Youngsville
North Carolina

Idea conceived at June 16, 1959
Installation Banquet at which time Mrs. J.M. Royster, President of District 14, NCFWC, installed 1959-
1960 officers of the Youngsville
Woman's Club using the WHEEL as her

It has been said - "A WHEEL is one of the greatest inventions making for progress of civilization. It is a simple contrivance - a circle with a hub and a number of spokes - which has pushed the ages forward at a tremendous pace in the realm of farming, manufacturing, industry and transportation on land, on the sea and in the air. In fact, almost everything depends upon wheels for propulsion."

Thus, throughout this record of the Youngsville Woman's Club for the 1959-1960 club year, the WHEEL will be a symbol of propulsion of the aims, objectives and progress of this club.

With deep appreciation and affection for her gracious and outstanding leadership and the many services which she has rendered to the club and community, we proudly dedicate this record of the progress and activities of the Youngsville Woman's Club for the 1959-1960 club year to our own Thelma Roberts Hall.

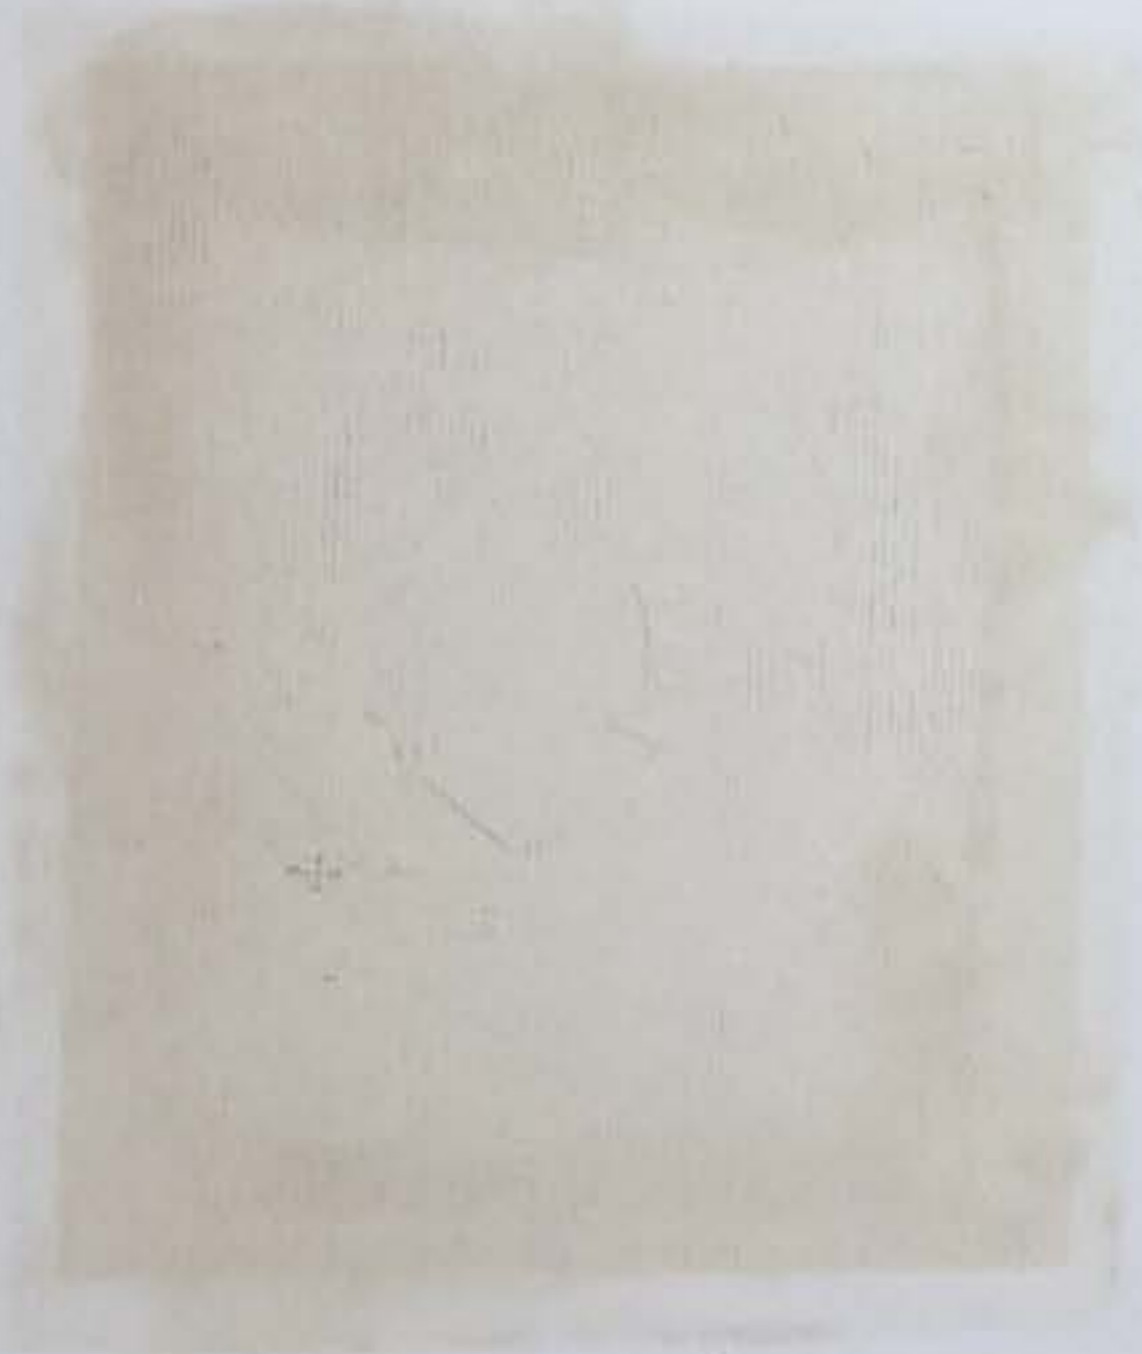

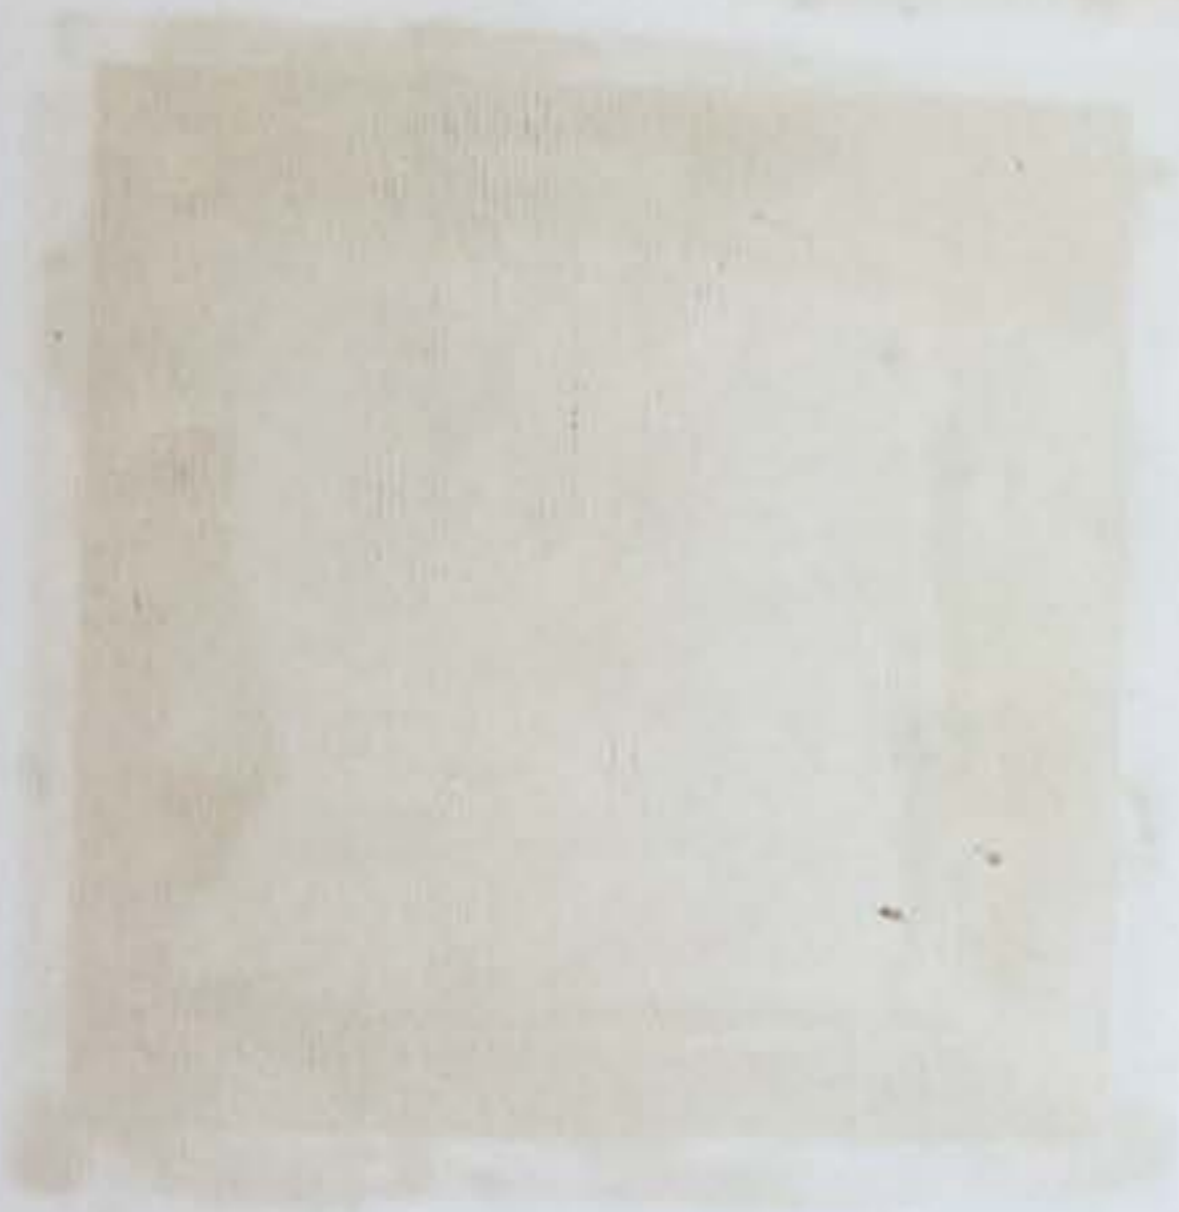

Youngsville Woman's Club

Within the unbroken and magic circle are the forces which make the wheel revolve successfully.

First, the Hub or the President; next, the Spokes or the officers; and last but not least, the Rim or the department chairmen and club members upon which the wheel must turn.

Each is dependent upon the other, for the wheel is no stronger than its weakest part.

Mrs. A. E. Hall Named Woman of Year At Youngsville Woman's Club Banquet

Youngsville—The annual Woman's Club Banquet and Installation program was held on Tuesday night at the community house with the president, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington, presiding.

Mrs. Frances Jarman, North Carolina's First Lady of Radio from WDNC in Durham, was guest speaker. In her inimitable, vivacious manner, she presented a humorous picture of "The American Family" as displayed by the advertising world. Though hilarious in description, the speech had serious overtones and concluded with suggestions for improving our family life.

Included on the evening's program were the Invocation by Rev. E. M. Carter; Welcome by President, Response by Mayor A. E. Hall, Special music by Rev. Richard Moyers, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. F. Potts; Recognition of guests by Mrs. A. E. Hall. There were approximately seventy club members, husbands and other guests in attendance. Among those from out of town were: Rev. and Mrs. Richard Moyers of Durham, Rev. and Mrs. John Link of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Wake Forest, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Royster of Oxford, and Mrs. Jarman.

Mrs. A. E. Hall received the distinctive honor of being named the outstanding Clubwoman of the Year. For her service of eminence during the past club year, she was recognized by the president and presented a silver bowl from the club.

Announcement was made in regard to the Woman's Club Finer Carolina Project of erecting of the Girl Scout Hut, which was headed by Scout Troop committee chairman, Mrs. A. E. Hall. Finer Carolina Chairman Mrs. E. M. Mitchell has been notified that with the completion of this project, the town has won the Finer Carolina Town of the Month Award. This being the third time it has been won, the community is now allowed to have permanent possession of the plaque.

Congratulations were extended to Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. for another honor just received, a State appointment. She has been named the State Chairman for the General Federation Clubwoman Magazine. She is also to serve as Treasurer of the Fourteenth District for the coming two year term.

Recognized as honor club members for perfect attendance during the year were Mrs. W. R. Evans, Mrs. J. T. Moss, Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, Mrs. W. S. Preddy, Mrs. N. A. Brown and President, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington.

In a candlelight ceremony the following officers were installed by the Fourteenth District President, Mrs. J. M. Royster: President, Mrs. A. E. Hall; First Vice President, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake; Second Vice President, Mrs. James T. Allen; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J. H. Parrish; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. J. Hart and Treasurer, Mrs. E. M. Mitchell. Incoming committee chairman were also recognized at this ceremony.

On behalf of the club, Mrs. J. T. Miss presented a tribute and a President's pin to the outgoing president, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington.

Past president, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., presented a gift to the outgoing Scrapbook Chairman, Mrs. Catherine Allen, for outstanding work.

Decorations for the banquet were in pink. All tables were covered with pink cloths. On the head table was a single row of tiered pink tapers complemented at the base by net nosegays, pink carnations, sprigs of Baby's Breath, and lacy green fern. Other tables were decorated in a similar fashion. Matching groups of candles and decorations were used on the mantle, piano and bookcase.

As a concluding entertainment, interesting door prizes and favors were given. The club wishes to thank all business people and friends who contributed these gifts.

Mrs. Millie Brown and Mrs. Clelie Brown were the Co-Chairmen for banquet arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Tharrington and other club members. Decorations were done by Mrs. B. H. Patterson.

Girls who helped serve were Alice Smith, Faye Wheeler, Judy Pearce, Beth Cheatham, Marilyn Timberlake, Kay Hall and Terry Brock.

Youngsville Club Officers Installed

The annual banquet of the Youngsville Woman's Club was held Tuesday night in the Community House of Youngsville with Mrs. Frances Jarman of Durham, as entertainer.

Attending from this city were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Royster and Mrs. Royster, 14th District president, installed Mrs. A. E. Hall as club president for the year ahead, along with those who are to serve with her. Mrs. Hall also received the Woman of the Year award.

Some 75 persons attended the dinner.

Woman's Club News

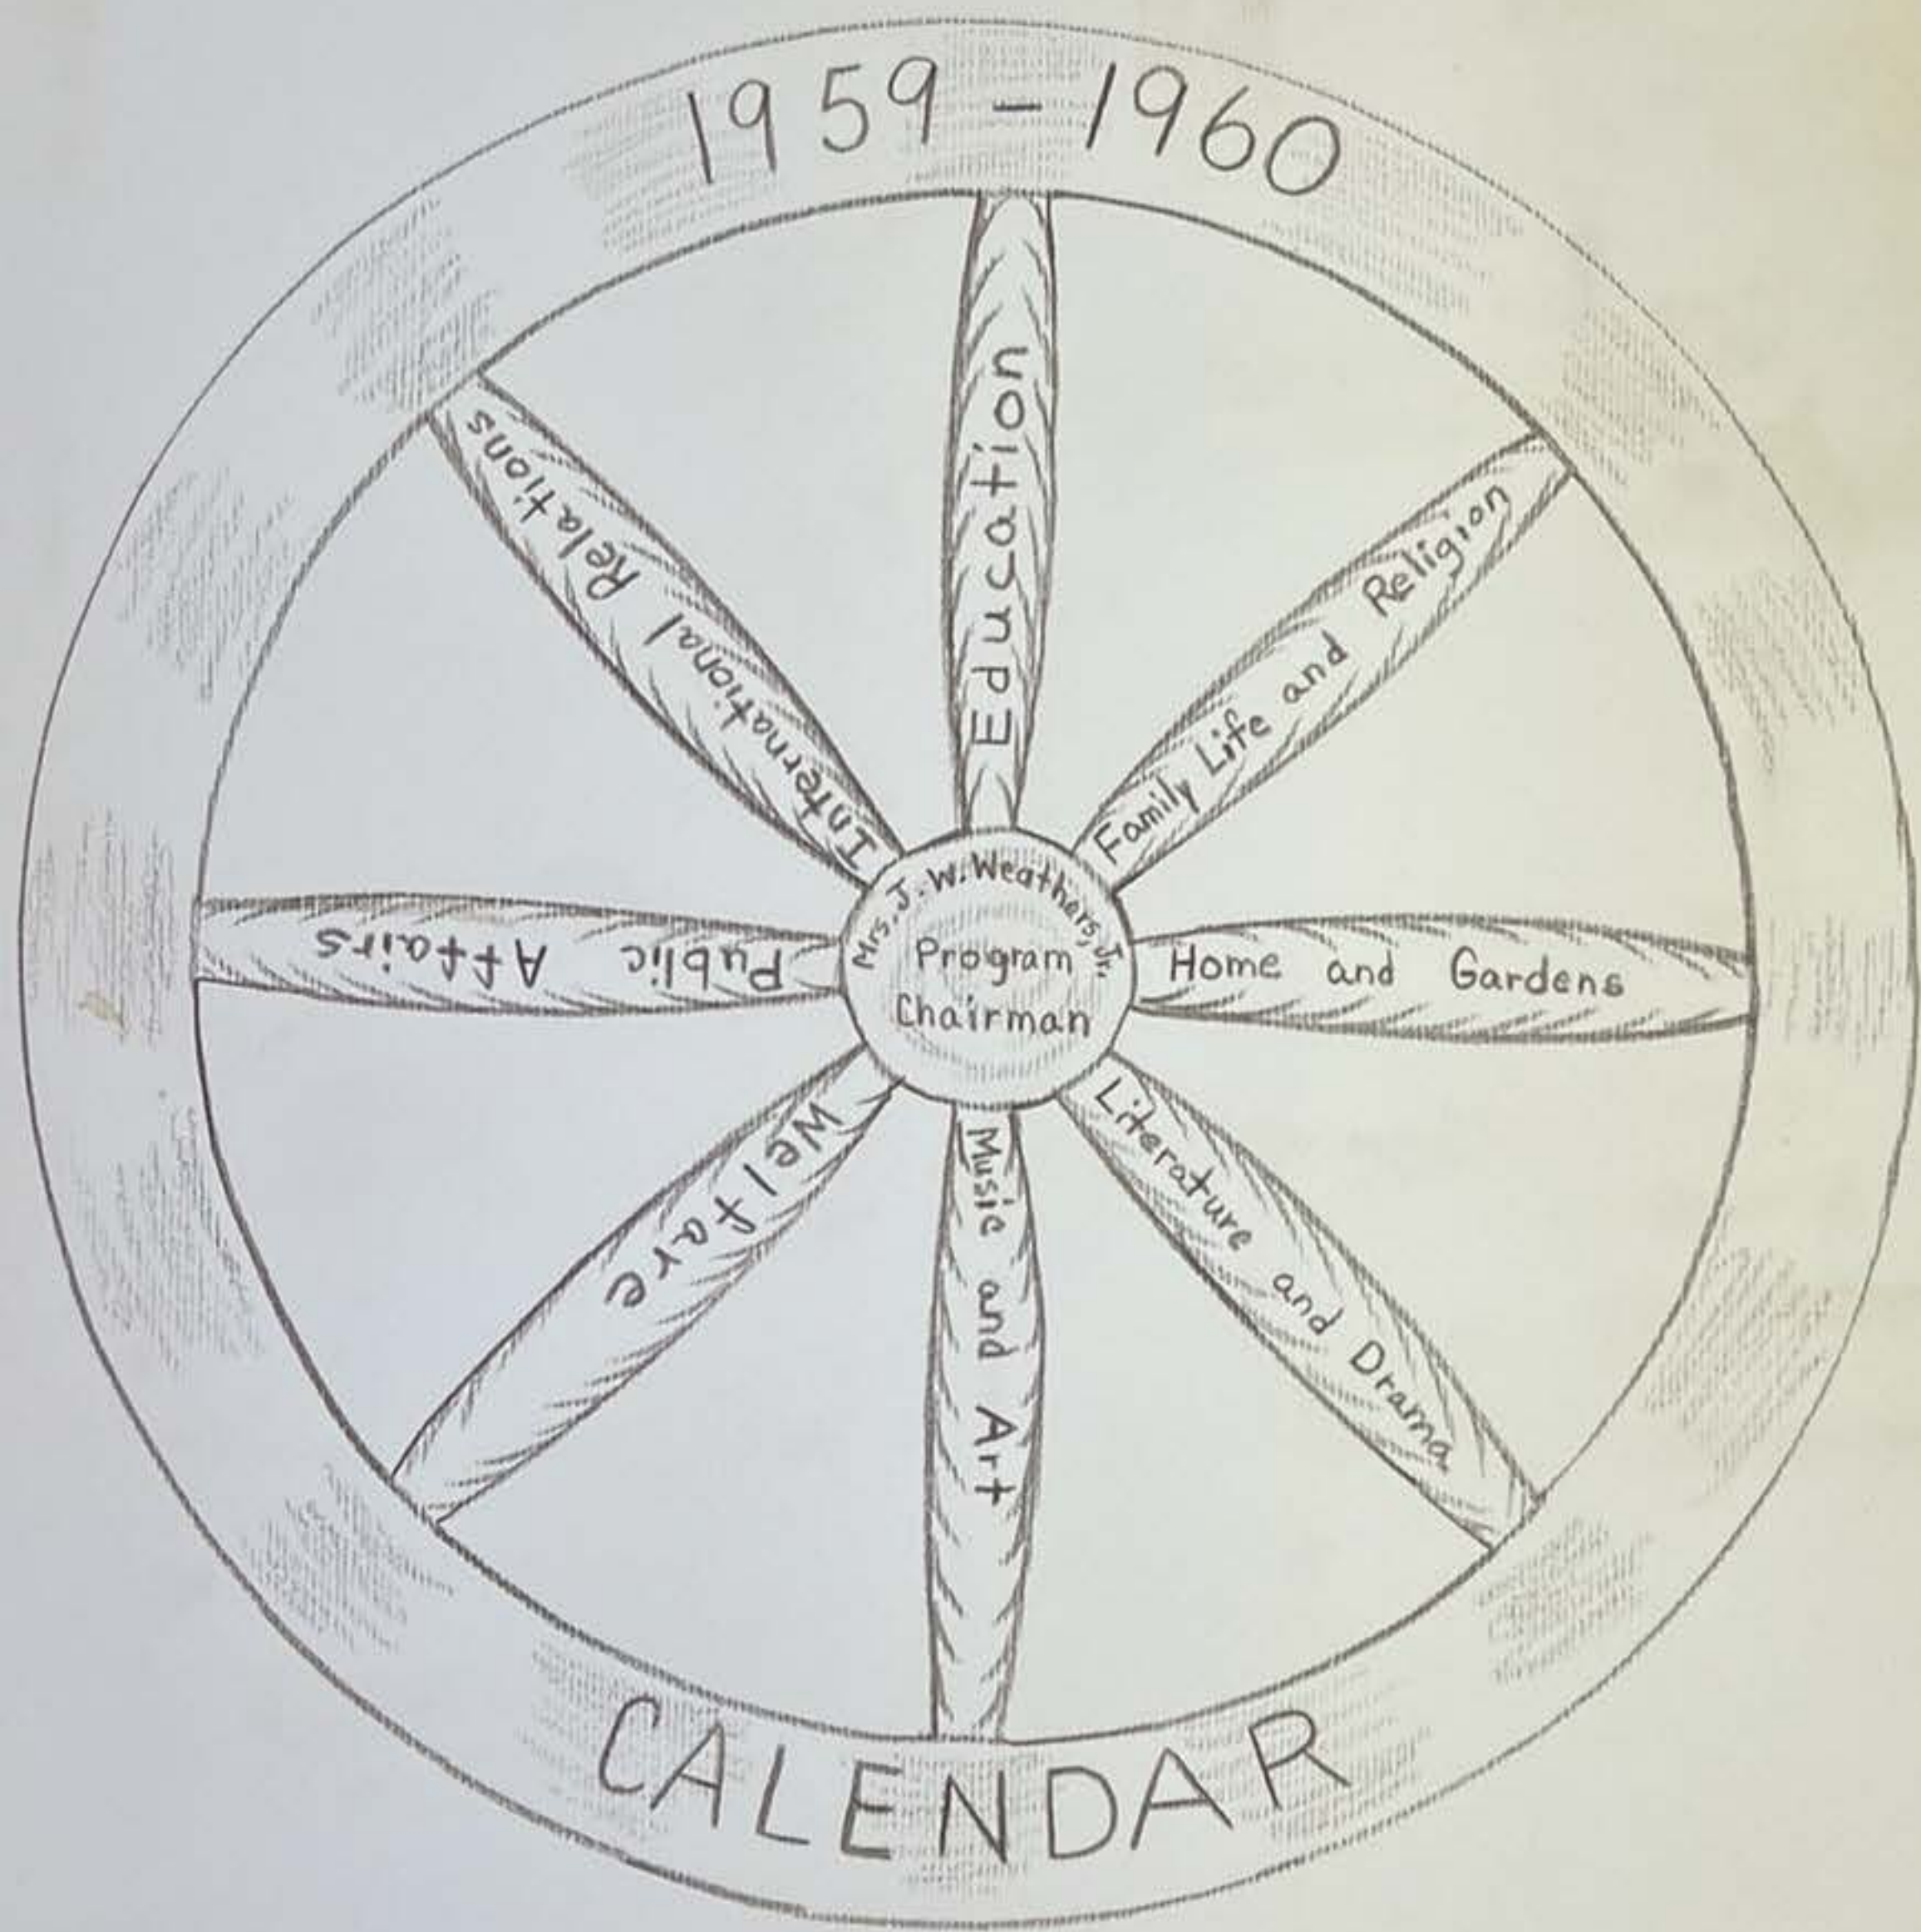

Youngsville — Local Woman's Club President Mrs. A. E. Hall reports that though monthly meetings of the club are not held in July and August, club women are nevertheless active.

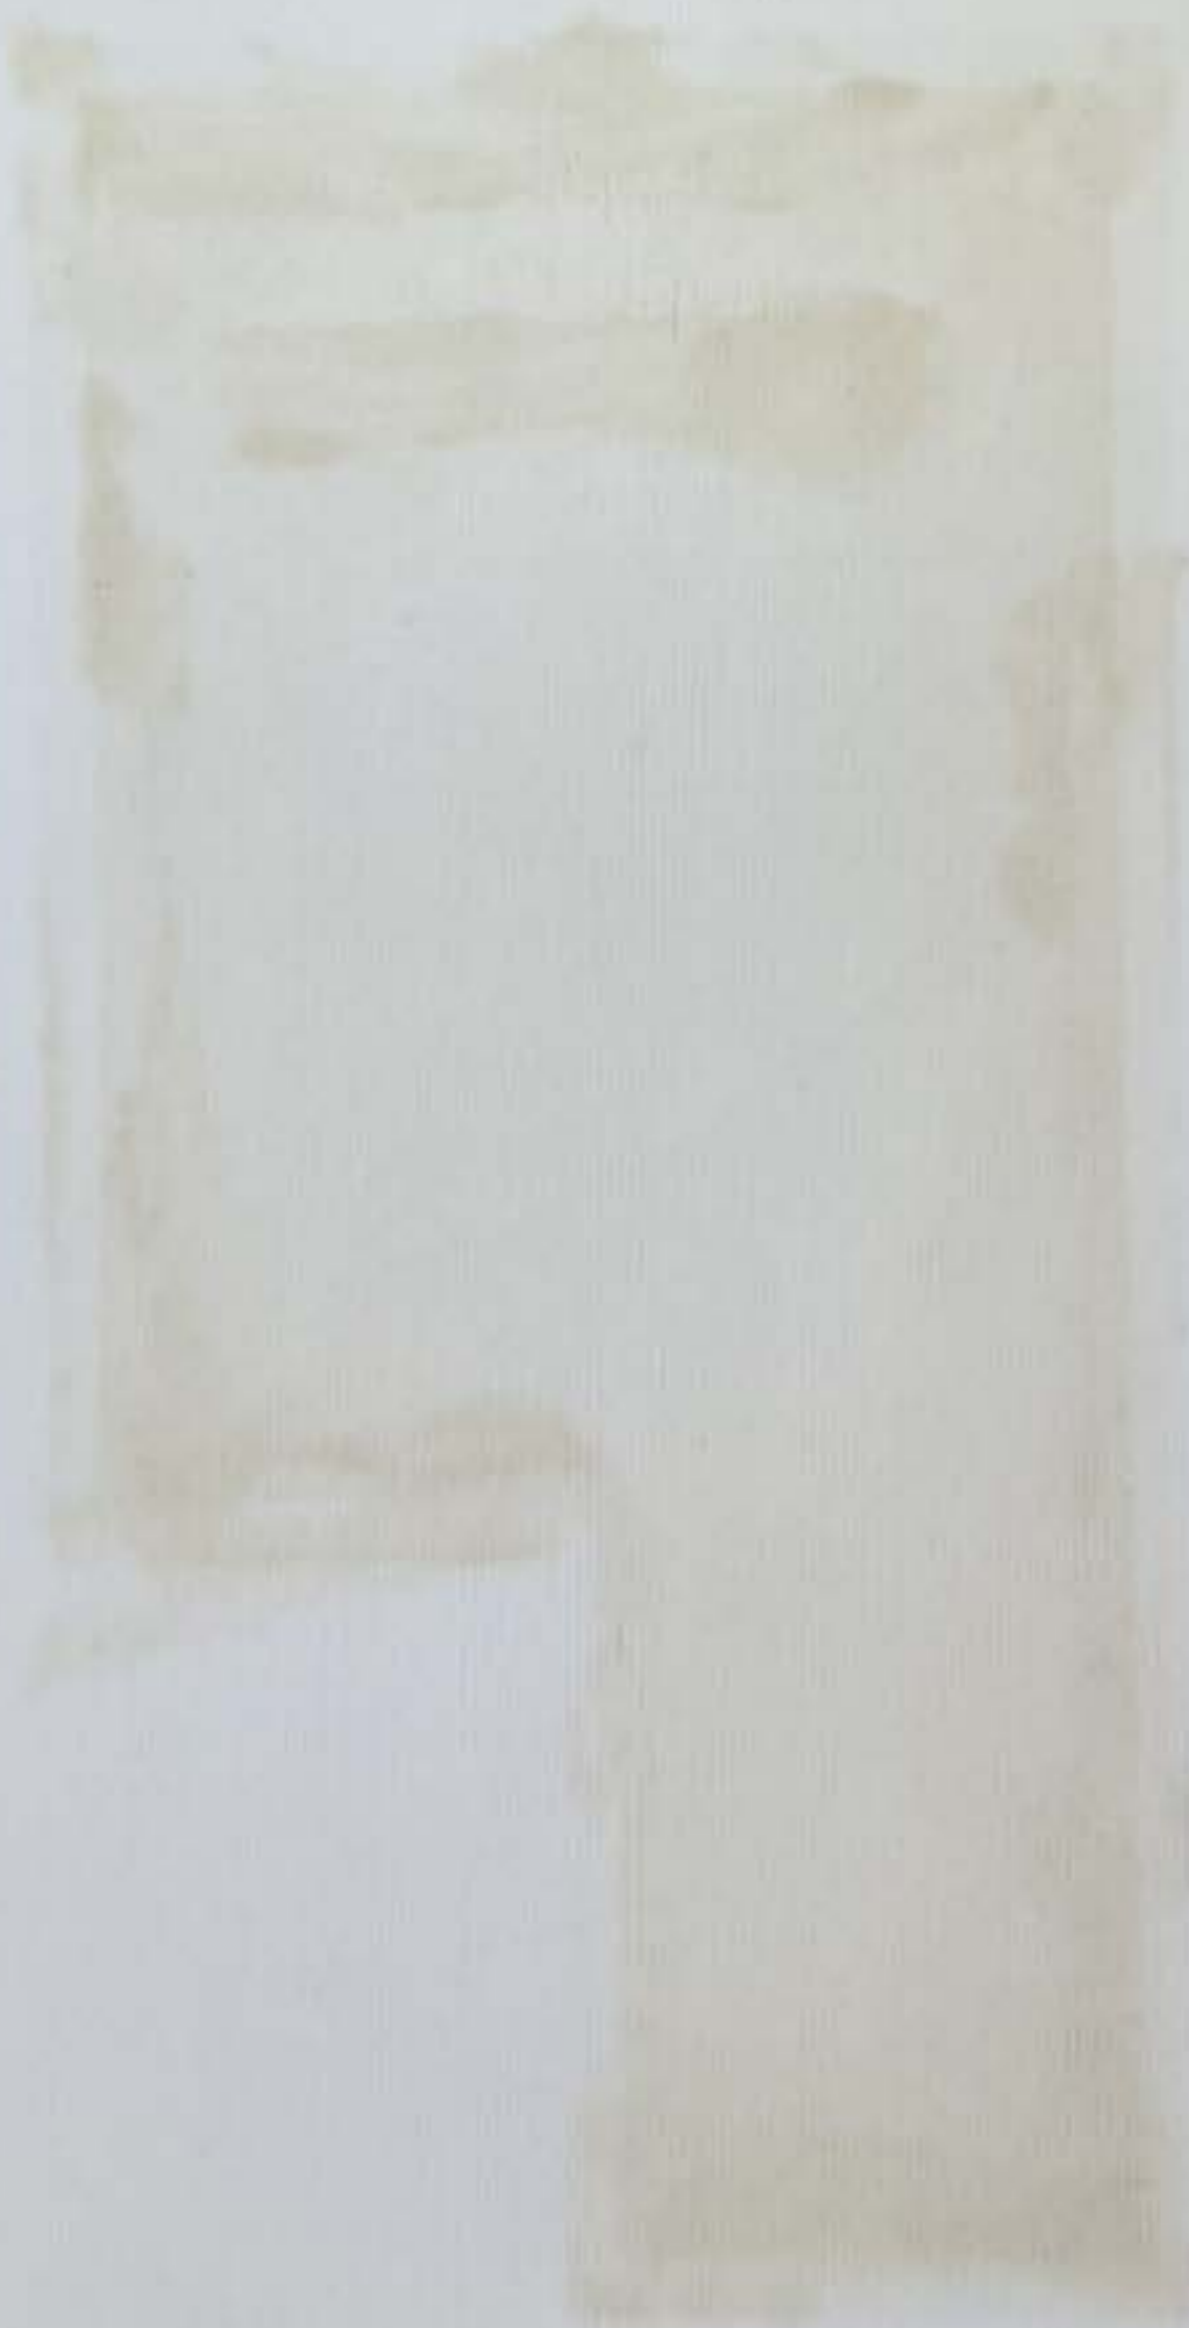

During the past week Mrs. Hall, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Mrs. J. T. Moss, and Mrs. J. K. Tharrington traveled over to Oxford at the invitation of District President, Mrs. J. M. Royster. They were dinner guests at a luncheon held at her home.

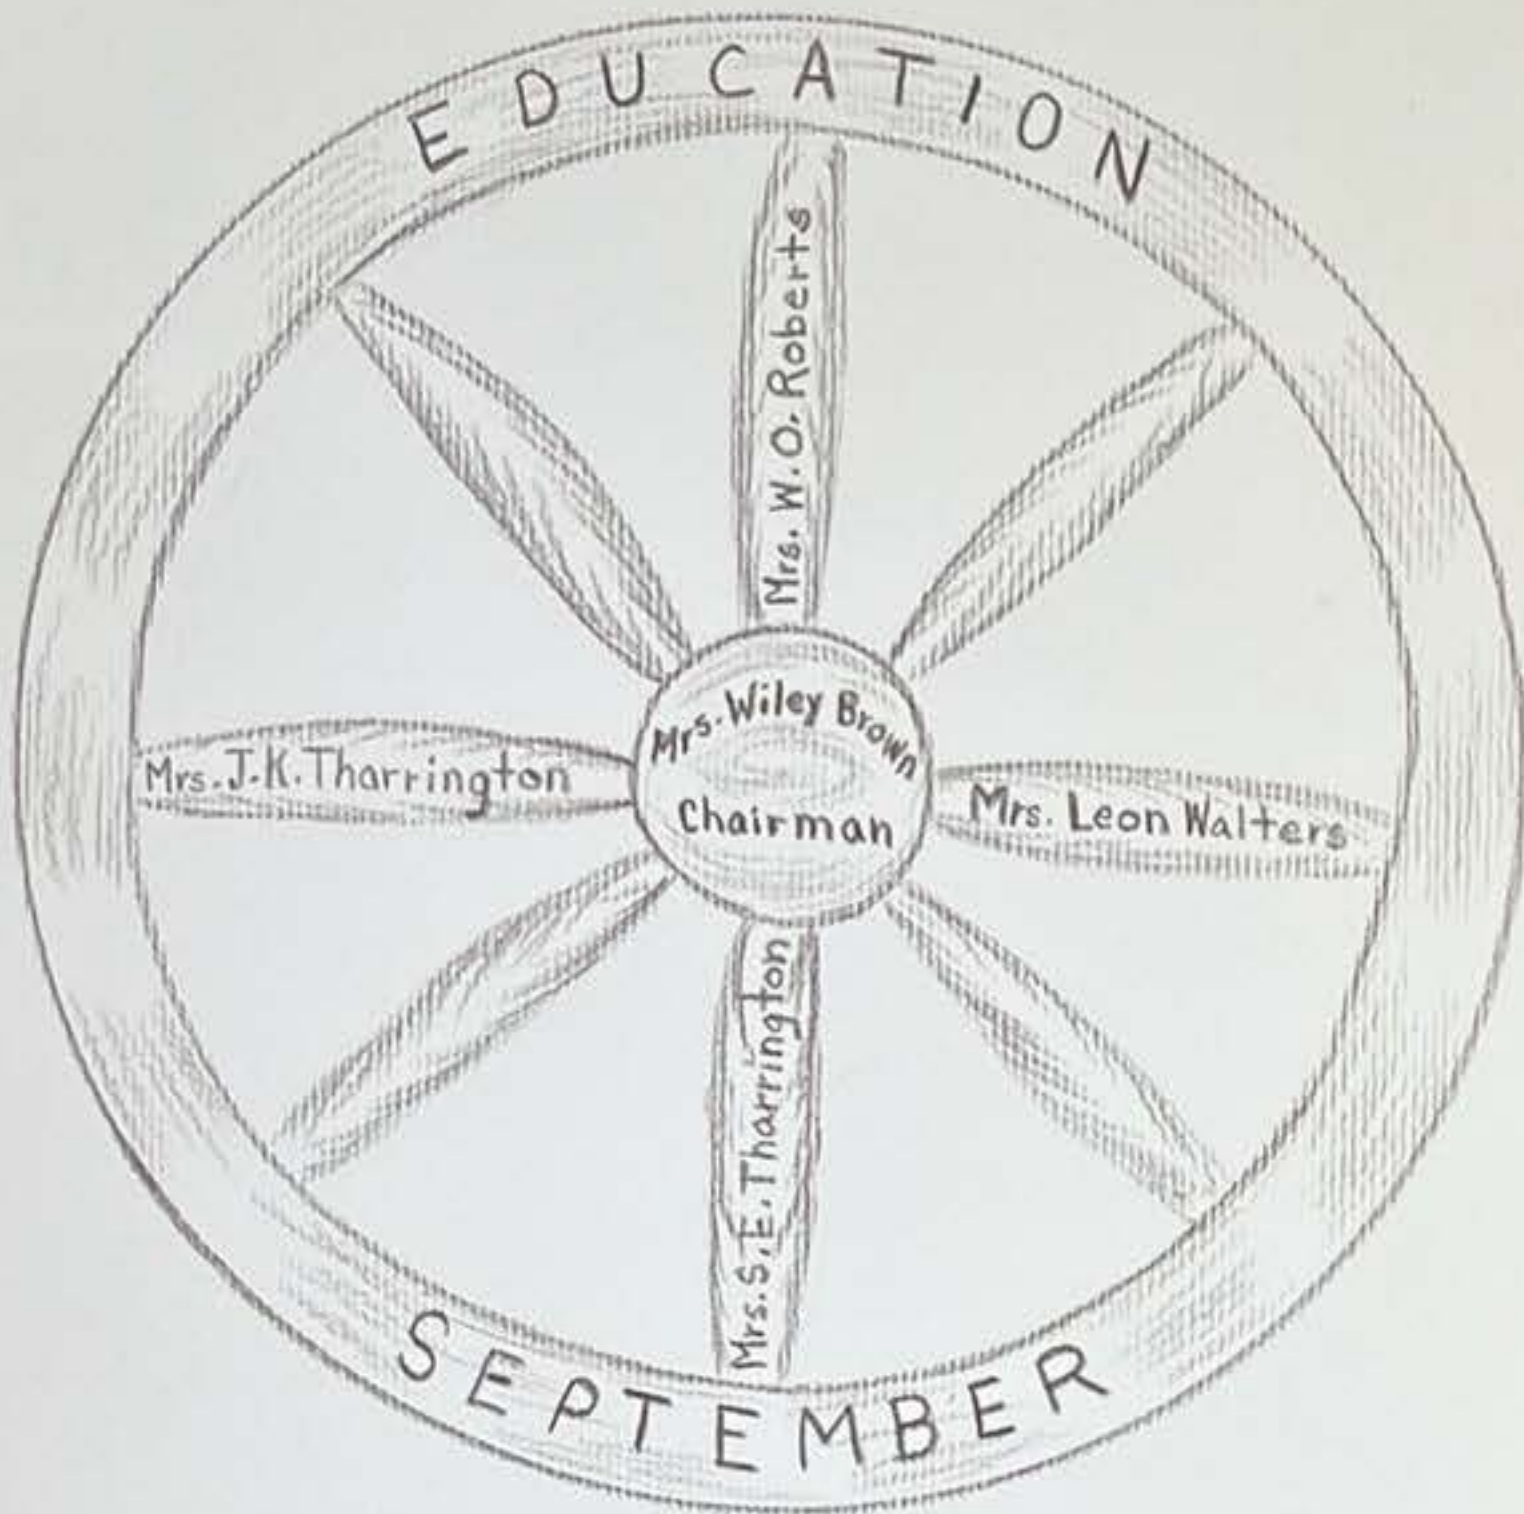

Program Chairman, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., has completed her program schedule for the year and has notified department chairmen. Committees are already having their individual meetings to plan the program for their month, and to secure guest speakers.

The President has announced that a new office in the club, "Awards Chairman", has been accepted by Mrs. Lizzie Winston. Another new appointment by the President is that of Mrs. Beulah Tharrington as Club Chaplain for the coming year.

Youngsville Woman's Club To Meet

Youngsville — The Youngsville Woman's Club will have their first meeting of the 59-60 year on Tuesday night September 15 at the community house at eight p. m. Guest speaker at this time will be the Fourteenth District President, Mrs. J. M. Royster of Oxford, who will speak on "Your Federation."

The Education Department of the club is in charge of the program for this meeting and the committee is composed of Mrs. Wiley Brown, Chairman, and Mrs. S. E. Tharrington, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington, Mrs. Ollie Roberts and Mrs. Leon Walters.

All club members are urged to be in attendance to begin preparations for another successful club year. New Club President, Mrs. A. E. Hall, will be presiding at this first meeting.

