is a general survey of the country and its resources.
It is a very valuable

"God meant it unto good," Gen. 50:20

1. Thought life would never be the same again
2. Instead we have a far richer & more peaceful life.

have been in the country since the first settlement.

The names of the people who have been in the country
since the first
settlement are very interesting
and should be kept in a book
for reference.
