Thank You

The Annual Meeting Committee would like to thank Cashiers Baptist Church and Lighthouse Baptist Church for hosting the annual meetings of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association. They would also like to thank Rev. Kent Lowdermilk and Rev. Justin Hall for presenting motivating and uplifting messages.

Thank you to all officers, committee members and associational representatives who have so capably served this year. We extend sincere appreciation to all who have served to honor our wonderful Savior Jesus Christ.

We want to thank our churches for the offerings to the association. Many churches send an offering each month while some send their offering on a quarterly or annual timing. Several churches donated extra funds this year and it really appreciated. Many people donate their time and talents that go unreported and are not reimbursed. These add considerably to our mission to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

A final thank you to our church clerks who gather the individual church information and complete the church profile. This information is used currently by the association and the Baptist State Convention. It is also a wonderful historical resource.

Tracy Salter presented the WMU Report. She said last quarter that they had exceeded their goal of collecting toothpaste for the Red Box ministry. They also collected approximately 299 backpacks for the Appalachian Project. They had also said Jackson County did well collecting Operation Christmas Child Boxes for Samaritan's Purse. She encouraged each church to start a WMU if it did not have one. She would like to help a church start WMU or to visit a church's WMU. The next big project for WMU is to bring the NC Baptist On Mission Medical Screening Bus to Jackson County. Patients would be screened and the Gospel shared. It would cost approximately $1,000- $1,200.

The October 12 and 14 Annual Meeting proceedings were presented. The October 2021 through December 31, 2021 financial statement was presented and approved.

DOM Annual Report 2021-2022, Rev. Gerald Morris

This report is an addition to the three quarterly reports that can be found at the end of this report.

This year has been, like the last few years, one of change, and maybe this time for the better. The worst of COVID seems to now be behind us and people are now shedding some of the fear that has clouded our society for the last two years. All of the churches of the Association have begun to fully open with live worship services even as some continue to host online services. Even as we progress toward "normal", some things will never return to what they once were.

Since churches throughout the Association have returned to the church for worship, in most but not all services, I have observed two things. First of all, several churches have discontinued or not restarted their Sunday evening services. The Second observation is that most of the churches have experienced a decrease in Sunday morning attendance often to the point of losing a quarter to a third of their pre-COVID attendance.

Those two observations aside, all churches have returned to meeting together and this has helped me in my visitation of the churches. In the past, I have been able to visit every church at least once a year and most twice. I am working toward that pace now again.

This quarter has been busy once again. The main emphasis for me this quarter has been preparation for the tenth Annual Missions Conference and the Mountain Heritage Day outreach at WCU.

Just as previous years, I begin to prepare for the Missions Conference in January when I request missionary speakers for the dates that have been set and then wait. This quarter is consumed with scheduling missionary speakers for each church, confirming hotel rooms, correspondence with missionaries, planning our "tour guide" days, etc. Each year I look back at the Conference and think that it was the best that we have hosted and this year is no exception. The speakers were great and one church commented to me that the Missions Conference was "better than a revival". I know that Gracella and I come away from it challenged to do more for God. After the Conference I can quickly wrap up what I have done, but Gracella's job has just begun. Post-conference is the time for her to collect all of the offerings so she can pay the hotel, distribute to the missionaries checks to reimburse them for their travel expenses and a check for an honorarium. This year, like every other year, the churches were very generous with their love offerings so the Association could be generous with the honorarium checks.

The second biggest event for this quarter is the outreach at Mountain Heritage Day at WCU. We rented a booth in the vendors' area as a non-profit organization. We prepared or ordered several items to hand out to those that passed by our booth. We had two types of cookbooks (one for desserts and one for Ramen recipes), church fans, children's activity sheets, church produced information sheets, etc. Everything that we distributed had the Gospel clearly presented. The handouts also afforded us the opportunity to talk with those that received the handouts. We were able to talk briefly with hundreds of people with the opportunity to talk in depth with some. We were able to invite several college students to our churches. We now pray for the seeds that were planted that day.

The restart of nursing home visitation has been moving along with some struggles. The churches that have gone to the nursing home have been blessed and reported that the residents are so hungry for more. The number of churches that have volunteered is limited so there is a need for more churches to step up and help. I know that many churches have not restarted their choirs, but that is not required for you to help. If you can get a small group to go and sing and have a short devotion, the residents (and you) will be blessed and each church will not have to go so many times in the year.

Gracella has been busy helping Jackson County Bible Clubs restart as the new school year begins. The Bible Clubs have spread the Gospel for over 20 years and is a vital outreach to the unchurched children in our elementary schools.

