NOTICES:

DEVELOPMENT MEETINGS: President Lolley will speak this week at Development meetings on Monday in Fayetteville, N.C. on Wednesday in Savannah, Ga., and on Thursday in Tifton, Ga.

LOST AND FOUND: A black, Samsonite briefcase containing books has been lost. The owner left it outside at the back of Binkley Chapel. Contact Earnest Etheridge at 639-4055.

SONS OF THE PROPHET MEETING: The Sons of the Prophets will meet for supper in the cafeteria on Tuesday, February 14, at 5:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Dr. Fred Horton, Visiting Associate Professor of New Testament. All current and former members of the Sons of the Prophets are encouraged to attend.

CHAPLAINCY OPPORTUNITY: There is an opening for a student chaplain at Crabtree Valley Mall to begin March 1. The shopping center ministry is sponsored by the Mall Management, the seminary, the Raleigh Baptist Association and the N.C. Baptist Convention. Time required is 15 hours per week. Qualifications include a minimum of six weeks of CPE and availability for at least one year. More information and applications are available in the Field Education office. Application deadline: February 21.

SUMMER MINISTRIES: Several summer ministry opportunities are still available. These include youth workers, two state parks positions, staff chaplain with the N.C. Baptist Convention plus positions in churches from Virginia to Alabama. See the Field Education office for more details.

MISSION AND MINISTRY CONFERENCE: The Student Conference on Mission and Ministry will be held on our campus beginning this Friday, February 17 and continuing through Sunday, February 19. All seminary students are invited to participate with the college students who will be on our campus. As you attend the conference, please consider yourself to be an official member of the hospitality committee and help welcome these visitors to our campus.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS: Two groups will be guests on our campus this week. The Alumni Association is sponsoring a Pastors Seminar Tuesday through Friday with approximately 100 pastors and church staff members expected to participate. The group will have lectures each day at 9:00 (Dr. Cook) and 11:00 (Dr. Dale) in Johnson 101, in addition to attending the Adams lectures. Also, the Division of Chaplaincy of the Home Mission Board is sponsoring a Chaplains Conference on Tuesday and Wednesday in the Bethea Room. Students (and spouses) who have been endorsed for the chaplain candidate program are invited to be guests of the Chaplains Commission for lunch at 12:00 on Tuesday in the cafeteria.

DRUG ABUSE SEMINARS: Two seminars will be offered on drug abuse, each consisting of 5 two-hour sessions. The first group will meet from 4:00-6:00 p.m. on Wednesdays beginning February 15 through March 15 in A-218. The second group will meet from 7:00-9:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings beginning February 16 through March 16 in A-218. Space is still available in both groups. See the Registrar if you are interested.

F.O.C.U.S. WORKSHOP: A workshop sponsored by the Fellowship of Christians United in Service is being planned for all students interested in doing volunteer, weekend work in churches. The emphasis of the workshop is to give new up-to-date ideas and information for this type of ministry. Watch for announcements concerning dates and meeting places.

WOMEN'S CONSULTATION RESUMES: Resume forms are available in the Student Affairs office for all women interested in being considered as representatives to the Consultation on Women in Church Related Vocations. The Consultation will be held September 20-22, 1978 in Nashville, Tennessee. Resumes are due in the Student Affairs office by 4:30 p.m., February 28.

BYW MEETING: On February 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bethea Room, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Adams will be speaking to the group on, "What is Expected of a Minister's Wife." A special invitation is extended to everyone (on and off campus, husbands and wives). A nursery will be provided at Wake Forest Baptist Church (25¢ for first child and 10¢ for second). Discussion and refreshments will follow the program.

ADAMS LECTURES SPEAKER: The guest lecturer for the Adams Lectures on Preaching and the Practice of Ministry is Dr. Gene E. Bartlett. Presently serving as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre, Mass., Dr. Bartlett has served churches in New York, Missouri, Illinois and California. From 1960-70 he was president of Colgate-Rochester Divinity School, and served as president of the American Baptist Churches, U.S.A. from 1972-73. Dr. Bartlett has lectured widely and is the author of three books, including The Audacity of Preaching, The News in Religion, and These Are the Baptists.

Information for the Campus Bulletin is due in the Student Affairs Office by 12 noon each Thursday. All material must be signed and include a telephone number.
