NOTICES

HOLY LAND STUDY TOUR:

Coleman Holy Land Travel and Study Scholarship applications may now be picked up from Mrs. Maureen McSwain in the Faculty Secretary's Office, Stealey Hall. Students in the M. Div., M.R.E. and A. Div programs who have completed their first year of study are eligible to apply for a Charles S. Coleman Scholarship. Applications are due on Oct 15, and scholarship recipients will be notified on Nov 1. For further information, contact Professor John Durham. (Please Note: We regret the omission of the A. Div program in last week's Campus Bulletin - Student Affairs)

ENQUIRY ARTICLES: Beginning immediately, students, faculty and administration may submit articles to the Enquiry for consideration for inclusion in editions for the 1986-87 school year. Especially solicited are original works including poems, prose, songs and narratives of personal experiences. Please deposit any materials which you wish to forward to the Enquiry at the mailroom in the Ledford Center addressed to the Enquiry through the intra-campus mail system. Persons interested in the possibility of working with the Enquiry staff this school year may also submit their name to the Enquiry.

STUDENT AFFAIRS OFFICE MOVED: The Student Affairs Office has moved from Mackie Hall to the Ledford Center, just off the main entrance lobby.

ESTHER ADAMS SEMINAR The Esther Adams Seminar for Seminary student wives will be a day-long event held on the Southeastern campus on Saturday, October 18th. The seminar is made possible through an endowment given to Southeastern in honor of Esther Jillson Adams. Its purpose is to emphasize the personal growth of the wives of students by providing special programs, seminars or enrichment events each year. Ms. Eunice Holbert, Clinical Pastoral Counselor at the Life Enrichment Center (a community based Pastoral Counseling center for the Raleigh area) and Dr. Robert Dale, professor of Pastoral Leadership and Church Ministries at Southeastern Seminary will be the seminar leaders. "Creative Problem Solving" is the theme of the seminar and Ms. Holbert and Dr. Dale will deal with the subjects, "Conflict and Stress Management" and "Making the Seminary Years a Positive Experience." Registration and a coffee will be in Broyhill Hall at 9:00 A.M. Between the morning and afternoon sessions a picnic lunch will be served. The afternoon session will end at 3:00 P.M. Child care will be available by reservation only. Reservations for the seminar and child care may be made through the Seminary switchboard or by contacting Katherine Poerschke at 556-5638.
