TEN NAMED BROWN SCHOLARS

BY SOUTHEASTERN SEMINARY

WAKE FOREST, N.C. - Ten incoming students in the fall 1982 semester at Southeastern Seminary have been selected as recipients of the Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Award, according to a recent announcement by Woody Catoe, Director of Student Affairs. They are:

Bryan Keith Burkhead of Birmingham, Ala, a graduate of Samford University;

Gregory Allen Mumpower of Birmingham, Ala, who will graduate from Samford University in May;

Philip B. Belcher of Walterboro, S. C., to graduate from Furman University in June;

Johnson Griffith Dorn of Greenwood, S. C., to graduate from Furman University in June;

Roland Dean Metcalf of Travelers Rest, S. C., who will graduate from Mars Hill College in May;

William Wilson Rash of Charlotte, N. C., to graduate from Gardner-Webb College in May;

Crissman Dale Nichols of Chapel Hill, a 1980 graduate of Gardner-Webb College;

Peggy Haymes of Winston-Salem who will graduate from Furman University in June;

Irvin Moore, Jr. of Charlotte, a graduate of N.C. A&T University and Washington University; and David Christopher Ahearn of Houston, Tex., a 1981 graduate of Austin College.

The awards, named for the late Southeastern New Testament professor, are among fifteen $1,000 scholarships available annually to new students who have exhibited academic excellence, promise in the service of Christ, Christian character, and commitment to ministry.
