Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Statement of Purpose

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is a community of learning, deeply rooted in the Christian faith, thorough in scholarship, and vitally related to the churches. Its purpose is to prepare men and women for Christian leadership in various ministries. These include preaching and pastoral care, missionary work at home and abroad, religious education, church music, the teaching of religion and other subjects in secondary schools and colleges, religious leadership on college campuses, the chaplaincy, social service, and other forms of ministry which require specialized preparation.

Vital to all these areas of service is an understanding of the origins, content, and history of the Christian faith and its contemporary relevance. Courses of study directed toward such an understanding constitute the curriculum and are regarded as basic academic preparation for effective leadership in the Christian ministry.

While the seminary is conscious of its responsibility to the Southern Baptist Convention, its facilities are open to students of all denominations. It is the aim of the seminary to help produce a leadership for the whole Christian movement. It does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national or ethnic origin in administration of the educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, or any other program administered by this school.

In the pursuit of its objectives, the seminary is conscious of certain important emphases which undergird its program of education: (1) a thorough knowledge of the Bible; (2) a wholesome and intelligent evangelism; (3) a challenging vision of the world-wide mission of Christianity; (4) an unqualified commitment to God as revealed in our Lord Jesus Christ; (5) a sense of the mission of the local church in every social context; and (6) a commitment to academic excellence in the context of an open admissions policy.

To accomplish its purpose, the seminary maintains a faculty of God-called members who are qualified by academic preparation and by personal and professional experience to offer leadership in spiritual and intellectual endeavors.

The Abstract of Principles

Southeastern's Articles of Faith

Article IX of the By-Laws of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Inc., adopted December 7, 1950, provides that "All members of the faculty shall be required to subscribe to the Articles of Faith, or Beliefs, as adopted by the Board, and publicly sign these articles at the opening of the session at which they enter upon their duties." These articles were originally prepared for and adopted by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, founded in 1859.

I. The Scriptures.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the only sufficient, certain and authoritative rule of all saving knowledge, faith and obedience.

II. God.

There is but one God, the Maker, Preserver and Ruler of all things, having in and of himself, all perfections, and being infinite in them all; and to Him all creatures owe the highest love, reverence and obedience.

III. The Trinity.

God is revealed to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit each with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence or being.

IV. Providence.

God from eternity decrees or permits all things that come to pass, and perpetually upholds, directs and governs all creatures and all events; yet so as not in any wise to be author or approver of sin nor to destroy the free will and responsibility of intelligent creatures.

V. Election.

Election is God's eternal choice of some persons unto everlasting life—not because of foreseen merit in them, but of His mercy in Christ—in consequence of which choice they are called, justified and glorified.

VI. The Fall of Man.

God originally created man in His own image, and free from sin; but through the temptation of Satan, he transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original holiness and righteousness; whereby his posterity inherit a nature corrupt and wholly opposed to God and His law, are under condemnation, and as soon as they are capable of moral action, become actual transgressors.

VII. The Mediator.

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the divinely appointed mediator between God and Man. Having taken upon Himself human nature, yet without sin, He perfectly fulfilled the law, suffered and died upon the cross for the salvation of sinners. He was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended to His Father, at whose right hand He ever liveth to make intercession for His people. He is the only Mediator, the Prophet, Priest and King of the Church, and Sovereign of the Universe.

VIII. Regeneration.

Regeneration is a change of heart, wrought by the Holy Spirit, who quickeneth the dead in trespasses and sins, enlightening their minds spiritually and savingly to understand the Word of God, and renewing their whole nature, so that they love and practice holiness. It is a work of God's free and special grace alone.

IX. Repentance.

Repentance is an evangelical grace, wherein a person being, by the Holy Spirit, made sensible of the manifold evil of his sin, humbleth himself for it, with godly sorrow, detestation of it, and self-abhorrence, with a purpose and endeavor to walk before God so as to please Him in all things.

X. Faith.

Saving faith is the belief, on God's authority, of whatsoever is revealed in His Word concerning Christ; accepting and resting upon Him alone for justification and eternal life. It is wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit, and is accompanied by all other saving graces, and leads to a life of holiness.

XI. Justification.

Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal of sinners, who believe in Christ, from all sin, through the satisfaction that Christ has made; not for anything wrought in them or done by them; but on account of this obedience and satisfaction of Christ, they receiving and resting on Him and His righteousness by faith.

XII. Sanctification.

Those who have been regenerated are also sanctified, by God's word and Spirit dwelling in them. This sanctification is progressive through the supply of Divine strength, which all saints seek to obtain, pressing after a heavenly life in cordial obedience to all Christ's commands.

XIII. Preservation of the Saints.

Those whom God hath accepted in the Beloved, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere to the end; and though they may fall, through neglect and temptation, into sin, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the Church, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be renewed again unto repentance, and be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

XIV. The Church.

The Lord Jesus is the Head of the Church, which is composed of all His true disciples, and in Him is invested supremely all power for its government. According to His commandment, Christians are to associate themselves into particular societies or churches; and to each of these churches He hath given needful authority for administering that order, discipline and worship which He hath appointed. The regular officers of a Church are Bishops or Elders, and Deacons.

XV. Baptism.

Baptism is an ordinance of the Lord Jesus, obligatory upon every believer, wherein he is immersed in water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, as a sign of his fellowship with the death and resurrection of Christ, of remission of sins, and of his giving himself up to God, to live and walk in newness of life. It is prerequisite to church fellowship, and to participation in the Lord's Supper.

XVI. The Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Jesus Christ, to be administered with the elements of bread and wine, and to be observed by His churches till the end of the world. It is in no sense a sacrifice, but is designed to commemorate His death, to confirm the faith and other graces of Christians, and to be a bond, pledge and renewal of their communion with Him, and of their church fellowship.

XVII. The Lord's Day.

The Lord's day is a Christian institution for regular observance, and should be employed in exercise of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, resting from worldly employments and amusements, works of necessity and mercy only excepted.

XVIII. Liberty of Conscience.

God alone is Lord of the conscience; and He hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men, which are in anything contrary to His word, or not contained in it. Civil magistrates being ordained of God, subjection to all lawful things commanded by them ought to be yielded by us in the Lord, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

XIX. The Resurrection.

The bodies of men after death return to dust, but their spirits return immediately to God—the righteous to rest with Him; the wicked, to be reserved under darkness to the judgment. At the last day, the bodies of all the dead, both just and unjust will be raised.

XX. The Judgment.

God hath appointed a day, wherein He will judge the world by Jesus Christ, when everyone shall receive according to his deeds; the wicked shall go into everlasting punishment; the righteous, to everlasting life.

Student life at Southeastern is deeply spiritual, academically challenging, emotionally relaxing, and intellectually stimulating.

Introduction

Affiliation and Support

Southeastern Seminary is an agency of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). It is governed by a board of Trustees elected by the Convention, which in turn elects the President, Administrative Cabinet members, and the Faculty. The seminary receives a major part of its operating expenses and capital needs from the SBC's Cooperative Program. These funds are supplemented by student fees and special gifts from alumni and friends.

Location

The 450-acre campus of Southeastern Seminary is located in Wake Forest, North Carolina. It is 10 miles north of Raleigh and 25 miles east of Durham, both medium-sized centers of education and business. Coupled with Chapel Hill, the three cities comprise an area known as the Research Triangle of North Carolina. The vibrant Triangle area is home to three of the nation's major universities, Duke, North Carolina, and North Carolina State. It also encompasses a major technological and research center, Research Triangle Park. Wake Forest is easily reached from any part of the country. It is serviced by the Raleigh-Durham airport (RDU) and is within easy access of Interstates 95, 85 and 40.

Campus Visits for Prospective Students

Prospective students can discover a great deal more about Southeastern by visiting the campus. Arrangements can be made for students to tour the campus, see seminary housing, visit classes, and meet other students, professors, and administrators. Accommodations and meals will be made available to prospective students for up to two days without charge. To make reservations for such a visit write the Admissions Office, P. O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, N. C. 27588-1889 or call toll free 1-800-682-1817 (inside North Carolina) or 1-800-334-7709 (outside North Carolina).

History

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary became a reality on May 10, 1950, by vote of the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Chicago, Illinois. But, for several years before that date, the idea for this seminary had been growing in the minds of Southern Baptists. In fact, for three years, it had been the subject of careful study by Convention leaders who recognized the need for a seminary on the Atlantic Seaboard where none existed at that time. Indeed, this section of the nation is particularly significant for Southern Baptists. Not only because it encompasses the Convention's original territory, but also because it contains a heavy concentration of Southern Baptist churches.

As the first step in establishing Southeastern Seminary, the Convention purchased the campus of Wake Forest College in Wake Forest, North Carolina—recognized then and now as one of the most beautiful in the South. But more than beauty, the campus claimed a Baptist heritage. It had been bought in 1832 by the Baptists of North Carolina who planned to organize an institution for educating ministers—an institution which would later become Wake Forest College.

Next, trustees were elected by the Convention. Their first order of business was to secure a charter and formulate the Articles of Faith. They then elected the seminary's first president, Dr. Sydnor L. Stealey.

By the fall of 1951, Southeastern was ready to begin classes and, on September 12, opening day was attended by eighty-five students and three faculty members who met in one classroom building on the Wake Forest campus. In the beginning, the seminary offered a basic theological program leading to the Bachelor of Divinity degree. Three years later, studies focusing on the more practical aspects of ministry were added through an eight-week course in pastoral care, which was taught at Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

In 1956, when Wake Forest College moved to its new location in Winston-Salem, Southeastern took over the entire campus which covered five hundred acres and consisted of more than twelve major buildings. This meant enrollment could increase considerably. And by 1959 the number of students had risen to 734. The number of faculty members grew as well, and plans to remodel and renovate buildings were initiated.

The next stage of academic expansion was accomplished in 1957 when Southeastern instituted a summer school session and, the following year, introduced an interdisciplinary course on ministering to the rural community.

In 1958, the seminary received full accreditation from the American Association of Theological Schools, now known as the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada.

In 1963, after thirteen years of devoted service, Dr. Stealey retired and Dr. Olin T. Binkley was elected president. Under his leadership, the seminary continued the renovation program begun by Dr. Stealey. Four outdated buildings were removed, and thirteen new buildings were constructed and paid for—all during Dr. Binkley's eleven-year administration.

Dr. Binkley also guided major academic changes: the general curriculum was revised; the Bachelor of Divinity degree became the Master of Divinity degree; the Master of Religious Education and the Doctor of Ministry degrees were implemented, bringing the total number of degree programs to seven. Furthermore, he inaugurated the annual Alumni Giving Program before his retirement in 1974.

