After one year under the watchcare of the Association the said Committee will report to the Association its recommendation. Upon a favorable vote of two-thirds majority of the messengers present at the annual associational meeting the petitioning church may become regularly affiliated with the Association.

"Fellowship may be withdrawn by the Association at any annual meeting upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, from any church in its membership that has been found, by due investigation, to have departed from the Missionary Baptist faith and practices, or has failed to abide by the provision of this Constitution and By-laws, or has failed to either have its pastor or lay member or both in attendance in one or more of the four regular meetings of the Executive Committee, or has failed to make a contribution to the expenses of the Association in addition to the cost of Association minutes, or has failed to properly prepare and return to the Association office a copy of the associational letter, or has failed to send one or more messengers to the annual session of the Association."

Section 3. It shall be the duty of each church to furnish to the Association each year a letter, on the form provided by the Clerk, giving full information and statistics provided for on the form, and to send with the letter or by messenger a contribution toward the cost of printing the minutes and other expenses of the Association.

Section 4. It is understood that each church in this Association is independent and sovereign in its own affairs, and the Association has no authority over the churches, except of an advisory nature.

- e. The Nominating Committee shall nominate a complete slate of officers for the next year, excepting the Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer.

 2. All new work does not necessarily need to be nor should be intended to become an organized or constituted church. New work may be started and maintained on the basis of a mission to meet particular need (this provides for institutional missions such as jails, prisons, rest homes, etc.)
 3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.
 4. Any church, committee, group or individuals considering beginning new work, acting with or without church sponsorship, should approach the Missions Committee for guidance before having any service or choosing a temporary or permanent location.
 5. The Missions Committee shall institute basic, understandable operational procedures and practices for a mission that leads in establishing and strongly urges that each church establishing a mission does the same. The guidance of missions by the Missions Committee shall continue until a co-operating church or churches can be led to accept the responsibility of sponsorship.
 6. A mission organized or assisted by the Missions Committee shall accept the recognized principles and practices of a church co-operating with the Randolph Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the said Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother as to his fitness for the Baptist ministry, and, if he is found qualified, to assist in the ordination.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE IX — NEW CHURCHES

Baptist churches may be organized and established in localities within the territory of this Association when such new churches are seen to be needed. Those interested in organizing a new church may seek the Counsel of the Executive Committee and the Missions Committee of the Association.

ARTICLE X — RULES AND ORDER OF DECORUM

This Association shall be governed in its meetings by such rules and by-laws as may be adopted, amended, or set aside by a majority vote of the messengers present. Robert's Rules of Order will be the guide in all parliamentary matters.

ARTICLE XI — ADOPTION

The Constitution and By-Laws shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present and shall supersede any and all constitutions, by-laws, and amendments previously adopted.

ARTICLE XII — AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendment shall have been presented in written form on the first day of the Annual Meeting. The vote on any proposed amendment so presented may be deferred until the second day if requested by a majority vote of the messengers present.

16 Director of Mission report and message by Judson Rotan.

Director Of Missions Report

In the September issue of the 1977 Baptist Program, K. S. Brunson from Venice, Florida wrote, "We no longer need directors of associational missions as they have chosen to be called. I cannot point my finger at a thing that the director of associational missions has done through our church in a positive, constructive manner that would not have been done by the local church anyway — and there would have been more done in some areas had the association had not a director of associational missions." If this is true, it has not been expressed in Randolph Association. I have found that the Director of Missions is a very busy person. In fact, I have found there is more than can be done or more you would like to do, but time and schedule does not permit.

I report to you that this has been an exciting year learning the work of our association. I came to Randolph thinking it would take me several years to learn the work and to make the necessary adjustment. But in one year I have begun to feel as if I have been here for many years. I have been thrilled with the events and programs that we have had. During the past associational year it has been my joy to be in all of our churches except six. My desire and hope is that I will be in those before 1979. The invitations to preach continues to be numerous, and this reduces the opportunity to visit in many churches for their regular worship services. Beyond preaching in many churches, I have conducted January Bible Studies, Mission studies, Stewardship emphasis, Associational emphasis and helped in several ordination services for deacons. Along with this schedule has been the regular meetings of the Executive Committee and the Associational Council.

Our big event this past year was our Bold Mission Bible Conference in the spring when around 200 from 18 of our churches participated. For three nights, our church leaders studied the Biblical basis for missions in the world.

This fall we conducted a Church Training Leadership Conference and a Sunday School Leadership Conference. State and approved workers from across the state came to share with us in these two-night conferences. Around 40 attended the Church Training Conference and 175 attended the Sunday School Conference.

Another thing I found myself doing was sharing and lending assistance to four committees of our churches as they looked for a pastor. Also I found myself sharing with many persons who have come to the office to share a concern, a problem and who needed just a time of friendship and fellowship. It has been an exciting and thrill-year. God has blessed our efforts.

Someone asked me, "what does a Director of Missions do?" So I have tried to put together the following thoughts of what I do and am available to do. I CARE: It is a little difficult to fit this into a statistical report. I care for the welfare of the pastors and the churches. I am concerned when there is hurt. I am glad when there is victory. I pray for the churches and pastors and seek ways to better their lot. Sometimes the main thing that a church or pastor needs is for someone to care.

I AM AVAILABLE: I am available to each church to supply the pulpit, teach study courses, survey mission needs, try to find methods that will help in church growth, counsel with pulpit committees, preach revivals, lead mission Vacation Bible Schools, conduct deacons retreats and training sessions, and anything else that I am capable of doing. But I can do these things only by invitation.

