REPORT ON EDUCATION

The life of a nation depends upon its schools. The value of a school depends upon its ideals. The ideals of a school have the highest worth only as they are Christian. It is the duty of a church to make these ideals dominant in education.

The Baptist of North Carolina are maintaining three standard colleges: Chowan College, Meredith College, and Wake Forest College; two junior colleges: Wingate and Mars Hill; two high schools: Buie's Creek and Boiling Springs. In these institutions we had enrolled last year 3,704 students, including 226 candidates for the ministry and 97 special volunteers.

Our Baptist program for education includes general assistance to mission schools, training schools for young women who expect to enter church work, Bible institutes, and seminaries in which all the Southern states cooperate.

As Baptist we outnumber any other denomination in North Carolina. There are 347,000 white Baptist in our State. As a great denomination we owe to the social life of the State, contributions in the way of trained citizenship in keeping with the host that follows us. The cost of denominational education in North Carolina should not be thought of in addition to the cost of public education. Without denominational education taxes would have to be greatly increased to provide training in the public educational institutions. As Baptist we are under obligation to give Christian training for the citizens and leaders of our denomination that shall be a credit to the great body which we represent.

The fact of unprecedented progress in public schools and the expenditure of millions in buildings and equipment does not lessen the burden upon denominational education; it rather increases it because our church schools must measure up in equipment and efficiency and hold the same high standards in education as public institutions, the chief difference being we must insist upon Christian teachers of high ideals. It is unfair to our Christian ideals for our institutions to give an inferior training to those who go to them. The challenge is greater to-day than ever before.

As Baptist we feel that we have made and are still making a contribution to the life of our State and country. The simple principles of our Baptist faith, we believe, is essential in the building of character and the welfare of our State. We must maintain creditable leadership. Baptist institutions and training in Baptist schools should be second to none in North Carolina. In the past our denominational leaders have come from our church schools. This fact is still true. There cannot be a successful leadership in our denomination without a well informed membership. Business men and professional men are exerting an increased influence in our denominational life. There is only one way for us to maintain a membership in sympathy with our denominational program and that way is through education in our schools where the simple principles of our faith and loyalty are developed.

We feel a profound sense of gratitude for the great work of our educational institutions and pray for divine guidance that they may continue to lead a great denomination in the principles of love and loyalty to Jesus Christ.

MISSIONS

Jesus came to seek and to save that which was lost. He declared to his disciples: "As my father hath sent me into the world, even so, send I you." He gave as his last command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

So the mission of every church and of each individual Christian is to make Christ known around the world. Southern Baptist are preaching the gospel in seventeen foreign countries. Last year our missionaries baptized more than twelve thousand converts.

Our Home Mission Board, through its many agencies, is seeking to evangelize and train all our people in the southland. Our State Mission Board is seeking to save North Carolina, and bring all the people to the feet of Jesus. We believe this the most effective way of winning the lost world to the side and the service of the Savior.

After remarks by W. M. Gilmore, the discussion was suspended for preaching. Sermon by J. N. Binkley; text, John 5:39.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Business was resumed. Prayer by J. G. Horn. After remarks by D. W. Pool, K. D. Stukenbrok, and Uriah Farthing, the report on Missions was adopted.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS

The public press is our greatest source of information; and the public responds to an appeal according to the information given. Your committee is of the opinion that if the Baptists of North Carolina were properly informed as to our denominational needs and opportunities they would respond for Kingdom service in a glorious way. Our people cannot know of our needs unless they are informed, therefore your committee recommends that our pastors take our denominational papers, and keep their congregations informed as to our denominational needs, and to urge some one in each family to take such papers as Biblical Recorder, Charity and Children, and The Fore-runner.

T. J. McNEILL.

This report was discussed by T. J. McNeill, and J. N. Binkley, and adopted by the Association.

REPORT ON RELIGIOUS EXERCISES

M. Walker will conduct prayer service tomorrow at 9:30, D. W. Pool will preach at 11:00, and K. D. Stukenbrok will preach Sunday at 11:00.

ORPHANAGE REPORT

Forty years ago the Baptists of North Carolina began the blessed work of caring for helpless children. Nearly 3000 have felt the touch of the helping hand since that day. There are in round numbers 600 children in the institution; 110 of these are in the Kennedy Home, our eastern branch. At present there are 83 mothers with 386 children being aided in their own homes—nearly a thousand in all. Seven cottages have recently been equipped with dining rooms and kitchens, thus completing this system for the entire Orphanage. Every cottage is now a complete home within itself, approaching the normal home as nearly as possible.

The school work ranges from the kindergarten up through the high school. The activities of the children through the work hours are to be considered a part of the system of training. The cottage life, playground, industrial features, church, Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. activities, constitute the effort to work out a well rounded life.

The Orphanage has enjoyed a good year, especially in health. The support of the regular collections has fallen below what it was a year ago. The treasurer has been compelled to borrow money in order to keep going. The drought has caused considerable loss.

We urge the following suggestions: A once a month collection in every Sunday school; a club of Charity and Children in every Sunday school, and a great Thanksgiving offering from every church and Sunday school. Many churches will find it better to select a Sunday near Thanksgiving day for this offering. Urge that the offering be made equal to one day's work or income, and that it be a real thank offering. Such an offering, along with the once a month giving, will meet the needs of the Orphanage.