Southeastern's third president, Dr. W. Randall Lolley, was elected in 1974. His leadership too effected remarkable progress for the seminary in the areas of facilities, academics, and enrollment. During his administration the Emery B. Denny Library Building was modernized and enlarged by fifty percent. With the completion of this expansion in 1977, the library became one of the finest theological libraries in the Southeast. In the area of academics, the Certificate of Theology was restructured in 1976 and became the Associate of Divinity degree. And, in 1978, Southeastern received full accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

To meet the needs of an ever-increasing married student population, the seminary constructed 100 townhouse-style apartments in 1979. The following year, renovation of Lea Laboratory was begun and completed a year later. Built in 1888, Lea Laboratory is the oldest campus building. After the extensive renovation, it was renamed Broyhill Hall and in 1980 was listed in the National Register of Historic Buildings. Next, in 1982, the ground floor of Binkley Chapel was transformed into five spacious, modern classrooms.

In 1983, Southeastern developed and adopted a long-range plan related to the life and work of the seminary. Targeted for accomplishment by the year 2000, the plan's objectives focus on strengthening the academic and administrative organization and functions of the seminary, enhancing student life, and continuing the renovation of campus buildings.

One of these objectives was met in 1984 with the modernization of Adams Hall, an instructional building with classrooms, seminar rooms, an auditorium, and a photo studio. Another was the completion of Ledford Center—the most dramatic facilities improvement at Southeastern during the last decade. A valuable asset for the whole campus community, this $2.5 million complex provides a gymnasium, snack bar, lounges, meeting rooms, book store, sauna and exercise rooms.

In 1988, after 14 years of excellent leadership, Dr. Lolley resigned as president. He was succeeded by Dr. Lewis A. Drummond, Southeastern's fourth and current president, who came to Southeastern from the Billy Graham Center for Evangelism at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

During Southeastern's 39-year history, enrollment has averaged 725 students per year. Present enrollment stands at approximately 650 students. Through the 1989-90 year, the seminary has granted a total of 7,457 degrees. Today, Southeastern alumni are influencing and shaping the lives of countless others as they serve in a wide variety of positions throughout the Southern Baptist Convention as well as in the "utmost parts of the earth."

Doctrinal Guidelines

Since its founding in 1950, each elected member of the faculty at Southeastern Seminary has subscribed to and publicly signed the Seminary Articles of Faith (known as The Abstract of Principles) at the beginning of his or her teaching career at the Seminary. Southeastern is also guided doctrinally by the Baptist Faith and Message Statement, adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963.

Programs of Study

The Seminary offers courses of study leading to eight degrees. Each is designed for the student's special calling and interests. Basic master's level programs are the two-year Master of Arts in Christian Education, the two-year Master of Arts in Church Music and the three-year Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity with Christian Education and Master of Divinity with Church Music. Advanced degrees are the Master of Theology and Doctor of Ministry. In addition, the two-year Associate of Divinity degree is for persons over 30 years of age who do not hold a baccalaureate degree.

Accreditation and Membership

The seminary has been accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada since 1958. It has also been accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools since 1978 and is approved for attendance by non-immigrant students under the Immigration and Nationality Act. Its memberships include the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education and the Corporation of American Schools of Oriental Research.

Relationship to Colleges, Universities and Hospitals

Southeastern is within a short drive of seven major universities and colleges. The cooperative arrangements maintained with these schools include: library exchanges, adjunct professorships, visiting lecturers and faculty fellowship. Programs of study, clinical training and internships are conducted at three major medical centers. With the assistance of recognized specialists in the region, seminars and classes are offered on topics such as urban studies, contemporary trends in rural life, chaplaincy, evangelism, recreation, Christian education, missions, medicine, mental illness and other related subjects.

Seminary Extension Department

Southeastern and the other five seminaries of the SBC participate in the joint sponsorship of the Seminary Extension Department. This agency offers a wide selection of certificate and diploma courses through off-campus centers, home study and Extension Centers. For further information write to Seminary Extension Department, SBC, 901 Commerce, #601, Nashville, Tennessee 37203-3697.

Admission Policy

Academic Prerequisites

Prerequisite to entrance into any master's degree program at the seminary is a baccalaureate degree from a college or university accredited by an agency that is recognized by the Council on Post-secondary Accreditation (COPA). Graduates of colleges and universities located outside the United States will be considered on an individual basis.

The applicant's undergraduate degree program must have a strong liberal arts background as evidenced by the completion of approximately sixty (60) semester hours of courses well distributed among the subject areas listed below.

English language and literature.

Modern and classical languages, including French, German, Latin, Greek and Hebrew.

History, including non-Western as well as American and European.

Philosophy, particularly its history and methods.

Natural Sciences, both the physical and the life sciences.

Social Sciences, including psychology, sociology, and anthropology.

Fine arts and music, with emphasis on creativity and symbolic communication.

Religion, both in the Judeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions.

Whatever their background, students should bring to the seminary an understanding of the world and the ability to communicate. An awareness of the world in which we live includes a knowledge of persons and ideas, an understanding of significant movements in human affairs, and an appreciation of the physical universe.

Communication is of central importance in ministry. The entering student must be able to think clearly, to read with comprehension, and to write and speak clearly and effectively.

Additional information and requirements for A. Div., Th. M., and D. Min. applicants are included in descriptions of the respective degree programs.

Admission Procedures

Application for admission is made through a form obtained from the office of the Director of Admissions. The following items must be submitted before an application is presented to the Admissions Committee:

1. A completed application form.
2. Three reference forms.
3. A recent photo.
4. A non-refundable application fee of $10.
5. A completed medical information form.
6. An official transcript or transcripts sent directly from the registrar to the Director of Admissions.
7. A completed Church Recommendation Form in which a local church endorses the applicant as a candidate for the ministry.

Application Deadlines

It is to the advantage of students to submit applications early in the year. Applications for the M.Div., M.Div. /CE, M.Div. /CM, M.A.C.E., M.A.C.M., and A.Div. programs should be received in the Admissions Office at least 30 days prior to matriculation day of the semester or summer term in which the student expects to begin. Under no circumstances may a student be enrolled in classes until his/her application has been fully approved. Applications for the Th. M. or the D.Min. programs must be submitted to the Admissions Office at least 60 days prior to matriculation for consideration by the appropriate committee and must be approved by the faculty.

Admission

When the application materials are complete, they are reviewed by the Director of Admissions and members of a standing Admissions Committee of the faculty. A personal interview with the Admissions Committee may be required in certain instances. The Admissions Committee may admit or deny admission to students on behalf of the faculty, or it may bring a recommendation to the faculty for its consideration.

Students may expect to be notified in writing of the decision of the Admissions Committee within 30 days after all their materials are on file in the Admissions Office.

Conditional Admission for Master's Programs

Applicants who have completed as many as 112 semester hours toward a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university (see above "Academic Prerequisites") and who otherwise meet all admission requirements may be granted conditional admission by the Admissions Committee on the condition that they will complete work for the baccalaureate degree. No more than thirty (30) semester hours of seminary work may be undertaken until the prerequisite degree has been completed.

Foreign Student Admissions

The admissions procedure for foreign students requires additional information and processing time due to seminary policies and requirements of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. A foreign student admissions guide is provided to all applicants who are not citizens of the United States.

Refunds

Fees: A student who withdraws between the first day of classes and the close of registration may be refunded two-thirds (2/3) of the total fees. Total fees constitute matriculation and student services fees.

Deposits: Deposits made for reservation of rooms and apartments will be refunded only if cancellation is made ten days prior to beginning of the term. The deposit will be returned when the student releases the facility in good condition and returns the key to the office of Plant Services. Deposits are applied to balance due on account before refunds are made.

Hospital Insurance

Students are required to present evidence of adequate medical insurance at the time of registration each semester. The Annuity Board Student Health Program is recommended to students who do not have comparable coverage.

Music Fees

Private voice, piano and organ lessons are available to a limited number of students. There is a $100 fee per semester. There are practice pianos and organs in the Chapel building. A practice fee of $20 will be charged for piano, and $25 for organ. Fees are not refundable after one week from last day for registration.

Housing Regulations/Availability

Southeastern Seminary now has dormitory space for 250 men and 84 women and apartments for 211 families. Many students live in parsonages furnished by the churches they serve.

Application

Applications for housing require deposits of $75 for rooms and $100 for apartments. Address application to: Housing Office, Southeastern Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27588-1889. For description of housing facilities, see pages 26 - 27. Costs of operation may necessitate changes in rent. Rooms or apartments reserved by deposit will not be held beyond the opening date of the term. All rent is payable monthly in advance.

Eligibility

Apartments are available to married students who are residing in Wake Forest with their families and are enrolled for at least ten (10) hours in a degree program. Housing is available for students enrolled in the Associate (A.Div.), Master of Arts in Christian Education (M. A.C. E.), Master of Arts in Church Music (M. A.C. M.), or any of the Master of Divinity (M. Div.) programs. Housing for Th. M. and D. Min. students will be assigned only if space is available after students enrolled in the basic degree programs are housed. Students occupying seminary apartments are required to sign a lease agreement and housing regulations in the Housing Office. Students should read carefully and be acquainted with the terms of the lease agreement and any other applicable housing regulations. Failure to observe these regulations will disqualify the student/family for seminary housing. Please note that no pets are permitted in seminary housing.

Vacating

Students are required to vacate seminary housing within 30 days after completing class work for the A.Div., M.A.C.E., M.A.C.M. and M.Div. degrees at the end of the fall and spring semester. Dormitory students who complete class work during summer school and who will not be enrolled in the fall semester, must vacate the dormitories during the weekend following the end of the second summer session. Students in seminary apartments who complete degree work in either summer session must vacate their apartments within one week after completing their degrees.

Dormitory Housing Statement of Policy

Southeastern Seminary is committed to providing adequate basic services for all of its students. As this commitment relates to housing, Southeastern seeks to make available on-campus housing at affordable rates.

Dormitory housing is provided primarily for single students and students who commute from other areas and need temporary housing during the week. Residents must be enrolled for at least ten (10) semester hours in a degree program.

Housing policies and regulations are devised to be consistent with the Seminary's commitment not only to its students but also to the Southern Baptist Convention and the people who support it. Their primary aim is to help maintain an atmosphere that promotes the welfare of the individual student, maintains a comfortable setting conducive to study and learning and provides as much privacy as possible in a shared environment.

All seminary housing residents are guided by specific policies and regulations. Regulations which define the use of dormitory facilities are somewhat restrictive, due primarily to the nature of dormitory housing in which residents must share accommodations, facilities and equipment. Since students are not required to live in seminary-owned housing, potential residents should read carefully the policies and regulations regarding their particular dormitory. Those who feel that these may be confining or inconsistent with their particular lifestyle are encouraged to seek other alternatives for housing.

At best, dormitory housing is temporary in nature and should not be equated with or expected to function as housing which is of a more permanent type.

The assignment of a dormitory room is not a commitment on the part of the seminary to the student for continuous occupancy of a particular room. At the discretion of the seminary, residence halls may be closed, or students may be required to make moves within dormitories.