I TRY TO BE INFORMED: I seek information concerning the direction that our denomination will take, new methods in church work, the present condition of the churches in the area and the condition of the pastors. (The burdens that some pastors carry are enough to kill an ordinary man. Fortunately, our pastors are not ordinary men — God-directed men). I seek to be an able student of the Bible. I try to prepare messages that will bless and challenge our churches. I try never to embarrass a pastor by doing a poor job in the pulpit. All of this requires time to study.

I WORK: I visit the churches and pastors; I help committees in the association; I help plan associational programs; I put out the monthly newsletter; I look for the untouched mission needs; I work at encouraging others; I counsel with pulpit committees; I attend most of the meetings in the association, and I do many other things in my work as the needs arise.

If this does not fit your concept of what the work of the Director of Missions should be, I would be happy to hear your suggestions.

The hope for the 1978-79 year in Randolph Association is for the involvement of all of our church members in Bold Mission Thrust. Every church should seek to be bold in its going, bold in its growing, and bold in its giving. All of the organizations of the local church should be channeled in this direction. Bold Missions is a spirit from the heart of God that we must possess in fulfilling God's plan and will for our lives and churches in this particular time in history. In our association through task forces in Evangelism, Church Organizations, Giving, and Volunteers in Missions, we hope to lead out in our Bold Missions Thrust, that in turn our churches will be challenged and motivated toward its Bold Missions Thrust.

It is my prayer that we who stand in places of leadership in the association will take the initiative in this venture that is so vitally needed in our association. The task of associational missions is to help every church live and work where it is. As your Director of Missions I stand ready to do what I can to bring this to pass.

In Christ,
Judson Rotan

17 Presentation of the Sunday School report by Rev. Tom Brown.

Sunday School Report

This associational year, 1977-78, has been a year filled with many challenges and commitments in the Sunday School Department. Our main goals have been that of Bible Teaching-Bible Learning-and Bible Improvement along with special emphasis in Sunday School Outreach.

An associational Pastor-Sunday School Director-Outreach Leader Conference was held on February 13 at the Associational Building. There was 10 churches represented. We feel that this was the beginning of a growing interest in many of our churches in the area of Sunday School.

Our VBS staff attended the State VBS clinic at Caraway on March 2-3. On April 10-11 an associational clinic was held at Asheboro. First with over a 100 workers attending from 18 of our churches. The Bold Mission Bible Conference was held at Balfour Church on April 17-19. We had a total enrollment of 176 for the three nights. Dr. Cecil Ray spoke to over 200 on Wednesday night. Again, 18 of our churches out of 43 were represented. This was an enriching experience for us. It is our prayer that God will show us opportunities to share Christ through Sunday School and Bible Study.

The month of May was an exciting month for us as we had 16 people representing a team of associational leaders who participated in the Key Leadership Training Conference at Ridgecrest. This was a time of training, challenge and motivation. Inspirational messages were delivered by our state and Convention leaders to motivate our churches to fulfill our Bold Mission goals. We believe our goals are tremendous. They are worthy and acceptable to every church and its membership. These goals are:

1. TO DOUBLE BAPTISM IN OUR CHURCHES BY 1982.
2. TO INCREASE SUNDAY SCHOOL ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE BY 25 PERCENT BY 1982.
3. TO DOUBLE OUR COOPERATIVE PROGRAM MISSION GIVING IN OUR CHURCHES BY 1982.
4. TO DOUBLE THE LOCAL CHURCH BUDGET BY 1982.
5. TO DOUBLE THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF THE ASSOCIATION BY 1982.

The week of July 15, my family and I had the privilege of attending the Convention-wide Associational Sunday School Director's Conference at Ridgecrest. I feel that this week was of great importance to me as an individual as well as that of your Associational Sunday School Director.

On July 31, we had a one-night conference for all church leadership positions. This was designed to help each person to do the best job possible in promoting Church Growth and Mission Support through Bible teaching programs. There were 31 churches represented with over 200 present.

This year we have been blessed with a new position — Outreach Director. Rev. Kenneth Warner has already given support and help by teaching at our Key Leadership Conference and by attending Ridgecrest for additional training. We feel that this position is of utmost importance in the area of Sunday School for our association.

On September 25 and 26 we held a Sunday School Leadership Conference at Balfour Church. State and approved workers came and shared with us on new methods of teaching and reaching our people through Sunday School. There were 175 present for this two-night conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Thomas Brown

18 Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr., presented the Church Training report.

Church Training Report

Church Training is that vital and unique organization that no church can afford to be without. Church Training offers something available nowhere else. It is in effect a University in Christian Living. In Church Training we explore what we believe and why. It is the training headquarters for all the organizations of the church.

Your 1977-78 Directors who have served with me this year are:

- Mr. Joe Anderson — Church Leader Training Director
- Mr. Charles Beane — Church Member Training Director
- Mr. Doyle Owen — New Member Orientation Director

We have had the privilege of sharing and working together under God's leadership as your Associational Church Training Council this year and have received much needed support from you and for this, we express our gratitude.

"M" Night was held on Monday night, November 28 at First Baptist Church in Randleman, N. C. We felt a very warm reception. God's Holy Spirit was there in all His glory that night as Mr. Wilmer Mizell shared God's message with us in a way that stirred our hearts. Mr. Delbert Garner alerted us to the importance of the part Church Training plays in making us the Disciples God would have us to be as he shared his testimony with us. We also appreciated the special music by Mr. Garner and his wife that night. Our banners were awarded as follows:

1. Highest Total Attendance — Randleman, First
 2. Highest Attendance for a Church without a Church Training program — Sandy Creek
 3. Highest percentage attendance for Enrollment — Randleman, First
 4. Newest Church Training Program — Glenola.
 5. Best Enrollment compared to size of church — Oakwood Park
- We had 126 attending and the fellowship was great.

