NESBITT NAMED TO COUNCIL

WAKE FOREST, N.C. - Barbara M. Nesbitt of Richmond, Va., has been named to the Public Relations Advisory Council at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary here, according to an announcement by President W. Randall Lolley.

Mrs. Nesbitt has been involved in a variety of civic activities. She was appointed to the Morristown, New Jersey Conservation Commission and managed several political campaigns there. In 1971 she was co-chairman of Earth Day activities in Morristown. She was elected to the Junior Board of the William Byrd Community House in Richmond in 1976 where she was involved in programs to help underprivileged young women.

From January of 1976 to the present, Nesbitt has been the Director of Public Relations of First Baptist Church in Richmond. She was a participant in the Christian Arts Festival in Grenada, West Indies in July 1978.

As a council member, she will work with the seminary in its public relations efforts.
