern has established certain guidelines for maintaining and granting access to student records in keeping with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Personal records, including transcripts, are not released or shown to any outside party except by the written consent of the student. Southeastern maintains in a permanent file the student's application, health records, church endorsements, transcripts, and personal and academic records that may be accumulated during student days, including a notice of any official disciplinary action that may be taken against the student. Access to these files by Seminary personnel is allowed under the supervision of the Vice President for Academic Affairs on a need to know basis for honors evaluation, routine processing, academic concerns, and to fulfill necessary administrative tasks. Student records are otherwise held in confidence.

A student has the right, with administrative staff present, to view records kept in his or her permanent file but is not allowed to alter them in any way except by the addition of written and signed correctives. Failure to provide truthful and/or accurate information on applications, church endorsements, or on other permanent records provided by the student may be grounds for dismissal.

Directory information published by the Seminary is in the public domain. Questions regarding directory information should be directed to the Office of Communication. Questions regarding permanent student records should be directed to the Registrar.

Academic Load

An academic load of 15 hours per semester enables the M.Div., M.Div./C.E. or M.Div./C.M. degrees to be earned in 6 semesters and the Associate of Divinity degree to be earned in 4 semesters. The M.A./C.E. and M.A./C.M. degrees call for an average of 16 hours per semester to earn the degree in 4 semesters. Students are expected to give priority to the program of study in which they have enrolled. Extracurricular responsibilities require a corresponding reduction in the student's academic load. The Faculty recommends that a student employed in church work for as many as two weeks per month on a regular basis, or who works for as many as 20 hours per week, should not register for more than 12 credit hours per semester.

The Faculty has set the maximum academic load as 16 semester hours. Necessary exceptions may be approved by the Dean of the Faculty but are discouraged.

In order to be eligible for residence in seminary housing, students must enroll for a minimum of 10 semester hours. Enrollment is not required in the Summer Terms, but all students are strongly urged to take Summer courses in order to reduce their required academic load during the regular semesters.

The M.Div. degree is normally an intensive three-year program of study for a full time student.

Student Classification

A Senior is a student who has completed all but 30 semester hours of work for the degree for which he or she is enrolled. A Junior is a student who has earned fewer than 30 semester hours. A Middler is an M.Div. student who falls in between the other two classifications.

Bypassing Required Courses

Academically qualified students may bypass required courses upon examination according to seminary policies. An entering student, who has made grades of "C" or above in college or university courses which closely parallel the required courses in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Ethics, Greek or Hebrew, may request permission to bypass those required courses and fulfill the requirements by completion of an equivalent number of semester hours in advanced courses in the same area. Such requests must be made to the Registrar in writing no later than ten days prior to the dates indicated for matriculation in the Academic Calendar. Arrangements for examination by appropriate faculty members are made by the Registrar. Similarly, college or university courses paralleling certain elective courses in the M.Div., M.Div./C.E., M.Div./C.M., M.A./C.E. or M.A./C.M. curriculums may qualify as prerequisites to advanced courses in the same area of study. In such cases, students are advised to consult with the professors involved. Such bypass examinations must be requested and taken at the beginning of the student's first semester in his or her first year of study.

Advanced Standing

Entering students who claim unusual proficiency in studies in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Ethics, Greek, or Hebrew may take examinations to determine Advanced Standing in these areas. Such Advanced Standing examinations must be requested and taken at the beginning of the student's first semester in his or her first year of study. Requests must be made to the Registrar, in writing, at least ten days prior to the dates indicated in the Academic Calendar for examinations for Advanced Standing. Performance of superior quality on an Advanced Standing examination qualifies the student to bypass and receive credit for the corresponding required course or elementary biblical language course upon the successful completion of at least four semester hours in advanced courses in the same area. Performance deemed satisfactory but not superior on an Advanced Standing examination qualifies the student to bypass the corresponding course. Bypass and Advanced Standing examinations will be scheduled during matriculation.

Transfer of Credits in Master's Programs

Credits earned at other schools may be applied toward degree programs at Southeastern, subject to certain conditions: the credits must be of a comparable graduate level, in a subject appropriate to the student's degree program at Southeastern, and awarded by an accredited school. Other restrictions also apply.

Students transferring credits to Southeastern Seminary must maintain a "C" average on courses taken at Southeastern Seminary in order to graduate. (Th.M. and D. Min. students must maintain a "B" average.)

