NOTICES:

WOMEN IN MINISTRY:

This subject has been important to many women and men on our campus for a long time. Some of us are still struggling with the basic issue, and our interest is developing. If you would like to join into a group exploration of the concept of -and options for- women in ministry, then come to Suzanne Davis' office (1st floor, Appleby), Friday, October 20, at 10:00 a.m.

MARS HILL ALUMNI:

All Mars Hill College Alumni (Students and Faculty) plus their spouses are invited to a Mars Hill Fellowship on Tuesday, October 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the Bethea Room. Dr. Bob Melvin, college chaplain, will be present to share recent campus happenings and to dialogue with the group. Light refreshments will be served.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS FELLOWSHIP:

The TSF discussions will be centered around Gordon R. Lewis' book, Decide For Yourself, except when we have guest speakers or other special activities. This week's topic is on, "special revelation." See you on Thursday at 1:00 p.m.-Conference Room, Mackie Hall.

OVER

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

316 Southeastern Seminary students received aid from the Keesee Foundation totaling $119,556.00. Recipients of those grants are encouraged to write the Keesee Foundation at Box 3748, Martinsville, Va. 24112 expressing their appreciation.

CHANGING ROLES OF WOMEN:

A Conference on the Changing Roles of Women, co-sponsored by the North Carolina Women's Missionary Union and the Baptist State Convention Christian Life and Public Affairs Council, will be held November 11-12. First Baptist Church, Raleigh, will host the event. This will provide an opportunity for women to examine various ways their roles have changed in the marketplace, home, church, volunteer groups and the effects these changes have had on personal identity and Christian commitment. Contact the Christian Life Council, Baptist State Convention, Box 26508, Raleigh, N.C. 27611.

NEW SEMINARIANS
SUPPORT GROUP:

A class especially for new seminarians (single and married) is held every Sunday night at 7:00 p.m. on the second floor of the Wake Forest Baptist Church educational building. The group will be using Keith Miller's book, "The Edge of Adventure." This is for new seminarians (and spouses), but all are encouraged to come and participate.

SEMINARIAN WIVES
BOOKSHELF:

Inspired and assisted by Mrs. Esther J. Adams, the Library has established a small collection of books especially for the wives of seminarians. These books are on the "Esther Adams Shelf for Seminarian Wives," located in the lobby area of the first floor. Men, please tell your wives.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

The N.C. Department of Correction is seeking concerned individuals to serve as probation/parole volunteers to minister to families and individuals who have had difficulty with the law. Problems related to broken homes, alcoholism and re-orientation to society are just a few of the needs in this area. If interested, call 733-2549 for more information.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12:00 noon Wednesday.
