Cantrell- Dykes

"A quiet marriage ceremony was witnessed yesterday afternoon at the suburban home of the bride's father, Dr. Dykes, in North Rome, Rev. W. M. Bridges officiating, in the absence of Dr. R. B. Headden, who on account of some misunderstanding did not arrive until the services were over. The lives of Mr. A. Felix Cantrell and Miss Nettie Dykes were united. After receiving the congratulations of friends and relatives, they boarded the 4:55 north bound train on the East Tennessee railroad for Chattanooga. They will spend several days on Lookout Mountain, returning the latter part of this week to Calhoun, where they will spend some time with relatives."