Persons seeking to transfer to Southeastern must make application through the normal channels of admission. Southeastern's Registrar upon request evaluates the official transcript and informs the student of the credit that will be transferred.

Transfer students in the Master's programs must take a minimum of 26 hours on the main campus in Wake Forest in order to graduate from Southeastern. Not more than 12 of these hours may be taken in Summer Practicums, individualized studies, and similar special classes. Details of all transfer policies are available from the Registrar.

Academic Probation

Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average (one grade point per semester hour) will be placed on Academic Restriction. Students on Academic Restriction will be limited to no more than ten semester hours in the succeeding semester. If the student on Academic Restriction fails to achieve a "C" average during the semester, the student will be placed on Academic Probation. A student on Academic Probation must earn at least a "C" average during that semester or that student will be suspended from the Seminary. Students who have been suspended for academic reasons will not be considered for readmission until at least one full semester has passed and the student gives adequate evidence of having made changes in his or her situation so as to justify readmission. Students readmitted after academic suspension will automatically be on Academic Probation during the first semester.

Evaluation and Grading

The critical assessment of mastery in a given subject is an important ingredient in learning. The following table presents the meaning of grading symbols as they are employed at Southeastern.

Grading Symbols

- A - The "A" grade is interpreted to mean that the instructor recognizes exceptional capacities and exceptional performance.
- B - The "B" grade signifies that the student has demonstrated a significantly more effective command of the material than is generally required in that course.
- C - The "C" grade is the instructor's certification that the student has demonstrated the required mastery of the material.
- D - The "D" grade signifies that the student's grasp of the course is minimal, but the instructor believes the student would not profit materially by repeating the course.
- F - The "F" grade indicates failure to master the essentials and the necessity for repeating the course before credit may be allowed.
- I - Incomplete. In extraordinary circumstances, which prevent a student from completing the requirements of a course on time, the instructor will assign the letter "I". The student must complete the work of that course as quickly as possible and, in no case, later than the end of the eighth week following the end of the course. If the grades on incomplete work have not been submitted to the Registrar by ten weeks after the end of the course, the Registrar is instructed by the faculty to record the grade of "F" and to notify the teacher.
- E - Conditioned. The professor may give this grade in continuing courses to a student who has not met the minimum requirements but shows promise of sufficient improvement in the second semester to be given a permanent grade of "D". A grade not less than "C" must be earned the following semester; otherwise, the grade of "E" becomes "F".
- W - In exceptional cases of authorized withdrawal after the drop deadline, if the instructor has no data for evaluation, the grade of "W" will be submitted. Otherwise, the faculty member will be requested to submit a grade of "WP" (withdrew passing) or "WF" (withdrew failing)

depending on the student's status at the time of withdrawal. (See Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing from Courses.)

Quality Points

Quality points are awarded on the following basis: One point is awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "C". Two points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "B". Three points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "A". No points are given for the grades "D" and "F".

Progress Reports

Records of progress are maintained by the Seminary on all students. Progress reports consisting of class grades for the semester and overall quality points averages are furnished to students after the end of each scheduled school term.

Other Study Opportunities

While enrolled at Southeastern in the M.Div., M.Div./C.E., M.Div./C.M., M.A./C.E., and M.A./C.M. programs, students may elect to do a maximum of 12 semester hours of master's level work in categories such as social work, drama, journalism, or music in an accredited university or college upon the recommendation of a faculty member and subject to the approval of the Dean of the Faculty prior to enrollment in the courses.

On Campus Requirements

All A.Div., M.Div., M.A./C.E., and M.A./C.M. students must complete at least 26 hours on the main campus in Wake Forest in order to graduate with an SEBTS degree. Transfer students or those enrolled in off-campus programs who have only 30 or less on-campus hours must take their last 26 hours on the main Wake Forest campus.

Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing from Courses

Altering a course load by adding or dropping courses prior to the deadlines is a formal procedure initiated in the Registrar's Office. The last date for adding classes is one week after the beginning of a semester. The last date for dropping courses without academic penalty is three weeks after the beginning of a semester. See the Academic Calendar for these dates. A fee is charged for each course dropped or added. See the Schedule of Fees.