The faculty of the Youngsville High School is invited to be special guests of honor of the club at this meeting.

District President Speaks At Woman's Club Tues.

Mrs. J. M. Royster, President of the Fourteenth District of Woman's Clubs, was the guest speaker at the Youngsville Woman's Club meeting held on Tuesday night, Sept. 15. She was introduced by Past President Mrs. J. K. Tharrington. Mrs. Royster's activity and sincere interest in club work was evident and an inspiration to her listeners as she talked to them about "Your Federation." She advised club women to consider carefully the true meaning of the club collect and to let it be a guide for them. The program was highlighted with excerpts from a recording which was made at the annual General Federation Convention which was held in Los Angeles, Calif. for the 1959 year. Mrs. Royster was in attendance at this meeting and gave interesting reports of it.

President Mrs. A. E. Hall presided at this meeting of the local club which opened with a welcome to club members and guests. Special guests of honor at this time were the teachers of the community. Each was recognized and later presented a little surprise favor. Mrs. T. J. Currin of Oxford, who is the State Fine Arts Chairman, was also a guest.

Membership chairman Mrs. Catherine Allen introduced new club members, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Ray Pearce and Mrs. Grady Faulk.

Club Chaplain Mrs. S. E. Tharrington presented a devotional for the evening; after which Mrs. J. H. Parrish read minutes and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell gave Treasury report.

Announcement was made that the club would serve this year as the county sponsor for the Crippled Children's Drive, with Mrs. J. T. Allen as county chairman.

Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Sr. spoke to members on aims of the Help-a-Home department. Awards Chairman Mrs. G. E. Winston stated that the club has already made an entry for a district award and that plans are being considered on other district and state entries.

Other reports were given by Teenage Committee chairman and Girl Scout Leader, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake; Brownie Leader Mrs. E. J. Pearce, and Intermediate Leader, Mrs. Ray Pearce.

Mrs. Claudia Evans and Mrs. J. A. Green, as chairmen for the General Federation Clubwomen Magazine, reported on the conclusion of a successful drive.

Clubmembers were reminded of the District meeting to be held in Jackson on October the 16th.

Hostesses for the social hour which followed the program were: Mesdames W. F. Mitchell, R. F. Potts, J. J. Hart and J. H. Winston. There were refreshments of sandwiches, nuts, cake squares and a tasty coffee punch which was blended with ice cream and whipped cream.

A fall color scheme was carried out in decorations. On the serving table was an autumn brown cloth centered with a dried arrangement and candles in shades of autumn. Used elsewhere were magnolia leaves, candles, and flowers of yellow, gold and bronze. Napkins were in red, gold and green.

Woman's Club To Meet

Youngsville—Dr. M. Ray McKay, Professor of Preaching at the Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest, will be the guest speaker at the next Woman's Club meeting which will be held at the community house on Tuesday, Oct. 20 at 8 p. m.

The Literature and Drama Department of the club is in charge of this program. This committee is composed of the chairman, Mrs. H. H. Reddick, and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. J. E. Underwood, Mrs. J. H. Winston, Mrs. E. J. Pearce.

President, Mrs. A. E. Hall urges all members to be present. Each Woman's Club meeting is important. A group of club members is planning to attend the fourteenth district meeting being held in Jackson, on Friday of this week.

Dr. McKay Speaks At Woman's Club

Dr. M. Ray McKay, Professor of Preaching at the Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest was guest speaker at the October meeting of the Youngsville Woman's Club which was held on Tuesday night of this week. Dr. McKay, who is originally from Missouri, graduated from the Southern Seminary at Louisville, Ky. and also attended schools elsewhere. In 1951 he participated in an "Around the World Mission Tour." The clubwomen were privileged to hear him speak on "Interior Decorating." In offering plans for "The House of Life," he talked of seeking beauty; and of Optimism for added comfort to this house, as well as good will and patience. The beauty of structure was compared to individual character. It was emphasized that an important element in the design is Laughter and that the most essential is Faith. Dr. McKay's speech, which was highlighted with humor, and effective quotations, was appreciatively received by the club members. Mrs. H. H. Reddick as chairman of the Literature and Drama Department, introduced the speaker.

President Mrs. A. E. Hall presided at the business meeting which opened with the singing of the club Hymn and a devotional by club Chaplain Mrs. S. E. Tharrington. Mrs. J. H. Parrish read minutes of previous meeting and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell gave Treasury report.

Awards chairman Mrs. G. E. Winston spoke to the members in regard to entries for the coming year.

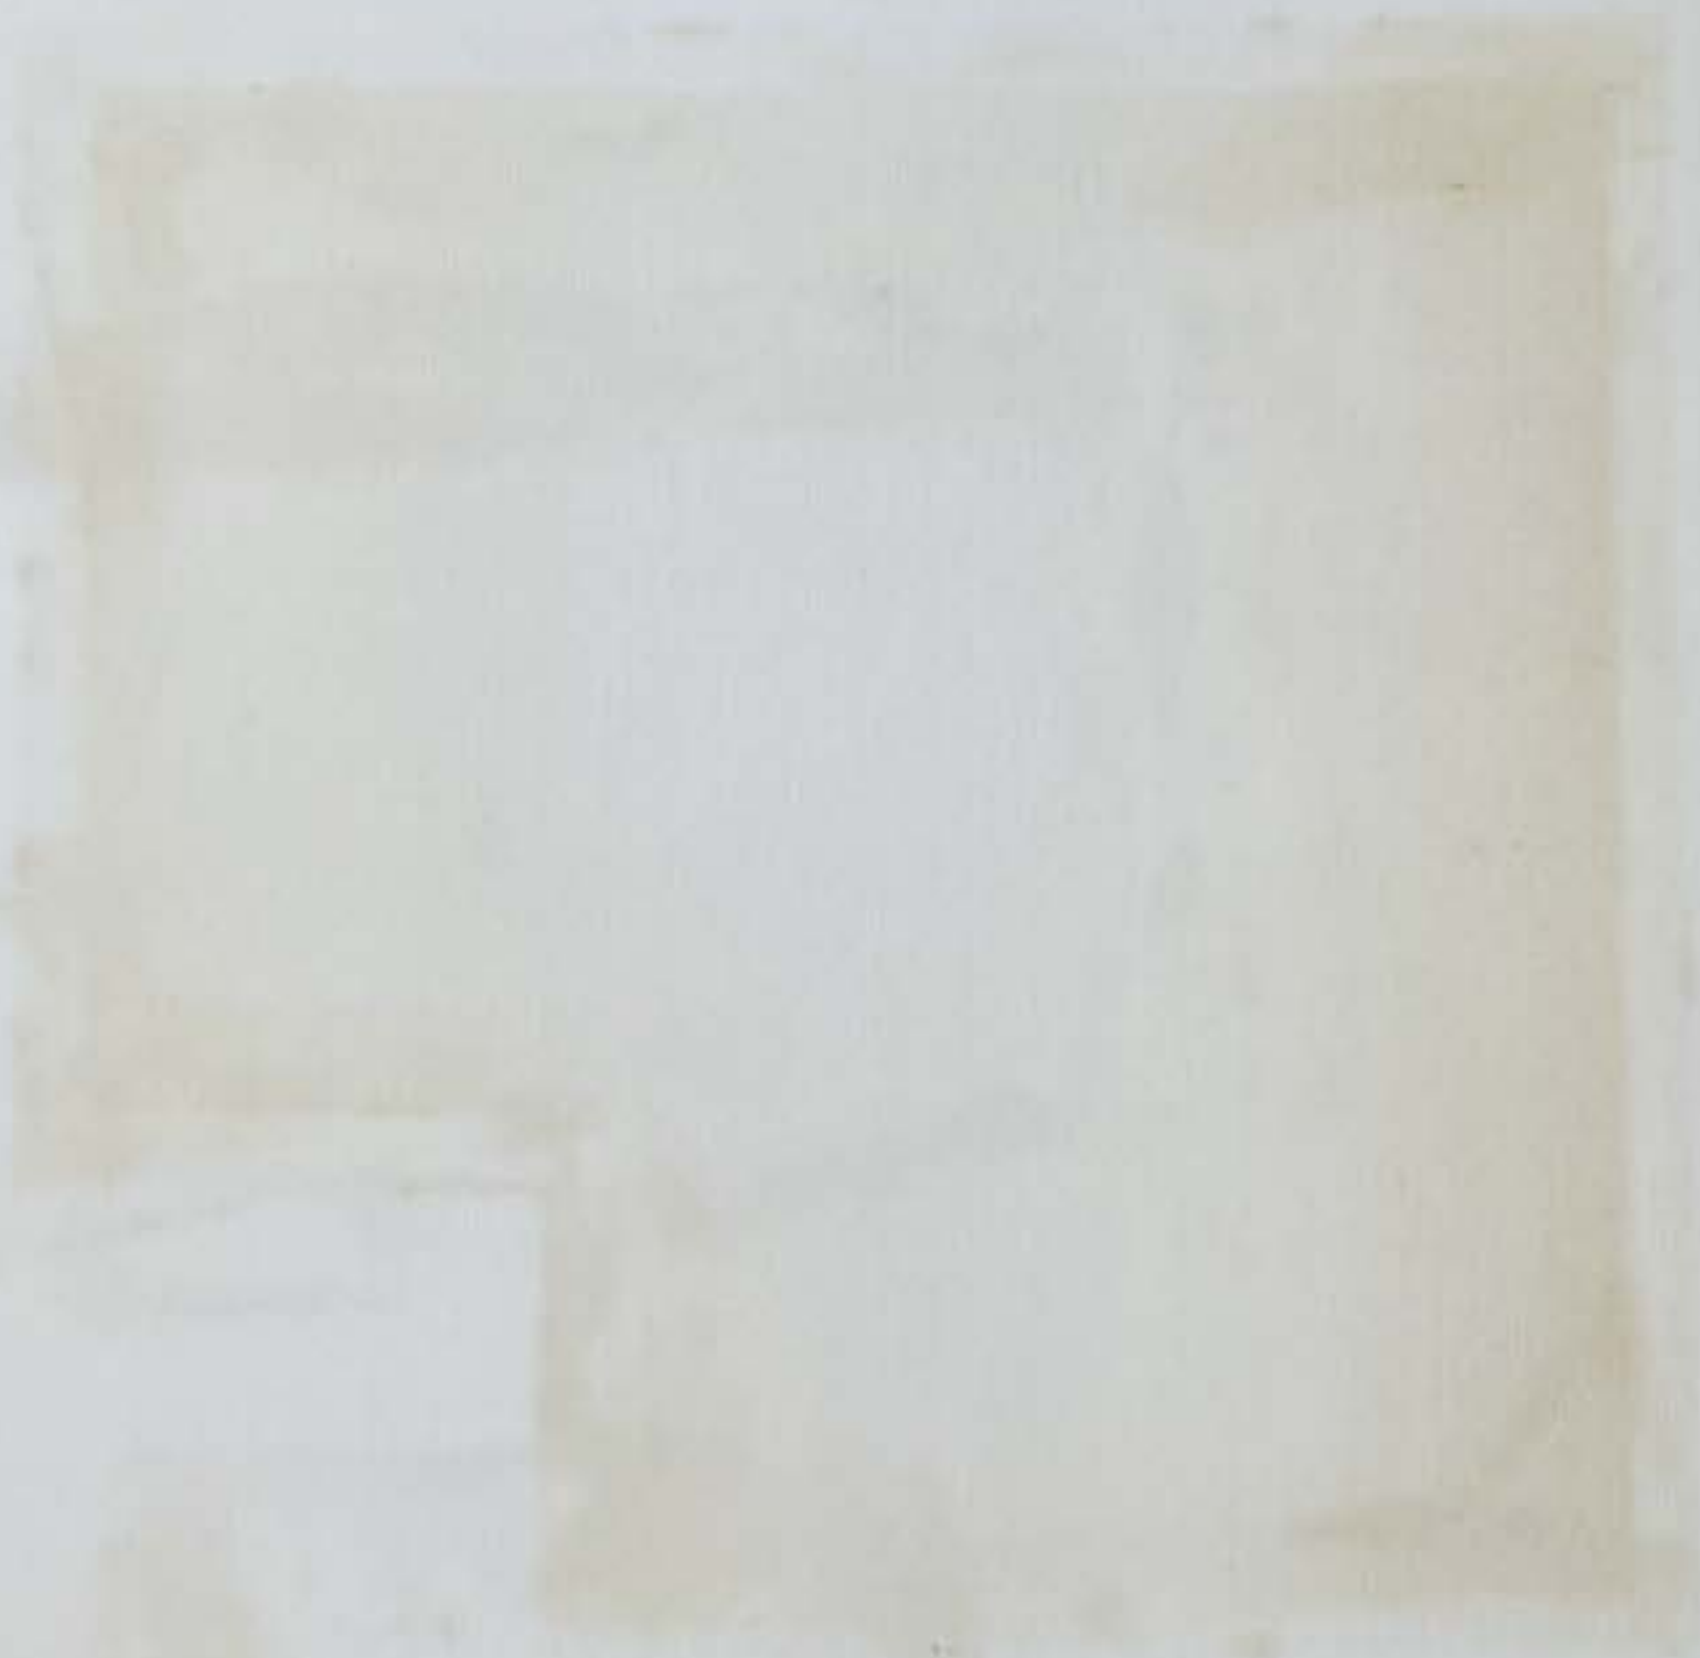

Finance chairman Mrs. J. K. Tharrington spoke on the current fund raising project which is the sale of Oven-Savers. Mrs. N. A. Brown was appointed to serve as chairman for the Boys' Home Coupon Project. At the suggestion of project chairman Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, the club voted to sponsor a Christmas project which would be a contest for the best outdoor Christmas decorations in the community.

Hostesses for this evening were Mrs. Evelyn A. Freeman, Mrs. G. E. Winston, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake and Mrs. A. Y. Allen. Refreshments included peach short cake and coffee which were served from a table covered with a green cloth and an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums. Other chrysanthemums in various colors and also arrangements of roses were used elsewhere about the building.

Dr. Thelma Arnote To Speak Tuesday At Woman's Club

Miss Thelma Arnote, Director of the Child Care Center at the Southeastern Seminary at Wake Forest will be the guest speaker at the Woman's Club meeting to be held at the Community house on Tuesday night, November 17 at eight p.m. The speaker will be introduced by Mrs. J. W. Weathers Jr. who is chairman of the Family Life and Religion Department of the local club. Others on the committee with her are Mrs. Evelyn Freeman, Mrs. P. D. Croon, Mrs. L. R. Evans and Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Sr.

President Mrs. A. E. Hall will be presiding at the business meeting at which time a number of announcements are to be made. All members are urged to be in attendance.

Youngsville Woman's Club Hears of "Religious Crisis"

Youngsville—J. Henry Coffey, Jr. instructor of Religious Education at the Southeastern Seminary in Wake Forest was the guest speaker at the Woman's club meeting held Tuesday night. In addition to his Seminary classes, Mr. Coffey serves as Pastor of the Lakewood Baptist Church in Durham. "Religious Crisis" was his topic for the evening and he spoke of such crisis, particularly relating to childhood and on through adolescence. He was introduced by Chairman of the Family Life and Religion Department, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr.

At the business meeting presided over by Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mrs. W. G. Scarborough was welcomed back into the club membership after being out for a while. Elizabeth Ann Dement was welcomed as a new member of the club.

Mrs. J. J. Hart read club correspondence, including a request from the Caswell School at Kingston for Christmas gifts for the children there. The club voted to participate in this project with Mrs. Irene Mitchell serving as Chairman.

The club plans to again remember their shut-in friends during the Christmas season.

Help-A-Home Chairman, Mrs. J.

W. Weathers, Sr., asked that members bring items to the December meeting to be given to a needy family in the community.

The Woman's club will again this year sponsor Christmas parties for the youth organizations which they sponsor. Appointed to serve on committees for each group are: Brownie Scout Party—Frances Evans, Mrs. J. J. Hart and Mrs. Violet Winston; Intermediate Scout Party—Mrs. Clellie Brown, Mrs. Leon Walters, and Mrs. E. R. Tharrington; Senior Party—Mrs. Lib Cheatham, Mrs. Mary Mitchell and Mrs. Allee Roberts; Teenage Club—Mrs. B. H. Patterson and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell.

The club will sponsor the decoration of the community house for the Yuletide Season, under the leadership of Mrs. A. N. Corpening, and Mrs. J. E. Underwood.

Fine Arts Chairman, Mrs. H. H. Reddick announced arrangements for club members to assemble Sunday afternoon the 22nd at the community house at 1:30; to go over to Raleigh for a visit through the Art Museum. All members are encouraged to meet and go on this trip.

Club women are urged to be planning items to take to a "Hobby Night". A special meeting is to be held soon for the exchange of ideas. This will be under the leadership of Mrs. G. E. Winston.

Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Sr. had the devotional period, which was related to the Thanksgiving Season. A special offering was taken for the Care program.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Marvin Roberts, Mrs. J. H. Parrish, Mrs. W. O. Roberts, and Mrs. S. E. Tharrington. They served refreshments of ambrosia, iced cake squares and coffee. The serving table was covered with a green cloth and featured on it was a Horn-Of-Plenty overflowing with fruit; a dried arrangement in shades of red and gold was also used. Various fall flowers were used in decorating elsewhere about the room.

Woman's Club News

Youngsville — The Youngsville Woman's Club Christmas Party will be held at the community house on Tuesday night, Dec. 15 at 8 p. m. Serving as hostess and program committee for the evening are Mrs. Archie Brown, Mrs. Wiley Brown, Mrs. Kathleen Croom, Mrs. W. R. Evans and Mrs. Grady Faulk.

Club members are reminded to bring groceries to go in Christmas boxes for needy families.

It is hoped that each family in the community will be participating in the contest for "Community Beautification at Christmas" which is being sponsored by the club. Decorate the exterior of your home and let's make our town prettier than ever for the holiday season. Remember that such beauty adds much to that Christmas feeling.

Woman's Club Observes Christmas

Youngsville — Members of the Youngsville Woman's Club had their annual Christmas party at the community house on Tuesday night, with hostesses being Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. Wiley Brown, Mrs. P. D. Croom, Mrs. W. R. Evans and Mrs. Grady Faulk.

President, Mrs. A. E. Hall welcomed members and presented devotional thoughts for the evening. During the business session Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Mrs. H. H. Reddick, and Mrs. A. N. Corpening were appointed to serve on the nominating committee to secure officers for the next club year.

Appointed to serve on the Citizenship Committee in relation to the Citizenship Award to be presented to a High School Senior this year were Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. G. W. Barnes and the incoming president. After the brief business period the meeting was turned over to the hostesses.

Mrs. A. N. Corpening led the group in singing Christmas Carols as Mrs. R. F. Potts accompanied at the piano. Several lively games were played with members participating. Players were rewarded with prizes picked from Christmas stockings.

On a more serious note, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. presented a poem on the true meaning of Christmas; and Mrs. Corpening sang a solo "I Wonder As I Wander".

As the entertainment period was coming to a close with the group singing of Jingle Bells, who should appear at the front door but Jolly Ole St. Nick himself. He came in and remained long enough to distribute the gifts under the Christmas tree which members had brought to exchange.

Refreshments served included coffee, mixed nuts, mints, Tutti-Fruiti fruit cake squares, and open-faced sandwiches shaped and decorated as Christmas trees and Holly leaves. Napkins used were designed with holly sprigs. There were Christmas favors of ribboned candy canes and bells for each guest.

On the serving table was a red cloth trimmed with silver braid and which had a decorated green runner down the length of it. Silver candelabra held red tapers and was complimented with greenery and red berries. On the speakers table was a snowman surrounded with shining ornaments and tinsel. Other decorations in the building were those done by the committee in charge of decorating the building for the holiday season.

Help-A-Home Chairman Mrs. Zula Weathers will take care of the large supply of foods which club women carried to the party to be sent to needy families. President Theima Hall will see that shut-in friends in the community are remembered at Christmas. Members were asked to report such friends to her.

New Officers Selected By Youngsville Woman's Club

Youngsville—At the Woman's Club meeting held Tuesday night a nominating committee headed by Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., presented the following slate of officers to serve for the ensuing club year which begins after the June Banquet: President, Mrs. N. A. Brown; First Vice President, Mrs. A. N. Corpening; Second Vice President, Mrs. E. R. Tharrington; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Grady Faulk; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Mabel Timberlake; Treasurer Mrs. T. M. Mitchell.

President, Mrs. A. E. Hall presided at the business meeting at which time Club Chaplain, Mrs. S. E. Tharrington led the devotional; Mrs. J. H. Parrish read minutes; and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell gave Treasury report. Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. J. Hart read numerous club correspondence, which included thank-you notes for poinsettias and other gifts presented to shut-ins at Christmas. Mrs. Hall stated that the most rewarding Christmas activity in which the club participated, was perhaps the visit to rest homes in Wake Forest when the club members visited the patients, talked with them and sang Carols of the season.

Mrs. George Paschal of Raleigh was guest speaker for the evening and gave a historical sketch of the N. C. Art Museum. She is from Iowa where she had her schooling, graduated from college, and went on to her chosen career of journalism. She is now the wife of a Raleigh surgeon. She has been associated as a volunteer worker with the N. C. Museum since its beginning four years ago is now serving on the Board. The exciting works of art in the museum and the various special shows which have been held there were discussed by Mrs. Paschal. She spoke of the Kress gift which should reach the museum in the near future. Significant facts about the museum are, it is rated the finest in the south and ranks fifteenth in the nation.

North Carolina was the first state to appropriate tax money to buy art for its people. A bill was introduced for the state to spend one million dollars for not a building, but to buy art. This bill which passed by a narrow margin of 47-44.

made history. The New York Herald Tribune art critic called it "The greatest single contribution to American culture in this century". The state of North Carolina continues the support of the museum.

Hostesses for the social hour of the evening were Mrs. Leon Walters, Mrs. Pattie Justice, Mrs. J. T. Moss and Mrs. Willard Timberlake. There were refreshments of a variety of dainty sandwiches and cookies, cheese straws, party-mix cereal and coffee. The serving table was covered with a green cloth and decorated with a floral arrangement of yellow Jasmine. Similar arrangements were used elsewhere about the room.

Finance chairman, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington announced that a Kleenex sale would be held in the community on Monday night January the twenty-fifth. Club members are asked to meet at seven p. m. to begin the sale immediately after assembling.

To the Youngsville Woman's Club:

Please know how very much I appreciate my evening with you last week. Your meeting itself was an inspiration. And I shall treasure the memory of your interest in the Art Museum, and hope to see you there.

The bracelet is perfectly lovely -- just think -- I'll always have it and shall always remember its gracious donors!

Sincerely
Beth Cunnings Paschal

Ambassador To Finland Speaks To Woman's Club

Youngsville — Miss Rebekah Rivers, a former Young Ambassador to Finland, was out from Raleigh Tuesday evening as guest speaker at the Youngsville Woman's Club meeting for February. Miss Rivers, originally from Boone N. C. attended Appalachian State Teachers College and furthered her education in France. She talked to the clubwomen about her visit to Finland and of the people there, showing picturesque color slides to illustrate the narration.

people in their home life, religious life, business, sports, education and social life. There were interesting views of the county itself. Miss Rivers concluded her program with a question and answer period. Mrs. Alice Roberts of the Club's International Relations Committee introduced the guest to members.

President Mrs. A. E. Hall presided at the business session. Mrs. W. G. Scarborough presented devotional thoughts which preceded the Secretary report by Mrs. J. H. Parrish. In the absence of Mrs. E. M. Mitchell, the Treasurer report was given by Mrs. J. T. Allen.

Upon the recommendation of Project Chairman Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, the club discussed improvements in the community building. Finance chairman Mrs. J. K. Tharrington announced that the club is conducting their final fund raising project of the year which is the sale of salt and pepper shakers.

Corresponding secretary Mrs. Joseph Hart read mail received by the club during the past month. Mrs. N. A. Brown reminds members to save designate coupons for the club.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. W. S. Preddy, Mrs. J. E. Underwood, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. J. W. Weathers Sr., and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham. A patriotic theme was used in decorating for the meeting. A white Queen Anne's Lace crochet tablecloth covered the serving table and was underlined with red. Featured on it was a five branched silver candelabra holding red tapers. An epergnette in the center held springs of artificial red, white and blue flowers. On the mantle was an arrangement of flags, and a red rose in a bud vase was on the speakers table.

There were refreshments of cake squares iced in white, coffee, and nuts in cups decorated in patriotic colors. There were favors of flag bow-tie pins.

Mrs. Doak Speaks To Woman's Club

Youngsville—Mrs. Charles G. Doak of Raleigh, the North Carolina Federation Historian and Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, was the guest speaker at the Woman's Club meeting held on Tuesday night of this week. She was introduced by Frances Evans of the clubs Public Affairs Department.

In relation to Public Affairs, Mrs. Doak stated that "Womans brain-power and intuition are among the most wasted of talents. More women should be represented on important committee such as those for government legislation; and on boards governing the various worth-while public affairs which so closely affect our lives and those of our children."

As a specific current aim on the local, state and national level Mrs. Doak urged clubwomen to make a campaign study of all candidates running for election this year. She encouraged women to understand, believe in and support international relations, particularly through the United Nations.

Mrs. Doak is a versatile woman outstanding in Public affairs. She has participated in official capacities in various civic organizations, church affairs, politics, literary and educational fields. She was the first woman radio announcer in North Carolina, has written campaign speeches and important papers, and at one time wrote book reviews for the New and Observer.

Refreshments served included lime ice, nuts, green and white mints and cake squares iced in white and decorated with green shamrocks.

President Mrs. A. E. Hall presided at the business meeting, at which time reports were given by Secretary, Mrs. J. H. Parrish; Finance Chairman, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. J. Hart, Music Chairman, Mrs. R. F. Potts and chairman of the Crippled Childrens drive for Franklin County, Mrs. J. T. Allen.

Appointed as delegates to the State Convention to be held in Raleigh in April were Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, with alternates being Mrs. W. F. Mitchell and Mrs. B. H. Patterson. All clubwomen were urged to attend the convention.

Club Chaplain Mrs. S. E. Tharrington conducted the devotional period for the evening.

Club members voted in favor of a project to have tile laid on the floor of the community house kitchen.

Mrs. Hall urges clubwomen to keep up their award questionnaire.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. L. R. Evans, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr, Mrs. E. R. Tharrington and Mrs. Mack Dement. A St. Patrick's theme was used for the occasion. A massive arrangement of white carnations and green fern were used on a serving table covered with a green cloth. Napkins used carried out the chosen theme. St. Patrick's lapel pins of shamrocks and derbies were given to each person.

Refreshments served included lime ice, nuts, green and white mints and cake squares iced in white and decorated with green shamrocks.

Frances Doak is one of those lucky people who inherited a great fortune at birth. It was not the kind of fortune that is affected by business depressions and stock market declines. There is enough of her fortune to go around, no matter how many of her friends take a portion of it or how many unfortunate or misunderstood people share in it. It has been divided multiple times and is larger today than ever before. Her fortune pays immense dividends of courage, cheerfulness, pleasantness, kindness, enthusiasm and love.

A Fighting Quaker

Her friend, the late Josephus Daniels, Ambassador to Mexico and Secretary of the Navy, said admiringly, "Frances Doak is the fightingest Quaker I ever saw." She and Mr. Daniels had been co-workers in some of the most strenuous campaigns for North Carolina's well-being. Some of these campaigns were not without spectacular features. One editorial referred facetiously to her "spiritual lobbying." She knew that it is emotionally and physically costly to be a pioneer in any field. Pioneering was not any easier for her than it is for other people. She wanted flowers, peace and harmony; she enjoyed recognition and popularity. Even those who have been the target of her "spiritual lobbying" believe in her intellectual honesty and integrity.

For many years her home in Cameron Park has been a pleasant gathering place for her family and her friends. On Christmas morning, 1960, she will go to the North Carolina State Prison for the 46th consecutive Christmas, taking gifts and a timely message to the prisoners. Every child who has grown up in Cameron Park in the last 30 to 40 years has pleasant memories of "Miss Doak's" Christmas stories.

Some of the outstanding social legislation, all worked for by Frances, the Fighting Quaker, includes the Workmen's Compensation Act; the Australian Ballot; Increased Appropriations for Libraries; Good Labor Laws for Women and Children; Appropriations for Correctional School for Negro Girls and Acquisition of a New Plant; Notice of Marriage Laws; Prison Reforms; Jury Duty for Women, etc. Her influence has been great in many organizations, including the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Wake County League of Women Voters, the Crusade for Children, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Medical Care Association, Health Publications Institute, Aycock Memorial Commission, Dumbarton Oaks Proposals and the International Relations Institute.

She was responsible for organizing the first day nursery for Negro children in Raleigh. Through talks, radio messages and writings she has stimulated tremendous interest in various fields ever looked to her in vain for her intelligent and enthusiastic and generous cooperation.

Many of the young gardeners in North Carolina today are able to have lovely gardens because Frances Doak, the fighting Quaker, pioneered in making their homes comfortable, their schools better and their families free of disease. Many of them should share their choicest flowers with her.

One of her close friends and neighbors quotes:
"How shall we honor you, Frances, whom we revere—Lover of all the arts and of our land? How—but to cherish Beauty's very flower? How—but to live with Peace, and so be Apostles of Rejoicing to mankind?"

Garden Clubber
To Speak Tuesday
At Woman's Club

Mrs. H. C. Taylor of Louisburg, who is a member of the Louisburg Garden Club, will be guest speaker for the Youngville Woman's Club meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, April 19th at 8:00 P. M. in the Community building.

The Woman's Club Garden department is in charge of this program. Members are: Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, chairman, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. J. T. Moss, Mrs. Mabel Timberlake, and Mrs. E. R. Tharrington.

LANDSCAPING, PLANTING & ARRANGING FLOWERS TOPIC OF WOMAN'S CLUB TALK

Mrs. H. C. Taylor, Jr., President-elect of the Louisburg Garden Club, was the guest speaker at the Youngville Woman's Club meeting held on Tuesday night. In relation to the Home and Garden, she suggested the motto "Beautify Without and Within." She talked on landscaping, planting and arranging flowers; and concluded with a variety of helpful pointers and ideas.

After the talk Mrs. Taylor presented an inspirational demonstration. Artistic arrangements included tulips and asperdestra leaves in a black compote; pine boughs in a tall black cylindrical vase; apple blossoms in a low white container; a dramatic Oriental arrangement of Sweet Gum branches, pine and camellias in a shallow brass bowl; lilacs and purple Iris in a white pitcher complimented with violets. While working with the flowers the guest spoke of the types of tools, mechanics, containers, and accessories which could be used, as well as on the proper conditioning of flowers and foliage to be used.

President Mrs. A. E. Hall presided at the meeting which opened with a devotional period led by Mrs. S. E. Tharrington. The secretary's report was by Mrs. J. H.

Parrish and Treasurer's report, by Mrs. E. M. Mitchell. Mrs. J. T. Allen as chairman of the Crippled Childrens Drive, spoke briefly on its progress. The president read a letter stating that the local club would receive a Certificate of Merit for outstanding achievement in the field of Community Service. The Choral Group and Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. were recognized for their convention honors. Mrs. N. A. Brown reported on activities of Clubwomen who attended the State Convention.

Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames J. K. Tharrington, J. T. Allen, G. W. Barnes, E. M. Mitchell and Lucy Pearce. Refreshments served included punch, a variety of sandwiches and cookies and cheese straws.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth underlined with green and centered with a dainty flowers. Napkins designed with parasol frame covered with tiny April Showers were used. There were favors of miniature umbrellas standing in gum drops on each plate. Spring flowers were used in decorating around the community building.

Mrs. Thomas Wheelles was welcomed as a guest at the meeting. She came over from Louisburg with Mrs. Taylor.

Woman's Club To Hear John Ingle

Mr. John H. Ingle, who is associated with the Social Security Administration in Raleigh, will be the guest speaker at the Youngsville Woman's Club meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, May 17th, at 8:00 o'clock. The Disability Insurance Program will be discussed.

The program committees of the Club's Welfare Department composed of Mrs. J. H. Parrish, chairman, Mrs. W. S. Preddy, Mrs. B. H. Patterson, and Mrs. George Barnes is in charge.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS SECURITY BENEFITS

The Youngsville Woman's Club met on Tuesday night with President Mrs. A. E. Hall presiding and extending a welcome to those present. During the opening ceremonies the Clubwoman's Hymn was sung by the group; and the devotional period was conducted by Club Chaplain, Mrs. S. E. Tharrington. Mrs. Gertrude Parrish read minutes and Treasurer's report was given by Mrs. E. M. Mitchell.

Club members were happy to find that the new tile flooring had been laid on the Community house kitchen and that a new center cabinet had been installed. This was a project of the Woman's Club.

Mrs. Catherine Allen reported on the successful conclusion of another and different club project, the sponsorship of the County Crippled Children's Drive for this year, led by Mrs. Allen. The county quota of $1800 was reached.

Mrs. Hall read the club's annual report at this meeting.

Mrs. W. S. Preddy introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. John Ingle of Raleigh, who is a representative with the Social Security Administration. He spoke on the old age, death, and disability benefits offered by the administration, pointing out that all individual cases are different. He illustrated his talk by relating case experiences. It was mentioned that the Social Security Administration is now in its twenty-fifth year.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. J. A. Green, Mrs. H. H. Reddick, Mrs. E. J. Pearce and Mrs. Leelan Woodlief. Refreshments of banana crush, nuts, and a variety of dainty sandwiches and cookies were served.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth underlined with green; and featured an arrangement of multi-colored flowers. Peonies were used in decorating other areas of the room.

Girl Scouts

Brownies Begin Year's Work

Youngsville — The Brownie Scouts have had two meetings of the new year under the leadership of Troop Leader Mrs. James Young and Assistant Leader Mrs. E. J. Pearce. They met on Thursday the tenth for a re-organizational meeting; and then on Thursday the seventeenth they met to discuss Brownie Scouts activities and to hear the Brownie Story.

During a business session the following officers were elected to serve for the year: President Pam Hart, Vice President Donna Sue Privette, Secretary Deborah Young, Treasurer Kathie Cooke. Other registered scouts are Linda Winston, Johnnie Mae Mitchell and Margaret Potts.

Brownie scout age is 7 to 10 and girls in the community of that age who are interested are cordially invited to join the troop. Meetings will be held weekly on Thursday afternoons after school at the Girl Scout Hut. This Troop is again sponsored by the Youngsville Woman's Club.

The Youngsville Woman's Club takes pride in sponsoring three Scout troops - Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Scouts - with leaders being active club members.

NEW SCOUT HUT DEDICATED SATURDAY AT YOUNGSVILLE; PLACQUE PRESENTED

Saturday was a long awaited occasion for the people of Youngsville; one brought about by the concerted cooperation and work of townspeople.

The program on Saturday afternoon had been planned as the dedication ceremony for the recently completed girl scout hut, one of the main projects in this year's Finer Carolina contest. However last week when word was received that the town had won for the third time the Town of the Month award for their accomplishments in the Finer Carolina program, Mrs. Elton Mitchell made plans to have the plaque presented during the afternoon's program.

Mr. E. P. Bazemore of Henderson, district manager for Carolina Power and Light Company, made the presentation to Mrs. Mitchell and the town now had permanent possession of the plaque.

Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, Senior Girl Scout leader, recognized three of the town's leading citizens who helped make the Scout Hut, a (Continued on back page) project of the Woman's Club, a reality, by their outstanding contributions. They were Mrs. P. D. Croom, who donated the property; Troop committeeman, Mrs. A. E. Hall and committeeman J. T. Allen. The hut has been named "Cro-Al-Ha" in their honor.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Nell Young, Girl Scout executive of the Wake-Johnston-Wilson council who congratulated the town for its accomplishment and interest in girl scouting. She also briefly discussed about Franklin County entering the council in January, 1960.

Scout Hut To Be Dedicated

Youngsville—The public is cordially invited to attend the Dedication Service for the Girl Scout Hut to be held on Saturday afternoon June twentieth at three p. m. There will be a number of special guests in attendance for the ceremony. Recognition will be given to all who have so generously contributed towards this Girl Scout project.

Open house and a social hour will be the concluding highlight of the program.

Youngsville Wins Project Award

In the final judging of projects for grand prizes in this year's Finer Carolina program, the official judges for the Carolina Power and Light Company have named Youngsville as a winner for successful work done on an individual project which was outstanding. Youngsville was one of ten towns selected from the whole North Carolina and South Carolina area which is served by the CP&L. Each of these ten towns will receive fifty dollar awards for the outstanding projects.

Youngsville has already received a one hundred dollar prize for being the district winner in their respective category for accomplishments on the three projects entered in the Finer Carolina Program. Winning the top district honor and then a grand prize is rewarding to all who have cooperated in these efforts for the betterment of the community. It is also an inspiration for the continuation of striving for a Finer Carolina.

The Youngsville project receiving the individual honor was the building of the Girl Scout Hut. Girl Scout committee chairman, Mrs. A. E. Hall, was leader of this project and she spent countless hours in planning, traveling and action for the Hut. Cooperating with her in this undertaking were the members of the Girl Scout troop committee; the Woman's Club which served as sponsor; members of the Finer Carolina committee which was headed by Mrs. E. M. Mitchell; local citizens and many out-of-town friends.

CP&L Announces District Winners In AFC Contest

Area communities were tapped this week as district winners in Carolina Power & Light Company's 1958-59 Finer Carolina contest. Each wins $100 and becomes eligible for even bigger prizes in the contest's final judging in September.

CP&L Manager E. P. Bazemore said today that district winners in this area include Youngsville, Franklinton, and Roxboro in each of the contest's three population groups.

He pointed out that by winning $100 district awards, these towns automatically move up to become eligible for top prizes of $500 in each population group plus project prizes totaling $700. These winners will be announced in September, he said.

All prizes in the CP&L contest, including local, district and system awards, will total more than $6,000 this year.

Bazemore outlined Finer Carolina projects completed by area winners this year.

Youngsville (Group A): The Youngsville Finer Carolina committee admits that "community improvement is a continuous thing. . . . However, community improvement was accomplished and continues through the Finer Carolina effort this year. Mrs. E. M. Mitchell acted as Finer Carolina chairman. Work included modernization of the community building, erection of safety signs at a neighborhood rail crossing, support of a school music teacher by the PTA, building of a Girl Scout hut by the Woman's Club, and a number of projects sponsored by the Lions Club through fund-raising efforts like turkey shoots and community calendar sales. Youngsville won permanent possession of a "Town of the Month" plaque during the contest year.

Franklinton (Group B): Establishment of a two-acre community picnic area, lighting of the athletic field, construction of a new Legion building and development and beautification of homes, business places and other locations throughout town featured this community's Finer Carolina effort. Tommie N. Stephens served as Finer Carolina chairman.

Roxboro (Group C): Roxboro was a three-time "Town of the Month" plaque winner in the contest this year. Outstanding projects included a Finer Carolina essay contest among school students, an industrial appreciation week, operation of a day camp, beautification featured "Yard of the Month" awards, general clean-up, emphasis on youth through formation of a Cub Scout pack and other organizational work, anti-littering efforts, and a number of projects in health and safety. Among health services are a free dental clinic and chronic disease study. Mrs. W. H. Adair served as Roxboro's Finer Carolina chairman.

YOUNGSVILLE WINS $100 DISTRICT C.P. & L. FINER CAROLINA CONTEST PRIZE

Youngsville has been notified that they are winners of a $100 dollar award as district winners in the Finer Carolina contest. By winning the district award, they are now eligible to compete for top prizes of $500 plus project prizes totaling $700. The big time winners will be announced later this month.

Also named district winners in that area were Franklinton and Roxboro in the other population groups.

In Youngsville the emphasis this year has been on community improvement which the committee headed by Mrs. E. M. Mitchell admits is a "continuous thing." Work accomplished in the town by the cooperation of the town's three civic clubs, The Lions Club, Woman's Club and Home Demonstration Club included modernization of the Community House, erection of safety signs at the railroad crossing on Main Street, support of a public school music teacher, building a Girl Scout Hut and a number of other projects.

Youngsville won permanent possession of a "Town of the Month" plaque after winning it for three months.

Girl Scout Meet Held

Rev. Herman S. Winberry, pastor of Lousburg Methodist Church, presided Monday evening as County Chairman for the first County-wide meeting ever to be held in Franklin County to plan a Girl Scout drive for the County.

This meeting was held at the Murphy House with a Dutch dinner and was attended by representatives from Youngsville, Franklinton and Lousburg where Girl Scouting has been organized as lone troops in the past and now are a part of the Wake-Johnston-Wilson Area Girl Scout Council, Inc.

The purpose of the meeting was to complete the organization for a drive to tell the Girl Scout story to every citizen and to raise funds to help support this united movement in the County. The drive is set for Oct. 4-9.

Community Chairmen for setting up the working committees are: Youngsville, Mr. A. E. Hall; Franklinton, Mrs. T. F. East; Lousburg, Mr. John York; Mrs. S. M. Young, Jr., of Raleigh, Executive Director of the Wake-Johnston-Wilson Area Girl Scout Council, Inc., was present and assisted the County Chairman with the organization and training of the volunteer workers.

Girl Scout Drive To Begin Oct. 2nd

A Girl Scout Drive will get underway Friday, Oct. 2 to raise funds for the support of the Girl Scout program in Franklin County for the coming year, announced Rev. Herman Winberry, County Chairman for the drive.

Leaders have been appointed in Youngsville, Franklinton and Lousburg respectively as follows: A. E. Hall, Mrs. T. F. East and John B. York. These leaders have recruited helpers to canvass the towns, house by house, telling the Girl Scout story and asking donations for the support of Girl Scouting for the coming year.

This drive will give the financial support needed in the larger program as Franklin County joins Wake, Wilson and Johnston counties in Girl Scouting.

The drive will last a week Oct. 2 thru 9 and preliminary reports from community leaders are due in soon thereafter, states Chairman Winberry.

Making preparations for the first Girl Scout Drive. Meeting held in Girl Scout Hut.

Girl Scout Fund Short Of Goal

Preliminary reports on the Girl Scout Drive held Oct. 2-9 in Lousburg, Franklinton and Youngsville showed collections of $231.56 short of the anticipated $1500.

These reports were made at a meeting of the chairmen of the drive at the Community House in Franklinton Monday evening. Rev. Herman Winberry, County Chairman of the drive, presided.

Mr. A. E. Hall, Youngsville area chairman, reported $115.00 contributed by citizens and business of Youngsville. Mrs. E. M. Mitchell was major of the solicitation group with Mesdames Archie Brown, Marvin Roberts, James Young and E. J. Pearce acting as captains. As each of the captains recruited five workers, a total of thirty odd citizens assisted in the drive.

Mrs. T. F. East, Area Chairman of Franklinton, reported $445.53 collected with approximately thirty-one workers. Mr. C. Ray Pruette was special gifts chairman and Mrs. C. H. Weston, general solicitation chairman. Her captains were Mesdames Warrea Pearce, C. G. Hight, Jr., S. J. Green, W. J. Childers and John F. Green.

Rev. Winberry reported for Lousburg in the absence of area chairman, John York, giving a sum of $561.00 collected. Approximately twenty-four workers helped in the drive. Assisting Mr. York were Mesdames H. H. Hobbgood, George Dennis, Betsy Layender and John Lloyd.

