Introduction

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is a community of learning, deeply rooted in the Christian faith, thorough in scholarship, and vitally related to the churches.

Its primary purpose is to prepare men and women for Christian leadership in various ministries. These include preaching and pastoral care, missionary work at home and abroad, religious education, the teaching of religion and other subjects in secondary schools and colleges, religious leadership on college campuses, the chaplaincy, social service, and such other forms of ministry as require specialized preparation.

Vital to all these areas of service is an understanding of the origins, content, and history of the Christian faith and its contemporary relevance. Courses of study directed toward such an understanding constitute the curriculum and are regarded as basic.

While the seminary is conscious of its responsibility to the Southern Baptist Convention, its facilities are open on an equal basis to students of all denominations. It is the aim of the seminary to help produce a leadership for the whole Christian movement.

Emphases

In pursuit of its objectives, the seminary is conscious of certain great emphases which undergird its program of education: (1) a thorough knowledge of the Bible; (2) a wholesome and intelligent evangelism; (3) a challenging vision of the world-wide mission of Christianity; (4) a prevailing spiritual dynamic in the lives of students and faculty; (5) a sense of the significance of the local church — urban and rural; and (6) a commitment to academic excellence.

W. RANDALL LOLLEY
President

Faculty

To accomplish these ends, the seminary maintains a faculty of God-called members who are qualified by academic preparation and by personal and professional experience to offer leadership in achieving excellence in spiritual and intellectual endeavors.

Visiting professors, special instructors, lecturers and other scholars contribute additional stimulation and enrichment to the educational process. The instructional staff consists of forty-one persons who hold a total of one hundred and fifty-two degrees from forty-nine different universities, colleges and seminaries in this country and abroad. A faculty adviser is assigned to each student to counsel with him on personal problems and academic matters.

Programs of Study

Programs of study leading to the degrees of Doctor of Ministry, Master of Theology, Master of Divinity, Master of Religious Education, and to Associate of Divinity are offered.

Affiliation and Support

Southeastern Seminary is an agency of the Southern Baptist Convention. It is governed by a board of trustees who are elected by the Convention. The trustees elect administrative officers and faculty members.

The seminary receives a major part of its operating expenses and capital needs from the Convention's Cooperative Program. These funds are supplemented by student fees and special gifts from alumni and friends.

Accreditation and Membership

The seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and is approved for attendance of nonimmigrant students under the Immigration and Nationality Act. It is a member of the Corporation of American Schools of Oriental Research.

Relation with Universities, Hospitals, and Other Special Interests

Located in the vicinity of seven major universities and colleges, the seminary maintains functional relations with these institutions of higher learning in library exchanges, adjunct professorships, visiting lecturers and faculty fellowship. Programs of study, clinical training and internships are conducted at medical centers for both physical and mental illnesses. With the assistance of recognized specialists, seminars and special classes are held at various times throughout the year on such topics as urban studies, contemporary trends in rural life, chaplaincy, evangelism, recreation, Christian education, missions and other pertinent subjects.

Seminary Extension

Southeastern Seminary with the other five seminaries of the Southern Baptist Convention participates in the joint sponsorship of the Seminary Extension Department. This agency offers a wide selection of courses through home study and Extension Centers. For further information write to Seminary Extension Department, 460 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, Tennessee 37219.

Locations

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is located in the heartland of the Baptist witness in the southeastern part of the nation. Its campus is in the center of the town of Wake Forest, North Carolina, which is sixteen miles north of Raleigh, and twenty-two miles east of Durham — cities of more than 100,000 each.

It may be reached from the Raleigh-Durham Airport (25 miles), or by driving (North-South) on U. S. Highway No. 1 or (East-West) on N. C. Highway No. 98, or by the Seaboard Coastline Railroad (New York-Miami). Wake Forest is on the edge of the Research Triangle, a dynamic metropolitan region, including the cities of Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill. Nine modern industries combine with a large agricultural area to make the seminary setting suitable for the education and training of ministers. A temperate climate offers four distinct seasons, with almost year-around opportunities for golf and other outside activities. Three hours of driving will take one either to the Atlantic Ocean or the Appalachian Mountains.

History

Southeastern Seminary is the fruit of prayer and of the conviction that there should be a Baptist seminary in the southeastern part of the nation. After three years of careful study, the Southern Baptist Convention, in Chicago on May 10, 1950, voted to establish the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. It agreed to purchase the Wake Forest College campus at Wake Forest, North Carolina, and proceeded to elect trustees. The trustees secured a charter and accepted as Articles of Faith the Abstract of Principles; they set up a budget and elected Dr. Sydnor L. Stealey as president and three professors as the core faculty.

RODNEY V. BYARD
Assistant to the President for Institutional Development

The seminary opened for classes on September 12, 1951, with 85 students. For the first five years, the seminary was restricted to one building; but with the removal of the college to its new campus in Winston-Salem, the seminary came (July 1, 1956) into full possession of the entire campus. Immediately a program of remodeling, renovating, and building was begun.

The enrollment climbed rapidly, and additions were made to the instructional staff. An eight-week course in pastoral care was initiated at the Baptist Hospital in the summer of 1954, and in 1957 summer school was instituted on the seminary campus. With the participation of outstanding specialists from North Carolina State University, an inter-disciplinary course on the rural community was begun the following year. In 1958, the seminary received full accreditation from the American Association of Theological Schools (now the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada).

Upon Dr. Stealey's retirement in 1963, Dr. Olin T. Binkley was elected the seminary's second president. Under his leadership the renovation of the campus was continued. Four old buildings were removed, and thirteen new buildings were constructed and paid for: the dormitory for women, the student center, the health center, and ten duplex houses for students. The curriculum was revised, the Bachelor of Divinity degree was changed to Master of Divinity degree, and the Master of Religious Education degree and the Doctor of Ministry degree were added. The annual Alumni Giving Program was inaugurated. A program of distinguished professorships was endowed.

In 1974 Dr. Binkley retired, and Dr. W. Randall Lolley was elected the seminary's third president. To meet the needs of an expanding library, the Emery B. Denny Building has been completely renovated and enlarged by the construction of an addition, which will be dedicated in March, 1977. A long-range planning study has been undertaken. In the fall of 1976 the seminary enrollment reached a peak of 997 persons.

For its first twenty-six years, the seminary has had an average enrollment of 575. With its 1976 commencement, it has granted a total of 3,403 degrees to 3,125 persons. These men and women, located throughout the nation and in many parts of the world, are the "earnest" of the seminary's stewardship to our fellow Baptists and to the Lord Jesus Christ whose servants we are.

Campus and Facilities

Originally the home of Wake Forest College, the campus of Southeastern Seminary dates back to 1832 when the 615-acre plantation of Dr. Calvin Jones was purchased by the Baptists of North Carolina "to afford to our young ministers facilities for obtaining such an education as will qualify them to be able ministers of the New Testament" (G. W. Paschal, History of Wake Forest College, Vol. 1, p. 44).