Because a generous "Drop Period" is provided during which students can evaluate their work load and other circumstances and withdraw from any course without academic penalty, permission to withdraw from a course after the deadline stated in the Academic Calendar may be granted only by the Dean of the Faculty and only under extraordinary circumstances. An application form for permission to withdraw is available in the office of the Dean of the Faculty. This application requires a personal conference with the professor before it can be considered by the Dean. After the deadline, drops are not allowed unless external circumstances that were not present prior to the "Drop Deadline" and are completely beyond the control of the student occur that prevent class attendance and/or completion of class assignments. Poor grades, heavy work load, church responsibilities, or other personal and/or family difficulties are not accepted as reasons for withdrawal from a class after the calendar deadline. Students who cannot complete their class work due to hardship should consider the option of receiving the grade "I" or in extreme cases applying for withdrawal from enrollment rather than from an individual course. Withdrawal from enrollment is initiated in the Registrar's office and must be done in person, if at all possible. Successful withdrawal from enrollment establishes an appropriate file that permits readmission (see below). In all cases, the instructor will determine whether the grade W, WP or WF is applicable and will submit this grade to the Registrar at the end of the semester.

Withdrawal from Enrollment

In order to withdraw from enrollment, students must consult the Registrar's office, confer with the Dean of the Faculty, obtain certain required signatures, surrender identification cards, return all materials on loan to the Library, and clear their accounts with the Business Office. A withdrawal procedure form is available in the Registrar's office.

Students who have not completed requirements for a degree and who do not plan to enroll for the following term are required to withdraw from enrollment through the withdrawal procedure initiated in the Registrar's office. Students who follow the approved procedure for withdrawal will have their admission status maintained for one year and may register for classes during any regular registration period during that year. If a student does not register for courses during the year following official withdrawal, he or she will be required to apply for readmission through the Registrar's office. After two years from the date of withdrawal, students are required to reapply through the Admissions Office.

Honors Program-Master of Divinity Degree

The aim of the Honors Program is to stimulate the intellectual growth of students by providing an opportunity for creative study and reflection.

Students who have demonstrated academic excellence by maintaining a 2.0 average on at least 30 semester hours of work with no grade below "C" and have completed at least six hours of Greek and Hebrew study are eligible to elect the Honors Program.

Students who have completed only one of the Biblical languages are eligible to enter the Honors Program on the condition that they enroll in the second Biblical language upon entering the Honors Program and receive credit for six semester hours in that language during the first year in the Honors Program.

Students in the Honors Program are eligible to enroll in B 0074, H 0074, T 0074, and M 0074. These courses, offered for four (4) semester hours each, are available in each area of the curriculum each semester. A person in the Honors Program is eligible to elect one such course per semester for a total of 16 semester hours in Independent Reading and Research.

In order to remain in the Honors Program, the student must maintain a 2.0 average each semester, with no grade below "C".

Eligible students who desire to participate in the Honors Program must state their intention in writing to the office of the Registrar prior to the beginning of the semester in which they desire to enter the Honors Program.

Graduation

It is the responsibility of the student to check his or her record in the Registrar's Office to determine if qualifications for graduation have been accomplished or can be scheduled. This degree check should be made no later than the pre-registration period for the semester prior to the semester in which graduation is planned. This will allow the student two full semesters to complete courses required for graduation in a specific degree program. Students who qualify to graduate must complete a Graduation Application in the Registrar's Office no later than the first month of their last semester.

Students are required to be present at graduation exercises in order to receive their diplomas. They are excused from attendance only by written permission of the Dean of the Faculty. Written requests specifying the unusual circumstances leading to such a request to graduate in absentia must be submitted by the student to the Dean's Office no later than three weeks prior to the date on which they are scheduled to graduate.

Summer School

During the June Term and the July Term, the maximum course load is four (4) semester hours each term. Students planning to enter Southeastern Seminary for the first time in the Summer should submit their completed applications no later than 30 days prior to the beginning of the term. For further information write the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Seminary, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27588-1889.

Short Term Courses

Courses may be offered in May or January or August in short-term sessions. Students may enroll in only one course during each short-term.

Formation in Ministry

All students attending Southeastern Seminary will have the opportunity of performing ministry under the guidance of a trained supervisor. Many students will engage in paid ministry work while pursuing their studies. Students and graduates receive placement assistance through the Formation in Ministry Office.

