SUMMER SCHOOL 1983

W. Randall Lolley, President

Morris Ashcraft, Dean and Director

Accreditation

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Curriculum

The curriculum consists of courses for students continuing in the A.Div., M.Div./M.R.E. program, or entering candidates for those degrees. Th.M. or D.Min. students may take advanced electives. Applications for admission to summer school are welcomed from alumni or others who want to pursue post-M.Div. studies.

The maximum course load permitted is four semester hours, H 2324s and M 4231s excepted. Students who elect language study may take only that course.

Classes meet four days a week, Tuesday through Friday, unless otherwise noted.

The seminary reserves the right to limit the size of classes in order to maintain a reasonable student-teacher ratio or to cancel a course if enrollment is not sufficient.

In addition to courses offered on campus, students may earn up to eight semester hours credit for the completion during the summer of a basic unit of clinical pastoral education at an accredited training center as provided in the Catalog, 1982-83, p. 80. In order for credit to be received, the student must register with the Registrar prior to the beginning of the program and the supervisor must file a grade report form at the conclusion of the course (M 4360s-M 4361s).

Admission

Currently enrolled degree students need only to register on the designated days.

Students applying for admission to degree programs who plan to begin studies in either term of summer school should follow the admission instructions as outlined in the Catalog, 1982-83 (p. 36f.) and register on the designated days.

Applications for admission to the summer school on any other basis should be received in the Registrar's Office at least fifteen days prior to the registration date. For additional information, write: Registrar, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587.

Registration

First Term: Monday, June 13, 1983. Orientation activities will be held for entering students. Enrollment in classes closes at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 15.

Second Term: Monday, July 11, 1983. Orientation activities will be held for entering students. Enrollment closes at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 13.

Withdrawal

Withdrawal from a course without penalty is permitted until 4:00 p.m., June 17 in the first term and until 4:00 p.m., July 15 in the second term. Students wishing to withdraw from a course or from enrollment should consult the Registrar for guidance. A student enrolled for only one course who withdraws from that course must complete the process for withdrawal from enrollment.

Costs

The matriculation fee for summer school is $50.00 per term. This fee is not refundable after 4:00 p.m. on June 15 for the first term or after 4:00 p.m. on July 13 for the second term. Dormitory rental rates are $40.00 for double occupancy for men and $45.00 for women payable in advance. The cost of books and supplies varies depending on courses taken.

Housing

Inquiries concerning housing accommodations for the summer terms should be directed to the Director of Housing.

Recreation

The town of Wake Forest operates a modern swimming pool. A nine-hole golf course within walking distance of the campus is available for a modest fee. The seminary gymnasium will be open. Tennis courts are also available.

Introduction

Statement of Purpose

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is a community of learning, deeply rooted in the Christian faith, thorough in scholarship, and vitally related to the churches. Its purpose is to prepare men and women for Christian leadership in various ministries. These include preaching and pastoral care, missionary work at home and abroad, religious education, church music, the teaching of religion and other subjects in secondary schools and colleges, religious leadership on college campuses, the chaplaincy, social service, and other forms of ministry which require specialized preparation.

Vital to all these areas of service is an understanding of the origins, content, and history of the Christian faith and its contemporary relevance. Courses of study directed toward such an understanding constitute the curriculum and are regarded as basic academic preparation for effective leadership in the Christian ministry.

While the seminary is conscious of its responsibility to the Southern Baptist Convention, its facilities are open to students of all denominations. It is the aim of the seminary to help produce a leadership for the whole Christian movement. It does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national or ethnic origin in administration of the educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, or any other program administered by this school.

W. RANDALL LOLLEY
President

MORRIS ASHCRAFT
Dean of Faculty and
Professor of Theology

In the pursuit of its objectives, the seminary is conscious of certain important emphases which undergird its program of education: (1) a thorough knowledge of the Bible; (2) a wholesome and intelligent evangelism; (3) a challenging vision of the world-wide mission of Christianity; (4) an unqualified commitment to God as revealed in our Lord Jesus Christ; (5) a sense of the mission of the local church in every social context; and (6) a commitment to academic excellence in the context of an open admissions policy.

To accomplish its purpose, the seminary maintains a faculty of God-called members who are qualified by academic preparation and by personal and professional experience to offer leadership in spiritual and intellectual endeavors.

Programs of Study

Programs of study leading to the degrees of Doctor of Ministry, Master of Theology, Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity with Religious Education, Master of Divinity with Church Music, Master of Religious Education, and Associate of Divinity are offered.

Affiliation and Support

Southeastern Seminary is an agency of the Southern Baptist Convention. It is governed by a board of trustees who are elected by the Convention and who elect administrative officers and faculty members.

The seminary receives a major part of its operating expenses and capital needs from the Convention's Cooperative Program. These funds are supplemented by student fees and special gifts from alumni and friends.

Doctrinal Guidelines

Southeastern Seminary is guided doctrinally by the Baptist Faith and Message Statement, adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963.

From its founding in 1950, each member of the faculty at Southeastern Seminary has subscribed and publicly signed the Articles of Faith (Abstract of Principles) at the beginning of his or her teaching career at Southeastern Baptist Seminary. (See p. 114 for these articles of faith.)

Accreditation and Membership

The seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. It is approved for attendance by nonimmigrant students under the Immigration and Nationality Act. The seminary is a member of the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education and the Corporation of American Schools of Oriental Research.

Relation with Universities, Hospitals, and Other Special Interests

Located in the vicinity of seven major universities and colleges, the seminary maintains functional relations with these institutions of higher learning in library exchanges, adjunct professorships, visiting lecturers and faculty fellowship. Programs of study, clinical training and internships are conducted at medical centers for both physical and mental illnesses. With the assistance of recognized specialists, seminars and special classes are held at various times throughout the year on such topics as urban studies, contemporary trends in rural life, chaplaincy, evangelism, recreation, Christian education, missions and other pertinent subjects.

Seminary Extension

Southeastern Seminary with the other five seminaries of the Southern Baptist Convention participates in the joint sponsorship of the Seminary Extension Department. This agency offers a wide selection of courses through home study and Extension Centers. For further information write to Seminary Extension Department, 460 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, Tennessee 37219.

Location

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is located in the heartland of the Baptist witness in the southeastern part of the nation. Its campus is in the center of the town of Wake Forest, North Carolina, which is sixteen miles north of Raleigh, and twenty-two miles east of Durham — cities of more than 140,000 each.

It may be reached from the Raleigh-Durham Airport (25 miles), or by driving (North-South) on U. S. Highway No. 1 or (East-West) on N. C. Highway No. 98, or by Amtrak (New York-Raleigh-Miami). Wake Forest is on the edge of the Research Triangle, a dynamic metropolitan region, including the cities of Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill. Nine modern industries combine with a large agricultural area to make the seminary setting suitable for the education and training of ministers. A temperate climate offers four distinct seasons, with almost year-around opportunities for golf and other outside activities. Three hours of driving will take one either to the Atlantic Ocean or the Appalachian Mountains.

History

After three years of careful study, the Southern Baptist Convention in Chicago on May 10, 1950, voted to establish the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. It agreed to purchase the Wake Forest College campus at Wake Forest, North Carolina, thus establishing a theological seminary on the Atlantic Seaboard within the original territory of the Southern Baptist Convention. The convention elected trustees who secured a charter and accepted as Articles of Faith the Abstract of Principles which had been adopted by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, founded in 1859. The trustees set up a budget and elected Dr. Sydnor L. Stealey as president and three professors as the core faculty.

The seminary opened for classes on September 12, 1951, with 85 students. For the first five years, the seminary was restricted to one building; but with the removal of the college to its new campus in Winston-Salem, the seminary came (July 1, 1956) into full possession of the entire campus. Immediately a program of remodeling, renovating, and building was begun.

The enrollment climbed rapidly, and additions were made to the instructional staff. An eight-week course in pastoral care was initiated at the Baptist Hospital in the summer of 1954, and in 1957 summer school was instituted on the seminary campus. With the participation of outstanding specialists from North Carolina State University, an inter-disciplinary course on the rural community was begun the following year. In 1958, the seminary received full accreditation from the American Association of Theological Schools (now the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada).

Upon Dr. Stealey's retirement in 1963, Dr. Olin T. Binkley was elected the seminary's second president. Under his leadership the renovation of the campus was continued. Four old buildings were removed, and thirteen new buildings were constructed and paid for: the dormitory for women, the student center, the health center, and ten duplex houses for students. The curriculum was revised; the Bachelor of Divinity degree was changed to Master of Divinity degree, and the Master of Religious Education degree and the Doctor of Ministry degree were added. The annual Alumni Giving Program was inaugurated.

In 1974 Dr. Binkley retired, and Dr. W. Randall Lolley was elected the seminary's third president. To meet the needs of an expanding library, the Emery B. Denny Building was renovated and enlarged by the construction of an addition. The Certificate in Theology was changed to the Associate of Divinity degree. In March 1977 the trustees adopted a long range plan which covers all aspects of the seminary's life. In 1978 the seminary received full accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. One hundred townhouses for students were constructed in 1979, and Lea Lab was completely renovated and re-dedicated as Broyhill Hall in 1980-81. The ground floor of Binkley Chapel was transformed in 1982 into five modern classrooms with a seating capacity for 385 students. In the fall of 1982 the seminary's enrollment was 1,282 persons.