With the restart of churches meeting in person, we have received a large amount of Sunday School literature for BookLink WNC to process. We held a workday in September with several people coming to help sort and pack the material in preparation to deliver to BookLink International in Kentucky. We have a large amount of prepared literature that needs to be delivered to them soon.

There are many more smaller things that Gracella and I have been busy doing than I can describe in this report. Some of those things would be - counseling pastors and pulpit committees, alerting churches to grant opportunities to help fund their ministries, offering a class in church revitalization, attending a creation seminar at Webster Baptist, maintaining the Association's van and building, preaching for pastors that are sick or on vacation, preparing for the Annual meeting, meeting with area DOMs and the Executive Director of the State Convention, and others things that are confidential.

Each year, as I sit down to write this report I am amazed that God allows us to serve Him by serving the wonderful churches of this Association. I have had the pleasure to serve for more than 12 years and it does not seem like it has been that long. I believe God has great things planned for His churches and we have to be sure to listen and obey Him so that we can reach Jackson County and the World with the wonderful message of Jesus.

Director of Missions Quarterly Report, July 2022

This last quarter has been a time of drastic and welcome change. The COVID outbreak seems to, for the most part, be retreating into the past, only raising its ugly head sporadically. The retreat of this scourge has allowed churches to begin to have regular services again and hold events like revivals and Vacation Bible School. With what seems like a new beginning in the churches, the Association has become busier also.

One of the ways that the Association has seen the results of this new beginning is that we have seen an increase in the use of our loaner equipment. The popcorn, sno-cone and cotton candy machines have been loaned out for various events, especially VBS. The Associational van has been used several times going from Deep Creek to Mississippi. It is always wonderful to be able to loan this equipment out to the churches with minimal expense.

Another way that Gracella and I have been busy this quarter is our privilege to help a couple of churches in their ministries. We were able to help El Centro del Señor with their Youth Conference held in June. El Centro hosted the Hispanic churches throughout Western North Carolina for a time to learn how to have faith that God's Word is true. They had over 250 youth and parents in attendance. We also were able to help Cullowhee Valley Baptist during one of their Monday food distributions when several of the church members were out of town. It is always a pleasure to help churches with their ministry needs in any way that we can.

With the return to regular services, I have been able to visit churches more than I have since the Spring of 2020. I always enjoy visiting Associational churches and worshiping with the congregation. One way that you could help me greatly is to let me know what times your church is meeting. With the shake-up that has happened in the last two years, churches are meeting at different times and have canceled some services altogether.

I have also had the honor to preach several times this quarter, once on short notice. One morning I was praying about which church to visit when I received a call a little after 8 a.m. It was a call from a deacon at a church whose pastor had called him, unable to preach. If your church ever finds itself in this situation, don't hesitate to call no matter what time it is. I am always ready to preach for your pastor if he is sick, on vacation, or just needs a break.

During the Easter season this April, I attended a presentation on the Passover Sedar hosted by Lighthouse and presented by Jews for Jesus. I also was able to present a Passover Sedar at Little Savannah. They have been studying the feasts of the Old Testament and wanted to participate in the Sedar for the Easter season. I have presented this Sedar for Christians in the past and was excited to share it again. I would be glad to share this with your church.

As life returns back to normal, training opportunities and meeting obligations have returned. I traveled to the Avery Baptist Association to check out the Baptist State Convention's Revitalization Intensive course with the possibility of hosting it here. I found it was focused more on the "business" side of revitalizing a church than I wanted for our Association. I am working on getting together some material to host our own classes on church revitalization.

In April, I met with Mark Smith of the Baptist Children's Home of NC. He is the new coordinator for the Every Home Foster and Adoption services. He shared with me how the Children's Home is helping Baptists throughout the state become foster and adoptive parents. Their ultimate goal is that every child in the foster care system has a home with a baptist family. He would love to speak with your church about how the Children's Homes can help.

I have met with a few prospective pastors and interim pastors in the last month. I hope to match them up with churches that could use their services. We now have three churches that are searching for a pastor. I am also in meetings with one church that is contemplating shutting down for good. Please pray for this church as they make such an important decision.

Once again, we hosted the Food Roundup for the Broyhill Children's home. This year we collected quite a bit less food but significantly more gift cards from grocery stores. In many ways, this is better because it allows the cottage parents to buy what they need when they need it.

A good bit of what we have been doing is preparing for future Associational events. The event that takes up the most time each year is the Fall Missions Conference coming up August 28-31. This year we have eleven churches in three different Associations participating. We have almost all of the missionaries signed up to come. I have also been helping the WMU of Macon Baptist Association to start a Mission Conference of their own. This year they will have two churches host a missionary on Sunday night. I would invite you to find one of the host churches and attend so you can see what God is doing through our IMB missionaries.

