Re: Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 2

Dear John:

The first meeting of the State Bar Human Rights Committee will take place on January 8, 1983. The above referenced bill(s) is assigned to you for review. A copy of the bill enclosed.

At the January 8th meeting you will be asked to make an oral report to the Committee about the bill. You should be prepared to explain what the proposed legislation will do and how it impacts on existing law. Your review of the bill should include an analysis of how the bill will affect human rights and civil liberties. It is important that you focus on this aspect of the bill since the Committee is restricted to commenting only on legislation within that purview. The Committee will also want to know whether you recommend support or opposition of the bill, and the degree to which we should become involved in lobbying the Legislature on this particular piece of legislation.

During your review of the bill you should contact the author's office to find out: 1) who the supporters and opponents of the bill are and 2) when the bill will be heard in Committee. Since the Legislature went into session in early December it is possible that many of the bills we will be discussing on January 8th are scheduled for hearing during the January. Please obtain the current status of the bill the day or two before our meeting.

Although your report to the Committee will be oral, it will be helpful if you could provide our Chair, Gary Bostwick, with a written report as well. If you cannot attend the meeting please make certain that your written report reaches Gary before the meeting. His address is 2029 Century Park East Suite 2050, Los Angeles, CA 90067.

Please feel free to call me if you have any questions about this assignment or about the January 8th meeting. My phone number is (213) 736-2230.

I look forward to seeing you on the 8th.

Sincerely,

ELLYN S. LEVINSON
