Churches Are My Three Ge

By JOHN HERNDON

Three women representing as many generations will be baptized at 10 a.m. Sunday by Elders P. R. Worrell and W. F. Worrell, ministers of Montview Primitive Baptist Church on Voss Street about a block north of Mineral Springs School.

(Ministers in the Primitive Baptist denomination are called elders)

To be baptized are Mrs. Ruby Scott, 29, Route 2; her mother, Mrs. Rural Tolbert, 48, Route 2; and Mrs. J. A. Durham, 84, of 5109 Old Rural Hall Road, Mrs. Tolbert's mother.

The baptisms will occur at the intersection of Baux Mountain Road and Pleasant View Drive in the chilly waters of a pool formed by two nearby springs.

The Worrell elders are second cousins.

"We have baptized a number of people in our ministry," said Elder W. F. Worrell, "but this will be our first time to perform the rite for members of three generations at the same ceremony. I think it is quite unusual."