Formation in Ministry is the designation of a program designed to foster the growth of students through the practical application of ministry concepts and skills. The Formation in Ministry program is pursued within the framework of two components: Supervised Ministries and Student/Field Ministries. The component of Supervised Ministries provides field settings and supervisors for students taking the basic course, M 4700 Supervised Ministry, M 4720 Concurrent Internship, and M 4730 Intern Year Away. Student/Field Ministries provides administrative support for the total program and continues to assist students, graduates, churches and institutions in filling positions for ministry.

Faith And Mission

Southeastern's faculty produces Faith And Mission, a biannual theological journal that concentrates on the application of Christian faith to Christian missions and ministry. Though the editorial board is made up exclusively of Seminary faculty members, the journal often publishes articles written by significant scholars and Christian leaders from around the world.

For subscriptions, contact: Faith And Mission,

Off-Campus Programs

The Seminary offers some courses for credit off-campus. Details about times and locations are available from the Seminary Registrar. Students who have only 30 or less on-campus hours must take their last 26 hours on the main Wake Forest campus in order to graduate from Southeastern. These required on-campus hours may not be taken in courses such as CPE, Intern Year Away, and similar special courses that do not primarily involve main-campus work. (Students may take these courses for credit, but these hours do not count as part of the required 26 on-campus hours.)

Fletcher Professorship of Missions

Since 1979 the A.J. Fletcher Foundation of Raleigh, North Carolina has sponsored an annual professorship of missions in honor of James Floyd Fletcher, a pioneer in the field of home missions work. The generous support from the Foundation has allowed the Seminary to supplement its world-wide mission emphasis by bringing active, furloughing, or recently retired missionaries or mission board employees to the campus for short term and/or full semester classroom settings. Courses offered are in the field of missions and count as regular elective credit in the various academic degree programs of the seminary. While internationally based missionaries are highlighted occasionally, the emphasis of the Fletcher program is on home mission work. Missionary administrators and strategists, ethnic leaders, area directors of missions, and field workers in social and evangelistic ministries have been an added dimension to campus life through this program. Students are able to interact with those who have hands-on experience in mission work. Special on-campus mission emphases are also encouraged and supported through this program. Materials giving more details of the program including biographical information on the Reverend James Floyd Fletcher, "the Mountain Missionary," and his wife, Louisa Barker Fletcher, are available through the office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The Lewis Addison Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies

The Center for Great Commission Studies was inaugurated in a special convocation service April 14, 1991. The center seeks to train those interested in Evangelism, Cross-Cultural Missions, Church Growth, Church Planting and Spiritual Awakening. The Center focuses on the study of the theology and methods by which Christians intentionally spread their faith. It functions within the existing programs and publicly stated purpose of the Seminary. In March of 1992, the Board of Trustees voted to change the name of the Center to The Lewis Addison Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies, in honor of the fourth President of the Seminary.

The Center is assigned six primary tasks:

1. To strengthen the teaching of missions and evangelism.
2. To promote academic and field-based research into missions and evangelism.
3. To equip men and women for specialized ministries in missions and evangelism.
4. To provide continuing education in missions and evangelism for seminary graduates.
5. To offer specialized conferences and study opportunities in missions and evangelism for congregational leaders.
6. To involve faculty and students in special off-campus endeavors in missions and evangelism.

Seminary Extension Department

Southeastern and the other five seminaries of the SBC participate in the joint sponsorship of the Seminary Extension Department. This agency offers a wide selection of certificate and diploma courses through off-campus centers, home study and Extension Centers. Credits received in this program do not transfer into degree programs at Southeastern. For further information write to Seminary Extension Department, 901 Commerce, #601, Nashville, Tennessee 37203-3697.

Degree Programs

Associate of Divinity

Many men and women who are 30 years of age or more and who have not completed the college work that is a prerequisite for the Seminary's Master of Divinity Program are nevertheless called by God into full-time Christian service. Sometimes this divine calling comes to an individual after a career in the military or in some other profession. A balanced program of study in the biblical, historical, theological, and ministry areas is offered to these students at the beginning college level and leads to the Associate of Divinity degree.

The purpose of this special program is to equip these students with basic knowledge, skills, and attitudes which will enable them to serve effectively as pastors, bi-vocational ministers, or in other forms of ministry. The curriculum recognizes the student's maturity and previous work experience.

The Associate of Divinity curriculum is composed of courses similar to those in the Master of Divinity curriculum but the course requirements may be different. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time attendance for persons entering in the Fall. The nature of the Associate of Divinity program requires new students to begin in a fall semester (or in the summer term).