In order that necessary maintenance and cleaning can be accomplished prior to the fall term, residents will be required to vacate their rooms during announced periods.

Room rent is due one month in advance, at the beginning of each calendar month. Residents are responsible for the rent until they have followed the proper procedure for checking out of the room and turning in the key.

Cafeteria

Meals in the cafeteria will cost approximately seven dollars per day, depending on individual requirements.

Student Financial Assistance

A student's preparation for entering the seminary should include a determination of personal financial needs and the provisions for meeting these. Southeastern believes that its students should, as far as possible, be self-supporting. However, it is recognized that some men and women who give promise of outstanding usefulness in Christian service may require assistance to complete their seminary program.

Financial aid at Southeastern Seminary is administered through an assistance program which includes on-campus jobs, scholarships and emergency assistance through loans and grants. The dimensions of the program do not make it possible to provide for the total budget needs of students. Any assistance which can be provided is, therefore, supplemental to other income which the student may have. Funds for these programs are made possible primarily through the generous gifts of friends and alumni of Southeastern.

To facilitate adjustment to seminary life, it is recommended that entering students carefully anticipate fees, basic living expenses and moving costs and make provision in advance for meeting these financial obligations.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary does not participate in any federal or state funded student aid programs involving loans or grants. Prospective students should not anticipate such aid being available while enrolled at the seminary. However, Southeastern Seminary is approved to certify enrollment eligibility for repayment deferments for most federal or state education loans received in college. Students should contact their lending institutions for advice and information. Qualified students who are veterans are eligible to receive V. A. benefits.

Possibilities of Self-Help

Church Work - The seminary encourages students to work in the churches as student pastors, assistant pastors, supply pastors, interim pastors, mission pastors, revival preachers, youth revival preachers, song leaders for congregations, directors of music, directors of religious education, directors of recreation, organists, pianists, and workers in church organizations. All students are urged to seek the counsel of the Formation in Ministry Office concerning such employment.

On the Campus - A limited number of work opportunities are available on campus, both for students and for spouses.

Employment for students is part-time in one of three categories: 1) work grants, on the basis of financial need and qualification for a particular job (information and applications from the Dean of Students); 2) hourly employment in areas such as Book Store, Cafeteria, Child Care Center, Communication, Library, and Plant Services (by application directly to these areas); and 3) fellows, graders and research assistants (by invitation of faculty members).

Employment for spouses may be either full-time or part-time. Applications received in the Business Office are available to all Administrative Offices; however, applicants with skills and interest in specialized areas may also apply directly in those areas.

Wake Forest and other Communities - Students may secure remunerative work in Wake Forest and nearby cities and towns. Wake Forest is within 20 minutes driving distance of Raleigh and within 30 minutes of Durham. Many students and their spouses find employment in these centers.

In no instance can definite employment in the churches or in the adjacent communities be guaranteed by the seminary.

Academic Load and Employment

When a student assumes responsibilities in addition to academic work, there is an ethical obligation to fulfill all these tasks in a satisfactory manner. The Faculty recommends that a student with as many as 20 hours per week of secular employment or as many as two weekends per month of church-related responsibilities on a regular basis not register for more than 12 semester hours. Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average will not be permitted to enroll for more than ten hours.

Students who find it necessary to engage in outside work in the amounts indicated above are strongly advised to take a four-year sequence.

Student Aid

Student aid at Southeastern Seminary begins with the commitment of the Southern Baptist Convention to theological education. This commitment is most evident in the generous funding of the seminary's entire operation. Gifts from churches and individuals given directly and through the Cooperative Program amount to an annual subsidy for each student of over $5,200. The result is that basic fees are kept at a minimum.

Other types of aid are made possible through gifts and funds established by individual and corporate donors. These make it possible to provide work grants, loans, emergency grants and scholarships to qualified students.

Grants-in-aid and loans are available in small sums to meet urgent or emergency needs of students. Scholarships are awarded from available funds each semester after registration closes. Applications may be submitted a month in advance of this date. Applications for grants, loans and scholarships are reviewed and awarded by decision of the administrative Loan and Aid Committee. Information and applications may be obtained by writing the Dean of Students.

Special Scholarships and Aid Funds

Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards

The Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards are Southeastern's most prestigious scholarships. These are awarded to qualified entering students in the basic master's level degree programs. Academic excellence (B+ or better), commitment to ministry, promise in the service of Christ and Christian character are considered in making these awards. Scholarships are $1,200 each and are made available during the recipient's first year. Application materials are made available each fall on selected college campuses or may be obtained by writing the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Seminary. Applications are accepted through May 1.

President's Scholars Awards for Leadership in Excellence in Ministry

The President's Scholars Awards for Leadership in Excellence in Ministry are provided in recognition of exceptional leadership qualities and demonstrated commitment to Christian ministry. Scholarships are $1,000 each and are awarded for the first year of study. Applications are accepted through May 1 and can be obtained from the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Seminary.

Charles B. Keesee Education Assistance Awards

The Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc. of Martinsville, Virginia, is a private foundation which offers financial assistance to qualified Southern Baptists who were residents of the states of Virginia or North Carolina prior to entering the seminary and who are enrolled in a full-time basic degree program (A. Div., M. A. C. E., M. A. C. M., or M. Div.). Applications may be secured from: Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc., P. O. Box 431, Martinsville, Virginia 24114. These must be returned to the Keesee Office by March 1 prior to the academic year for which assistance is requested.

Charles S. Coleman Holy Land Study Tour Scholarships

Generous gifts of Charles S. Coleman, a lay-graduate of Southeastern Seminary, have made available to students scholarship help for the seminary's annual Biblical Study Tour of the Holy Land, B 1030. These scholarships are open to second or third year students enrolled in the A. Div., M. Div., and M. A. C. E. degree programs at Southeastern Seminary. Applications may be requested from the Faculty Secretaries' Office at the beginning of the Fall semester, and must be returned there by mid-October. Scholarship awards are announced on November 1.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is composed of all graduates and former students of Southeastern Seminary. It endeavors to perpetuate friendships formed in the seminary and to foster the cause of theological education in general and specifically at Southeastern. It purposes "to provide a mutually helpful relationship for the glory of God by interrelating effectively and efficiently the alumni with the Seminary and with each other through fellowship, communication and service." With its Spring commencement in 1991, Southeastern has granted 863 Associate of Divinity, 5,588 Master of Divinity, 231 Master of Religious Education, 45 Master of Arts in Christian Education, 11 Master of Arts in Church Music, 313 Master of Theology and 401 Doctor of Ministry degrees. The number of degrees granted totals 7,452, which includes multiple degrees received by the same person.

The Association meets annually during the Southern Baptist Convention. The officers, with the presidents of the state chapters, comprise the General Board. State Chapters of the Alumni Association are active in the following states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. These meet at least once a year, concurrent with the meetings of their respective Baptist State Conventions.

The National Alumni officers are:

President	Ms. Marie S. Bean, '81 Mars Hill, NC
President Elect	Dr. E. Leon Smith, '65, '68, '73 Gastonia, NC
Secretary	Ms. Sandi Evans Rogers, '81 Nashville, TN
Chairman of the Executive Committee	Dr. Thomas Austin, '58, '59, '75 Winston-Salem, NC

Academic Life

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary offers eight degree programs: Associate of Divinity, Master of Arts in Christian Education, Master of Arts in Church Music, Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity with Christian Education, Master of Divinity with Church Music, Master of Theology, and Doctor of Ministry. Descriptions of these programs of study, the procedures to be followed in seeking admission, and a summary of academic policies appear on the following pages.

Academic Regulations

The Dean of the Faculty administers the academic policies and procedures of the seminary. These academic regulations are established by the Faculty of the Seminary under the authority of the Board of Trustees. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary reserves the right to make changes in academic policies and requirements as needed. Questions concerning the current status of all academic matters should be addressed to the Registrar. Generally speaking, students will follow the degree requirements as outlined in the catalog under which they entered the seminary. Students may take advantage of any improvements that appear in later catalogs while they are enrolled. A student who withdraws from enrollment for two academic years will reenter under the catalog current at that time.

Attendance

Class attendance is considered an important part of the learning process. Regular class attendance is expected and students are responsible for the mastery of materials required for credit.

Inclement Weather

When the public schools of Wake County are closed because of dangerous weather conditions (ice, snow, major storms), seminary classes will not meet. If Wake County Schools close early or open late, seminary classes will close or open on a similar schedule. An absence from class due to dangerous road conditions due to weather will be an excused absence. The inclement weather policies regarding the closing of seminary classes and/or offices will not apply to the Ruby Reid Child Care Center. The Ruby Reid Child Care Center will be open for the children at all times as stated in their official schedules.

Use of Recorders in Class

Recording a teacher's lecture or conversation without expressed written permission is prohibited and constitutes grounds for disciplinary procedures. Students desiring to record class lectures should seek this permission in advance. Professors often state their policy on this matter during the introductory sessions of the class.

Changes in Registration

After registration, any changes in a student's enrollment must be arranged through the Registrar's Office. No changes are permitted in enrollment or academic status after stated deadlines except by permission of the Dean of the Faculty.

Discipline

Students admitted to the school are expected to continue to order their lives by Christian standards of character and conduct and to respect academic and moral regulations adopted by the Trustees, the Administration, and the Faculty. The Judicial Process for Student Discipline, as printed in The Student Handbook, is established to provide for fairness in dealing with issues which may arise and also in order that the student might have the assurance of fair treatment in the event a disciplinary procedure is initiated. Student discipline is administered by the Vice President for Academic Affairs through a Faculty committee that is elected exclusively for this purpose.

Academic Load

An academic load of 15 hours per semester enables the M.Div., M.Div./C.E. or M.Div./C.M. degrees to be earned in 6 semesters and the Associate of Divinity degree to be earned in 4 semesters. The M.A.C.E and M.A.C.M. degrees call for an average of 16 hours per semester to earn the degree in 4 semesters. Students are expected to give priority to the program of study in which they have enrolled. Extracurricular responsibilities require a corresponding reduction in the student's academic load.

The Faculty recommends that a student employed in church work for as many as two weekends per month on a regular basis, or who works for as many as 20 hours per week, should not register for more than 12 credit hours per semester.

The maximum academic load is 16 semester hours. Exceptions may be approved by the Dean of the Faculty but are discouraged.

In order to be eligible for residence in seminary housing, students must enroll for a minimum of 10 semester hours. Enrollment is not required in the Summer Terms, but all students are strongly urged to take Summer courses in order to reduce their required academic load during the regular semesters.

The M.Div. degree is normally an intensive three-year program of study for a full time student.

Student Classification

A Senior is a student who has completed all but 30 semester hours of work for the degree for which he or she is enrolled. A Junior is a student who has earned fewer than 30 semester hours. A Middler is an M.Div. student who falls in between the other two classifications.