This year for the first time, we had an Interpretation Workshop on all Church Training materials which was held on Thursday night, January 12 at the Associational Building. This workshop was led by Mr. Jim Simpson who is Assistant Church Training Director for the Baptist State Convention and also Adult Leader. The workshop was very informative and was well attended. Church Training Leaders and pastors in our association had a new insight into the vast resource materials available for Church Training.

During May of this year, Mr. Joe Anderson our Church Leader Training Director represented our Association as a Key Leader at Ridgecrest. He brought back to us vital information from this conference. He also organized and presented the Church Training Conference at our local Key Leadership — Bold Mission Conference that was held at the Asheboro, First church in July and we are indeed grateful to him for the excellent job he did.

The Associational Children's Bible Drill was held on Monday, May 29 at Oakwood Park Church. We had thirteen winners, eight from First Baptist Church, Asheboro and five from Oakhurst Baptist Church, Asheboro. One of the winners from First Baptist Church was a three year winner. These thirteen went on to represent us in the State Tournament also and were winners again.

Our Associational Youth Night was held on Monday, August 28 at Camp Caraway. This night included fun, food, fellowship and inspiration for everyone. This year a team from Gardner-Webb College was in charge of our worship service. Brad Riddle from Etowah, N. C., Beth Summers from Shelby, N. C. and our own Mark McMasters from Asheboro, N. C. made up the team. Brad and Beth provided the music and Mark presented a most stirring message on love which touched everyone present. We had 146 attending that night and it was one of the best Youth Nights we have had because many decisions were made for Christ. God's Holy Spirit certainly led in a beautiful way that night and we are so thankful to God that he was able to work through this team in such a mighty way.

Another first this year for many years was a Church Training Leadership Workshop which was held at Greystone Baptist Church on Monday and Tuesday nights, September 11 and 12. Our State leaders came and led the age group conferences. There were five age groups consisting of preschool, children, youth, adult and General Officers. We had approximately 40 attending and each group was well represented by leaders from various churches.

We would like to thank God for his blessings in Church Training this year. We truly feel there is new life and renewed interest in this area all over our Southern Baptist Convention and for this we thank God.

Thank you again for your prayers and support that have made this year possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr.

19 Presentation of the Brotherhood report was by William Applewhite.

Brotherhood Report

The 1977-78 Associational year has afforded our Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador leaders many opportunities for growth.

"January Brotherhood Emphasis" held at Camp Caraway gave us the opportunity to meet and hear Dr. Cecil Ray, our Executive Secretary, Dr. Mark Corts, President of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, Brother Ed Bullock, Brotherhood Director and Brother Joe Lennon, President of N. C. Baptist Men. It was a most eventful night for those who attended.

In April, approximately 65 of our men attended the "Meet the Candidates Rally" as well as the Joint Session of the Association. Here we were able to meet and hear seven candidates running for election to the North Carolina General Assembly. These candidates addressed themselves to the role of Christians in the political scene and also how Christians can influence politics. These candidates were likewise asked to speak to their commitments to the electorate if they were elected. Further response was made regarding the question of alcohol by each candidate. Many of our Baptist people expressed an interest in continuing this type of forum for future elections.

Brother Clinton McNeill prepared well at Ridgecrest in the Spring to lead the Key Leadership Conference for Baptist Men and P.A. Leaders held at First Baptist Church in July. This conference was well attended and a great deal of information was shared.

I encourage our church leaders to seek every opportunity to strengthen our mission program in the churches. Twenty-six of our churches are still not reporting Brotherhood programs. It is important that we seriously consider these effective ways of enriching and strengthening the lives of our men and boys in missions.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Applewhite

20 The President of the W.M.U., Mrs. Gordon Ray, presented her report.

W.M.U. Report

Teach Missions; to be, to do. The greatest challenge ever given women has been thrust upon Southern Baptist WMU. Our task, teach missions, is an awesome, yet very rewarding responsibility.

WMU is at the heart of being involved in what the Southern Baptist Foreign and Home Mission Boards are projecting. Both mission boards have some far-reaching objectives, but it will take every person being involved and doing his part.

The Foreign Mission Board is already into a plan to preach the gospel to every person in the world by the year 2000. The Home Mission Board has two goals: letting every person in our land have an opportunity to hear and accept the gospel, and to share in the witness and ministry of a New Testament fellowship of believers.

WMU's emphasis is to equip the entire church to know what is happening on US and overseas mission fields.

Through mission support — praying, giving, and committing one's life to mission service, each member can be involved personally. This is what missions is all about!

WMU and Brotherhood are special partners in leading the entire church in missions education.

The WMU and Denominational Emphasis for 1977-78: Let the Church Reach Out — Bold Mission. Watchword: "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint." 21 The Evangelism report was presented at this time by Rev. Bud Gillett.

Evangelism Report

A significant goal in Bold Missions is to encourage every church to double baptisms by 1982 or sooner. Christians need to lead unsaved persons to make genuine commitments to Christ and to guide them in their spiritual development. Pastors and church leaders can use the notebook — Bold Evangelism Through the Local Church — to plan and develop an ongoing program of evangelism. Free notebooks will be available and training sessions will be held in associational evangelism clinics across the state.

“The Evangelistic Church on Bold Mission” was the theme of the 32nd Statewide Evangelism Conference at the War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro, during February 6-7, 1978. Evangelistic speakers challenged about 2,400 pastors and lay persons to involve church members in bold evangelism.

Four summer youth evangelism teams preached in one week youth revivals and directed youth witness training in many churches across the state. One of these teams led youth revivals in nine churches in Maryland in a joint Bold Mission effort. Genuine decisions for Christ were made by many youth.

