

6119

SOUTHEASTERN BAPTIST
FEB 02 1979
Seminary Library

SOUTHEASTERN CAMPUS BULLETIN

OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

FEBRUARY 5-9, 1979

Vol. VI, No. 19

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5

7:30 p.m.

Special Program for Student Wives sponsored by the Fellowship Club. Dr. Charles Petty, guest speaker. Bethea Room.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6

10:00 a.m.

Chapel: Mrs. J. Winston Pearce

7:00 p.m.

Seminary Valentine Banquet, sponsored by the Fellowship Club. Cafeteria. Tickets available through 12 noon Monday, February 5.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7

10:00 a.m.

Chapel: Rev. Gerald N. Hewitt, N.C. Baptist Convention Committee on Ministry to the Aged.

10:30-1:00 p.m.

Workshop on Ministry to the Aged. Bethea Room.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8

10:00 a.m.

Chapel: Dr. George Braswell, "Iran: Impact on World Politics and the Christian World Mission." APPLEBY CHAPEL.

1:00-1:45 p.m.

Theological Students Fellowship. Mackie Conference Room.

1:00-3:00 p.m.

Workshop on Ministry to the Elderly. Bethea Room.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

10:00 a.m.

President's FORUM. Fellowship, refreshments and information in the cafeteria.

NOTICES:

GRADUATING SENIORS:

later than Friday, February 9.

All seniors who plan to graduate in May must complete a graduation application in the Business Office no

SPECIAL CHAPEL ON IRAN:

Impact on World Politics and the Christian World Mission." Dr. George Braswell will speak from his experience as a missionary and university professor in Iran. There will be an opportunity for feedback and questions.

On Thursday, February 8, 10:00 - 10:45 a.m., there will be a special service in Appleby Chapel on "Iran: Impact on World Politics and the Christian World Mission." Dr. George Braswell will speak from his experience as a missionary and university professor in Iran. There will be an opportunity for feedback and questions.

SPECIAL CAMPUS

EVENT:

of student wives will take place on Monday and Tuesday, February 5-6. The event will include:

Dr. Charles Petty, Governor's Office on Citizen Affairs, speaking to the wives on Monday, at 7:30 in the Bethea Room.

Mrs. J. Winston Pearce from Campbell College, speaking at the 10:00 a.m. chapel service on Tuesday.

Valentine Banquet for all students, staff and their spouses/dates on Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Tickets are $3.50/person and can be purchased at the Student Affairs office through 12 noon, Monday, February 5. A buffet dinner, special speakers and entertainment will be provided.

Child care will be available for the evening programs (50¢ for first child and 35¢ each additional).

VALENTINE

BANQUET TICKETS:

though tickets are limited, the deadline to purchase them has been extended to 12 noon Monday, February 5. The cost is $3.50/person and they may be purchased at the Student Affairs office or from Fellowship Club officers.

HAS YOUR

ADDRESS CHANGED?

Please come by the switchboard in Stealey Hall and make the necessary changes.

SPECIAL STUDIES

OPPORTUNITY:

7:00 p.m. (1) A Biblical study of Isaiah 1-12 will be taught by Dawne Sarchet, a senior at Southeastern majoring in Old Testament studies. (2) Bruce and Jean Powers will serve as resource persons as their group addresses the topic "Helping People Learn." Dr. Powers is Associate Professor of Christian Education at the seminary. (3) Dr. Bob Dale, Associate Professor of Pastoral Leadership and Church Ministries, will serve as leader for a group discussing, "TRANSITIONS: Stages in the Adult Life Cycle." The classrooms for these studies are located on the second floor of the education building of the Wake Forest Baptist church. A nursery is available for those attending the classes. Call the church office, 556-5141, by noon Wednesday to register your pre-school child for the nursery. Classes are provided for other age groups.

STAFF MEMBERS NEEDED

IN SOUTH DAKOTA:

sibilities in music, religious education, youth work, or some combination of the three. Any student interested in establishing a program from the ground up in this pioneer area should send a resume to Charles E. Sharp, Northern Plains Baptist Convention, P.O. Box 1278, Rapid City, South Dakota 57709.

DEADLINE:

without penalty.

STUDENT CONFERENCE

HOUSING:

Housing Committee is seeking accommodations on campus for Conference participants. If you can provide housing for a college age student, please contact Lynn Hamner-Manor extension 272 or at 556-1638.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.

A special, two-day event honoring Esther (Mrs. Ted) Adams and emphasizing the role and personal growth of student wives will take place on Monday and Tuesday, February 5-6.

A special, two-day event honoring

Esther (Mrs. Ted) Adams and emphasizing the role and personal growth

of student wives will take place on Monday and Tuesday, February 5-6.

The event will include:

Dr. Charles Petty, Governor's Office on Citizen Affairs, speaking to the wives on Monday, at 7:30 in the Bethea Room.

Mrs. J. Winston Pearce from Campbell College, speaking at the 10:00 a.m. chapel service on Tuesday.

Valentine Banquet for all students, staff and their spouses/dates on Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Tickets are $3.50/person and can be purchased at the Student Affairs office through 12 noon, Monday, February 5. A buffet dinner, special speakers and entertainment will be provided.

Child care will be available for the evening programs (50¢ for first child and 35¢ each additional).

VALENTINE

BANQUET TICKETS:

though tickets are limited, the deadline to purchase them has been extended to 12 noon Monday, February 5. The cost is $3.50/person and they may be purchased at the Student Affairs office or from Fellowship Club officers.

HAS YOUR

ADDRESS CHANGED?

Please come by the switchboard in Stealey Hall and make the necessary changes.

