

Christmas, 1979, was eventful on campus. Seminarians scattered after the last day of classes, December 14.

CHRISTMAS
1979

Faculty and administrators for the most part enjoyed quiet times with family and friends. Special events marking the holidays were the Christmas Choir Concert (Messiah by Handel) on December 4, and the Seminary Christmas Dinner on December 14.

*****

The two consultants (Karl Munson and Patricia Crofts) have completed their study of the seminary

SUPPORT SERVICES CONSULTATION

support services staff and have provided a position classification and pay plan to cover all support services employees. The proposed plan is under review by the Executive Council with the possibility that it will be inaugurated February 1, 1980.

*****

Southeastern Seminary, in cooperation with a number of Wake Forest church and community persons,

INDO-CHINESE REFUGEES

will sponsor an Indo-Chinese refugee family. The assigned family has 13 members and are expected to arrive in Wake Forest by March, 1980.

*****

Claude Stewart, Assistant Professor of Theology, is recovering at home from gall bladder surgery he underwent on December 11.

CLAUDE STEWART

*****

Early in the new year the special campaign will focus on

SPECIAL CAMPAIGN

Winston-Salem and Charlotte, North Carolina. Also, plans are underway for campaigns in Eastern and Western

North Carolina.

*****

Eighty apartments have been completed, inspected, and accepted by the seminary. The final twenty apartments are scheduled for completion before the opening of school on January 15, 1980.

APARTMENT PROJECT

The 100 new two and three bedroom apartments will provide welcome relief for the serious housing crunch at Southeastern.

*****

Over twenty applications have been received and carefully reviewed for seminary Business Manager. The post will be vacated July 31, 1980 upon the retirement of Mr. O. L. Cross. President Lolley is in process of contacting references and interviewing candidates. A recommendation will be made to the Trustees at their March meeting.

BUSINESS MANAGER

*****

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

MEMBER

MEMBER

MEMBER