No. 25

Very soon the campus will "come alive" with new and returning students (in record numbers). Preparations are practically complete.

FALL SEMESTER
BEGINS

Several new dimensions have been added to the orientation/matriculation process. A peer support system has been inaugurated by the Student Council in cooperation with Faculty and Staff. Each new student will be afforded a small group context for mutual sharing and support. The group will remain intact throughout the semester.

The annual Faculty Workshop has been completed. During the Workshop dozens of details which accumulated during the summer were handled. In addition, the Faculty previewed the challenge posed by the beginning of our 26th year.

The past two months have marked the completion of annual evaluation conferences throughout the Seminary. All cost center supervisors have conferred with appropriate members of the Administrative Council. In turn, Administrative Council members have conferred with the President. Additionally, the Administrative Council have participated in a three-day evaluation retreat. More than 75 hours have gone into evaluation and planning during the past two months.

Christmas came again to Southeastern Seminary and this time it came in August! We are the recipients of eight original oils painted by eight different well known artists and appropriately framed with custom frames for hanging in the Faculty Lounge. This collection of beautiful originals has been made possible through the assistance of a friend of the seminary.

The paintings include:

1. One 24 x 48 seascape by Ganni.
2. One 24 x 36 "Barns" by Newton J.
3. One 24 x 36 landscape by Cafieri.