For its first thirty-two years, the seminary has had an average enrollment of 695. With its 1982 commencements, it has granted a total of 5,038 degrees to 4,668 persons. These men and women, located throughout the nation and in many parts of the world, are the "earnest" of the seminary's stewardship to our fellow Baptists and to the Lord Jesus Christ whose servants we are.

Campus and Facilities

Originally the home of Wake Forest College, the campus of Southeastern Seminary dates back to 1832 when the 615-acre plantation of Dr. Calvin Jones was purchased by the Baptists of North Carolina "to afford to our young ministers facilities for obtaining such an education as will qualify them to be able ministers of the New Testament" (G. W. Paschal, History of Wake Forest College, Vol. 1, p. 44).

Townhouses

Eight white oaks of the "magnificent grove" which grew to the east of the plantation-house and which gave Wake Forest its name are still standing. Magnolias, elms, pines, other oaks, dogwoods, cedars, firs, maples and many other varieties of trees, plus azaleas, camellias, sasanquas, quinces, flowering apple trees, weeping cherries and many other flowering trees and shrubs make the campus a veritable "botanical garden." The stone-wall which President Charles E. Taylor and "Dr. Tom" Jeffries began about 1885 still encloses the twenty-five acres of the campus proper. But the seminary has expanded far beyond this area and has added boxwoods, hollies, the Mackie-Robinson Rose Garden with its three-tier fountain and many other interesting and beautiful items to these historic grounds.

While the naturalness and charm of the old campus have been maintained, new buildings have been constructed and the remaining college buildings have been renovated to serve the needs of the seminary.

The S. L. Stealey Administration Building was built by Wake Forest College in 1934 to replace the Old College Building, later named Wait Hall, which had been destroyed by fire in 1933. In 1956 it was completely renovated for offices of the administration and faculty; it was renamed in honor of the seminary's first president, Dr. S. L. Stealey, in 1961.

The Olin T. Binkley Chapel commands the center of the campus; its tall spire is visible for several miles along every approach to Wake Forest. Work was begun on the chapel in 1942; the Second World War prevented the completion of the interior. With the removal of the college to Winston-Salem in 1956, the work was resumed and completed in 1958. In 1959 a three-manual Reuter organ was given and installed as a memorial to Walter M. Williams of Burlington, N.C. In 1969 the Board of Trustees named the chapel in honor of the seminary's second president, Dr. Olin T. Binkley. In 1982 the ground floor of the chapel was re-designed and furnished as five modern classrooms and church music facilities, including organ and piano practice areas.

The Scott B. Appleby Building was begun by Wake Forest College in 1942 and completed during World War II. From 1951 to 1956, this one building housed the entire Southeastern Seminary; then it was remodeled and, in 1962, renamed in honor of Mr. Scott B. Appleby in recognition of his generous support of the student aid fund. It contains a small chapel, classrooms, offices and a fellowship room, named in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Percy A. Bethea. Refurbishment in 1981 makes it a beautiful and useful building.

The Emery B. Denny Library Building was constructed by the seminary in 1958 to replace the old Heck-Williams Building (1878) which was razed in 1957. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named it in honor of Dr. Emery B. Denny, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, a trustee of the seminary and its long-time friend and supporter. It houses the seminary library. A functional redesign of the building was achieved in a major enlargement and renovation project completed in 1977.

The William Amos Johnson Building, erected in 1933 "in loving memory of William Amos Johnson," first housed the Wake Forest Medical School (now Bowman Gray School of Medicine). Renovated in 1956, it now serves as a classroom building for the seminary.

The Ruby Reid Child Care Center was made possible by a bequest of Miss Ruby Reid of Wake Forest, North Carolina, and gifts from the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. It was constructed in 1959. Five spacious classrooms, equipped with observation booths, open onto covered porches and fenced-in playgrounds. An office, teachers' lounge and a multi-purpose library-lunch room add to the usefulness of the building.

Broyhill Hall is the oldest building on Southeastern's campus with the newest name. Built in 1888 as Lea Laboratory, it served Wake Forest College as a science building and then as the chemistry building; after the college moved, it was converted into a student center for the seminary. In 1980 it was renamed Broyhill Hall in appreciation of the generous gifts of J. E. and Paul Broyhill, trustees from Lenoir, N.C., toward its renovation. It now houses various administrative offices.

Mackie Hall was dedicated on May 9, 1968, as the seminary's new student center. It is named in honor of Dr. George C. Mackie, "a distinguished physician" who "devoted his life to the well-being of students" at Wake Forest College and at Southeastern seminary, and of Mrs. Mackie who as "a creative leader" has participated in the beautification of the campus. A Commons Room, the Southeastern Seminary Store, recreational area, conference rooms, offices for the director of student activities and student leaders, and carrels for fellows and graders are located in this building.

The Seminary Cafeteria was built by the seminary in 1956 and provides dining rooms for conferences and small groups as well as facilities for large banquets and regular meals.

for Communications

Gore Gymnasium was dedicated in 1938 by Wake Forest College and was named for Mr. Claude Gore, president of the Board of Trustees and a strong supporter of the college. Seminarians use this building for indoor sports such as basketball, volleyball, handball and badminton, shuffle-board, weight-lifting and ping-pong. This building is scheduled for a complete renovation to be known as the Ledford Student Center in the near future.

The Health Center was constructed by the seminary in 1968 and contains offices for diagnostic consultation and rooms for treatment. The seminary physician and director of counseling maintain regular schedules of service; a registered nurse is on duty throughout the day.

Wake Forest Baptist Church, organized in 1835, occupies the church building (1913) within the campus enclosure, although this property is owned by the church. An educational building was added in 1970. This church makes an important contribution to the life of the seminary.

The President's Home, built in 1928 as the residence of the president of Wake Forest College, is located off the southwest corner of the campus and in 1975 was completely renovated and refurnished.

Purchased in 1960 by the seminary, the Manor Guest House is near the main campus and provides pleasant accommodations for prospective students, visitors and other guests of the seminary.

In 1956 three residences were set aside for the use of missionaries on furlough who wish to study at Southeastern Seminary. The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, with assistance from the WMS of the Wake Forest Baptist Church and of neighboring Baptist churches, is relocating and completely refurnishing these.

The Reece House is a completely furnished guest apartment for seminary visitors. It is named for the late James Thaddeus and Nina Davis Reece of Yadkinville, N.C.

The Athletic Field is located near the campus and is utilized for recreational activities such as softball, baseball, flag-football and archery. Five tennis courts are provided, and arrangements have been made with the Paschal Golf Club for seminary personnel to play golf at a special fee.

Housing

Johnson Dormitory provides rooms and facilities for 150 men with lounge areas and other conveniences. The availability of single rooms is determined each semester by the total number of requests for rooms. This three-story building, constructed in 1946 in separate sections for quietness and privacy and now renovated, offers pleasant living conditions for its occupants.

Bostwick Dormitory has rooms and facilities for 84 men. It contains 23 two-bedroom suites. There are no single rooms available in Bostwick. It has three kitchenettes, two lounge areas with recreation and game rooms, and laundry facilities.

The Women's Dormitory, constructed in 1965, provides air-conditioned rooms for 52 women. It contains 13 two-room suites with connecting baths, and has parlors, study rooms, kitchenette, laundry space, recreation and game rooms.

Simmons Apartment Building, built in 1936 and renovated, consists of 11 units, each with two bedrooms, combination living and dining room, kitchen and bath. Each kitchen is furnished with stove and refrigerator. A laundry area with coin-operated washers and dryers is located in the basement. All windows have venetian blinds, but no other furniture is provided. These units are reserved for married students without children or with children thirteen years or older.

Simmons Apartment Building: Women's Section. Two sections of this building have been renovated to provide for 32 women in suites with kitchenettes and lounge areas.

Johnson Dormitory

Duplex Apartments, built from 1959 to 1975, can accommodate one hundred families. There are one, two and three bedroom units each with living room, kitchen and bath. Each apartment has its own heat, light and water system; the occupant is responsible for all utilities (heat, lights and water). These apartments are unfurnished, except for stove and refrigerator which are permanent installations. Located on West Pine Avenue, Rankin Court, Judson Drive and Rice Circle, Stadium Road, Wingate Street and Hipps Drive, they are within easy walking distance of the main campus. Apartments have washer and dryer connections.

Colonial Dormitory offers accommodations for 16 men in 4 suites. Located within block of campus.

Townhouse Apartments, built in 1979, can accommodate one hundred families. There are two and three bedroom units, each with living room, kitchen-dinette area. Living room, bedrooms, stairways are carpeted. Kitchen and bathrooms have vinyl tile. Each apartment has central air-conditioning and heating system. Occupant is responsible for utilities. These apartments are unfurnished, except for stove and refrigerator which are permanent installations. Located on McDowell Road, they are less than a mile from the campus. Apartments have washer and dryer connections.

