NOTICES:

METHODIST INTERVIEWS:

Representatives from the N.C. Conference, United Methodist Church, will be on campus Tuesday, January 22 from 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. to interview Methodist students. Interviews will be held in the Mackie Hall Conference Room, second floor. All Methodist students are invited to be luncheon guests of the N.C. Conference on Tuesday from 12:45 - 1:45 in the cafeteria. Go through the cafeteria line as usual and meet in the designated area.

ALABAMA CLUB BANQUET:

All Alabama students and their spouses are invited to the annual Alabama Club banquet to be held Thursday, January 24 in the seminary cafeteria at 7:00 p.m. Reservations must be made by calling either Stan Prewett (556-1864), Max Buttram (828-2911) or the Formation in Ministry office. Dr. Sam Granade, Director of Church-Minister Relations, will be the host and will be available for interviews Wednesday and Thursday. Make interview appointments through FIM.

SUMMER PRACTICUM:

There are openings in the Practicum in Home Missions (H 2324) for this summer in Boston, New York, Atlanta and Charlotte. Eight hours credit is offered. Expenses and stipend are provided by the Home Mission Board. See Dr. Braswell for an application.

S.C. BANQUET:

Dr. Charles Rabon, state convention representative from S.C. will be here to host a banquet for S.C. students on Tuesday, January 22 at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Those interested in attending should contact Mark Smith by Friday, January 18.

SEMINAR FOR WOMEN:

The annual Esther Adams Seminar for Women will be held February 4 and 5. Mrs. Janice Siler, Pastoral Counselor at the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, will be speaking on, "Changing Roles for Women and Skills For Coping With Them." The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday, February 4, in the Bethea Room. On Tuesday, February 5, Mrs. Siler will be speaking in chapel and will be available during a discussion session afterwards. This special program will be climaxed with a Valentine Banquet for the seminary family at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday evening in the cafeteria. Tickets are $4.25 per person and include a buffet meal, entertainment and guest speakers Mahon and Janice Siler. Child care will be provided free and by reservation (556-3101, ext. 263). Tickets are limited and can be purchased in the Student Affairs office or at the Switchboard.

PREACHING OPPORTUNITY:

All students desiring to participate in the Cooperative Education Program in Preaching (for students desiring experience in preaching through area churches) should sign up in the Formation in Ministry office by January 28. All interested students, including past participants, must sign up. Questions should be directed to Jim Johnson (556-1735) or the FIM office.

ENQUIRY NOTES:

The Enquiry publication schedule for the spring semester is:

| Issue | Deadline |
|--------------|-----------------|
| February 5 | January 30 |
| March 4 | February 27 |
| April 1 | March 26 |

We are always eager to assist you with publicity and to provide members of the seminary community with interesting information; however, we do not always know your needs. Please contact us if we can be of help to you or if you have information which students may find useful. We may be reached at 556-1418 (home) or through the Office of Student Affairs in Mackie Hall.

WRITERS' READING GROUP:

There will be a meeting of the Writers' Reading Group on Monday, January 28 at 7 p.m. in A 101. All those interested in writing and sharing their writing with others are invited. Contact Linda Morgan (869-3330) or Henry Carrigan (556-9911).

TALENT SHOW:

On February 23 at 9:00 p.m., a student - faculty talent show will be sponsored by the Student Mission and Ministry Conference.
