

update

March, 1983

No. 101

The week of February 7-11 was jammed with alumni and other guests in large numbers on campus for the annual Pastors' Seminar, Adams' Lectures, and SBC Chaplains' Conference. Dr. William Willimon, Greenville, South Carolina, was the lecturer. Dr. Jerry

ALUMNI/
CHAPLAINS' WEEK

Niswonger reports record attendance for several events which marked this significant week.

The State Executives for the 34 SBC state conventions, along with the editors of the SBC state papers, (over 120 persons) were guests on campus for lunch and a brief visit, February 16. Their time at Southeastern was part of the annual meeting of the group, hosted by Dr. Cecil Ray and Dr. Gene Puckett of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and the Biblical Recorder.

STATE
EXECS/EDITORS

The SBC Executive Committee met in Nashville, Tennessee, February 21-23. Among their recommendations to the annual session in June at Pittsburgh are these directly affecting Southeastern Seminary:

SBC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- A $7.5 million SBC Building in Nashville (to house among others, our SEED offices)
- The 1983-84 Cooperative Program Allocation Budget:

Basic Operating Budget ---	$114,500,000
Capital Needs -----	3,340,385
Challenge Budget -----	7,159,615
TOTAL -----	$125,000,000

- Southeastern (1983-84) ----- $3,707,795
- Southeastern Capital Funds (1984-88) --- $2,703,333

The Southeastern Seminary Trustees, along with the Development Council and the Public Relations Council will meet on campus the week of March 13th. Two important planning sessions will mark the meetings. The first, March 14, will be another in the seminary's Long Range Planning process. The other, March 15-16, will be a conference on "The Futures of Protestant Seminaries" sponsored by the Lilly Endowment and the Albans Institute.

TRUSTEES/COUNCILS