After discussion by N. T. Jarvis, J. E. Hendren, Guss Myers and J. L. Comer the report was adopted.

TIME AND PLACE

We, your committee on Time and Place, recommend that the next session of the Association be held with Zion church, sixteen miles south of Elkin, beginning Thursday before the first Sunday in October, 1926. N. T. Jarvis will preach the introductory sermon, G. D. White, alternate.

D. J. PHARR,

E. M. SALE.

On motion the report is adopted.
Adjourned; prayer by J. G. Horn.

SATURDAY MORNING

Prayer meeting was conducted by M. Walker, and the Association was convened for business. Minutes of yesterday were read, amended, and approved.

J. P. Gwaltney of the Alexander Association was welcomed as a visitor.

REPORT ON BIBLE SCHOOLS

We are sorry to announce that no session of the Bible School has been held this year. We urge the brethren to get behind this school, the purpose of which is to help the preachers and others of the Brier Creek and Alexander Associations in the study of the Bible. The next session will be duly announced.

N. M. FELTS,
L. G. LAMBERT.

After remarks by L. G. Lambert, and N. M. Felts, the report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE DUTY OF THE ASSOCIATION TO YOUNG PREACHERS

We insistently urge the Association to help the young ministers. We can uphold them with our prayers, aid them in the work in His cause, and strengthen them in their determination to do work for the Master. We can advise with them, and admonish them to keep themselves unspotted from the world, knowing that the world looks on with a critical eye.

R. N. GARNER.

After discussion by R. N. Garner, M. Walker, Uriah Farthing, N. T. Jarvis, C. C. Holland, D. W. Pool, J. E. Davis, and J. E. Prevette the report was adopted.

Adjourned for preaching; sermon by Rev. J. P. Gwaltney; text, 2 Cor. 9:15.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The Association was convened, and prayer was offered by C. C. Holland. C. J. Hemric accepted a seat as correspondent.

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN DUTY TOWARD LAW ENFORCEMENT

- 1st. A Christian should be a perfect example of obedience to law.
- 2nd. A Christian should willingly bear his part of the burden of law enforcement.
- 3rd. A Christian should withdraw his fellowship from every one that walketh disorderly.

N. T. JARVIS,
J. W. RASH.

After remarks by N. T. Jarvis, J. W. Rash, and J. P. Gwaltney the report was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolved first: That we tender our sincere thanks to the people of Rocky Hill church and the community for their hospitality to this body.

Second: That it is the sense of this body that the trustees of Wake Forest College ought to ask for the immediate resignation of Dr. William L. Poteat on account of his views on evolution.

Third: That we are grateful for the harmony that has prevailed throughout this session.

N. C. LEWIS,
M. WALKER.

The report was adopted without discussion.

REPORT ON WHY THE CHURCH IS AN EXECUTIVE BODY

The church is the executive court of Christ, not his legislative court. The church is to execute his divine law, given by himself (See Matt. 18:15-18 and 28:19-20; Gal. 6:1; 1 Cor. 5:11-13; Titus 3:10-12; Thess. 3:6) but she is nowhere authorized to legislate laws. Christ organized his church and "he goeth up into a mountain and calleth unto him whom he would, and they come unto him, and he ordained twelve." (1 Cor. 12:28, his church). Then he gave his church a code of discipline which we have divided into four parts, viz.: personal offences (Matt. 18:15-18); ordinary offences (Gal. 6:1); gross offences (1 Cor. 5:11-13); error in doctrine (Titus 3:10). Then he gave his church a commission (Matt. 28:19-20). This glorious commission embraces two primary departments, the missionary and the pastoral, with two sublime encouragements. First is the missionary department (Matt. 28:19) and second, the pastoral department (Matt. 28:20); the first encouragement, "All power in heaven"; the second encouragement, "And lo! I am with you always." In the commission are inserted the ordinances, rules, discipline, and laws; thus the church is his executive body, not his legislative body.

N. M. FELTS,

After remarks by N. M. Felts, D. W. Pool, and N. T. Jarvis the report was adopted.

 The following essay was read:

SUNDAY SCHOOL EVANGELISM

To give Sunday School Evangelism justice an unlimited time would be required, and some one with greater vision, knowledge and speech than I.

Could we know and realize the good that is being done through the Sunday Schools of our nation—even the Sunday Schools of our Baptist Churches—we would be inspired with a greater determination to make our Sunday Schools one of the greatest things of our lives. We would try to do more for our community, our homes, our churches, and for the glory of God.

In the the church the Sunday School means life to the pastor. Could we imagine the joy it gives our pastor to come into the Sunday School, and to know that his church is helping him to preach the gospel through the Sunday School, that alone would amply repay us for our feeble efforts. But that is not all; the Sunday School is life to the church. There lessons are taught that are never to be forgotten. Foundations for manhood and womanhood are laid, and from these foundations some day will come great preachers, teachers, and missionaries.

In the community the Sunday School means love—love for our church, love for our neighbors, love for our homes, and most of all, love for God.