Women's Dorm

Student Life

Worship

As Binkley Chapel is the center of the campus, so worship is the center of the seminary life. Under the leadership of students, professors and prominent visitors, devotional services are held at ten o'clock, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. On special days, missionary speakers, scholars and other Christian leaders broaden the vision and deepen the commitment of students and others with lectures and addresses.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of representatives elected by the student body, assist the faculty and administration in coordinating various student activities and in promoting the general welfare of all students. The areas of their concern are reflected in the names of the council's committees: arts, spiritual life, ethics, off-campus ministries, social, student welfare and communications. Students also serve on faculty committees; this student involvement strengthens and enriches seminary life.

Opportunities for Ministry

Although the seminary cannot guarantee a position to any student, the student-field ministry directors of the Formation in Ministry office offer assistance to every student seeking opportunities for ministry. The fact that a majority of all students enrolled at Southeastern Seminary find remunerative employment in churches within a 300-mile radius of the school speaks well of their efforts. Students minister in hospitals, prisons, shopping-centers, rest homes, camp grounds, schools, churches, colleges, and other institutions or areas of special need. During the summer, many students serve as pastor-assistants, retreat chaplains, evangelists, youth directors, chaplain interns at hospitals, missionaries and special city workers.

Husbands and Wives of Students

Husbands or wives of students may enroll for classes at a reduced fee; special night classes or lectures are arranged for their convenience. The seminary choir, the Seminary Wives Fellowship, picnics, parties and other social functions offer a variety of activities and special interest opportunities.

Those who seek employment have a wide choice of possibilities. Nurses readily find work in nearby hospitals; teachers, aides and others often are employed in public and private schools. The seminary employs a number of secretaries, library assistants, telephone operators and other skilled and semi-skilled persons. Industries and businesses in Wake Forest, Raleigh and Durham present opportunities for all types of work.

Children

Children have an important place in the life of the seminary. Modern housing affords them comfortable living quarters; churches and public schools are within walking distance from the campus. The services of the seminary physician and counselor are available at the health center without charge. The seminary's recreational facilities are opened to all members of the seminary family.

Ruby Reid Child Care Center

Established in 1956, the Child Care Center seeks (1) to provide a laboratory for teachers and students who desire to explore ways of working with children; (2) to provide care for children 18 months to kindergarten age, with care available for children under 18 months when there is sufficient need and adequate space; (3) to provide a setting in which parents may discover new ways to enrich their family living; and (4) to provide a center in which churches and other agencies involved in the care of children may receive counsel related to the improvement of their programs.

A fee is charged. Since enrollment must be limited, parents who are interested in having their children in the Center should write for further information and application forms prior to the parents' registration in the Seminary. Address: Director, Ruby Reid Child Care Center, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C. 27587.

Youth Ministry

The seminary sponsors a specialized ministry for youths (ages 13-19) of seminary students, faculty and staff members. The campus minister, a qualified seminarian, is employed by the seminary to address the special needs of young people while providing opportunities for personal growth, spiritual formation, fellowship and service to the community.

Extra-Curricular Activities

Opportunities for fellowship, recreation, and personal enrichment are offered in numerous clubs, choral groups, evangelism teams, dramas, an intramural athletic program, golf course, tennis courts and a large gymnasium. The town of Wake Forest operates two swimming pools and sponsors a summer recreational program for all ages. Concerts, plays, art galleries and other cultural privileges in Raleigh, Durham, and Chapel Hill are many and varied.

While not a part of the regular curriculum, these student activities contribute to the fulfillment of the seminary's motto "that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly furnished for every good work" (II Tim. 3:17).

Clubs

Faculty Club, composed of members of the instructional staff and administrative officers, meets occasionally for fellowship, inspiration and the presentation of scholarly papers and other items of mutual interest.

Faculty Wives' Club offer a monthly opportunity for fellowship, inspiration and instruction for the wives of faculty members and administrative officers.

F.O.C.U.S. (Fellowship of Christians United in Service) is a volunteer ministry designed to provide opportunities for ministry in churches in accord with their needs and the gifts of the team members. It sponsors a mission project for selected students and is opened to all students.

Seminary Wives Fellowship is an organization for the wives of students which seeks to respond to specific needs of seminary women through special events, family recreation, missions awareness, personal growth, opportunities and preparation for ministry.

JERRY L. NISWONGER
Assistant to the President for Student Development

Southeastern Black Theological Forum was formed to stimulate Black awareness on campus through regular meetings and the sponsorship of special programs.

State Organizations, composed of students from the same state, promote fellowship and provide a setting for sharing mutual concerns and interests. They include: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

Student Chapter of the American Guild of Organists is a unit of the national association of choral directors and organists. Members participate in educational programs and field trips and are eligible to take the Guild examinations.

Opportunities in Music

Seminary Chorus rehearses on Tuesdays from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. A simple audition is required for men. Many couples make this choir a family affair; wives are encouraged to sing in this group without audition or fee. A Chapel Ensemble of twelve students sings in the chapel services; work grants are awarded for this participation. A Cantata Choir rehearses two hours per week, singing a wide variety of anthem and cantata literature. Private voice and organ lessons are offered at modest fees. (See pp. 25, 28.) An Instrumental Ensemble and Handbell Ensemble offer additional opportunities for musical expression.

Special Days and Lectures

The regular curriculum of the seminary is enlarged and enriched by guest-lecturers, visiting preachers and special speakers. These sermons, lectures and addresses are given in Binkley Chapel at ten o'clock on designated days and are open to the general public.

Adams Lectures. The Theodore F. Adams Lectures on Preaching and the Pastoral Ministry are given each year on four consecutive days by a prominent preacher/pastor/churchperson.

Carver-Barnes Memorial Lectures. These lectures are primarily on the history and mission of the church and are given by recognized scholars from America and abroad.

Commencements. Prominent speakers will participate in both the winter and spring commencements.

Convocations. The fall convocation address is given generally by an administrative officer, and the spring convocation address is delivered by a faculty member.

Faculty Lectures. Each fall and spring a member of the seminary's faculty gives a public lecture.

Founders' Day. An address is given by a distinguished person in connection with the annual observance of Founders' Day.

Missionary Days. Four missions emphasis days are held each year, with home and foreign missionaries and other churchpersons giving an address and meeting with students.

Page Lectures. An outstanding scholar, religious pioneer or creative thinker is invited to give two lectures in the fall term.

Spring Lectures. In the spring term a prominent religious leader gives two lectures on a contemporary issue.

Conferences

To emphasize the role and personal growth of the wives of students the Esther Jillson Adams Seminars were established to provide special programs, seminars and enrichment events each year. These are planned and directed by the Faculty Wives Club, the Seminary Wives Fellowship and the Office of Student Affairs.

Chaplains' Day is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and is opened to military, institutional and industrial chaplains and those interested in these areas of service.

The Pastors' Seminar is held in conjunction with the Theodore F. Adams Lectures and affords alumni and other friends a week of classes, fellowship and recreation. It is planned and conducted by the Alumni Association.

The Spring Conference is sponsored annually in cooperation with the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Activities are planned and directed by a student steering committee in consultation with a professor of Christian Education and are open to all members of the seminary family.

The Student Conference on Mission and Ministry is an annual, weekend event, planned and conducted by students, faculty and administration for college students interested in various Christian ministries. Musical groups, speakers, counselors, dramatic presentations and fellowship make for an unforgettable experience.

Baptist Book Store

The Baptist Book Store and Campus Store, located in Mackie Hall, are operated under the auspices of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and carry the required textbooks and supplies for the classes as well as a variety of other books, personal accessories, sandwiches and other snack foods.

Publications

Campus Bulletin is a weekly circular, announcing campus activities and events, and is published by the Student Affairs Office for campus distribution.

Catalog is a special issue of the Southeastern Seminary Bulletin which contains information on the educational policies and programs of the seminary. It is published annually by the Office of Communications and is available upon request from the Registrar.

Directory is a pictorial handbook of students, faculty members and administrative personnel, with addresses, phone numbers and other biographical information. It is a publication of the Office of Communications.

Enquiry is a student newspaper, written by students for the seminary family. Issues are published approximately once every three weeks and are distributed throughout the campus.

Faith and Mission is a scholarly journal of the faculty to be published twice a year, with its first issue appearing in December of 1983. As an aid to persons engaged in Christian ministry, the journal will feature articles dealing with current theological and biblical issues as well as review books related to the field of Christian thought and practice.

Handbook and Orientation Guide, a publication of the Student Affairs Office, is designed primarily for the benefit of entering students and contains information pertinent for their orientation.

Outlook (Southeastern Seminary Bulletin) is a bi-monthly, general interest magazine, published by the Office of Communications for students, alumni and other interested persons. Upon request, copies are sent gratis to alumni, trustees and other friends of the seminary.

Southeastern Studies is a series of books of scholarly articles, published occasionally by the seminary faculty.

Update is a monthly sheet, prepared by the president's office and containing reports and announcements for trustees, faculty and administrative personnel.

President-Student Forum

Three times each semester the president of the seminary meets with students at a coffee-doughnut "break" for an open forum. Any student may voice his or her question, complaint, comment or compliment, and the president makes appropriate response.