Over 900 youth and adults attended the largest Youth Ministry Week during July 3-8 at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. All persons participated in specific witness training sessions. The emphasis also included vocational guidance and recreation.

About 12,005 youth, pastors, and adult leaders attended the 8th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night — August 18 — at Greensboro Coliseum. Bill Hogue, Director, Evangelism Section, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, was the preacher; Richard and Judy Bradford, Albuquerque, New Mexico, were the soloists, and other youth shared on the program. Follow-up work is always assigned to pastors with all youth who make decisions.

Churches are encouraged to become more involved in Renewal Evangelism. The Division of Evangelism cooperates with the Brotherhood Department in this phase of the work.

Sixty-eight associations have participated in one week Lay Evangelism Schools in recent years with 15,000 youth and adults receiving lay witness training from 1,245 churches. Consistent witnessing to non-Christians is essential.

Youth Evangelism Strategy can help associations and churches train their youth in witnessing to the unsaved and in personal discipleship. Also, this program equips adults to work with youth in evangelism.

Excellent reports on revival meetings, city-wide crusades, and associational evangelism clinics have been received. There has been a good response to associational youth evangelism emphases.

The 33rd Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held at Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium, Fayetteville, on February 5-6, 1979.

In Randolph Association we had our Annual Evangelism Conference on March 20, 1978, with Texas Evangelist Jay Strack as speaker. There were over 400 in attendance to hear his timely message for our age. (Twelve pastors were present and fifteen churches were represented.)

Our new church year offers some necessary and strategic changes in the evangelism department of the Association. Rev. Vernon McDaniel will serve as the chairman, and for the first time, there will be an evangelism committee to work with the chairman to promote a more effective thrust for evangelizing our area through Randolph Baptist Churches.

Bud Gillett

22 The Executive Committee report was presented by the Associational Clerk.

Executive Committee Report

This past year has been a good year for the Randolph Baptist Association. The attendance at our meetings have been good, along with the reports from the department heads.

Your new office building has certainly been a big asset to the Association and is being used quite a bit by the various committees for all of their meeting, and this is as it should be.

The Missions Committee, having met with and have studied the Cross Road Baptist Church, recommend that the Executive Committee approve the Cross Road Baptist Church to be presented to the Annual Meeting on October 17-18, 1978 for watchcare for one year. This was approved after proper motion and second.

The Key Leaders of your association attended a Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May of this year. The conferences were on "BOLD MISSION THRUST".

State Missions Report

North Carolina Baptists took an unprecedented step in 1977 at Charlotte to enter into "Bold Missions." Now Bold Missions is here! We took a giant step forward in State Missions Offering last year in raising over 900 thousand dollars. This represented a 250% increase over the 1976 offering. We believe, for the first time, many of our sister churches across the state are joining hands in State Missions that never were involved before.

The challenge for 1978 as a goal for State Missions is $1,200,000.00. Almost a 400 thousand dollar increase over the 1977 offering. Much publicity and work has gone into "interpreting" the ministries that come under the banner of State Missions. More than 1,000 persons across our state have been involved in this effort. Churches responded beautifully and monies are still coming in toward the goal for this year.

The super-challenge for North Carolina Baptists will come in 1979 for State Missions as we move closer to Bold Missions with a goal of two million dollars and the combination of all state convention special offerings into "North Carolina Missions Offering" in September. This means that most churches will combine offerings such as homes for aging, hospital, education, Heck-Jones, state missions, and children's home into one gigantic push in September to meet the challenge of two million dollars! Multiple blessings and the kingdom of God will be nearer to reality if we meet these challenges of Bold Missions in 1978-79 than they will if we "maintain our own" in a rapidly changing world. May God help us meet the challenge of these days!

39 Kenneth Warner presented the Home Mission report.

Home Mission Report

Bold Mission Thrust — the Southern Baptist Convention's plan to reach the nation for Christ — occupied a top spot in the attention of staff, missionary personnel and directors of the Southern Baptist Home Board during 1977. In cooperation with state conventions, the Home Mission Board devoted considerable attention and effort to working with both state and associational leadership in the implementation of Bold Missions Thrust plans. The staff of the Home Mission Board also was engaged in consultations with state leaders to select key cities and key under-evangelized counties for special Bold Missions Thrust assistance. In 1977, Phase One of the concentrated effort gave attention to six metropolitan areas and some 60 counties.

As a result of action by messengers to the 1977 Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting in Kansas City, Mo., the Home Mission Board is now deeply involved in developing procedures and recruiting volunteers for the Mission Service Corps. Mission Service Corps has a goal of enlisting 5,000 volunteers to serve one or two years, either in the United States or abroad, in an effort to reach the objectives of Bold Mission Thrust. The time-line for the recruitment is 1982. In order to better fulfill the action, David Bunch was elected in December to coordinate the entire Mission Service Corp program for the Home Mission Board. By year's end, five persons were serving on the field and 1,100 places of service had been identified and catalogued.

At the year's end, the Home Mission Board staff reached 102. In the past decade, 29 positions have been added to the staff. During 1977, three new positions were added; assistant director of the language missions department, assistant director of church extension, and director of Mission Service Corp coordination. During the year, the missionary force increased to 338, growing 2,830 persons under appointment.

Again, during 1977, financial support of the work of the Home Mission Board was outstanding. Cooperative Program gifts increased 15 percent and contributions to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions gained 11.58 percent. The Home Mission Board received $9.4 million in the basic Cooperative Program allocation, plus $431,507 from the challenge section. The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering provided $10,745,968.

The Home Mission Board and the Southern Baptist Convention now work in all states in the union and have grown to more than 13 million members in 35,000 plus churches across our nation.