Eight white oaks of the "magnificent grove" which grew to the east of the plantation-house and which gave Wake Forest its name are still standing. Magnolias, elms, pines, other oaks, dogwood, cedars, firs, maples and many other varieties of trees, plus azaleas, camelias, sasanquas, quinces, flowering crab-trees, weeping cherries and many other flowering trees and shrubs make the campus a veritable "botanical garden." The stone-wall which President Charles E. Taylor and "Dr. Tom" Jeffries began about 1885 still encloses the twenty-five acres of the campus proper. But the seminary has expanded far beyond this area and has added boxwoods, hollies, the Mackie-Robinson Rose Garden with its three-tier fountain and many other interesting and beautiful items to these historic grounds.

While the naturalness and charm of the old campus have been maintained, new buildings have been constructed and the remaining college buildings have been renovated to serve the needs of the seminary.

The S. L. Stealey Administration Building was built by Wake Forest College in 1934 to replace the Old College Building, later named Wait Hall, which had been destroyed by fire in 1933. In 1956 it was completely renovated for offices of the administration and faculty; it was renamed in honor of the seminary's first president, Dr. S. L. Stealey, in 1961.

The Olin T. Binkley Chapel commands the center of the campus; its tall spire is visible for several miles along every approach to Wake Forest. Work was begun on the chapel in 1942; the Second World War prevented the completion of the interior. With the removal of the college to Winston-Salem in 1956, the work was resumed and complete in 1958. In 1969 the Board of Trustees named the chapel in honor of the seminary's second president, Dr. Olin T. Binkley.

The Scott B. Appleby Building was begun by Wake Forest College in 1942 and completed during World War II. From 1951 to 1956, this one building housed the entire Southeastern Seminary; then it was remodeled and, in 1962, renamed in honor of Mr. Scott B. Appleby in recognition of his generous support of the student aid fund. It contains a small chapel, classrooms, offices and a fellowship room, named in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Percy A. Bethea.

The Emery B. Denny Library Building was constructed by the seminary in 1958 to replace the old Heck-Williams Building (1878) which was razed in 1957. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named it in honor of Dr. Emery B. Denny, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, a trustee of the seminary and its long-time friend and supporter. It houses the seminary library. A major enlargement and renovation project of this building has just been completed.

The William Amos Johnson Building, erected in 1933 "in loving memory of William Amos Johnson," first housed the Wake Forest Medical School (now Bowman Gray School of Medicine). It was completely renovated in 1956 and now serves as a classroom building for the seminary.

The Ruby Reid Child Care Center was made possible by a bequest of Miss Ruby Reid of Wake Forest, North Carolina, and gifts from the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. It was constructed in 1959. Five spacious classrooms, equipped with observation booths, open onto covered porches and fenced-in playgrounds. An office, teachers' lounge and a multi-purpose library-lunch room add to the usefulness of the building.

Mackie Hall was dedicated on May 9, 1968, as the seminary's new student center. It is named in honor of Dr. George C. Mackie, "a distinguished physician" who "devoted his life to the well-being of students" at Wake Forest College and at Southeastern Seminary, and of Mrs. Mackie who as "a creative leader" has participated in the beautification of the campus. A Commons Room, the Southeastern Seminary Store, recreational area, conference rooms, offices for the director of student activities and student leaders, and carrels for fellows and graders are located in this building.

The Seminary Cafeteria was built by the seminary in 1956 and provides dining rooms for conferences and small groups as well as facilities for large banquets and regular meals.

Gore Gymnasium was dedicated in 1938 by Wake Forest College and was named for Mr. Claude Gore, president of the Board of Trustees and a strong supporter of the college. Seminarians use this building for indoor sports such as basketball, volleyball, handball and badminton, shuffle-board, weight-lifting and ping-pong.

The Health Center was constructed by the seminary in 1968 and contains offices for diagnostic consultation and rooms for treatment. The seminary physician and director of counseling maintain regular schedules of service; a registered nurse is on duty throughout the day.

Wake Forest Baptist Church, organized in 1835, occupies the church building (1913) within the campus enclosure, although this property is owned by the church. An educational building was added in 1970. This church makes an important contribution to the life of the seminary.

The President's Home, built in 1928 as the residence of the president of Wake Forest College, is located off the southwest corner of the campus and in 1975 was completely renovated and refurbished.

Purchased in 1960 by the seminary, the Manor Guest House is near the main campus and provides pleasant accommodations for visitors and guests of the seminary.

In 1956 three residences were set aside for the use of missionaries on furlough who wish to study at Southeastern Seminary. The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina redecorated and furnished these homes which are on lots near the campus.

The Athletic Field is located near the campus and is utilized for recreational activities such as softball, baseball, flag-football and archery. Five tennis courts are provided, and arrangements have been made with the Paschal Golf Club for seminary personnel to play golf at a special fee.

Housing Facilities

Johnson Dormitory offers 77 rooms with lounge areas and other modern conveniences. The availability of single rooms is determined each semester by the total number of requests for rooms. This three-story building, constructed in 1946 in separate sections for quietness and privacy and now completely renovated, offers pleasant living conditions to single men and commuters from church fields.

The Women's Dormitory, constructed in 1965, provides rooms and facilities for 52 women students. It contains 13 two-room suites with connecting baths, parlors, study rooms, kitchenette, laundry space, recreation and game rooms.

Bostwick Hall offers 22 apartments each with living room, bedroom, kitchen and bath. There are three efficiency units consisting of a living room with a Murphy Bed, kitchen and bath. These apartments are furnished with basic furniture and have venetian blinds at all windows; laundry facilities are available in the basement. Originally built as a dormitory in 1924, Bostwick Hall was converted into apartments in 1956 and is available to couples without children.

Simmons Apartment Building built in 1936 and renovated in 1956, consists of 13 units each with two bedrooms, combination living and dining room, kitchen and bath. There are two units each consisting of one bedroom, a combination living-and-dining room, kitchen and bath. Each kitchen is furnished with stove and refrigerator. A laundry area with coin-operated washers and dryers is located in the basement of the building. All windows have venetian blinds, but no other furniture is provided. These units are reserved for married students who have children.

Duplex Apartments, built from 1959 to 1975, can accommodate one-hundred families. There are one, two and three bedroom units each with living room, kitchen and bath. Each apartment has its own heat, light and water system; the occupant is responsible for all utilities (heat, lights and water). These apartments are unfurnished, except for stove and refrigerator which are permanent installations. Located on West Pine Avenue, Rankin Court, Judson Drive and Rice Circle, Stadium Road, Wingate Street and Hipps Drive, they are within easy walking distance of the main campus.

Colonial Apartments offer modest accommodations (2 bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bath) for four families. Seminary furnishes water; student pays for light and heat. Located within block of campus.

The Mobile Home Park offers modern facilities for 20 mobile homes. Each lot is equipped with the necessary utility connections. Provided also on the site is a service building containing laundry facilities and baths for men and women. The park is across the street from the northwest corner of the campus proper.

