CHAPLAIN NAMED AT SOUTHEASTERN SEMINARY

Wake Forest, N. C. - "The well-being of our students and their families is of vital importance to us and we are happy to announce an expansion of our counseling program," said W. Randall Lolley, president, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Lolley made the remarks in announcing the appointment of Dr. Donna Myra Forrester, Raleigh, N. C., to the position of Chaplain. Forrester, presently a clinic coordinator in Raleigh, will assume her responsibilities in mid-August.

"The appointment of Dr. Forrester will strengthen our on-going ministry to the needs of our students and their families. She will augment the close student-faculty relationship and give our students immediate, on-the-spot help in developing their spiritual lives and coping with crises," Lolley said.

He also praised Forrester's training and experience which "make her uniquely qualified to provide this much-needed service. I am grateful to our trustees," he continued, "for their encouragement to strengthen this ministry. It has been an endeavor of prayer and searching to discover the person God wants for this work. I am excited the Lord has led us to Dr. Forrester, who has so many gifts and skills for the tasks ahead."

Forrester, 34, has served as a psychiatric nurse, a minister of youth, and a pastoral counselor. She is a native of Johnston, S. C., and a graduate of the University of South Carolina (B.S.N.), Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (M.Div.), and Southeastern Seminary (D.Min.). She also earned the basic unit in clinical pastoral education from South Carolina Baptist Hospital and four advanced units from North Carolina Baptist Hospital. The daughter of a Baptist pastor, she is also an ordained Baptist minister and a registered nurse.