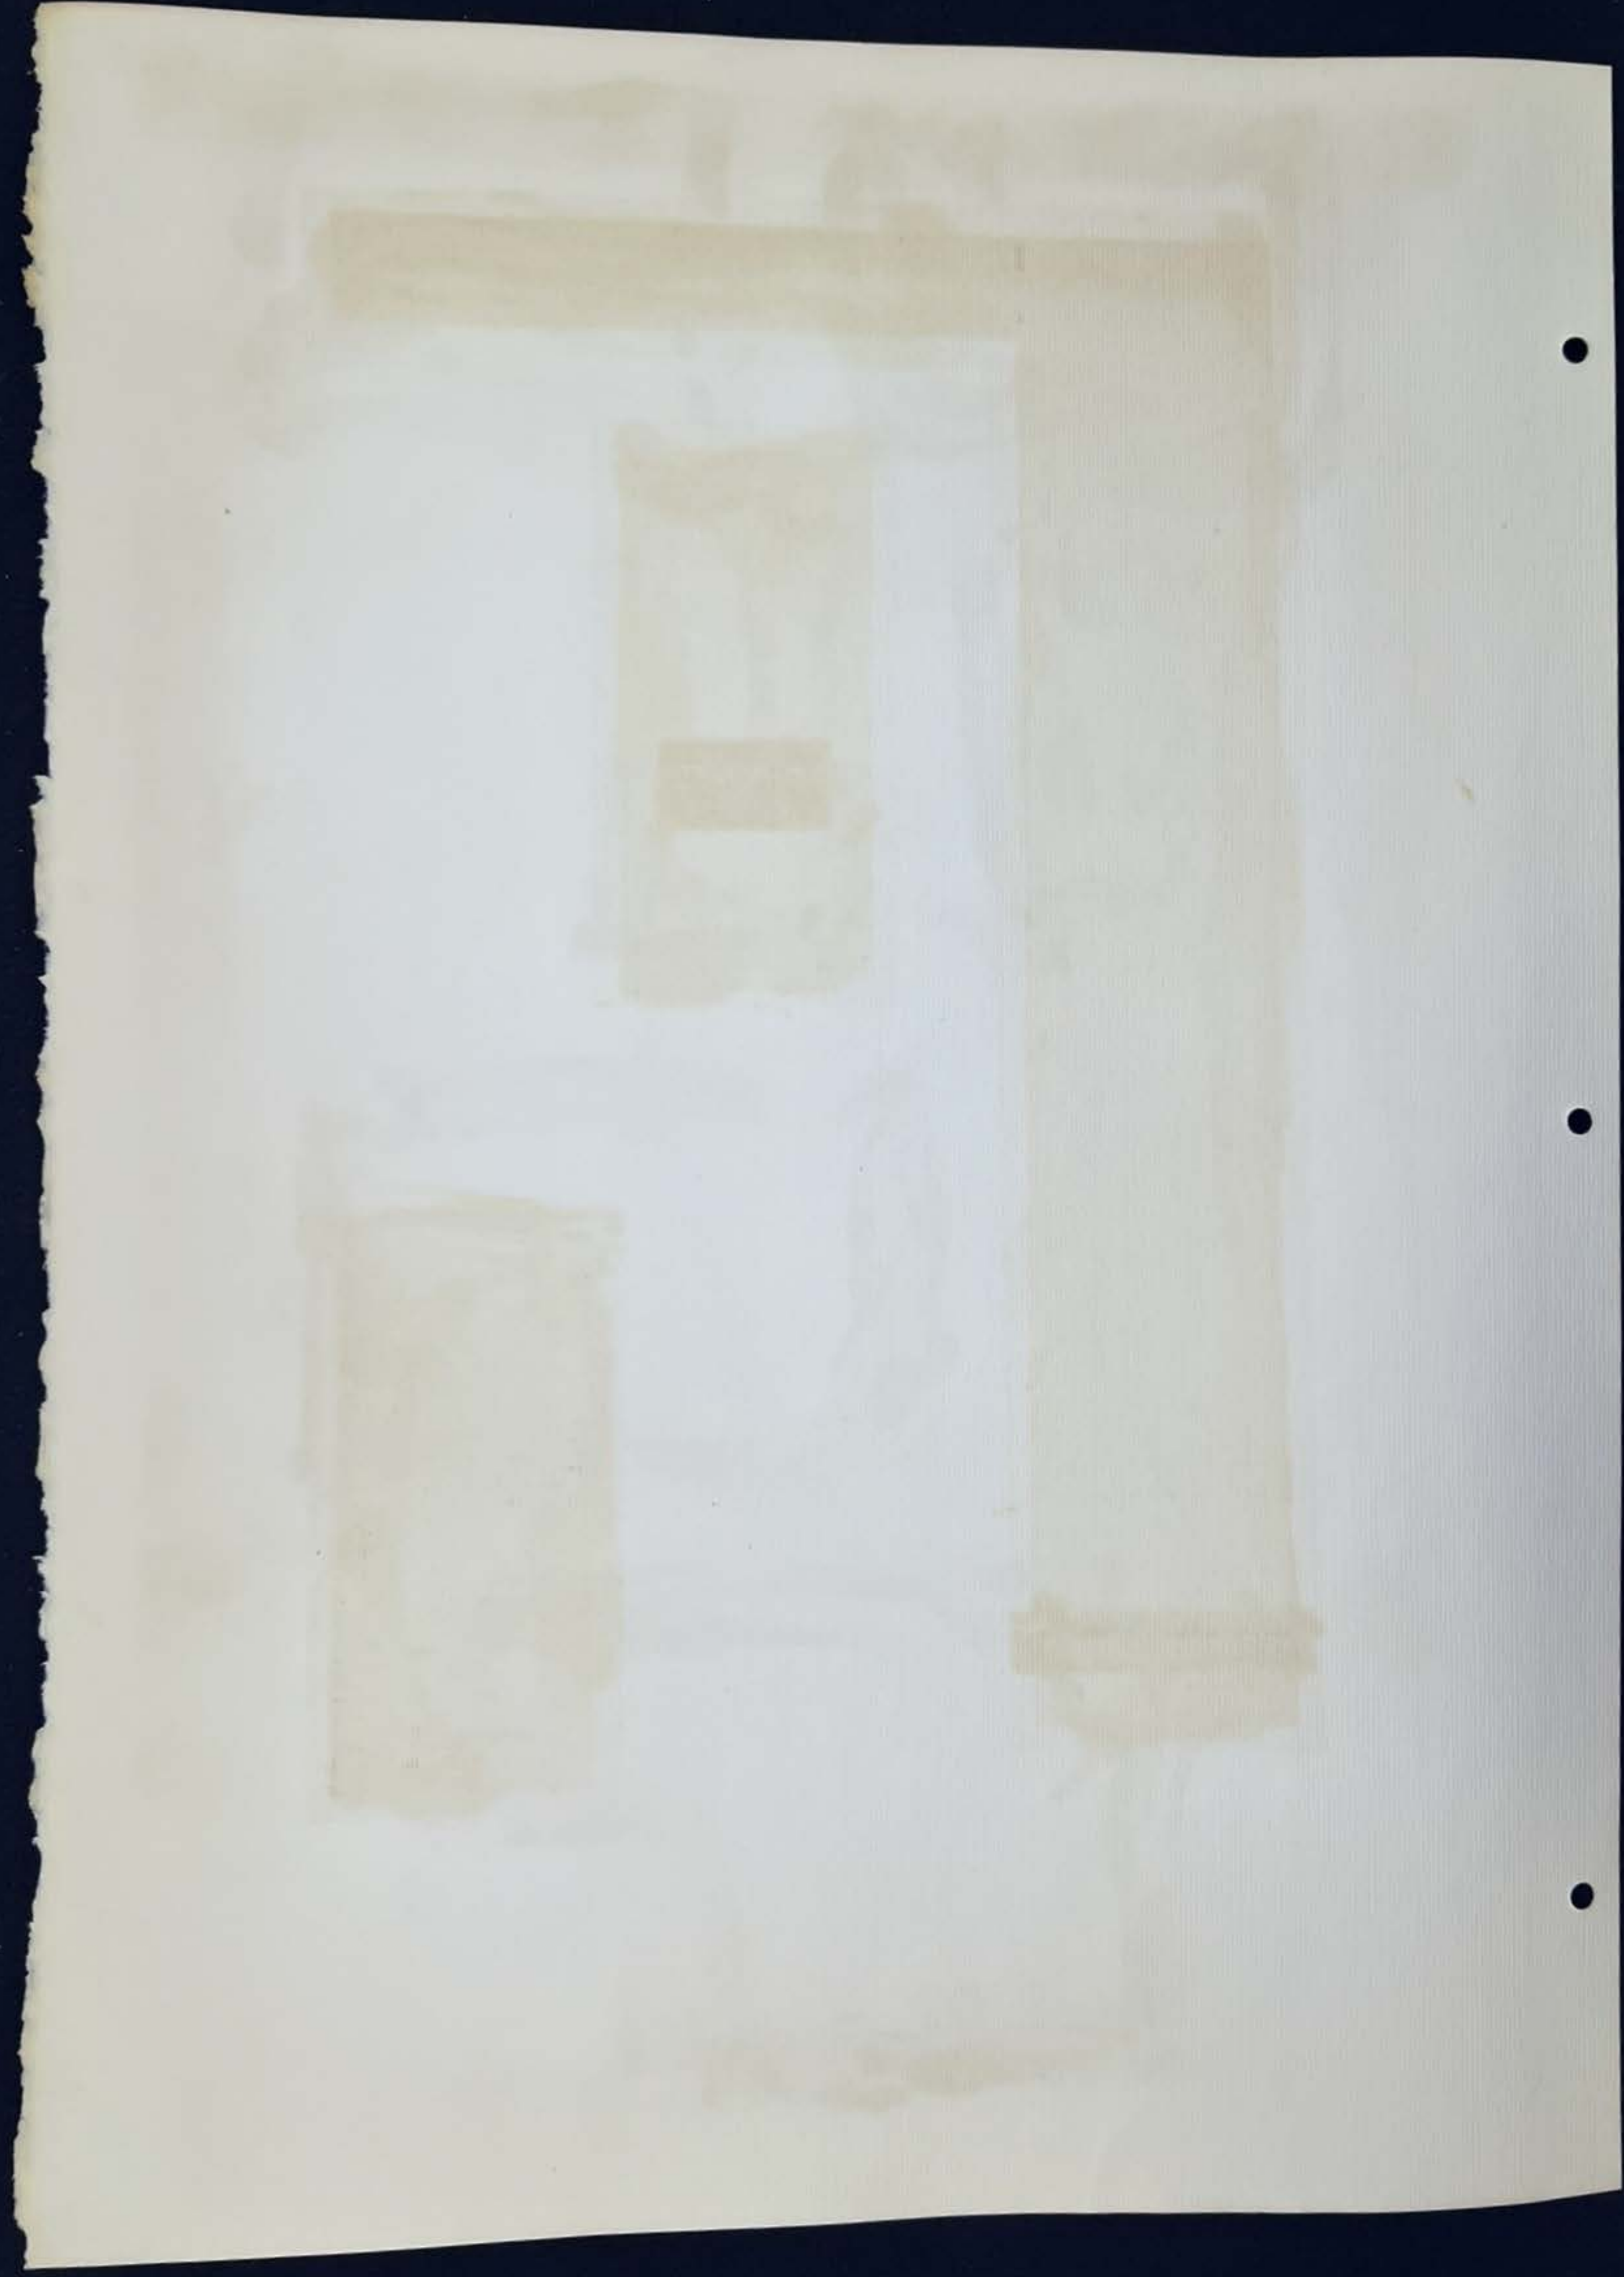

Each area reported that some of the reports of their workers were not completed and will be turned in by first of next week.

Citizens of the three participating towns and Girl Scout friends may still contribute by sending gifts to any of the workers in the areas named above.

Rev. Winberry and Mrs. Nell Young, Girl Scout Executive of Raleigh, each expressed their joy at the results of the drive.

Rev. Winberry was elected as finance chairman for the Franklin County Girl Scouts for the year 1961.

Many Parties Highlight Of Christmas Season For Youngsville Groups

The annual Brownie Scout Christmas Party sponsored by the Youngsville Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon at the Scout Hut with hostesses being Mrs. J. H. Winston, Mrs. J. J. Hart and Mrs. W. R. Evans. Full of the Christmas spirit and amid a setting of holiday decorations, the Brownies participated in a variety of lively games and contests. They also enjoyed singing Christmas Carols. There were refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, cookies and favors of Christmas candy in cups. The serving table was covered with a decorated Christmas cloth which was centered with a holiday arrangement and complimented with candles.

A highlight of the party was the exchanging of Christmas gifts which had been placed under the Christmas tree. Each Brownie received a little gift from the Woman's Club and also from their leaders, Mrs. Doris Young and Mrs. Estelle Pearce who were in attendance for the party. Brownies present were Pam Hart, Donna Sue Privette, Deborah Young, Kathie Cooke, Linda Winston, Johnnie Mat Mitchell, Carol Mitchell, Margaret Potts, Darlene Cash, Linda Stroud, Rhonda Gayle Strickland, Janet and Harriet Pearce.

The Christmas party for the Senior Girl Scouts sponsored by the Woman's Club, was held on Wednesday night at the Hut with hostesses being Mrs. E. M. Mitchell, Mrs. Alice Roberts and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham.

A variety of games and contests were played with prizes of candy and gum awarded to winners. Participating in the party festivities besides the Girl Scouts, were their leader, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake and Chairman of the Troop Committee, Mrs. A. E. Hall. Assistant Leader, Kathleen Croon was unable to attend due to illness, and Troop Committeeman, James Allen is away on the tobacco market.

Refreshments included a variety of sandwiches, drinks, potato chips, Christmas candy, colorful cookies which were cut and decorated as stars, canes, trees, etc. There were favors of china Christmas bells for each guest.

A bright red decorated Christmas cloth covered the serving table which was centered with an arrangement of greenery in a little wooden bucket. The bottled drinks were served from ice filled wooden trays.

Christmas Carols were played as guests had refreshments, and while Christmas gifts were exchanged. The Hut was previously decorated by girls of the Intermediate and Senior Troops. They trimmed a cedar tree with interesting ornaments which they made. An electric candle and painted pine cones were placed in each window. A green Christmas tree wreath festooned with ropes of beads was placed on each door. These decorations will remain throughout the holiday season. A large outdoor tree lights up the grounds outside.

The Intermediate Girl Scout Christmas Party was held on Friday afternoon at the Girl Scout Hut, which was decorated by the scouts for the holiday season. The party was sponsored by the Woman's Club with hostesses being Mrs. Wiley Brown, Mrs. Leon Walters and Mrs. E. R. Tharrington.

The eight scouts present had a lively time playing games, singing Christmas Carols and exchanging gifts.

Refreshments served by the hostesses included a red Christmas punch, fancy cookies, decorated boot and bell open-faced sandwiches, and mints.

Featured on the serving table was a lighted silver Christmas tree. An added attraction on the tree were little rick-rack cane favors for each person. Little combs were presented to the scouts as gifts from their sponsoring organization.

Intermediate Scout leader, Lucy Pearce was unable to attend the party but her co-worker in this troop, Mrs. Millie Brown, was present for the occasion.

Girl Scouts Prepare For Christmas

Youngsville — Girl Scouts of the community are all busy at this holiday season working on Christmas projects. Under the leadership of Mrs. James Young and Mrs. E. J. Pearce the Brownie Scouts are making Yuletide corsages.

The Intermediate and Senior Troops under the direction of Mrs. Lucy Pearce, Millie Brown and Elsie Timberlake are making items to be used in decorating the Scout Hut for the holidays.

The Brownie Scout Christmas Party sponsored by the Woman's Club will be held on Thursday afternoon Dec. 17 at the regular weekly meeting hour. It will be held at the community house instead of the Hut. The Intermediate scouts will have their party at the Hut, with date to be announced later. The Senior Scout Christmas party will be held at the Hut on Wednesday night, Dec. 16th at 8 p. m.

Franklin County Joins Area Group

Title's Derivative Is From Indian Tribe; Board Is Installed

When Franklin county was welcomed into the Wake-Johnston-Wilson Area Girl Scout council at the annual council meeting Thursday night, a new name was officially approved.

Indian Derivative
It is now called the "Nesuiok" Girl Scout council. The name was derived from the Nesuiok Indian tribe who lived in this territory, and in whose honor the Neuse River was named.

Also highlighting the meeting, held in the court room of the Wilson County Court House, was the installation of new members of the Board of Directors. The Rev. R. Murphy Williams, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, chaired the board, those serving in a voluntary capacity, and those in a professional capacity, to work toward the highest quality program for the Girl Scouts.

Board Members
Installed by Mrs. Murphy as new board members were Paul Keller of Clayton, and Connor Vick of Wilson, vice presidents; Colonel Godfrey Cheshire of Raleigh, treasurer; J. F. Babb of Raleigh, finance chairman; Mrs. L. Y. Ballentine of Raleigh, and Lynn Barry of Smithfield, members of the finance committee; W. C. Calton of Raleigh, employed personnel chairman; Mrs. Jack Hooks of Kenly, program committee; and Miss Rebecca Rivers of Raleigh, public relations chairman.

Members - at - large are N. L. Cannady of Clayton, Mrs. P. H. Williams and John Amburn, both of Raleigh, Mrs. L. D. Yancey of Wilson, and Arthur Hall of Youngsville.

Installed new district chairmen were Mrs. Raymond Upchurch of Garner, Mrs. O. H. Roberts of Raleigh, Mrs. Hamilton Hobgood of Louisburg, and Mrs. Robert Daniel of Wilson.

Nominating Committee
Members of the nominating committee are Mrs. Roy C. Coats of Smithfield, William H. Thomas of Wilson, Victor E. Bell Jr., and Mrs. Leif Valand of Raleigh.

W. O. Buie of Smithfield, presided at the council meeting, and called on Ernest Deans Hackney of this city, who recognized those who have served in a volunteer capacity from five to 29 years. He presented pins to those who recently completed five years service.

Captain Jack Brewer awarded certificates to two families chosen "Families of the Year." The families of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson of Raleigh, and Mrs. Bertha Rowe of Smithfield, were honored.

The annual report, in the form of a newspaper, was distributed, which contained articles and pictures showing highlights of the council-wide Girl Scout program during the last year. Mrs. Richardson gave part of the annual report with slides taken during the International Girl Scout Round-Up in Colorado last summer. She provided final training for those girls who attended the round-up, and acted on the staff for the event. Mrs. Yancey gave the invocation Thursday night. Local Scouts conducted a flag ceremony using the American, World and flags of 18 nations.

GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL TAKES IN FRANKLIN COUNTY; ADOPTS NEW NAME, NESUIOK

At the Girl Scout Council's Annual meeting held Thursday night in Wilson, N. C. a new name, Nesuiok was given the Wake-Johnston-Wilson-Franklin Girl Scout Area Council. Mr. Paul Keller, Vice president of the Council stated that the name originated from a small tribe of Indians called the Nesuiok, that settled in this area of North Carolina. The new name NESUIOK was received with great applause.

Mr. W. O. Buie, President of the Council welcomed the many scouts and guests present and extended a cordial and special welcome to Franklin County upon entering the Girl Scout Council.

The Wilson Girl Scouts gave the Flag Ceremony and Mrs. L. B. Yancey, a board member gave the invocation.

One hundred and ten adults were recognized as volunteers who had given five or more years of registered service in scouting. Girl Scout Families of Year Awards were presented to the C. E. Richardson family of Raleigh, and Mrs. Bertha Rowe family of Smithfield.

Elsie Reichenbach, Alice Wilson and Joy Johnson told of their experiences at the Senior Roundup held in Colorado Springs, Colorado, last summer. Slides were also shown of the Roundup.

New officers from Franklin County installed were, Mrs. Hamilton Hobgood and Mr. Arthur Hall.

Those attending from Franklin County were: Mrs. Ruth Pearce, Mrs. Charlie Hight, Mrs. George Best, Mrs. Julia Carr and Mr. Tom East from Franklinton, Mr. & Mrs. Jimmy Allen, Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Hall, Mrs. Willard Timberlake and Mrs. N. A. Brown from Youngsville.

FRANKLIN CO. GIRL SCOUTS JOIN CO'NCIL

Franklin County's Girl Scout organization has been accepted as members of the Wake-Johnston-Wilson Girl Scout council and the name for the group is scheduled to be a new name soon. County Scouting officials are happy to be a part of the council and believe there are many advantages in being a part of a council.

Leadership Training is one of the foremost advantages provided by the council and local scout leaders have long been wanting help in this way. Another big benefit will be in the provision of better camp facilities. There are also many other advantages.

Scout official Mrs. Nell Young, who is head of the Council, was out from Raleigh Friday night for a first meeting with the Franklin County citizens. The meeting was held at the Youngville Scout Hut with those present being citizens who compose the county Steering Committee. They are Mrs. Hamilton Hobgood, Mrs. John Lloyd and Miss Adelaide Johnson of Louisburg; Mrs. Tom East, Mrs. George Best, and Mrs. Julia Carr of Franklinton; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell of Youngville.

Lone Troops Gone: Girl Scouts Join Four County Area Council

"On my Honor, I will try: To do my duty to God and country. To..."

begins the Girl Scout oath that has been taught to the youth of Franklin County in lone troops as far back as 1925 in Louisburg, 1940 in Youngville and 1956 in Franklinton by volunteer leaders in each community.

How little has the general public in these communities been aware of the time spent, and the money and energy consumed by volunteer local citizens in the program of Girl Scouting through these years.

This year 1959 marks the ending of lone troops (and the expression means just that—alone and not receiving benefits from headquarters which knows all the answers) and the joining on a countywide basis with a Council consisting of Johnston, Wake and Wilson Counties. Never again will the girl scouts of Franklin County be in lone troops!

Youngville

In Youngville, Mrs. P. D. Croom served as first leader of a troop in 1940. This group stayed active only a year. In May 1955, Girl Scouting was re-activated there under the sponsorship of the Woman's Club with Mrs. W. C. Timberlake leader and Mrs. P. D. Croom, assistant leader.

Of the six senior scouts who were charter members in 1955, five of them have achieved the Curved Bar Rank, a very high honor in scouting and three are members of Gasowah, Secret Honor Society of the Council.

In 1955, with the Woman's Club as sponsor, Mrs. E. R. Tharrington and Mrs. Matt Reddick organized a Brownie Troop of ten girls. Mrs. Eunice Pearce and Mrs. Doris Young in turn have assisted with this troop. Five of the original ten are now active in the Intermediate Troop, formed in 1958 under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Pearce and Mrs. W. C. Timberlake.

Franklinton

Girl Scouting is comparatively a new undertaking in Franklinton from the standpoint of years of service, but not according to the service rendered the girls.

In early 1956, after months of investigation and planning, members of the Franklinton Woman's Club realized their efforts had culminated in the organization of a Brownie Troop with Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Jr., leader and Mrs. G. A. Webb and Mrs. J. W. Payne assisting; and an Intermediate Troop with Mrs. J. D. Mode leader assisted by Mesdames T. J. McGhee, George Best and W. F. Miller.

In the fall of 1957, Mrs. Charlie Hight, Jr. became leader of the Women, Elizabeth Johnson, a Brownie with Mrs. S. T. Eakes, assistant Mrs. Richard Whitfield, assisted by Mrs. George Best, led the Intermediates. The Senior Troop organized with Mrs. T. J. McGhee but disbanded after a few meetings.

In 1958, the Brownies continued under the leadership of Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Jr.; but the Intermediates discontinued.

Louisburg

Around the years of 1925-26, (so a member relates, the leader not being available for comment) Mrs. James E. Malone organized a troop of Girl Scouts and for a number of years had a very active group.

From her troop years to 1945, little information of girl scouting here is available.

Under the sponsorship of the Louisburg Branch of the American Association of University member of the Branch, organized a troop of Girl Scouts with about 25 members. They were divided into several groups according to age and all meeting at one time worked on problems of interest to them.

In 1947, Mrs. Roger Kornogay, a newcomer to Louisburg, re-activated the troop under the same sponsor, Mrs. Russell Boyd and Mrs. James A. Johnson reorganized Lone Troop 2 in November 1952 with 24 girls and it has continued to be active through the past seven years with different leaders and girls. Some of the leaders were Miss Ruth Cooke, Mesdames R. C. Beck, Jr., W. C. Gretter, Jr., W. G. McFarland, H. H. Hobgood, James Wrenn, Mrs. John T. Lloyd is present leader with 37 girls in her troop.

The Brownie Troop was organized in 1953 with Mrs. H. H. Hob-

be active with Miss Mary Helen Cooper, Mesdames W. C. Gretter, Jr., Collin McKinnis, G. M. Fleming, Ben Foster as leaders. Present leaders are Mesdames John W. King, Charles P. Green and John Cisek. There are 30 girls in the Brownie Troop.

1959

1959 has seen active Girl Scout troops in all three towns with training through work on proficiency badges, community projects and girl scout camping trips.

The October, 1959 Girl Scout Campaign, which begins October 2, will tell the Girl Scout Story to all citizens and ask that each citizen be generous in his support of Girl Scouting toward a richer, stronger, unified program for all girls of scout age.

Girl Scout Council To Meet

WILSON — The annual meeting of the Wake-Johnston-Wilson Girl Scout Council will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Court House.

Dr. Arthur B. Wenger, president of Atlantic Christian College, will speak and install officers. Two families of the year, one white and one Negro, will be announced and Senior Scouts who attended the Colorado Round-Up last summer will tell of their experiences.

The annual report will be given by Harold Creech, member at large from Johnston County. New officers to be installed are Paul Keller of Clayton, vice president; Col. Godfrey, Chesire, Raleigh, treasurer; J. F. Babb, Raleigh, finance chairman; Mrs. L. Y. Ballentine, Raleigh and Lynn Barry, Smithfield, finance committee members; W. C. Calton, Raleigh, employed personnel chairman; Mrs. Jack Hooks, Kenly, program committee chairman; Miss Rebecca Rivers, Raleigh, public Relations chairman.

Members-at-large named to the Council are N. L. Cannaday, Clayton; Mrs. P. H. Williams and John Amburn, Raleigh; Mrs. L. D. Yancey, Wilson; and Arthur Hall, Youngville.

New district chairmen are Mrs. Raymond Upchurch, Garner; Mrs. O. H. Roberts, Raleigh; and Mrs. Hamilton Hobgood, Louisburg. Named to the nominating committee are Mrs. Roy C. Coats, Smithfield; William H. Thomas, Wilson; Victor E. Bell Jr. and Mrs. Leif Volland, Raleigh.

W. O. Buie of Smithfield is Council president.

The Thursday program will include the official welcoming of Franklin County into the Council. Carol Barnes will blow the bugle for Assembly and Taps and Wilson Girl Scouts will present the International Flag Ceremony.

Volunteers who have given five years of service will be recognized.

Scout Leaders Attend Classes

Youngville—Senior Girl Scout leader, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake; Intermediate leaders, Mrs. Ray Pearce and Mrs. N. A. Brown; Brownie leaders, Mrs. Doris Young and Mrs. Estelle Pearce; and Troop consultant, Mrs. Wiley Brown have currently been attending a Leadership Training School for Girl Scout leaders. The meetings have been held on several nights of the past few weeks at the Louisburg Methodist Church with classes being taught by a Council representative out from Raleigh.

Valuable information has been received by county leaders during this training period. On Saturday, April 3, the group will participate in an outing at Fox Park for the purpose of gaining knowledge and experience in outdoor camp life.

Girl Scout Leaders Finish Course

Adult volunteers who are working with Girl Scouts in Franklinton, Louisburg and Youngville completed a 22 hour basic leadership training course Tuesday evening, April 12th in a meeting at the Youngville Girl Scout Hut.

Miss Carolyn Lehman, Girl Scout Director for Wake and Franklin Counties, taught the course which included every type of work needed in leading Scout troops. The outdoor part of the course was at Fox Park near Louisburg on Saturday, April 9th, with Mrs. J. W. Chalfante, Camping and outdoor crafts instructor, and Miss Lehman directing activities.

This is the first Girl Scout leadership course to be given in Franklin County. A similar course will be given in Raleigh beginning April 19th for leaders from any of the four counties which make up the Neuseok Council Franklin Johnson, Wake and Wilson.

Attending the course were Mrs. Julia Carr, Mrs. Charlie Hight and Mrs. Marjorie Johnson from Franklinton; Mrs. Archie Brown, Mrs. Wiley Brown, Mrs. Ray Pearce, Mrs. Jones Pearce, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake and Mrs. James Young of Youngville; Mrs. Jones Beasley, Mrs. D. M. Buchanan, Mrs. Frank Gantt, Mrs.

Charles P. Green, Mrs. H. H. Hobgood, Misses Adelaide and Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. J. W. King, Mrs. John T. Lloyd and Miss Gertrude Winston.

Franklin County presently has three Brownie, three Intermediate and one Senior Girl Scout troop with 137 girls participating in the Scouting program. Mrs. Thomas F. East, Franklinton, is Neighborhood Chairman for Franklin County and anyone desiring to start new troops should contact her.

Gahsowah Is New Girl Scout Name

By BETTY HAMBLETON

Levine, Catherine McAuley, Joy Moore, Nancy Morris, Ruth Niverson, Mary Helen Ragsdale and Marilyn Timberlake.

Gahsowah is a new name in Girl Scouts, originated by the senior girl scouts of Neusiok Council who are the first in the entire world to organize and put into action the Order of Gahsowah. Senior Girl Scouts who have the Curved Bar or its equivalent are eligible for membership. This makes it one step beyond the highest award in girl scouting.

It all started two years ago at the Girl Scout Camp when a group of senior girls wanted to share and broaden the skills they had learned in camping and outdoor craft as requirements for the curved bar. The additional experience and knowledge gained through Gahsowah activities will undoubtedly have much bearing on their future professional lives as camp leaders, botanists, zoologists, veterinarians, homemakers and parents.

The name is an Indian derivation but the true significance is known only to members of the Order of Gahsowah. The emblem is a triangle with a feather in the middle and the three angles marked "goal, Give, Girl." The initiation or tapping is a stately and moving ceremony and takes place around an evening campfire. The girls in white and gold Indian ceremonial dress graphically interpret the words of the beautiful "Dakota Hymn."

This last weekend the members held a camping session at Camp Mary Atkinson where the members worked for their junior licensing which will enable them to take new and younger scout groups camping. Two licensed members will accompany an adult leader on camping trips. These girls are really skilled in camp craft and their presence on over night camping trips will be sincerely welcomed by troop leaders.

Membership has increased rapidly since the organization of the group. The charter members were: Nell Barden, Terry Brock, Beth Cheatham, Alice Ely, Pattie Hildebrand, Lib Holland, Sarah Langston, Debbie

Scouts Participate In Tapping Ceremony

Youngsville—Senior Girl Scout Marilyn Timberlake, Terry Brock and Beth Cheatham joined with other members of the Order of the Gasowah of the Wake-Johnson-Wilson Council, on Tuesday, for a camp-out. The group met at Camp Mary Atkinson where they immediately started preparing for a tapping ceremony which was held later in the evening for new members accepted into the society.

After the impressive ceremony the girls went into the Girl Scout Hut at Smithfield to spend the night as the weather was too cold for sleeping outside. In the words of one of the scouts "we had a real blast". The girls returned home on Wednesday.

Youngsville Scouts Publish Paper

Youngsville—At a meeting at the Girl Scout Hut Saturday afternoon, the Senior Girl Scouts completed the first edition of their very own newspaper, "The Cro-Al-Ha News," which was immediately circulated around the community and sold for a small fee. The purpose of this new project is to keep the townspeople acquainted with Scout activities of the Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Troops. It also gives the Senior Troops. It also gives the Scouts opportunity for new training experiences.

The local Woman's Club sponsors all the Troops, but the older girls are trying to be self-supporting financially and they are hoping that their new project will prove to be profit-making and thereby assist in their aims. A ditto machine is being used for printing. Besides activity reports, the paper has interesting bits of news scattered here and there. Citizens are urged to support the girls in their new venture.

IRL SCOUT WEEK

observance of National Girl Scout Week, Youngsville Girl Scouts and their leaders attended church service at the Christian Church on Sunday morning.

Rev. E. M. Carter officiated at the service.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Scheduled

Franklinton (B.W.) — The first county wide Girl Scout Cookie Sale will begin Friday, February 5 and continue through February 13 according to Mrs. Tom East, district chairman.

Advance orders will be taken in February but the cookies will not be delivered until March. No money will be collected until the cookies are delivered. There will be four kinds of cookies sold for 50c a box. A certain per cent of the money will be used in the troops while part will be used to supplement the Troop and Council Budget.

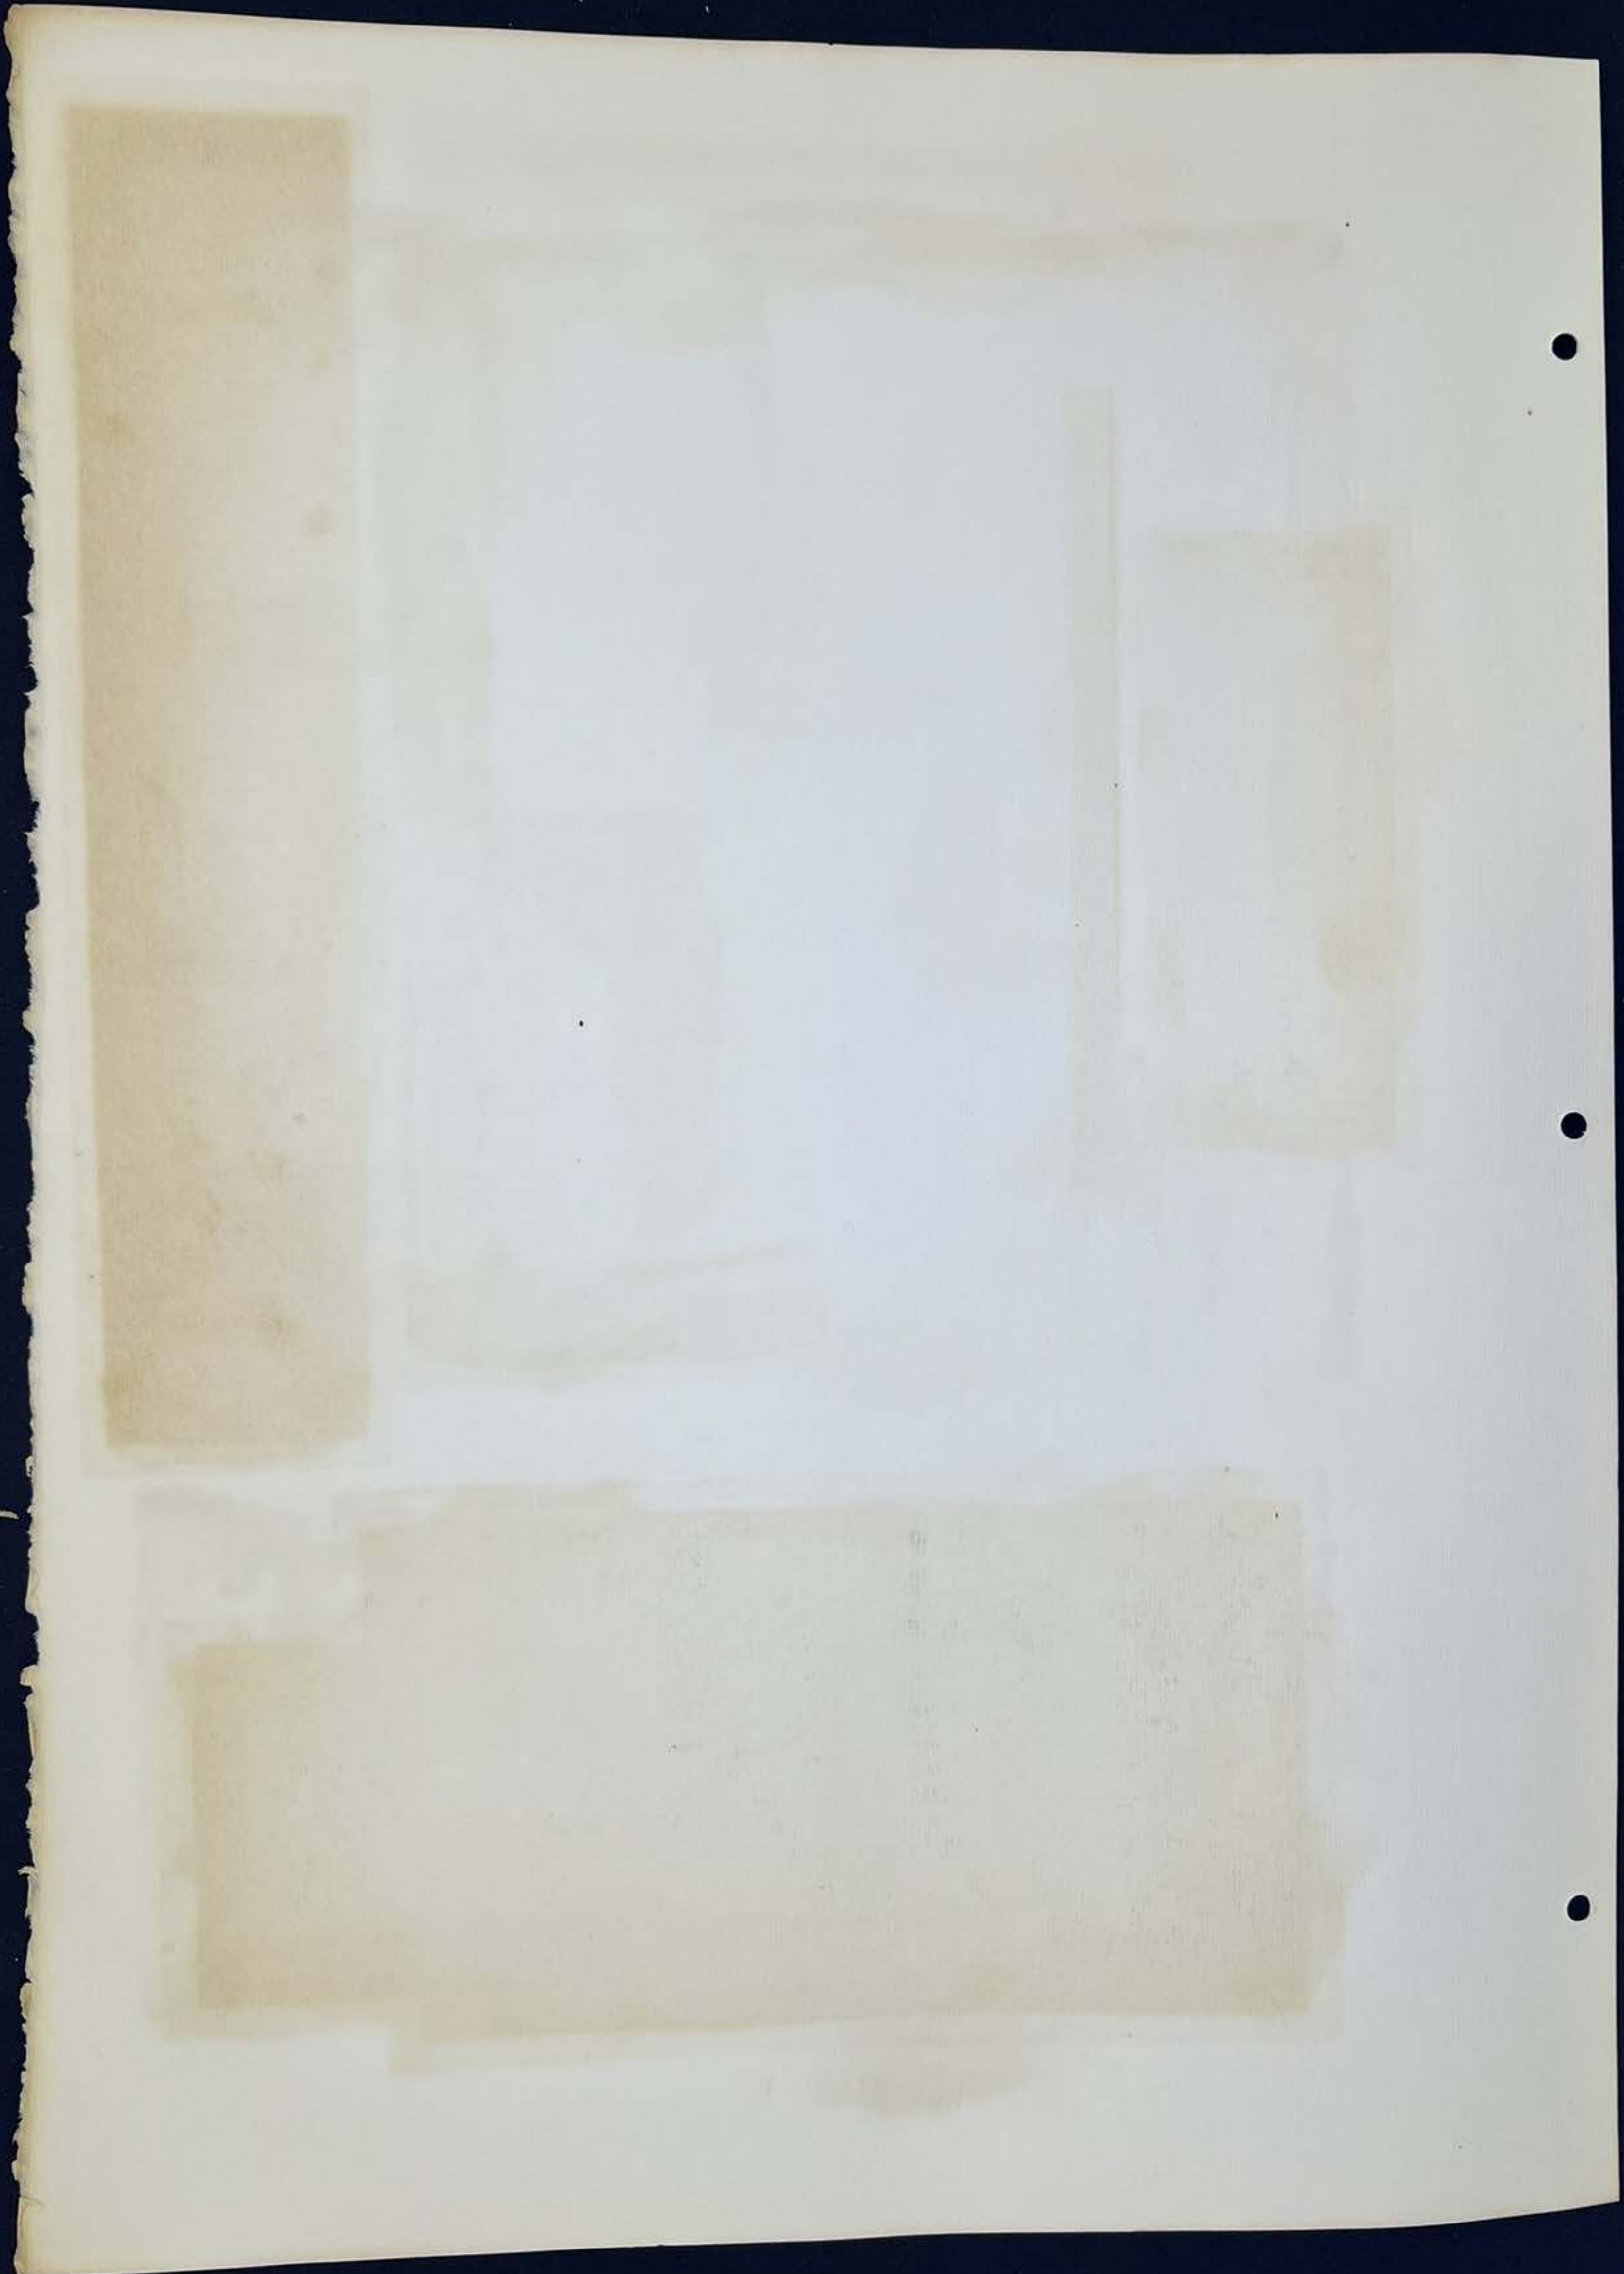

Mrs. East has secured the following leaders to assist with the sale: Mrs. J. T. Lloyd—Louisburg chairman as well as Girl Scout Chairman. Mrs. John King—Brownie Troop Chairman; Mrs. A. E. Hall—Youngsville Chairman, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake—Senior Girl Scout Chairman, Mrs. Lucy Rogers—Intermediate Scout Chairman, Mrs. Doris Young—Brownie Chairman; Mrs. East—Franklinton Chairman, Mrs. Charlie Hight, Jr.—Girl Scout Chairman and Mrs. W. P. Pearce, Jr.—Brownie Chairman; Mrs. Doris Baldwin—Franklin County Training School Chairman.