Home missions begin with each one of us as Christians through our commitments to share the Good News with all, and with all to whom we have the opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,
Kenneth E. Warner

40 Foreign Mission report by Mrs. Aleta Stetler.

Foreign Missions Report

The sending out and maintaining of missionaries is primary in Southern Baptist overseas missions through the channel of the Foreign Mission Board. The appointment of 279 missionaries in all categories of service during 1977 exceeded the record of all previous years. Much prayer and missionary education in the churches are reflected in this response to Christ's calling.

As of January 1, 1978, Southern Baptists were at work in 90 countries, with a missionary staff of 2,776 (including 2,365 career missionaries, 217 associates, 183 journeymen, and 11 special project workers). The new appointees included 127 career missionaries, 18 reappointments, 31 missionary associates, 94 missionary journeymen, and nine special project workers. The 1977 appointments bring the total appointed since 1845 to 6,147.

There was thrilling response to the Bold Mission Thrust, with the Mission Service Corps and volunteers in missions programs. A total of 2,413 people in addition to the missionary staff went overseas in 1977 for periods of auxiliary service ranging from two weeks to one year.

Increase in missionary personnel automatically means the assumption by the Foreign Mission Board of responsibility for support for the new missionaries. Southern Baptist, committed to the task of making Christ known to all the world during the remainder of this century, continued to provide undergirding for this vast outreach through the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

Evangelism and church development are central to the objectives of missions; making disciples, maturing disciples in the fellowship of local churches, and developing churches into a cooperative effort for a continued outreach. Churches overseas are stimulated by the Foreign Mission Board and its missionaries, but rather than being extensions of our churches, they stand in fraternal relationship with the Southern Baptist Convention. Accomplishments are largely those of national churches, leaders, and conventions, with the assistance of missionary co-workers and resources from Southern Baptists.

Cooperative Program Report

Let us consider the goals of Bold Missions in stewardship programming:

- (1) Every church double its budget by 1982.
- (2) Doubling of Cooperative Program giving by 1982, and doubling twice again by the year 2000.

- (3) Every church in North Carolina making an annual cooperative program increase.
- (4) Doubling gifts to asociational missions.

These goals can be met provided the leaders and the people of the churches offer "themselves willingly". (Judges 5:2,9)

45 The report on Homes for the Aging was presented by Rev. Kenneth Tucker.

Baptist Homes For The Aging Report

“This is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith
God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh:
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:” (Acts 2:16-17)

God is still pouring out of His Spirit, men still dream dreams, and prophesy of things to come. Such is the case with Southern Baptist in these early days of Bold Missions. We shall see many great things become a reality that were only dreams yesterday. Hard work, sacrificial giving, and dedicated people will make it so.

The Baptist Homes for the Aging, as we know them now, began with such a vision and dream twenty-seven years ago. From one Home and one resident, God has brought us to six Homes for the Aging, a skilled Nursing Facility, and an apartment complex, all with a capacity for 300 people — soon to be 350. Hard work, sacrificial giving, and dedicated people have made it a reality.

The new Western North Carolina Baptist Home, in Asheville, is now under construction and will accommodate 50 residents. The completion date for this Home is January or February of 1979. Progress is being made also at the Hayes Home in Winston-Salem. There have been 4 new duplex apartments added, expanding the total apartment complex to house 120 people.

As dreams become realities, other dreams take their place. Plans are being made to build an addition to the Hayes Home. This will provide 32 additional skilled nursing beds, 19 residential rooms, and a recreation and dining room for nursing care patients. Plans are also being made for repairs and renovation for the present building.

The more than 3400 Baptist churches in North Carolina have much to be thankful for, and much to be proud of as they consider the Baptist Homes. They have received support through two vial sources through the years.

(1) The Cooperative Program which supplies 8% of the total budget.

(2) The Special Offerings which supplies 16% of the total budget.

The gifts are used to supplement the care of the majority of the residents and are a life-line to residents who could not possibly pay the cost of care.

In February of 1978, the last Special Offering for the Baptist Homes was received. There is a great concern that the churches and the people continue their loyal support for the Homes.

In September of 1979, the just combined State Missions Offering, with a goal of $2,000,000.00, will be received. The Baptist Homes will share with the other Baptist institutions, and with the specific causes of State Missions in that $2,000,000.00. The Homes for the Aging will receive $300,000.00 if the goal is reached. They normally receive this amount through the Special Offering however, they will receive less this year if the goal is not reached.

Another great concern is the fact that the Baptist Home in Asheville is to open prior to the September 1979 State Missions Offering and with no additional increase from the Cooperative Program. It is estimated that an additional $100,000 will be needed to operate this home. They will most likely have to borrow money to operate during this period. Through the Cooperative Program, loyal dedicated people, and bold sacrificial giving, I believe these needs can and will be met.

The needs of the Baptist Homes for the Aging are greater now than ever. The growing edge of our national and state population is in the area of the aging, those 65 years of age and above. We must continue to care for them, undertake more for them in our churches, in our communities, and in our Baptist Homes. We must continue to dream dreams and, as unto the Lord, support the visions of our leaders. We must continue to give sacrificially. We must continue to labor to make those dreams realities by the Grace of God, through the leadership of His Spirit, and in the name of His dear Son.

Respectfully submitted,
Kenneth E. Tucker

46 Hansel Neathery presented the report on the Baptist Hospital.

Baptist Hospital Report

Our North Carolina Baptist Hospital continues to find ways of enlarging and improving its care of patients.

During the past year, the Department of Family Medicine moved into new quarters. It is anticipated that with the larger area, the Family Practice Center will provide primary health care for more than 5,000 families by 1980. Also, the teaching for resident physicians in Family Medicine will increase to 36 positions by 1980. Many of these physicians are expected to enter family practice in N. C.