SPECIAL STUDIES

OPPORTUNITY:

7:00 p.m. (1) A Biblical study of Isaiah 1-12 will be taught by Dawne Sarchet, a senior at Southeastern majoring in Old Testament studies. (2) Bruce and Jean Powers will serve as resource persons as their group addresses the topic "Helping People Learn." Dr. Powers is Associate Professor of Christian Education at the seminary. (3) Dr. Bob Dale, Associate Professor of Pastoral Leadership and Church Ministries, will serve as leader for a group discussing, "TRANSITIONS: Stages in the Adult Life Cycle." The classrooms for these studies are located on the second floor of the education building of the Wake Forest Baptist church. A nursery is available for those attending the classes. Call the church office, 556-5141, by noon Wednesday to register your pre-school child for the nursery. Classes are provided for other age groups.

STAFF MEMBERS NEEDED

IN SOUTH DAKOTA:

sibilities in music, religious education, youth work, or some combination of the three. Any student interested in establishing a program from the ground up in this pioneer area should send a resume to Charles E. Sharp, Northern Plains Baptist Convention, P.O. Box 1278, Rapid City, South Dakota 57709.

DEADLINE:

without penalty.

STUDENT CONFERENCE

HOUSING:

Housing Committee is seeking accommodations on campus for Conference participants. If you can provide housing for a college age student, please contact Lynn Hamner-Manor extension 272 or at 556-1638.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.

A special, two-day event honoring

Esther (Mrs. Ted) Adams and empha-

sizing the role and personal growth

of student wives will take place on Monday and Tuesday, February 5-6.

The event will include:

Dr. Charles Petty, Governor's Office on Citizen Affairs, speaking to the wives on Monday, at 7:30 in the Bethea Room.

Mrs. J. Winston Pearce from Campbell College, speaking at the 10:00 a.m. chapel service on Tuesday.

Valentine Banquet for all students, staff and their spouses/dates on Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Tickets are $3.50/person and can be purchased at the Student Affairs office through 12 noon, Monday, February 5. A buffet dinner, special speakers and entertainment will be provided.

Child care will be available for the evening programs (50¢ for first child and 35¢ each additional).

VALENTINE

BANQUET TICKETS:

though tickets are limited, the deadline to purchase them has been extended to 12 noon Monday, February 5. The cost is $3.50/person and they may be purchased at the Student Affairs office or from Fellowship Club officers.

HAS YOUR

ADDRESS CHANGED?

Please come by the switchboard in Stealey Hall and make the necessary changes.

SPECIAL STUDIES

OPPORTUNITY:

7:00 p.m. (1) A Biblical study of Isaiah 1-12 will be taught by Dawne Sarchet, a senior at Southeastern majoring in Old Testament studies. (2) Bruce and Jean Powers will serve as resource persons as their group addresses the topic "Helping People Learn." Dr. Powers is Associate Professor of Christian Education at the seminary. (3) Dr. Bob Dale, Associate Professor of Pastoral Leadership and Church Ministries, will serve as leader for a group discussing, "TRANSITIONS: Stages in the Adult Life Cycle." The classrooms for these studies are located on the second floor of the education building of the Wake Forest Baptist church. A nursery is available for those attending the classes. Call the church office, 556-5141, by noon Wednesday to register your pre-school child for the nursery. Classes are provided for other age groups.

STAFF MEMBERS NEEDED

IN SOUTH DAKOTA:

sibilities in music, religious education, youth work, or some combination of the three. Any student interested in establishing a program from the ground up in this pioneer area should send a resume to Charles E. Sharp, Northern Plains Baptist Convention, P.O. Box 1278, Rapid City, South Dakota 57709.

DEADLINE:

without penalty.

STUDENT CONFERENCE

HOUSING:

Housing Committee is seeking accommodations on campus for Conference participants. If you can provide housing for a college age student, please contact Lynn Hamner-Manor extension 272 or at 556-1638.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.

The seminary Valentine Banquet is an annual event for all students, staff and their spouses/dates. Although tickets are limited, the deadline to purchase them has been extended to 12 noon Monday, February 5. The cost is $3.50/person and they may be purchased at the Student Affairs office or from Fellowship Club officers.

If you have recently changed your address or phone number, the switchboard operator would like to know.

Please come by the switchboard in Stealey Hall and make the necessary changes.

Three studies are being offered at

Wake Forest Baptist Church for four

Sunday evenings, February 4-28, at 7:00 p.m. (1) A Biblical study of Isaiah 1-12 will be taught by Dawne Sarchet, a senior at Southeastern majoring in Old Testament studies. (2) Bruce and Jean Powers will serve as resource persons as their group addresses the topic "Helping People Learn." Dr. Powers is Associate Professor of Christian Education at the seminary. (3) Dr. Bob Dale, Associate Professor of Pastoral Leadership and Church Ministries, will serve as leader for a group discussing,

"TRANSITIONS: Stages in the Adult Life Cycle." The classrooms for these studies are located on the second floor of the education building of the Wake Forest Baptist church. A nursery is available for those attending the classes. Call the church office, 556-5141, by noon Wednesday to register your pre-school child for the nursery. Classes are provided for other age groups.

The Northern Plains Baptist Convention in Rapid City, South Dakota is seeking staff members with responsibilities in music, religious education, youth work, or some combination of the three. Any student interested in establishing a program from the ground up in this pioneer area should send a resume to Charles E. Sharp,

Northern Plains Baptist Convention, P.O. Box 1278, Rapid City, South Dakota 57709.

Friday, February 9, 4:30 p.m. is the last day for dropping courses

The Student Conference on Mission and Ministry will be held on the Southeastern campus February 23-25. The Housing Committee is seeking accommodations on campus for Conference participants. If you can provide housing for a college age student, please contact Lynn Hamner-Manor extension 272 or at 556-1638.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.