Plans Announced For Scout Week

Youngsville—Girls of the local Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Troops are making plans to participate in Girl Scout Week which begins on Sunday. They will observe Scout Sunday on March 6th by attending church services together at the Christian church.

The older Scouts have some activity planned for each day of the week, if not together, then individually. The week will be climaxed on Saturday with a cook-out held at the Girl Scout Hut.

Scout leaders and officials of the county were in Louisburg Monday night to attend the first Neighborhood Associational Meeting held in the county. These promise to be very helpful to Scouting in this area. Local citizens who were in attendance were Mesdames W. C. Timberlake, Ray Pearce, N. A. Brown, James Young, E. J. Pearce, Wiley Brown, R. E. Cheatham, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allen, A. E. Hall.

Youngsville Scouts Prepare For Dedication

Youngsville—Local Girl Scouts, along with others throughout the Council, are preparing for the dedication of the Girl Scout Headquarters building for Wake-Johnston-Franklin Counties (NeusioK Council), which will be held on Sunday afternoon May 15, at 745 Hillsboro Street, Raleigh. The building will be open from 2:30 on. There will be a band concert at 3 o'clock, and the actual dedication begins at 3:30. The public is most cordially invited.

It is hoped that many friends of Scouting in Youngsville will attend the ceremonies. Girl Scouts and their leaders will be participating at that time.

During recent weeks Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mrs. Wiley Brown have served in the Council Committee, making plans for the big event.

Senior Scouts have helped by assisting in preparing a Girl Scout Chest Wishbook which will contain Scout wishes and aims of various girls from troops all over the council. The Seniors have also been busy in making ready one of the rooms in the building to be dedicated.

Girl Scouts Participate In Bldg. Dedication

Franklin County Girl Scouts and their leaders participated Sunday afternoon in the dedication of the newly acquired Girl Scout building of the NeusioK Council on Hillsboro Street Raleigh.

The NeusioK Council which is composed of Wake, Johnston, Wilson and Franklin counties is acquiring the building through the generosity of Miss Ruth Wilson of Raleigh, an ardent Girl Scout worker.

Various troops in the council have taken upon themselves the task of cleaning, painting and decorating rooms of the building, getting them in readiness for the dedication program.

Franklinton and Louisburg scouts and leaders cleaned and painted the back porch and patio where Mrs. H. H. Hobgood and Betty Hobgood presided during the tour of the building. Assisted by Mr. James Allen of the Youngsville Troop committee, the senior troop there fixed up a room in the basement to be used as a dark-room.

The Franklin County District was in charge of the making of the Wishin' Chest Scrapbook presented at dedication and presided over by Judy Pearce of Youngsville and Margaret Weston of Franklinton. Marilyn Stewart of Louisburg presented the sheets of wishes from Franklin County.

A formal dedication program was held just in front of the building on Hillsboro street with flag raising, color advance, pantomimes of the history of a scout, graduation of seniors and song.

Scouts from Franklin County present at the program were: Youngsville — Ruth Ann Walton, Rachel Pearce, Debbie Brown, Janice Pearce, Mitzie Tharrington Kay Hall, Beth Cheatham and Judy Pearce. Louisburg — Marilyn Stewart and Beth Johnson; Franklinton — Mary Gordon East, Mary Pat Westler, Jean Weston and Margaret Weston.

Adults attending from the County were Mrs. H. H. Hobgood, Betty Hobgood, Mrs. Paul Stewart, Miss Gertrude Winston, Misses Adelaide and Elizabeth Johnson of Louisburg; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas East and Mrs. Julia Carr of Franklinton; and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, Mrs. Millie Brown, Mrs. Cicille Brown, Mrs. Luey Pearce, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake and Mrs. Robert Cheatham of Youngsville.

Troop Scoops Dedication

By BETTY HAMBLETON

The most perfect afternoon imaginable was presented to the NeusioK Girl Scout Council for the dedication of their headquarters. Against a background of massed flags Old Glory was raised to wave under a brilliant blue sky. It was a beautiful and moving ceremony.

It will be interesting, five or ten years from now, to read the wishes that each troop deposited in the Wishin' Chest. The chest was made by the troops in the Smithfield District.

With the singing of "The Blessing of the House" the Tween Age Scouts cast garlands of flowers from the windows, symbolic of the ever living faith and growth of Girl Scouts.

The Reverend John Cobb gave the Invocation, the welcome was extended by Jim Reid, the history of the NeusioK Girl Scout Council was presented by W. O. Buie and the Benediction pronounced by the Reverend D. N. Howard.

The Raleigh High School Band presented a delightful half hour of music preceding the formal program.

The interior of the house was truly a revelation of what energy, interest, and good taste can accomplish. Each room had been taken by a neighborhood or troop to renovate and each was sparkling, fresh and attractive. Even the rooms in the basement had been cleaned and brightened to provide working space. Mrs. Ivan Jones guided the work.

The Blessing of the House

God bless this House from thatch to floor,
And they who enter at the door.

Blessed let them be.

See how our window is throwing a light,
Lovely and tall with a flame lily white?

Let the whole of the world grow bright.

See how our table with food is spread,
Apples and honey and grapes and bread?

Let the whole of the world be fed.

See how our hearth is quickened and warm
To comfort the traveler out of the storm?

Let the whole of the world be saved from harm.

God bless this house and at this door,
Let every girl leave garlands gay.
Though some are near and some are far,
Yet somehow all are here today.
Thousands of girls are gathered here,
The daughters of the house are they;
And they bring honor, they bring truth,
And the high chivalry of youth--
And they bring dreams--Then let us pray.

To Thee, O Lord, we consecrate this House,
And we do dedicate the life we spend in it to thee.
Thy blessing on our work we ask,
The beauty of our common task, Lord let us see.

God bless this house from thatch to floor,
And they who enter at the door,
Blessed let them be.

Written for the Girl Scouts by Anna Hempstead Branch, and used traditionally for the dedication of Girl Scout houses.

Rules Stated For Youngsville Teen-Age Club

Youngsville — The Youngsville Teen-Age Club had their regular meeting at the Community House on Saturday night. With several new members joining the club now, and also as a reminder to old members and parents, it seems well at this time to re-state the policies of the teen club.

This youth club was organized by the Youngsville Woman's Club solely for the purpose of clean supervised recreation for teenagers of our community. Because of the particularly fine cooperation of the young people who are members, and the cooperation of the chaperones, the club is having a very successful year. The 27 rules and regulations which govern the operation of the club are being well observed.

Copies of rules are given to each member upon joining and parents have been asked to acquaint themselves with these rules. Examples of the regulations are: Members must show membership cards at each meeting; they must come promptly at eight o'clock and leave promptly at ten; members are not to go out of the community building for any reason before ten, unless special permission is granted by chaperones in attendance; there will be no smoking or any misconduct. Members may be warned only twice of the breaking of a rule and then their membership card will be taken. The Woman's Club is happy to report that no cards have had to be taken up this year.

Mrs. W. C. Timberlake is Chairman of the Chaperone Committee which includes Mesdames A. E. Hall, Wiley Brown, R. E. Cheatham, J. H. Parrish, Ray Pearee, James Smith and A. N. Corpening. Two of these women chaperone at each teenage club meeting.

Young people of the community are invited to join the club upon reaching the age of thirteen. Meetings are held on the second and fourth Saturday nights in each month at the community building.

Teen-Age Club

TEEN-AGE CLUB RULES

1. The Teen-age Club is organized solely for the purpose of nice clean supervised recreation for teen-agers of our community under the sponsorship of the Youngsville Woman's Club.
2. The Teen-age Club will be self-supporting.
3. The Woman's Club Committee will consist of six women who are dedicating their time and efforts for the betterment of the community in supervising our young people of today.
4. There will be at least two chaperones at each meeting, at least one representative from the Woman's Club.

Christmas Party Planned For Teens

Youngsville—The Teenage Club met at the community house Saturday night with Mrs. James Smith and Mrs. W. C. Timberlake in attendance as chaperones; and with a good group of young people present.

Announcement was made that the annual Christmas Party for the teenage club members would be held on Saturday night, December 12 at the community house from 8 to 10 p. m.

The party will be again sponsored by the Woman's Club with the hostesses this year being Mrs. W. F. Mitchell and Mrs. B. H. Patterson. Members of the Woman's Club teenage committee will also be in attendance. The party will be semi-formal.

Teen Yule Party Held In Youngsville

Youngsville—Teenagers seemed to be very appropriately in a festive mood for their annual Christmas party which was held at the community house Saturday night. Glowing Christmas tree lights, candles and gay Yuletide decorations provided a holiday atmosphere for the occasion. There were several out of town guests in attendance.

The party was sponsored by the Woman's Club with Mrs. B. H. Patterson and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell as hostesses. They provided refreshments which included a variety of sandwiches, potato chips, cake squares iced in white and decorated in red and green, and red punch garnished with an ice ring filled with green cherries. The serving table was covered with a green cloth and decorated with a pair of three tiered brass candelabrum holding red twist tapers. Greenery and red berries were also used.

Recorded Christmas Carols were played as young people were served refreshments.

Several members of the Woman's club teenage committee who were in attendance to assist in chaperoning were Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, Mrs. Ray Pearce, Mrs. Arthur Hall, Mrs. A. N. Corpening and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham. Dr. A. N. Corpening was in for part of the evening and took pictures of the young people as they danced.

Youngsville Teens Make TV Appearance

Youngsville—The Youngsville Teenagers had a lively evening Saturday when they went over to Durham for the Top Ten Dance Party. Those who participated were Donnie Wheeler and Jean Timberlake, Patsy Jones and Barney Paschal, Kay Griffin and Randy Griffin, Tom Parrish and Terry Brock, F. C. Winston, Jr., and Kay Hall, David Brown and Beth Cheatham, Glen Hill and Judy Pearce, Sandra Wheeler and Gordon Layton, Betty Jo Rodgers and Larry Wiggins, Gary Carter and Gay Morris, Freddy Wheeler and Marilyn Timberlake, Alice Smith and Sid Smith, Wright Young and Barbara Keith, John Parrish and Phillis Daniel.

It was quite interesting for the young people to be on the program and also to see and meet the well known guest stars there, who were the recording artists Johnny and Santo.

The group stopped to dine out before returning home. They were chaperoned by the members of the Woman's club teenage committee, which is headed by Mrs. W. C. Timberlake. The adults who went were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, Mrs. Wiley Brown, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. John Henry Parrish, Mrs. Thelma Hall and Mrs. Timberlake.

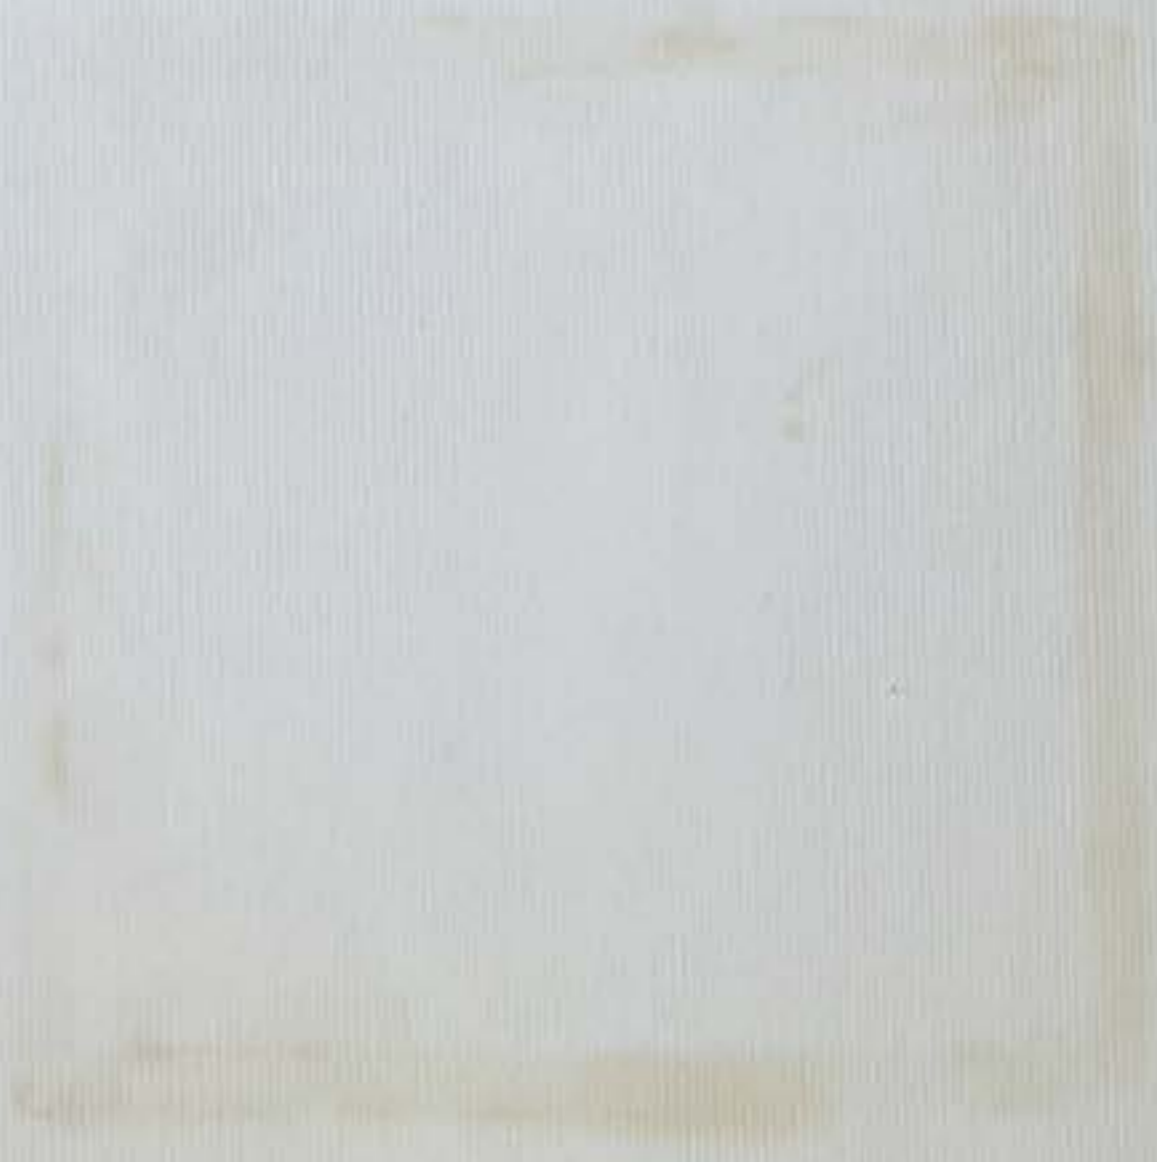

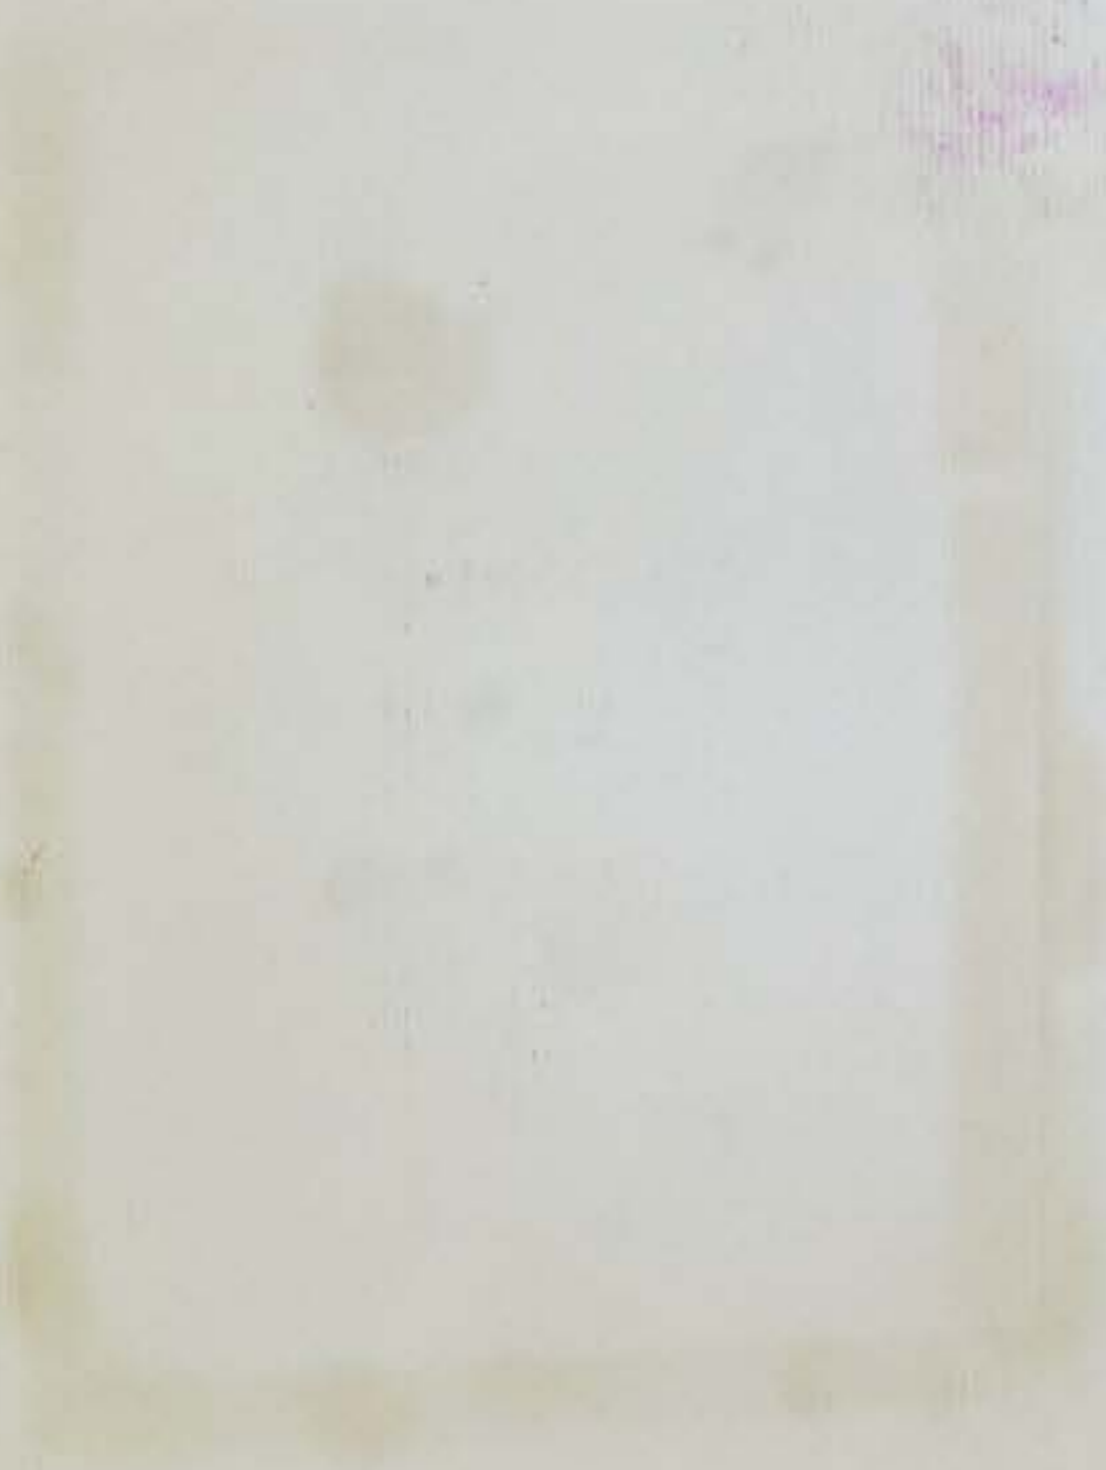

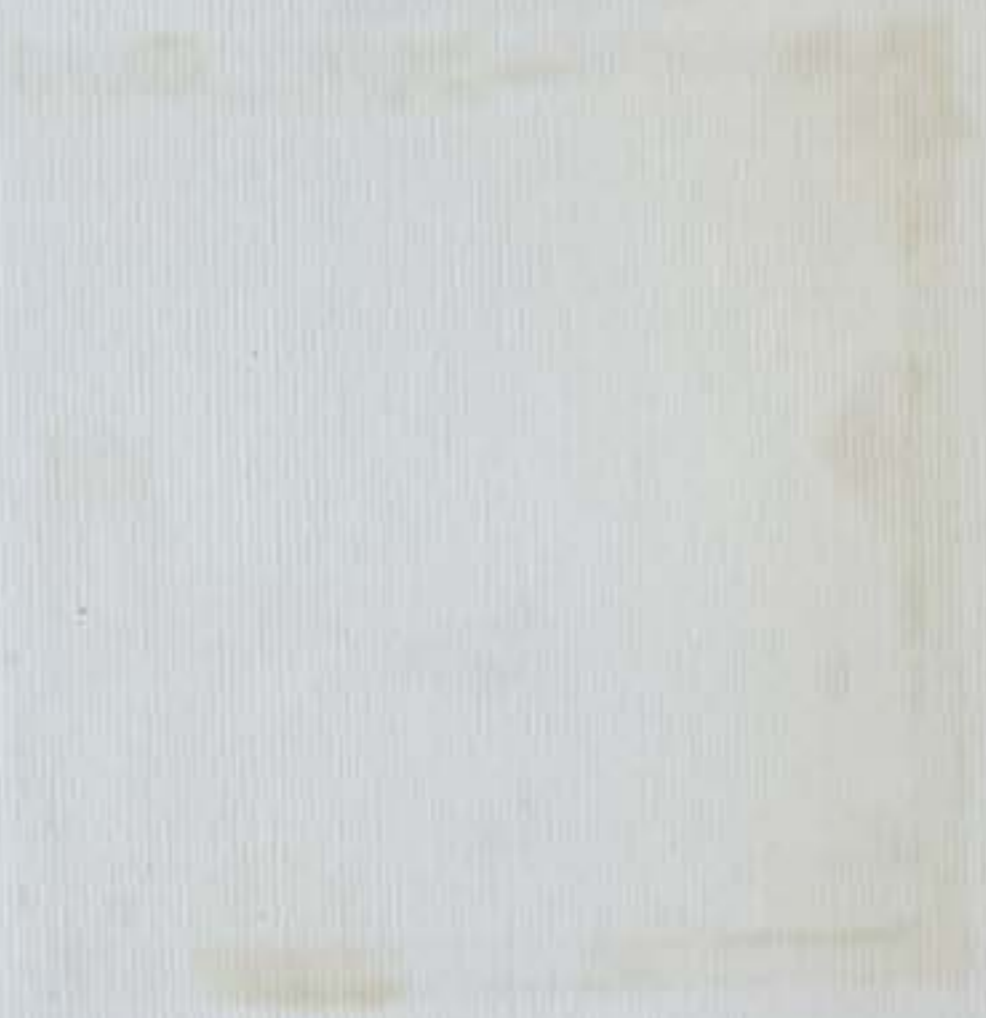

Youngsville Teenagers Plan TV Appearance

Youngsville—Mrs. A. E. Hall, President of the Youngsville Woman's Club which sponsors the Teenage Club, was in attendance to chaperone the teen group at their regular meeting Saturday night.

During a business session Mrs. Hall talked with the teenage club members about plans for them to appear on the Top Ten Dance Party on Saturday, October 17. Arrangements for this appearance have been made by committee chairman, Mrs. W. C. Timberlake.

Club members who were present Saturday night were: Tommy Hill, Gordon Layton, Freddie Wheeler, Glenn Hill, Kay Hall, Betty Jo Rogers, Alice Smith, Faye Wheeler, Judy Pearce, Gay Morris, Sid Smith, Barbara Wilder, and Bill Green. Others present who have not yet joined were Joyce Hill, Ella Jean Timberlake, Brenda Strother, Judy Murphy. Attendance was off at this meeting as there were other activities in town that night.

Mrs. Ray Pearce assisted in chaperoning.

Teens To Have Party

Youngsville — Teenage club members are reminded of their special party to be held at the community building on Saturday evening, June 11 from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. All club members are urged to be in attendance for this special celebration. Guests of club members are being invited by invitation only.

All members of the Woman's Club teenage committees who have been serving as chaperones during the past year, will be in attendance for this event. Teenage committees are busily engaged in preparations for the party.

Teens Have Musical Season's End Party

A musical theme was used at the annual end-of-the-season party for the Youngsville Teenage Club on Saturday, June 11. The club is sponsored by the Youngsville Woman's Club and operates on a June to June basis. Meetings will continue twice monthly throughout the summer.

Billy Shearon's Dance Band composed of Billy at the drums, Frank Swett on the base violin and Walt Barnes, guitar provided lively music for the dance. They were seated in a "band box" of green and white ruffled streamers.

Musical instruments and records combined with ivy, gardenias and white candles decorated the room. A delicious variety of refreshments were served to the approximately 50 young people including guests from Franklinton, Wake Forest and Louisburg.

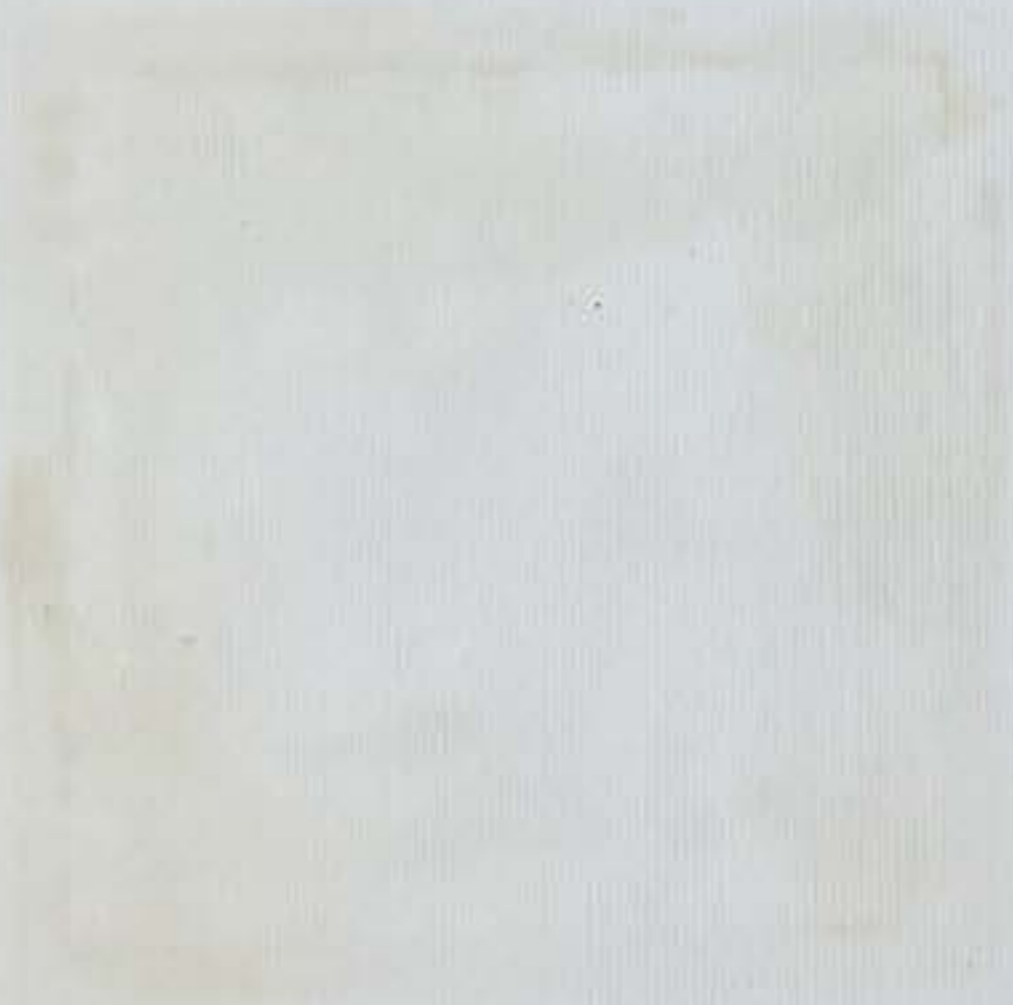

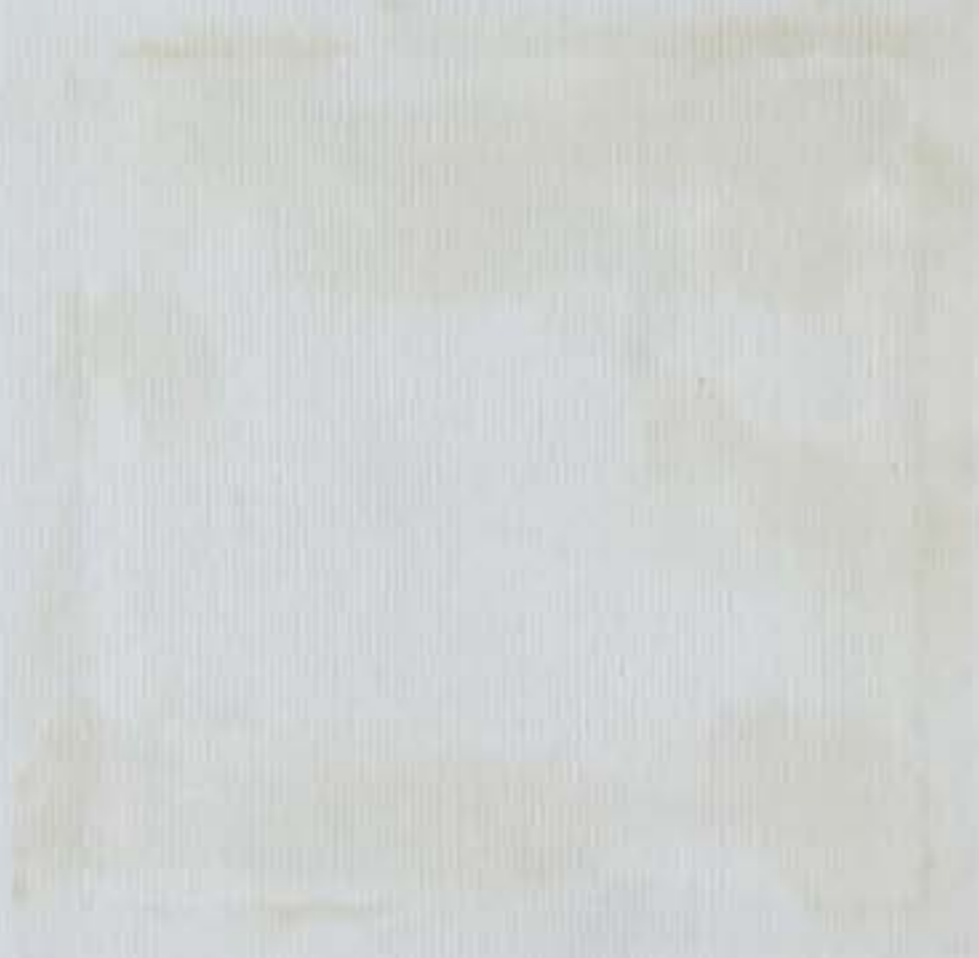

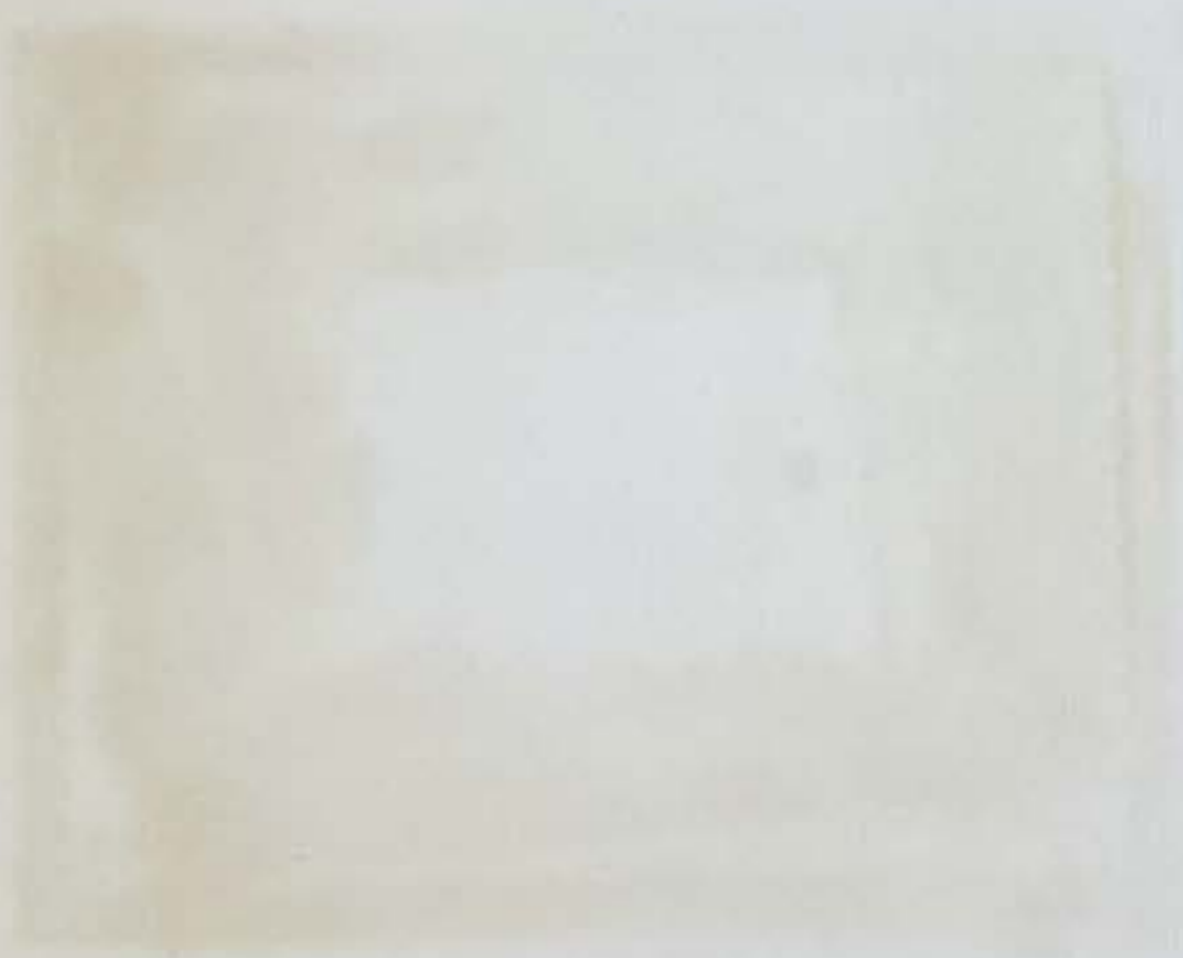

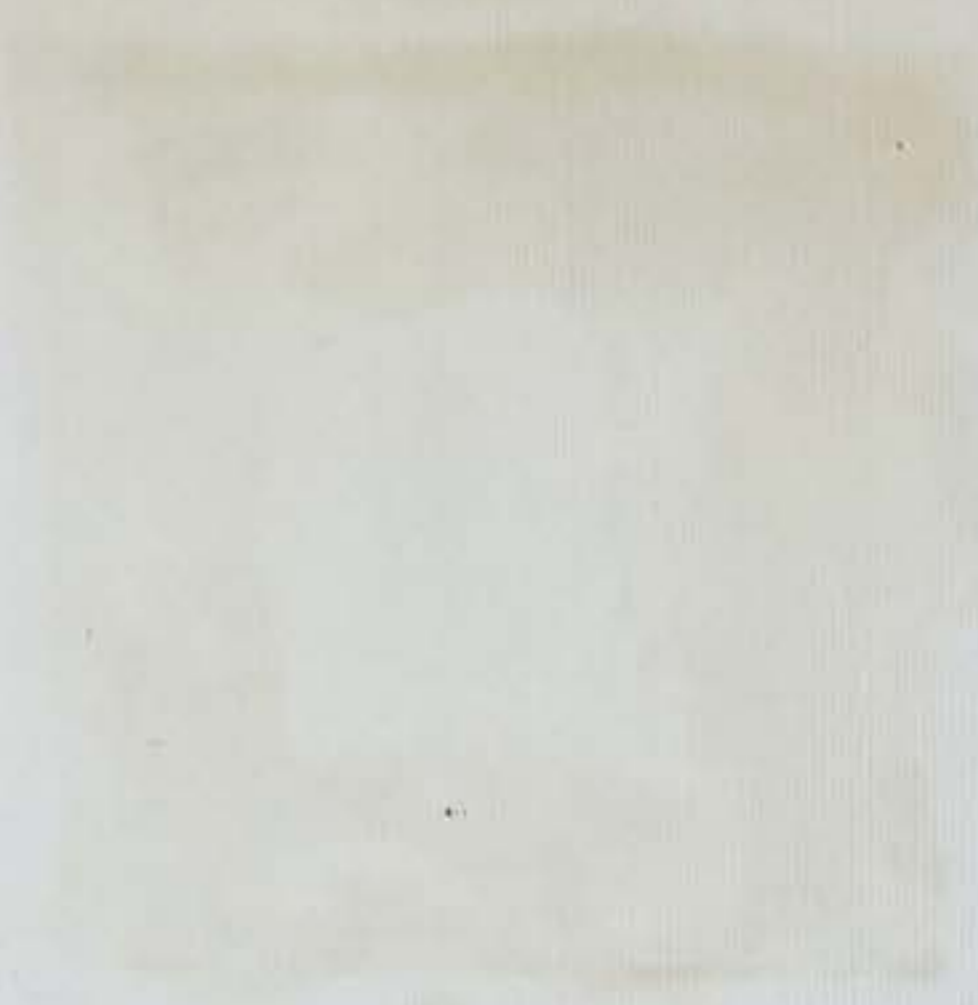

Woman's Club chaperones who have served during the past year were recognized and presented with gifts from the teenagers. They were Mesdames W. C. Timberlake, A. E. Hall, W. R. Pearce, James Smith, R. E. Cheatham, J. H. Parrish, Wiley Brown and A. N. Corpening.

During the evening votes were cast for a queen for the party and chosen for this honor was Miss Marilyn Jo Timberlake. She was presented a bouquet of red roses. Miss Alice Smith was runner-up. Pictures were taken of the two girls. Other pictures were made of the teenagers during the party.

Mrs. Hall Holds Business Session

President of the Youngsville Woman's Club, Mrs. A. E. Hall, held an Executive meeting at her home on Wednesday night with a number of Board members in attendance to consider some urgent items of business. Members voted to cooperate with Finance Chairman, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington in a final fund raising campaign for this club year.

The sponsorship of several projects in relation to community house improvements were discussed. The local Lions club and the Woman's club have decided to be co-purchasers of an electric stove for the kitchen. It is to be installed immediately. It is hoped that other improvements will also be made soon.

The club plans to have entrants in the Woman's Club District Music Festival to be held in March. Mrs. R. F. Potts and Mrs. A. N. Corpening will be in charge and will probably have a chorus and a vocal entry in the contest.

Care

Woman's Club Adopts CARE Project

An executive meeting of the Youngsville Woman's Club was held Wednesday night at the home of President Mrs. A. E. Hall for the purpose of discussing some immediate business and also to consider preliminary plans for various Christmas projects.

Members voted to participate, along with the thousands of other General Federation clubs throughout the nation, in observing "Count Your Blessings Week." They will "Count Blessings" by sending Thanksgiving aid through CARE. This Thanksgiving project is an activity in support of the GFWC-CARE campaign to provide self-help packages for greater opportunities to people in underdeveloped countries. It was suggested by Miss Chloe Gifford, President of the General Federation of Women's Club, after a world tour when she and members of the Federation visited areas supported by the CARE projects. In North Carolina, clubs have identified their interests with Greece as their program. The local club will have its devotional period at the November meeting as a ceremony in observance of this project, with an offering being also taken at that time.

Announcement was made of a new district Art Award to be presented this year. Mrs. Reddick, who has recently been appointed Fine Arts Chairman for the local club, reported that announcement would be made at the regular club meeting this month of plans for a club activity in relation to her department.

Board members present for this meeting were Mesdames J. T. Allen, W. C. Timberlake, E. M. Mitchell, J. H. Parrish, J. K. Tharrington, J. T. Moss, H. H. Reddick, J. W. Weathers, Jr., J. W. Weathers, Sr., R. E. Cheatham, G. E. Winston, W. F. Mitchell, and Mrs. Hall.

Citizens of the community are asked to remember that the Women's Club will be selling fruit cakes again this year as one of their fund raising projects. They will be here in plenty of time for the holiday season.

Women's Clubs To Aid Home

The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs has adopted a home full of boys!

Quite literally, the Federation adopted the Boys' Home of Lake Waccamaw as a new state-wide project at the Council-Institute last June and Mrs. Harold Orringer of New Bern is serving as state chairman. "This project," says Mrs. Orringer, "will enable our club members to share in meeting the needs of the neglected or under-privileged boys who have found shelter at the Boys' Home."

The Boys' Home at Lake Waccamaw depends solely on the support of individuals and groups such as the Woman's Club since it receives no state or federal funds. The boys living there are between the ages of 10 and 16. They are boys from broken homes, boys whose parents have neglected them, boys with special problems, but not delinquents. They are given the best advantages possible in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Of particular interest to clubwomen is the fact that this is a "moneyless" project for them that will mean actual cash to the Boys' Home. Clipping, saving, turning in coupons and labels from household projects is the only requirement. Each local club is to have a "coupon chairman" who will collect and pass the coupons to the state chairman. The products carrying coupons which will be honored for the Boys Home are Borden's Silver Cow Evaporated Milk and Magnolia Condensed Milk, Rival Dog and Cat Food, Luzianne Coffee and Tea, Limit Liquid Starch, Octagon Soap and Detergent, Calumet Baking Powder, Austex Canned Meats, Jet Dog and Cat Food, Mrs. Filbert's Margarine and Salad Products, Skinner's Macaroni and Raisin Bran Cereal.

