NOTICES:

HOME MISSIONS
PRACTICUM:

Those interested in the Practicum on Home Missions (H 319s in catalog), please contact Dr. Braswell for an application. The practicum is offered for 10 weeks in the summer of 1979, giving 8 hours credit. Selected locations will be Los Angeles, California; Seattle, Washington and Washington, D.C. Stipends are provided by the Home Mission Board. Interviews will be held November 16 and 17.

CRISIS NEED:

Alan Moore, first year Southeastern student, and his wife lost most of their possessions in a fire which destroyed their home last Monday. The Student Council has established a temporary aid fund in the Business Office for those who would like to assist this couple in replacing basic necessities. Shelter, food and clothing needs are already being met, but items such as small appliances, basic furniture and other household items are needed. Donations of such articles may be listed with or brought to the Student Affairs office, second floor, Mackie Hall.

TENNIS COURT SCHEDULE CHANGE: After October 29, the tennis courts will resume its regular winter schedule. Supervised hours will not be available, but seminary students or staff members may check out a key for 2 hours (or over the weekend) from the Student Affairs office, Mackie Hall. The supervised schedule will resume in late March, depending on the weather.

AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS: A campus chapter of the American Guild of Organists has recently been organized at Southeastern. Membership is open until October 31; dues for the school year are $3.50. Anyone interested in joining should contact Dr. James Good or Chris Jenkins, president-elect of the group.

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD: Mr. Mel Torstrick from the personnel department of the Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va., will be on campus next Wednesday, October 25 from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. He will be available to talk with students interested in serving with the F.M.B. Sign up for appointments on sheet outside Formation in Ministry offices.

S.B.C. WORLD HUNGER CONVOCATION: The Southern Baptist Convention Convocation on World Hunger will be held on November 20-21. The Student Council plans to send several delegates to this Convocation at Ridgecrest. Delegates will be responsible for communicating to the seminary community the issues which will be discussed at the convocation. Delegates will be selected from students submitting resumes to the Student Council. Resumes must be turned in at the Student Council office, Mackie Hall, by October 27. Place in president's box next to door.

CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION DAY: On Friday, October 27, CPE supervisors from area centers will be on campus. All activities will be in the cafeteria. See the Friday calendar for times and events.

DIRECTORY PHOTOS: Make-up pictures for the 1978-79 Directory will be made October 25 from 9-11 a.m. and 2:30-4:00 p.m. and on October 26 from 11-12 and 2-4 p.m. in Johnson 204. Those who need to have remakes will be notified by phone or mail.

LOTTIE MOON GROUP: The "Moonies" are planning a faculty-student auction for Tuesday, November 14. Make plans to attend this exciting event. There will be a meeting in the cafeteria on Friday, October 27 at 10:00 a.m.

THANKS... ...to all who made it possible for me to go home for my grandfather's funeral. God is so good!
Love y'all,
Janis Mansker

CAMPUS FUN AND COMING EVENTS: (1) On Thursday, October 26, the Student Council Social Committee is sponsoring a Scavenger Hunt. Meet at 8:00 p.m.-Women's Dormitory basement. (2) The Pat Terry Group will be in concert in Raleigh on Friday, November 17 at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $3.00 and may be purchased from Lynn Hamner 556-1638 or Manor basement.

GET INVOLVED-SHARE YOUR TALENTS: Join the Student Council Arts or Social Committee. Contact Joel Williams (Bostwick 33, 556-2951) or Lynn Hamner (Manor basement) or leave your name in the committee boxes outside the Student Council offices, Mackie Hall. Also, if you have a gift-why not share it with others? An opportunity is available. The Arts and Social Committees are co-sponsoring a Coffee House on Thursday, November 9. If interested, contact Joel or Lynn.

COMMONWEALTH CLUB: The Commonwealth Club will hold a bake sale on October 31. All persons from Virginia interested in participating please contact Kevin Dyer (556-9911) or Margaret Tyree (556-3461).

F.O.C.U.S.: There will be a meeting of all students interested in F.O.C.U.S. (Fellowship of Christians United in Service) on Thursday, October 26 from 8:00-9:00 p.m. in the Mackie Commons Room. F.O.C.U.S. has been in existence on our campus for three years and provides opportunities for students to practice professional/ministry skills in a weekend church setting. Come join us and get in on the fun and fellowship.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12:00 noon Wednesday.
