

7:20

SOUTHEASTERN CAMPUS BULLETIN

OFFICE OF
STUDENT AFFAIRS

February 11-15, 1980

Vol. VII, No. 20

Monday, February 11

3:00 p.m. Administrative Officers meeting.
6:15 p.m. Pastor's Seminar Banquet. Cafeteria.

Tuesday, February 12

10:00 a.m. Community chapel: Adams Lectures on Preaching and the Practice of Ministry. Lecturer: Dr. John R. Claypool, pastor of Northminster Baptist Church, Jackson, Mississippi.
7:00 p.m. Chaplain's Conference Banquet. Cafeteria.

Wednesday, February 13

7:15 a.m. Seminary community prayer breakfast. Coffee and donuts available. Cafeteria.
10:00 a.m. Chapel: Adams Lectures.
4:00 p.m. Student Council Meeting. Conference Room, Second floor Mackie Hall.

Thursday, February 14

10:00 a.m. Chapel: Adams Lectures.

Friday, February 15

10:00 a.m. Chapel: Adams Lectures conclude.

NOTICES:

INTERVIEWS FOR INTERNSHIPS: (A) On February 18 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. there will be interviews for six internships in the Raleigh area. Two will be offered in each of the following institutions: Wake Hospital; State Prisons (Men's and Women's); North Hills and Crabtree Valley Malls. These positions offer remuneration and four semester hours credit in "Internships in Ministry" (M-4720). Students chosen will be required to do CPE during summer term and will receive credit for this. Students applying must have completed basic course in Supervised Ministry (M-4700) by June 1. Call Mrs. Jackson in the Formation In Ministry office to make appointments for Monday, February 18. Call Luke Smith for additional information.

(B) On February 29 Intern Day will be held. Approximately twenty representatives from various institutions and agencies will be on campus Friday, February 29 for interviews. These openings are for students who wish to do a year's internship away from the campus. These are offered through "Internships in Ministry" (M-4720) for eight semester hours credit (two semesters) beginning in the summer of 1980 and continuing through May 1981.

At 10:00 a.m. on the 29th a forum will be held in the seminary cafeteria to introduce these guests and to answer questions from students. From 11:00 - 5:00 p.m. these representatives will be available for conferences in the Bethea Room. Formal appointment times are not necessary. The basic course in Supervised Ministry is a pre-requisite. Check boards outside of Formation in Ministry office for materials describing many of these placements.

PAPERS AVAILABLE:

Students in the following courses are asked to pick-up their papers:

M 382 Aging	-	Dr. Meiburg	Spring, 1979
T 3220 Cults	-	Dr. Carl Johnson	Fall, 1979

These papers may be picked-up in the Dean's Office.

OLYMPIC EVANGELISM TEAM:

The seminary community is asked to be in prayer for the evangelism team traveling to Lake Placid February 11-24. Specific times and places have been arranged for small group prayer. Watch for posters or contact the following persons for information: Ann Creech, Janet Connell, Deb Van Swol, Jim Johnson, Clark McCrary or Jeff Neuberger. Please share this request in your churches.

WOMEN STUDENTS:

The WMU of North Carolina is beginning an internship program which will be part-time work during the school year, and full-time in the summer. This is a great opportunity to gain experience! An interviewer will be on campus Thursday, February 14. Interested students should sign up in FIM.

SPECIAL INVITATION:

Dr. Joseph Sittler, author of The Care of the Earth and The Ecology of Faith, will preach at the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. worship services at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church on February 17, 1980. In addition, he will lecture on the subject of "American Space and American Ethics" at 7:30 p.m. The seminary community is invited to attend. The church is located on the corner of Clark and Brooks Avenues in Raleigh.

RIDGECREST INTERVIEWS:

Mr. George Boswell, Personnel Services Coordinator at Ridgecrest will be interviewing students on February 12 and 13 from 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Sign up in the FIM offices.

ENQUIRY EDITOR:

Resumés for the position of Enquiry editor for the 1980-81 year are now being accepted. Interested students should submit a resumé by Monday, March 10. These may be turned in at the Student Affairs office. Information about the position may be obtained from Dennis Melton, David Upshaw or the Student Affairs office.

CAMPUS MINISTER TO SEMINARY YOUTH:

Students and staff with children ages 13-19 are reminded of the seminary's ministry to this age group through the campus minister, Steve Durham. This ministry seeks to provide opportunities for fellowship and personal growth through special programs and activities. If you would like more information, please contact the Student Affairs office, ext. 263.

MISSION AND MINISTRY CONFERENCE:

What's included in a mission conference entitled "Living Parables?" All this: Sarah Snell, James Forbes, Bill and Linda Cates, a faculty/student talent show, a missions fair, seminars in grief, in medicine, in music, in education, through social ministries, in communications, in campus ministry, as a chaplain, in the black church, in the arts, as an evangelist, and concerts. Join us here at Southeastern as we share in these "Living Parables," February 22-24. Registration for non-seminarians is $3.50, which includes housing. For more information contact Susan Shirley or JoAnn Wright.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY:

The Raleigh Rescue Mission is seeking to employ individuals who have skills in the repair of small and major appliances, furniture, gasoline engines, etc. The work involves not only repairing items but teaching these skills to residents of the mission as part of their rehabilitation program. Students can work a flexible schedule of their choosing within specified hours Monday - Saturday. Wages are based upon skill and experience. A more complete job description is posted on the job board in the central hall of Appleby building.

GUESTS ON CAMPUS:

In conjunction with the Theodore F. Adams Lectures, two groups will be on campus to participate in special conferences. The 16th Annual Pastor's Seminar will be held Monday through Friday. Southeastern also will be hosting the Annual Chaplain's Conference on Tuesday and Wednesday. We welcome these alumni and friends to our campus.