NOTICES:

GRAND OLE GOOD TIME GOSPEL SING SONG: Do you enjoy the rip-roaring, foot-stomping, warm-hearted feeling you get when you sing some of the grand ole gospel songs? If so, come join us at the home of John and Donnie Steely, 327 N. Main St. on February 24 at 8:00 p.m. Refreshments will be provided by the Fellowship Club. All are invited. Bring your rhythm shoes and a strong voice. If you have any of those good ole time gospel song books, bring them.

EXTRA CREDIT PAPERS READY: Students who turned in papers for extra credit in Dr. Albert Meiburg's course, M 181, fall semester, may pick them up in the Dean's office prior to March 1.

CAMPUS HAPPENINGS: Alumni and other guests will be participating in two special programs this week on the Southeastern campus. The Chaplains' Conference, sponsored by the Home Mission Board, will take place February 22-23. Throughout the week, February 22-25, the Thirteenth Annual Pastors' Seminar, sponsored by the Alumni Association, will be held. We welcome these guests to our campus.

ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING:

As a child, were you "seen but not heard" or the opposite, "noisy but not listened to?" Were you a "quiet, well behaved" or perhaps a "loud, misbehaved?" As an adult, do you never "rock the boat?" You may be a non-assertive or an aggressive person who could gain from a course in assertive training. The goal of assertive training is to help a person be open and flexible, genuinely concerned with the rights of others, yet at the same time, able to establish very well his/her own rights. If you are interested in this course, there is still time to join. We're meeting on Tuesdays from 3:00-4:30p.m. in A 218. The sign up sheet is in Dean Meiburg's office.

MINISTERS' WIVES WORKSHOP:

The Life Enrichment Center is offering a 10-session group experience, focusing on the unique needs of women who have married ministers. This is an opportunity for personal growth and self-exploration. It will begin on March 3 and be held on Thursday mornings, 10:00-12:00. Cost: $20.00 for seminary wives. Dr. Richard Hester will be leading the sessions. The group closes after the first session. Call the Life Enrichment Center, 781-2576, for registration.

LITERARY ISSUE MATERIALS:

We have hopes of publishing a full literary magazine through the Enquiry, but very little interest has been shown thus far. Poetry, prose and short stories are needed, and there will be a $5.00 cash award for the material which is judged best in each category. The deadline is noon on March 17. Material can be submitted by giving it to Dave Witt, Don Hall or Steve Sumerel, or by placing it under the Enquiry door.

INTERNSHIP DAY MARCH 1:

On Tuesday, March 1, beginning at 10:30 a.m., field supervisors for Internships in the Washington and Richmond areas will be in the Commons Room of Mackie Hall to talk with interested students.