Peer Support Groups

Peer support groups help in the orientation of new students by providing information and encouragement in small, informal settings and are led by selected students.

Fees and Expenses

Convention Support

The support of the seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention through its Cooperative Program enables the seminary to offer its programs of study without charging tuition.

These funds are not sufficient to meet the academic and operational needs of the seminary. They do not include any allocation for financial assistance to students. Additional sources of income are required annually, including special gifts from interested individuals and groups.

Gifts from Southern Baptists through the Cooperative Program supplement students who are members of Southern Baptist churches in keeping their matriculation fee to $250 per semester.

Schedule of Fees

The fees listed below embrace charges the Seminary will make upon students and include such privileges as use of the library, recreational facilities, including tennis courts, and admission to all special lectures. Textbooks will cost a student approximately $150.00 per semester. A student will be wise, where financially possible, to plan to spend an equal amount for books which will be recommended for the building of his personal library.

Student accounts must be paid in full prior to registration each semester.

The following fees are all inclusive and must be paid prior to registration:

Matriculation per semester, M.Div., M.R.E., and Associate candidates	$250.00
Matriculation per semester, Th.M. candidates*	250.00
Part-time student: 2 hours charge	$25.00

Master of Divinity and Master of Religious Education	12.00
Master of Theology	12.00
Doctor of Ministry	12.00

Diploma fees will be collected during registration for the semester preceding graduation.

Academic Apparel

Associate of Divinity	$13.00
Master of Divinity and Master of Religious Education	23.50
Master of Theology	23.50
Doctor of Ministry	26.00

Graduation

Applications for graduation in May must be turned in to Registrar's Office before Jan. 19. Applications for the December graduation must be in the Registrar's Office before Sept. 19. Student accounts must be paid in full prior to graduation.

Refunds

Fees: A student who withdraws between the first day of classes and the close of registration may be refunded two-thirds (2/3) of the total fees. Total fees constitute matriculation and student activity fees.

Deposits: Deposits made for reservation of rooms and apartments will be refunded only if cancellation is made ten days prior to beginning of the term. The deposit will be returned when the student releases the facility in good condition and returns the key to the office of the Director of Housing. Deposits are applied to balance due on account before refunds are made.

Health Center

Students and their families may see the doctor or the director of counseling at office hours in the Health Center without charge.

Residence calls are subject to charge by the physician.

Students may purchase general medicines and some medical supplies through the Health Center as prescribed by the campus physician. The student is asked to pay for all medicines at the time they are issued.

Hospital Insurance

Students are required to present evidence of adequate medical insurance at the time of registration each semester. The Annuity Board Student Health Program is recommended to students who do not have comparable coverage.

Music Fees

Private voice and organ lessons are available to a limited number of students. There is a $75.00 fee per semester. There are practice pianos in the Chapel building. A practice fee of $7.50 will be charged for piano, and $10.00 for organ. Fees are not refundable after one week from last day for registration.

Housing Regulations

Southeastern Seminary now has dormitory space for 250 men and 84 women and apartments for 211 families. (Many students live in parsonages furnished by the churches they serve.)

Applications for housing require deposits of $45.00 for rooms and $100.00 for apartments. Address application to: Director of Housing, Southeastern Seminary, Wake Forest, N. C. 27587. For description of housing facilities, see pages 15-16. It must be realized that costs of operation may necessitate changes in rent.

Rooms or apartments reserved by deposit will not be held beyond the opening date of the term unless the student prepays the first month's rent.

Students who take less than 8 hours of classwork will not be eligible for residence in seminary housing.

Students are required to vacate seminary housing within thirty days after completing classwork for the M.Div., M.R.E. and A. Div. degrees. Exception: Students enrolled in the Th.M. or D. Min. programs are required to vacate seminary housing within 24 months after completing the M.Div. program and enrolling in the Th.M. or D.Min. degree program. M.Div. graduate students enrolled in summer school must vacate Seminary housing during the weekend following the end of summer session in which the student is enrolled.

All rent is payable monthly in advance.

Students occupying seminary apartments are required to sign a housing lease agreement.

No pets are permitted in Seminary housing.

Dormitory Housing Statement of Policy

Southeastern Seminary is committed to providing adequate, basic services for all of its students. As this commitment relates to housing, Southeastern seeks to make available on-campus housing at affordable rates.

Dormitory housing is provided primarily for single students and students who commute from other areas and need temporary housing during the week.

Housing policies and regulations are devised to be consistent with the Seminary's commitment not only to its students but also to the Southern Baptist Convention and the people who support it. Their primary aim is to help maintain an atmosphere that promotes the welfare of the individual student, maintains a comfortable setting conducive to study and learning and provides as much privacy as possible in a shared environment.

All seminary housing residents are guided by specific policies and regulations. Regulations which define the use of dormitory facilities are somewhat restrictive due primarily to the nature of dormitory housing in which residents must share accommodations, facilities and equipment. Since students are not required to live in seminary owned housing, potential residents should read carefully the policies and regulations regarding their particular dormitory. Those who feel that these may be confining or inconsistent with their particular lifestyle are encouraged to seek other alternatives for housing.

At best, dormitory housing is temporary in nature and should not be equated with or expected to function as housing which is of a more permanent type.

The assignment of a dormitory room is not a commitment on the part of the seminary to the student for continuous occupancy of a particular room. At the discretion of the seminary, residence halls may be closed at certain seasons; or students may be required to make moves within dormitories.

In order that necessary maintenance and cleaning can be accomplished prior to the fall term, residents must vacate their room before Monday after the conclusion of the second session of summer school. The dormitories normally will re-open one week prior to the beginning of classes for the fall term.

Room rent is due one month in advance at the beginning of each calendar month. Residents are responsible for the rent until they have followed the proper procedure for check-out of the room and turned in the key to the room.

Cafeteria

Meals in the cafeteria will cost approximately $8.00 a day, depending on individual requirements.

Student Financial Assistance

A student's preparation for entering the seminary should include a determination of personal financial needs and the provisions for meeting these. Southeastern believes that its students should, as far as possible, be self supporting. However, it is recognized that some men and women who give promise of outstanding usefulness in Christian service, require assistance to complete their seminary program.

Financial aid at Southeastern Seminary is administered through an assistance program which includes on-campus jobs, scholarships and emergency assistance through loans and grants. The dimensions of the program do not make it possible to provide for the total budget needs of students. Any assistance provided is, therefore, supplemental to other income which the student may have. Funds for these programs are made possible primarily through the generous gifts of friends and alumni of Southeastern.

It is recommended that an entering student have sufficient income or funds, independent of seminary aid, to see him/her through at least the first semester.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is not eligible to participate in any federally or state funded student financial aid programs involving loans and grants. Prospective students should not anticipate such aid being available while enrolled as a student at Southeastern. Federal or state education loans may not qualify for deferment and may be subject to immediate repayment schedules. Students should contact their lending institutions for advice and information. Qualified students who are veterans are eligible to receive V.A. benefits.

Binkley Classroom

Possibilities of Self-Help

The Wake Forest area offers good opportunities for employment of students and/or their spouses. Two cities are adjacent: Raleigh, sixteen miles south, and Durham, twenty-two miles west. In these are considerable opportunities for part-time student employment; and students' spouses may find work as secretaries, nurses, hospital technicians, clerks and others. The seminary employs several students' spouses in secretarial, stenographic, clerical and technical positions.

There are three ways by which we help our students to help themselves:

Church Work — The Seminary encourages students to work in the churches as student pastors, assistant pastors, supply pastors, interim pastors, mission pastors, revival preachers, youth revival preachers, song leaders for congregations, directors of music, directors of religious education, directors of recreation, organists, pianists, and workers in church organizations. All students are urged to seek the counsel of the Formation in Ministry Office concerning such employment.

On the Campus — The Seminary furnishes each year a number of work grants for students. These include work in the library, campus store and cafeteria, office work, and special assignments such as news bureau, photography, etc. Individuals who desire details concerning student work grants should write the Director of Student Affairs for information and applications. Work grant positions are filled on the basis of the student's financial need and his or her qualifications for the particular job.

Raleigh-Durham and Other Communities — Students may secure remunerative work in nearby cities and towns. Wake Forest is within 20 minutes' driving distance of Raleigh, the capital city, and within 30 minutes of Durham, an industrial city. Many students and their spouses find employment in these centers. Many secure teaching positions in nearby schools. In no instance can definite employment in the churches or in the adjacent communities be guaranteed by the Seminary.

Remunerative Employment

The Office of Formation in Ministry, Student/Field Ministries Division, will assist students in securing remunerative employment by exploring possibilities for students to work in the church and other settings for ministry. They will seek to introduce students to prospective employers, but they cannot guarantee employment for any student.

When a student assumes responsibilities in addition to academic work, there is a moral obligation to fulfill all these tasks in a satisfactory manner. The Faculty recommends that a student with as many as twenty hours per week of secular employment or as many as two weekends per month of church-related responsibilities on a regular basis not register for more than twelve semester hours. Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average will not be permitted to enroll for more than ten hours.

Students who find it necessary to engage in outside work in the amounts indicated above are strongly advised to take a four-year sequence.