Student Life

Worship

As Binkley Chapel is the center of the campus, so worship is the center of the seminary life. Under the leadership of students, professors and prominent visitors, devotional services are held at ten o'clock. On special days, missionary speakers, scholars and other Christian leaders broaden the vision and deepen the commitment of students and others with lectures and addresses.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of representatives elected by the student body, assist the faculty and administration in coordinating various student activities and in promoting the general welfare of all students. The areas of their concern are reflected in the names of the council's committees: arts, athletic, chapel, ethics, off-campus ministries, social and student welfare. Students also serve on the faculty committees; this student involvement strengthens and enriches seminary life.

Opportunities for Ministry

Although the seminary cannot guarantee a position to any student, the directors of field education endeavor to present opportunities for service or employment to every student seeking assistance. The fact that a majority of all students enrolled at Southeastern Seminary find remunerative employment in churches within a 300-mile radius of the school speaks well of their efforts. Other students minister in hospitals, prisons, shopping-centers, rest homes, camp grounds, schools, churches, colleges, and other institutions or areas of special need. During the summer, many students serve as pastor-assistants, retreat chaplains, evangelists, youth directors, chaplain interns at hospitals, missionary ministers and special city workers.

Husbands and Wives of Students

Husbands or wives of students may enroll for classes at a reduced fee; special night classes or lectures are arranged for their convenience. A fellowship club, the seminary choir, the campus Baptist Young Women, picnics, parties and other social functions offer a variety of activities and expressions of interests.

Those who want employment have a wide choice of opportunities. Teachers and nurses readily find positions in the public schools and hospitals. The seminary itself employs a number of secretaries, library assistants, telephone operators and other skilled or semi-skilled persons. Industries and businesses in Wake Forest, Raleigh, and Durham present opportunities for all types of work.

Children

Children have an important place in the life of the seminary. Modern housing affords them comfortable living quarters; churches and public schools are within walking distance from the campus. The services of the seminary physician and counselor are available at the health center without charge. The seminary's recreational facilities are opened to all members of the seminary family.

Child Care Center

Established in 1956, the Child Care Center seeks (1) to provide a laboratory for teachers and students who desire to explore ways of working with children; (2) to provide care for children, ages 2-5, of the Seminary family with priority given to children of student-parents who are working or enrolled in classes; (3) to provide a setting in which parents may discover new ways to enrich their family living; and (4) to provide a center in which churches and other agencies involved in the care of children may receive counsel related to the improvement of their programs.

The schedule of the Center coincides with with seminary schedule for opening, closing and holidays.

The program of the Center is certified by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction. A modest fee is charged. Since enrollment must be limited, parents who are interested in having their children in the Center should write for further information and application forms prior to the parents' registration in the Seminary. Address: Director, Child Care Center, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C. 27587.

Extra-Curricular Activities

Opportunities for fellowship, recreation, and personal enrichment are offered in numerous clubs, choral groups, evangelism teams, dramas, an intramural athletic program, golf course, tennis courts and a large gymnasium. The town of Wake Forest operates two swimming pools and sponsors a summer recreational program for young people. Concerts, plays, art galleries and other cultural privileges in Raleigh, Durham, and Chapel Hill are many and varied.

While they are not always a part of the regular curriculum, these student activities contribute to the fulfillment of the seminary's motto "that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly furnished for every good work" (II Tim. 3:17).

Clubs

Baptist Young Women (BYW) is an organization for women students and wives of students and faculty members which meets on the fourth Monday night of each month. It emphasizes personal and spiritual growth through study, sharing and serving.

Faculty Club, composed of members of the instructional staff and administrative officers, meets occasionally for fellowship, inspiration and the presentation of scholarly papers and other items of mutual interest.

Fellowship Club provides opportunities for Christian fellowship and recreation among the women of the seminary family. It meets the second Monday night of each month.

F.O.C.U.S. (Fellowship of Christians United in Service) is a volunteer ministry designed to provide opportunities for ministry in churches in accord with their needs and the gifts of the team members. Organized under the auspices of the Student Council, it is opened to all students.

Sons of the Prophets is a group of twenty-one men and women, elected by the group and maintaining at least a 2.0 average, who meet monthly to discuss areas of their concerns and who sponsor each spring a three-day symposium on campus.

for Student Development*

Opportunities in Music

Mixed Chorus rehearses on Tuesdays from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. A simple audition is required for men. Many couples make this choir a family affair; wives are encouraged to sing in this group without audition or fee. The Men's Chorus meets at 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday. A Chapel Ensemble of ten students sings in the chapel services; work grants are awarded for this participation. Private voice and organ lessons are offered at modest fees. (See page 22.)

Special Days and Lectures

The regular curriculum of the seminary is enlarged and enriched by guest-lectures, visiting preachers and special speakers. These sermons, lectures and addresses are given in Binkley Chapel at ten o'clock on designated days and are open to the general public.

Adams Lectures. The Theodore F. Adams Lectures on Preaching and Pastoral Ministry are given each year on four consecutive days by a prominent preacher/pastor/churchperson.

Carver-Barnes Memorial Lectures. These lectures are primarily on the history and mission of the church and are given by recognized scholars from America and abroad.

Commencement. An outstanding preacher delivers the annual commencement sermon, and a member of the faculty gives the charge to the graduates.

Convocations. The fall convocation address is given generally by an administrative officer, and the spring convocation address is delivered by a faculty member.

Fall and Spring Lectures. Outstanding scholars, religious pioneers and creative thinkers are invited to give two lectures in the fall and spring terms.

Founders' Day. In connection with the annual observance of Founders' Day, an address is given by a distinguished person, selected by the seminary's committee on convocations and special days.

Missionary Days. Five missions emphasis days are held each year, with home and foreign missionaries and other churchpersons giving addresses and meeting with students.

Conferences

Chaplains' Day is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and is opened to military, institutional and industrial chaplains and those interested in these areas of service.

The Pastors' Seminar is held in conjunction with the Theodore F. Adams Lectures and affords alumni and other friends a week of classes, fellowship and recreation. It is planned and conducted by the Alumni Association.

The Student Conference on Mission and Ministry is a week-end event, planned and conducted by seminarians for college students interested in various Christian ministries. Musical groups, speakers, counselors, dramatic presentations and fellowship make for an unforgettable experience.

Baptist Bookstore

The Baptist Bookstore and Campus Store, located in Mackie Hall, are operated under the auspices of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and carry the required textbooks and supplies for the classes as well as a variety of other books, personal accessories, sandwiches and other snack foods.

Publications

The Campus Bulletin is a weekly sheet, announcing campus activities and events, and is published by the Student Activities Office for campus distribution.

The Catalog is a special issue of Southeastern Seminary Bulletin which contains information on the educational policies and programs of the seminary. It is published annually by the Office of Institutional Development and is available upon request from the Registrar.

The Directory is a handbook of pictures of students, faculty members and administrative personnel, with addresses, phone numbers and other biographical information. It is a publication of the Office of Institutional Development.

