

May 1962

CALENDAR

CHAPEL SERVICES ARE HELD EACH DAY, TUESDAY THROUGH FRIDAY, AT 10:00

May 1 - In the Little Chapel on Tuesday, May 1, the Drama Committee will present James Broughton's play "The Last Word." This is a controversial play whose disturbing message strikes at the heart of man's pretensions of immortality. The play was first presented as part of a four-play program entitled "Burning Questions" in April, 1958 in San Francisco. Lelia Davenport and John Chappel are featured.

Following the performance, there will be a discussion period and coffee hour in the Bethea Room under the Little Chapel.

2 - Chaplain William R. Steininger, State Hospital, Raleigh, N. C., CHAPEL

8 - THE ANNUAL SPRING CONCERT will be presented by the Seminary Mixed Chorus in the Chapel at 8:00 p.m., and will feature the first presentation in North Carolina of "The Mass of the Holy Spirit." Please come and bring your friends with you.

17 - 2:30-4:30 p.m. President's Reception for Graduates and their families