Another event that we have been preparing for is the outreach on Mountain Heritage Day which will occur on September 24th. The Association will host a booth that will spotlight the churches of the Association. We plan to have information for each of the churches available along with several things to share the Gospel. We would like to have you come and help man the booth so you can invite people to your church. At the least, please send us information about your church so we can share it with the thousands of people that will visit that day.

Gracella has been very busy this quarter working on restarting the rest home visitation program. After contacting all four rest/nursing homes in the county about the possibility of churches returning to visiting on Sunday afternoon, Morning Star and the Hermitage agreed to allow churches back in. Gracella then contacted all of the churches that participated in the past to see who would be willing and able to do so again. She then worked on a schedule that would fit around Homecomings and other events on the participating churches' calendars. This is a very important ministry to the residents of these homes and we are glad to see it return. If your church is not signed up and is willing to help, she needs a few that would be willing to fill in when a church cannot go.

As you can see from reading the above report, the Association is once again becoming busy helping churches serve the Lord. May we all become busy sharing the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to this lost and dying world.

Director of Missions April 2022 Quarterly Report

As we have seen the level of COVID restrictions being lifted, the activity of the Association has increased in various ways this last quarter.

As usual, I have spent Sundays and Wednesdays either preaching or visiting member churches. It is great to see more churches being able to meet inside instead of in the parking lot and many are returning to evening services on Sunday and Wednesday. One challenge that continues for me is knowing when each church has begun to meet Sunday or Wednesday evenings. Please let me know when your church is meeting and what times you are meeting.

It is always an honor to preach and this quarter has been, once again, busy. I preached several times for churches that are currently without a pastor and a few times for pastors that were not able to preach due to illness.

Gracella and I took a trip to Eubank, Ky to deliver a van load of literature to BookLink Int. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were grateful for the materials. They are working on a load to go to Zambia. Due to their age and the continued circulation of COVID, they are not able to host large volunteer groups but are working themselves with a few volunteers to keep packing the material.

This year I am working on bringing the churches together for worship and fellowship. It was wonderful to be able to host the Spring Singing after having to cancel the previous ones. While the number of churches that were able to participate was smaller than in previous years (due to many churches still not having a choir) the churches that were able to gather at New Hope Baptist came together for a beautiful time of worship.

Another time of gathering for worship came in March when the Association hosted Dr. Paul Chitwood, president of the International Mission Board. He spoke at El Centro del Senor and Lovedale Baptist. His message was informative, encouraging and challenging. He shared his testimony of how he was saved and how he became the president of the IMB. He then shared how the IMB is sharing the Gospel throughout the world and especially to the Ukrainians during this tumultuous time. He challenged attendees by reminding us that the greatest need that everyone has is the need for salvation from their sins.

In an effort to increase the fellowship between the churches, we hosted a meal for the pastors and their wives here at the Baptist Center. There were eight of us that gathered for a meal and conversation. The current plan is to host a meal each quarter so that we can come together and get to know each other better.

I am looking at different local, state and national mission opportunities that the Association can offer. If you and/or your church is interested in going on a mission trip, please let me know.

The Annual Missions Conference is planned for August 28th. If you are interested in hosting a missionary for the evening or morning service, please let me know ASAP.

I have been attending several meetings with other DOM's following the changes that have occurred in the Baptist State Convention since they hired a new Executive Director. I have also been searching for training opportunities for the Association.

With the retreat of COVID, churches have been able to return to doing ministry inside and outside of the church. It is exciting to see what God does through the churches of the Association as we search for new ways to reach our community.

Director of Missions January 2022 Quarterly Report

This latest quarter began with a pair of wonderful Annual Meetings in October. Each time we meet I am encouraged and thankful for the strengthening cooperation and fellowship between the churches in the Association. Like everyone else, I will be so glad when this pandemic finally moves on through and we can meet together as an Association in more ways like we have in the past.

There are a couple of Associational gatherings I would like to go ahead and try to hold this Spring and one in the Fall. The first is a tradition that many churches have enjoyed for many years, the Spring Singing. This year I propose we plan to hold the Singings on March 6th for the churches that feel comfortable gathering and singing together. Like everything else these last two years, the plans would be subject to change and open to those that feel comfortable participating. Maybe even the host churches could stream it live so others could enjoy the event without having to be there in person.