Story of Art Museum Told

Robert Lee Humber

History

"One thing is significant about the formation of the North Carolina Museum of Art . . . and that is the way it was born . . . a new approach was made. A bill was introduced for the State of North Carolina to spend a million dollars for not a building, but to buy art," he told the members.

"The bill passed by a narrow margin—47-44.

"When it did pass, American history was made," he added.

Humber said that the New York Herald Tribune art critic called it "the greatest single contribution to American culture in this century."

The speaker told the group that a million dollars was very little money in terms of trying to start a museum. But he praised art dealers for cooperating with the North Carolina cause by selling paintings just a little above cost.

Old Masters

With the money appropriated paintings by the Old Masters were purchased. They were chosen because, as Humber explained, they are becoming less available. He said that museums are collecting all paintings of the Old Masters and "once a museum gets a painting, it doesn't get back on the market."

On what principles were paintings for the museum collected? Humber gave the following requirements:

1. No artist was recognized in the museum who wasn't already recognized.

2. Each painting had to be a fine specimen of the artist's work.

3. The painting had to be in excellent condition.

4. The price had to be reasonable.

Humber told the group that once a dealer called to tell him that a painting was for sale and asked him if he wanted it. The speaker replied that he did and asked the price to which he got this reply, "No need for you to ask that question, you never pay anything for anything anyway."

In closing Humber reminded the group that "He who creates touches the hand of immortality."

History

The North Carolina Museum of Art, one of the South's newest and finest museums, located just off historic Capitol Square in Raleigh, is a source of pride to every North Carolinian as theirs was the first state in the nation to set aside public funds to found an art collection for its people. In 1947 the North Carolina General Assembly appropriated one million dollars to purchase this collection, upon the condition that the North Carolina State Art Society could secure an equal amount to be added to the original grant. The S. H. Kress Foundation of New York, as a part of its program for the establishment of galleries throughout the United States, pledged that a Kress Collection of art works consisting of Italian Renaissance art and other similar items of a value of at least one million dollars would be given to North Carolina. After these arrangements were completed the State provided and renovated the four-storied, air-conditioned present Museum building.

Since the original North Carolina art collection has been greatly enriched and enlarged through gifts and bequests from private donors, the Kress Foundation has generously increased the size and scope of its gift to the point where it is now valued at two and one-half million dollars. This collection from the Kress Foundation is scheduled to arrive at the North Carolina Museum of Art in the near future and will fill many of the gaps presently in our collection.

Shortly after the appropriation was made by the General Assembly, an Art Commission was appointed by the Governor to select the nucleus of the State's collection of art works, their choices being subject to approval by certain designated authorities in the art field. The Art Commission endeavored to make the original selections represent a survey of the art of the Western world from the early fourteenth century through the end of the nineteenth century. In order to understand and appreciate our own heritage in American art and history, the antecedents of our culture were to be represented not only from one country and period, but from all countries which After these arrangements were completed the State provided and renovated the four-storied, air-conditioned present Museum building.

Since the original North Carolina art collection has been greatly enriched and enlarged through gifts and bequests from private donors, the Kress Foundation has generously increased the size and scope of its gift to the point where it is now valued at two and one-half million dollars. This collection from the Kress Foundation is scheduled to arrive at the North Carolina Museum of Art in the near future and will fill many of the gaps presently in our collection.

Shortly after the appropriation was made by the General Assembly, an Art Commission was appointed by the Governor to select the nucleus of the State's collection of art works, their choices being subject to approval by certain designated authorities in the art field. The Art Commission endeavored to make the original selections represent a survey of the art of the Western world from the early fourteenth century through the end of the nineteenth century. In order to understand and appreciate our own heritage in American art and history, the antecedents of our culture were to be represented not only from one country and period, but from all countries which produced great art. Only in this way could the collection combine historic background with aesthetic pleasure and educational value. The Art Commission focused its attention on paintings rather than on sculpture and decorative arts, leaving these to be added at a later date. The Commission elected to choose a few outstanding masters and surround them with the works of their followers, feeling that often the lesser-known artist is more expressive of his culture than the outstanding masters, and usually the lesser artists' works are more readily available.

The galleries in the North Carolina Museum of Art are arranged according to the system used in many of the great European museums. The masterpieces of a given period are shown with other paintings and objects from the same epoch and country. In this way the viewer is able to study the historical and artistic background in which the great masters flourished and to note the influence of these masters upon their followers.

According to the plan of our galleries a visitor may start with the art of his region and work back into the antecedents of his culture. The collections on the first three floors are arranged in this manner, the fourth floor being reserved for special exhibitions and for the collection of contemporary art.

Thus, upon entering the Museum lobby the visitor is able to view works of art related to early American history. By following the galleries in the indicated sequence it is possible to trace the roots of American art through England, France and the Low Countries of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Because of the size and prominence of the paintings of the seventeenth century Flemish school, they were chosen to be shown on the first floor. Thus, the Dutch seventeenth century paintings, which are more closely related to early American history, are to be found in the second-floor galleries.

In this section of the tour one can find historic figures such as George Washington and Flora Macdonald in the first gallery; and Charles James Fox, William Pitt, and Sir Walter Raleigh in the English galleries. These portraits were painted by outstanding artists of that period and come to us as undisputed documents of our early history. The role of France and the Low Countries during that time is admirably demonstrated through many outstanding works, and the collection features such artists as Perronneau, Boucher, and Nattier—great artists of the eighteenth century in France; and Peter Paul Rubens, Van Dyck and their contemporaries in Flanders in the seventeenth century. Among the works by Dutch masters of the period are paintings by Cuyp, Ruysdael, and Hals, as well as three important Rembrandts—highlights of the entire collection. With this background as a basis for study the visitor to the North Carolina Museum of Art can trace the whole history of Western painting.

Story of Art Museum Told

Robert Lee Humber

History

"One thing is significant about the formation of the North Carolina Museum of Art . . . and that is the way it was born . . . a new approach was made. A bill was introduced for the State of North Carolina to spend a million dollars for not a building, but to buy art," he told the members.

"The bill passed by a narrow margin—47-44.

"When it did pass, American history was made," he added.

Humber said that the New York Herald Tribune art critic called it "the greatest single contribution to American culture in this century."

The speaker told the group that a million dollars was very little money in terms of trying to start a museum. But he praised art dealers for cooperating with the North Carolina cause by selling paintings just a little above cost.

Old Masters

With the money appropriated paintings by the Old Masters were purchased. They were chosen because, as Humber explained, they are becoming less available. He said that museums are collecting all paintings of the Old Masters and "once a museum gets a painting, it doesn't get back on the market."

On what principles were paintings for the museum collected? Humber gave the following requirements:

1. No artist was recognized in the museum who wasn't already recognized.

2. Each painting had to be a fine specimen of the artist's work.

3. The painting had to be in excellent condition.

4. The price had to be reasonable.

Humber told the group that once a dealer called to tell him that a painting was for sale and asked him if he wanted it. The speaker replied that he did and asked the price to which he got this reply, "No need for you to ask that question, you never buy anything for anything anyway."

In closing Humber reminded the group that "He who creates together the hand of immortality."

American

John Singleton Copley was the greatest of the eighteenth century painters in America. He is represented here by a large portrait of Sir William Pepperell and his family, of Boston, Massachusetts. This painting shows the influence of English portraiture on our American school of painting.

Sir Walter Raleigh

English

This portrait of Sir Walter Raleigh, a figure of prime importance in the early history of North Carolina, is particularly suitable here in the Capitol city which bears Raleigh's name. It was painted in 1605, and is believed to be one of the last representations of Sir Walter Raleigh before he was beheaded.

French

The gay sophisticated era of eighteenth century France is represented by this portrait of a fashionable aristocrat of the French Court. The light pastel colors, particularly the "Nattier blue", and the style of dress make this a typical portrait of the Rococo period in France.

Flemish

This painting by the great Flemish master Rubens, is one of the most important portrayals of the Holy Family. It typifies the Baroque style of painting with the colors and movement that are associated with the works of Rubens.

Spanish

Goya, one of the greatest of the Spanish painters, is represented by this work, The Topers. The somber background with the highlighting of colors is a splendid example of Goya in his late period.

REMBRANDT VAN RIJN, 1606-1669
Esther's Feast

Dutch

The greatest of the Dutch painters is represented by a scene from the Old Testament, the feast of Esther. This canvas was painted early in the life of Rembrandt, and shows the rich glazes and colors which he used at the beginning of his career, but which later turned to somber colors with a central glowing light.

STEFAN LOCHNER, ca. 1400-1451
Saint Jerome in His Study

German

The small painting of Saint Jerome in his study is one of the most valuable and important paintings in the Museum's collection. It is the only painting by Lochner in a public collection in America. Typical of the style of Lochner, each and every minute detail has a symbolic meaning.

Italian

One of the most important and popular painters of the seventeenth century, Guido Reni, is represented by this painting of the Madonna and Child. The close relationship between the Mother and Child, the brilliant colors of the robes and garments, make this an outstanding painting in the idealized school of Italian art.

Modern

The contemporary school is represented by one of the leading abstract painters, Franz Kline. The broad black slashes of paint on a white background show Kline's style and relate him to the art of today.

Greetings from Our President—

Youngville, North Carolina
November 30, 1959

Dear Club Members,

May I say to those of you who did not make the trip to the Art Museum, you really missed a treat. We enjoyed the paintings and the concert was simply wonderful. I'm sorry more of our members could not go but maybe we can plan to go again at a more convenient time. Our Fine Arts chairman, Matt Reddick, did a fine job of making all arrangements.

There are so many things to do before Christmas that I thought a reminder would be nice at this time. It would for me I'm sure. I've already decided that I would go down in history as "the forgetting president."

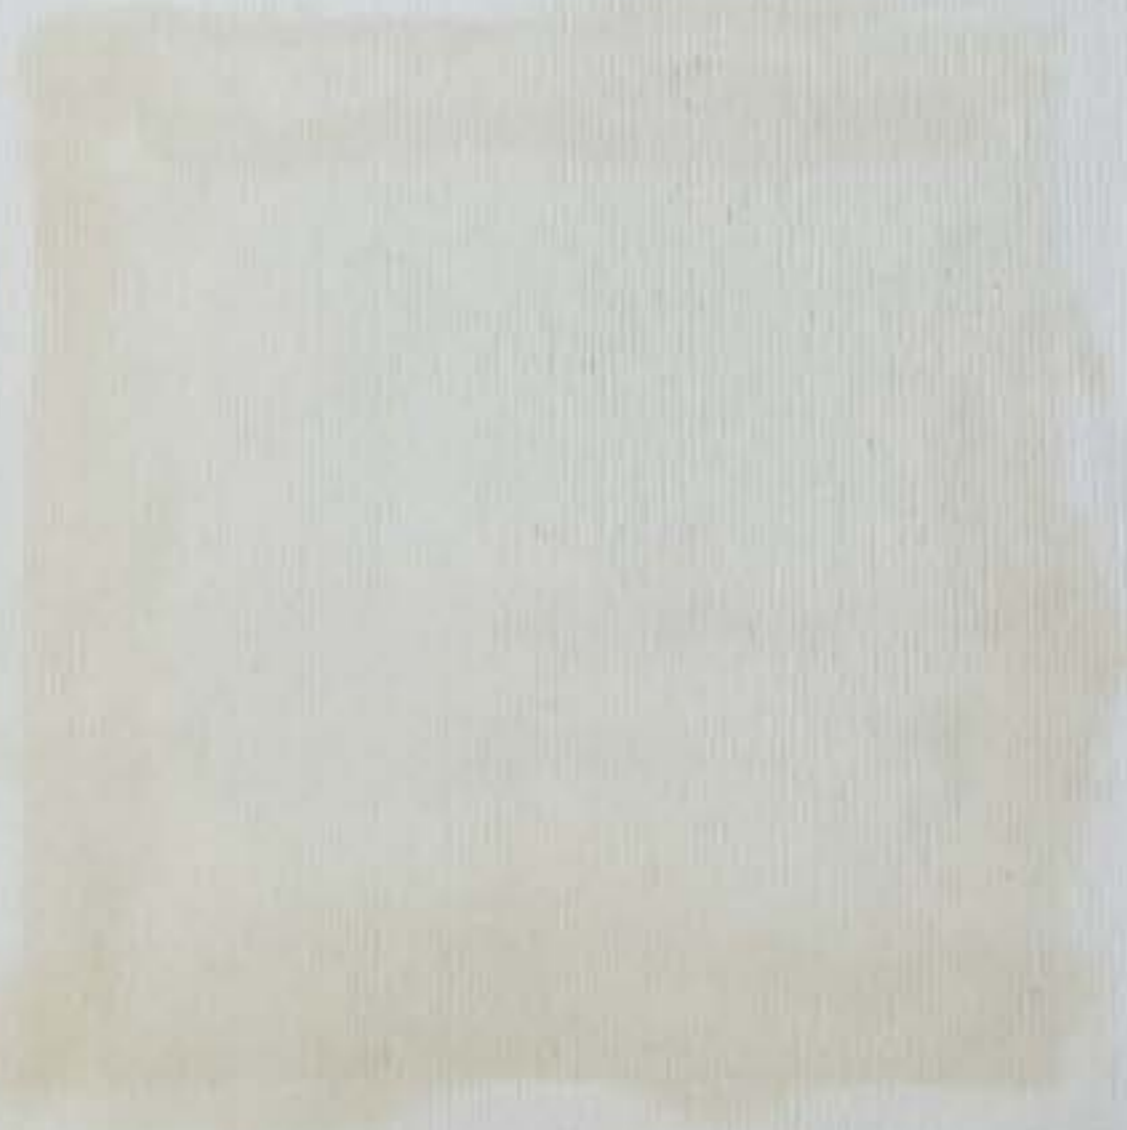

The Hobby Night which I announced for Miss Lizzie will be held at the Community House instead of the hut on Tuesday night December 8 at 8:15. Please note change of time and place. Bring all your Christmas ideas and anything else that you have made or have in your possession that you think our members would like to see and do. We're looking for each of you loaded with ideas!

Mrs. Weathers would like to remind you of the grocery or household article for the needy family in our community. Please bring this to our regular meeting on December 15 or take it to her home.

Irene would like to get the gifts for Caswell Training School on Hobby Night since these have to be mailed. Wrap your gift and label it boy or girl. Just a word of explanation to those who were not at our last meeting about this. We received a request for some gifts from this school for retarded children and the club voted to send some. Some things they suggested we send were, bobby pins, hair nets, costume jewelry, toothpaste, soap, home permanents, games, flashlights etc. Each member is requested to bring one gift.

I have heard a few hints that decorations are in the making for some homes. Don't forget on Monday night December 21 out of town judges will ride over our town and rate a first, second, and third decoration. Be sure to turn on all your Christmas lights on this night.

Thank you so much for your contribution to CARS. We received $23.00. Thank you, Mary, for sending this check for us. I'm sure Thanksgiving meant more to us by sharing in this program.

Hobby Night Set In Youngsville

Youngsville—President of the Youngsville Woman's Club Mrs. A. E. Hall announces that a "Hobby Night" for members will be held at the community house on Tuesday night, December 8 immediately following the Lions Club meeting which is held in the same building.

Club members are urged to come, bringing ideas and items to discuss and display. Mrs. G. E. Winston is in charge of this program for the exchanging of ideas.

Club members are reminded to take Christmas gifts for the Caswell Training School to the local chairman of this project, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell.

Ideas Exchanged By Club Women At Hobby Night

Glittering Christmas decorations predominated at the Woman's Club "Hobby Night" program held at the community house on Tuesday night under the leadership of Awards Chairman, Mrs. G. E. Winston. Each member briefly described her display.

A wealth of ideas were exchanged. Among the glamorous items were sparkling Christmas tree skirts made of felt, decorated velvet and felt stockings, a Kissing Ring, unusual table tree, candle arrangements, wreaths and favors. Many holiday gift ideas were discussed.

At a brief business session presided over by President Thelma Hall, several Christmas plans were discussed. Finance Chairman, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington reported on the fruit cake sale. Mrs. G. E. Winston told of plans for the club to sing Christmas Carols at rest homes in Wake Forest one night during the Christmas season.

During a social hour refreshments of fruit cake and coffee were served.

Hobby Night brought forth many beautiful and clever Christmas ideas.

Club Decorates Community House

Youngsville—As one of their Christmas projects, The Youngsville Woman's Club has sponsored the decoration of the community building for the holiday season. This was done on Friday, December the 11 by Chairman Mrs. A. N. Corpening; and Mrs. J. E. Underwood and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham. The building will remain decorated through the remainder of December. Persons using the community house each night for their Christmas parties will decorate their own serving table.

Shiny red boots filled with greenery and red berries are on front doors, representing a welcome to all. Traditional Christmas scenes and colors were the decor selected. A pair of huge artificial poinsettias hang over the mantle, which is decorated with a massive arrangement of greenery, candles and smaller poinsettias.

Placed on the front of the piano are red musical notes and letters across a sheet of gold foil, spelling out joyous Christmas greetings. On top of the piano are Santa and his reindeer prancing through snow clouds and across a bright new moon.

A winter scene on the bookcase includes a jolly snowman and snow-sprayed greenery. Suspended from the ceiling are silver bells festooned with red and green satin ribbons, Christmas ornaments and tinsel. The bells are decorated horse muzzles; and the kissing lantern in the center is made of an inverted salad basket. A traditionally trimmed Yuletide tree completes the decorations. The cooperation of those who assisted by lending some of the items used, is appreciated.

Our own Santa Claus!
(Mrs. N.A. Brown)

Many times do we ride around in other towns at Christmas to view the beautiful decorations. This Christmas let's make our town the prettiest ever and ride around it viewing the wonderful sights. We can do it if you cooperate, and these are our plans.

The Womans Club will sponsor a contest in Community Beautifications at Christmas time. There will be three winners chosen, first, second and third ratings given. Judges will come from another town to see the homes, lawns, roof tops, etc. on December 20, 21 or 22. No inside visits will be made. They will judge by what they can see from the outside. So,,, put up the tree, hang up the stockings and turn up the lights, you may be a winner. For more information you may contact the project chairman.

Youngsville Club To Sponsor Christmas Decoration Contest

Youngsville—The Youngsville Woman's Club is this year sponsoring a project which is new to it's town—a contest in Community Beautification at Christmas. Start your plans now for some special outdoor decorations at your home and lets make Christmas in our town the prettiest ever.

Decorate and light up the exterior of your homes, or the lawns, roof tops, trees, picture windows, or anywhere you like in your favorite way. Every citizen is invited to participate in creating a more beautiful Yuletide season. Three winners will be chosen for recognition and first, second and third ratings will be given respectively. Judges will come in from another town on either December 20, 21, or 22 to select the winner. No inside visits will be made. They will judge only what they see from the outside.

If more information is desired in regard to the contest, you may contact the Woman's Club Project Chairman, Mrs. W. C. Timbowlake or Club President, Mrs. A. E. Hall.

Decoration Contest

G. E. Winston Home Receives First Place In Decorations

Youngsville—The G. E. Winston home received the top rating in the home exterior decorating contest which was sponsored by the Youngsville Woman's Club.

This is the first time any such community beautifications at Christmas has been promoted, and many homes were attractively decorated. The project brought much added beauty and holiday spirit to the Yuletide season.

The winning Winston home was flood-lighted from the yard. At the top of the entrance steps beside the post was a heap of colorful Christmas packages and a stuffed Santa Claus. The doorway was framed with a garland of greenery and draped tinsel, plus red ribbon. A large silver foil three-dimensional star surrounded with greenery centered the door. All were combined to present a most interesting appearance.

Second rating went to the R. E. Cheatham home where a spotlight from the yard shone on a tree at the picture window which had been sprayed with silver paint and trimmed with silver, white and red ornaments. Snow banks around the lower part of the window and tree, were sprayed on. A silver foil covered cornucopia holding greenery, red berries and ribbon was hung on the white door. White candles were placed in windows.

The Everette Pearce home received third place rating, with soft blue lights glowing from candles in the windows and also from the Christmas tree standing at the picture window. The one contrast in color was the spot-lighted doorway which was done up as a package tied with shiny red ribbon. A pair of canes was used where the bow was tied. A lighted Santa Claus was placed near the entrance.

Contest judges were from the Wake Forest Garden Club and were President Mrs. R. W. Wilkinson, the third; Mrs. Edith Earnshaw and Mrs. Joe Wall. Their decisions were based on simplicity, originality and appearance of homes. Ribbons will be presented to the winners.

Choral Group Contest

Hamlet, North Carolina
February 23, 1960

819 Austin Street
Pinecroft
Hamlet, North Carolina
January 12, 1960

Box 311
Norlina, N. C.

Dear Club Presidents:

I hope all of you have had a good rest after Christmas and reports.

By now many of you have organized a Club Chorus and found it is fun to sing.

I hope we will have lots of entries in the District Contest. The two numbers selected for competition are:

1. No. 87042 "Lullaby" by Nobel Cain
2. No. 332-14989 "My Lover is a Fisherman" by Lily Strickland, arr. by Nobel Cain

The District Contest will be held on Saturday, March 12, 1960, 1:30 P. M. at the Norlina High School Gym. If your Choral Group plans to enter in this competition, please let me know at once! I would like to remind you of the four cash awards of $50.00 each given state winners for the best performance by an ensemble of singers in each of the following groups:

1. Class A - Clubs of 100 members or more
2. Class B - Clubs of 51 to 100 members
- 3. Class C - Clubs of 26 to 50 members
4. Class D - Clubs of 25 members or less

Every town has talent in their schools! Find yours and enter them in the State Music Contest for high schools seniors. We want every eligible boy and girl to have this golden opportunity. Each club may send 5 (five) winners to the district contest, one in each category. And, in the same manner, each district may send 5 (five) winners to the State Contest. The District Contest will be held on Saturday, March 12, 1960, 1:30 P. M. in the Norlina High School Gym. The State Contest will be held in Raleigh at Peace College, Saturday, March 19, at 1:30 P. M. Look for details in The Clubwoman. Please send me the names of your contestants, and their category, immediately.

Peggy Cash, Vocalist

Requirements: Each contestant must be a senior from a North Carolina high school and must be sponsored by a woman's club in the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

Changes have been made in the State awards since the handbook was printed:

- $100.00 - Best performance by boy vocalist
- $100.00 - Best performance by girl vocalist
- $100.00 - Best performance on a stringed instrument
- $100.00 - Best performance on orchestral instrument other than a stringed instrument
- $100.00 - Best performance on piano

I am looking forward to seeing every club represented at the District Contests!

Sincerely,

Marian

Choral Group Contest

Hamlet, North Carolina

819 Austin Street
Pinecroft
Hamlet, North Carolina
January 12, 1960

To Club Presidents:
Music Chairmen - Local and District.

NOW is the time to make plans and publicize your local MUSIC CONTESTS!

RULES FOR HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC CONTEST

Invite seniors, interested in music, of all high schools in this area to participate in contest sponsored by the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. Enter one of the five categories: (1) Piano, (2) Girl Vocalist, (3) Boy Vocalist, (4) Stringed instrument, (5) Any other orchestral instrument.

Through the high school and local music teachers, give all eligible North Carolina high school seniors an opportunity to enter your local contest.

Plan and publicize well in advance your local contest on or before Saturday, March 5, 1960. Each contestant must be a senior, in a North Carolina School and must enter through a Federated Woman's Club.

The contestant will perform one composition of his or her choice, it must be performed from memory. A copy of the number must be brought for use of the Judges.

There must be at least three (3) qualified judges in every contest. (Local, District, and State.) Decision of the Judges shall be final. (If local awards are given, local clubs will provide them). The names of the Five (5) local winners should be sent immediately to your District Chairman.

A suggested award of $10.00 each in the five categories in the District contest should be given by the Districts. All District contests should be held Saturday, March 12, 1960. Names of all District winners MUST be sent immediately to State Music Chairman, Mrs. D. M. Wood, Pinecroft, Hamlet, North Carolina.

Choral Group Contest

Hamlet, North Carolina
February 23, 1960

Dear Club Presidents,
Music Chairmen,
Choral Directors:

Since you have a "Choral Group" in your Club, I sincerely hope you are planning to enter the contest for one of the new awards of $50.00 offered by the State Federation.

Your contest should be held exactly like your "High School Music Contest," which would mean that all local groups in each District would enter the District Contest; being judged there for "Winner" to enter State Contest. (There would be no local contest.) The State Contest will be held in Raleigh during State Convention (April 4-7). Tentative date for this is Wednesday, April 6, at 11:30 A.M. (Place to be announced).

If, in your district, you have only one to enter contest, that one is eligible to enter State Contest.

Remember there are four classes—A, B, C, and D. A Choral Group in each class may come from each District to the State Contest. According to your State Year Book—page 43—are these rules:

- Class A - Clubs of 100 members or more
- Class B - Clubs of 51 to 100 members
- Class C - Clubs of 26 to 50 members
- Class D - Clubs of 25 members or less.

Regardless of whether you are interested in entering the Contest, would your group like to come to Raleigh and sing with all Groups in a combined presentation of the two numbers selected for all Choral Groups and published in the October issue of "The Clubwomen".

I would suggest for "Group Appearance" that all would wear black (or dark) skirts with white blouses. This makes a very pretty picture.

Please advise immediately so that I may include this on Convention schedule. Also, the names of Choral Groups entering Contest.

Very sincerely,

Grace Wood

Mrs. Hall Holds Business Session

President of the Youngville Woman's Club, Mrs. A. E. Hall, held an Executive meeting at her home on Wednesday night with a number of Board members in attendance to consider some urgent items of business. Members voted to cooperate with Finance Chairman, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington in a final fund raising campaign for this club year.

The sponsorship of several projects in relation to community house improvements were discussed. The local Lions club and the Woman's club have decided to be co-purchasers of an electric stove for the kitchen. It is to be installed immediately. It is hoped that other improvements will also be made soon.

The club plans to have entrants in the Woman's Club District Music Festival to be held in March. Mrs. R. F. Potts and Mrs. A. N. Corpening will be in charge and will probably have a chorus and a vocal entry in the contest.

Club Ensemble Participates In District Contest

Youngville—The Youngville Woman's Club was represented in the Fourteenth District Music Contest held at Norlina Saturday by an ensemble and a vocal soloist.

Club members who sang in the ensemble Saturday were Mrs. W. O. Roberts, Mrs. W. G. Scarborough, Mrs. C. V. Timberlake, Mrs. E. R. Tharrington, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. Marvin Roberts, Mrs. J. E. Underwood, Mrs. G. E. Winston, Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mrs. Eugene Green and Mrs. B. H. Patterson. The group was directed by Mrs. A. N. Corpening with Mrs. R. F. Potts as accompanist.

Members of the ensemble who were unable to participate with the group because of illness were Mrs. J. T. Moss, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., and Mrs. Pattie Justice. It is hoped that the entire group, who have been rehearsing together, will be able to attend when the ensemble enters the State competition to be held in Raleigh in April during the State Convention. Songs which they are singing are "Lullaby" by Nobel Cain, and "My Lover is a Fisherman" by Lily Strickland.

Youngville High School Senior Peggy Cash represented the local club in the vocal solo competition by singing "My Hero" from The Chocolate Soldier, by Oscar Strauss.

Choral Group Contest Held

A new project of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs, the State Choral Group Contest, was held here yesterday afternoon at the Woman's Club in conjunction with the State convention now going on.

Participating in the contest were women's club choral groups from throughout the State. Four $50 awards were offered according to membership in the club. Divisions were as follows: Group A, membership of 100 or more members, Group B, membership of 51-100 members, Group C, membership of from 26 to 50 members and Group D membership of 25 or less members.

Participating was in Groups A and C only. Winners were: Group A, the Raleigh Choral Group of the Raleigh Woman's Club and Group B, the Youngville Choral Group of the Youngville Woman's Club.

Mrs. H. E. Reese is director and Mrs. Coite Jones, accompanist, of the 22-member Raleigh Choral Group. Mrs. A. N. Courtening is director and Mrs. Rufus Potts accompanist for the 15-member Youngville Group.

Judges were Dr. Raymond T. Kriner, head of the voice department at Peace College, and Harold Shoemaker, minister of music at Tabernacle Baptist Church.

Some of the contest groups will sing at the awards luncheon here on Thursday. Mrs. D. M. Wood of Hamlet is State music chairman.

Mrs. A. F. Potts Accompanist - Peggy Cash, Contestant District Music Contest for High School Seniors

Musical selections sung by club at District and State Contest. How thrilled we were to receive top honors in both contests - District award, $10.00; state award, $50.00.

Youngville, N. C.

Dear Mrs. Hall:

Thank you so much for your postcard of September 19th.

I am delighted to know that the Youngville Woman's Club will sponsor the 1960 Easter Seal Appeal in the county. I will visit Franklin County soon and contact Mrs. Allen, the chairman. Then I hope we can set up a meeting of the Society for the purpose of making preliminary plans for the campaign which will begin on March 17 and close on Easter Sunday, April 17.

Once again, many thanks for your interest and cooperation.

Cordially,

Bert Hawley

Easter Society Reports As Drive Nears

As the designated time for the Easter Seal Campaign approaches, it is fitting that attention be focused on our County Society and its activities. The campaign which opens March 17 and continues through Easter Sunday, April 17, is to raise funds for rehabilitation services for crippled citizens. The drive this year is sponsored by the Youngsville Woman's Club with Mrs. Catherine Allen as Chairman.

The Franklin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, which has Mrs. R. C. Whitfield as President, has had an important year of progress served by the Easter Seals in 1959. Five crippled children and three adults in our County have received aid from the Society at a total cost of $487. Fifty dollars went for Convalescent Care for a young girl; eighty dollars went for campership fee for a child to attend camp; fifteen dollars paid for X-rays for two children; two dollars for medication for a child; three hundred and fifteen dollars were used to purchase a brace, a wheelchair and a hearing-aid for three different adults. A twenty five dollar contribution was made on a Camp Station Wagon.

Total receipts for the county Easter Seal Fund raising program last year were $1,684.74. $673.89 went to the State and National Program; $189.03 for Easter Seal Fund raising program and $487.00 for care and treatment here in the county. There was a balance brought forward from the previous year. It is pointed out that 60% of the funds raised remains and is used here in the county and 40% goes to the State and National program to support a program of service, education and research.

According to the past years county campaign report, $732.33 was received from General Mailings of Seals; $146.23 from the Lily Sales; $703.26 from school campaigns; $4.02 from coin collectors; $64.00 from business; $25.00 from In-Plant; and $19.00 from clubs.

It is well to note that General Letters mailed numbered 2,023. Out of that number 423 letters were returned with contributions and 24 were received without contributions; leaving a large number unaccounted for. It is hoped that this year many more citizens will become keenly aware of the needs of our Crippled Children and Adults in our county, and will answer their letters with contributions.

Last year was important but an even more important one lies ahead. The Easter Seal Society looks to 1960 for reaching additional milestones in a long record of aid.

Current officers of the County Society are: Mrs. R. C. Whitfield President; Mrs. T. J. McGhee, Secretary; Mrs. H. H. Utley, Treasurer; Mrs. J. T. Allen, Easter Seal Chairman; and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, Publicity Chairman.

The Board of directors is composed of the officers and the following members, Mrs. T. H. Weldon, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Mrs. W. H. Horton, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Dr. A. J. Holton, Dr. A. N. Corpening, Dr. John Lloyd, Dr. Otis Lowry, M. M. Person, Jr., A. S. Tomlinson, Herman Winberry, Mrs. W. H. Kelly, Mrs. W. D. Timberlake, Mrs. H. H. Hobbard, Mrs. Willie May, Mrs. D. O. Langston, Mrs. Rufus Place, Mrs. Rex Stephens, Mrs. James Johnson, W. P. Pearce and Mrs. A. E. Hall.

Goal Set For County Drive

A $1,500 goal for the 1960 Easter Seal Campaign in Franklin County was announced this week by the county chairman Mrs. Catherine Allen, after she received a letter from Judge Sadio Sharpe who is the State Chairman for the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

This goal represents the amount needed if crippled children and adults are to continue receiving rehabilitation services from the Franklin County Society and if direct aid is to be extended to handicapped persons.

Judge Sharpe states that "It is my warm hope that efforts this year will be more successful than ever before in the history of our Easter Seal Appeal. Working together, I know we can achieve wonderful things for crippled children".

Easter seals went out to thousands of homes in the county last Thursday March 17, which was the opening date to the Nationwide Campaign. You are urged to heed the appeal from our crippled citizens by responding generously with your gift to them.

Franklin Co. Society Has Exec Session

LOUISBURG — The executive board of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults met Tuesday at the Murphy House in Louisburg. Mrs. T. J. McGhee was elected secretary of the board and Mrs. Donald Griffin was appointed as a new member in the business session. Mrs. T. H. Weldon was asked to make an investigation about some crippled children and adults in her community. The members of the board were urged to stay alert to the needs of the crippled in Franklin county.

Mrs. Richard Whitfield announced that the Youngsville Woman's Club was going to sponsor the 1960 Easter Seal Drive in Franklin County and that Mrs. J. T. Allen of Youngsville will serve as campaign director.

Bert Hawley, field representative of the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults, praised the local society for the successful drive that was conducted this year under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Weathers of Youngsville. Hawley announced that the 1960 drive would be conducted March 17-April 17.

Mrs. Allen To Head Easter Seal Drive

MRS. ALLEN

Youngsville — The annual Easter Seal Campaign in Franklin County is being sponsored this year by the Youngsville Woman's Club. Club President Mrs. A. E. Hall has announced that County Chairman for this drive for the Society for Crippled Children and Adults is Mrs. Catherine Allen, one of Youngsville's most active civic leaders.

Mrs. Allen has selected and will direct key leaders throughout the county. They in turn will work with their local volunteer helpers from March seventeenth through Easter Sunday April seventeenth, to raise funds for maintaining and expanding services needed by the crippled children. Much of the money raised will remain here in the county to be used as it has been in the past for local needs.

Mrs. Allen hopes that all citizens will respond in the interest of Crippled Children during the Easter Seal Month. Detailed plans for the campaign are now in progress.

Mrs. Allen has held a number of responsible offices in the local Woman's Club; she is an active member of the Youngsville Baptist church where she has taught Sunday school and is currently President of her class; she is a member of the local Democratic Committee; has headed a number of previous drives; is on the Brownie Scout Troop Committee; is a member of the Youngsville High School Faculty; current PTA Treasurer and has served as Treas-NCEA Unit.

Mrs. Robert Cheatham will help as county Publicity Chairman. Leaders selected by Mrs. Allen for towns in the county are: Mrs. Joyce Allen, Franklinton; Mrs. Jerry Horton, Louisburg; Mrs. Evelyn Allen Freeman, Youngsville; Mrs. B. C. Johnson, Bunn. The services and cooperation of these and the other volunteer helpers who will be needed to carry on the campaign, will be sincerely appreciated.

Easter Seal Area Meet Set In City

Leaders of the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults, as well as officials of the Durham chapter and the state's Easter Seal Child for 1960, will be on hand here tonight for all-county area meeting to discuss plans for this year's Easter Seal Drive.

Dr. Edgar Thompson of Duke University, president of the state society, will attend the meeting, to be held at the Ivey Restaurant at 1002 W. Main St., at 6:30 p.m. Herman Norman, president of the Durham chapter, will preside.

Counties to be represented, in addition to Durham, are Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Franklin, Granville, Orange, Person, Vance, Wake and Warren.

The Durham delegation will include C. C. Mulholland Jr., who is vice president of the state group.

Albin Pikutis of Chapel Hill, executive director of the state society, and other representatives from the state office also will be on hand.

Little Deborah Lu Ferguson, this year's Easter Seal Child, is expected to attend.

Similar area meetings will be held in Greenville Tuesday night, in Fayetteville Wednesday night, in Asheville Friday night, and in Charlotte on Monday night, Feb. 8.

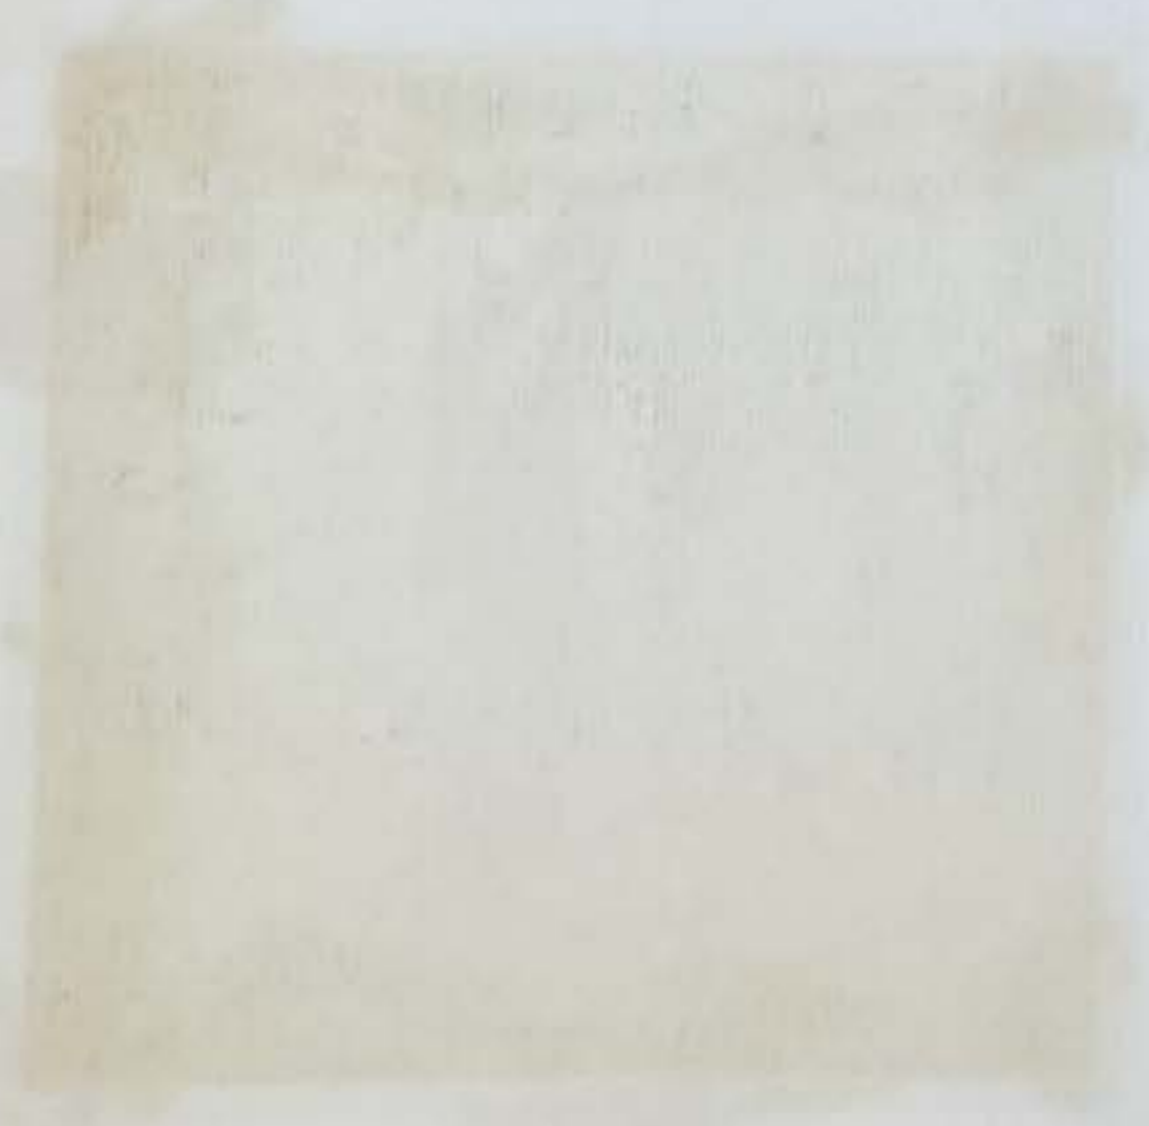

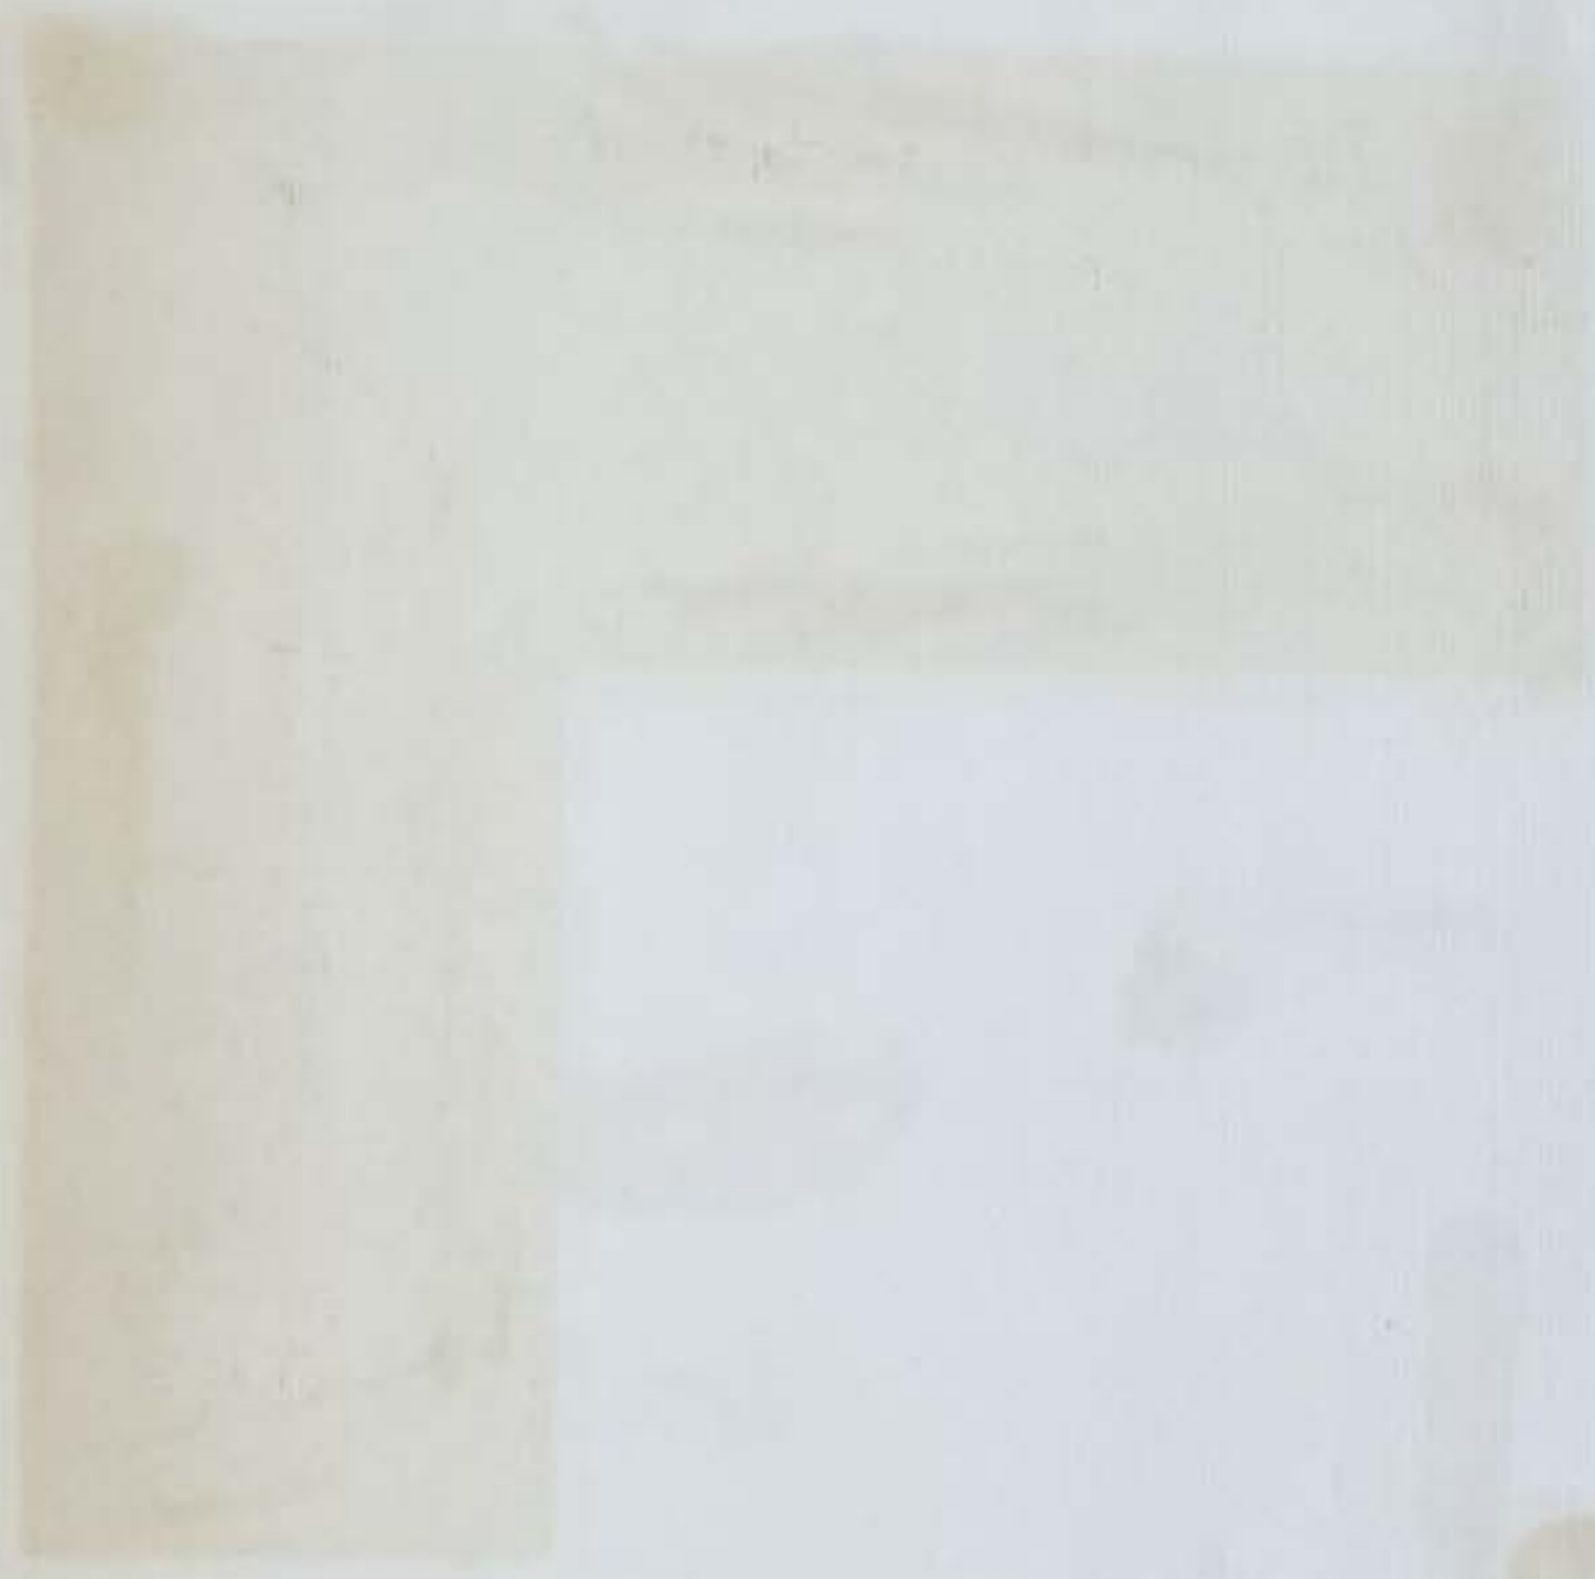

The meetings serve to review all phases of the forthcoming campaign, the display of campaign material and the general discussion and receiving of suggestions on successful fund raising.