Student Aid

Student Aid at Southeastern Seminary is made possible through the generosity of individual donors and consists of four distinct types: Work Grants, Student Loans, Aids and Scholarships.

Grants-in-aid and loans are available in small sums to meet urgent or emergency needs of students. Scholarships are awarded from available funds each semester after registration closes; applications may be submitted a month in advance of this date. Applications for grants, loans and scholarships are reviewed and awarded by decision of the administrative Loan and Aid Committee. Information and applications may be obtained by writing the Director of Student Affairs.

Special Scholarships

Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars

The Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards are Southeastern's most prestigious scholarships. These are awarded to qualified entering students in the basic master's level degree programs. Academic excellence (B+ or better), commitment to ministry, promise in the service of Christ and Christian character are considered in making these awards. Scholarships are $1,000 each and are made available during the recipient's first year. Application materials are made available each fall on selected college campuses or may be obtained by writing the Director of Student Affairs, Southeastern Seminary. Applications are accepted through March 1.

Charles B. Keesee Scholars

The Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc., of Martinsville, Va., offers financial assistance to qualified men and women who were residents of the state of Virginia or North Carolina prior to entering the seminary and who are enrolled in a basic degree program (A.Div., M.R.E. or M.Div.). Applications may be secured from: Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc.; P.O. Box 431; Martinsville, VA 24114. These must be returned to Keesee Office by March 1st prior to the year of the grant.

Charles S. Coleman Holy Land Study Tour Scholarships

Generous gifts of Mr. Charles S. Coleman, a lay-graduate of Southeastern Seminary, have made possible the granting of several scholarships for a ten-day study-tour of the holy land. These are open to second or third year students, enrolled at Southeastern Seminary. Applications are received in the office of Student Affairs in the fall of the student's second or third year.

Library

The Seminary Library is dynamically involved with faculty and students in the achievement of educational objectives. It provides resources and services to support the research and study of the Faculty and to meet the needs of students for the free and independent study which is stimulated by classroom, chapel, and other components of student life-situations. Provided also is a broad range of materials for the general educational, cultural, and recreational interests of students, faculty, and their families.

A major building project, completed in 1977, has transformed the Library's Emery B. Denny Building into an essentially new facility, enlarged by fifty percent and redesigned functionally for modern library service. Individual study-carrels and materials on open shelves are dispersed throughout the carpeted, air-conditioned building. Audiovisual facilities, microform readers and printers, typing rooms, group-study rooms, and photocopying equipment are also provided. In this setting, personal service is emphasized by a staff of eleven full-time and twenty part-time persons.

The Library's collection has grown to more than 225,000 items including books, periodical volumes, music scores, music recordings and audio-visual materials, microforms, and Baptist documents. Currently received periodicals number 1,100 titles. The microforms, containing approximately 90,000 volumes of books, periodicals, and dissertations, make this young library's collection strong in Early American and Early British materials, including important Baptist history resources. In seeking to develop a collection of unqualified excellence for the objectives to be served, a vigorous and discriminating acquisitions program is pursued.

H. EUGENE McLEOD
Librarian and
Professor of Bibliography

The resources and services of the Library are augmented greatly by the proximity of excellent university libraries and by an increase in both the scope and degree of cooperation with these libraries and others throughout the nation. As a charter member of the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET), the Library is using a shared computer facility by means of an on-line computer terminal. The Library also participates in the North Carolina Union Catalog and the North Carolina Information Network.

In addition to funds allocated to the Seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention, the Library benefits from the generosity of many individuals and organizations. Each year, a number of cash gifts are received for the purchase of books, frequently in honor of persons either living or deceased. Seventy gifts, each of one thousand dollars or more, are providing endowment income for the purchase of books for "memorial book shelves." Several gifts of private book collections have added significantly to the Library's strength. Two plaques in the entrance area of the Library identify each memorial book shelf and each gift collection. An appropriate plate is affixed to each book which is either donated or purchased from gift-funds.

Library Building

Academic Life

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary prepares men and women for Christian service in a variety of settings, primarily pastoral, educational, and missionary ministries. To meet this objective it offers five degree programs: Associate of Divinity, Master of Religious Education, Master of Divinity, Master of Theology, and Doctor of Ministry.

Descriptions of these programs of study, the procedures to be followed in seeking admission, and a summary of academic policies appear on the following pages.

Admission Procedures

Preparation

In order to derive the greatest benefit from seminary education, a student should bring from college or university a broad cultural background. The following list of subject areas is recommended as providing the desired preparation:

English language and literature.
Modern and classical languages, including French, German, Latin,
Greek and Hebrew.

History, including non-Western as well as American and European.

Philosophy, particularly its history and methods.

Natural Sciences, both the physical and the life sciences.

Social Sciences, including psychology, sociology, and anthropology.

Fine arts and music, with emphasis on creativity and symbolic communication.

Religion, both in the Judaeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions.

Whatever their background, students should bring to the seminary an understanding of the world and the ability to communicate. An awareness of the world in which we live includes a knowledge of persons and ideas, an understanding of significant movements in human affairs, and an appreciation of the physical universe.

Communication is of central importance in ministry. Hence, the entering student must be able to think clearly, to read with comprehension, and to write and speak clearly and effectively.

Application

Application for admission is made through a form obtainable from the Director of Admissions. The following items must be on file in the Admissions Office:

1. Completed application form including the names and addresses of references.
2. A recent photo (2" x 2").
3. A non-refundable application fee of $10.00.
4. A medical examination form sent directly by the physician to the Director of Admissions.
5. A brief personal statement of the applicant's reasons for seeking admission.
6. An official transcript sent directly from the registrar to the Director of Admissions.
7. A completed Church Endorsement Form in which a local church or an appropriate church agency endorses the applicant as a candidate for the ministry.

Application Deadlines

It is to the advantage of students to submit applications early in the year. Applications for the M. Div., M.R.E., and A. Div. programs should be received in the Admissions Office at least 30 days prior to matriculation day of the semester in which the student expects to begin work. Under no circumstances may a student be enrolled in classes until his application has been fully processed. Applications for the Th.M. or the D. Min. programs must be submitted to the Admissions Office at least 60 days prior to matriculation for consideration by the appropriate committee and must be approved by the Faculty.

Admission

When the application materials are complete, they are reviewed by the Director of Admissions and members of a standing Admissions Committee of the faculty. A personal interview with the Admissions Committee may be required in certain instances. The Admissions Committee may admit or deny admission to students on behalf of the faculty, or it may bring a recommendation to the Faculty for its consideration.

Students may expect to receive word of admission decisions within 30 days after all their materials are on file.

Bypassing Required Courses

Academically qualified students may by-pass required courses upon examination according to seminary policies. An entering student who has made grades of "C" or above in college or university courses which closely parallel the required courses in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Greek or Hebrew, may request permission to bypass those required courses and fulfill the requirements by completion of an equivalent number of semester hours in advanced courses in the same area. Such requests must be made to the Registrar in writing no later than ten days prior to the dates indicated for matriculation in the Academic Calendar. Arrangements for examination by appropriate faculty members are made by the Registrar. Similarly, college or university courses paralleling certain elective courses in the M.Div. or M.R.E. curriculum may qualify as prerequisites to advanced courses in the same area of study. In such cases, students are advised to consult with the professors involved.

Advanced Standing

Entering students who claim unusual proficiency in studies in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Systematic Theology, Hebrew, or Greek may take examinations to determine advanced standing in these areas. Such advanced standing examinations must be requested and taken at the beginning of the student's first semester in his first year of study. Requests must be made to the Registrar in writing at least ten days prior to the dates indicated for examinations for advanced standing in the Academic Calendar.

Performance of superior quality on an advanced standing examination qualifies the student to bypass and receive credit for the corresponding required course or elementary biblical language course upon the successful completion of at least four semester hours in advanced courses in the same area.

Performance deemed satisfactory but not superior on an advanced standing examination qualifies the student to bypass the corresponding course.

Transfer of Credits

Credits earned at other schools may be applied toward degree programs at Southeastern subject to certain conditions. In order to be received, the credits should be of a graduate level for which a degree has not been granted, in a field appropriate to the student's degree program at Southeastern, and awarded by an accredited school. The receipt of such credits should be discussed with the Registrar or the Dean of the Faculty at the time of admission.

Students transferring credits to Southeastern Seminary must maintain a "C" average on courses taken at Southeastern Seminary.

Academic Regulations

The policies and procedures of the seminary concerning attendance, changes in registration, discipline, evaluation, academic load, graduation, honors, and withdrawal are summarized in this section.

Attendance

Class attendance is considered an important part of the learning process. Regular class attendance is expected and students are responsible for the mastery of materials required for credit.

Inclement Weather

When the public schools of Wake County are closed because of adverse weather conditions, Seminary classes will not meet.

Changes in Registration

After registration any changes in a student's enrollment must be arranged through the Registrar's Office. No changes are permitted in enrollment after stated deadlines except by permission of the Dean of the Faculty.

Students who are considering withdrawal from a course are encouraged to consult their faculty advisors.