The second event that I would like to move ahead with this Spring is hosting Paul Chitwood, president of the International Mission Board. He is scheduled to come March 20th at 6pm and Lovedale Baptist has agreed to host the event. Their sanctuary is large enough that we should be able to give people the distance that they need to feel safe. I think it would be nice to hear from Dr. Chitwood and see what the plans for the IMB are in the future and his heart for reaching the nations with the Good News.

The Fall event that I referred to, is the Missions Conference. This will be our 10th annual Conference. In the previous nine years, we have had the honor of hosting 40 IMB missionary units (the term that the IMB uses to refer to a missionary and their family). Each year Gracella and I finish the Conference with the feeling that it has been the best ever. It has been a blessing to hear how God is using ordinary people that are willing to be obedient to God to share the Gospel in the hardest places. Right now the plan is to hold the Conference August 28-31. Just like our 2021 Conference, there will be two options to participate - host a missionary for one service on Sunday or host five missionaries Sunday morning to Wednesday evening. Please let me know ASAP so I know the number of missionaries that I need to request from the IMB. I will be contacting them this month to request missionaries.

The van that Cashiers Baptist so graciously donated to the Association is available for churches to borrow. Four churches have borrowed it so far. It has been to Alarka, Hendersonville and Atlanta. It was used by churches with no van and one with a van but with more people going than their van could accommodate. Please contact Gracella or me for information about how to borrow the van. I am excited to add the van to the multitude of resources the Association offers to its member churches. Other resources include - popcorn machine, sno-cone machine, cotton candy machine, VBS resources, Advent candles, white candles for candle-light service, book binding machine, laminating machine, sample Sunday School materials, Jesus videos, Gospel tract samples and more.

After an extended collection time, I was able to process and recycle keys that were donated to the Association. The total for the collected keys was $38.25.

I was honored to be invited to participate in an ordination counsel at La Primera Bautista as they questioned Efrain Fernandez in preparation to ordain him into the pastoral ministry. The ordination was held January 9th but I was not able to attend because of a family obligation.

Much of the time during this quarter has been planning for the new year. In the near future, I hope to schedule informational/ planning meetings to determine the interest in a few projects for 2022. First, I would like to see if there is interest in scheduling a regular time for pastors to get together for fellowship (and maybe even food). I would love to find a regular time that would bring together every pastor, bi-vocational and full time.

Second, I would like to set up a meeting to determine the interest in various missions opportunities. One of which would involve helping the victims of the Haywood County flooding. Another is a possible mission trip to another raceway ministry. I am open to helping plan/ lead other mission trips if someone has a desire to go.

And finally, I would like to meet to determine the interest in holding classes here in the Association for Bible and church leadership classes. I have been in discussion with Fruitland for several years about hosting classes here in English (just as they do in Spanish) but to no avail. I would like to come together to study the Bible and other church leadership issues as the group desires. The meeting would be to explore various educational opportunities and I would like feedback.

I continue to work toward visiting each church yearly but with the new waves of COVID it has been difficult. When you can, please let me know when your church changes meeting times or even cancels services.

I say what I have said many times before, it is an honor and privilege to serve the Lord by serving the churches of the Tuckasegee Baptist Association.

Music Report 2021-2022

There was no Fall Singing in 2021. Many churches still did not have choirs and COVID—19 was still keeping large groups from meeting together.

The Spring Singing of the Tuckasegee Baptist Association was held Sunday, March 6th.

WMU Report 2021-2022, Tracy Salter

The TBA WMU ladies have been busy learning, serving and growing this past year.

They have donated hundreds of tubes of toothpaste to Redbox prison ministry, backpacks to Appalachian Christmas outreach through BOM. They have worked locally to support Smoky Mountain Pregnancy Care Center, Home Base, and UCM just to name a few.

They have supported offerings including Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, North Carolina Missions Offering, Heck Jones WMU Offering, and NC Baptist Hospital.

We have hosted the dinner for the Missions Celebration of IMB missionaries and championed service in their own church family.

Representatives from the TBA WMU attended leadership training in Hayesville.

We are thankful for all God has done and will do in 2023.

Cameron Cabe graduated from Seminary in May and then in June, Cameron served in the summer DI Kids camps as an associate director. In May we ordained Cameron into ministry. We also had a special Father's Day picnic at East LaPorte outdoor center. We were able to hold our VBS and we had 62 children enrolled and 35 workers. On August 8th Faith celebrated our 27th year as a church. We will be celebrating our children's return to school on August 15th. On August 29th -Sept. 1st we will be hosting the TBA Mission's Conference. Ministries we regularly support: Honduras Missionary, Jackson County Bible Club, and United Christian Ministries.