Woman's Club News

Youngsville — Woman's Club members, Mrs. J. T. Allen, Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham were in Durham Monday evening to attend a dinner and the Easter Seal Area meeting, the purpose of which was to review all phases of the forthcoming campaign for the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Dr. Edgar Thompson of Duke University, President of the State Society, was guest speaker. Albin Pikutis of Chapel Hill, Executive Director of the State Society, conducted the review. A number of other Society officials were in attendance to discuss plans.

The Youngsville Woman's Club will serve this year as sponsor for the Franklin County Easter Seal Drive, with Mrs. Allen as Chairman.

Plans Announced For Big Easter Seal Campaign Here

Mrs. Catherine Allen, Chairman of the Franklin County Easter Seal Campaign, sponsored this year by the Youngsville Woman's Club, announces that according to plans, sheets of 1960 Easter Seals will go into the mails on Thursday, March seventeenth, carrying a "Please Help Us" plea from crippled children. The mailing will be the first step in the month-long appeal conducted by the Society for Crippled Children and Adults, to raise funds for expanding services to the handicapped in our county.

The Easter appeal is being conducted simultaneously by 1655 state and local affiliates of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults in the 50 states, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The programs must be maintained and expanded to reach the many who need care.

Citizens are asked to note that approximately 90% of the funds contributed remain in the state, with 60% remaining right in our own county.

The appealing new pair of Easter Seals are in subdued tones of red and blue. One shows a crippled girl and boy with a therapist, representing all youngsters and professional workers who receive and give care and treatment through Easter Seal Societies across the nation.

The other Seal pictures the same children with the lily symbol of Easter Seal Societies which finance the rehabilitation services through campaign contributions. The sticker appearing in the center of the sheet shows the two children holding an enlarged reproduction of the smaller lily-symbolized Seal.

When you receive your seals, keep and use them. Contribute as much as you can, but even if you give nothing, use Easter Seals on your mail as a message of hope for crippled children and adults.

Goal Is Attained

Youngsville — Mrs. Catherine Allen, Chairman of the Franklin County Crippled Children's Drive, has announced that his year's goal of $1800 has been reached. Total contributions to date amount to $1825.

This campaign which was to have been concluded at Easter, was extended to the last of May throughout the state in order that goals could be met.

Mrs. Allen wishes to express appreciation to all in the county who contributed to this worthy cause; to the campaign chairman in each town who were Joyce Allen in Franklinton, Mrs. Jerry Horton in Louisburg, Mrs. R. C. Johnson in Bunn and Evelyn Freeman in Youngsville; to those who help with the school drives; to the press and radio for their cooperation; and to all who helped in any way with conducting the campaign which was sponsored this year by the Youngsville Woman's Club.

Mrs. J. C. Allen

HEADS FRANKLIN CO. EASTER SEAL DRIVE

The annual Easter Seal Campaign in Franklin County sponsored the year by the Youngsville Woman's Club, will open March 17. Club President, Mrs. A. E. Hall has announced that County Chairman for this drive for the Society for Crippled Children and Adults is Mrs. Catherine Allen, one of Youngsville's most active civic leaders.

Mrs. Allen has selected and will direct key leaders throughout the county. They in turn will work with their local volunteer helpers from March 17 through Easter Sunday, April 17, to raise funds for maintaining and expanding services needed by the crippled children.

Mrs. Allen has held a number of responsible offices in the local Woman's Club; she is an active member of the Youngsville Baptist Church where she has taught Sunday School and is currently President of her class; she is a member of the local Democratic Committee; has headed a number of previous drives; is on the Brownie Scout Troop Committee; is a member of the Youngsville

High School faculty; current PTA Treasurer; and has served as Treasurer of the Franklin County NCEA Unit.

Mrs. Allen announced this week that sheets of 1960 Easter Seals will go into the mails next Thursday, carrying a "Please Help Us" plea from crippled children. The mailing will be the first step in the month-long appeal conducted by the Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Citizens are asked to note that approximately 90% of the funds contributed remain in the state, with 60% remaining right in our own county.

When you receive your seals, keep and use them. Contribute as much as you can, but even if you give nothing, use Easter Seals on your mail as a message of hope for crippled children and adults.

Mrs. Evelyn Allen Freeman will lead the drive in Youngsville.

Drive Leaders Announced For Schools

Next week, April 3-9 will be Crippled Children's Week in Franklin County. Joining 1,655 Easter Seal Societies across the nation, the County Society for Crippled Children will sponsor the observance to answer the "please help us" plea sent by crippled children to homes in their areas. The observance will have the backing of civic organizations, schools and youth groups, which are planning special events to raise funds for providing services needed by the crippled children.

Easter lilies made by handicapped persons will be sold on downtown streets April 9.

School students in the county will lend their strength to crippled children when they conduct their own fund raising drive in their respective schools.

County Chairman, Mrs. Catherine Allen has announced that volunteer leaders for school drives are Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mills; Mrs.

T. H. Weldon, Epsom; Mrs. Eva Mae Smith, Gold Sand; Mrs. Beryl S. Wood, Hickory Rock-White Level; Mrs. Emma Leigh Stallings Justice; Mrs. W. H. Kelly, Bunn; Mrs. Mildred A. Mullen, Ham's School; Mrs. Ruth Walters, Youngsville; Mrs. Julia Carr, Franklinton.

Mrs. Mabel Davis, Supervisor for County Colored Schools, has assisted by delivering the Easter Seal material for the schools to all of the county schools in her area.

Through the efforts of all the volunteer helpers and contributors, it is hoped that the county goal of $1,800 will be successfully reached.

If you know of a crippled person who needs help, please contact your County Chairman or the President of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Mrs. Richard Whitfield.

Youngsville Drive Is Successful

Youngsville — The Youngsville Heart Fund Drive came to a successful conclusion on Heart Sunday, February 28, according to Chairman E. J. Pearce.

Senior Girl Scout Troop Leader Mrs. W. C. Timberlake acted as Co-Chairman of the drive.

Mrs. Timberlake and the Intermediate Scout Leader Mrs. Lucy Pearce, were out Sunday along with their Girl Scouts to canvass the town on behalf of the Heart Fund. The cooperation of all who participated in the campaign is appreciated.

Anyone who may not have been contacted on Sunday by the solicitors is invited to give their donation now to the Chairman.

Club members take an active part in all community Drives—

Youngsville Makes Plans For Heart Sunday

Youngsville — Mr. Ebbie Jones Pearce, who was selected to serve as Chairman of the Youngsville Heart Fund Campaign, has announced that the local Senior Girl Scout Leader Elsie Timberlake is serving as co-chairman of the drive.

This campaign, which began on Feb. 1, will be climaxed on Heart Sunday February 28, when in the Youngsville community the Girl Scouts will be out around town on a house-to-house canvass to receive funds for this important cause. All local activities in relation to this drive will be concentrated on Heart Sunday and the cooperation of all citizens will be appreciated.

Anyone wishing to contribute a special donation is welcome to contact Mr. Pearce or Mrs. Timberlake at any time, and one of them will be happy to get in touch with you. Remember that heart disease is our number one killer and that funds are essential to support services and needed research. The small percent of the contributions which go out of our state through the Heart Association, actually returns many times more by way of support to outstanding research which is being conducted in leading hospitals in our state.

CANCER DRIVE CHAIRMAN NAMED IN YOUNGVILLE

The cancer drive is under way in Youngsville with Mrs. W. R. Evans, and Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, co-chairman. They plan to open the drive today.

Helpers for the cancer drive are volunteers workers including: Mrs. J. E. Underwood, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. J. H. Winston, Mrs. Ray Pearce, Mrs. Wesley Alford, Mrs. M. O. Wiggins, Mrs. Davis Young, Mrs. H. H. Reddick, Mrs. E. J. Pearce, Mrs. Wiley Brown, and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham.

Plans Announced For Cancer Drive In Youngsville

Youngsville—Mrs. W. R. Evans and Mrs. W. C. Timberlake are serving this year as co-chairman of the Cancer Drive in Youngsville. A meeting was held on Monday night with volunteer helpers in attendance to assist in mapping out plans for the campaign which begins the first of April.

Local efforts will be concentrated during the first two weeks of the month. The volunteers will be knocking on your doors during this period to give you the opportunity of contributing to American Cancer Society for cancer service, research and cancer education. Guard your family by fighting cancer with a checkup and a check. According to statistics, estimated cancer deaths in the United States in 1960 will be 265,000, if present rates are not checked.

Give your generous support to the programs of the American Cancer Society when one of the following workers comes to your homes in and around Youngsville: Mesdames M. O. Wiggins, Wesley Alford, J. E. Underwood, James Smith, J. H. Winston, Ray Pearce, Doris Young, H. H. Reddick, E. J. Pearce, Wiley Brown, R. E. Cheatham and possibly a few other citizens.

Youngsville Mayor A. E. Hall secured the local co-chairman. He is a former President of the Franklin County Cancer Society. Mrs. Timberlake is currently serving as Treasurer of the county society and Mrs. Evans is a member of the Board of Directors.

Clubwoman of Year

FRANCES HILL WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE ON YOUTH FITNESS

Miss Frances Hill, Youngsville High School senior, has been selected as Franklin County's representative to the "First Annual Youth Fitness Conference" to be held on April 9, 1960 in Raleigh.

Miss Hill's selection was announced last week by county Superintendent of Schools, Wiley F. Mitchell, Sr. She was one of six applicants, one representing each county high school. The conference is sponsored by the Youth Fitness Commission of North Carolina. The purpose of the conference is to consult and confer with Youth Leaders throughout North Carolina on the various aspects of Fitness in the Home, School, Community and Church.

Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill of Route 1, Youngsville, has an "A" scholastic average and actively participates in the Beta Club, Future Homemakers of America, Glee Club and 4-H Club. She is also accompanist for the Glee Club and junior chorus in addition to pianist for her Baptist Training Union and Sunday School and church organist at her church, Flat Rock Baptist Church.

She has served as an officer of each club to which she belongs and has actively cooperated in community projects and fund drives including Red Cross, P.T.A., March of Dimes and her church's building committee.

Youngsville High School principal in recommending her said "Frances is an excellent student. She is capable, a hard worker, conscientious, trustworthy, dependable and has high ambitions."

Clubwoman of Year

MRS. W. C. TIMBERLAKE

Mrs. W. C. Timberlake is the recipient of the Youngsville Woman's Club annual award given to the outstanding member. She was presented a silver bowl at the club's annual banquet last week by Mrs. A. E. Hall, retiring president.

Mrs. Hall in presenting the award said she and members of the committee making the selection felt Mrs. Timberlake was "especially deserving of this honor" because of her constant devoted service to the club since its organization in 1955.

Mrs. Timberlake has been an officer of the club since its beginning. She has also been leader of the Girl Scout troop sponsored by the club since it was organized. She has been an outstanding leader and was largely responsible for Franklin county being accepted in the council; she had a big part in the Girl Scout fund drive and in the preparation and dedication of the Girl Scout Building in Raleigh, even though it meant putting on jeans and using a paint brush on a hot Saturday afternoon.

She has served this past year as chairman of the Teenage Club committee; headed the Christmas home decoration contest; has worked hard on the music for the district and state contests and completed the scrapbook for the community Achievement contest. She has worked hard on club reports; served as chairman of the Cancer drive and worked on the Heart fund drive.

Citizenship Award

Dr. Cecil Robbins Speaks To Youngsville Graduates

Youngsville—Dr. Cecil Robbins, President of Louisburg Junior College, delivered the address to the Senior Class of the Youngsville High School at the graduating exercises held in the school auditorium on Thursday evening.

Introduced by Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Dr. Robbins prefaced his speech with the question "What is a diploma?" He then stated that it is evidence of academic achievement and evidence of moral achievement; that it is a key that unlocks doors to many opportunities. It is a reminder of privileges and responsibilities. Dr. Robbins mentioned various possibilities of personal development for the betterment of mankind. He closed with the familiar words "To whom much is given, much is required."

The Invocation and Benediction for the exercises were by Rev. Rufus F. Potts, Pastor of the local Baptist Church.

Songs presented by the High School Glee Club were "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Let's Pray for Peace"; with Mrs. A. N. Corpening directing the group. Piano accompanist were Peggy Cash, Frances Hill and Kay Hall.

Mrs. A. E. Hall, President of the Youngsville Woman's Club, was recognized for the purpose of presenting a Citizenship Medal. This award is given annually by the Woman's Club to a member of the Senior Class, selected by the faculty and a committee from the Woman's Club. This year the honor went to Miss Frances Hill, who is also the class Valedictorian.

School Principal E. R. Tharrington addressed the seniors and then presented diplomas to the twenty graduates and their little mascots, Tim Wiggins and Sandra Phelps.

Mrs. Juanita Potts played for the Processional "Pomp and Circumstance," when the Seniors and other dignitaries entered under an archway of lighted candles which were held Junior Class members. Seniors wore blue caps and gowns. Junior girls wore evening gowns, and did the girls in the Glee Club.

Class Night

Following the Senior's Class Night program which was held on the preceding Tuesday night, the members of the class had a reception in the Home Economics room with their parents and friends in attendance as guests. A variety of cookies and drinks were enjoyed during the social hour.

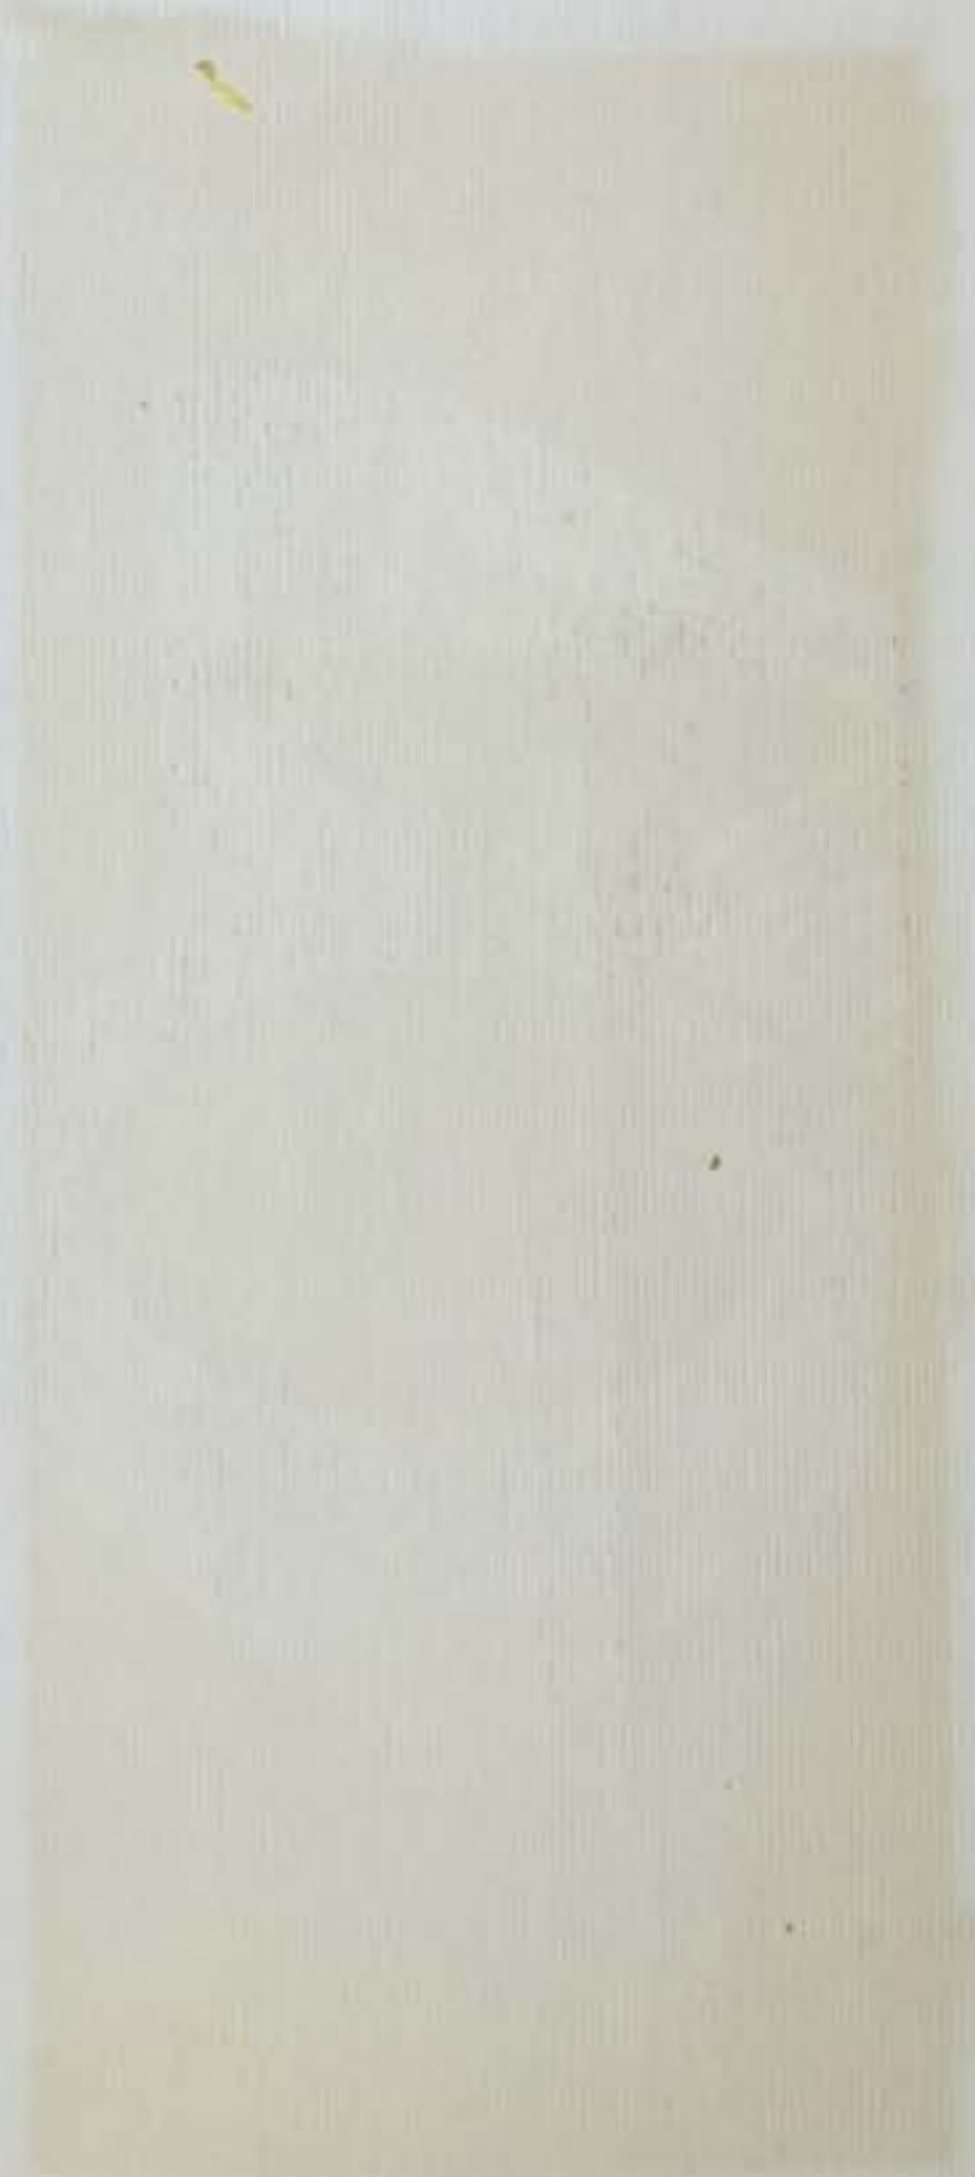

May 31, 1960

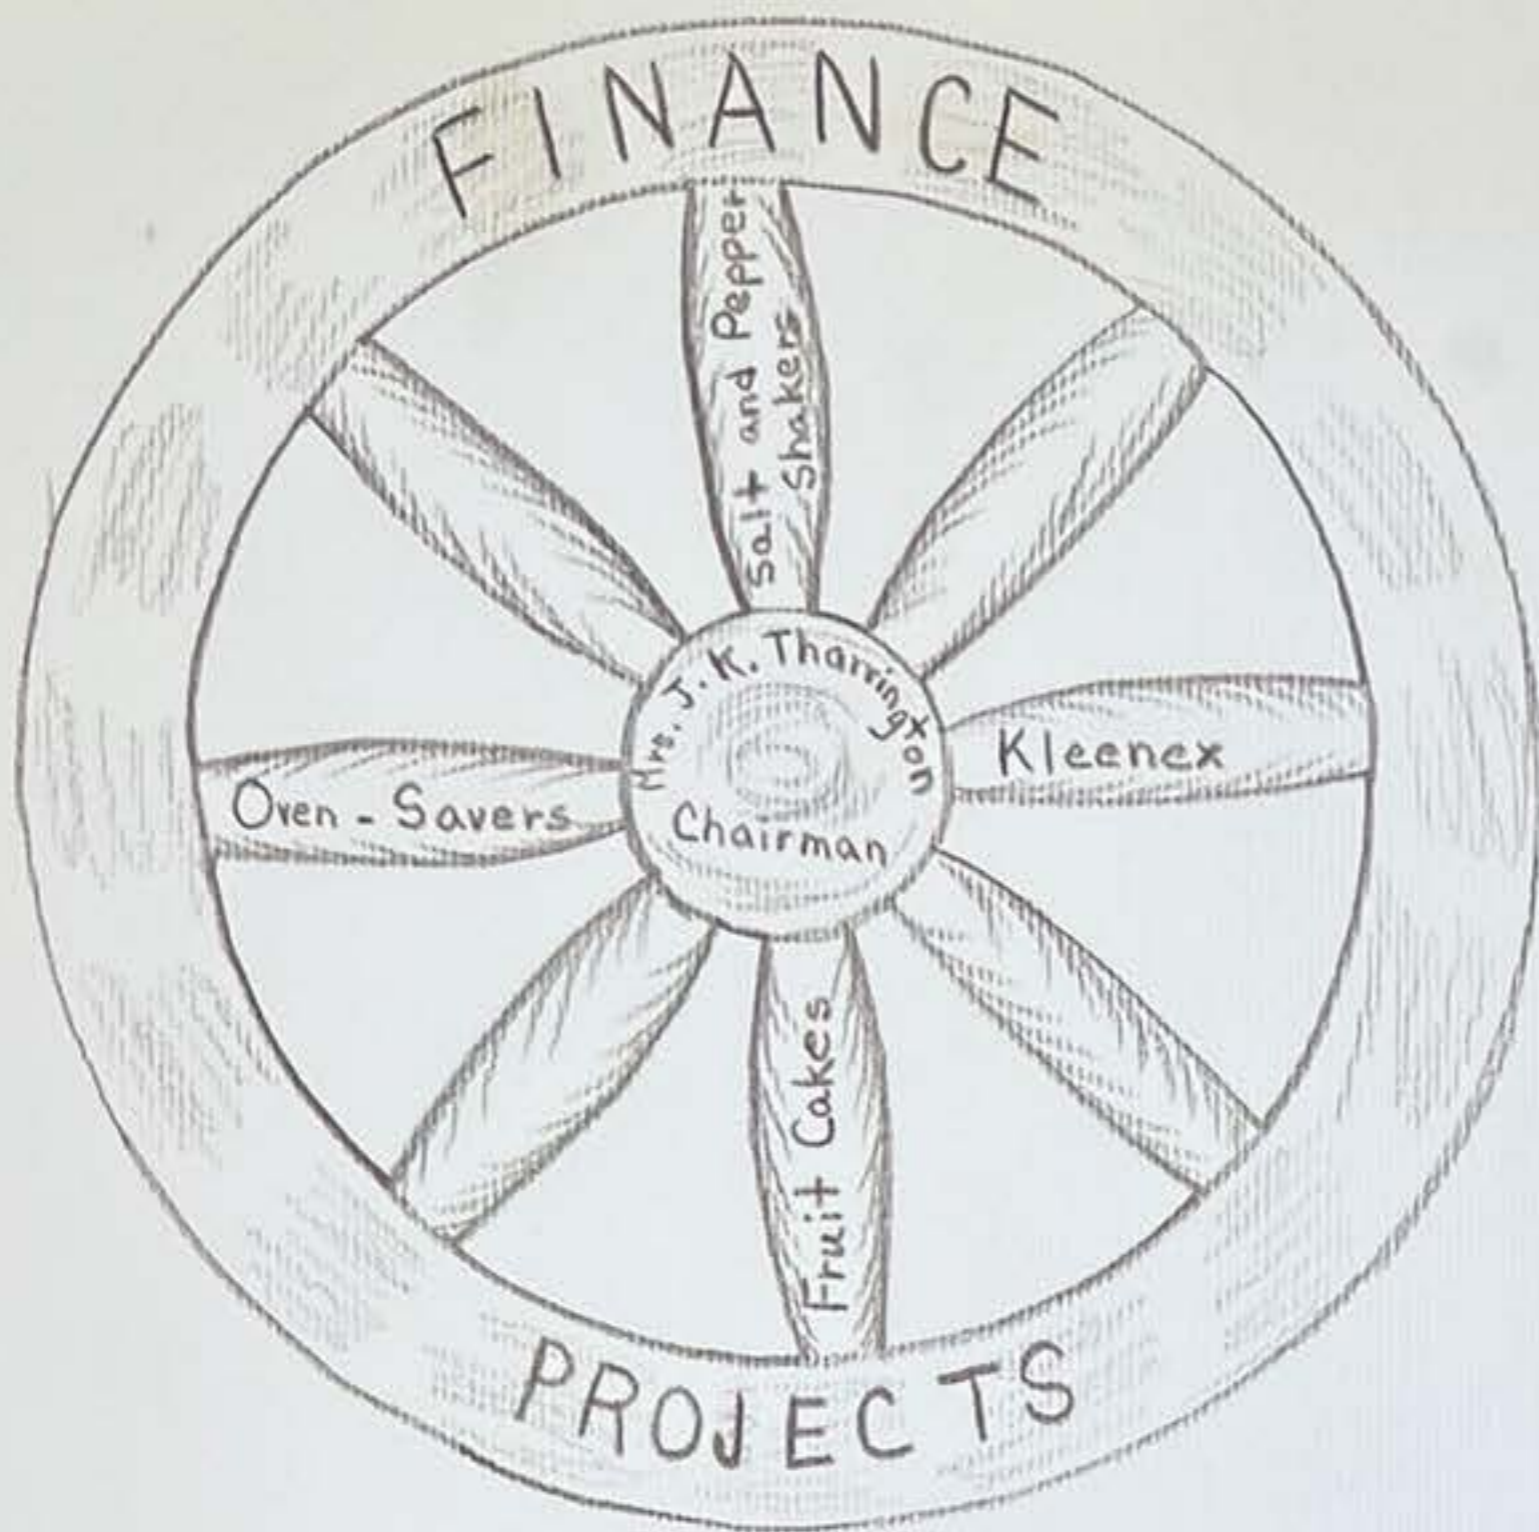

Dear Mrs. Hall,
Would you please express on my behalf to all the ladies of the Youngsville Woman's Club my appreciation for having been chosen 1960's recipient of your citizenship award.

This award has honestly meant more to me than

SUMMARY REPORT BLANK

1958-1960 COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENT CONTEST

Club name(s) YOUNGSVILLE WOMAN'S CLUB

City YOUNGSVILLE State N.C.

Describe briefly your Community Achievement:

The Girl Scout Hut building project was of interest to only a few in the beginning, but as the building grew, interest grew along with it until everyone was working cooperatively, and over a period of time created a beautiful building which is located corner of Main and Railroad Street for all Girl Scouts to enjoy.

Reason for choice of project(s):

The Girl Scouts needed a place to have their meetings and a place to store their scout materials.

Extent of community cooperation:

All civic clubs, P.T.A. and the Town of Youngsville assisted the Woman's Club in a successful project.

Permanent results (tangible and intangible):

The 16 x 30 foot white concrete block building will be cherished by Scouts and their Leaders for many many years to come.
We think of it as a symbol of love for young girls and for scouting.

Woman's Club Enters Contest

The Youngsville Woman's Club received today acknowledgement from Washington, D. C. of its official entry in the 1958-1960 Community Achievement Contest, co-sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and The Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

The club will compete with thousands of other federated women's clubs throughout the country for $65,000 in prizes, including a top national prize of $10,000. All cash awards won by clubs must be spent for the benefit of the community, according to contest rules.

Mrs. W. C. Timberlake, newly appointed Project and Community Achievement Contest Chairman for the Woman's Club reports that with the former projects and ones to come, they will have good chances of being a winner.

The Woman's Club special goal at present is to furnish and equip the new Girl Scout Hut. Other projects are being planned.

Mrs. Moss To Be District Chairman

Youngsville—Mrs. James Thomas Moss, a Past President of the Youngsville Woman's Club, has been chosen to serve as Scrapbook Chairman of the Fourteenth District for next year. She was appointed by the incoming President of District Fourteen, who is Mrs. Louise Royster of Oxford.

As Scrapbook Chairman, Mrs. Moss will see that the club scrapbooks are collected from over the district at the proper time, and that judges are selected to pick district winners.

The Youngsville Woman's Club was organized a few years ago under the leadership of Mrs. Moss, who was the club's first President. She has served the club in many capacities since then.

Mrs. Tharrington Appointed Chm'n.

Youngsville—Members of the local Woman's Club are happy to learn that their Immediate Past President Mrs. J. K. Tharrington has been appointed by the Fourteenth District President, Mrs. J. M. Royster, to serve as head of the Education Department of the district for the current term of office.

As one of her first responsibilities, Mrs. Tharrington will be participating as district leader and instructor for her department in the Woman's Club Workshop to be held on August the thirteenth at the Franklinton Community House. The Workshop is usually held at the time of the annual District meeting in October, but is being held earlier this year for the improved convenience of new officers.

Mrs. J. T. Moss, District Scrapbook Chairman, will be recognized at the meeting for words in regard to Scrapbooks. Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. will be in attendance in her official capacity as District Treasurer. It is hoped that many clubwomen from over the district will be in attendance for this general Workshop.

TO ALL DISTRICT CHAIRMAN:

Suddenly, I have realized that all of the chairman need the names of the club presidents in the 14th district, in order that they may contact them when plans have been made for carrying out their particular programs, therefore, I am listing below the names of the presidents, the name of the club and the town.

Note: The Year Book , Scrapbook, Community Achievement, Library, Crafts, Music, Literature & Drama, Safety and Legislature Chairman will work with both Jr. and Sr. Clubs since we only have one of the above. All Jr. Project chairman will work with Jr. Clubs and All Sr.Chairman with Sr. clubs, each seeking advice from each other if so desired. Just as the State is set up- In other words we will not have two of the named chairman above. The Music Chairman is a Jr. as is the Yearbook Chm. The Scrapbook Chm. and Crafts and Art Chairman are from the Sr. Clubs, whereas the Safety chairman is from a Jr. Club. We want our Jrs. to have just as many leaders as the Srs. It will take all of us to make the 'Mare Trot'. If this isn't clear we will discuss it more at the luncheon. I would like to refer you to the June issue of the clubwoman. It will give us the programs which we wish to promote. Also if you do not have a handbook from the state headquarters, 'Handbook of The N.C. Federation of Woman's Clubs', please write to Miss Myrtha Fleming,1509 Hillsboro St., Raleigh,N.C., send her 50¢ and she will mail you the bk. It tells all about the programs which you will be promoting.

See you the 19th,

Jamieson Stamp award and a certificate for outstanding work in Communications and a certificate in Mental Health, Caswell Training School- Butner certificate and a certificate in Community Affairs. The Oxford Intermediate Woman's Club won, The Dorothy Health Brown award- a silver tray for the best work in Fine Arts, The Morris Day Bronze Tray for the Best work in the General Field of Education, The Carolina Art Sales Gallery Award for the best work, along with two other clubs in "Crafts", the Help-A-Home Award- a pair of candelabras, the Samarcand Award, a silver bowl and silver tray. and- THE KITTY COPE ODOM, Award for the most members of a club participating in all the program of the N.C. F.W.C., in carrying it out more effectively, a certificate in International Relations and the Fannie Chase Station Vase for the most members beautifying their yards and gardens by planting shrubs, bulbs, flower slips and etc.. Many there were other winnings in the District but these are the one which I remember. The Youngsville Woman's Club's scrapbook was beautiful as was the Oxford Jr. Club's. They did not win the blue ribbons but we do appreciate their interest and the lovely books which went to the State for final judging. Next year we want more awards from other clubs in the district. We are going to really make a study of awards and I will do what I can to help you. I am asking you to please appoint an awards chairman in your club NOW. Be sure to bring her to the luncheon on the 19th of June. If you are holding any type of award or certificate, state or district, please bring it with you on the 19th also. We will discuss awards at this time. We would like to have all of the awards which are available on display at the luncheon. Let's salute Mrs. J.W. Weathers from Youngsville for an outstanding job in the CFWC Clubwoman magazines. The 14th District won the award!

LEADERS IN OUR DISTRICT:

Not only were we proud of our district for the awards won at convention but because of the outstanding leaders who were installed there and represented there. We take our hats off to Mrs. P.J. Curran, Oxford, *FINE ARTS CHAIRMAN FOR THE STATE. I know we will enjoy working with "Lan". To Joyce Shearin, who was appointed *CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, GAYNELLE DENISON (MRS. L.A.), BOTH FROM ROANOKE RAPIDS, also Mrs. John Boone (Grace) who will be serving again as Jr. Conservation Chm. Gaynelle, as we know is serving again as Help-A-Home Chairman. Congratulations to Roanoke Rapids for all of these fine leaders whom we all love. Mrs. Grady I. Carraker (Myrtle), Immediate Past District President did us the honor of accepting the chairmanship of the Character Education Division. It will be nice to have Myrtle working with us in this capacity. Of course we are all proud that Mrs. E.A. Latta (Gladys), our First Vice-President of the NCFWC is right from our district. Gladys did a fine job at convention and we were proud to claim her. To these leaders we are grateful. We congratulate the NCFWC upon it's choosing them and them unop the opportunity to serve the federation. We were also proud to have two pages from our district at convention. Mrs. Stanley Fox from the Oxford Jr. club and Mrs. R.A. Leggett Jr., from the Henderson Jr. Club, both of these were presidents of the respective clubs at the time and Mrs. Leggett, Donna Jean will continue since she is just going into office. Thanks to these gals.

NEWS TO THE JR. CLUBS.

AS MOST OF YOU KNOW, MRS. ERNEST HILL, WHO WAS THE JR. DIRECTOR FOR THE DISTRICT FOUND IT NECESSARY SOME WEEKS AGO TO RESIGN AND I AM HAPPY TO REPORT THAT THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE HAS APPOINTED MRS. STANLEY FOX, WHO IS THE RETIRING PRESIDENT OF THE OXFORD JR. CLUB TO REPLACE KATHRYN. YOU WILL BE HEARING FROM JOAN SOON. SHE HAS HAD A LOT OF EXPERIENCE IN CLUB WORK AND I AM SURE YOU WILL ENJOY WORKING WITH HER. SHE HAS A LOT OF PLANS AND I KNOW YOU WILL ENJOY MEETING HER AND SEEING HER AT THE LUNCHEON ON THE 19th OF JUNE.

PLEASE LET'S MAKE THAT LUNCHEON A BIG AFFAIR. IN ORDER THAT I MAY KNOW HOW MANY TO PLAN FOR I MUST HEAR FROM YOU AS TO THE NUMBER FROM YOUR CLUB WHO WILL BE ATTENDING. OF COURSE WE WANT ALL THE PRESIDENTS, VICE PRESIDENTS AND AWARDS CHAIRMAN TO COME AND OTHERS IF WE HAVE ROOM. PLEASE ALL CHAIRMAN IN THE DISTRICT, ALL STATE OFFICERS MAKE YOUR PLANS NOW AND WRITE ME JUST AS SOON AS POSSIBLE SO that we may extend an invitation to other clubwomen if we have the space. The damage for the luncheon will be $2.00 and it will be held at the Episcopal Parrish House on McClanahan Street, Oxford, N.C.. Just come to the monument (with the man going in the wrong direction), and go the the corner at the stop light, turn up college street, go one block and turn to the right and you will be sitting right in front of the Parrist House. A lovely new brick structure of which we are all very proud, although I am a baptist. Circle your calendar now, write to me today and let's make this a big affair for many reasons. I think now our Second Vice-President of the NCFWC (Mrs. Doc R. Oliver) will be with us as well as our First Vice President, Mrs. Latta. I just won't take "No" for an answer.

To all of you who have accepted so graciously the offices which I have asked you to accept, "Thanks a million". I am attaching a list of the District line-Up. Please keep it near and call on these people for help- We will discuss this again at the luncheon. There are just one or two places which I haven't completed yet but will make the adjustment at the luncheon. To all of you who have written me letters, I do appreciate it. It has been an inspiration and I know that we are going to have bushels of fun working together for the next two years! I'll see you on the 19th and please let those letters roll about the luncheon, saying, There will be numbers and numbers of us there. The hour? I almost forgot. 12 Noon.

LET'S ASK OURSELVES THIS QUESTION-

WHAT KIND OF A CLUB WOULD THIS CLUB BE IF EVERY MEMBER WERE JUST LIKE ME?

WHAT KIND OF A DISTRICT WOULD THIS DISTRICT BE IF EVERY CLUB PRESIDENT WERE JUST LIKE ME?

Bye, Bye- until June 19th,
12 o' c l o c k!

LOUISE ROYSTER

P.S. I know you are tired of this bulletin but I just had so much to tell you. If you have other officers or members that you want to bring to the luncheon, just let me know. how many.

DISTRICT CLUB LEADERS IN CITY FOR LUNCHEON

The pattern for 14th District Club activities was laid out here Friday during a luncheon attended by leaders from 23 clubs in 14 towns and cities in the territory extending northeastward to Jackson.

Mrs. J. M. Royster, District President, presided at the session, held at the Parish House of St. Stephen's church at noon. Mrs. Stanley Fox, 14th District Director, presided over the Junior Division.

Guests arrived at noon and were greeted by Mrs. George Duffy and Mrs. James Dunn.

Receiving were Mrs. Royster, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. E. A. Latta of Henderson, first vice president of the State Club Federation; Mrs. J. M. Weathers of Youngsville, district treasurer; Mrs. Walter H. Campbell of Weldon, district secretary; Mrs. Frank M. Rightmyer, Jr., of Roanoke Rapids, district vice president; Miss Mary Shotwell of Oxford, district parliamentarian; Mrs. Andrew Jamieson, Mrs. Glenn Currin, president of the Home and Garden Club; Mrs. Ballard Gay, president of the Jacksonville Junior Woman's Club and Mrs. T. J. Currin, State Federation Fine Arts Chairman.

