NOTICES:

P.H.T.'s: December graduates who wish to order P.H.T.'s or P.W.T.'s for their spouses must place orders in the Business Office by December 10.

NATIVITY CONCERT: The Nativity according to St. Luke by Randall Thompson will be presented by the Seminary choir on Tuesday, Dec. 7 at 8:00 PM in Binkley Chapel. Dr. Ben Johnson is the conductor of the 90-voice choir. Dr. James Good is the organist and Mr. Kerry Boyce is the pianist. Everyone is invited. There will be no admission charge.

GRADUATING SENIORS: Announcements and calling cards may be picked up in the Soda Shop. Additional ones may be purchased as long as they last.

CPE AT DUKE SPRING SEMESTER: A 20-hour per week unit of CPE is available at Duke Medical center Jan. 10-June 3. Monday & Wednesday 2-4 PM group sessions are required. Other times can be arranged. Eight hours credit at Southeastern will be given for M4360-1. Call Chaplain Parham or Chaplain Keese at 684-3586. Further information is on file in the CPE notebook at the Reference desk in the Library.

(OVER)

CPE FOR COUPLES: A 1 year program in clinical pastoral education for clergy couples is being offered Sept. 1, 1983 - Aug. 31, 1984 by the Iowa Methodist Medical Center. For details, see the CPE notebook at the Reference Desk in the Library.

LIBRARY HOURS EXTENDED: The Library will remain open until midnight on Dec. 6, 7, 8, 9, 13 and 14 in order to assist students in preparation for exams. After 10:30 PM (normal closing time), only reserve books may be checked out.

POST OFFICE BOXES: If you are a returning student and wish to keep your present box number, your box rent must be paid in advance by Dec. 10 or before you leave the campus. If box rent is not paid, your box will be assigned to another student in January.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST: Karen and Ken Powers, managers of the Cafeteria, will be sponsoring an all-you-can-eat pancake breakfast on Sat., Dec. 11 from 7-11 AM. Pancakes will be served with bacon or sausage for $3.00 (eggs and bacon will be available for those who do not eat pancakes). All proceeds will go to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering for foreign missions.

INTERNSHIP IN EDUCATION: The First Baptist Church in Cary would like to have an intern to work in primary education (particularly pre-school). The internship will begin in Jan., 1983 and will continue for one year. The student doing this internship will take the course entitled Concurrent Internships (M4720) for four hours credit and will be required to work 20 hours a week on the field. Please contact Luke Smith through the FIM office for additional information. Pre-requisite: M4700.

DECEMBER GRADUATES: You are reminded that all books must be turned in to the Library and all fines paid before you can be cleared to participate in graduation exercises. See Angela Barker at the Circulation Desk in the Library if you have questions.

EXAM STUDY BREAK: The Junior class will sponsor an exam study break on Wed., Dec. 8 from 9:00-11:00 PM in the Cafeteria. Hot chocolate, doughnuts, and baked goods donated by the Seminary Wives Fellowship will be served free of charge.

SEBTS CHOIR: The SEBTS Choir will be featured on WRAL TV Channel 5 on Saturday, Christmas Day from 2:00-2:30 PM. They will be performing "Songs of the Yuletide Season."

THANK YOU... to everyone who donated food or money for the 2 families sponsored by the Off-Campus Ministries Committee for Thanksgiving. Your support for these families will be sought also for Christmas and the rest of the school year. More information concerning this will be given out later.

OFFICES CLOSED: All seminary offices, including the campus stores, will be closed during the week of Dec. 20-24 and on Dec. 31.

SUMMER MISSIONS: Applications are available for Praxis, the joint mission project of starting new churches by South-eastern and the Home Mission Board, during the summer of 1983 in N.C. and New York. Credit may be earned and expenses and stipend available. See H2324 and see Dr. Braswell for application.

FINANIAL AID APPLICATIONS: Applications for the spring semester financial aid grants will be available Dec. 15 through Jan. 25 in the Student Affairs office, Mackie Hall. Applications must be submitted no later than Jan. 25.

BLOOD NEEDED: Wayne White, interim pastor at Woodland Baptist Church and SEBTS graduate, is trying to build up the blood account at Rex Hospital for one of his church members, Frances Parrot, who has leukemia and demands a great deal of blood. If you are interested in donating blood to Ms. Parrot's account, please do so at Rex Hospital and specify that the blood you give is to be credited to her account. All types of blood are needed. If you have questions, please call Wayne at 556-3048.

This is the final Campus Bulletin of the fall semester. The next issue will be available for the week of January 10-14.
