NOTICES:

THEOLOGICAL GERMAN COURSE:

The last chance to join the class is Wednesday, March 3. The class meets in the Jr. High Room at Wake Forest Baptist Church. Textbooks are now available.

THE INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT WILLIAM RANDALL LOLLEY:

The Inaugural Committee wishes to remind the students and staff of the Inauguration of President Lolley at 10:00 a.m. in Binkley Chapel on Thursday, March 11, 1976. You are cordially invited to participate in the Inauguration of the third President of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Regular classes from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 11, have been suspended by the faculty in order for faculty, students and staff to share in the Inaugural activities. Evening classes on Thursday, March 11, will be conducted as usual. Hundreds of guests will be on our campus during this day. Each of us in a sense is a host or hostess to these Christian friends.

The Inaugural Luncheon will be in the Seminary Cafeteria at 1:00 p.m. Therefore, guests and students who are not invited to attend the luncheon will eat elsewhere. Arrangements are being made by Mr. Rod Byard, Mr. Lyman Franklin, and Miss Jeanette Scott to make available box lunches at a reasonable price in Mackie Hall. Guests who choose to eat on campus and students who make no other dining arrangements may purchase a box lunch or other food in the Seminary store. The Inaugural Committee will appreciate your assistance in making this Inauguration a memorable event.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN SERVING IN VIRGINIA: Mr. James Massey of the Church-Minister Relations Office of the Baptist General Association of Virginia will be on campus Wednesday, March 10.

He will be available during the day to talk with students from Virginia and graduating seniors interested in serving in Virginia. Appointments to talk with Mr. Massey may be made in the Field Education Office. Mr. Massey will host a luncheon in the cafeteria at noon on March 10 for students from Virginia and graduating seniors interested in serving in Virginia.

SPRING ELECTIONS: Don't delay! Any student wishing to be considered by the Student Council Nominating Committee for the spring election ballot must contact a member of the committee by noon, March 4. Contact Richard Hicks, Clarence Byerly, Nancy Stanton, David Bump, Bert Browning, or Brenda Kneece. Officers, class representatives, committee chairpersons, and Seminary Council representatives will be elected. Nominations will be posted on Friday, March 12. Additional candidates may appear on the ballot by following the petitioning procedure between March 12th and 19th. Spring elections will be held April 6th and 7th.

INTERNSHIPS IN CAMPUS MINISTRIES: Dr. James Greene, Director of N.C. Department of Campus Ministry has announced that there will be at least four vacancies in Campus Ministry that will be filled by Interns during the 1976-77 School year. Locations under consideration for these Internships include UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Greensboro, UNC-Charlotte, N.C. State, Western Carolina, and Wake Forest University. Southeastern students who have completed at least half of their M.Div. Program of studies, and who are selected for one of these Internships, may be registered for the course M337-Advanced Practicum In Campus Ministry, and be granted eight hours per semester credit for this experience. The Internship is a full time "in-service-training" ministry. Competent supervision under a Campus Minister and Dr. Greene is provided. Housing and a $200.00 per month (for 9 months) scholarship are available for each Intern. Dr. Greene will be on the Southeastern Campus throughout the day, on March 3, 1976, to interview those interested in an Internship. Appointments may be made by contacting Professor Poerschke (Room 301, Stealey). Information about the Advanced Practicum is available from Professors Harris, McMillan and Poerschke.

ANNUAL STUDENT CONFERENCE ON MISSIONS AND MINISTRY: The Annual Student Conference will be held March 26, 27, 28 and will center around the theme, "Creation and Creativity."

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." We are a part of this creation; and we participate by creating. Creativity takes various directions: drama, music, the literary arts, the visual arts. The aim of this conference is to experience the meaning of man's humanity under God-his mission and his ministry. The creative arts will be utilized in an attempt to know, feel, and express our individual religious experiences in light of the revelation of God in Jesus Christ.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

All persons in the "Seminary family" are invited and encouraged to attend, participate; and we ask you to invite the college, career, and graduate students, in your community of faith to be a part of this important event. A registration fee of $2.00 is required of non-seminary participants. Further information concerning registration and housing can be found in the Student Activities Office upstairs in Mackie Hall, or by contacting Richard Tumbleston 556-3224 or Lee Tuten - 556-9921.
