Dear Co-Laborer in Kingdom Enterprise:

Do not lose this book. Its value far exceeds the way it appears, and its value far exceeds the cost involved to bring it to you. You may well ask, "Why should I protect it and what is its value?"

First, you will use it later more than you use it now. For the rest of your life there will be press releases and information pieces that will come your way that involve people you went to school with. "Oh, yes, I think I remember that person, but I can't get the face in my mind." How many times have I said that? And I have found the book with the pictures of my fellow students immensely valuable time and again.

Second, your grandchildren will love it. It is amazing how much styles change across time. Your grandchildren will pull the book out when you least expect it. You will find them collapsed with laughter in the living room floor as they point to various ones of your fellow students and their strange expressions, clothes, and haircuts. And, of course, there will be special hilarity devoted to the picture of you. "Can you believe that Grandpa looked like this?"

Third, some day (as inconceivable as this may seem) you are going to love your professors! Of course, some of you love them now, but then again some of them may seem pretty unlovable to you at the moment. There will be a time to sit around (and you don't have to come to retirement to do it) and look at the pictures of your professors and reminisce about what happened in their classes and how each one made some contribution to your life.

For these and many other reasons this book of pictures of your colleagues in Kingdom enterprise will be of value to you for years to come, indeed possibly for your entire life. So use it now, but put it carefully away and treasure it for the years to come. Your best friends in the ministry will usually end up scattered across the world in the work of the Savior. Some of them you will see only once every five years. At least if you correspond with them by mail you will have a picture to look at to remind you of how precious this person is to you. God bless you in your days as you labor as a student here at Southeastern Seminary.

Until He Comes,

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Lord has allowed us to be at Southeastern at a very special time in this school's history. I truly believe that our great God and Savior changed Southeastern from a liberal to a conservative seminary with the intention of using it to reach the Wake Forest area and far beyond. For the student body and faculty not to follow His leading in this direction would be like building a great lighthouse and never turning on the light! I pray that all students and faculty will join together in reaching this area and this world for Christ.

Part of the vision for every student and faculty to become involved personal evangelism while here at Southeastern can be realized by setting aside a purposeful time during the week to go out and be His witnesses. The student body has organized a group of believers (students, faculty, and local church goers) who call themselves the Doulos (bondservant) of Jesus Christ. The Doulos have a strong burden to see the Wake Forest community come to know Jesus as Lord and Savior. The Doulos go out witnessing every week as a part of the Seminary experience. I have found that witnessing on a regular basis is one of the most important parts of your educational process here at Southeastern. The student body and faculty must come together through hard work and prayer if this vision is to be accomplished.

I challenge the students, faculty, staff, and all associates of Southeastern, not just to be hearers of the Word, but doers of the Word. Each of us needs to be involved in telling this lost and perishing world about the Savior and His free offer of eternal life. We will turn this city, state, country, and this world upside down for Jesus Christ if we are willing to wholeheartedly yield ourselves both individually and corporately to Him. And I believe it can all start right here!

His Doulos,

David A. Sims