Discipline

Students admitted to the school are expected to order their lives by Christian standards of character and conduct and to respect regulations adopted by the trustees, the administration, and the faculty.

The Judicial Process for Student Discipline, as printed in The Student Handbook and Orientation Guide, is established and published to provide for fairness in dealing with issues which may arise and also in order that the student might have the basis for fair treatment in the event a disciplinary procedure is initiated.

Academic Load

The normal academic load for full-time students is fourteen semester hours. Maintenance of this load enables the M. Div. degree to be earned in six semesters and the Associate of Divinity degree to be earned in four semesters. The Master of Religious Education degree requirements (60 semester hours) call for an average load of fifteen semester hours.

Students are expected to give priority to the program of studies in which they have enrolled. Extra-curricular responsibilities require a corresponding reduction in the student's academic load.

The Faculty recommends that a student employed in church work for as many as two week-ends per month on a regular basis, or who works for as many as twenty hours per week, should not register for more than twelve semester hours.

The maximum academic load is sixteen semester hours.

In order to be eligible for residence in seminary housing, students must enroll for a minimum of eight semester hours.

Academic Probation

Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average (one grade point per semester hour) will be placed on Academic Restriction. Students on Academic Restriction will be limited to no more than ten semester hours in the succeeding semester. If the student on Academic Restriction fails to achieve a "C" average during the semester, the student will be placed on Academic Probation. A student on Academic Probation must earn at least a "C" average during that semester or that student will be suspended from the seminary. Students who have been suspended for academic reasons will not be considered for readmission until at least one full semester has passed and the student gives adequate evidence of having made changes in his or her situation so as to justify readmission. Students readmitted after academic suspension will automatically be on Academic Probation during the first semester.

Evaluation

The critical assessment of mastery in a given subject is an important ingredient in learning. The following table represents the meaning of grading symbols as they are employed at Southeastern.

Grading Symbols

- C — The C grade is the instructor's certification that the student has demonstrated the required mastery of the material.
- B — The grade of B signifies that the student has demonstrated a significantly more effective command of the material than is generally required in that course.

A — The A grade is interpreted to mean that the instructor recognizes exceptional capacities and exceptional performance.

D — A student is graded D when his grasp of the course is minimal, but when the instructor believes the student would not profit materially by repeating the course.

F — The F grade indicates failure to master the essentials and the necessity for repeating the course before credit may be allowed.

I — Incomplete. In extraordinary circumstances which prevent a student from completing the requirements of a course on time, the instructor will assign the letter "I". The student must complete the work of that course as quickly as possible and in no case later than the end of the eighth week following the end of the course. If the grades on incomplete work have not been submitted to the Registrar by ten weeks after the end of the course, the Registrar is instructed by the faculty to record the grade of "F" and to notify the teacher.

E — Conditioned. The professor may give this grade in continuing courses to a student who has not met the minimum requirements but shows promise of sufficient improvement in the second semester to be given a permanent grade of D. A grade not less than C must be earned the following semester; otherwise the grade of E becomes F.

W — In cases of authorized withdrawal after the deadline, if the instructor has no data for evaluation, the grade of "W" will be submitted. Otherwise, the faculty member will be requested to submit a grade of "WP" (withdrew passing) or "WF" (withdrew failing) depending on the student's status at the time of withdrawal.

Quality Points

Quality points are awarded on the following basis: One point is awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade "C". Two points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade of "B". Three points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade of "A". No points are given for the grades "D" and "F".

Progress Reports

Records of progress are maintained by this institution on all students. Progress reports are furnished students, veterans and non-veteran alike, at the end of each scheduled school term.

Other Study Opportunities

While enrolled at Southeastern in the M.R.E. or M.Div. programs, students may elect a maximum of 12 semester hours in categories such as social work, drama, journalism, or music in an accredited university or college upon the recommendation of their faculty advisor and subject to the approval of the Dean of the Faculty prior to enrollment in the courses.

Except in rare cases approved by the Dean of the Faculty, the last twenty-six semester hours of credit toward the M.R.E. and M.Div. degrees must be taken at Southeastern Seminary.

Withdrawal from Courses

Withdrawal from a course is a formal procedure initiated in the Registrar's Office.

Permission to withdraw from a course after the deadline stated in the Academic Calendar may be granted only by the Dean of the Faculty and only under extraordinary circumstances.

Withdrawal from Enrollment

In order to withdraw from enrollment students consult the Registrar's Office, confer with the Dean of the Faculty, surrender identification cards and return all materials on loan to the Library, and clear their accounts with the Business Office.

Students who have not completed requirements for a degree and who do not plan to enroll for the following term are required to withdraw from enrollment through the usual withdrawal procedure initiated in the Registrar's Office in order to be eligible for readmission.

Honors Program — Master of Divinity Degree

The aim of the Honors Program is to stimulate the intellectual growth of students by opportunity for creative study and reflection.

Students who have demonstrated academic excellence by maintaining a 2.0 average on at least 28 semester hours of work, with no grade below C, are eligible to elect the Honors Program, provided they meet the following stipulations:

1. Fulfill the requirement of at least 6 semester hours of Greek or Hebrew study.
2. Enroll in the second Biblical language upon entering the Honors Program and receive credit for 6 semester hours in the language during the first year in the Honors Program.

Students in honors are eligible to enroll in B 0074, H 0074, T 0074, and M 0074.

These courses, offered for four semester hours each, are available in each area of the curriculum each semester. A person in the honors program is eligible to elect one such course per semester for a total of sixteen semester hours in Independent Reading and Research.

Students in honors are required to complete the core curriculum for the M. Div. degree.

In order to remain in honors, the student must maintain a 2.0 average each semester, with no grade below "C".

Eligible students who desire to elect Honors must do so in writing at the office of the Registrar prior to the beginning of the semester in which they desire to enter Honors.

Graduation

It is the responsibility of the student to check his or her record in the Registrar's Office to determine if qualifications for graduation have been accomplished or scheduled. This check should be made no later than pre-enrollment prior to the term in which graduation is planned.

Students are expected to be present at graduation exercises in order to receive their diplomas, unless they are excused from attendance by written permission of the Dean of the Faculty.

Written requests to graduate in absentia must be submitted by the students to the Dean's Office no later than ten days prior to the date on which they are scheduled to graduate.

1983 Summer School

The first term of the 1983 summer school will be held June 14-July 8. The second term will be held July 12-August 5. Classes will meet four days each week, Tuesday through Friday. The normal course load is 4 semester hours each term. Students planning to enter Southeastern Seminary for the first time in the summer of 1983 should submit their applications by May 30 for the first term or June 27 for the second term. For further information address the Registrar, Southeastern Seminary, P.O. Box 712, Wake Forest, N.C. 27587.

1984 Summer School

The first term of the 1984 summer school will be held June 12-July 6. The second term will be held July 10-August 3.

Formation in Ministry

Students attending Southeastern Seminary will have the opportunity of performing ministry under the guidance of a trained supervisor.

Formation in Ministry is the designation of a program designed to foster the growth of students through the practical application of ministry concepts and skills. The program is currently being guided in its development by a Council on Formation in Ministry composed of six persons; two Professors of Supervised Ministry, a Director of Student/Field Ministries, an Associate Director of Student/Field Ministries, and two faculty members at large.

The Formation in Ministry program is pursued within the framework of two components; Supervised Ministries, and Student/Field Ministries. The component of Supervised Ministries provides field settings and supervisors for students taking the basic course, M 4700 Supervised Ministry, M 4720 Internship in Ministry, and M 4730 Intern Year Away. Student/Field Ministries provides administrative support for the total program and continues to assist students, churches and institutions in filling positions for ministry.

Awards for Academic Distinction

Degree Programs of Study

Associate of Divinity

Many men and women feel the call to Christian service after a career in some other field. A balanced program of study in the biblical, historical, theological, and ministry areas is offered to them at the beginning college level and leads to the Associate of Divinity degree.

The purpose of this program is to equip students who have acquired a certain maturity and experience with basic knowledge, skills, and attitudes which will enable them to serve effectively as pastors, bi-vocational ministers, or lay leaders.

The Associate of Divinity curriculum is composed of courses that are the same in name as courses in the Master of Divinity curriculum but the course requirements are on the Associate of Divinity level. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time attendance.

Entrance Requirement

Students are admitted to the Associate of Divinity program only at the beginning of the fall semester.

Admission is limited to persons who have completed high school or its equivalency as evidenced by scores on the G.E.D. test. Transfer credit may be granted where appropriate for studies completed in similarly accredited institutions.

Students must be thirty years of age. An exception to the age requirement may be granted in the case of applicants who are the spouses of students enrolled in some degree program of the seminary.

Instruction in the use of the library is required of all entering students, and a non-credit course in English usage may be required if entrance examination shows such need.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Associate of Divinity, the student must earn fifty-six semester hours of credit, including twenty-eight hours of required courses with a cumulative quality point average of "C" (1.0).

Sequence of Courses

The following plan of course offerings indicates the usual pattern of studies but is subject to change. The letter A preceding a course number designates the course as taught at the Associate degree level.

