Dear Dr. Price:

Thank you so much for sending me the first number of the Crypt of Cthulhu. It is very well done. I was particularly delighted with the style. Please be sure to send me subsequent issues.

One suggestion: shouldn't you give bibliographical data on the publications (such as mine) that you review? It is true that a reader could check Books in Print, but since laziness is a corollary of original sin the chances are that he will not!

I shall be particularly interested to read your comparative treatment of Evangelicals on occultism. I suspect that we are on very much the same wavelength when it comes to such an evaluation.

Yours appreciatively,

John Warwick Montgomery

JWM/ct

P.S. I have just begun to dive deeply into the writings of Poul Anderson. I am amazed at his literary quality. In many ways it rises to the level of Tolkien.