Professor Delos Miles serves as the Director of the Associate of Divinity Program.

Entrance Requirements

Admission to the Associate of Divinity program is limited to persons who have completed high school or its equivalency as evidenced by scores on the G.E.D. test. Students must be 30 years of age or older. An exception to the age requirement may be granted in the case of applicants who are the spouses of students enrolled in a degree program of the Seminary. Other general admission requirements also apply.

Instruction in the use of the library is required of all entering students during their initial semester unless they have a transcript on file in the Registry indicating completion (with a grade of "C" or better) of at least two semesters of freshman English Composition. An English examination must be taken during orientation to determine whether or not a student will be required to take a course in English usage. Where such need is shown, the course will be taken during the student's first fall semester. This three-hour course, "AM 4109 English Composition," is open to all A.Div. students who desire to improve their skills in this field, but the course is not applicable toward the 56 hours required for graduation. It will offer practical ideas to help students improve as writers by focusing on sentence, paragraph and research paper construction. Subjects will include grammar, punctuation, sentence mechanics and the larger elements of writing a composition.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Associate of Divinity, the student must complete the non-credit library workshop and earn 56 hours of credit, including 32 hours of foundational level courses. The student must maintain a minimum cumulative quality point average of "C" (1.0) in order to graduate from Southeastern.

All requirements for Foundational Studies for the Master of Divinity program are required for the A.Div. degree. The Vocational and Elective Studies, however, are different.

Vocational and Elective Studies24 hours

If their schedule permits, Associate of Divinity students are encouraged to take at least one of their elective courses in each of the six functions of ministry:

(1) Communication, (2) Leadership/Administration, (3) Education, (4) Worship, (5) Missions/Evangelism and (6) Self Understanding and Interpersonal Competence. This is not a requirement for graduation but is highly recommended.

Master of Arts in Christian Education

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Arts in Christian Education, is to equip persons for service in Christian education and related ministries, usually in a local church. The program is designed to be completed within two academic years, beginning with a fall semester, and consists of 64 semester hours of courses. Students must complete the 32 semester hours of foundational level studies, the 24 semester hours of Christian education courses as prescribed, and 8 hours of properly distributed electives.

Candidates for the M.A./C.E. degree are required to consult with a Christian Education faculty member in planning their programs of study in order to accomplish the objectives of the program within two years.

Entrance Requirements

Admission to this program is limited to persons holding a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent who also meet all other admission requirements for the Seminary.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Master of Arts in Christian Education, the student must earn 64 semester hours of credit, with a cumulative average of "C". Not more than seven additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.A./C.E. degree.

All requirements for Foundational Studies for the Master of Divinity program are required for the M.A./C.E. degree. The Vocational and Elective requirements, however, are different.

Foundational Studies 32 hours

Vocational and Elective Studies 32 hours

Required Vocational Studies 24 hours

All M.A./C.E. candidates are required to take 24 hours of specialized Christian education courses as prescribed for the M.Div. with Christian Education degree.

Elective Distribution Requirement

All M.A./C.E. students must take a minimum of two semester hours in each area (B, H, T) beyond the requirements in the foundational level studies.

Total 64 hours

Student curriculum is designed to offer a great deal of flexibility so that students will be fully prepared to meet their future.

Master of Arts in Church Music

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Arts in Church Music, is to equip persons for the ministry of music, usually in a local church. The program is designed to be completed within two academic years, beginning with a fall semester, and consists of 64 semester hours of courses. Students must complete the 32 semester hours of foundational level studies and 32 semester hours of church music courses as described below.

Candidates for the M.A./C.M. degree are required to consult with a Church Music faculty member in planning their programs of study in order to accomplish the objectives of the program within two years.

Entrance Requirements

Admission to this program is limited to persons who have earned a Bachelor of Music degree, or a Bachelor of Arts degree with music major, or a Bachelor of Music Education degree who also meet all other requirements for admission to the Seminary.

Degree Requirements

At the time of admission, the student's proficiency in music will be evaluated by the faculty for the purpose of designing an individualized program of study. As a part of applied study in voice/organ each student will present a recital. Voice majors are expected to complete a proficiency keyboard requirement; organ majors are expected to complete a proficiency requirement in voice. Specific information about the recital and proficiency requirements are available in the "Handbook for Church Music Students" issued during orientation.