The Enquiry is a student newspaper, written by students for the seminary family. Issues are published approximately once every three weeks and are distributed throughout the campus.

The Handbook and Orientation Guide, a publication of the Student Activities Office, is designed primarily for the benefit of entering students and contains information pertinent for their orientation.

The Outlook (Southeastern Seminary Bulletin) is a bi-monthly, general interest magazine, published by the Office of Institutional Development for students, alumni and other interested persons. Upon request, copies are sent gratis to alumni, trustees and other friends of the seminary.

Southeastern Studies is a series of books of scholarly articles, published occasionally by the seminary faculty and is available for a price from the Office of Student Development. (Volume one will be ready in the spring of 1977).

The Update is a monthly sheet, prepared by the president's office and containing reports and announcements for trustees, faculty and administrative personnel.

President-Student Forum

Once a month the president of the seminary meets with students at a coffee-doughnut "break" for an open forum. Any student may voice his or her question, complaint, comment or compliment, and the president makes appropriate response.

Peer Support Groups

Peer support groups help in the orientation of new students by providing information and encouragement in small, informal settings and are led by selected students.

Fees and Expenses

Convention Support

The support of the seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention through its Cooperative Program enables the seminary to offer its programs of study without charging tuition.

These funds are not sufficient to meet the academic and operational needs of the seminary. They do not include any allocation for financial assistance to students. Additional sources of income are required annually, including special gifts from interested individuals and groups.

Schedule of Fees*

The fees listed below embrace charges the Seminary will make upon students and include such privileges as use of the library, recreational facilities, including tennis courts, and admission to all special lectures. O. L. CROSS
Business Manager

Health Center

Students and their families may see the doctor or the director of counseling at office hours in the Health Center without charge.

Residence calls are subject to charge by the physician.

A charge will be made for drugs dispensed to all patients.

Hospital Insurance

Students are required to present evidence of adequate medical insurance at the time of registration each semester. The Annuity Board Student Health Program is recommended to students who do not have comparable coverage.

Music Fees

Private voice and organ lessons are available to a limited number of students. There is a $45.00 fee per semester. There are practice pianos in the Chapel building. A practice fee of $5.00 will be charged for piano, and $7.50 for organ. Fees are not refundable after one week from last day for registration.

Housing Regulations

Southeastern Seminary now has dormitory space for 178 men and 52 women and apartments for 137 families. (Many students live in parsonages furnished by the churches they serve.)

Applications for housing require deposits of $10.00 for rooms and $50.00 for apartments. Address application to: Business Manager, Southeastern Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C. 27587. For description of housing facilities, see pages 11-12. It must be realized that costs of operation may necessitate changes in rent.

Rooms or apartments reserved by deposit will not be held beyond the opening date of the term unless the student prepays the first month's rent.

Students who take less than 8 hours of classwork will not be eligible for residence in seminary housing or trailer park.

All rent is payable monthly in advance.

Students occupying seminary housing are required to sign a housing lease agreement.

No pets are permitted in dormitories or in Bostwick or Simmons Apartments.

Pets are permitted in duplex apartments and mobile home park only after written approval has been obtained from the business office. A non-refundable fee of $25.00 is required.

Cafeteria

Meals in the cafeteria will cost approximately $5.00 a day, depending on individual requirements.

Student Financial Assistance

This school believes that theological students should, so far as possible, be self-supporting. It is recognized that some men and women, who give promise of outstanding usefulness in Christian service, require assistance to complete their Seminary course. Each student, however, should have sufficient funds or income to see him or her through at least the first semester before seeking aid from the Seminary. The Seminary will stand ready to help students in real financial emergencies. The Seminary has a limited fund, provided by gifts from individuals, to help those students who otherwise might be forced to withdraw from school.

Possibilities of Self-Help

Wake Forest area offers good opportunities for employment of students and/or their spouses. Two cities are adjacent: Raleigh, sixteen miles south, and Durham, twenty-two miles west. In these are considerable opportunities for part-time student employment; and students' spouses may find work as secretaries, nurses, hospital technicians, clerks and others. The seminary employs several students' wives for secretarial, stenographic, and clerical work.

There are three ways by which we help our students to help themselves:

Church Work — The Seminary encourages students to work in the churches as student pastors, assistant pastors, supply pastors, interim pastors, mission pastors, revival preachers, youth revival preachers, song leaders for congregations, directors of music, directors of religious education, directors of recreation, organists, pianists, workers in church organizations. All students are urged to seek the counsel of the Field Education Office concerning such employment.

On the Campus — The Seminary furnishes each year a number of work grants for students. This work includes work in the library, campus store and cafeteria, office work, and special assignments such as news bureau, photography, etc.

Raleigh-Durham and Other Communities — Students may secure remunerative work in nearby cities and towns. Wake Forest is within 25 minutes' driving distance of Raleigh, the capital city, and within 30 minutes of Durham, an industrial city. Many students and their spouses find employment in these centers. Many secure teaching positions in nearby schools. In no instance can definite employment in the churches or in the adjacent communities be guaranteed by the Seminary.

Remunerative Employment

The Office of Field Education will assist students in securing remunerative employment by exploring possibilities for students to work in the church and elsewhere. They will seek to introduce students to prospective employers, but they cannot guarantee employment for any student.

When a student assumes responsibilities in addition to academic work, there is a moral obligation to fulfill all these tasks in a satisfactory manner. The Faculty recommends that a student with as many as twenty hours per week of secular employment or as many as two weekends per month of church-related responsibilities on a regular basis not register for more than twelve semester hours. Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average will not be permitted to enroll for more than ten hours.

Students who find it necessary to engage in outside work in the amounts indicated above are strongly advised to take a four-year sequence.

Student Aid Funds

Student Aid at Southeastern Seminary is made possible through the generosity of individual donors and embraces three distinct divisions: Student Work Grants (p. 24), Student Loans, Grant-in-Aids, and Scholarships.

Library

The Seminary Library is dynamically involved with faculty and students in the achievement of educational objectives. It provides resources and services to support the research and study of the Faculty and to meet the needs of students for the free and independent study which is stimulated by classroom, chapel, place of work, and by other components of student life-situations. Provided also is a broad range of materials for the general educational, cultural, and recreational interests of students, faculty, and their families.

A major building project, completed near the end of 1976, has transformed the Library's Emery B. Denny Building into an essentially new facility, enlarged by 54 percent and redesigned functionally for modern library service. Individual study-carrels and materials on open shelves are dispersed throughout the carpeted, air-conditioned building. Audiovisual facilities, microform readers and printers, typing rooms, group-study rooms, and photocopying equipment are also provided. In this setting, personal service is emphasized by a staff of eleven full-time and sixteen part-time persons.

The Library's collection has grown to include: more than 100,000 volumes of books and periodicals; the equivalent of an additional 75,000 volumes on microcards and microfilm; 3,500 pamphlets; 18,500 Baptist convention and association annuals; and 13,000 audiovisual items. Currently, 850 periodicals are received. The microcards and microfilm add great strength to the collection, as they include many Early American and Early British books as well as important Baptist historical materials. The Baptist annuals constitute important primary historical sources. In seeking to develop a collection of unqualified excellence for the objectives to be served, a vigorous and discriminating acquisitions program is pursued.

