

SOUTHEASTERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
Wake Forest, North Carolina

FACULTY LECTURE
Thursday, April 10, 1986
Binkley Chapel
10 a.m.

Prelude Dr. Cynthia Brown, Organist

Invocation Dr. Robert L. Richardson, Jr.
Professor of Supervised Ministry

Presentation of the Faculty Lecturer . . . Professor Richardson

Lecture: "The Inclusiveness of Memory"
Dr. Luke B. Smith
Professor of Supervised Ministry

Benediction Professor Richardson

Postlude Dr. Cynthia Brown

* * * * *

The lecturer on this occasion, Luke B. Smith, Ph.D., is a native of Georgia. Dr. Smith is a graduate of the University of Georgia (B.S.), the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (B.D.), and the University of Edinburgh (Ph.D.). Prior to his election to the faculty of Southeastern Seminary in 1978, Professor Smith taught at Averett College and was pastor of churches in Georgia, Virginia, and South Carolina. Dr. Smith also served the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention as Associate Secretary of the Department of Missionary Personnel.