SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR B.S.U. PRESIDENTS

MR. HAROLD COLE, Director

In co-operation with the Department of Student Work of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, a program of study is provided for B.S.U. presidents July 4-29, 1960. This program offers an opportunity for B.S.U. presidents to gain a deeper knowledge of the Christian faith and its relevance to the educational enterprise in which they are engaged.

Participants in this program will register through the Seminary's regular registration procedure as special students and not as candidates for a degree.

* Participants in this program will enroll for LT 115s, Introduction to Christian Thought. Enrollment in LT 115s is limited to this group.

In addition to enrollment in LT 115s, the B.S.U. presidents may enroll in LT 205s or CW 159s.

Each Monday definite study in the field of student leadership will be provided. The first Monday, July 4: religious perspectives in higher education; the second Monday, July 11: the history, philosophy, objectives, and organization of B.S.U.; the third Monday, July 18: the meaning, challenge, and resources of Christian leadership; and the fourth Monday, July 25: the context and content of the Christian program on the campus.
