(Students enrolled for B 1100, B 1200, B 1400, B 1500, H 2000 and T 3000 have been pre-registered for the same sections for which they currently are enrolled. Students wishing to change sections may register their requests at the time of pre-registration and the requests will be considered during the time prior to finalization of registration.)

ACCREDITED SELF STUDY SURVEY:

Student, Faculty, and Administration are requested to complete the following survey that will help reveal opinions about the extra class activities on campus and the part they play in the equipping of students for ministry. Please return to the Switchboard as soon as possible.

1. What do you as a professor () or student () think about the current program of extra class activities and opportunities as to the extent of faculty and administration supervision or sponsorship?

 2. What are your opinions faculty () administrative staff () student () about the value of student participation in existing organizations and activities such as recreation, student organizations, music, drama, etc.? Do you see this as an integral part of the total process of equipping students for ministry? What are strengths or weaknesses of the current student affairs program? Give suggestions.
