NOTICES:

WOMENS ISSUES IN MINISTRY:

A meeting will be held on Thursday, April 26 at 8:00 p.m. in the Commons Room of Mackie Hall. The program agenda will include the election of moderators and committee chairpersons for next year and the formalization of goals into a constitution.

TENNESSEE STUDENTS:

Dr. William Harbin, Director of Church-Minister Relations of the Tennessee Baptist Convention, will be hosting a banquet for all Tennessee students on Tuesday, April 24 at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. If you plan to attend the banquet, please contact Mike Mayo, 516 Rice Circle, 556-5433. Also, Dr. Harbin will be available on Wednesday to interview students interested in ministry opportunities in Tennessee. Make appointments through Formation in Ministry.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION:

On the occasion of National Secretaries' Week, April 23-27, the administration and faculty acknowledge, with gratitude, the service and contribution of those who serve in this capacity at Southeastern Seminary.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS:

All students are reminded that, effective this fall semester (September, 1979), all accounts must be paid in full prior to registration. Students with account balances over $100.00 will receive special reminders. Recipients of Keesee grants for the 1979-80 school year may defer payment on fall fees until the checks are received.

GUEST RECITAL:

A program of vocal music will be presented in Binkley Chapel, Southeastern Baptist Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina by baritone Paul Richardson at 4:00 P.M., Thursday, April 26. Mr. Richardson is Minister of Music at the Douglass Boulevard Christian Church in Louisville, Kentucky and a doctoral student in church music at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. The program, to be accompanied by James Good, will include music by Bernstein, Mozart, Vaughan Williams, Duparc and Krapf. The event is open to the public without admission charge.

INVITATION TO PARENTS OF TEENAGERS:

President Lolley invites all parents of teenagers in the seminary community to meet with him on Tuesday, April 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bethea Room to share concerns related to teenagers and their families in Wake Forest.

SUMMER WORK:

A number of the requests for summer ministers in churches, camps and other settings are still unfilled. Students are invited to review these openings in the "Summer Opportunities" notebook in the Formation in Ministry reception area as soon as possible. Interested students may apply directly or request that we send information to appropriate persons.

ATHLETIC BANQUET TICKETS:

Students are reminded that Friday, April 27 is the deadline to purchase tickets to the Intramural Sports Banquet on May 3. In addition to a buffet dinner, awards and special recognitions will be made. Johnny Evans, former N.C. State quarterback, will be the guest speaker. Tickets are still available at the Student Affairs office or from David Daly, Steve Cromer or B.J. White.

SPECIAL YOUTH SEMINAR:

The Sunday School Department of the N.C. Baptist State Convention is sponsoring an, "Understanding Youth Seminar," May 18-19. The two-day event, to be held at the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, will provide a comprehensive study of youth as related to mental, social and physical development. Registration forms and conference programs are posted on bulletin boards around campus.
