On Thursday, November 8, 1979 at 7:30 p.m.
Kay DeKalb will perform in Binkley Chapel.

Miss DeKalb is a former Miss Alabama and has performed on stage at Opryland, traveled with the Anita Bryant Singers, performed at the 1979 N.C. State Baptist Youth Conference and the 1979 National Royal Ambassador Congress. The entire seminary family is invited.

SPECIAL LECTURE:

All members of the Seminary community and especially those who plan to join the archaeological team next summer, are invited to attend a special lecture in Appleby Chapel at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, November 9. Professor Volkmar Fritz of Mainz, Germany will lecture on the excavation of the Israelite Temple at Arad, a fortress town in the southern Judean highlands. Professor Scoggin and some Southeastern students were on the archaeological team that excavated Arad. The Southeastern team also worked with Professor Fritz at Lachish in 1967. This will be a very interesting, one hour lecture. All members of the Seminary family are welcome.

PRAYER BREAKFASTS:

The Student Council invites you to participate in the prayer breakfast provided for the seminary family every other Wednesday in the cafeteria. We have a guest speaker each time to deliver a short devotional. Come and be a part of this opportunity to share and fellowship with other students and faculty on Wednesday, November 7, at 7:15 a.m. This week, Mr. Mike Wilburn will lead our devotional. Coffee and donuts available for 25¢.
