NOTICES:

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS: On Wednesday and Thursday, April 5-6, Southeastern students have the opportunity to elect Student Council officers for 1978-79 school year. Ballot boxes will be set up in the Commons Room until 4:30 p.m. each day.

SACS VISIT: A Candidate Renewal Committee from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools will be on our campus April 4-7 as a part of the continuing process toward Southeastern's accreditation by this association.

"THE HIDING PLACE:" The Student Council Social Committee has arranged to have the movie, "The Hiding Place," shown on our campus. The movie, which portrays the life and witness of Corrie Ten Boom and her family during the Nazi terror of World War II, will be presented on Thursday, April 6 at 7:00 p.m. in Binkley Chapel. To defray the cost of obtaining the film, a charge of $1.00 will be made for tickets. Tickets should be purchased in advance at the Student Affairs office, Mackie Hall through April 6.

COMMONWEALTH CLUB: All students and faculty from Virginia are invited to attend the first meeting of the Commonwealth Club at 10:00 a.m., Friday, April 7 in the cafeteria. See Kevin Dyer or Dr. Glenn Miller for further details.

BYW MEETING: In a continuation of the Baptist Young Women Spring Seminars, the meeting on Monday, April 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the Bethea Room will feature a speaker from Birth Choice, Inc. Betty Boland will tell about her work involving abortions and other alternatives. A representative from the Rape Crisis Center in Raleigh will share ways in which individuals can minister through this service. Everyone is invited.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY DAY: AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY DAY is Friday, April 7, with a special presentation and filmstrip at 10:00 a.m. in the Mackie Commons Room. Numerous free brochures and American Bible Society sample materials will be available and on display all day Friday. Free coffee and doughnuts. The sound filmstrip "There is Always Time" will tell about volunteer programs of the American Bible Society, and talks will tell how you and your church can be involved in inexpensive scripture distribution ministries. Every church should have a "Good Newsstand", so come and find out how yours can have one!

ATTENTION SOUTH CAROLINA STUDENTS: Charles Rabon, Consultant for Church-Minister Relations of the S.C. Baptist Convention will be on campus Wednesday, April 5. He will be available for interviews primarily with S.C. students graduating in May and those interested in summer work. Appointments can be made in the Field Education office.

F.O.C.U.S. CHAIRPERSON: Application forms for those interested in serving as F.O.C.U.S. chairperson next year are available from Peggy Stout 210 Women's Dormitory, ext. 279, or from the Field Education office. The deadline to apply is April 14.

DORMITORY RESERVATIONS: All dormitory residents who will be returning for the summer or fall terms will need to sign up in the Business Office for a room.

CHURCH GROWTH EMPHASIS: On April 20-21 Southeastern Seminary is sponsoring a Church Growth Emphasis seminar on our campus. Coordinated by Dr. Bruce Powers, the seminar leaders will include Dr. John Hendrix, Dr. Reginald McDonough and Mr. Mancil Ezell. Topics will include: Training and Equipping Volunteers, Education in the Church, Church Growth, Individual Ministries and more. Further details will be provided in future Bulletins.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST GRADUATING SENIORS: The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention invites all graduating seniors (May, Summer School, December, 1978) to a special dinner on Thursday evening, April 13 at 6:30 p.m. in our cafeteria. This is an opportunity for all seniors who plan to work in Southern Baptist churches, institutions and agencies to discuss how you can best be served by the various programs of the Annuity Board. Protection programs are available for retirement, term insurance, benefits for spouses and children, health benefits, disability protection and special investment programs. Please go to the Field Education office to register and get a meal ticket if you can accept this invitation.

SENIOR CLASS BANQUET: Tickets for the Senior Class Banquet, to be held on Friday, May 12 at 5:15 p.m. in the cafeteria are on sale now in the Business Office. Seniors are urged to buy tickets early since seating is limited.
