FIELD EDUCATION INTERNSHIPS:

The Field Education Office is pleased to announce four opportunities for internships in ministry for the 1975-1976 academic year. Two of these have been approved by the Faculty for a new course M 192 "Supervised Intership." The following interships are being offered:

(over)

1. Legislative Liason Intern: Department of Social Ministries of the Virginia Baptist General Board. R. Clint Hopkins, Field Supervisor.

The intern will give attention to issues before the General Assembly, assisting the Department of Social Ministries with communication between members of the Assembly and constituents who are members of Virginia Baptist churches.

Open to Baptists, with some preference given to residents of Virginia. A student who will return to the seminary to complete work toward his degree is also preferred.

The intern will need to reside in Richmond, September through May. Stipend: $200 per month. Fall and Spring. 8 hours per semester.

2. Chaplain Intern: Chaplain Service of the Churches of Virginia, Inc. William R. Shirah, Field Supervisor.

The intern will serve as chaplain to a juvenile correctional institution in or near Richmond, Virginia. 20 hours per week are required, which may be on weekends. Stipend: $200 per month. Fall and Spring. 4 hours per semester.

3. Shopping Center Ministry: North Hills Shopping Center, Raleigh, N.C. Supervised by the Directors of Field Education.

The ministry is sponsored by the Shopping Center, the Raleigh Baptist Association, the N.C. Baptist Convention, and the Seminary.

The intern will serve as chaplain to the managers, employees, and customers of North Hills. At least a six-weeks course in Clinical Pastoral Education is required. Time required is about three half-days per week. Salary: $200 per month.

4. Youth Ministry: The Union Church of Guatemala, Guatemala City, C.A. David F. Bridgman, Pastor.

The intern will work in the youth program of the interdenominational Protestant church and with its outreach efforts in the English-speaking community.

Open to either a recent graduate or a second-year student who will be available for one year beginning September 1, 1975. A young couple is preferred. Knowledge of Spanish is desirable, but not essential. Salary: $400 per month. Furnished apartment and car provided, plus round trip air travel for two.

Dr. Richardson will be in the cafeteria Friday, March 21, at 10:00 a.m., and Friday, April 4, at 10:00 a.m., to provide additional information to interested students.

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall, by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Students Activities' box, second floor, administration building.