All requirements for Foundational Studies for the Master of Divinity program are required for the M.A./C.M. degree. The Vocational and Elective requirements, however, are different.

Master of Divinity

The Master of Divinity program is designed to equip persons for leadership in Christian ministry. The program may be completed within three academic years of full-time attendance. It consists of foundational studies, and vocational and elective studies. The purpose of the program is to assure an adequate understanding of Scripture, theology and the Christian tradition for the practice of Christian ministry, while at the same time providing some latitude for the pursuit of specialized competencies required in various settings.

Most students coming to the Seminary elect the Master of Divinity program as their first graduate professional degree. The flexibility of this program allows students to design programs which are tailored to specific vocational goals. Within this framework two specific concentrations are recognized by degree title and course requirements: the M.Div. with Christian Education and the M.Div. with Church Music.

Entrance Requirements

Admission to this program is limited to persons holding a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent who also meet all other admission requirements for the Seminary.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the Master of Divinity degree, the student must earn 88 semester hours of credit including 32 hours of Foundational Studies. At least one elective course in each of the six functions of ministry are required as Vocational Elective studies. Students must distribute other elective courses among the Biblical, Historical, Theological, and Ministry areas (herein referred to as B, H, T, and M areas), taking at least six semester hours in each.

Total hours - M.Div.88 hours

In order to graduate, students must maintain a cumulative quality point average of 1.0 (corresponding to a grade of "C") on all work taken. Not more than ten additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.Div. degree.

The notation, "with languages," will appear on the M.Div. diplomas of those students who have received credit for six semester hours each of Hebrew and Greek. Students who bypass B 1100-1101 or B 1400-1401 or both without receiving credit will be required to complete six semester hours of advanced language courses for each bypass with a minimum grade of "C" in order to qualify under this provision.

Curriculum Design

The curriculum is based on a model of theological education that seeks to cultivate each student's gifts and to assist the student in preparation for using these gifts in ministry.

Foundational courses should be completed during the first two years of seminary studies. Students should begin course work in the biblical languages during the first year if they intend to complete a full program of language study. Normally, first year students take at least one of the two required biblical Introductions and the General Church History course. Second year students should take Systematic Theology and Christian Ethics. Other Foundational, Vocational and Elective studies are taken to fill out a normal 15 hour class load each semester. A Summer School is also offered to help students finish their degree plan within three academic years. Students engaged in employment of 20 or more hours per week are advised to take 12 or fewer hours each semester so as to be able to devote adequate attention to the academic requirements of the program. No student may take more than 16 hours during a single semester without special permission from the Dean of the Faculty and then only under special conditions.

Distribution Requirement

M.Div. students must take a minimum of six hours in each area (B,H,T,M) beyond Foundational requirements, except that students taking an M.Div. concentration in Christian Education and in Church Music must take a minimum of two hours in each area. All courses beyond the foundational level apply toward this requirement.

Specialization

The curriculum model enables the student to follow a course of study with specialization in a particular vocational direction. Those students desiring the M. Div. with Christian Education and the M.Div. with Church Music must take the courses of study outlined below. Students preparing for another vocational direction should consult a faculty member.

Master of Theology

The purpose of the Master of Theology program is to provide the student with an opportunity for guided research in a special area of theological study. Professor George Braswell serves as the Director of the Graduate Studies program.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of accredited colleges and universities who have also earned the M.Div. degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Master of Theology degree.

Admission to this program requires facility with two foreign languages, at least one of which must be a Biblical language: Greek or Hebrew. Upon the recommendation of the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies and with the approval of the faculty, another major language may be substituted for either Hebrew or Greek. Students majoring in the Biblical area, however, must have both Greek and Hebrew.

Facility in the languages is determined by the major professor prior to admission. Satisfaction of one of the language requirements can be achieved concurrently with the student's first year of course work in the Th.M. program upon the request of the major professor and with the approval of the Committee on Graduate Studies and the Faculty.

Applications for admission to the Th.M. program must be made at least 60 days prior to matriculation and all application materials required by the Seminary's general Admission Procedures must be included.