The resources and services of the Library are augmented greatly by the proximity of excellent university libraries and by an increase in both the scope and degree of cooperation with these libraries and others throughout the nation. As a charter member of the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET), the Library is using a shared computer facility by means of an on-line computer terminal. The Library also participates in the North Carolina Union Catalog and the North Carolina Information Network.

In addition to funds allocated to the Seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention, the Library benefits from the generosity of many individuals and organizations. Each year, a number of cash gifts are received for the purchase of books, frequently in honor of persons either living or deceased. Sixty-nine gifts, each of one thousand dollars or more, are providing endowment income for the purchase of books for "memorial book shelves." Several gifts of private book collections have added significantly to the Library's strength, as have frequent gifts of a small number of books by an individual or an organization. Two plaques in the foyer of the Library identify each memorial book shelf and each gift collection. An appropriate plate is affixed to each book which is either donated or purchased from gift-funds.

Academic Information

Pre-Seminary Studies

The Seminary Faculty advises students in college to take courses that will especially prepare them for receiving the highest values from their Seminary courses. College courses prior to theological seminary should provide the cultural and intellectual foundations essential to an effective theological education. They should issue in at least three broad kinds of attainment.

1. The college work of a pre-seminary student should result in the ability to use certain tools of the educated person:

- (a) The ability to write and speak English clearly and correctly. English composition should have this as a specific purpose, but this purpose should also be cultivated in all written work.
- (b) The ability to think clearly. In some persons this ability is cultivated through courses in philosophy or specifically in logic. In others it is cultivated by the use of scientific method, or by dealing with critical problems in connection with literary and historical documents.
- (c) The ability to read at least one foreign language and in some circumstances more than one.

2. The college work of a pre-seminary student should result in increased understanding of the world in which we live:

- (a) The world of persons and ideas. This includes knowledge of English literature, philosophy and psychology.
- (b) The world of nature. This is provided by knowledge of the natural sciences, including laboratory work.
- (c) The world of human affairs. This is aided by knowledge of history and the social sciences.

3. The college work of the pre-seminary student should result in a sense of achievement:

- (a) The degree of mastery of a field of study is more important than the credits and grades which one accumulates.
- (b) The sense of achievement may be encouraged through academic concentration, or through "honors" work, or through other plans for independent work.*

* The content of this statement is taken from a bulletin of the Association of Theological Schools.

This Seminary concurs in the judgment of the Association of Theological Schools "that a normative pattern of pre-seminary education will include many of the following subjects:

"English language and literature; history, including non-Western cultures as well as European and American; philosophy, particularly its history and its methods; natural sciences, both the physical and the life sciences; social sciences; where psychology, sociology, and anthropology are particularly appropriate; the fine arts and music, especially in their creative and symbolic values; biblical and modern languages; religion, both in the Judaeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions.

"It is the understanding gained in these fields rather than the total of credits or semester-hours which is significant. Students who have been prepared in religion and equipped with the tools of theological study will be set free, not to complete their theological course more quickly, but to pursue more advanced studies. The principle constantly to be kept in mind is not that of satisfying paper regulations and minimum requirements, but of making the most of opportunities for education."

The Seminary's facilities are opened on an equal basis to qualified students of all races and of all denominations.

Entrance Requirements

For those seeking the M.Div. or the M.R.E. degree the standard academic prerequisite is an A.B. degree or an equivalent degree from a recognized four-year college or university. Seventy-five semester hours of the content of the work leading to the degree must be in liberal arts subjects, distributed approximately as suggested in the above statement on Pre-Seminary Studies by the Association of Theological Schools. Those seeking enrollment in degree work who have not completed these requirements may be conditionally enrolled provided they have earned at least 112 semester hours of college work, including 75 semester hours in liberal arts subjects. The student who is enrolled may take no more than 28 semester hours of Seminary work before completing the college degree.

A transcript of all academic work must be filed with the Registrar's office as a part of one's application for entrance to the Seminary.

Applicants for the Associate degree are required to have completed high school or the equivalent, and to be at least thirty years of age. An exception to the rule concerning age may be made for applicants who are the spouses of enrolled students. Due to the sequence of studies, entrance to this program is possible only at the beginning of the fall semester. This program of study is more fully described on pages 40-41.

Date of Application

Applicants for the M.Div., M.R.E., and A. Div. programs are encouraged to submit applications to the Registrar's office at least 30 days prior to matriculation day of the semester in which the student expects to begin work.

All applications for the course leading to the Th.M. degree or to the D.Min.

degree must be submitted to the Registrar's office at least 60 days prior to matriculation, for consideration by the Committee on Graduate Studies, and must be approved by the Faculty.

Date of Matriculation

The matriculation days are September 1-2, 1977 and January 13, 1978. Students will not be admitted to classes for credit after the second week of the semester. All students must meet with their faculty advisors prior to or at the time of matriculation.

Psychological Examination

All entering students are required to take a written psychological examination. Students are encouraged to make appointments with the Director of Counseling to discuss the findings of this examination.

Bypassing Required Courses and Advanced Standing

An entering student who has made grades of "C" or above in college or university courses which closely parallel the required courses in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, or Systematic Theology, may request permission to bypass those required courses and fulfill the requirements by completion of an equivalent number of semester hours in advanced courses in the same area. Such requests must be made to the Registrar in writing at least ten days prior to the dates indicated for matriculation in the Academic Calendar. Similarly, college or university courses paralleling certain elective courses in the M.Div. or M.R.E. curriculum may qualify as prerequisites to advanced courses in the same area of study. In such cases, students are advised to consult with the professors involved.

Entering students who claim unusual proficiency in studies in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Hebrew or Greek, are urged to take examinations to determine advanced standing in these areas. Such advanced standing examinations must be requested and taken at the beginning of the student's first semester in his first year of study. Requests must be made to the Registrar in writing at least ten days prior to the dates indicated for examinations for advanced standing in the Academic Calendar.

Performance of superior quality on an advanced standing examination qualifies the student to bypass and receive credit for the corresponding required course or elementary Biblical language course upon the successful completion of at least four semester hours in advanced courses in the same area.

Performance deemed satisfactory but not superior on an advanced standing examination qualifies the student to bypass the corresponding required course and to fulfill the requirement by completion of an equivalent number of semester hours in the same area. In the case of Hebrew or Greek similarly satisfactory performance on the advanced standing examination qualifies the student to enroll in advanced courses in this Biblical language at the intermediate level.

(The student applying for permission to bypass a required course must confer with a member of the faculty who teaches such a course to determine his level of proficiency before such permission may be granted.)

