READERS NEEDED

FOR VISUALLY HANDICAPPED:

If you are interested in providing a valuable service as well as earning $2.00/hour, contact Mr. Fred Peiper at 556-1503 for more information.

FALL LECTURES
PREPARATION:

On September 30th and October 1st, Dr. Lewis S. Ford will have our Fall Lecture series. Dr. Ford has suggested that those who are interested in doing some background reading may refer to the following:

I. Books

Ford, Lewis S., "Divine Persuasion and the Triumph of Good," in Brown, James, and Reeves, eds., Process Philosophy and Christian Faith.

II. Articles.

Ford, Lewis S., "The Resurrection as the Emergency of the Body of Christ," Religion in Life, Winter, 1973.

_____, "Process Philosophy and Biblical Recital," Interpretation, April, 1972.

These books have been placed on reserve in the library by Dr. Hollon.

STUDY ROOMS
REMINDER:

Rooms A207 and A 218 in Appleby are available generally from 4:00 - 11:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday with some exceptions. Schedules are posted on the classroom doors and in the library.

PARKING NOTICES:

It has been requested that students parking on public streets should park in such a way that driveway entrances are not blocked or obstructed (especially on N. Main Street). Also, please note that weekday parking in the Wake Forest Baptist Church lot cannot be allowed due to the need to have this area accessible to the church staff and others involved with the church.

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities' box, second floor, administration building. All notices should be signed.