The club women were invited into the parlor where Mrs. Tyree Currin and Mrs. Thomas B. Currin poured punch and Mrs. Garland Averett presided at the awards table, a display of awards made to clubs in the 14th district at the recent State Club Federation meeting.

Mrs. A. H. King, Mrs. C. L. Rucker, Mrs. Richard Murrill and Mrs. Dudley Fuller invited the guests into the beautifully appointed dining room, where a three course dinner was served.

The guests were seated geographically and the home club of the several delegations were indicated by originally designed lamp post markers prepared by the Intermediate Club of which Mrs. Murrill is president.

The colors of purpose, white and green were carried out in decorations and also in the dinner of creamed chicken, fruit salad and frozen dessert. Silver candlesticks awarded the Intermediate Club, with purple aster ornament and holding purple candles, were used on the head tables.

Flowers used in decorations were supplied by the Oxford Woman's Club, of which Mrs. C. L. Rucker is president, and Mrs. George Duffy. Music was supplied by the Junior Woman's Club of which Mrs. A. H. King is president, with Mrs. Luther Currin as soloist and Miss Betty Daniel as pianist.

The program for the day pointed up the 14th District meeting to be held October 16 in Jackson.

Mrs. J. T. Moss, J. W. Weathers, Jr., A. E. Hall, J. T. Allen, J. K. Tharrington and G. E. Winston attended the Woman's Club President's Institute held at Oxford Friday.

July 13, 1959

Dear Club Presidents, and District Chairman and Officers:

May I first tell you how very much I enjoyed having all of you in Oxford for the President's Luncheon on the 19th of June. It was so thrilling to see so many young and lovely women and all of you seemed to be so interested the coming club year's work. It gives me inspiration to see and know you. I feel that we really got acquainted and I do wish I could just sit down with each of you and talk to you all that I want to, just about club work- No, just because I feel that all of you are my very close friends and I would like to know about all of you, more about you and your families and etc.. Before the two years of office is finished I hope to have done just that.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR, CIRCIE THE DATE
I PROMISED TO TELL YOU WHEN.
IT'S THURSDAY, AUGUST, 13th.
AND THE HOUR IS AROUND 10.
IT'S THE 14th District Workshop
COME! PLEASE BRING A SANDWICH TOO.
AND WE HOPE THAT OUR PLANS WILL BE BENEFICIAL TO ALL OF YOU!

Although we decided to have a workshop just on awards and reports, we have decided that it would be helpful and better if we had a general workshop since this would help the chairman to be in close contact with the Presidents and department chairman and also for those who could not attend the workshop in Raleigh it will be helpful to them. To avoid confusion we have asked the Sr. department chairman to teach the workshop and then the Jr. project chairman will have their own workshop with the Jrs. Some of the Jr. chairman have said that they needed to learn more about their departments and we feel that since most of the Sr. chairman did attend the workshop in Raleigh that they will be able to do a good job and I do feel that we will have a real fine day. Everyone is welcome to come and I hope we will have a grand crowd. I think that the department chairman, awards chairman, district chairman and presidents should certainly make a special effort to come, also Our District officers- Ah Shucks! Everybody go- Everybody in the district is so important and we need all of you.

Please if you have something that you want to go in the district scrapbook(not individual club books), send it to Mrs. W.L.Wood, Warrenton,N.C., Mrs. Wood is anxious for the clippings, pictures and information from your club. Mrs. Richard Whitfield, District Awards Chairman has asked me to ask all clubs who have awards chairman to please send their names to her, and if you haven't appointed an awards chairman, please do so. That's Mrs. Richard Whitfield, Franklinton,N.C.. Thank you Bert!

We do appreciate the Franklinton Woman's Club inviting us there for the workshop. They will furnish the drinks and we take the sandwiches. That just sound like bushels of fun and then we will not have any workshops at our district meeting. We feel that we need the workshop before making our final plans for the years program. Please write me if you want additional information about August 13th'.

All good wishes to all of you.

Louise Royster
Getting old- forgot to tell you it will be in the Community House.

District Women's Clubs Hold Workshop In Franklinton

Franklinton — Women from six counties attended the Fourteenth District Women's Club Workshop in Franklinton on Thursday at the Community House.

Mrs. J. M. Royster of Oxford district president, presided over the meeting. Following the welcome by Mrs. J. E. Brady, president of the Franklinton Woman's Club, Mrs. Harry Kittner, president of the Weldon Junior Woman's Club, gave the response.

Mrs. Frank Rightmeyer of Roanoke Rapids, Vice president of the district, gave an informative talk about Samarcand. She urged the clubs to give financial support to this white school for girls.

Other participants in the workshop were Mrs. Eddie Lee Elks of Weldon (American Home Department Chairman), Mrs. James T. Moss of Youngsville (Scrapbook Chairman), Mrs. M. L. Cole of Henderson (Yearbook Chairman), Mrs. L. A. Denton of Roanoke Rapids (Community Affairs Department Chairman), Mrs. Jack W. Robbins of Scotland Neck (Help-a-Home Chairman), Miss Estelle Daniel of Roanoke Rapids (Conservation Chairman), Mrs. J. K. Tharrington of Youngsville (Education Chairman), Mrs. John R. Link of Warrenton (Scholarship Chairman), Mrs. P. A. Bullock of Seaboard (Fine Arts Chairman), Mrs. Harry Reinitz of Oxford (Art Chairman), Mrs. George Duffy of Oxford (International Relations Chairman), Mrs. Herman Hargrove of Weldon (Safety Chairman) and Mrs. Francis Ricks of Littleton (Community Achievement Contest chairman).

Mrs. Richard Whitfield, awards chairman for the district, announced that all entries for awards must be sent to her by September 15. Mrs. Sterling Carrington, of Oxford, announced that she would give an award for the American Home Department. The Joyce H. Shearin Bowl (for the best work in International Relations) will be available in 1960.

Mrs. Stanley Fox, of Oxford, Junior Director of the district, explained some of the Junior projects.

Mrs. Royster urged the club women to attend the district meeting in Jackson on October 15. Each district chairman is to "dress up" a hat, which will be symbolic of her work.

Local club women assisting with the workshop were: Mrs. J. E. Brady, Mrs. C. Ray Pruett, Mrs. Tommie Stephens, Mrs. L. A. Thompson, Sr., Mrs. J. E. Whitfield, Mrs. R. W. Moore and Mrs. Richard Whitfield.

Mrs. J. K. Tharrington, District Chairman of the Education Dept. of the Fourteenth District, and Mrs. J. T. Moss, District Scrapbook Chairman, were in Franklinton Thursday to participate in the Woman's Club Fourteenth District Workshop held at the community house. Mrs. R. E. EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Morris Day Bronze Tray - SR. CLUBS ONLY

To The club doing the best work in the General Field of Education. (All divisions)

Public Education

Do You Teach School? () Yes () No.

A Member of the P.T.A.? () Yes () No.

Any other connection with Schools? Explain.

Sponsor a Teacher's Tea in the early Fall for new teachers and invite all teachers, principals, and school officials. Have Coco Cola parties for teachers. Sponsor "Oscars For Teachers", or if you wish you may pick an outstanding teacher from each school in the county, let the students vote on their choice and then recognize her in the local paper, have her for a club meeting, or entertain all of the winners with a dinner, give them a gift or etc., This gives more teachers recognition and has proven to be very successful in Oxford and Granville County. We called it a "Teacher of the Week", contest. We highlighted each school as we did this. It gives the schools a boost rather than just the one school from which the teacher of the year comes.

Give Art awards in the school, sponsor scholarships, Have art exhibits in the schools, Help the PTA to raise money for the schools. Help to buy hot lunches for underprivileged children in your schools. Check to see if Sanitary napkins dispensars in the schools. So many schools do not have them. Insist that children show more respect for their teachers and show their appreciation to the teaching field.

Encourage school systems to have activity buses. Offer to help toward paying for them.

ADULT EDUCATION (Still a part of the Morris Day Bronze Tray Entry).

Organize a Community wide- Chorus. Just ask people who like to sing to join, Men and women. Maby you would like to have a portable organ. You can purchase one from Stephenson Music Co., Raleigh, for a small amount. Get some member of your club to play the organ if possible and to also direct. Sing carols at Christmas to the shut-ins, the hospitals will be glad to have you. Sing carols in your town in front of the Courthouse. Have a float in the Christmas parade. Wear Choir robes from the church, This is so much fun and is Adult Education. Sing Easter Music, and just sing for fun. This will also give you credit on your music report.

Organize and sponsor a SEWING CLASS IN YOUR CLUB.- This works fine because you may sew prior to the Vogue Sewing Contest and make the outfits which your club wishes to enter. There will be some member or members of your club who will teach or help teach this course. Your Home Ec. teachers will be glad to help. THIS WILL GIVE YOU CREDIT ON ADULT EDUCATION AND ALSO CRAFTS AND THE VOGUE SEWING CONTEST.

ORGANIZE AN ART CLASS* HOBBY ART CLASS. Maby you have some member who will consent to teach this or maby you will have to employ a teacher. Just paint for fun. Don't make it to professional because girls will hesitate to paint if they feel that a professional is watching. Insist that girls paint that have never painted. Help them to find their talent. THIS WILL GIVE YOU CREDIT ON YOUR ART AND ALSO ADULT EDUCATION.

BY ALL MEANS SPONSOR RED CROSS NURSE'S CLASSES- THIS IS NEEDED SO MUCH. YOU WILL BE ABLE TO USE THIS IN YOUR PUBLIC HEALTH AWARD ENTRY-"PLEDA JACKSON AWARD". (Community Affairs Department), and also ADULT EDUCATION. Try to get a nurse in your club if you have one to teach it. Always use your own members if possible. This helps on the Kitty Cope Odcm Award-

Have programs on Social Security, Religion, Government, (Classes if possible). Hold new member institutes "Know Your Federation Better", All this is Adult Education.

Visit the Art Museum in Raleigh,

IF YOU DO NOT ALREADY HAVE ONE TRY TO ORGANIZE AN ADULT EDUCATION COUNCIL IN YOUR TOWN. YOU CAN DO THIS THROUGH THE N.C. EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, RALEIGH, N.C. have programs that are educational to adults.

APPOINT A CHAPLAIN IN YOUR CLUB

Insist that members teach their children reverence and responsibility toward the church. Form Family circles, Stress good reading to members and insist that they do so with their children. Sponsor Youth groups. A good bit of the information under the Family Life- Religion Division of the American Home Dept. can be used here too.

SCHOLARSHIP DIVISION.

Your club may sponsor worthy girls for scholarships(if available), Ask your Dist. Scholarship Chairman about information., also refer to June clubwoman. Go into the High Schools and be sure that they know about these scholarships.

(BE SURE THAT ALL GIRLS KNOW ABOUT THE SALLIE SOUTHWALL COTTON FUND).

NANCY MARSHALL CUP(Same award for Jr. Clubs as MORRIS DAY BRONZE TRAY FOR SR. CLUBS. (NANCY MARSHALL CUP)

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT -

DOROTHY HEATH BROWN SILVER TRAY(Best Work by Clubs in a Small Towns- 10,000 population or less). In All divisions of Fine Arts.)

ART DIVISION- Sponsor Art classes among members-(same as above). Contact Mrs. Harry W. Reinitz, Pine Cone Drive, Oxford, N.C., your District Art Chairman for suggestions on this.

Sponsor Art Exhibits in the schools, Offer Awards for the Best paintings. Check with your School Supervisor on this. She will help you. Encourage painting Observe Art Week. (It will be announced). Have members write articles on Art. Have programs on Art. Visit the Art Museum in Raleigh, Write for reservations. Go on Sunday afternoon. They will let you know when they have lectures. See sheet attached from Mrs. Reinitz for other suggestions.

MUSIC DIVISION - Organize Chorus as described in Adult Education. Sponsor High School students in State Contest. Encourage members to see that they learn the Clubwoman Hymn. Check with your Music Chairman, Mrs. C.L.Heggie, Norlina, N.C..

CRAFT'S DIVISION - BY ALL MEANS- Have several entries in the Vogue Sewing Contest. Hold Interior Decorating Classes. Encourage members to learn to sew, needlepoint, crochet, make scenery, (If they do ask them to bring them to a club meeting. Check with Mrs. Clarence Page, District Craft's Chairman for help in this division. Refer to June clubwoman, page 15. (This work will give you information and credit for the Carolina Sales Art Gallery Award).

Have you done any craft's work? (Yes) (No)

Literature & Drama. -

HAVE YOU READ ANY BOOKS?

() Yes () No.

If so how many?

Have you written any plays? poems? short stories? Explain.

Louise & Joan

DIVISION

Through competition, contests and awards interest your members in double program: (A) To secure more complete and informative news coverage as well as interest public with sparkling feature stories, and (B) To train and develop members for stimulating and remunerative hobbies. (Newspapers buy feature stories and many an author began her career with such an humble beginning.)

MISS DOTTY CAMERON, WOMAN'S EDITOR OF NEWS & OBSERVER, RALEIGH GIVES FOLLOWING LIST OF SUGGESTIONS TO REMEMBER:

There are feature stories all around you; remember, what interests you, someone else would like to read about too.

Stories don't have to be lengthy but they should be well-written.

Make your opening sentence lively - - something that will attract the reader's attention and make him want to know more.

Unlike news stories, all the facts don't have to be included in the opening paragraph of a feature story. Build up to a climax which might even be the last sentence.

Use vivid descriptions and don't be afraid to express your own reactions. For instance, instead of saying "The sunset on the mountain top was breathtaking" the reader will get a much clearer picture of how it actually looked if you say "At sunset, the mountain top looked like a giant cone of strawberry ice cream."

When writing about people, get something of their personality in your story.... what they like, how they look and little characteristics that distinguish them.

Use short sentences with lively words to give your story sparkle. But be accurate and don't omit important facts which contribute to your point.

Invite newspaper editor to give inspirational talk, meeting in joint session with Communications Department.

Let "Reading with a Purpose" be your motto. Have intriguing discussions and book reviews on the N.C. Books of the Year, Best Sellers of the Year and prize-winning books.

Hold an Autograph Party or "Meet the Author" Tea or Luncheon for local or visiting author.

Stimulate interest in good children's stories and books by having a beloved writer as guest speaker and then sponsor a Book Fair of Children's Books. (Publishers will send books for sale on consignment, which serves a two-fold purpose: buying worthwhile gifts and augmenting your treasury.)

Sponsor a Story-Hour for children on the local radio or TV as a summer or winter project. Begin by setting up a class for prospective story-tellers who wish to become more polished entertainers for the radio or TV program.

Form a Play-Reading Group, "Walk-On Rehearsals", where the latest hits may be read and acted without memorizing. Follow with discussions and criticism.

Have a program on "The Evolution of a Book". Secure an author as speaker and ask her to show detailed steps in the formation of one of her published books.

Set up local contest for best 30-minute skit or play, using subjects which would enliven any meeting. Call it "Dramas of the Everyday" with winning skit produced at a spring meeting, banquet or District Meeting as entertainment of the day.

Encourage competition in Play-Writing and Creative Writing Classes. Produce original plays at a Home Town Talent Night.

Aim for State Award in writing. See N.C. Handbook for list.

MUSIC DIVISION

Mrs. D. M. Wood, Chairman
819 Austin Street Pinescroft
Hamlet, North Carolina

As we make plans for our programs for 1959-60, I challenge each Music Chairman, local and district, to make music a vital and important part of the year's work, for music is one of our greatest pointers in creating goodwill among all peoples, at home and among foreign nations.

Be determined now, that your club will win many of the awards offered in music:

1. For the first time, there are four cash awards of $50.00 each offered for the best performance by an ensemble of singers in each of the following groups:

1. Class A - Clubs of 100 members or more
2. Class B - Clubs of 51 to 100 members
3. Class C - Clubs of 26 to 50 members
4. Class D - Clubs of 25 members or less

Each ensemble will prepare 2 (or 3) numbers selected by State Music Chairman (these to be publicized early in October) local directors to be selected by clubs.

These to be conducted in same manner as State Music Contests, that is, on the local, district and state levels.

The State Contest would be a "Choral Festival", held in the Spring, time and place to be announced by State Music Chairman through the Clubwoman. Therefore, let me urge every club in our State to focus the spot light on your Club Chorus!

2. Local chairman make plans now for the State Music Contest for high school seniors. I beg each chairman to contact all music teachers and high school music departments so that no eligible girl or boy may fail to be given this golden opportunity on the local level. Plan to hold local contests on or before Saturday, March 5, 1960. Each club may send 5 winners to the district contest, one in each category, (see State Year Book, page 90 - 93). District Contests to be held Saturday, March 12, 1960. And in the same manner, each district may send 5 winners to the State Contest. The place of the State Contest to be held in Raleigh, Saturday, March 19, at 1:30 p.m. will be announced in Clubwoman.

3. Urge all clubwomen to compete for:

1. "Florence M. Cooper Cup", for best original piano composition.
2. "Kitty Poole Johnson Tray", for best original musical composition.
3. "Maggie Mae Jones Cup", for best program on Biblical Music inspired by Old or New Testament.
4. "Carlotta Barbour Sanders Cup", for best original composition by Junior Club member.

Awards for college students, cash award of $ 50.00 for best original musical composition.

4. Concern yourself at all times about the "type" and quality of music you and your children are being exposed to. Insist on "good" music which gives beauty, harmony and lustre to living.

5. Plan musical programs for hospitals and homes for the ageing.

6. Use your influence in securing "Music for Industry", in your local area. The efficiency in industry is greatly increased when the workers are exposed to good music.

7. In areas where Concerts (Civic) are given and are easily accessible, plan to cooperate by selling season tickets for these and to attend in groups. Help promote the N. C. Symphony Orchestra, either by donations from your club or by selling tickets for the concerts which are given all over the State.

8. Make National Music Week the first week in May 1960 truly a week of music! Cooperate with choirs, schools, clubs, press, radio and television.

Before our year's work begins, let me urge every chairman to keep a detailed record of all plans promoted through out the year! We have 355 clubs in the State. Last year only 114 clubs made reports on music.

I would be most happy to have all 355 clubs reporting this year.

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT

Mrs. T. J. Currin, Chairman
Rt. 5, Box 1, Oxford, N. C.

LUSTER TO LIVING

"-----talent, God given, should rightly
Be spent bringing joy to all
And it's blessings add luster to living
Though that talent be great or small."

Anne C. Korpies

Clubwomen, I cannot impress upon you the necessity for us to seek a way of challenging peoples minds, thoughts and hands to do something that is "good". Anything that we can do, in our community, to make people more conscious of the finer things in life and to appreciate them when they see or hear them, is worth our time and effort.

The best way to begin or end such a program would be to hold a Fine Arts Festival in your community. There is complete information on how to do this FREE from GFWC Hdqs. "Lets Plan A Fine Arts Festival". You can adopt these plans to your local needs.

At the present time we do not have a Crafts Chairman. I have a few suggestions for programs and plans on crafts, such as

1. Craft exhibit (as varied as possible)
2. Hobbies and Interest, series of classes
3. Demonstration of Crafts in various stages of progress
4. History and development of crafts
5. Talk by Occupational Therapist with exhibit of craft work done by physically handicapped
6. Crafts of other lands
7. Demonstration of cake decorating by a professional
8. Initiate craft projects with youth groups, golden age groups, etc.
9. Encourage members to share their knowledge of crafts
10. Participate in Vogue Sewing Contest (over $11,000 in prizes given)

BY ALL MEANS KEEP THE JUNE ISSUE OF N. C. CLUBWOMAN CLOSE BY AT ALL TIMES. IT CAN BE OF GREAT HELP.

After doing all the fine work that you do, it is in order that you make entry for the awards that are given. Study pages 84-94 in your Handbook.

ONLY BY WORKING TOGETHER

All have a share in the beauty
All have a part in the plan
What does it matter what duty
Falls to the lot of man?
Someone has blended the plaster
And someone has carried the stone,
Neither the man nor the master
Ever has builded alone.
Making a roof from the weather
Or building a house for the king,
Only by working together
Have men accomplished a thing.

OBJECTIVE: To promote and stimulate interest in Art from the young child to the adult.

Program of Action:

- (1) Observe American Art Week, first week in November
- (2) Contribute to Ten Penny Art Fund
- (3) Arrange local Art Exhibits
- (4) Organize a local Art Club or class in your community.
- (5) Support Art Directors in your Schools
- (6) Art Supplies, art books and magazines can be supplied to schools and libraries.
- (7) Assist in developing talented children. Promote children's exhibits with awards.
- (8) Form an Art Appreciation Class. Arrange lectures, discussions, forums, show motion pictures and slides of artists of all times and nations, architecture and sculpture; painting techniques, media processes, tools and materials.
Current magazines, radio, television and even newspapers are filled with news about Art.

An excellent Art Appreciation Course is offered by the Metropolitan Museum of Art - a home course - a portfolio is mailed each month consisting of reproduction prints of famous paintings (suitable for framing) at a small fee of about $3.75. With the pictures is a study course of each painting telling about the artist and his technique.

Our own State can well boast of its Art Museum. Though it is only few years old, it is an excellent Art Museum housing within its walls famous works of Art from the Early Christian Art to Modernistic. All clubs within traveling distance of Raleigh should try to visit at least once during club year. This fall the museum will be offering colored slides of its great masterpieces with accompanying text so that groups throughout the State may learn more about the museum's collection. Take advantage of the offer. Write directly to N. C. State Art Museum, Mr. Charles W. Stanford, Curator of Education. If possible, become a member, membership fees are $5.00 per year and much needed for the advancement of the educational program.

Even a tour of your local churches can offer much in the way of Art through their architecture, stained glass windows paintings, etc. Arrange a tour with a guide.

Support the Art Talent Contest for High Seniors and the Younger Jr. High Contest - See Handbook for rules.

Mrs. H. W. (Margaret) Reinitz

DATES!

Dear Club Presidents and Chairman:

Everyone has said, "If I can just remember all of the dates!", These are a few.

Mrs. P.A. Bullock, Sr. Fine Arts Chairman and Literature & Drama Chairman has agreed with the help of the Seaboard Woman's Club to write a skit for the club presidents' reports at the District Meeting October 16th. Those of you who were in Franklinton for the Workshop heard this announcement and if all of you want to do your District President the biggest favor of the year, PLEASE! PLEASE! do this today. Mrs. Bullock wants you to send her your most outstanding project (or if you can't decide, send two or three). This is for the club year, since the last District Meeting. This will be written in a skit form and she will let you know later what she wants you to do. This information must be in the hands of Mrs. P.A. Bullock, Seaboard, N.C., not later than SEPTEMBER 15th. Please don't forget this because we want all clubs in the skit.

Also the 15th of September is the date for sending to Mrs. M.L. Cole, Jr., Henderson, N.C., Yearbook chairman, three copies of your yearbook.

The 15th of September is the date also for sending your list of GF Clubwoman Subscriptions to the Dist. Chairman, Mrs. Carlyle Wright, Redbud Drive, Henderson, N.C. Just type in duplicate the list, double spaced, with full address. The cost is $1.00 per subscription, so one check can accompany the list. Let's win that award again in this district. If you haven't done so appoint a chairman to start working on this today, please! (Sept. 15th- District Award Entries) See note below.

Dues should be paid by Dec. 1st, 1959, but I do wish our district could be the first in the state to have all club's dues paid.

SEPTEMBER 25th, 1959, is the deadline for getting your Pressbook and Scrapbook to Mrs. J.T. Moss, Jr., Youngsville, N.C. Dist. Scrapbook Chm. Margaret will be looking for those.

Now, if you are a chairman and you weren't at the workshop we missed you. We missed all of you who weren't there. I announced that I would like for all of the chairmen to make a hat, symbolic of their department or project and wear it to the District Meeting. We will have a fashion show of the Chairman and will let you know later about it, if you will just make the hat now. Just an old hat. For instance the Help-A-Home Chairman could buy little tiny doll furniture and dress hers up! Can't you just see them now?

Due to a physical condition I will not be able to get out a second notice on these dates so please keep this and please try to get everything in on time, DON'T FORGET THE INFORMATION TO MRS. BULLOCK AND SHE WILL NOTIFY YOU LATER OF YOUR PART ON THE PROGRAM!

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING! I'LL SEE YOU IN OCTOBER (about the 16th).

Love,
Louise
PRESIDENT DISTRICT 14, NCFWC

Oh! Bert Whitfield, District Awards Chairman is going to be mad with me. It's so important too. District awards entries, in quadruplicate, should be in to Mrs. Richard Whitfield, Franklinton, N.C. not later than Sept. 15

NOTE FROM JOAN: There are two new district awards for Jrs.- One- For the best work in Stamps given by the Oxford Jr. Club and an award given by the Weldon Jr. Club for the best work in the Children's Home Society. These will be available for this Dist. meeting and should have all entries on just these two projects mailed to the Jr. Awards Chm. Mrs. Leslie Bullard, Louisburg, N.C. All entries for the other dist. awards go to Mrs. Whitfield regardless of whether it is a Jr. club or Sr. If you cannot send your corrected mailing list with the dues before Dec. 1, be sure to send a list of the deletions and additions to Miss Fleming right away so the N.C. Clubwoman will be sure to reach all new members right away.

Represents District In State Vogue Sewing Contest

MRS. ROGER MATTHEWS, of the Louisburg Junior Woman's Club, is shown above in the outfit she modeled in the State Vogue Pattern Service Fashion Contest on Tuesday, during the annual convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. The contest was held in the Virginia Dora Ballroom of the Sir Walter Hotel. She was first place winner in the district contest held in March.

Although Mrs. Matthews did not take top honors in the state contest, the members of the clubs in District Fourteen were most impressed by the outfit which Mrs. Matthews had made, which represented the ideal outfit for a clubwoman, which could be changed to take her through an entire day of meetings or a convention.

Mrs. Matthews used black shantung for her costume, consisting of a sheath dress with rhinestone straps, to be used for evening and two different jackets which can be used to cover the sheath dress for luncheons or teas.

To convert her outfit for use at sports events or a morning meeting, Mrs. Matthews added a black and white tweed jacket and hat. Her costume also featured a full length black wool coat. Her outfit may be changed in numerous ways by the use of accessories and costume jewelry.

Miss Dottie Cameron was commentator for the contest on Tuesday, in which Mrs. O. G. Lane of Derita was first place winner and Mrs. H. E. Davis of Andrews placed second.

Winner From Louisburg

GFWC District Fashion Sewing Contest Held With Local Club

A Louisburg club member took top honors in the District 14 General Federation of Woman's Clubs Fashion Sewing contest held here Friday evening, with the Henderson club serving as hostesses for the event.

Mrs. Roger Matthews of Louisburg was selected winner of the contest, sponsored by the GFWC in conjunction with the Vogue Pattern Service, and in cooperation of the Woman's Club Service Bureau.

The winning costume consisted of several pieces which can be worn casually or formally. In taking district honors, Mrs. Matthews modeled a black silk shantung sheath, with accessory blouse, jackets and full length black wool coat. Several original hats and carefully selected jewelry accented the ensembles.

Mrs. C. E. Page, Jr., district crafts chairman, and last year's state winner in the sewing contest, was in charge of the affair. Contestants included Mrs. Ballard Gay, of Jackson; Mrs. George W. Baird, Roanoke Rapids; Mrs. Thos. Currie, Intermediate club of Oxford; Mrs. Joe Bryan, Junior Woman's club, Oxford, and Mrs. Matthews.

As winner in district competition, Mrs. Matthews will be eligible to enter the State contest, to be held during the State Convention of Woman's Clubs in Raleigh April 5. She also will receive a six-months subscription to Vogue magazine, a permanent scroll for her club, and her favorite Vogue pattern.

Judges serving last evening were Mrs. Eva Macon and Mrs. Magdoline Dickerson of Henderson and Mrs. Justin Rankoff of Oxford.

An estimated forty guests were present for the affair held in the Woman's Club building on Belle street.

During a social hour, Russian tea and party dainties were served from a table decorated with yellow spring flowers.

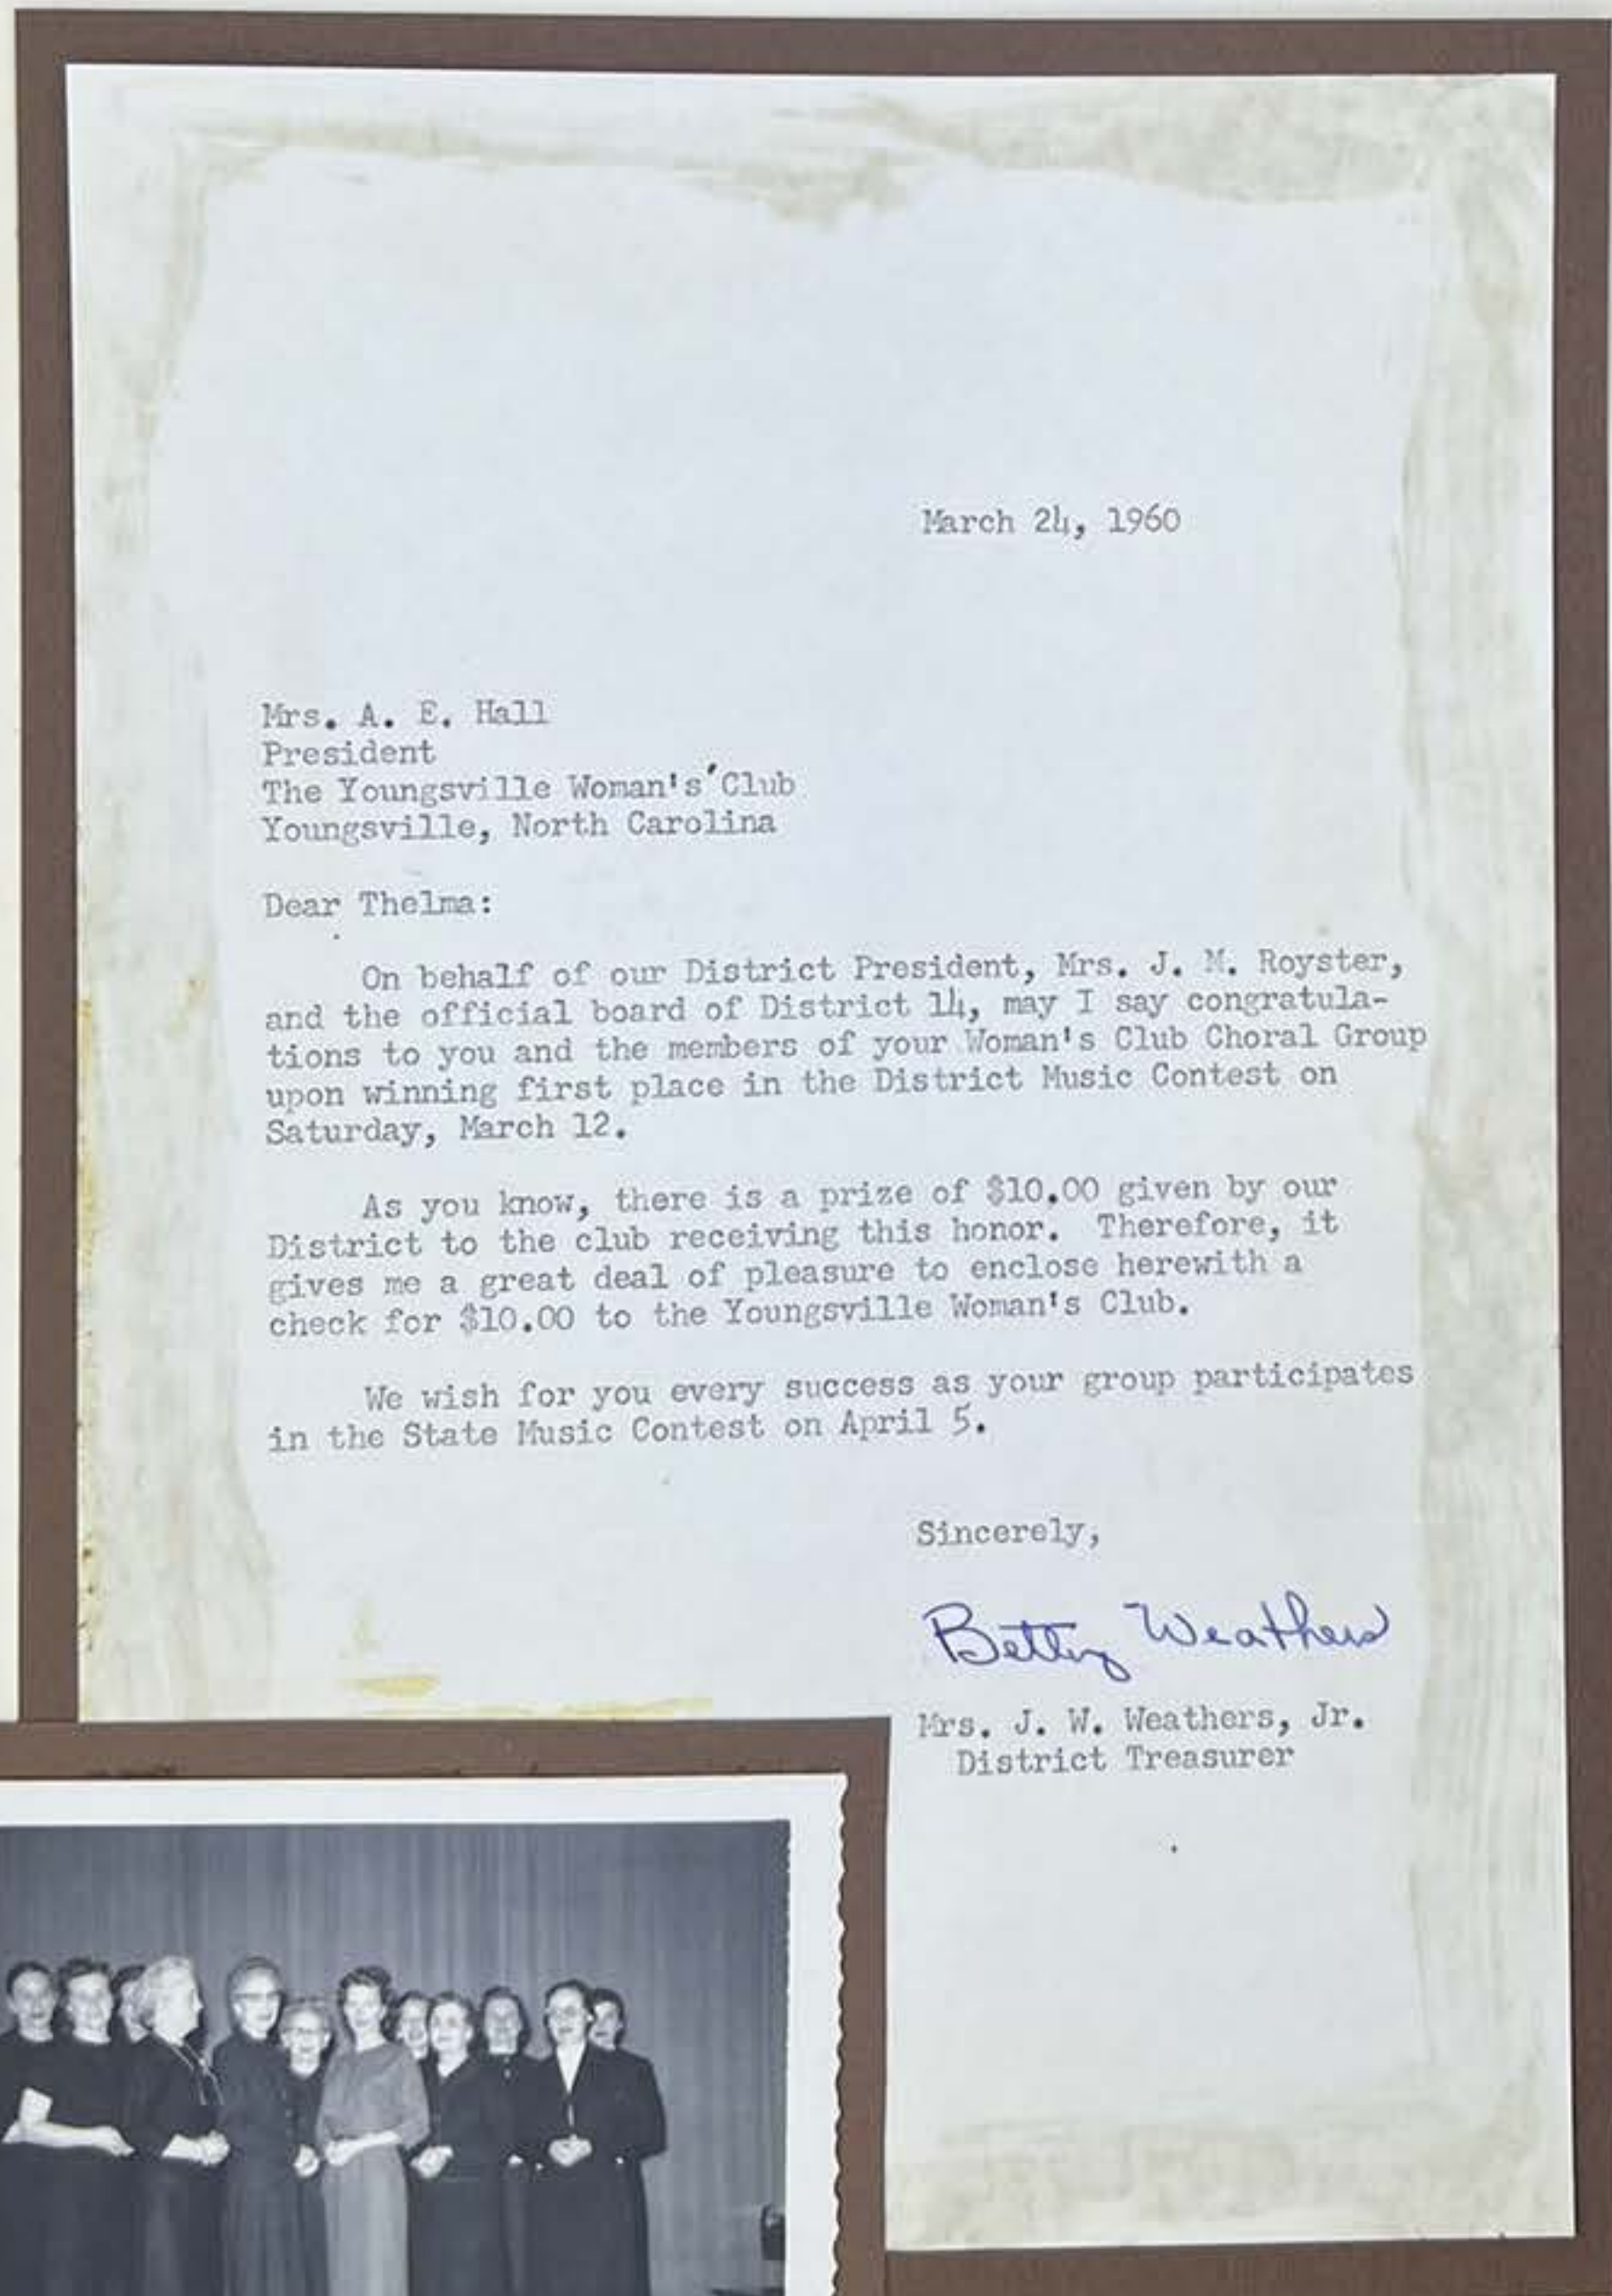

Mrs. L. A. Woodlief, Mrs. W. G. Scarborough, Mrs. J. H. Winston, Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mrs. J. J. Hart and Mrs. J. E. Underwood were in Henderson Friday night to attend the Woman's Club district Fashion Show. Clubwomen of the district modeled fashions which they made to enter in the sewing contest.

Off to the District Music Contest—

Peggy Cash, Youngsville High School senior Music Contestant and Mrs. R. F. Potts, Accompanist.

Mrs. A. E. Hall
President
The Youngsville Woman's Club
Youngsville, North Carolina

Dear Thelma:

On behalf of our District President, Mrs. J. M. Royster, and the official board of District 14, may I say congratulations to you and the members of your Woman's Club Choral Group upon winning first place in the District Music Contest on Saturday, March 12.

As you know, there is a prize of $10.00 given by our District to the club receiving this honor. Therefore, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to enclose herewith a check for $10.00 to the Youngsville Woman's Club.

We wish for you every success as your group participates in the State Music Contest on April 5.

Sincerely,

Betty Weathers

Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr.

District Music Contest Held At Norlina Gym

District 14 of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Club held its district music contest in the Norlina gymnasium on Saturday, March 12. Mrs. C. L. Hege, district chairman, presided over the meeting.

High school seniors from several high schools competed in piano and voice.

Miss Juanita Alkazin of Scotland Neck won first place in piano. She played "Fantasia in D Minor," by Mozart. Miss Doris Roberson of Louisburg won second place. She played "Prelude in G Major," by Bach.

In the vocal competition, Miss Bonnie Lou Currin of Oxford won first prize. She sang "Invocation of Orpheus." Miss Hannah Sykes of Louisburg won second place. She sang "Death and the Maiden," by Schubert.

The two first place winners will compete in the state contest to be held at Peace College in Raleigh on March 19.

The Youngsville Woman's Club won first place in the Club Chorus Competition. The two numbers selected for their competition were "Lullaby," by Nobel Cain, and "My Lover Is A Fishman," by Lily Strickland.

The state contest for choral groups will be held at the state convention in Raleigh on April 2.

Each first place winner won a $10.00 cash prize and will compete for a $10.00 cash prize at the state contest.

Judges for the contests were Mrs. Sturgess Collins of Manson, Mrs. John Link of Warrenton and Mr. Robert Macon Davis of Warrenton.

Dear Club Presidents:

Fast the time is approaching for the annual district meeting in Jackson. The 16th of October marks the date. I am sure that by this time you have received your Subpoena from the Jackson Jr. Womans Club and you are making your plans to attend.

I am enclosing herewith form for registration and form for notifying the Jackson club President of your estimated attendance.

I want to thank you for the prompt manner in which you have met the deadlines for yearbooks, scrapbooks, award entries, project for skit and everything that you have done in getting our district work off to what I call a "Good Start". I am highly pleased with the district and how could it be any other way with such wonderful people and leaders.

I am also enclosing copy of skit, and letter from Mrs. P.A. Bullock. All of this is self-explanatory and I look forward to seeing you on the 16th of October for a lot of fun.

Please add to your list of chairman for the district, Mrs. R.M. Moore, Franklinton, N.C. Road Sign Chairman and Mrs. Roy Overby, Norlina, N.C. Boys Home Coupon Project Chairman. You will hear more from these later.

To those clubs which I have visited thus far, it has been a real pleasure and to those that I haven't visited as of yet, I look forward to seeing you.

With best wishes, I am

Most sincerely,
Louise Royster
Louise Royster
Dist. President.
Dist. 14, NCFWC.

If you cannot for some reason attend the meeting, please have someone to present the exhibits and take your place in the skit. Please have her notify Mrs. Bullock of the change when she arrives.

Junior Woman,s Club of Jackson, Hostess

Dear Club Presidents:

Fast the time is approaching for the annual district meeting in Jackson. The 16th of October marks the date. I am sure that by this time you have received your Subpoena from the Jackson Jr. Womans Club and you are making your plans to attend.

I am enclosing herewith form for registration and form for notifying the Jackson club President of your estimated attendance.