Other improvements in patient care include the installation of a wholebody scanner and the opening of new and larger facilities for the Intensive Care and Intermediate Nurseries. The body scanner is particularly useful in locating and defining problems such as tumors in the chest, abdomen and pelvic areas; in determining the spread of disease from one organ to another; and visualizing aneurysms in the abdomen. The new nurseries have already played a significant role in reducing the infant death rate and improving the chances of premature babies growing up without lasting effects from earlier medical problems.

Creation of a new Department of Patient Relations and the employment of full-time director has also helped to improve the quality of patient care. The primary function of this department is to respond to specific concerns patients have regarding their hospital care and to act in behalf of patients and their families in resolving problems and meeting needs.

A close circuit television system will soon be carrying services from the hospital chapel, other devotional programs and educational programs to patient rooms. This system will also be used in staff education programs. The equipment was purchased with funds from the estate of Miss Olivia Hall who worked for the Baptist Hospital for nearly a half-century.

The Department of Pastoral Care continues to make a significant contribution to patient care as well as in clinical pastoral education, counseling and enrichment activities. During recent months the department has begun another satellite center; this fourth satellite is in Charlotte and is operated in cooperation with the Mecklenburg Baptist Association. In April of this year, the Counseling Center received accreditation by the American Association of Pastoral Counselors.

In recent months, the Medical Center Challenge Program completed a successful fund campaign, over-subscribing its $18-million goal. The final project in this program will be the replacement of the original hospital building, open in 1923, with a new Focus Building which is scheduled for completion in 1980.

In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1977, Baptist Hospital had an operating budget of $51,333,000. Of this amount, $8,635,000 was for free services, bad debts, adjustments, etc. During this same period, the hospital received $315,015 through the Cooperative Program — used for the Pastoral Care Department — $405,719 through the Mother's Day Offering — used to assist financially needy patients. In the months ahead may our Baptist Constituency continue faithfully to give adequate financial support to this great institution in its three-fold ministry of healing, teaching and preaching.

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina Report

The programs, services and facilities of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina are being utilized well for the care of children and in providing assistance to families that need our help. North Carolina Baptists and other friends continue to support this ministry through personal involvement, prayer and financial support.

It is the purpose of the Homes to provide quality care and to be worthy of the faith and confidence of our many friends and supporters. campuses at Mills Home, Thomasville; Kennedy Home, Kinston, Odum Home, Pembroke and Broyhill Home, Waynesville, continue to serve as centers of service and operation in their areas of the state.

Requests are coming to the Homes from various sections of the state for additional community-based services (such as, emergency care and group homes). This is a wholesome trend in child care. Children can best be served and families strengthened when care can be provided reasonably close to a child's home. Our homes have been moving in that direction for several years. We will respond to additional requests for programs and services as financial resources permit.

North Carolina Baptists have reason to be pleased with work that is currently in progress throughout North Carolina. In the piedmont area, Mills Home, foster home, services, emergency care at Burlington, and Charlotte, the high adventure program at Wall Home, the Child Development Center on the Mills Home campus, programs of crisis intervention, counseling, and family education fill a particular need in this area of the State.

We are in constant need of well qualified staffs. This is particularly true of cottage parents and foster home parents. Join us in prayer that God will impress upon sufficient numbers of prospective workers that child care is a Christian vocation and that it affords wonderful opportunities for service.

We are deeply grateful for support of the Children's Homes which comes from our churches through the Cooperative Program, special gifts and the traditional Thanksgiving offering.

The forthcoming Thanksgiving offering is extremely important. This will be the last time that our people will have the challenge of making an over and above offering to the Children's Homes at Thanksgiving time. As a part of the Bold Missions thrust, the Thanksgiving offering for the Children's Homes in 1979 will become a part of the North Carolina Baptist State Missions offering to be received each September thereafter.

To bridge the transitional gap next year, our trustees have set a goal of $1,000,000 (one million dollars) through the 1978 Thanksgiving offering. We are dependent upon our friends for financial support sufficient to carry on this ministry.

May each of us in Randolph Association do his best financially and pray for our Children's Homes.

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. Nelson

50 Brother Carl King gave a report on the Annuity Board.

Annuity Report Year of Contrasts

The year 1977 was one of contrasts for the Annuity Board.

While the Board grew markedly in new retirement and insurance accounts, investment earnings suffered due to poor stock market performance.

The year also represented a period of strong demands which resulted from servicing needs of new accounts, a complex asset allocation process, implementation of a new church retirement program and accounting responsibilities of new investment funds. Key statistics in 1977 included:

1. A permanent 8.33 per cent increase in most annuitants' checks. The increase was retroactive to January 1.
2. A total of $19,085,316 paid in retirement and protection benefits. Insurance benefits through church, agency and seminarian programs exceeded $12 million.
3. The enrollment of 545 new churches in the basic retirement plan. New pastors and church employees in Plan A numbered 2,169 and 3,000 members upgraded their program.

Plan A members increased from 27,598 in 1976 to 29,142 in 1977. Enrollment in Plan B rose from 25,412 to 33,062, but Plan C's membership dipped from 5,987 the previous year to 4,885 for the year ended.

In 1977, premium income totaled $45,603,942 — including relief. Total assets climbed to $498,977,661, compared with $473,142,631 a year earlier.

We hope the churches in the Randolph Association will enter their pastors in the annuity program.

Appreciation Committee

We extend to the Randolph Baptist Association and its officers our sincere gratitude for their work in the past twelve months. So often we take for granted the untiring efforts of our leaders as they work in their various capacities without thought of gain or reward. We extend to them and to our Director of Missions our pledge of continued support.

