

8:21

SOUTHEASTERN CAMPUS BULLETIN

OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

February 16-20, 1981

Vol. VIII, No. 21

Monday, February 16

No scheduled activities

Tuesday, February 17

10:00 a.m.

Chapel: Rev. Marion G. Fray, Fletcher Visiting Professor of Missions.

3:00-9:00 p.m.

Money Management Seminar. Bethea Room. Advance registration only.

Wednesday, February 18

10:00 a.m.

Chapel: Connie and Roy Frierson in concert.

Thursday, February 19

10:00 a.m.

Chapel: Dr. T. Furman Hewitt, Associate Professor of Christian Ethics.

10:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Red Cross Bloodmobile. Commons Room, Mackie Hall. Come give the gift of life.

10:30 a.m.

Reception for all South Carolina students and their spouses. Bethea Room.

Friday, February 20

10:00 a.m.

Virginia Club meeting. Cafeteria. Plans for the spring banquet on March 19 to be finalized.

NOTICES:

MISSION AND MINISTRY
CONFERENCE:

The 1981 Student Conference on Mission and Ministry will begin Friday evening and continue through Sunday morning. Over 300 college age youth will be participating in a varied program of worship, seminars, recreation and concerts. Seminary students are invited to participate in any or all of the events at no charge.

METHODIST INTERVIEWS:

Rev. Joseph Bethea, District Superintendent of Rockingham and Rev. Jack L. Hunter, District Superintendent of Rocky Mount District will be on campus to interview students interested in relating to the N.C. Conference of the Methodist Church, Tuesday, March 3, 1981. Sign up in FIM office.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY:

Students are reminded of the following policy concerning inclement weather: SEBTS will follow the Wake County School System regarding inclement weather conditions including delayed opening, early closing or cancellation of classes. Students should listen for reports via local radio and T.V. stations.

AGAPE-PARENT
EDUCATION COURSE:

AGAPE, (Adult Growth and Parent Education), a course for parents, will be taught at the Wake Forest Baptist Church for six consecutive Tuesday nights beginning on February 23 from 7-9:30 p.m. Child care will be available at the church. Sponsored by the Ministries to Children program of the church, AGAPE was developed by Dori and Ralph Underwood of the Presbyterian Children's Home in Barium Springs, N. C. The course is based upon three popular books:

(OVER)

Your Child's Self Esteem by Dorothy Briggs, Parent Effectiveness Training by Thomas Gordan and Human Be-ing by William Pietsch. Tuition for the course is $15.00 per couple. Enrollment is limited. For registration and other information, call the church office, 556-5141. Beth McLeod, certified AGAPE instructor, will teach the course.

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD REP:

Mr. Norman Burnes, Personnel Consultant with the FMB, will be on campus March 4-6 to talk with any student interested in missions. Sign up in FIM office.

KEESEEE CHECKS:

Keeseee checks are now ready. Students may pick these up in the Business Office.

STUDENT LED REVIVAL:

In preparation for the Spring Revival on February 24-26, there will be prayer meetings held each day, February 17-19, in the Binkley Chapel prayer rooms immediately following the chapel service. The Friday meeting will be held in the 3rd floor study room of the library, 10:30-11:30 a.m. A Day of Prayer and Fasting on Monday, February 23 has been declared by President Lolley. Everyone is encouraged to use these times in preparation for the revival services.

CAMP CHAPLAIN:

If you are interested in working at a scout camp near Greensboro as a resident chaplain during the summer, please check with the FIM office.

WEEKEND EVENTS:

A special social committee is in the process of planning several weekend events. A games night tournament is planned for next month. Anyone with board games or cards which could be used for this event are asked to contact Lawrence Bell, 12 Bostwick (556-9984).

S. C. REPRESENTATIVE:

Mr. Charles Rabon, S. C. representative will be on campus Wednesday and Thursday, February 18 and 19 to interview S. C. seniors and others if time permits. All South Carolinians and their spouses are invited to a reception in the Bethea Room on February 19 at 10:30 a.m. Sign up for interviews in FIM.

MMPI EVALUATIONS:

Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory evaluations have been received for students who entered this semester. Those who wish to review these results should make an appointment with the Counseling Office, ext. 217. All students are reminded that counseling services are available at the Health Center office or at the Life Enrichment Center in Raleigh.

SUMMER MISSION OPPORTUNITIES:

Mission opportunities in Michigan, Virginia and Georgia will be available this summer through enrollment in H2324. Mr. John Sneddler of the Home Mission Board will be on campus Tuesday, February 17 to interview those who are interested. Sign up in Formation In Ministry office.

TALENT AND ART SHOW:

If you are interested in participating in a talent show or an art show on campus, contact Kent Lowther at 556-6226 or 556-3435. No calls after 10:30 p.m. please. The date for the talent show is March 3. The art show is scheduled for April 22-24. Both are open to students and staff and will be in the Commons Room. Deadlines are February 20 for the talent show and April 10 for the art show.

GOT A TALENT?

Show it off at the annual Mission and Ministry Conference Student/Faculty Variety Show: February 21 at 9:00 p.m. The unusual will be the usual for this bill of fare. Interested faculty, staff and students should contact Don Bass (834-5683) or Doug Murray (556-1543) for more information. This is your big chance mon amour.

SPECIAL SEMINAR:

A seminar program, "Christians Face the Issues of the 97th Congress," will be held Sunday, February 22, 4-8:30 p.m. at the Fairmont United Methodist Church, 2501 Clark Avenue in Raleigh. The seminar, sponsored by the Raleigh Wesley Foundation, will deal with peace and justice issues as they relate to legislation facing the 97th congress as well as providing information on becoming involved in the legislative process. This is a joint effort of several Roman Catholic and Protestant denominations, including Southern Baptists. Cost is $1.00. Register by calling Joseph Mann at 833-1861.

Material for the Campus Bulletin must reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon on Wednesday.