System of Grading

- C — The C grade is the instructor's certification that the student has demonstrated the required mastery of the material.
- B — The grade of B signifies that the student has demonstrated a significantly more effective command of the material than is generally required in that course.
- A — The A grade is interpreted to mean that the instructor recognizes exceptional capacities and exceptional performance.
- D — A student is graded D when his grasp of the course is minimal, but when the instructor believes the student would not profit materially by repeating the course.
- F — The F grade indicates failure to master the essentials and the necessity for repeating the course before credit may be allowed.
- I — Incomplete. Given in cases in which providential circumstances prevent a student's completing the requirements of a course. This notation must be removed as quickly as possible and in no case later than the end of the sixth week of the next semester whether or not the student registers. Otherwise the I becomes F.
- E — Conditioned. The professor may give this grade in continuing courses to a student who has not met the minimum requirement but shows promise of sufficient improvement in the second semester to be given a permanent grade of D. A grade not less than C must be earned the following semester; otherwise the grade of E becomes F.

W — Withdrawal. After the last day for dropping courses without penalty, a student may withdraw from a course only for providential reasons and only after personal consultation with the Dean.

Quality-point system to encourage academic achievement:

A 3; B 2; C 1; D 0; F minus 1. A student enrolled for the M.Div. degree is required to earn a minimum of sixteen quality points per academic year. In order to qualify for the M.Div. degree, a student must earn one quality point for each semester hour taken (a C average). A minimum of 84 semester hours is required for graduation. Not more than ten additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.Div. degree. Not more than seven additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.R.E. degree.

Class Attendance

Class participation is considered an important part of the learning process. Therefore, regular class attendance is expected and students are responsible for the mastery of materials required for credit.

Graduation

A student is expected to be present at the graduation exercise in order to receive his diploma. He may be excused from attendance by written permission from the Dean.

Withdrawal from Courses

After registration any changes in a student's class schedule must be arranged through the Registrar's Office. No changes are permitted in enrollment after certain deadlines except by permission of the Dean of the Faculty.

Withdrawal from Enrollment

Students who wish to withdraw from school are required to make this fact known to the Registrar, who will outline the formal procedures to be followed.

Discipline

Students admitted to the school are expected to order their lives by Christian standards of character and conduct and to respect regulations adopted by the trustees, the administration, and the faculty.

Any action contrary to the norms of Christian behavior or inimical to the best interest of the school may lead to probation or dismissal.

Inclement Weather

The policy of the seminary in reference to closing of classes during inclement weather is as follows: When the schools of Wake County are closed because of adverse weather conditions, the classes of the seminary will not meet. The time the seminary cancels classes will coincide with the time classes are canceled in Wake County.

1977 Summer School

The first term of the 1977 summer school will be held June 6 - July 1. The second term will be held July 4-29. Classes will meet four days each week, Tuesday through Friday. Two courses may be taken, and four hours credit may be earned. Students planning to enter Southeastern Seminary for the first time in the summer of 1977 should submit their applications by May 23 for the first term or June 20 for the second term. For further information write Dr. Fred Sandusky, Registrar, Southeastern Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C. 27587.

1978 Summer School

The first term of the 1978 summer school will be held June 5 - June 30. The second term will be held July 3-28.

The Curriculum Educational Objectives

The tasks of the Christian ministry for which the school gives guidance through the curriculum are the pastoral, educational, and missionary ministries. Within the framework of these three major fields is the opportunity for specialized training of teachers in Christian colleges, directors of music, chaplains in the armed services or in industries or hospitals, and denominational leaders (such as campus ministers).

Persons interested in a teaching ministry should keep in mind that specialization in any one of a number of fields is possible, such as Old Testament, New Testament, missions, sociology, ethics, church history, philosophy of religion, pastoral care, theology, preaching, or religious education. Pastors and others, however, may well make a broad selection of electives from many or all of these fields.

Field Education

The primary purpose of Southeastern Seminary is to prepare men and women for Christian leadership in various ministries. An essential part of preparation for ministry is the practice of ministry under supervision. Through supervised ministry one learns to apply theory to practice, to develop ministerial skills, and to reflect theologically on one's own performance as a minister. Field Education is a program of supervised learning from experience.

The Requirement in Field Education

The requirement in Field Education is a two semester hour course consisting of one semester of classroom study and one semester or summer of supervised field activity. Each student is required to engage in supervised ministry for one semester or summer, either as a pastor or staff member, or as a volunteer in a church or community agency. Supervision takes place either through supervision conferences with the professor in which feedback and evaluation from the field are discussed or through supervisory groups made up of students, a pastor, and a professor. It is preferable that the student enroll in Field Education (M 191) during his first year.

Student Load

Students who enroll in this Seminary are expected to give priority to the program of studies in which they have enrolled. Students with extra-curricular responsibilities should carry a correspondingly reduced academic load.

The Faculty recommends that a student employed in church work for as many as two week-ends per month on a regular basis, or who works for as many as twenty hours per week, should not register for more than twelve semester hours.

Students should examine their academic program and their outside work in the light of their Christian stewardship. For help in this matter, they are expected to consult their advisors. The maximum academic load per semester is sixteen semester hours. Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average will not be permitted to enroll for more than ten hours in the succeeding semester. Students who take less than eight semester hours of class work will not be eligible for residence in seminary housing.

Programs of Study

Associate of Divinity Degree

Many men and women feel the call to Christian service after a career in some other field. A balanced program of study in the biblical, historical, theological, and ministry areas is offered to them at the beginning college level and leads to the associate in divinity degree.

The purpose of this program is to equip students who have acquired a certain maturity and experience with basic knowledge, skills, and attitudes which will enable them to serve effectively as pastors, bi-vocational ministers, or lay leaders.

Admission is limited to students thirty years of age or older or to the spouses of enrolled students who have completed high school or its equivalent. Instruction in the use of the library is required of all entering students, and a course in English usage (non-credit) may be required if entrance examination shows such need. Fifty-six semester hours of classwork are required for graduation; twenty-four of these hours comprise the core curriculum, with the remaining hours being electives. The following plan of course offerings indicates the usual pattern of studies but is subject to change. (Course descriptions are found on pp. 50-74. The letter A following a course number designates the course as an associate level course.)

Master of Divinity Degree

Prerequisite:

An A.B. degree or its equivalent from a recognized college is prerequisite to the course of study leading to the M.Div. degree. At least 75 semester hours of the content of the work for the degree must have been in liberal arts subjects. (See entrance requirements on page 34.)

* Students may elect a maximum of 12 semester hours in categories such as social work, drama, journalism, or music in an accredited university or college, subject to the approval of the dean prior to enrollment in the courses.

The satisfactory completion of eighty-four semester hours of work is required for the M.Div. degree. This consists of twenty-four hours of core curriculum and sixty hours of elective.

Except in rare cases approved in writing by the Dean the last twenty-six semester hours toward the M.Div. degree must be taken at Southeastern Seminary. Students transferring credits to Southeastern Seminary must maintain a "C" average on courses taken at Southeastern Seminary.