We thank Beulah Baptist Church and Oakhurst Baptist Church for the use of their facilities and for their gracious hospitality. To each one who has had a part on the program we give a special word of thanks for the inspiration and information.

Then, we give special thanks to our Lord for His care and guidance through the past year and for His guidance in the year to come.

We're thankful to Him for the privilege of being able to assemble together in Christian fellowship and brotherly love. We look forward to another year of service together.

Christian Literature Report

Think about it for a minute. What if there were no BIBLICAL RECORDER? What means of communication would keep our Baptist people together in the state? What if we had to depend entirely on the secular news media?

These are questions that should not be taken lightly. Thanks to the wisdom and foresight of Baptist leaders back in 1833, the BIBLICAL RECORDER has been on the scene for 145 years serving North Carolina Baptists.

One of the most important jobs of the BIBLICAL RECORDER is to keep members of Baptist churches informed about what's going on in our denomination, not only here in North Carolina but around the world. When people know, they respond more quickly and in a more cooperative and generous manner.

In that connection, there's one more question: Does the RECORDER pay? Recently the RECORDER published a list of 50 churches which had the best per-capita giving to the Cooperative Program. Forty nine of the 50 had a good RECORDER club many of them sending the RECORDER to every resident family. The BIBLICAL RECORDER has a part in helping these congregations see the importance of supporting Baptist causes.

More than 1,100 churches provide their families with the RECORDER through the church budget at a cost of only six cents a week. Everyone benefits when the RECORDER goes into every home.

The price of the RECORDER remains reasonable, despite tremendous increases in postage, paper and printing. If your church plans to put the RECORDER in the budget, it should do so this year and thus save money because a price increase is likely.

With the dripping wet news media in North Carolina, our Baptist people must depend on the RECORDER for information about such matters as liquor by the drink. This is only one reason for every church to have a good RECORDER club or put it in the budget.

Woodrow W. Hill, assistant editor and field representative for the past seven years, reached retirement age this past year but has agreed to continue to help the RECORDER in associations and churches. He is loved by people all over the state and we are glad that he will continue to be identified with the RECORDER when needed for special assignments.

54 Bob Pratt of Randleman First presented the report on Christian Education.

Christian Education Report

Believing that a strong Christian influence should be felt in every area of our society, Baptists have covenanted to religiously educate their children. To do this it is imperative that we begin in our homes to read and interpret the Word of God to our children and to show them its practical application to the problems in our lives. Although churches and schools touch the lives of our children at earlier ages than ever before, Christian parents must continue to hold up the teachings and ideals of Christ as they teach moral values to them. Of course, the home can not do it all, and it is necessary to have an adequate system of Christian schools to provide a complete spiritual program for our youth.

The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina supports and operates through elected trustees, six colleges and one university: Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wingate, and Wake Forest University. These colleges and North Carolina Baptists have worked together for a total of 729 years, trying to provide a sound education in a Christian atmosphere to those who enter. Not all of the colleges were begun by the Convention per se, but all were begun by Baptists with strong convictions about the need for Christian higher education. Currently, faculty and staff number, 1,441. During the 1977-78 academic year, the total enrollment of the colleges was 13,000. The total enrollment, including summer school and special students, was more than 19,000.

Baptist colleges serve Christ and Baptist people best when they are truest to their primary mission, Christian education. A Christian college is a college founded, maintained, and conducted by Christian people in the service of the kingdom of God. While our colleges prepare students for various vocations, they seek to build a strong sense of service within these students. To keep closer ties with the sponsoring churches, these colleges offer (1) specific ministries to them and the denomination; (2) Christian witness on the campuses by students and faculties working through such groups as Baptist Student Union, Christian Service Corps, etc.; and (3) special co-operative ministries such as the Baptist Youth Corps. Another means of strengthening the ties with the churches is afforded by summer camps, retreats, pastors' schools, and the like which are held on many campuses during the summer months.

Let us continue to encourage our students to attend Baptist colleges. Although the cost of private education continues to soar, each of our colleges is pledged to assist needy students with financial aid. Students who want aid should apply early in their senior year of high school.

Although Baptist colleges are ours in the sense that we provide total support for their operating costs. Let us remember that the students who attend are products of the homes of our communities; many are from our churches. Whereas we expect responsible actions, we must also allow for freedom to grow and mature. Let us reaffirm our position on education ("The Baptist Faith and Message," 1963, p. 16): "In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists."

Temperance and Morals Report The Christian, Christ, and Morals Two Sides of the Law

I have served as a law enforcement officer in the County of Randolph for a quarter of a century and thought I knew what morality was all about. But, Christ makes the difference. A paradox you may say; however, I am on two sides of the law. Man's law and God's law. Laws, while made and governed by man are ordained by God. He is sovereign and all power in His hand. Police officers are human beings, not perfect, yet they deserve the utmost moral support and cooperation while performing their duty. We must understand that nothing is here by chance. Police officers are placed here by God. For those who obey the law of the land have nothing to fear, but those who do not obey, punishment awaits. As a police officer, I must live up to the highest level of my calling, I must not fail. As a Christian having held various positions as a Bible teacher, Men's Fellowship president, Deacon, and Counselor, I am responsible to God to fulfill my spiritual calling to the highest level of my ability, according to God's Word, the Holy Bible.