Bypassing Required Courses

Academically qualified students may bypass required courses upon examination according to seminary policies. An entering student who has made grades of "C" or above in college or university courses which closely parallel the required courses in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Ethics, Greek or Hebrew, may request permission to bypass those required courses and fulfill the requirements by completion of an equivalent number of semester hours in advanced courses in the same area. Such requests must be made to the Registrar in writing no later than ten days prior to the dates indicated for matriculation in the Academic Calendar. Arrangements for examination by appropriate faculty members are made by the Registrar. Similarly, college or university courses paralleling certain elective courses in the M.Div., M.Div./C.E., M.Div./C.M., M.A.C.E. or M.A.C.M. curriculums may qualify as prerequisites to advanced courses in the same area of study. In such cases, students are advised to consult with the professors involved. Such bypass examinations must be requested and taken at the beginning of the student's first semester in his or her first year of study.

Advanced Standing

Entering students who claim unusual proficiency in studies in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Ethics, Greek or Hebrew, may take examinations to determine Advanced Standing in these areas. Such Advanced Standing examinations must be requested and taken at the beginning of the student's first semester in his or her first year of study. Requests must be made to the Registrar, in writing, at least ten days prior to the dates indicated in the Academic Calendar for examinations for Advanced Standing. Performance of superior quality on an Advanced Standing examination qualifies the student to bypass and receive credit for the corresponding required course or elementary biblical language course upon the successful completion of at least four semester hours in advanced courses in the same area. Performance deemed satisfactory but not superior on an Advanced Standing examination qualifies the student to bypass the corresponding course. Bypass and Advanced Standing examinations will be scheduled during matriculation.

Transfer of Credits

Credits earned at other schools may be applied toward degree programs at Southeastern, subject to certain conditions: The credits must be of a graduate level, in a subject appropriate to the student's degree program at Southeastern, and awarded by an accredited school.

Students transferring credits to Southeastern Seminary must maintain a "C" average on courses taken at Southeastern Seminary in order to graduate.

Persons considering transfer to Southeastern must make application through the normal channels of admission, and must have an official transcript sent directly from the Registrar of their current school to Southeastern. Southeastern's Registrar evaluates the official transcript and informs the student of the credit that will be transferred.

Transfer students are also reminded that they must take a minimum of 26 hours on campus in order to graduate from Southeastern. These hours may not be taken in CPE, Intern Year Away, or in any other course that does not require explicit, regular, contact teaching hours with a Southeastern teacher (elected, appointed, adjunctive faculty member, or visiting professor), and not more than 12 of these hours may be taken in Directed Reading, Summer Practicums, off-campus classes, and similar special classes.

Academic Probation

Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average (one grade point per semester hour) will be placed on Academic Restriction. Students on Academic Restriction will be limited to no more than ten semester hours in the succeeding semester. If the student on Academic Restriction fails to achieve a "C" average during the semester, the student will be placed on Academic Probation. A student on Academic Probation must earn at least a "C" average during that semester or that student will be suspended from the seminary. Students who have been suspended for academic reasons will not be considered for readmission until at least one full semester has passed and the student gives adequate evidence of having made changes in his or her situation so as to justify readmission. Students readmitted after academic suspension will automatically be on Academic Probation during the first semester.

Evaluation and Grading

The critical assessment of mastery in a given subject is an important ingredient in learning. The following table presents the meaning of grading symbols as they are employed at Southeastern.

Grading Symbols

- A - The "A" grade is interpreted to mean that the instructor recognizes exceptional capacities and exceptional performance.
- B - The "B" grade signifies that the student has demonstrated a significantly more effective command of the material than is generally required in that course.
- C - The "C" grade is the instructor's certification that the student has demonstrated the required mastery of the material.
- D - A student is graded "D" when his grasp of the course is minimal, but when the instructor believes the student would not profit materially by repeating the course.

- F - The "F" grade indicates failure to master the essentials and the necessity for repeating the course before credit may be allowed.
- I - Incomplete. In extraordinary circumstances, which prevent a student from completing the requirements of a course on time, the instructor will assign the letter "I". The student must complete the work of that course as quickly as possible and in no case later than the end of the eighth week following the end of the course. If the grades on incomplete work have not been submitted to the Registrar by ten weeks after the end of the course, the Registrar is instructed by the faculty to record the grade of "F" and to notify the teacher.
- E - Conditioned. The professor may give this grade in continuing courses to a student who has not met the minimum requirements but shows promise of sufficient improvement in the second semester to be given a permanent grade of "D". A grade not less than "C" must be earned the following semester; otherwise, the grade of "E" becomes "F".
- W - In exceptional cases of authorized withdrawal after the drop deadline, if the instructor has no data for evaluation, the grade of "W" will be submitted. Otherwise, the faculty member will be requested to submit a grade of "WP" (withdrew passing) or "WF" (withdrew failing) depending on the student's status at the time of withdrawal. (See Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing from Courses)

Quality Points

Quality points are awarded on the following basis: One point is awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "C". Two points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "B". Three points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "A". No points are given for the grades "D" and "F".

Progress Reports

Records of progress are maintained by this institution on all students. Progress reports consisting of class grades for the semester and overall quality points averages are furnished to students after the end of each scheduled school term.

Other Study Opportunities

While enrolled at Southeastern in the M.Div., M.Div./C.E., M.Div./C.M., M.A.C.E., and M.A.C.M. programs, students may elect to do a maximum of 12 semester hours of master's level work in categories such as social work, drama, journalism, or music in an accredited university or college upon the recommendation of a faculty member and subject to the approval of the Dean of the Faculty prior to enrollment in the courses.

Except in rare cases approved by the Dean of the Faculty, the last 26 semester hours of credit toward the M.A.C.E., M.A.C.M., M.Div., M.Div./C.E. and M.Div./C.M. degrees must be taken at Southeastern Seminary.

Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing from Courses

Altering a course load by adding or dropping courses prior to the deadlines is a formal procedure initiated in the Registrar's Office. The last date for adding classes is one week after the beginning of a semester. The last date for dropping courses without academic penalty is three weeks after the beginning of a semester. See the Academic Calendar for these dates. A fee is charged for each course dropped or added. See the Schedule of Fees.

Because a generous "Drop Period" is provided during which students can evaluate their work load and other circumstances and withdraw from any course without academic penalty, permission to withdraw from a course after the deadline stated in the Academic Calendar may be granted only by the Dean of the Faculty and only under extraordinary circumstances. An application form for permission to withdraw is available in the office of the Dean of the Faculty. This application requires a personal conference with the professor before it can be considered by the Dean. After the deadline, drops are not allowed unless external circumstances that were not present prior to the "Drop Deadline" and are completely beyond the control of the student occur that prevent class attendance and/or completion of class assignments. Poor grades, heavy work load, church responsibilities, or other personal and/or family difficulties are not accepted as reasons for withdrawal from a class after the calendar deadline. Students who cannot complete their classwork due to hardship should consider the option of receiving the grade "I" or in extreme cases applying for withdrawal from enrollment rather than from an individual course. Withdrawal from enrollment is initiated in the Registrar's office and must be done in person if at all possible. Successful withdrawal from enrollment establishes an appropriate file that permits readmission (see below). In all cases, the instructor will determine whether the grade W, WP or WF is applicable and will submit this grade to the Registrar at the end of the semester.

Withdrawal from Enrollment

In order to withdraw from enrollment, students must consult the Registrar's office, confer with the Dean of the Faculty, surrender identification cards, return all materials on loan to the Library, and clear their accounts with the Business Office. A withdrawal procedure form is available in the Registrar's office.

Students who have not completed requirements for a degree and who do not plan to enroll for the following term are required to withdraw from enrollment through the withdrawal procedure initiated in the Registrar's office. Students who follow the approved procedure for withdrawal will have their admission status maintained for one year and may register for classes during any regular registration period during that year. If a student does not register for courses during the year following official withdrawal, he or she will be required to apply for readmission through the Registrar's office if he or she desires to resume Seminary training in the future.

Honors Program-Master of Divinity Degree

The aim of the Honors Program is to stimulate the intellectual growth of students by opportunity for creative study and reflection.

Students who have demonstrated academic excellence by maintaining a 2.0 average on at least 30 semester hours of work, with no grade below "C", are eligible to elect the Honors Program, provided they meet the following stipulations:

1. Fulfill the requirement of at least six semester hours of Greek or Hebrew study.
2. Enroll in the second Biblical language upon entering the Honors Program and receive credit for six semester hours in the language during the first year in the Honors Program.

Students in the Honors Program are eligible to enroll in B 0074, H 0074, T 0074, and M 0074. These courses, offered for four semester hours each, are available in each area of the curriculum each semester. A person in the Honors Program is eligible to elect one such course per semester for a total of 16 semester hours in Independent Reading and Research.

In order to remain in the Honors Program, the student must maintain a 2.0 average each semester, with no grade below "C".

Eligible students who desire to participate in the Honors Program must do so in writing at the office of the Registrar prior to the beginning of the semester in which they desire to enter the Honors Program.

Graduation

It is the responsibility of the student to check his or her record in the Registrar's Office to determine if qualifications for graduation have been accomplished or can be scheduled. This check should be made no later than the pre-registration period one full semester prior to the semester in which graduation is planned. This will allow the student two full semesters to complete courses required for graduation in a specific degree program. Students who qualify to graduate must complete a Graduation Application in the Registrar's Office no later than the first month of their last semester.

Students are required to be present at graduation exercises in order to receive their diplomas. They are excused from attendance only by written permission of the Dean of the Faculty. Written requests specifying the unusual circumstances leading to such a request to graduate in absentia must be submitted by the student to the Dean's Office no later than three weeks prior to the date on which they are scheduled to graduate.

Summer School

1991 Summer School

The first term of the 1991 summer school will be held June 3-June 28. The second term will be held July 1-July 26. Classes will meet four days each week, Tuesday through Friday. The normal course load is four semester hours each term. Students planning to enter Southeastern Seminary for the first time in the summer of 1991 should submit their completed applications no later than two weeks prior to the beginning of the term. For further information write the Registrar, Southeastern Seminary, P. O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27588-1889.

1992 Summer School

The first term of the 1992 summer school will be held June 1-June 26. The second term will be held June 29-July 24.

1993 Summer School

The first term of the 1993 summer school will be held May 31-June 25. The second term will be held June 28-July 23.

Evening School

As an extension of its educational ministry to the churches, Southeastern Seminary offers on Thursday evenings courses specially designed for student spouses and for lay persons in the churches. These courses, which include the basic seminary courses from the biblical, historical, theological, and ministry areas of the curriculum, may be used to earn credit in the Associate of Divinity program. See the Schedule of Fees. (These courses are not open to regularly-enrolled Master's level students at Southeastern).

Fall 1991

The fall classes will meet on Thursday evenings beginning September 12, 1991, concluding December 5, 1991, with a recess for Thanksgiving on November 28, 1991.

