

"that God's people may be equipped..."

Pope A. Duncan, B.S., M.S., Th.M., Ph.D.

- Birth: September 8, 1920 at Glasgow, Kentucky
- Family: Margaret Flexer Duncan, three daughters and two grandchildren
- Education: B.S., M.S. (physics and math), University of Georgia
Th.M., Ph.D., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary
Additional study at Union Seminary, University of Zurich, and Oxford University
- Positions: Instructor in Physics, University of Georgia
Roberts Professor of Church History, Mercer University
Professor of Religion, Stetson University
Professor of Church History, Southeastern Seminary
Dean, Brunswick College
President, South Georgia College
President, Georgia Southern College
President, Stetson University
- Honors: Who's Who in America
Curator and Secretary, Florida Baptist Historical Commission
President, Georgia Association of Colleges
Consultant, National Endowment for the Humanities
- Publications: Our Baptist Story
Christianity and Western Thought (co-author)
Pilgrimage of Christianity
"As I See It," monthly newspaper column

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Wake Forest, North Carolina

Carver - Barnes Lectures

March 29-30, 1978

A series of two lectures

by

Dr. Pope A. Duncan

President

Stetson University

Deland, Florida

Wednesday, March 29, 1978

10 A.M.

Dean Albert L. Meiburg, Presiding

Barbara Morrow, Organist

Organ Prelude

Invocation Dean Meiburg

Introduction of Speaker Dean Meiburg

Lecture I:

“The University as a Christian Outcome” . . Dr. Duncan

Benediction Dean Meiburg

Postlude

Thursday, March 30, 1978

10 A.M.

Professor Carroll Trotter, Presiding

Barbara Morrow, Organist

Organ Prelude

Invocation Professor Trotter

Introduction of Speaker Professor Trotter

Lecture II: “Baptists and the University” Dr. Duncan

Benediction Professor Trotter

Postlude