A Pharisee (lawyer) asked Jesus a question, Master, which is the greatest commandment? Jesus said unto him, "thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." This is the first and great and the second is like it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Matt. 2:35-40. Before you can possess a high standard of morality, God's love and power must be manifested in your life. You must become a new creature. Then one will recognize high moral standards in your life because when they look your way, they will see Christ instead of you. Friend, I stand on this side of God's law and tell you, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8) what mercy and love ("that God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son, Jesus Christ, in order that we may have eternal life with him. John 3:16) Because of God's great love and sacrifice, I can stand on this side of God's law and tell you that I have a new attitude toward my fellow man, a new purpose and direction in life and a new relationship with my Lord. One might say that I have become a moralist for Christ.

Death and danger are not strangers to me as a law-enforcement officer. Police killings are on the increase, we never know which moment will be the last; it pays to be ready because death is but one breath away. Remember, on one side of the law we have the human government, we stand before a judge for wrongs committed against society, but one day ALL must stand before a mighty God who will judge us according to our sins against him. Our self-righteous and society morals won't count.

True morals come from God, so unless you know him, your morals will probably change with time. . . .

Neal J. Cockerham

Christian Life Commission Report

During the past year there have been a number of encouraging developments on the moral scene: large numbers of Christians have become more highly sensitized to the increasing level of immorality which is beamed into their homes by television; new initiatives have been made to deal with world hunger; renewed attention has been given to human rights; the importance of doing the gospel in daily life has been more widely accepted in the churches; and the place of Christian morality as the natural outgrowth of Christian conversion has come to be more generally subscribed to among the people of God. There have been enough discouraging developments on the moral scene, however, to keep Christians humble: hunger and poverty persist; racial problems go unresolvable; gambling and alcohol interests keep on finding new victims; the arms race continues its malignant growth; the energy crisis keeps building; health care costs continue to rise; and both inflation and unemployment trouble multitudes of people at home and abroad.

The Christian Life Commission has responded with all its might to these moral challenges. Through conferences, literature, organizational activities, speeches, sermons, books, and the mass media, the Commission has assisted Baptists working to bring God's righteousness to a sinful world.

Renewed attention has been devoted to the problem of hunger and the terrible toll it extracts from human beings who have been denied their right to eat. The Christian Life Commission worked with several other agencies to lead Southern Baptists in the first observance of World Hunger Day on August 2. This fall a Convention-wide Convocation on Hunger is being sponsored by a group of Southern Baptist agencies chaired by the Christian Life Commission. The convocation is intended to raise consciousness about hunger and suggest effective ways through which Christians can combat world hunger.

Following last year's battle over "Soap", the struggle against immoral television programming also has continued. The Christian Life Commission's "Help for Television Viewers" packet, distributed as a Cooperative Program-funded project to nearly 50,000 church leaders last year, has received wide publicity and use. The ABC Evening News as well as Newsweek magazine, The New York Times, The Washington Post, and the Los Angeles Examiner gave attention to the packet and to the Christian Life Commission's work in the area of television morality.

The Commission has continued to help God's changed people in their task of changing the world. A number of regional conferences have been conducted in 1978 to assist pastors and laypersons in applying the gospel to daily life. A national seminar held in Nashville, Tennessee, considered current lifestyle issues in Christian perspective. Two consultations were held to aid Southern Baptists in their efforts to deal with moral problems related to alcohol and family life. A specialized conference helped church leaders come to grips with their moral responsibility in the energy crisis. Again the Christian Life Commission provided posters and literature to the many Southern Baptist churches choosing to observe Race Relations Sunday and Christian Citizenship Sunday.

The task is not complete. In this imperfect world, new moral challenges are constantly arising. Yet Christians have a sense of genuine satisfaction in knowing that during the past year God's people have been faithful as His salt and light in the world, a people truly on Bold Mission, doing the gospel of God in Christ. The Christian Life Commission, in accordance with its mandate from God and from Southern Baptists, continues in its commitment to help Southern Baptists work faithfully in the whole field of applied Christianity.

North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.

A survey in several counties representative of the cross-section of our state has provided interesting information regarding the seriousness, or lack of seriousness, to which stewardship of estates is considered. Court records and wills were carefully studied in these counties to determine the disposition of possessions for a specific time. Facts revealed were:

- 1 30% of the decedents died without a written will.
2. Very little was provided for the church or any charitable cause through the wills that were probated (Six-tenths of one percent was given to all charitable causes and only 65 one-thousandths of one percent was left to all Baptist causes.)
3. 45% of all assets were left either to husbands or wives, 37% of all assets were left to children by parents, and 27% was left to grandchildren or other persons.
4. Projected to a statewide basis for one year, two-thirds of one billion dollars is left in estates each year.
5. Based on resident Baptist population in the state, a tithe of the estates of Baptists that die each year would provide in excess of $10,000,000 additional dollars annually to the support of Christian missions and ministries carried on by our churches and denomination.

Baptists who believe in Bold Mission endeavors will:

1. prepare a will or have their will updated;
2. provide for their church pledges and commitments to be fulfilled through their will;
3. seriously consider a tithe of their estates to a Christian cause.

An excellent example to follow is that set by two members of one church in the mountain area of North Carolina. They have willed their possessions to the North Carolina Baptist Foundation as Trustee. Ten percent of each estate will go back to their church and 90% in trust will be paid annually to the Cooperative Program through their church — an amount equal to the entire church contribution to the Cooperative Program in 1977. (And this was a substantial amount). These two persons through their wills will double the church gifts to missions.

During 1977-78 fiscal year, the Foundation has received $198,139 in additions to the trust funds being held. Twenty-seven new trusts were established.

The Baptist Foundation staff is available to assist any individual who wishes to have a will prepared or updated. Anyone using Foundation services and who designates through their will a bequest to any Baptist institution or Baptist mission cause can have their will prepared at no cost. Assistance in cost can also be provided for those who desire to have their wills prepared or reviewed by a local attorney.