Spring 1992

The spring semester will begin February 6, 1992, and conclude May 7, 1992. Classes will not meet during spring recess on March 5, 1992 nor during Easter recess on April 16, 1992.

Fall 1992

The fall classes will begin September 17, 1992, concluding December 10, 1992, with a recess for Thanksgiving on November 26, 1992.

Spring 1993

The spring semester will begin February 4, 1993, and conclude May 6, 1993. Classes will not meet during spring recess on March 4, 1993 nor during the Easter recess on April 8, 1993.

Formation in Ministry

All students attending Southeastern Seminary will have the opportunity of performing ministry under the guidance of a trained supervisor. Many students will engage in paid ministry work while pursuing their studies. Students and graduates are provided placement assistance through the Formation in Ministry Office.

Formation in Ministry is the designation of a program designed to foster the growth of students through the practical application of ministry concepts and skills. The program is currently being guided in its development by a Council on Formation in Ministry composed of five persons: two Professors of Supervised Ministry, a Director of Student/Field Ministries, and two faculty members.

The Formation in Ministry program is pursued within the framework of two components: Supervised Ministries and Student/Field Ministries. The component of Supervised Ministries provides field settings and supervisors for students taking the basic course, M4700 Supervised Ministry, M4720

Concurrent Internship, and M 4730 Intern Year Away. Student/Field Ministries provides administrative support for the total program and continues to assist students, graduates, churches and institutions in filling positions for ministry.

Off-Campus Courses

The Seminary offers some courses for credit off-campus. Details about times and locations are available from the Seminary Registrar. Students involved in Southeastern's off-campus programs will be required to take 30 hours on campus (2 semesters, not necessarily consecutive) in order to graduate from Southeastern, and these required on-campus hours may not be taken in courses such as CPE, Intern Year Away, and similar special courses that do not primarily involve on-campus work. (Students may take these courses for credit, but these hours do not count as part of the required 30 on-campus hours.)

The Center for Great Commission Studies

The Center for Great Commission Studies was inaugurated in a special convocation service April 14, 1991. The center will seek to train those interested in Evangelism, Cross-Cultural Missions, Church Growth, Church Planting and Spiritual Awakening.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

"Taking the WORD to the World"

Mission Statement The Center for Great Commission Studies

Purpose

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is a community of learning deeply rooted in the Christian faith, thorough in scholarship, and vitally related to the churches. Its purpose is to prepare God-called men and women for leadership in various Christian ministries. The Center focuses on the study of the theology and methods by which Christians intentionally spread their faith. It will function, in its concentration on evangelism, church growth, church planting, spiritual awakening, and missions, within the existing programs and publicly stated purpose of the Seminary.

Six Tasks of the Center

The Center will undertake six primary tasks:

1. To strengthen the teaching of missions and evangelism.
2. To promote academic and field-based research into missions and evangelism.
3. To equip men and women for specialized ministries in missions and evangelism.
4. To provide continuing education in missions and evangelism for seminary graduates.
5. To offer specialized conferences and study opportunities in missions and evangelism for congregational leaders.
6. To involve faculty and students in special off-campus endeavors in missions and evangelism.

Southeastern's beautiful, tree-covered campus provides the perfect background for study, recreation, and reflection. Its renowned stone wall was built in the 1800s.

Campus and Facilities

Even though Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary has a history covering less than four decades, the campus has a heritage spanning more than 150 years. For it was in 1832 that the Baptists of North Carolina purchased the 615-acre plantation of Dr. Calvin Jones for the purpose of establishing a teaching facility for young ministers.

The institution they established became Wake Forest College-and, more than a century later, in 1950, the Wake Forest campus was purchased by the Southern Baptist Convention as the home of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Southeastern's campus is noted for its splendid natural beauty as well as its graceful classic Georgian architecture. The grounds are rich with magnolias, elms, pines, oaks, cedars, firs, maples, and other varieties of trees. There is also an abundance of azaleas, camellias, sasanquas, dogwoods, and flowering fruit trees.

As a result, the campus offers resplendent views all year around, but especially in fall and spring. Many of the trees were growing on the land even before the plantation was there and are centuries old. Six massive white oaks, part of a magnificent grove near the plantation house, still stand on the Southeastern campus. In fact, this grove was called Wake Forest and gave the town its name.

Another historic landmark, the stone wall now surrounding the central campus, was begun about 1885 by Wake Forest College president Charles E. Taylor and "Dr. Tom" Jeffries.

Over the years, Southeastern has complemented the natural setting with boxwoods, hollies, an array of flowers, and the stunning Mackie-Robinson Rose Garden with its charming three-tiered fountain. The original Wake Forest College buildings have been renovated, and new ones have been added. Yet, with each change, the goal has been to maintain the character of the original campus and land. Today Southeastern's campus comprises a full range of excellent facilities for living and learning.

Stealey Hall was built by Wake Forest College in 1934. It replaced the Old College Building, later named Wait Hall, which had been destroyed by fire in 1933. In 1956 it was completely renovated for offices of the administration and faculty. It was renamed in 1961 in honor of the seminary's first president, Dr. S. L. Stealey.

Binkley Chapel commands the center of the campus. Its tall spire is visible for several miles along every approach to Wake Forest. Work was begun on the chapel in 1942, but World War II prevented the completion of the interior. With the removal of the college to Winston-Salem in 1956, the work was resumed and completed in 1958. In 1959 a three-manual Reuter organ was given and installed as a memorial to Walter M. Williams of Burlington, North Carolina. In 1969 the Board of Trustees named the chapel in honor of the seminary's second president, Dr. Olin T. Binkley. The ground floor of the chapel was redesigned in 1982 and furnished as five modern classrooms and church music facilities, including organ and piano practice areas. In 1987 the organ was renovated and enlarged to 70 ranks by the Schantz Organ Company, Orrville, Ohio.

Appleby Hall was begun by Wake Forest College in 1942 and completed during World War II. From 1951 to 1956, this building housed the entire Southeastern Seminary. It was remodeled and, in 1962, renamed in honor of Mr. Scott B. Appleby in recognition of his generous support of the student aid fund. It contains a small chapel, classrooms, offices and a fellowship room, named in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Percy A. Bethea. Refurbishment in 1981 made it a beautiful and useful building.

The Denny Library Building was constructed by the seminary in 1958 to replace the old Heck-Williams Building (1878) which was razed in 1957. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named it in honor of Dr. Emery B. Denny, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, a trustee of the seminary and its longtime friend and supporter. It houses the seminary library.

The Seminary Library is dynamically involved with faculty and students in the achievement of educational objectives. It provides resources and services to support the research and study of the faculty and to meet the needs of students for the free and independent study which is stimulated by classroom, chapel, and other components of student life situations. Provided also is a broad range of materials for the general educational, cultural, and recreational interests of students, faculty, and their families.

A major building project, completed in 1977, has transformed the Library's Emery B. Denny Building into a modern facility, enlarged by fifty percent and redesigned functionally. Individual study-carrels and materials on open shelves are dispersed throughout the carpeted, air-conditioned building. Audiovisual facilities, microform readers and printers, a computer lab, typing rooms, group-study rooms, and photocopying equipment are also provided. In this setting, personal service is emphasized by a staff of seven full-time and twenty part-time persons.

The Library's collection has grown to more than 250,000 items including books, periodical volumes, music scores, music recordings and audiovisual materials, microforms, computer software, and Baptist documents. Currently received periodicals total over 1,100 titles. The microforms, containing approximately 95,000 volumes of books, periodicals, and dissertations, make this young library's collection strong in Early American and Early British materials, including important Baptist history resources. The collection is more than adequate to serve the Seminary's programs of study.

The resources and services of the Library are augmented greatly by the proximity of excellent university libraries and by an increase in both the scope and degree of cooperation with these libraries and others throughout the nation. As a charter member of the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET), the Library is using a shared computer facility by means of an on-line computer terminal. The Library also participates in the North Carolina Information Network.

In addition to funds allocated to the Seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention, the Library benefits from the generosity of many individuals and organizations. Each year, a number of cash gifts are received for the purchase of books. Eighty-four gifts, each of one thousand dollars or more, are providing endowment income for "memorial book shelves." Several gifts of private book collections have added significantly to the Library's strength.

Adams Hall, erected in 1933, first housed the Wake Forest Medical School (now the Bowman Gray School of Medicine). Renovated in 1956, it has served as a classroom building for the seminary. In 1984 it underwent a complete modernization, with additional stairwells, an elevator, air-conditioning and other modern conveniences. In the fall of 1984 it was dedicated to the memory of the late Theodore F. Adams.

The Ruby Reid Child Care Center was made possible by a bequest of Miss Ruby Reid of Wake Forest, North Carolina, and gifts from the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. It was constructed in 1959. Five spacious classrooms, equipped with observation booths, open onto covered porches and fenced-in playgrounds. An office, teachers' lounge and a multi-purpose library/lunchroom add to the usefulness of the building.

Broyhill Hall is the oldest building on Southeastern's campus. Built in 1888 as Lea Laboratory, it served Wake Forest College as a science building and then as the chemistry building; after the college moved, it was converted into a student center for the seminary. In 1980 it was renamed Broyhill Hall in appreciation of the generous gifts of J. E. and Paul Broyhill, trustees from Lenoir, North Carolina, toward its renovation. It now houses various faculty and administrative offices.

Mackie Hall was dedicated on May 9, 1968, as the seminary's new student center. It is named in memory of Dr. George C. Mackie, "a distinguished physician" who "devoted his life to the well-being of students" at Wake Forest College and at Southeastern Seminary, and in honor of Mrs. Mackie who as "a creative leader" has participated in the beautification of the campus. Mackie Hall is in the process of being converted into a faculty office center.

The Seminary Cafeteria was built by the seminary in 1956 and provides dining rooms for conferences and small groups as well as facilities for large banquets and regular meals.

The Ledford Center/Cannon Gymnasium is an expansion of the Gore Gymnasium which was first dedicated by Wake Forest College in 1938. Renovations and additions to the original building in 1986 provide a comprehensive activities facility containing over 50,000 square feet. The three-floor complex includes a multi-use gymnasium, fully equipped fitness facility, racquetball courts, and locker/dressing rooms for women and men. In addition, there are lounges, a post office, recreation room, sandwich shop and campus bookstore. Offices for administrators and student organizations plus conference rooms are also included. The center is named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert F. Ledford of Raleigh, North Carolina. The gymnasium area has been named for the late Charles Cannon and the Cannon Trusts.

The Health Center was constructed by the seminary in 1968 and contains offices for diagnostic consultation and treatment.

Wake Forest Baptist Church, organized in 1835, occupies the church building (1913) within the campus enclosure.

The President's Home, built in 1928 as the residence of the president of Wake Forest College, is located off the southwest corner of the campus and in 1975 was completely renovated and refurnished.

Purchased in 1960, the Manor Guest House, near the main campus, provides pleasant accommodations for prospective students and other guests.