Master of Religious Education

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Religious Education, is to equip persons for service as directors of Christian education and related ministries, usually in a local church. The program is designed to be completed within two academic years, and consists of foundational studies in scripture, theology, and the Christian tradition together with basic work in the theory and practice of Christian education.

Candidates for the M.R.E. degree are required to consult their faculty advisors in planning their program of study in order to accomplish the objectives of the program within two academic years.

Entrance Requirements

Admission is limited to persons who have earned a Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. At least 75 semester hours of the content of the work at the undergraduate level must have been in liberal arts subjects. Applicants who lack a baccalaureate degree but who have completed as much as 112 semester hours of college work including 75 semester hours in liberal arts subjects may be enrolled on the condition that they will complete work for the Bachelor of Arts degree. No more than 28 semester hours of seminary work may be undertaken until the prerequisite degree has been completed.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Master of Religious Education, the student must earn sixty semester hours of credit, with a cumulative average of "C." This shall consist of 27 semester hours of required courses and a minimum of 18 semester hours of electives listed under Christian Education in the catalog. (See pp. 88-91.)

Not more than seven additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.R.E. degree.

An essential part of preparation for ministry is the practice of ministry under supervision. Through supervised ministry one learns to apply theory to practice, to develop ministerial skills, and to reflect theologically on one's own performance as a minister. In addition to required courses in Old and New Testament, Church History, and Theology, the student must complete a requirement in supervised ministry.

Master of Divinity

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Divinity, is to equip persons for leadership in Christian ministry. The program is designed to be completed within three academic years of full-time attendance, and consists of foundational studies in scripture, theology, and the Christian tradition, with considerable latitude for the pursuit of competencies required in a variety of ministries.

Most students coming to the seminary elect the Master of Divinity program as their first graduate professional degree. The flexibility of this program allows students to design a program which is tailored to one of several possible vocational goals, such as campus ministry, missionary service, hospital chaplaincy or pastoral ministry. Within this framework two specific concentrations are recognized by degree title and course requirements: namely, the M. Div. with Religious Education and the M. Div. with Church Music.

Entrance Requirements

Admission is limited to persons who have earned a Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or university. At least 75 semester hours of the content of the work at the undergraduate level must have been in liberal arts subjects. Applicants who lack a baccalaureate degree but who have completed as much as 112 semester hours of college work including 75 semester hours in liberal arts subjects may be enrolled on the condition that they will complete work for the Bachelor of Arts degree. No more than 28 semester hours of seminary work may be undertaken until the prerequisite degree has been completed.

Degree Requirements

In order to be eligible for the degree, Master of Divinity, the student must earn eighty-four semester hours of credit, consisting of twenty-seven semester hours of required courses with a cumulative quality point average of "C" on all work taken. Not more than ten additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.Div. degree.

A student enrolled for the M.Div. degree is required to earn a minimum of sixteen quality points per academic year.

An essential part of preparation for ministry is the practice of ministry under supervision. Through supervised ministry one learns to apply theory to practice, to develop ministerial skills, and to reflect theologically on one's own performance as a minister. In addition to required courses in Old and New Testament, Church History, and Theology, the student must complete a requirement in supervised ministry.

The notation, "with languages," will appear on the M.Div. diplomas of those students who have received credit at Southeastern Seminary for six semester hours each of Hebrew and Greek. Students who bypass B 1100-1101 or B 1400-1401 or both without receiving credit (see p. 40) will be required to complete six semester hours of advanced language courses for each bypass with a minimum grade of "C" in order to qualify under this provision.

Master of Divinity with Religious Education

Within the Master of Divinity program a student may concentrate studies in the field of Christian Education and receive the Master of Divinity diploma with the notation, "with Religious Education."

In addition to meeting the regular requirements for admission and graduation, candidates for this special designation must also earn at least 20 semester hours selected from courses listed under Christian Education in the catalog (see pp. 88-91). It is strongly recommended that students specializing in Christian Education plan their course of study in consultation with a professor of Christian Education.

Master of Divinity with Church Music

A concentration of study within the M.Div. program is offered in the field of Church Music. The successful completion of this course of study will earn the notation, "with Church Music," on the M.Div. diploma.

In addition to meeting the regular requirements for admission, the applicant for this field must have completed at least 40 semester hours of credit in music at the baccalaureate level.

At the time of admission, the student's proficiency in music will be evaluated by the faculty for the purpose of designing an individualized program of study.

Master of Theology

The purpose of the Master of Theology program is to provide the student with an opportunity for guided research in a special area of theological study.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of accredited colleges and universities who have also earned the M.Div. degree or its equivalent may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Master of Theology degree. For admission to this program completion of courses in elementary Greek and Hebrew of at least four semester hours each in the M.Div. curriculum, or a satisfactory score on advanced standing examinations in these languages is required. Applicants wishing to satisfy the language requirement by means of these examinations must request and complete them before enrolling in courses in the Master of Theology program. Requests must be made in writing at least ten days prior to the dates indicated for examinations for advanced standing in the Academic Calendar. On occasion the satisfaction of the language requirement can be achieved concurrently with the student's first year of course work in the Th.M. program. Upon the recommendation of the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies and with the approval of the faculty, another major language may be substituted for either Hebrew or Greek.

Applications for admission to the Th.M. program must be made to the registrar at least sixty days prior to matriculation and all application materials described under Admission Procedures in the Catalog must be included.

Decisions on admission to the program are made by the faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Graduate Studies. The committee's recommendation to the faculty will reflect a composite evaluation based on the following criteria:

1. A grade point average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale on all M.Div. level work. Transcripts from all theological schools the applicant has attended must be submitted.

2. Written recommendations from three theological professors attesting to the ability of the student to do Th.M. work in the area chosen.

3. An M.Div. level paper indicating the ability of the student to do scholarly research and writing.

4. A satisfactory score (66 percentile) on the Cooperative English Test (CET); and in regard to an applicant for whom English is a second language, a demonstrated proficiency in spoken English.

5. A satisfactory evaluation on a personal interview with the applicant if the Committee deems such to be necessary.

Students in the Th.M. program major in one of the four curriculum areas under the guidance of a professor in that area. This person is designated the student's major professor. Prior to the submission of an application for admission to the program, the student should obtain the consent of the professor with whom the student would like to work and include an indication of this agreement on the application.

Candidates for the Th.M. degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment until the program is completed. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Graduate Studies and approved by the faculty.

Degree Requirements

The degree of Master of Theology is awarded for the fulfillment of the following requirements:

1. Courses and Seminars: A candidate must complete in residence at least twenty semester hours of study chosen from advanced courses and seminars, with a minimum of forty quality points earned on these twenty hours (a B average). No additional hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points.

2. Major Area: A candidate will select a major area of study in which not less than twelve semester hours must be completed including at least eight semester hours in seminars conducted on a research basis and open only to Th.M. and D.Min. students. The student will elect not less than eight semester hours from the areas not elected as major.

3. Thesis: The candidate must prepare a thesis on a subject within the major area of study. The subject of the thesis and the plan of research must be approved by the major professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies.

4. Oral Examination: Upon the completion of the thesis, the candidate's work will be evaluated by an Examining Committee composed of the major professor and at least two additional professors within the candidate's major area or with whom the candidate has studied in the Th.M. program. In this exam, the candidate will be expected to defend the thesis and to demonstrate competence on the work done in the major area.

5. Time Deadlines: Prospective Th.M. students should apply for admission to the Th.M. program requesting to commence work at the beginning of either the fall term, the spring term, or summer school. For convenience in record keeping these dates will be calculated as September 1, January 1, and June 1. All work on the degree must be completed within two years of this admission date unless an extension is granted by the faculty.

6. Additional Information: All Th.M. students are expected to know and comply with the guidelines contained in the document "Instructions and Requirements for Th.M. Students" available in the office of the Registrar.

Mackie Hall

Doctor of Ministry

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry program is to equip the student for the practice of ministry at a high level of professional competency. The program is complementary to work done for the Master of Divinity degree, the purpose of which is basic preparation for leadership in Christian ministry.

It is expected that the level of competence achieved shall be significantly higher for the doctorate than for the Master of Divinity degree. The program provides opportunity for advanced study in interdisciplinary courses, seminars, and clinical settings. It combines academic study and experiential learning in attempt to integrate theology and practice.

Entrance Requirements

Graduates of accredited colleges or universities who have also earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent with distinction may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree.

In the judgment of the faculty, the D.Min. program is most effective when candidates bring to it a period of experience in ministry. In most instances this should follow the attainment of the first professional degree. As a general rule, candidates should have had two years of professional experience prior to beginning the D.Min. program and must be engaged in some type of Christian ministry during enrollment.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry program is determined by an evaluation of the applicant's academic ability and potential for excellence in ministry. Decisions on admission to the program are made by the Faculty upon the recommendation of its Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Academic ability is assessed on the basis of transcripts of all college, seminary, and graduate work, and on the basis of performance on the Miller Analogy Test or the Graduate Record examination (Aptitude Section) and the Cooperative English Test. Applicants are expected to have earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent "with distinction" and otherwise to demonstrate aptitude for academic work on the doctoral level.