The M.Div. diplomas of those students who have received credit at Southeastern Seminary for six semester hours each of Hebrew and Greek will carry the phrase "with languages." Students who bypass B 115-116 or B 151-152 or both without receiving credit (see page 35) will be required to complete six semester hours of advanced language courses for each bypass with a minimum grade of "C" in order to qualify under this provision.

Honors Program — Master of Divinity and Master of Divinity With Religious Education

The aim of the Honors Program is to stimulate the intellectual growth of students by opportunity for creative study and reflection.

Students who have demonstrated academic excellence by maintaining a 2.0 average on at least 28 semester hours of work, with no grade below C, are eligible to elect the Honors Program, provided they meet the following stipulations:

1. Fulfill the requirement of at least 6 semester hours of Greek or Hebrew study.
2. Enroll in the second Biblical language upon entering the Honors Program and receive credit for 6 semester hours in the language during the first year in the Honors Program.

Students in honors are eligible to enroll in courses in Independent Reading and Research. These courses, offered for four semester hours each, are available in each area of the curriculum each semester. A person in the honors program is eligible to elect a total of sixteen semester hours in Independent Reading and Research.

Students in honors are required to complete the core curriculum for the M.Div. degree.

In order to remain in honors, the student must maintain a 2.0 average each semester, with no grade below C.

Students in honors who graduate in the upper 10 per cent of their class will receive their degrees "cum laude."

Eligible students who desire to elect Honors must do so in writing at the office of the Registrar prior to the beginning of the semester in which they desire to enter Honors.

Master of Theology Degree

Graduates of colleges and universities of recognized standing who have also earned the M.Div. or its equivalent degree with distinction may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Master of Theology degree. For admission to this program completion of courses in elementary Hebrew and Greek of at least four semester hours each in the M.Div. curriculum, or a satisfactory score on advanced standing examinations in these languages is required. Applicants wishing to satisfy the language requirement by means of these examinations must request and complete them before enrolling in courses in the Master of Theology program. Requests must be made in writing at least ten days prior to the dates indicated for examinations for advanced standing in the Academic Calendar. Upon the recommendation of the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies and with the approval of the Faculty, another major language may be substituted for either Hebrew or Greek.

All applications for the course leading to the Th.M. degree must be made to the Committee on Graduate Study at least sixty days prior to matriculation and must be approved by the faculty. The requirements for matriculation outline on pages 00-00 apply to graduate students.

Candidates for the Th.M. degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Graduate Study and approved by the faculty.

The degree of Master of Theology is awarded for the fulfillment of the following requirements:

1. A candidate must complete in residence at least twenty semester hours of study chosen from advanced courses and seminars, with a minimum of forty quality points earned on these twenty hours (a B average). No additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points.
2. A candidate will select a major area of study in which he or she will complete not less than twelve semester hours, including at least eight semester hours in seminars conducted on a research basis and open only to graduate students. The candidate will elect not less than eight semester hours from the areas not elected as major. The candidate's course of study will be directed by a professor in the major area, and the work must be completed for the degree within two years unless an extension of time is granted by the faculty.
3. The candidate must prepare a thesis on a subject within the major area of study. The subject of the thesis and the plan of research must be approved by the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Study. Two typewritten copies of the thesis must be submitted to the major professor at least forty-five days prior to the date on which the candidate plans to take the degree. These two copies must include the original typescript and either a first carbon, a multilith copy, or a Xerox copy of the original. The thesis will be evaluated by the Examining Committee which shall be formed by the major professor and which will be composed of the major professor and at least two additional professors within the candidate's major area or with whom the candidate has studied in the

Th.M. program. The candidate will be given a comprehensive examination on work done in his major area, including the thesis. This examination will be conducted by the Examining Committee approximately three weeks before the date of graduation.

Doctor of Ministry Degree

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry program is to equip the student for the practice of ministry at a high level of professional competency. The program is complementary to work done for the Master of Divinity degree, the purpose of which is basic preparation for leadership in Christian ministry.

It is expected that the level of competence achieved shall be significantly higher for the doctorate than for the Master of Divinity degree. The program provides opportunity for advanced study in interdisciplinary courses, seminars, and clinical settings. It combines academic study and experiential learning in an attempt to integrate theology and practice.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of colleges or universities of recognized standing who have also earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent with distinction may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry program is determined by an evaluation of the applicant's academic ability and potential for excellence in ministry. Decisions on admission to the program are made by the Faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Academic ability is assessed on the basis of transcripts of all college, seminary, and graduate work, and on the basis of performance on the Graduate Record Examination (Aptitude Section) and the Cooperative English Test. Although the Faculty has not set required grade point averages or test scores, the applicant is expected to have earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent "with distinction" and otherwise to demonstrate aptitude for academic work on the doctoral level.

Potential for excellence in ministry is assessed on the basis of references from at least three persons acquainted with the applicant's ministry, an essay in which the applicant sets forth his or her own understanding of ministry, and a personal interview with a subcommittee of the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Application to the Doctor of Ministry program must be made at least sixty days prior to the matriculation date on which the applicant wishes to enter. The requirements for matriculation outlined on page 34 also apply to this program of study.

More time may be required for the applicant to take the Graduate Record Examination at one of the testing centers and for the scores to be reported to the Seminary. Persons considering application to the Doctor of Ministry program are advised to inquire early about arrangements for taking the Graduate Record Examination. The Cooperative English Test is given at the Seminary at the time of the interview, when all the other application materials have been reviewed by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Degree Requirements

Each candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree is assigned a Supervisory Committee consisting of two members of the Faculty, one of whom shall be Chairman of the Committee, and a Field Supervisor. The candidate must present to the Chairman a rationale for the plan of study, the electives, and the Project in Ministry which he or she chooses. In consultation with the two Faculty members of the Supervisory Committee, the candidate will submit the name and qualifications of a prospective Field Supervisor for approval by the Faculty. Information regarding the selection and the responsibilities of the Field Supervisor is available from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies. The candidate will be required to bear the cost of field supervision by the payment of the fee for field supervision as specified in the Schedule of Fees on page 19.

In order to continue in the program and to be awarded the degree, the candidate must maintain an academic average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale. Additional hours beyond those taken to meet requirements A, B, C, and D below may not be taken to bring the academic average up to the required level. Work done in the Colloquia and in the other courses is graded according to the system of grading set for on page 26. The Project in Ministry is graded on a pass-fail basis.

Candidates for the degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies and approved by the Faculty.

The candidate will choose one of the two plans of study outlined below. In Plan I, the Colloquia are offered in the Fall and Spring semesters. In Plan II, the Colloquia are offered in summer school. Plan II also offers the candidate the option of Guided Reading and Research for the partial fulfillment of requirement C, an option not offered in Plan I.

* See course description for prerequisites.

The candidate will be responsible for specifying a ministry upon which his or her program shall be focused and for the development of a Project in Ministry in which he or she will be engaged while a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree. The project proposal and the plan for implementing it must be approved by the members of the Supervisory Committee. The candidate will consult with the Field Supervisor and the other members of the Committee and submit to them regular reports while engaged in the project. The project will culminate in a documented report, and final approval of the report will be determined by a majority of the Committee.

