

Not sent

SOUTHEASTERN SEMINARY
NEWS BUREAU
Released by Ben C. Fisher
Phone EX 5-3102
Wake Forest, N.C.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
(Special to

WAKE FOREST---Dr. Douglas M. Branch, (center left), general secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, is shown receiving a preview of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary's new $50,000 Reuter organ which will be formally dedicated in a service set for Tuesday, October 20, at 8 p.m. in the Seminary chapel.

Participating in the dedication service will be Dr. S. L. Stealey (center right), president of Southeastern Seminary, who will offer the dedicatory prayer; H. Max Smith (left), organist and artist in residence, who will give the dedication recital; and professor Ben Johnson (right), who will direct ^{special} music by the Seminary choirs.

The organ, which required more than two years for its construction, is a gift from the late Walter M. Williams and his wife Flonie Cooper Williams, of Burlington. At the time of his death, Williams was an active member of the Board of Trustees of Southeastern, and a member of the Executive Committee.

President Stealey has issued an invitation to the public to be present for the ~~organ~~ dedication, urging especially the attendance of all who have an interest in organ music.

###