The seminary has set aside three apartments for the use of missionaries on furlough who wish to study at Southeastern Seminary. The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, with the assistance of the WMU's of neighboring Baptist churches, has furnished these apartments located on Hipps Drive.

Reece House is a completely furnished guest apartment for seminary visitors. It is named for the late James Thaddeus and Nina Davis Reece of Yadkinville, North Carolina.

The Athletic Field is located near the campus and is utilized for recreational activities such as softball, baseball, flag-football and soccer. Five tennis courts are provided. Arrangements have been made with the Paschal Golf Club (owned by the seminary and leased to a local group) for seminary personnel to play golf at a special fee.

Housing

Johnson Dormitory provides air-conditioned rooms and facilities for 150 men with lounge areas and other conveniences. The availability of single rooms is determined each semester by the total number of requests for rooms. This three-story building, constructed in 1946 in separate sections for quiet and privacy, offers pleasant living conditions for its occupants.

Bostwick Dormitory has air-conditioned rooms and facilities for 84 men in 23 two-bedroom suites. It has three kitchenettes, two lounge areas, and laundry facilities.

Shaw House, located next to the main campus, has rooms for eight persons. The former town residence also contains an area lounge and kitchen facilities.

Lolley Hall, (formerly Women's Dormitory) was re-named and dedicated in 1988 in honor of Dr. & Mrs. Randall Lolley in recognition of his 14 years of service to Southeastern as its third president. Constructed in 1965, Lolley Hall provides air-conditioned rooms for 52 women. It contains 13 two-room suites with connecting baths, and has parlors, study rooms, kitchenette, laundry space, recreation and game rooms.

Simmons Dormitory, built in 1936, and recently renovated, provides dormitory space for single students and a few apartments for families. The five sections of Simmons contain suites with kitchenettes and lounge areas.

The Duplex Apartments, built from 1959 to 1975, can accommodate 100 families. There are one-, two- and three-bedroom units, each with living room, kitchen and bath. Each apartment has its own heat, light and water system; the occupant is responsible for all utilities. These apartments are unfurnished, except for stove and refrigerator which are permanent installations. Located on West Pine Avenue, Rankin Court, Judson Drive, Rice Circle, Stadium Road, Wingate Street and Hipps Drive, they are within easy walking distance of the main campus. Apartments have washer and dryer connections.

The Townhouse Apartments, built in 1979, can accommodate 100 families. There are two- and three-bedroom units, each with living room and kitchen-dinette area. Living room, bedrooms, and stairways are carpeted. Kitchen and bathrooms have vinyl tile. Each apartment has central air-conditioning and heating system. Occupant is responsible for utilities. These apartments are unfurnished, except for stove and refrigerator which are permanent installations. Apartments have washer and dryer connections. Located on McDowell Drive, they are less than a mile from the campus.

The duplex apartments (above left), nestled in a cove of trees, provide plenty of room for families to enjoy the outdoors. The two- and three-bedroom townhouse apartments (left) back up to Wake Forest's Paschal golf course.

Seminary Community Life

Worship

As Binkley Chapel is the center of the campus, so worship is the center of seminary life. Under the leadership of students, professors, and prominent visitors, devotional services are held at 10 a. m. each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday while classes are in session. On special days, missionary speakers, scholars, and other Christian leaders inspire the entire community with lectures and addresses.

Opportunities for Ministry

A majority of Southeastern students find remunerative employment in the churches within a 200 mile radius of the seminary. Although the Field Ministries Office of the Formation in Ministry Program offers assistance to every student who wishes the opportunity for ministry, it cannot guarantee a position to any student.

Southeastern students minister in hospitals, prisons, shopping centers, rest homes, campgrounds, schools, churches, colleges and other institutions, and in other areas of special need. During the summer, many students serve as pastor-assistants, retreat chaplains, evangelists, youth directors, chaplain interns at hospitals, missionaries, and special urban workers.

Student Spouses

Student spouses may enroll in seminary classes for a reduced fee; special night classes or lectures are arranged for their convenience. Spouses also may take part in such campus organizations as the Seminary Choir and the Seminary Wives in Ministry. They are included in campus social functions and various special interest activities.

Spouses seeking employment have a wide choice of possibilities in the area. Nurses readily find work in nearby hospitals. The scope and variety of industries, businesses, educational institutions, and public service agencies in Wake Forest, Raleigh, and the surrounding area offer excellent job opportunities.

On-campus positions are also available. The seminary employs a number of secretaries, telephone operators, and other skilled and persons.

Children of Students

Children of seminary students are recognized as important members of the seminary community and, therefore, benefit from various campus resources. Modern housing affords them comfortable living quarters, while recreational facilities offer diverse opportunities. At the Health Center, the services of the seminary physician are also available free of charge. Churches and public schools are within walking distance of campus.

Ruby Reid Child Care Center

The Ruby Reid Child Care Center serves the seminary family by caring for children ages 18 months to public school age. The Center is open year-round, except for one week in August and one week during the Christmas season. Seminary students may enroll their children only for the periods when school is in session, or they may request interim care between semesters. Part-time care is available when space permits.

In caring for children, the center has three purposes: to provide a laboratory for teachers and students who desire to explore ways of working with children; to provide a setting in which parents may discover new ways to enrich their family living; to provide a facility through which staff members of churches and other agencies involved with child care may receive counsel related to improving their own programs.

Enrollment for each age group is limited. Registration begins in April for the following fall. For more information, contact the Director of the Child Care Center. It is strongly advised that incoming students place their child's name on the waiting list as soon as possible.

Health Center

During sessions, the Seminary operates an on-campus Health Center directed by an on-staff physician. Students and their families may use the physician's services without charge during regular office hours. Residence calls are subject to charge by the physician.

Students may purchase general medicines and certain medical supplies through the Health Center as prescribed by the campus physician. All medicines must be paid for at the time they are issued.

Baptist Book Store

The Baptist Book Store, located in Ledford Center, is operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. It carries the required textbooks and supplies for classes as well as a variety of other books and personal accessories.

Extracurricular Activities

The Seminary seeks to develop the whole person through numerous opportunities both on and off campus. Organizations, special events, and campus facilities present a versatile mix of activities.

The Ledford Center, the heart of extracurricular campus life, complements the challenges of academic life. The center offers a multi-use gymnasium, fitness rooms, racquetball courts, recreation room, and lounges. Tennis courts and a nine-hole golf course are also situated on campus.

The town of Wake Forest offers public parks, swimming pools, and summer recreation programs. The larger community, encompassing Raleigh and the Research Triangle, offers a year-round variety of cultural, leisure, athletic, and educational options.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of representatives elected by students, assists the faculty and administration in coordinating various campus activities and in promoting the general welfare of all students. The various aspects of campus life that concern the council are reflected in the titles of its committees: arts, spiritual life, ethics, off-campus ministries, social, student welfare and communications.

Organizations

Conservative Evangelical Fellowship provides opportunities for support, fellowship, and the discussion of topics of interest to conservative, evangelical Christians.

Habitat of Wake Forest. The purpose of this organization is to provide support in the form of people, resources, promotion, and other appropriate means for Habitat for Humanity (International, National, and Local Affiliates). To be a conduit for support from individual students and student organizations, faculty, and staff of our school, and to be able to share the Habitat program with local church congregations.

SEBTS Chapter of the Southern Baptist Religious Education Association. The purpose of this organization is to bring together students from the field of religious education into a cooperative spirit with the national organization for fellowship, counsel, inspiration, discovery, discussion, interpretation of trends, and the encouragement of sound educational practices.

SEBTS Chapter of the Southern Baptist Alliance is a fellowship of members of the seminary community who are also members of the Southern Baptist Alliance. The chapter seeks to be a theologically inclusive body comprised of individuals who share a desire to maintain traditional Southern Baptist principles on the campus and in the Southern Baptist Convention as a whole. The chapter has meetings and seminars to foster fellowship among members and to provide information about significant events in Southern Baptist life to the seminary community.

Seminary Wives in Ministry is an organization for the wives of students. It seeks to respond to specific needs of seminary women through special events, family recreation, missions awareness, personal growth opportunities and preparation for ministry.

Southeastern Women in Ministry, as a function of the Christian Community, provides support, fellowship, worship, education, and dialogue for women and men who are seeking to honor God's call in Christ to women in all areas of ministry.

State Organizations, composed of students from the same state, promote fellowship and provide a setting for sharing mutual concerns and interests. They include: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

World Missions Fellowship seeks to heighten the awareness of the need for missions through prayer, fellowship and opportunities to confront issues related to personal and corporate missions commitment.

Opportunities in Music

Seminary Choir rehearses on Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. Many couples make this choir a family affair. Spouses are encouraged to sing in this group without audition or fee. The Chapel Choir rehearses two hours per week, and performs weekly in Chapel, singing a wide variety of anthem and cantata literature. The Male Chorale is an auditioned ensemble of 16 men. This ensemble sings for chapel and off-campus events. Private voice and organ lessons are offered at modest fees. An Instrumental Ensemble and Handbell Ensemble offer additional opportunities for musical expression.

Peer Support Groups

Peer groups are an integral part of the orientation of new students to the campus. Groups, led by selected students, provide support and information to facilitate adjustment to seminary life.

Special Days and Lectures

The regular curriculum of the seminary is enlarged and enriched by guest-lecturers, visiting preachers and special speakers. These sermons, lectures and addresses are given in Binkley Chapel at ten o'clock on designated days and are open to the general public.

The Carver-Barnes Lectures were established in 1961. These two lectures, given every fall semester, honor W. O. Carver (1868-1954), and W. W. Barnes (1883-1960) for their outstanding contributions to theological education. These lectures address the history and the mission of the Church, and are funded in part by the income from a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Fechner of Lee's Summit, Missouri and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee Beaver of Chesterfield, Missouri.

The Theodore F. Adams Lectures on Preaching and the Pastoral Ministry were established in 1976. These four lectures, given every spring semester, honor the contribution to Christian ministry of Theodore F. Adams (1898-1980) who taught at Southeastern Seminary 1968-1978. These lectures are funded from the income on a corpus given by friends of Dr. Adams.

The Page Lectures were established in 1979. These two lectures, given every fall semester, address a variety of subjects of interest to a seminary community. They are funded from the income on a gift of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Page of Plainfield, Indiana.

The Kendrick-Poerschke Lectures in Christian Education were established in 1983. These two lectures, in even-numbered years in the spring semester, address the educational dimension of Christian Ministry in the Church. They are funded from the income on a fund begun in 1973 by Robert and Katherine Poerschke of Wake Forest, North Carolina, to honor their parents, Mary Kemnitz and Ernst Johann Poerschke, and Martha Bryant and John Wesley Kendrick.

Spring Lectures. The Spring Lectures, alternating with the Kendrick-Poerschke Lectures, bring scholars to the campus to lecture on a variety of subjects relating to theology and the practice of ministry.