Three copies of the Project in Ministry Report, one of which will be returned to the student, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee at least forty-five days prior to the date on which the candidate expects to receive the degree. The two copies to be deposited with the Seminary must include the original typescript and a first carbon, a multilith copy or a Xerox copy of the original; or two multilith or Xerox copies of the original typescript.

Additional information about the Doctor of Ministry program may be obtained from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is composed of all graduates and former students of Southeastern Seminary.

It endeavors to perpetuate friendships formed in the seminary and to foster the cause of theological education in general and specifically at Southeastern. It purposes "to provide a mutually helpful relationship for the glory of God by interrelating effectively and efficiently the alumni with the Seminary and with each other through fellowship, communication, and service."

With its 23rd annual commencement in 1976, Southeastern has granted 422 Certificates in Theology, 2,558 Master of Divinity (B.D. 1954-67), 73 Master of Religious Education, 220 Master of Theology and 130 Doctor of Ministry degrees to 3,125 persons. The number of degrees granted totals 3,403 which includes 278 persons who have received more than one degree.

At the present time 3,062 graduates and former students have current addresses in the alumni office.

For the year 1976-77 the officers of the national Alumni Association are: William L. Tomlinson of Newport News, Va., president; John H. Clifford of Hyattsville, Md., vice-president; John V. Platt of Fairforest, S.C., secretary; and directors: Robert B. Whaley of Greenville, S.C.; James A. Auchmuty of Birmingham, Ala.; and Fred D. Barnes of Lenoir, N.C.

The Association meets annually during the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention. The officers with the presidents of the state chapters comprise the General Board.

State Chapters of the Alumni Association are active in the following states: Alabama, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. These meet at least once a year, concurrent with the meetings of their respective Baptist State Conventions.

Articles of Faith

(Abstract of Principles)

Article VIII of the By-Laws of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Inc., Adopted December 7, 1950, Provides that "All members of the faculty shall be required to subscribe to the Articles of Faith, or Beliefs, as adopted by the Board, and Publicly sign these articles at the opening of the session at which they enter upon their duties. . . ." These articles were adopted also by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, founded in 1859.

I. The Scriptures.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the only sufficient, certain and authoritative rule of all saving knowledge, faith and obedience.

II. God.

There is but one God, the Maker, Preserver and Ruler of all things, having in and of himself, all perfections, and being infinite in them all; and to Him all creatures owe the highest love, reverence and obedience.

III. The Trinity.

God is revealed to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit each with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence or being.

IV. Providence.

God from eternity decrees or permits all things that come to pass, and perpetually upholds, directs and governs all creatures and all events; yet so as not in any wise to be author or approver of sin nor to destroy the free will and responsibility of intelligent creatures.

V. Election.

Election is God's eternal choice of some persons unto everlasting life — not because of foreseen merit in them, but of His mercy in Christ — in consequence of which choice they are called, justified and glorified.

VI. The Fall of Man.

God originally created man in His own image, and free from sin; but through the temptation of Satan, he transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original holiness and righteousness; whereby his posterity inherit a nature corrupt and wholly opposed to God and His law, are under condemnation, and as soon as they are capable of moral action, become actual transgressors.

VII. The Mediator.

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the divinely appointed mediator between God and man. Having taken upon Himself human nature, yet without sin, He perfectly fulfilled the law, suffered and died upon the cross for the salvation of sinners. He was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended to His Father, at whose right hand He ever liveth to make intercession for His people. He is the only Mediator, the Prophet, Priest and King of the Church, and Sovereign of the Universe.

VIII. Regeneration.

Regeneration is a change of heart, wrought by the Holy Spirit, who quickeneth the dead in trespasses and sins, enlightening their minds spiritually and savingly to understand the Word of God, and renewing their whole nature, so that they love and practice holiness. It is a work of God's free and special grace alone.

IX. Repentance.

Repentance is an evangelical grace, wherein a person being, by the Holy Spirit, made sensible of the manifold evil of his sin, humbleth himself for it, with godly sorrow, detestation of it, and self-abhorrence, with a purpose and endeavor to walk before God so as to please Him in all things.

X. Faith.

Saving faith is the belief, on God's authority, of whatsoever is revealed in His Word concerning Christ; accepting and resting upon Him alone for justification and eternal life. It is wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit, and is accompanied by all other saving graces, and leads to a life of holiness.

XI. Justification.

Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal of sinners, who believe in Christ, from all sin, through the satisfaction that Christ has made; not for anything wrought in them or done by them; but on account of this obedience and satisfaction of Christ, they receiving and resting on Him and His righteousness by faith.

XII. Sanctification.

Those who have been regenerated are also sanctified, by God's word and Spirit dwelling in them. This sanctification is progressive through the supply of Divine strength, which all saints seek to obtain, pressing after a heavenly life in cordial obedience to all Christ's commands.

XIII. Preservation of the Saints.

Those whom God hath accepted in the Beloved, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere to the end; and though they may fall, through neglect and temptation, into sin, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the Church, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be renewed again unto repentance, and be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

XIV. The Church.

The Lord Jesus is the Head of the Church, which is composed of all His true disciples, and in Him is invested supremely all power for its government. According to His commandment, Christians are to associate themselves into particular societies or churches; and to each of these churches He hath given needful authority for administering that order, discipline and worship which He hath appointed. The regular officers of a Church are Bishops or Elders, and Deacons.

XV. Baptism.

Baptism is an ordinance of the Lord Jesus, obligatory upon every believer, wherein he is immersed in water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, as a sign of his fellowship with the death and resurrection of Christ, of remission of sins, and of his giving himself up to God, to live and walk in newness of life. It is prerequisite to church fellowship, and to participation in the Lord's Supper.

XVI. The Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Jesus Christ, to be administered with the elements of bread and wine, and to be observed by His churches till the end of the world. It is in no sense a sacrifice, but is designed to commemorate His death, to confirm the faith and other graces of Christians, and to be a bond, pledge and renewal of their communion with Him, and of their church fellowship.

XVII. The Lord's Day.

The Lord's day is a Christian institution for regular observance, and should be employed in exercise of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, resting from worldly employments and amusements, works of necessity and mercy only excepted.

XVIII. Liberty of Conscience.

God alone is Lord of the conscience; and He hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men, which are in anything contrary to His word, or not contained in it. Civil magistrates being ordained of God, subjection to all lawful things commanded by them ought to be yielded by us in the Lord, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

XIX. The Resurrection.

The bodies of men after death return to dust, but their spirits return immediately to God — the righteous to rest with Him; the wicked, to be reserved under darkness to the judgment. At the last day, the bodies of all the dead, both just and unjust will be raised.

XX. The Judgment.

God hath appointed a day, wherein He will judge the world by Jesus Christ, when everyone shall receive according to his deeds; the wicked shall go into everlasting punishment; the righteous, into everlasting life.