Potential for excellence in ministry is assessed on the basis of references from at least three persons acquainted with the applicant's ministry, a critical incident from ministry indicating abilities to work with people effectively and to reflect theologically on ministry, and a personal interview with the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Application to the Doctor of Ministry program must be made at least sixty days prior to the matriculation date on which the applicant wishes to enter.

Applicants must submit either Miller Analogy Test or Graduate Record Examination scores. Persons electing to take the Graduate Record Examination are advised to apply early because additional time may be required in taking the Graduate Record Examination and in processing the scores. The Cooperative English Test is given at the Seminary at the time of the interview, when all the other application materials have been reviewed by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies.

Degree Requirements

Each candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree works with a Supervisory Committee consisting of two members of the Faculty, one of whom shall be Chairman of the Committee, and a Field Supervisor. The candidate must present to the Chairman a rationale for the plan of study, the electives, and the Project in Ministry which he or she chooses. In consultation with the two Faculty members of the Supervisory Committee, the candidate will submit the name and qualifications of a prospective Field Supervisor for approval by the Faculty. Information regarding the selection and the responsibilities of the Field Supervisor is available from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies. The candidate will be required to bear the cost of field supervision by the payment of the fee for field supervision as specified in the Schedule of Fees on page 25.

In order to continue in the program and to be awarded the degree, the candidate must maintain an academic average of at least 2.0 on a 3.0 scale. Additional hours beyond those taken to meet requirements A, B, C, and D below may not be taken to bring the academic average up to the required level. Work done in the Colloquia and in the other courses is graded according to the system of grading set forth on pages 42-43. The Project in Ministry is graded on a pass-fail basis.

Candidates for the degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment. Any exception to this rule must be recommended by the Committee on Advanced Professional Studies and approved by the Faculty.

E. Supervised Field Experience and Project in Ministry is a specific involvement in the actual practice of ministry in which the student seeks to develop his or her own personhood and skills as a minister through professional practice and theological reflection within the context of the response of the Christian church to human need.

The candidate will be responsible for specifying a ministry upon which his or her program shall be focused and for the development of a Project in Ministry in which he or she will be engaged while a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree. The project proposal and the plan for implementing it must be approved by the members of the Supervisory Committee. The candidate will consult with the Field Supervisor and the other members of the Committee and submit to them regular reports while engaged in the project. The project will culminate in a documented report, and final approval of the report will be determined by a majority of the Committee.

Three copies of the Project in Ministry Report, one of which will be returned to the student, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee at least forty-five days prior to the date on which the candidate expects to receive the degree. The two copies to be deposited with the Seminary must include the original typescript and a first carbon, a multilith copy or a Xerox copy of the original; or two multilith or Xerox copies of the original typescript.

Additional information about the Doctor of Ministry program may be obtained from the Director of Advanced Professional Studies or the Director of Admissions.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is composed of all graduates and former students of Southeastern Seminary.

It endeavors to perpetuate friendships formed in the seminary and to foster the cause of theological education in general and specifically at Southeastern. It purposes "to provide a mutually helpful relationship for the glory of God by interrelating effectively and efficiently the alumni with the Seminary and with each other through fellowship, communication, and service."

With its 29th annual commencement in 1982, Southeastern has granted 609 Associate of Divinity, 3,776 Master of Divinity, 175 Master of Religious Education, 263 Master of Theology and 215 Doctor of Ministry degrees to 4,668 persons. The number of degrees granted totals 5,038 which includes 370 persons who have received more than one degree.

For the year 1982-83 the officers of the national Alumni Association are: Calvin S. Metcalf of Knoxville, Tenn., president; William L. Self of Atlanta, Ga., president-elect; Lawrence Coleman of Clay, N.Y., secretary; and directors; C. Wray Ivey of Macon, Ga.; James D. Whetstone of Wilmington, N.C.; and Eileen A. Stone of Falls Church, Va.

The Association meets annually during the Southern Baptist Convention. The officers with the presidents of the state chapters comprise the General Board.

State Chapters of the Alumni Association are active in the following states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. These meet at least once a year, concurrent with the meetings of their respective Baptist State Conventions.

Articles of Faith

(Abstract of Principles)

Article VIII of the By-Laws of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Inc., adopted December 7, 1950, provides that "All members of the faculty shall be required to subscribe to the Articles of Faith, or Beliefs, as adopted by the Board, and publicly sign these articles at the opening of the session at which they enter upon their duties. . . ." These articles were adopted also by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, founded in 1859.

I. The Scriptures.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the only sufficient, certain and authoritative rule of all saving knowledge, faith and obedience.

II. God.

There is but one God, the Maker, Preserver and Ruler of all things, having in and of himself, all perfections, and being infinite in them all; and to Him all creatures owe the highest love, reverence and obedience.

III. The Trinity.

God is revealed to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit each with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence or being.

IV. Providence.

God from eternity decrees or permits all things that come to pass, and perpetually upholds, directs and governs all creatures and all events; yet so as not in any wise to be author or approver of sin nor to destroy the free will and responsibility of intelligent creatures.

V. Election.

Election is God's eternal choice of some persons unto everlasting life — not because of foreseen merit in them, but of His mercy in Christ — in consequence of which choice they are called, justified and glorified.

VI. The Fall of Man.

God originally created man in His own image, and free from sin; but through the temptation of Satan, he transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original holiness and righteousness; whereby his posterity inherit a nature corrupt and wholly opposed to God and His law, are under condemnation, and as soon as they are capable of moral action, become actual transgressors.

VII. The Mediator.

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the divinely appointed mediator between God and man. Having taken upon Himself human nature, yet without sin, He perfectly fulfilled the law, suffered and died upon the cross for the salvation of sinners. He was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended to His Father, at whose right hand He ever liveth to make intercession for His people. He is the only Mediator, the Prophet, Priest and King of the Church, and Sovereign of the Universe.

VIII. Regeneration.

Regeneration is a change of heart, wrought by the Holy Spirit, who quickeneth the dead in trespasses and sins, enlightening their minds spiritually and savingly to understand the Word of God, and renewing their whole nature, so that they love and practice holiness. It is a work of God's free and special grace alone.

IX. Repentance.

Repentance is an evangelical grace, wherein a person being, by the Holy Spirit, made sensible of the manifold evil of his sin, humbleth himself for it, with godly sorrow, detestation of it, and self-abhorrence, with a purpose and endeavor to walk before God so as to please Him in all things.

X. Faith.

Saving faith is the belief, on God's authority, of whatsoever is revealed in His Word concerning Christ; accepting and resting upon Him alone for justification and eternal life. It is wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit, and is accompanied by all other saving graces, and leads to a life of holiness.

XI. Justification.

Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal of sinners, who believe in Christ, from all sin, through the satisfaction that Christ has made; not for anything wrought in them or done by them; but on account of this obedience and satisfaction of Christ, they receiving and resting on Him and His righteousness by faith.

XII. Sanctification.

Those who have been regenerated are also sanctified, by God's word and Spirit dwelling in them. This sanctification is progressive through the supply of Divine strength, which all saints seek to obtain, pressing after a heavenly life in cordial obedience to all Christ's commands.

XIII. Preservation of the Saints.

Those whom God hath accepted in the Beloved, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere to the end; and though they may fall, through neglect and temptation, into sin, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the Church, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be renewed again unto repentance, and be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

XIV. The Church.

The Lord Jesus is the Head of the Church, which is composed of all His true disciples, and in Him is invested supremely all power for its government. According to His commandment, Christians are to associate themselves into particular societies or churches; and to each of these churches He hath given needful authority for administering that order, discipline and worship which He hath appointed. The regular officers of a Church are Bishops or Elders, and Deacons.

XV. Baptism.

Baptism is an ordinance of the Lord Jesus, obligatory upon every believer, wherein he is immersed in water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, as a sign of his fellowship with the death and resurrection of Christ, of remission of sins, and of his giving himself up to God, to live and walk in newness of life. It is prerequisite to church fellowship, and to participation in the Lord's Supper.

XVI. The Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Jesus Christ, to be administered with the elements of bread and wine, and to be observed by His churches till the end of the world. It is in no sense a sacrifice, but is designed to commemorate His death, to confirm the faith and other graces of Christians, and to be a bond, pledge and renewal of their communion with Him, and of their church fellowship.

XVII. The Lord's Day.

The Lord's day is a Christian institution for regular observance, and should be employed in exercise of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, resting from worldly employments and amusements, works of necessity and mercy only excepted.

XVIII. Liberty of Conscience.

God alone is Lord of the conscience; and He hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men, which are in anything contrary to His word, or not contained in it. Civil magistrates being ordained of God, subjection to all lawful things commanded by them ought to be yielded by us in the Lord, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

XIX. The Resurrection.

The bodies of men after death return to dust, but their spirits return immediately to God — the righteous to rest with Him; the wicked, to be reserved under darkness to the judgment. At the last day, the bodies of all the dead, both just and unjust will be raised.

XX. The Judgment.

God hath appointed a day, wherein He will judge the world by Jesus Christ, when everyone shall receive according to his deeds; the wicked shall go into everlasting punishment; the righteous, to everlasting life.
