PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Co-Laborer in Kingdom Enterprise:

Do not lose this book. Its value far exceeds the way it appears, and its worth far exceeds the cost involved to bring it to you. You may well ask, "Why should I protect it and what is its value?"

First, you will use it later more than you use it now. For the rest of your life there will be press releases and information pieces that will come your way that involve people with whom you went to school. "Oh, yes, I think I remember that person, but I can't get the face in my mind." How many times have I said that? And I have found the book with the pictures of my fellow students immensely valuable time and again.

Second, your grandchildren will love it. It is amazing how much styles change across time. Your grandchildren will pull the book out when you least expect it. You will find them collapsed with laughter in the living room floor as they point to various ones of your fellow students and their strange expressions, clothes, and haircuts. And, of course, there will be special hilarity devoted to the picture of you. "Can you believe that Grandpa looked like this?"

Third, some day (as inconceivable as this may seem) you are going to love your professors! Of course, some of you love them now, but then again some of them may seem pretty unlovable to you at the moment. There will be a time to sit around (and you don't have to come to retirement to do it) and look at the pictures of your professors and reminisce about what happened in their classes and how each one made some contribution to your life.

For these and many other reasons this book of pictures of your colleagues in Kingdom enterprise will be of value to you for years to come, indeed possibly for your entire life. So use it now, but put it carefully away and treasure it for the years to come. Your best friends in the ministry will usually end up scattered across the world in the work of the Savior. Some of them you will see only once every five years. At least if you correspond with them by mail you will have a picture to look at to remind you of how precious this person is to you. God bless you in your days as you labor as a student here at Southeastern Seminary.

Until He Comes,

Paige Patterson

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Within the pages of this book, you will find all the faces of our Southeastern family. Each time you use it, you will have come to know each face much differently than you did the first time you saw it. The sea of unfamiliar faces you may see as you now flip through its pages, will gradually turn into friends you shall cherish, mentors you will have learned from, and yes, even students that you will have taught.

It is an utmost honor to serve you as President of our Student Body Government. Along with our Student Government officers, I am concerned about the aspects of practical discipline, which will formulate each of our Christian lives while we are here at Southeastern. One aspect of which our Student Government will focus is that of koinonia, or building close fellowship among believers. We all know the happiness that friendships bring, and our Student Government will work toward the fostering of life-long relationships within our Student Body.

I am strongly convinced though, that the disciplines of the seminary/college experience are more extensive than just social activities which promote unity. Here at Southeastern, our Student Government is concerned with the serious academic pursuit of each student. The time has come that we must utilize the aspects of our own personal character to build bridges from our campus, to the Wake Forest community and our world.

I am calling on each of you to join me in two specific disciplines that will prove most valuable to the Christian life. First, I ask that you commit yourselves in praying once a week for North American or International ministries in one of our two prayer rooms located in Binkley Chapel. Secondly, I urge you to involve yourselves in the Doulos, a student group here on campus, whose vision is to equip all students to adequately present the Gospel to every household within a five-mile radius of our school. The Doulos meets in the lobby of Johnson Dorm at 6:30 p.m. on Friday's, and at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday's. May God richly bless each of you as you pursue these practical disciplines, as well as your education here at Southeastern.

Awaiting His Return,

Matthew B. Queen