Decisions on admission to the program are made by the faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Graduate Studies. The committee's recommendation to the faculty will reflect a composite evaluation based on the following guidelines:

1. A grade point average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale on all M.Div. level work. Transcripts from all theological schools the applicant has attended must be submitted.
2. Quality of preparation for advanced study in the area desired. This may include course work, language preparation and personal experience.
3. Written recommendations from three professors attesting to the ability of the student to do Th.M. work in the area chosen.
4. An M.Div. level research paper that demonstrates the ability of the student to do scholarly research and writing.
5. A satisfactory score (66th percentile) on the Cooperative English Test (CET). In regard to an applicant for whom English is a second language, a demonstrated proficiency in spoken English is required (as attested by means of letters of recommendation or personal interview).

6. A satisfactory evaluation on a personal interview with the applicant if the Committee deems such to be necessary.

Students in the Th.M. program major in one of the four curriculum areas (B, H, T, M) under the guidance of a professor in that area. This person is designated the student's major professor. Prior to the submission of an application for admission to the program, the student should obtain the consent of the professor with whom the student would like to work and include an indication of this agreement on the application.

Candidates for the Th.M. degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment until the degree is completed. Fees will be charged each semester including those semesters during which the research and writing of the thesis takes place.

Degree Requirements

The degree of Master of Theology is awarded for the fulfillment of the following requirements:

- 1. Courses and Seminars: A candidate must complete at least 20 semester hours of study chosen from advanced courses and seminars, with a minimum of 40 quality points earned on these 20 hours (a "B" average). No additional hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points. A maximum of four (4) hours may be transferred from graduate courses at other institutions taken concurrently with or within one year of enrollment in the Th.M. program. Approval of transfer credits must be made by both the Dean and major professor.
- 2. Major Area: A candidate will select a major area of study in which not less than 12 semester hours must be completed, including at least eight semester hours in seminars conducted on a research basis and open only to Th.M. and D.Min. students.
- 3. Other Area(s): Eight semester hours must be taken from the areas not elected as major.
- 4. Thesis: The candidate must prepare a thesis on a subject within the major area of study. The subject of the thesis and the plan of research must be approved by the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies. Two copies of the Th.M. thesis must be submitted to the candidate's major professor at least forty-five (45) days before the candidate expects to receive the degree. The copies, in final form, must be in the library for binding 15 days prior to graduation.

5. Oral Examination: Upon completion of the thesis, the candidate's work will be evaluated by an Examining Committee composed of the major professor and at least two additional professors within the candidate's major area or with whom the candidate has studied in the Th.M. program. In this exam, the candidate will be expected to defend the thesis and to demonstrate competence on the work done in the major area. Final approval of the work will be determined by a majority of the committee.

6. Time Deadlines: Prospective Th.M. students should apply for admission to the Th.M. program requesting to commence work at the beginning of either the fall semester, the spring semester, or summer school. For convenience in record keeping these dates will be calculated as September 1, January 1, and June 1. All work on the degree must be completed within two years of this admission date unless an extension is granted by the faculty. Missionaries under appointment by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board may receive special consideration regarding extensions and the continuous enrollment policy.

Additional Information: All Th.M. students are expected to know and comply with the guidelines contained in the document "Instructions and Requirements for Th.M. Students" available in the office of the Registrar or from the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies.

Doctor of Ministry

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry program is to equip the student for the practice of ministry at a high level of professional competency. The program is complementary to work done for the Master of Divinity degree, the purpose of which is basic preparation for leadership in Christian ministry. It is expected that the level of competence achieved shall be significantly higher for the doctorate than for the Master of Divinity degree. The program provides opportunity for advanced study in interdisciplinary courses, seminars and clinical settings. It combines academic study and experiential learning in an attempt to integrate theology and practice. Professor George Braswell serves as the Director of the Graduate Studies program.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of accredited colleges or universities who have also earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent with distinction and have otherwise demonstrated aptitude for academic work on the doctoral level may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree.

In the judgment of the faculty, the D.Min. program is most effective when candidates bring to it a period of experience in ministry that follows the attainment of the first professional degree. Candidates should have had three years of full-time post-M.Div. ministry prior to beginning the D.Min. program and must be continuously engaged in some type of Christian ministry during enrollment. The program of study required for the D.Min degree will be no fewer than three calendar years.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry program is determined by an evaluation of the applicant's academic ability and potential for excellence in ministry. Decisions on admission to the program are made by the Faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Academic ability is assessed on the basis of transcripts of all college, seminary, and graduate work, and on the basis of performance on the Miller Analogy Test or the Graduate Record Examination (Aptitude Section) and the Cooperative English Test.

