"HARVEST" REHEARSAL:

Rehearsals for the musical, "Harvest" will continue on Tuesday, January 16 at 4:00 p.m. Positions are still available for soloists, narrators and choir members. The musical will be presented on February 23 at the Mission and Ministry Conference.

One-half semester hour credit is being offered for those who wish to continue singing in the cantata choir through the semester.

PAPERS READY:

Papers of students in Professor Hollon's fall semester classes may be picked up at the shelves in front of his office, Stealey 305.

CONFERENCE WORKSHOP: A workshop to plan specifics of the annual Student Conference on Mission and Ministry will be held in the Bethea Room on Saturday, January 20 from 9:00 - 3:30. The morning will be devoted to planning a creative worship service to be followed by a pot-luck lunch. All those interested are invited to come.

TAX DEADLINES: All students residing in Wake County as of January 1 and owning personal property are subject to county and city tax assessments. The deadline for listing personal property is January 31, after which a penalty fee will be added. Students listing personal property for the first time should come to the Wake Forest Town Hall on Brooks Street. A representative from the tax office will be available Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m.- 12 noon and 1:30 - 5:00 p.m. to assist you. Information may be obtained from the Wake County Tax Supervisor at 755-6550.

KEY POLICY CHANGE: Beginning Tuesday, January 16, students who check out keys to use any of the athletic facilities must present their I.D. cards at the Student Affairs Office. I. D.'s will be returned when keys are brought back.

CRISIS COMMUNICATION: In an effort to share matters of concern with the seminary family, Southeastern has been using a Family-Crisis Communication Plan. This involves reporting details to the Switchboard Operator who, in turn, types and distributes these to all major areas on campus. Students who are aware of crisis situations which can be appropriately shared with the seminary family should leave this information at the switchboard or call 556-3101.