Commencements. Prominent speakers participate in both the winter and spring commencements.

Convocations. The fall convocation address is given usually by the President, and the spring convocation address is delivered by a faculty member.

Faculty Lectures. Each fall and spring a member of the seminary's faculty gives a public lecture.

Founders' Day is observed each March during the spring meeting of the Board of Trustees, with an address by a prominent denominational leader.

Missionary Days. Two missions emphasis days are held each year, with home and foreign missionaries and other church persons giving an address and meeting with students.

Conferences

To emphasize the role and personal growth of the wives of students the Esther Jillson Adams Seminars were established to provide special programs, seminars and enrichment events each year. These are planned and directed by the Faculty Wives Club, Seminary Wives In Ministry and the Dean of Students.

Chaplains' Conference is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and is open to military, institutional and industrial chaplains and those interested in these areas of service.

The Pastors' Seminar is held in conjunction with the Theodore F. Adams Lectures and affords alumni and other friends a week of study, fellowship and recreation. It is planned and conducted by the Alumni Association.

The Spring Conference is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Activities are planned and directed by a student steering committee in consultation with a professor of Christian Education and are open to all members of the seminary family and visitors.

In addition, from time to time conferences on campus will be open to both members of the Seminary community as well as members of the churches. Recent conferences have focused on the role of the laity and women in ministry.

Publications

NewsLine is a weekly circular, announcing campus activities and events, and is published by the Office of Communication for campus distribution.

Catalog is a special issue of the Southeastern Seminary Bulletin which contains information on the educational policies and programs of the seminary. It is published by the Office of Communication and is available upon request from the Registrar.

The Directory is a pictorial handbook of students, faculty members and administrative personnel, with addresses, phone numbers and other biographical information. It is a publication of the Office of Communication.

Enquiry is a student newspaper, published by students for the seminary family. Issues are published approximately once every four weeks and are distributed throughout the campus.

Faith and Mission is a scholarly journal of the faculty published twice a year. As an aid to persons engaged in Christian ministry, the journal features articles dealing with current theological and biblical issues as well as book reviews related to the field of Christian thought and practice.

International Student Handbook is published annually by the Dean of Students Office to assist international students in their orientation and adjustment to American culture and in maintaining their visa status.

Student Handbook, a publication of the Dean of Students Office, is designed primarily for the benefit of entering students and contains information pertinent for their orientation.

Outlook (Southeastern Seminary Bulletin) is a quarterly, general interest magazine, published by the Office of Communication. Upon request, copies are sent gratis to alumni, trustees and other friends of the seminary.

Degree Programs

Associate of Divinity

Many men and women who are 30 years of age or more and who have not completed the college work that is a prerequisite for the Seminary's Master of Divinity Program are nevertheless called by God into full-time Christian service. Often this divine calling comes to an individual after a career in the military or in some other profession. A balanced program of study in the biblical, historical, theological, and ministry areas is offered to these students at the beginning college level and leads to the Associate of Divinity degree.

The purpose of this special program is to equip these students with basic knowledge, skills, and attitudes which will enable them to serve effectively as pastors, bi-vocational ministers, or in other forms of ministry. The curriculum recognizes the student's maturity and previous work experience.

The Associate of Divinity curriculum is composed of courses similar to those in the Master of Divinity curriculum but the course requirements may be different. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time attendance for persons entering in the Fall. The nature of the Associate of Divinity program requires new students to begin in a fall semester (or in the summer term).

Entrance Requirements

Admission is limited to persons who have completed high school or its equivalency as evidenced by scores on the G.E.D. test. Students must be 30 years of age or older. An exception to the age requirement may be granted in the case of applicants who are the spouses of students enrolled in a degree program of the seminary.

Instruction in the use of the library is required of all entering students during their initial semester unless they have a transcript on file in the Registry indicating completion (with a grade of "C" or better) of at least two semesters of freshman English Composition. An English examination must be taken during orientation to determine whether or not a student will be required to take a course in English usage. Where such need is shown, the course will be taken during the student's first fall semester. This three-hour course, "AM 4109 English Composition," is open to all A.Div. students who desire to improve their skills in this field, but the course is not applicable toward the 56 hours required for graduation. It will offer practical ideas to help students improve as writers by focusing on sentence, paragraph and research paper construction. Activities will include grammar, punctuation, sentence mechanics and the larger elements of writing a composition.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Associate of Divinity, the student must complete the non-credit library workshop and earn 56 hours of credit, including 32 hours of foundational level courses. The student must maintain a minimum cumulative quality point average of "C" (1.0) in order to graduate from Southeastern.

All requirements for Foundational Studies for the Master of Divinity program are required for the A.Div. degree. The Vocational and Elective Studies, however, are different.

Vocational and Elective Studies24 hours

If their schedule permits, Associate of Divinity students are encouraged to take at least one of their elective courses in each of the six functions of ministry:

(1) Communication, (2) Leadership/Administration, (3) Education, (4) Worship, (5) Missions/Evangelism and (6) Self Understanding and Interpersonal Competence. This is not a requirement for graduation but is highly recommended.

Total56 hours

A current list of the approved courses for each of the six areas is available in the Registry.

Master of Arts in Christian Education

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Arts in Christian Education, is to equip persons for service in Christian education and related ministries, usually in a local church. The program is designed to be completed within two academic years, beginning with a fall semester, and consists of 64 semester hours of courses. Students must complete the 32 semester hours of foundational level studies, the 24 semester hours of Christian education courses as prescribed, and 8 hours of properly distributed electives.

Candidates for the M.A.C.E. degree are required to consult with a Christian Education faculty member in planning their programs of study in order to accomplish the objectives of the program within two years.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Master of Arts in Christian Education, the student must earn 64 semester hours of credit, with a cumulative average of "C". Not more than seven additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.A.C.E. degree.

All requirements for Foundational Studies for the Master of Divinity program are required for the M.A.C.E. degree. The Vocational and Elective requirements, however, are different.

Vocational and Elective Studies 32 hours
Required Vocational Studies 24 hours

All M.A.C.E. candidates are required to take 24 hours of specialized Christian education courses as prescribed for the M.Div. with Christian Education students.

Distribution Requirement

All M.A.C.E. students must take a minimum of two semester hours in each area (B, H, T) beyond the requirements in the foundational level studies.

Total 64 hours

Master of Arts in Church Music

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Arts in Church Music, is to equip persons for the ministry of music, usually in a local church. The program is designed to be completed within two academic years, beginning with a fall semester, and consists of 64 semester hours of courses. Students must complete the 32 semester hours of foundational level studies and 32 semester hours of church music courses as described below.

Candidates for the Master of Arts in Church Music degree are required to consult with a Church Music faculty member in planning their programs of study in order to accomplish the objectives of the program within two years.

Entrance Requirements

Admission to this program is limited to persons who have earned a Bachelor of Music degree, or a Bachelor of Arts degree with music major, or a Bachelor of Music Education degree.

Degree Requirements

At the time of admission, the student's proficiency in music will be evaluated by the faculty for the purpose of designing an individualized program of study. As a part of applied study in voice/organ each student will present a recital. Voice majors are expected to complete a proficiency keyboard requirement; organ majors are expected to complete a proficiency requirement in voice. Specific information about the recital and proficiency requirements are available in the "Handbook for Church Music Students" issued during orientation.

All requirements for Foundational Studies for the Master of Divinity program are required for the M.A.C.M. degree. The Vocational and Elective requirements, however, are different.

Master of Divinity

The program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Divinity, is designed to equip persons for leadership in Christian ministry. The program may be completed within three academic years of full-time attendance. It consists of foundational studies and vocational and elective studies. The purpose of the program is to assure an adequate understanding of Scripture, theology and the Christian tradition for the practice of Christian ministry, while at the same time providing some latitude for the pursuit of specialized competencies required in various settings.

Most students coming to the seminary elect the Master of Divinity program as their first graduate professional degree. The flexibility of this program allows students to design programs which are tailored to specific vocational goals. Within this framework two specific concentrations are recognized by degree title and course requirements: the M.Div. with Christian Education and the M.Div. with Church Music.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the Master of Divinity degree, the student must earn 88 semester hours of credit including 32 hours of Foundational Studies. At least one elective course in each of the six functions of ministry are required as Vocational Elective studies. Students must distribute other elective courses among the Biblical, Historical, Theological, and Ministry areas (herein referred to as B, H, T, and M areas), taking at least six semester hours in each.

In order to graduate, students must maintain a cumulative quality point average of 1.0 (corresponding to a grade of "C") on all work taken. Not more than ten additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.Div. degree.

The notation, "with languages," will appear on the M.Div. diplomas of those students who have received credit for six semester hours each of Hebrew and Greek. Students who bypass B 1100-1101 or B 1400-1401 or both without receiving credit will be required to complete six semester hours of advanced language courses for each bypass with a minimum grade of "C" in order to qualify under this provision.

Curriculum Design

The curriculum is based on a model of theological education that seeks to cultivate each student's gifts and to assist the student in preparation for using these gifts in ministry.

Foundational courses should be completed during the first two years of seminary studies. Students should begin course work in the biblical languages during the first year if they intend to complete a full program of language study. Normally, first year students take at least one of the two required biblical Introductions and the General Church History course. Second year students should take Systematic Theology and Christian Ethics. Other Foundational, Vocational and Elective studies are taken to fill out a normal 15 hour class load each semester. A Summer School is also offered to help students finish their degree plan within three academic years. Students engaged in employment of 20 or more hours per week are advised to take 12 or fewer hours each semester so as to be able to devote adequate attention to the academic requirements of the program. No student may take more than 16 hours during a single semester without special permission from the Dean of the Faculty and then only under special conditions.

Foundational Studies32 hours

Required of all students:

Introduction to the Old Testament (6 hours)

Introduction to the New Testament (6 hours)

General Church History (6 hours)

Baptist History and Heritage* (2 hours)

Systematic Theology (6 hours)

Christian Ethics (3 hours)

Supervised Ministry (3 hours)

* Non-Baptist students may take other courses as appropriate.

Vocational and Elective Studies56 hours

Required Vocational Studies

Students are required to seek understanding and competence in the functional areas of church ministry. A minimum of one course is required in each of the following:

(1) Communication, (2) Leadership/Administration, (3) Education, (4) Worship, (5) Missions/Evangelism and (6) Self Understanding and Interpersonal Competence.

Total hours - M.Div.88 hours

 A current list of the approved courses for each of the six areas is available in the Registry. Vocational electives currently offered are also identified on class schedules available each semester from the Registrar.

Distribution Requirement

M.Div. students must take a minimum of six hours in each area (B,H,T,M) beyond Foundational requirements, except that students taking an M.Div. concentration in Christian Education and in Church Music must take a minimum of two hours in each area. All courses beyond the foundational level apply toward this requirement.