Potential for excellence in ministry is assessed on the basis of references from at least three persons acquainted with the applicant's ministry, a critical incident from ministry indicating abilities to work with people effectively and to reflect theologically on ministry, and a personal interview with the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Application to the Doctor of Ministry program must be made at least 60 days prior to the matriculation date on which the applicant wishes to enter.

Applicants must submit either Miller Analogy Test or Graduate Record Examination scores. Persons electing to take the Graduate Record Examination are advised to apply early because additional time may be required in taking the Graduate Record Examination and in processing the scores. The Cooperative English Test is given at the Seminary at the time of the interview, when all the other application materials have been reviewed by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Degree Requirements

Each candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree works with a Supervisory Committee consisting of two members of the faculty, one of whom shall be Chairman of the Committee, and a Field Supervisor. The candidate must present to the Chairman a rationale for the plan of study, the electives, and the Project in Ministry which he or she chooses. In consultation with the two faculty members of the Supervisory Committee, the candidate will submit the name and qualifications of a prospective Field Supervisor for approval by the faculty. Information regarding the selection and the responsibilities of the Field Supervisor is available from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies. The candidate will be required to bear the cost of field supervision by the payment of the fee for field supervision as specified in the Schedule of Fees.

In order to continue in the program and to be awarded the degree, the candidate must maintain an academic average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale. Additional hours beyond those taken to meet the requirements outlined below may not be taken to bring the academic average up to the required level. The Project in Ministry is graded on a pass-fail basis. Candidates for the degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies and approved by the faculty. No more than 4 elective hours may be considered for transfer into this program from other associated D.Min. programs, and this only upon the recommendation of the Director with the approval of the Dean of the Faculty.

Supervised Field Experience and Project in Ministry 6 hours

Supervised Field Experience and Project in Ministry is a specific involvement in the actual practice of ministry in which the student seeks to develop his or her own personhood and skills as a minister through professional practice and theological reflection within the context of the response of the Christian church to human need.

The candidate will be responsible for specifying a ministry upon which his or her program shall be focused and for the development of a Project in Ministry in which he or she will be engaged while a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree. The project proposal and the plan for implementing it must be approved by the members of the Supervisory Committee. The candidate will consult with the Field Supervisor and the other members of the Committee and submit to them regular reports while engaged in the project. The project will culminate in a documented report, and final approval of the report will be determined by a majority of the Committee.

Three copies of the Project in Ministry Report, one of which will be returned to the student, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee at least 45 days prior to the date on which the candidate expects to receive the degree. The two copies to be deposited with the Seminary must include the original typescript and a first carbon, a multilith copy or a Xerox copy of the original, or two multilith or Xerox copies of the original typescript. The copies of the Project Report must be in the library for binding 15 days prior to graduation.

Total 28 hours

Additional information about the Doctor of Ministry program may be obtained from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies or the Director of Admissions.

Southeastern's President, Paige Patterson, addresses students and their families during graduation.

Description of Courses

The courses listed on the following pages appear on the semester schedules with varying frequency. The required courses are offered annually in the Doctor of Ministry, Master of Divinity, and Associate of Divinity programs. The elective courses may be offered annually or on two, three, or four-year cycles. The schedule of courses for the following semester is available in the Registrar's Office in November and April and should be consulted.

The class schedule indicates the number of academic hours credit assigned to the course. Note that the catalog descriptions allow for some courses to be taught on occasion as two, three, or four hour courses. Check the class schedule for credit hours to be assigned in a specific term.

M Area. Studies in Ministry

Individualized Studies

Instructors are permitted to guide a limited number of students in individualized studies in order to provide an opportunity for academically qualified students to explore themes outside the regular curriculum. Students may consult with professors about their interest in individualized study, but the decision regarding the offering of an individualized study lies with the instructor. The specific nature of the study will be determined by the instructor, and a written plan of study will be approved by the instructor and will be filed with the Dean. Individualized study normally requires periodic review sessions with the instructor during the course of the semester. A student may register for only one individualized study during each Fall and/or Spring semester. Required work must be completed during the semester in which the student is enrolled. No more than 12 hours of individualized study credit may be applied toward any degree program.
