Dear Southeasterner,

Probably you have been to an old time memorial service when they sang "Precious Memories." One of the most precious memories that you will have throughout your ministry is the memory of your fellow students with whom you shared classroom and living experiences during your years here at Southeastern. In addition to that, having the pictures of those of us who are your professors will also be interesting to you and your children across the years. Most of us remember going through books such as this one and pointing out to our children one professor or another and saying this one really helped, this one was terribly difficult, etc.

Therefore, I commend this book to you and urge you to protect it and keep it as a valuable resource for years to come. Periodically I find myself coming across someone who was influential in my college or seminary days. I go back to my "funny book" and find their picture and remind myself of the happy days there.

May God bless you as you walk with your fellow saints of God pictured in this book during this year.

Until He Comes,

Paige Patterson

Dear Southeasterner,

As you scan the pages of this book, you will see many names and faces that are both familiar and unfamiliar. The men and women who are in this book are from numerous and varied backgrounds, yet each brings a unique contribution to the Southeastern family.

The pictures throughout this book are of men and women who have felt the call of God upon their lives and they have responded to that call. Each one is willing to be trained to serve God and glorify Him in whatever capacity and wherever He leads.

Get to know the precious individuals in this book. They are God's people. You will grow to love them, laugh and cry with them, and be challenged and learn from them. They will be life-long friends as a result of this year at Southeastern.

This year at Southeastern will be an especially notable year in the school's history. I believe each of us has been led by God to be here at this particular time. May it be a time of spiritual enhancement and growth and may God bless each of you in your journey.

In the love and service of Jesus Christ,

J. Dudley Davis

Academic Rules and Regulations Digest*

- A "senior" is a student who has completed all but 30 hours of work for the degree for which he or she is enrolled.
- A "middler" is an M.Div. student who has completed all but two years of study (lacking no more than 60 semester hours) for a degree.
- A "junior" is a student who has earned fewer than 30 semester hours. Students should note the dates specified in the Academic Calendar in the seminary catalog regarding drops and/or adds.
- In order to be eligible for residence in seminary housing, students must enroll for a minimum of ten semester hours.
- All changes in courses must be cleared with the Registrar and must be made not later than the dates specified in the Seminary catalog.
- All incompletes must be removed as quickly as possible and in no case later than the dates specified in the Academic Calendar in the seminary catalog. Otherwise the "I" automatically becomes an "F."

This is only a digest. Students are to know and follow all the Academic Rules and Regulations as listed in the seminary catalog.*

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Statement of Purpose

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to prepare God-called men and women for vocational service in Baptist churches and in other Christian ministries throughout the world. This purpose is implemented through programs of spiritual development, theological studies, and practical preparation in ministry.

Statement of Mission

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is an institution of higher learning established and supported by the Southern Baptist Convention in order to "contend earnestly for the faith which was once and for all delivered to the saints." The Seminary maintains an administration and faculty of God-called members whose convictions and calling reflect consistent adherence to the institution's Articles of Faith. The Seminary's administration and faculty are qualified by personal commitment to Christ, by academic preparation, and by personal and professional experience to provide guidance in spiritual, intellectual, and practical endeavors. Through its administration and faculty, the Seminary offers a program of instruction which focuses on three primary areas: (1) spiritual development, (2) theological studies, and (3) practical preparation.

I. Spiritual Development - The Seminary seeks to foster spiritual growth in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ as essential preparation for Christian ministry and service. The foundation for spiritual development is an unqualified commitment in obedience and faith to the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. Spiritual development also requires seeking and following the Holy Spirit's guidance in the formation of Christian thought and character and in the pursuit of one's Christian calling.

II. Theological Studies - The Seminary seeks to prepare men and women for Christian ministry and service by helping them discern, defend, and proclaim God's revealed truth. The Seminary pursues high academic standards in providing courses of study for understanding the Bible and the history, content and contemporary relevance of the Christian faith. The Seminary is committed to the complete veracity, inerrancy, and infallibility of the Bible as an essential foundation for an effective Christian ministry and service.

III. Practical Preparation - The Seminary emphasizes a wholesome, intelligent and intentional evangelism in obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ's commission to make disciples of all nations. Spiritual development in Christlikeness and Bible-based theological studies will produce a compassionate desire to minister to the human suffering caused by individual, social, and spiritual evils. The Seminary program provides practical preparation for a wide variety of Christian ministries, with special focus on proclaiming the Gospel and extending the ministry of the local church.