Specialization

The curriculum model enables the student to follow a course of study with specialization in a particular vocational direction. Those students desiring the M. Div. with Christian Education and the M.Div. with Church Music must take the courses of study outlined below. Students preparing for another vocational direction should consult a faculty member.

Dr. James W. Good, professor of church music, is one of Southeastern's three acclaimed music professors

Master of Theology

The purpose of the Master of Theology program is to provide the student with an opportunity for guided research in a special area of theological study.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of accredited colleges and universities who have also earned the M.Div. degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Master of Theology degree.

Admission to this program requires facility with two foreign languages, at least one of which must be a Biblical language: Greek or Hebrew. Upon the recommendation of the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies and with the approval of the faculty, another major language may be substituted for either Hebrew or Greek. Students majoring in the Biblical area, however, must have both Greek and Hebrew.

Facility in the languages is determined by the major professor prior to admission. Satisfaction of one of the language requirements can be achieved concurrently with the student's first year of course work in the Th.M. program upon the request of the major professor and with the approval of the Committee on Graduate Studies and the Faculty.

Applications for admission to the Th.M. program must be made to the Registrar at least 60 days prior to matriculation and all application materials described under Admission Procedures must be included.

Decisions on admission to the program are made by the faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Graduate Studies. The committee's recommendation to the faculty will reflect a composite evaluation based on the following guidelines:

1. A grade point average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale on all M.Div. level work. Transcripts from all theological schools the applicant has attended must be submitted.
2. Quality of preparation for advanced study in the area desired. This may include course work, language preparation and personal experience.
3. Written recommendations from three professors attesting to the ability of the student to do Th.M. work in the area chosen.
4. An M.Div. level research paper that demonstrates the ability of the student to do scholarly research and writing.
5. A satisfactory score (66th percentile) on the Cooperative English Test (CET). In regard to an applicant for whom English is a second language, a demonstrated proficiency in spoken English is required (as attested by means of letters of recommendation or personal interview).
6. A satisfactory evaluation on a personal interview with the applicant if the Committee deems such to be necessary.

Students in the Th.M. program major in one of the four curriculum areas (B, H, T, M) under the guidance of a professor in that area. This person is designated the student's major professor. Prior to the submission of an application for admission to the program, the student should obtain the consent of the professor with whom the student would like to work and include an indication of this agreement on the application.

Candidates for the Th.M. degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment until the degree is completed. Fees will be charged each semester including those semesters during which the research and writing of the thesis takes place. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Graduate Studies and approved by the Faculty.

Degree Requirements

The degree of Master of Theology is awarded for the fulfillment of the following requirements:

1. Courses and Seminars: A candidate must complete at least 20 semester hours of study chosen from advanced courses and seminars, with a minimum of 40 quality points earned on these 20 hours (a "B" average). No additional hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points. A maximum of four hours may be transferred from graduate courses at other institutions taken concurrently with or within one year of enrollment in the Th.M. program. Approval of transfer credits must be made by both the Dean and major professor.
2. Major Area: A candidate will select a major area of study in which not less than 12 semester hours must be completed, including at least eight semester hours in seminars conducted on a research basis and open only to Th.M. and D.Min. students.
3. Other Area(s): Eight semester hours must be taken from the areas not elected as major.
4. Thesis: The candidate must prepare a thesis on a subject within the major area of study. The subject of the thesis and the plan of research must be approved by the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies. Two copies of the Th.M. thesis must be submitted to the candidate's major professor at least forty-five (45) days before the candidate expects to receive the degree. The copies, in final form, must be in the library for binding 15 days prior to graduation.
5. Oral Examination: Upon completion of the thesis, the candidate's work will be evaluated by an Examining Committee composed of the major professor and at least two additional professors within the candidate's major area or with whom the candidate has studied in the Th.M. program. In this exam, the candidate will be expected to defend the thesis and to demonstrate competence on the work done in the major area. Final approval of the work will be determined by a majority of the committee.

6. Time Deadlines: Prospective Th.M. students should apply for admission to the Th.M. program requesting to commence work at the beginning of either the fall semester, the spring semester, or summer school. For convenience in record keeping these dates will be calculated as September 1, January 1, and June 1. All work on the degree must be completed within two years of this admission date unless an extension is granted by the faculty.

Additional Information: All Th.M. students are expected to know and comply with the guidelines contained in the document "Instructions and Requirements for Th.M. Students" available in the office of the Registrar or from the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies.

From the day of matriculation on, students are challenged, encouraged, taught, and loved as they wander through the campus book store, take pages of notes in the classrooms, stay up late to study for exams, and, at last, prepare to march down the aisle of Binkley Chapel to receive their degrees.

Doctor of Ministry

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry program is to equip the student for the practice of ministry at a high level of professional competency. The program is complementary to work done for the Master of Divinity degree, the purpose of which is basic preparation for leadership in Christian ministry. It is expected that the level of competence achieved shall be significantly higher for the doctorate than for the Master of Divinity degree. The program provides opportunity for advanced study in interdisciplinary courses, seminars and clinical settings. It combines academic study and experiential learning in an attempt to integrate theology and practice.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of accredited colleges or universities who have also earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent with distinction and have otherwise demonstrated aptitude for academic work on the doctoral level may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree.

In the judgment of the faculty, the D.Min. program is most effective when candidates bring to it a period of experience in ministry. In most instances this should follow the attainment of the first professional degree. As a general rule, candidates should have had two years of professional experience prior to beginning the D.Min. program and must be engaged in some type of Christian ministry during enrollment.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry program is determined by an evaluation of the applicant's academic ability and potential for excellence in ministry. Decisions on admission to the program are made by the Faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Academic ability is assessed on the basis of transcripts of all college, seminary, and graduate work, and on the basis of performance on the Miller Analogy Test or the Graduate Record Examination (Aptitude Section) and the Cooperative English Test.

Potential for excellence in ministry is assessed on the basis of references from at least three persons acquainted with the applicant's ministry, a critical incident from ministry indicating abilities to work with people effectively and to reflect theologically on ministry, and a personal interview with the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Application to the Doctor of Ministry program must be made at least 60 days prior to the matriculation date on which the applicant wishes to enter.

Applicants must submit either Miller Analogy Test or Graduate Record Examination scores. Persons electing to take the Graduate Record Examination are advised to apply early because additional time may be required in taking the Graduate Record Examination and in processing the scores. The Cooperative English Test is given at the Seminary at the time of the interview, when all the other application materials have been reviewed by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Degree Requirements

Each candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree works with a Supervisory Committee consisting of two members of the faculty, one of whom shall be Chairman of the Committee, and a Field Supervisor. The candidate must present to the Chairman a rationale for the plan of study, the electives, and the Project in Ministry which he or she chooses. In consultation with the two faculty members of the Supervisory Committee, the candidate will submit the name and qualifications of a prospective Field Supervisor for approval by the faculty. Information regarding the selection and the responsibilities of the Field Supervisor is available from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies. The candidate will be required to bear the cost of field supervision by the payment of the fee for field supervision as specified in the Schedule of Fees.

In order to continue in the program and to be awarded the degree, the candidate must maintain an academic average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale. Additional hours beyond those taken to meet the requirements outlined below may not be taken to bring the academic average up to the required level. The Project in Ministry is graded on a pass-fail basis. Candidates for the degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies and approved by the faculty.

Supervised Field Experience and Project in Ministry 6 hours

Supervised Field Experience and Project in Ministry is a specific involvement in the actual practice of ministry in which the student seeks to develop his or her own personhood and skills as a minister through professional practice and theological reflection within the context of the response of the Christian church to human need.

The candidate will be responsible for specifying a ministry upon which his or her program shall be focused and for the development of a Project in Ministry in which he or she will be engaged while a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree. The project proposal and the plan for implementing it must be approved by the members of the Supervisory Committee. The candidate will consult with the Field Supervisor and the other members of the Committee and submit to them regular reports while engaged in the project. The project will culminate in a documented report, and final approval of the report will be determined by a majority of the Committee.

Three copies of the Project in Ministry Report, one of which will be returned to the student, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee at least 45 days prior to the date on which the candidate expects to receive the degree. The two copies to be deposited with the Seminary must include the original typescript and a first carbon, a multilith copy or a Xerox copy of the original, or two multilith or Xerox copies of the original typescript. The copies of the Project Report must be in the library for binding 15 days prior to graduation.

Total 28 hours

Additional information about the Doctor of Ministry program may be obtained from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies or the Director of Admissions.

Families who have helped a loved one through seminary find Commencement Day as rewarding an experience as does the graduate.

Individualized Studies

B 0014 Directed Study

Instructors are permitted to guide a limited number of students in directed studies in order to provide an opportunity for academically qualified students to explore themes outside the regular curriculum. Students may consult with professors about their interest in directed study, but the decision regarding the offering of a directed study lies with the instructor. The specific nature of the study will be determined by the instructor, and a written plan of study will be approved by the instructor and will be filed with the Dean. Directed study normally requires periodic review sessions with the instructor during the course of the semester. A student may register for only one directed study during each Fall or Spring semester. Required work must be completed during the semester in which the student is enrolled. No more than 12 hours of directed study credit may be applied toward any degree program. 2 semester hours.

B 0074 Independent Reading and Research

Reading and research in the area of biblical studies subject to the counsel and evaluation of the professor. (Open only to students in Honors.) 4 semester hours each semester.

B 0099 Guided Reading and Research

Guided reading and research in the area of biblical studies subject to the counsel and evaluation of the professor. (Open to Th.M. and D.Min. candidates by permission of the instructor.) 4 semester hours.

Biblical Orientation and Archaeology

B 1000 Biblical Orientation

A study of the historical, geographical, chronological, linguistic, and cultural setting of the Bible in the Ancient Near East as seen through the results of archaeological excavation. 2 semester hours.

B 1020 Historical Geography of the Bible

A study in depth of the history and geography of the Bible with special emphasis on the place names, their history and their importance for economic, cultural, demographic and theological development in the Bible. Special attention is given to the findings of archaeology as they bear on geography, history, culture and texts of the Old and New Testaments with emphasis on the Old Testament. 2 semester hours.

B 1021 Historical Geography of the Bible

A continuation of B 1020 with emphasis on the New Testament. 2 semester hours.

B 1022 Biblical Archaeology

An interpretation of the Bible by historical periods in the light of specific archaeological discoveries. 2 semester hours.

B 1030 Biblical Study Tour - Mr. Balentine

A guided study tour of Palestine with emphasis upon historical, geographical and archaeological orientation on the various sites. 4 semester hours.

B 1040 Field Archaeology

Field experience in the scientific techniques of modern archaeological methods. Sites in the Middle East and contiguous areas of the biblical world will constitute the laboratory for the field work. Summer. 8 semester hours. (2 semesters of 4 hours each)

Biblical Hebrew

Mr. Andrews, Mr. Balentine, Mr. Rogers
