DeLoach Leaves Southeastern Board of Trustees

Wake Forest, NC - James R. DeLoach completed nearly ten years of service on the Board of Trustees of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary on March 12, 1991. DeLoach, who received his B.D. from Southeastern in 1959, serves as associate minister of Second Baptist Church in Houston, TX. He began serving as a trustee in 1981 and was reelected in 1986.

DeLoach has distinguished himself as a denominational leader in the Southern Baptist Convention, both on the state and national levels. He made significant contributions to Southeastern during his tenure as trustee and has served most recently as the board's chairman. He was honored by seminary president Dr. Lewis Drummond with an award of appreciation.

DeLoach has served pastorates in his native Alabama as well as in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, South Dakota, and Virginia. He and his wife Doris presently live in Houston.