I want to thank you for the prompt manner in which you have met the deadlines for yearbooks, scrapbooks, award entries, project for skit and everything that you have done in getting our district work off to what I call a "Good Start". I am highly pleased with the district and how could it be any other way with such wonderful people and leaders.

I am also enclosing copy of skit, and letter from Mrs. P.A. Bullock. All of this is self-explanatory and I look forward to seeing you on the 16th of October for a lot of fun.

Please add to your list of chairman for the district, Mrs. R.M. Moore, Franklinton, N.C. Road Sign Chairman and Mrs. Roy Overby, Norlina, N.C. Boys Home Coupon Project Chairman. You will hear more from these later.

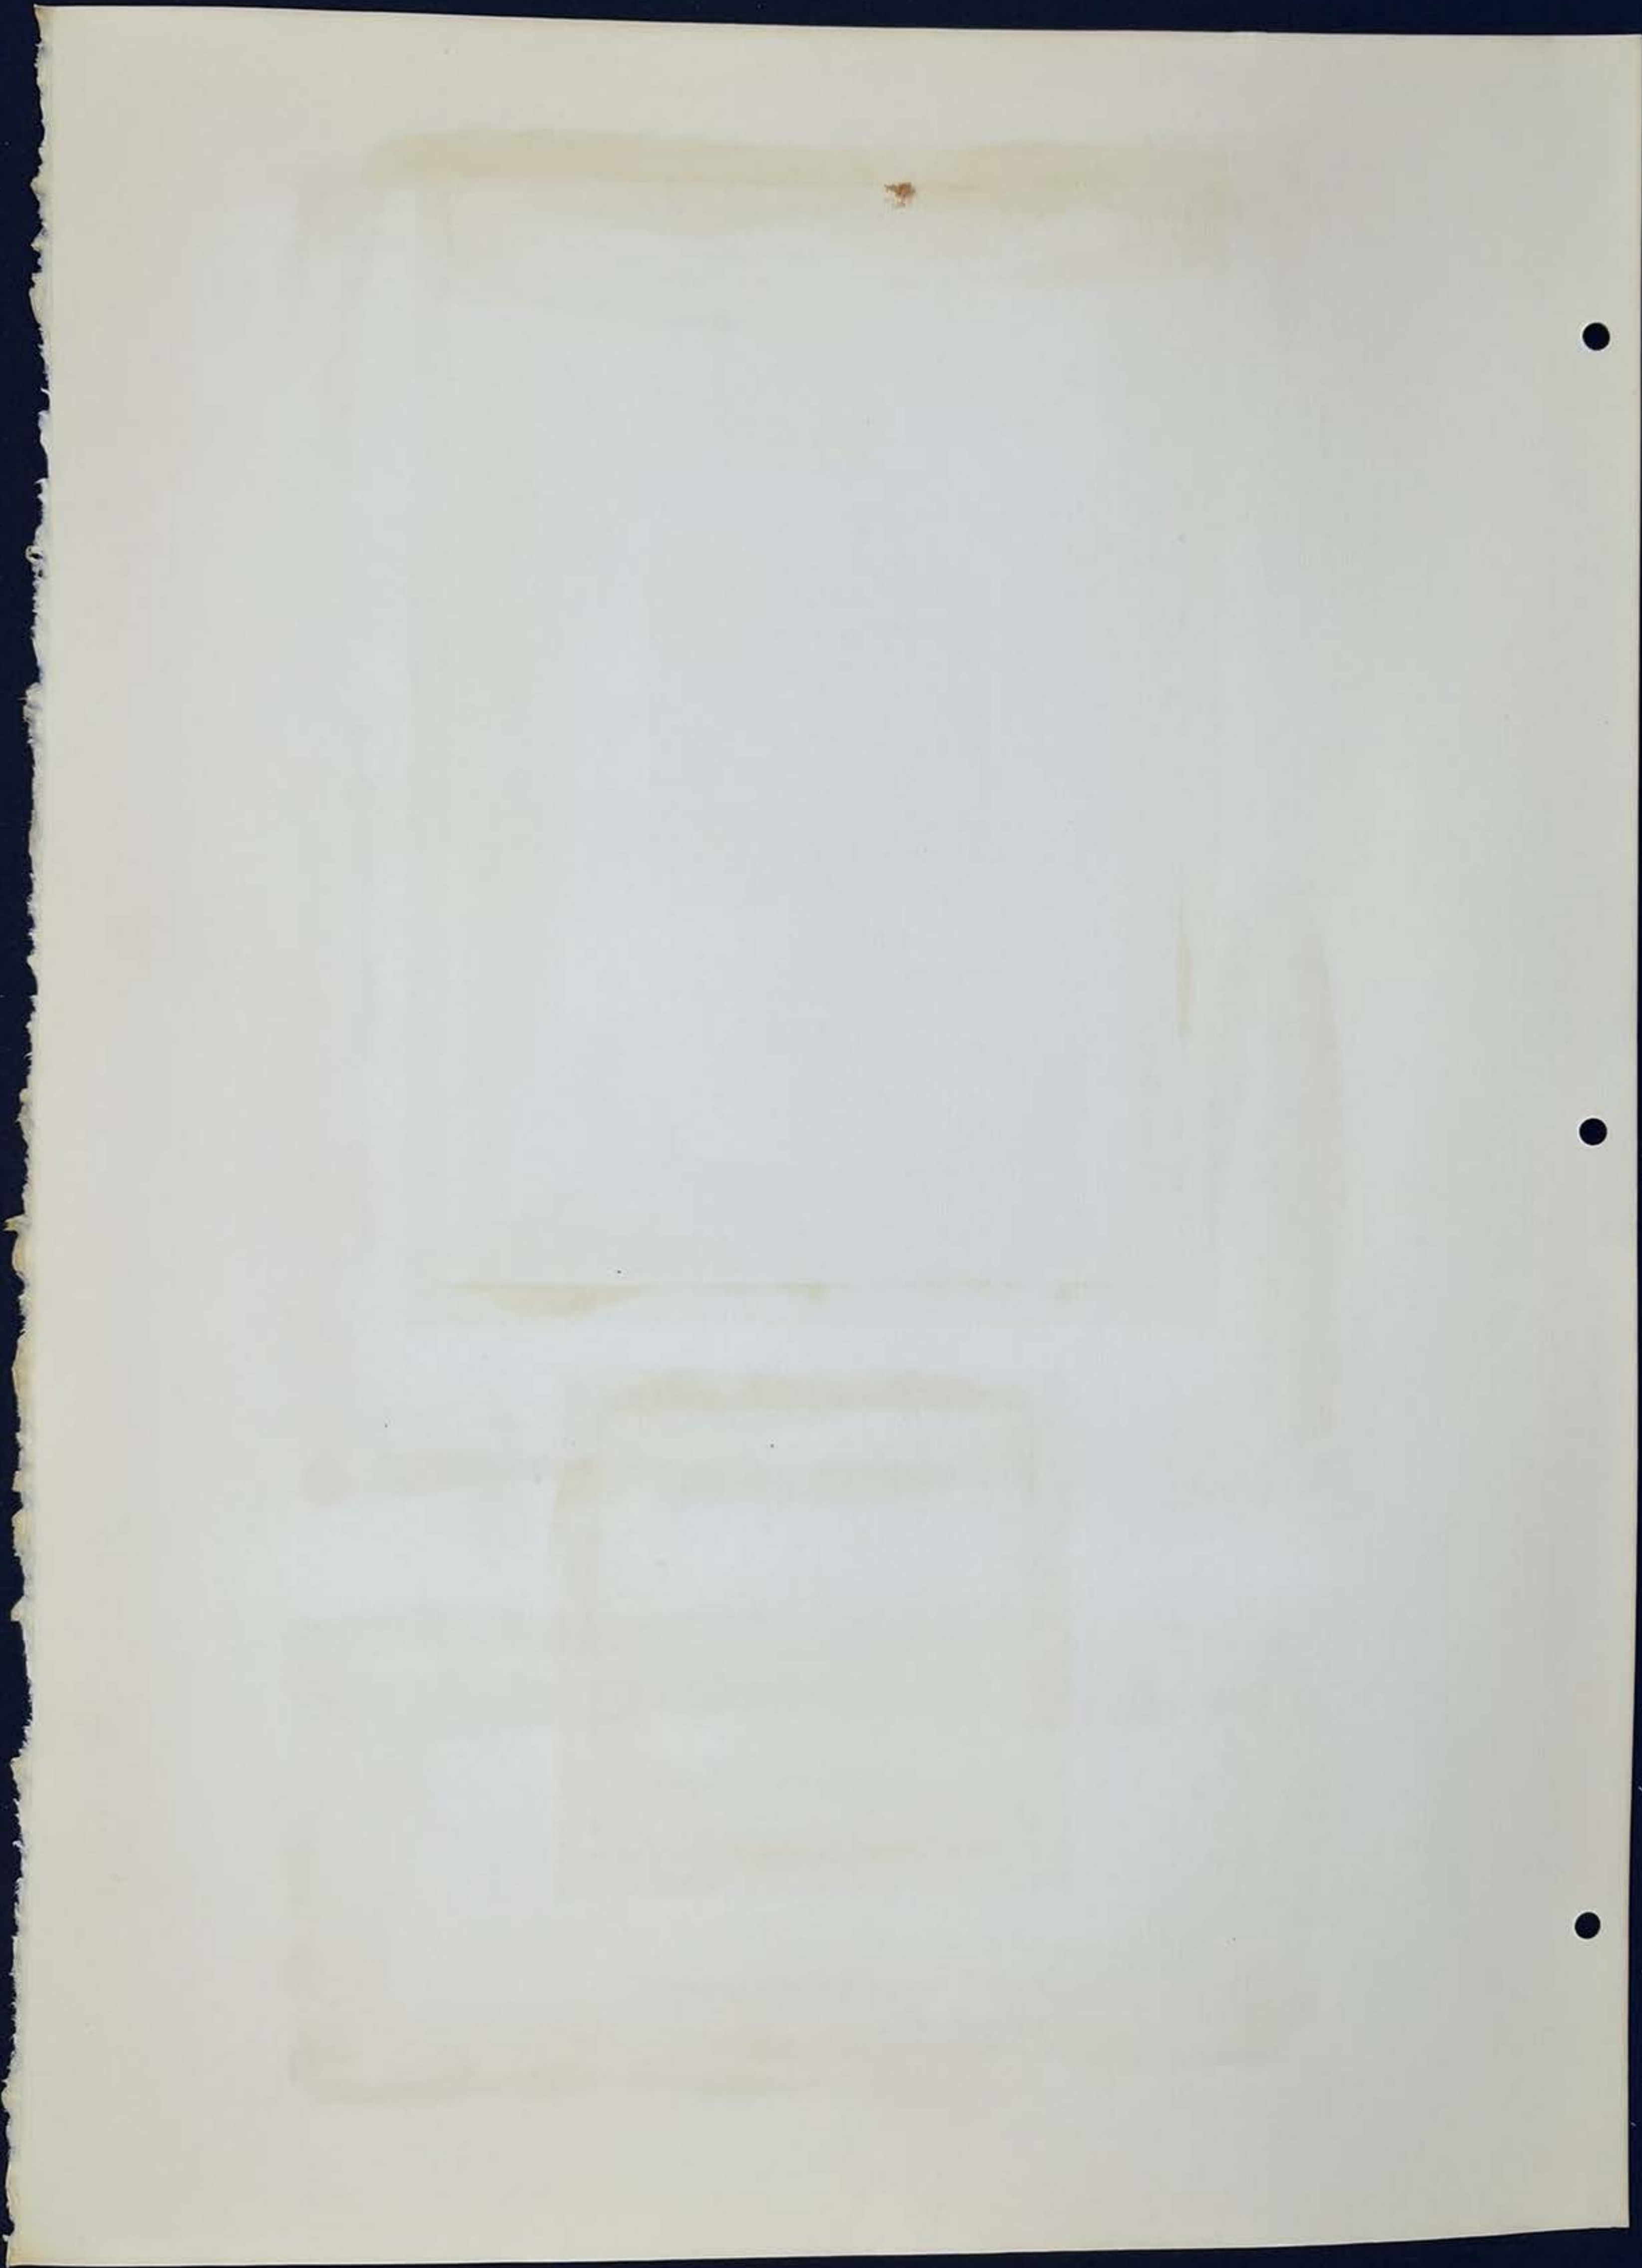

To those clubs which I have visited thus far, it has been a real pleasure and to those that I haven't visited as of yet, I look forward to seeing you.

With best wishes, I am

Most sincerely,
Louise Royster

September 23, 1959

Dear Club President:

We are enclosing copy of the little playlet, "The Federation Wins", which will be presented at the district meeting in Jackson, October 16. The purpose of the playlet is to enliven the period allotted to the Presidents' reports. The manuscript is self-explanatory, but I shall brief you further when we meet on the 16th. There will be a page at the door wearing a banner marked, "Club Presidents". Follow her and she will show you the room where I will be waiting to give you any further instructions you may need.

Please keep this a secret to all except the ones whom you need to help you get your Exhibit or Exhibits ready to present. If you have several exhibits it will be O.K. as long as it does not take more than 2 minutes for all of them. Try to plan exhibits which will catch the eyes and interest of the clubwomen.

Looking forward to seeing you on the 16th with greetings, I am

Sincerely yours,

Bickley Bullock

THE FEDERATION WINS

Note: Courtroom procedure is greatly modified, and liberties are taken with constituted order. The inexactness is intended, most of it in the interest of time.

(As Reporter speaks, the court re-convenes after a brief recess. Each takes her place quietly so that explanation of Reporter may not be disturbed. After Plaintiff and Defendant are identified by Reporter and are seated with their Attorneys, the Presidents of the Clubs file in and are seated to Judge's L. The Witness for Plaintiff takes place in witness chair L, the Sheriff in his chair R. Court Stenographer sits at table L. Judge is seated. The effect is that the curtain is rising on a re-convened session, so that none of the regular preliminaries are observed. When the Reporter finishes talking, the curtain rises — figuratively.

Each President brings in with her whatever evidence she means to offer. It will consist of a report on ONE outstanding activity of her club and any exhibit she may wish to offer -- namely, a cup, bowl, replica or miniature symbol of the outstanding work done during the year. The report must not be over two minutes.)

(With apologies to the courts of our land)

REPORTER:

(Standing out in front before clubs) I am a news reporter here in Jackson today to cover the case against the Federation of Women's Clubs. The court is reconvening after a brief recess. The Plaintiff, entering now with her Attorney, is Mrs. Unenlisted Woman. The Defendant, taking her place with her Attorney, is the Federation, or specifically Mrs. Federated Woman. (Plaintiff and Attorney face Judge R, Defendant and her Attorney sit L. In the script ATTORNEY is used for Plaintiff's lawyer and DEFENSE ATTORNEY for Defendant's.) The bill of indictment has been to the effect that the Federation, or Mrs. Federated Woman, kills time that belongs to her community in service; that she meets for the sake of meeting and gives lip service to causes merely to maintain status as an organization woman. Further particulars in the indictment are that the Federation has become a symbol for the organization woman, a term that connotes regimentation by organization top brass; that the Federation merely gives programs about international relations, home and community service, literature, art, music and education without translating them into reality; that it continues to formulate collects and credos on paper without vitalizing then. In brief, the Federation does not justify its existence and should be dissolved. (Glances around at witness stand.) The Attorney for the Plaintiff is now finishing the examination of her final witness. (Reporter sits.)

ATTORNEY:

(To Witness for Plaintiff) State what you know about the Federation of Woman's Clubs.

WITNESS:

I know the Federation kills time it owes the community with all its meetings. Call on any Federated Woman to participate in important community activity or in the finer things of life, and what excuse do you hear? (Imitates) I've got to go to a district meeting of the Federation. Or, I've got to go to a Fine Arts meeting of our Woman's Club. Or, I've got to go to a panel discussion on International Relations at our Woman's Club. And so on. They meet and meet and talk and talk, but nothing tangible comes of it. It's just lip service.

ATTORNEY:

(To Defense Attorney) Your witness.

DEFENSE ATTY:

(To Witness) You are not a member of any Woman's Club. Is that correct?

WITNESS:

That is correct. I'd have joined, but I found out the Club meetings conflicted with important community service and with the finer things of life in our town.

DEFENSE ATTY:

State for the court some of the 'finer things of life' the Woman's Club conflicts with in your town.

President Hall holds replica of Girl Scout Hut in skit presented at District Meeting.

WITNESS: The cha-cha class. We cha-cha enthusiasts are paying an enormous price for lessons from an expert, and the only night he could teach was the Tuesday night the Woman's Club meets. And do you know they wouldn't change to another night! Furthermore, their club meetings conflict with some of the best TV programs --- The Restless Blonde, Guns and Love, The Sins of Lady Chatterley ---

ATTORNEY: (Rises, speaks heatedly) Objection, your Honor. The question was leading and irrelevant to the particulars in the indictment;

JUDGE: Objection overruled. (To Defense Attorney) Proceed.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY: That is all.

ATTORNEY: The prosecution rests.
(Witness leaves stand, resumes place with Mrs. Unenlisted Woman.)

JUDGE: (To Defense Attorney) Proceed with the testimony. Call your witnesses.

DEFENSE ATTY: Witnesses for the defense are the Presidents of the 14th district Women's Clubs. They will be sworn in together.

SHERIFF: (Stands before clubs, does not use Bible) Rise.
(All Presidents rise.) Raise your right hand. You and each of you declare that the evidence you shall give the court in this action shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

PRESIDENTS:

We do.

(The Presidents are seated while one after the other in alphabetical order takes the stand.)

DEFENSE ATTY:

(To Judge) With the court's permission, the witnesses will name one example of outstanding work their clubs have done this year and produce tangible evidence which will be offered as Exhibits in the case.

JUDGE:

(Nods) Proceed.

DEFENSE ATTY:

(To Witness One) State one example of community service or offer evidence of participation in (Pauses, then speaks with irony) 'the finer things of life.'

ATTORNEY:

I object, your Honor. The question presumes as service activities not yet proved of value as such.

JUDGE:

Objection sustained. (To Defense Attorney) Re-frame your request.

DEFENSE ATTY:

(To Witness) State an example of community activity your Club participated in the past year and produce evidence as given permission by the court.

(Presidents give their reports in turn, as indicated, and produce evidence -- such as cups, bowls, replicas etc. -- which Defense Attorney specifies as Exhibit 1, 2, 3, etc. When Jackson President gives her report she concludes with assertion that the complaint against the Federation is unfounded, absurd and untrue, that the Federation is NOT GUILTY.

President Hall holds replica of Girl Scout Hut in skit presented at District Meeting.

ATTORNEY:

DEFENSE ATTY:

(Rises, speaks heatedly) Witness is testifying from her own knowledge.

JUDGE:

Objection sustained. Let the final statement of Witness be stricken from the record.

(Court Stenographer complies.)

DEFENSE ATTY:

(To next President on stand) State example of club activity and offer evidence, as permitted by court.

(The Presidents finish reports in alphabetical order except for Seaboard which comes last. Defense Attorney specifies any evidence offered as Exhibit 9, 10, 11, etc.)

DEFENSE ATTY:

The defense rests.

JUDGE:

The jury in its deliberation will consider the justification of the existence of the Federation of Women's Clubs. If the Federation is guilty, as charged, of killing time with multi-meetings designed to maintain organization status without regard to the values inherent in community service, your answer will be YES. If the preponderance of evidence is conclusive contrary-wise, your answer will be NO, the equivalent of Not Guilty. The jury will retire.

(Sheriff leads jury out and back immediately.)

President Hall holds replica of Girl Scout Hut in skit presented at District Meeting.

JUDGE: (After jury is re-seated) Has the jury reached a verdict?

FOREMAN: (Rises) We have, your Honor.

JUDGE: How do you say?

FOREMAN: NO. (He adds) Not guilty.

JUDGE: So say you all?

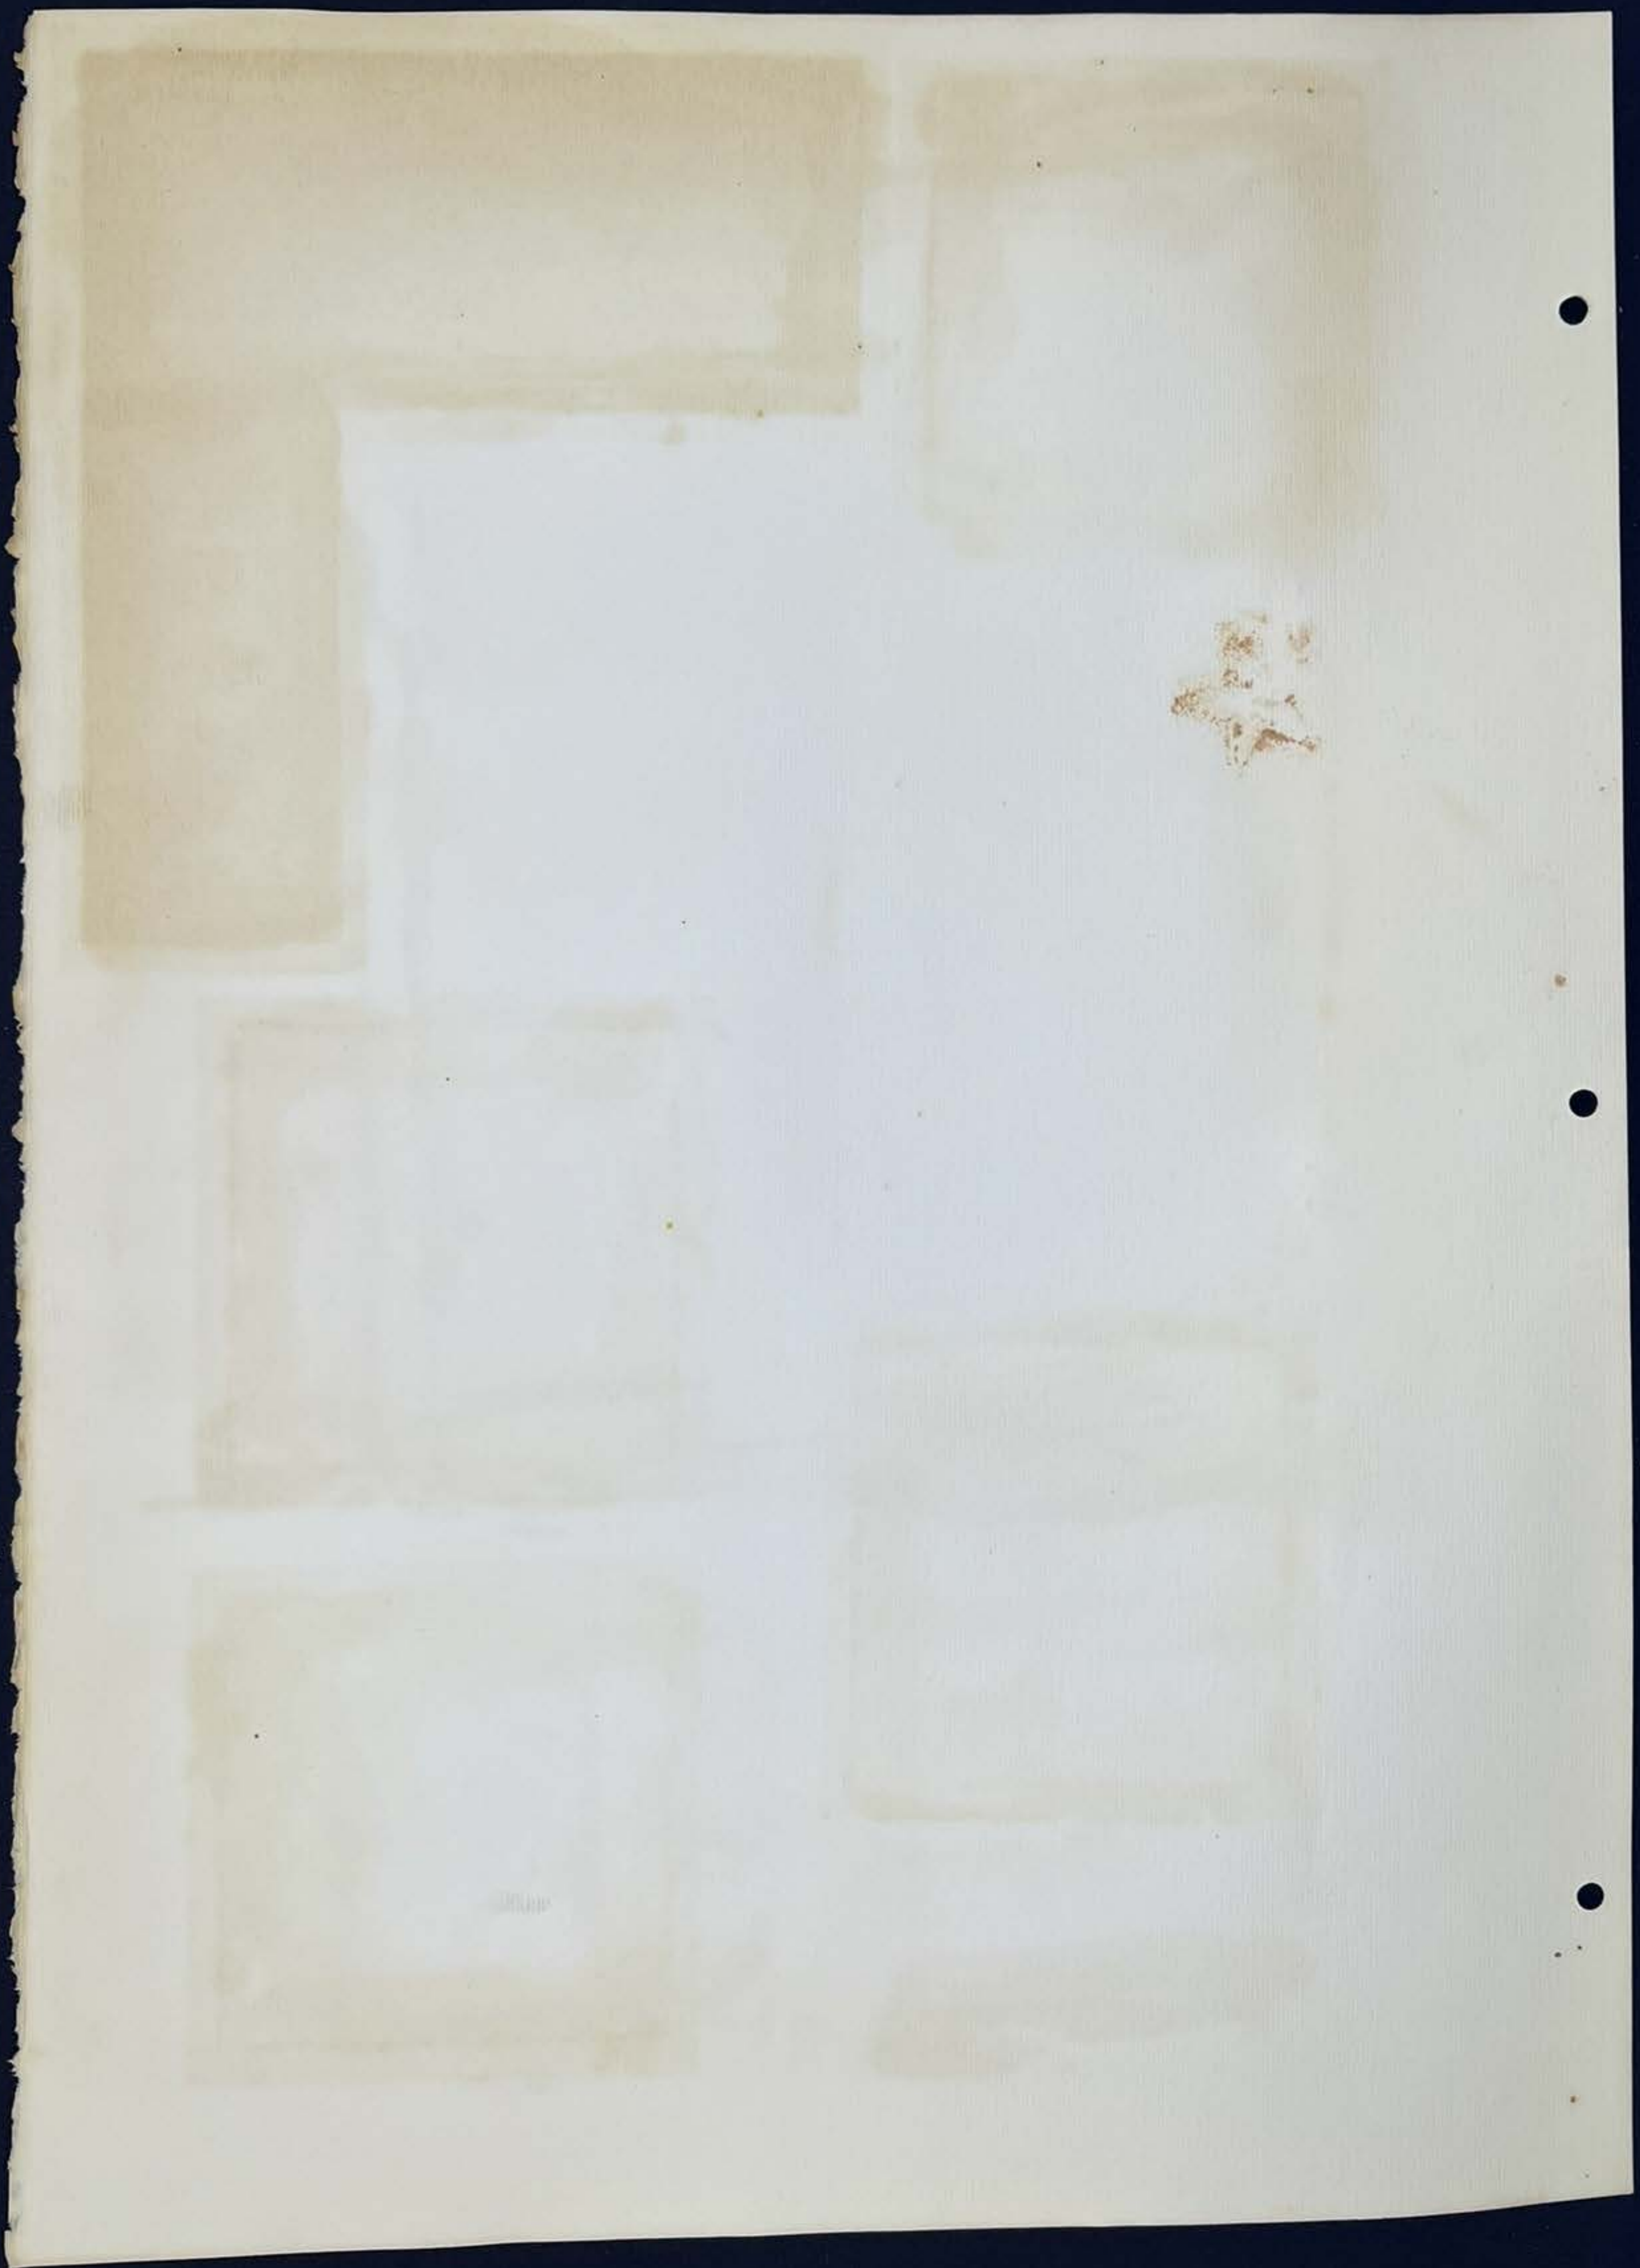

(Jury nods.)

JUDGE: The court thanks the jury for its services and will now be adjourned.

SHERIFF: O yes! O yes! O yes! The honorable court will now be recessed till October, 1960.

Scrapbook Wins District Blue Ribbon

Youngsville Woman's Club members who attended the Fourteenth District meeting which was held at the Courthouse in Jackson, N. C. Friday were Mrs. A. E. Hall, Mrs. J. T. Allen, Mrs. J. K. Tharrington, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, Mrs. J. A. Green, Mrs. B. H. Paterson, Mrs. Claudia Evans and Mrs. A. N. Corpening.

The club scrapbook, with a theme of "The Green Door" won the blue ribbon in its respective category, which means that it placed first in the district and will be entered in the state competition in April. Photographs, newspaper clippings, memoirs and various information were combined in an original and artistic manner by Mrs. J. W. Weathers Jr., to make this book an attractive history of the activities of the local club during the past year.

The Youngsville club was first runner-up in the district General Federation Clubwoman subscription contest; and was also first runner-up for projects entered in the district City Beatification Awards contest and the Welfare awards competition.

The local Yearbook compiled by Mattie G. Reddick received a red ribbon.

Past President Mrs. J. K. Tharrington as chairman of the District Adult Education Department, participated in a Fashion Show entitled "Have Hats, Will Travel"; in which models wore original headgear symbolizing their department. Mrs. Tharrington's hat was topped with a miniature schoolhouse, with little books and banners placed around the hat band.

District Treasurer Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. also took part in the skit; wearing a perky hat made of bank checks. District Scrapbook chairman Mrs. J. T. Moss was unable to be present but sent her hat to be modeled.

Local President Mrs. A. E. Hall participated in the Playlet of a genuine trial scene there at the Courthouse at which time clubwomen presented evidence of their clubwork. As witness representing the Youngsville club, Mrs. Hall testified in regard to accomplishments on an outstanding project of the year. Evidence displayed was a replica of the Girl Scout Hut complete in detail, including even the telephone pole which in actuality was put up to carry the wiring into the building. Also presented were three dolls dressed as Girl Scouts to represent the three troops sponsored by the club who use the hut.

During the business meeting Mrs. Hall was named to serve on the District Resolutions committee.

Addresses by the State President, Mrs. Raymond Dent; Second Vice President, Mrs. Doc Oliver and Third Vice-President, Mrs. Jack Sharpe Jr., and the enthusiasm of District President Mrs. J. M. Royster were an inspiration to those in attendance.

14th District Women Hold Annual Meeting

JACKSON — The meeting of the Fourteenth District of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Club, covering the counties of Northampton, Halifax, Warren, Franklin, Vance and Granville was held in the Northampton County Courthouse in Jackson on Friday, October 16.

The Jackson Junior Woman's Club was the hostess. The club colors of yellow and green were used to decorate the courthouse and the Lions clubroom where the luncheon was served after the meeting.

One hundred seventy-five club members were registered at tables in front of the courthouse where they were presented with boutonniere of peanuts tied with wool and bearing an identification card. A miniature gavel was attached to the officers boutonniere.

The meeting opened after the processional, "The Coronation March" by Meyerbeer.

The club collect was led by Mrs. E. A. Latta, first vice president of the federation.

Mrs. Buxton Midyette gave the invocation.

Mrs. Ballard Gay, as president of the club, welcomed all of the county, district and state guests to the annual meeting and especially to Northampton County.

Many of the attending officers, past and present, were recognized at this time.

Mrs. J. M. Royster of Oxford, president of the 14th District, presided throughout the meeting.

After the reading of the minutes and the appointment of committees, a fashion show entitled "Have Hats, Will Travel" was presented with Mrs. J. C. Shearin as the narrator. The hats were not of the usual variety as the materials used ranged from tin cans to a small stork. The themes showed a great deal of humor and imagination.

State President Mrs. Mary T. Dent of Spruce Pines was the main speaker. She spoke on the need for self-improvement. She pointed out that we are surrounded by good literature, music and art, but that we seldom find time for it with the many everyday tasks calling for our attention. She urged the women to undertake a program for their own betterment and then find that the results were rewarding.

Mrs. Dent also challenged the clubs to consider the question, "What are we doing in North Carolina to promote leadership?" She urged the women to use the many latent talents within the club and to develop self-reliance. She also pointed out that all club members should serve as officers and on committees, even though they did not have experience.

Mrs. Helen Stephenson, Mary Pierce and Mrs. Deanie Bowers, accompanied by Doris Parker sang "Beautiful Dreamer" by Stephen Foster.

Mrs. Doc R. Oliver, second vice president of the federation, spoke on the subject of "Service Unlimited."

REGISTRATION begins for the annual meeting of District 14 of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs at the Northampton County Courthouse on Friday, October 16. Over 175 members attended the morning session and the luncheon at the Lions Club Building.

She told the clubwomen that there remained, in this troubled world, an unlimited number of tasks to be done, and that they were needed to supply the churches, schools and homes from which young leaders would come to solve these problems.

Mrs. H. Jack Sharpe, Jr., third vice president of the N. C. Federation, spoke on "Clubwomen in Today's World." She told the women that they would have to show the rest of the world that we cared and were willing to serve our fellowman.

At this point the Seaboard Woman's Club presented an original play written and directed by Mrs. Bernice Kelly Harris. It was cast as a courtroom scene and was used as a vehicle to present the progress reports of the clubs. It was called "The Federation Wins" and by the time the jury had heard the wealth of evidence presented there was no doubt that the clubs had justified the time, effort and money that had been spent on the year's activities.

The Seaboard women appeared in the costumes that had been used in their plays.

Mrs. Richard Whitfield, chairman and Mrs. Leslie Bullard, junior chairman, presented many awards to the various clubs.

Mrs. Whitfield also presented a slate of officers, which was accepted.

A luncheon was held at the Lions Club Building and the club colors, yellow and green were carried out effectively in the floral arrangements in both the courthouse and at the luncheon, with arrangements of yellow mums, glads and fern throughout both buildings and a massive arrangement of yellow gladioli and yellow pompons on the mantel in the Lions Club Building.

Mrs. J. C. Shearin, chaplain of Roanoke Rapids gave the invocation at the luncheon.

A menu consisting of iced fruit juice, chicken salad in baked party shells, string beans, ham, spiced apples, candied yams, hot rolls and butter and hot coffee, with ice cream and tiny ice cakes, and mints for dessert.

Pages were Faye Atkinson, Roslyn Bowers, Laneas Bryant, Kitty Garris, Mary Agnes Pearce and Barbara Storey, all of Jackson.

which see to it that birthday gifts are sent to children in correctional homes. Her hat was a birthday cake. Mrs. Lawrence A. Denton, also of Roanoke Rapids, is district chairman of community affairs and State chairman of the help-a-home project. Her hat represented the many things needed by both these projects including Community Chest and cancer. Mrs. P. A. Bullock of Seaboard is district chairman of Literature and Drama. Her hat was covered with miniature books representing books by authors from this area. (See story on Page Seven.)

CLUBWOMANS' PLEDGE

Written by Mrs. W.C. Timberlake, Youngsville Womens' Club

I PLEDGE MY LOYALTY TO THE WOMANS' CLUB;
 BY DOING BETTER THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE FOR ME TO DO,
 BY THINKING MORE ON THE SUBJECTS THAT ARE BROUGHT TO VIEW,
 BY SAYING BETTER THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE FOR ME TO SAY,
 BY BEING A BETTER WOMAN DAY AFTER DAY,
 BY TAKING EACH HOUR AS IT COMES OUT OF THE PAST, AND BY LIVING EACH ONE AS IF IT WERE THE LAST.

BY RUTH MINCHER
JACKSON — Mrs. J. C. Shearin of Roanoke Rapids was appointed to the nominating committee Friday at the annual meeting of the 14th district of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs at the Northampton County Courthouse in Jackson. Mrs. Shearin is also corresponding secretary for the federation and chaplain for this district.

The Jackson Junior Woman's Club was hostess.

Mrs. Ballard Gay is president and brought greetings from the club.

Upon arrival, the guests were presented boulineres of peanuts tied with wool in fall shades, each bearing an identification card. The officers' boulineres also had miniature gavels.

The meeting was opened with the Processional, "The Coronation March" by Meyerbeer.

Mrs. E. A. Latta, first vice president of the federation, led in repeating the club collect.

Mrs. Buxton Midyette gave the invocation.

Mrs. J. M. Royster of Oxford, president of the 14th district, presided at the meeting.

State President, Mrs. Mary T. Dent, of Spruce Pines, presented a talk to the group.

"I don't think you could find a better plan for self-improvement than to read some good literature or to listen to good music. Maybe you've always wanted to study some books in the Bible, study good music or art...it isn't too late to do these things. There can be nothing more rewarding or fulfilling than to set about such a program as this," said Mrs. Dent.

The Jackson Junior Woman's Club was hostess.

Mr. Dent spoke to the presidents of the clubs and the members, and she inquired, "What are we doing in our North Carolina clubs to promote leadership?"

"Are we depending too much on outside speakers? Are we giving our own clubwomen change to express themselves? Are we helping our clubwomen to develop?"

"Clubmembers, when the time comes to serve as an officer, take your responsibilities. If you feel inadequate and an anxiety, that's only a perfectly natural feeling.

"Don't compare yourself to your predecessor...Just think to yourself 'I might have something that I might give my club.'

"Presidents, call on your clubwomen; clubwomen, bring out your latent talents.

"As St. Paul said to Timothy, 'Neglect not the gift that is within me.'"

Mrs. Dent concluded her talk by reading an unknown author's poem, "It Shows In Your Face."

Special music was presented by a quartet of clubwomen.

Mrs. Doc R. Oliver, second vice president of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs, gave an address titled "Service Unlimited."

She said in part, "It's going to be a colossal task to make this world a better place...but remember, true satisfaction comes from service. We have only one life to spend and we have to spend it very carefully in order to give our service and make the world a better place.

"Never make the mistake of refusing to give because what you have is little.

"We need to build churches and homes from which young leaders may emerge," she said.

Mrs. H. Jack Sharpe Jr., third vice president of the federation, presented a talk on "Service Unlimited."

"The future of our families depends on the way we serve our fellowman," she said in part.

"Let the Peoples of the world know that you care."

A most attractive playlet, written and produced by the Seaboard Woman's Club called "The Federation Wins" was a clever way for the president of each club present to give a report as called on, as to the things her club did last year in order to show that having a federation is justified.

These included Franklinton Woman's Club, Henderson Junior Woman's Club and the Henderson Woman's Club; Littleton Woman's Club, Louisburg Woman's Club, the Macon Community Club, which is 43 years old; the Literature and Music Club of Norlina; the Norlina Woman's Club and the Norlina Junior Woman's Club; the Jackson Junior Woman's Club; and from Oxford, the Woman's Club, Intermediate Woman's Club and the Junior Woman's Club; the Roanoke Rapids Woman's Club and the Roanoke Rapids Junior Club; the Warrenton Woman's Club; the Weldon Book Club and the Weldon Junior Woman's Club; Youngsville Woman's Club; the Seaboard Woman's Club, who presented "Live Evidence" in the form of characters from various plays that have been written and produced with authentic clothes and stage settings by their club.

This playlet was dedicated to Mrs. Royster, president of the 14th district.

The Roanoke Rapids Junior Club was recognized as one of two outstanding clubs in securing new members and was presented an award for having 12 new members. The other club recognized was the Youngsville Club, which has 27 new members.

Both the Roanoke Rapids Senior and Junior clubs were awarded certificates for achieving 100 points on their club sheet.

Mrs. Richard Whitfield, chairman and Mrs. Leslie Bullard, junior chairman, presented many awards to the various clubs.

Mrs. Whitfield also presented a slate of officers, which was accepted.

These included in addition to Mrs. Shearin, Mrs. Stanley Fox of Oxford, junior director, and Mrs. J. W. Weathers of Youngsville, treasurer.

A luncheon was held at the Lion's Club building and the club colors, yellow and green were carried out effectively in the floral arrangements in both the courthouse and at the luncheon, with arrangements of yellow mums, glads and fern throughout both buildings and a massive arrangement of yellow gladioli and yellow pompoms on the mantle in the Lion's Club building.

Mrs. J. C. Shearin, chaplain of Roanoke Rapids gave the invocation at the luncheon.

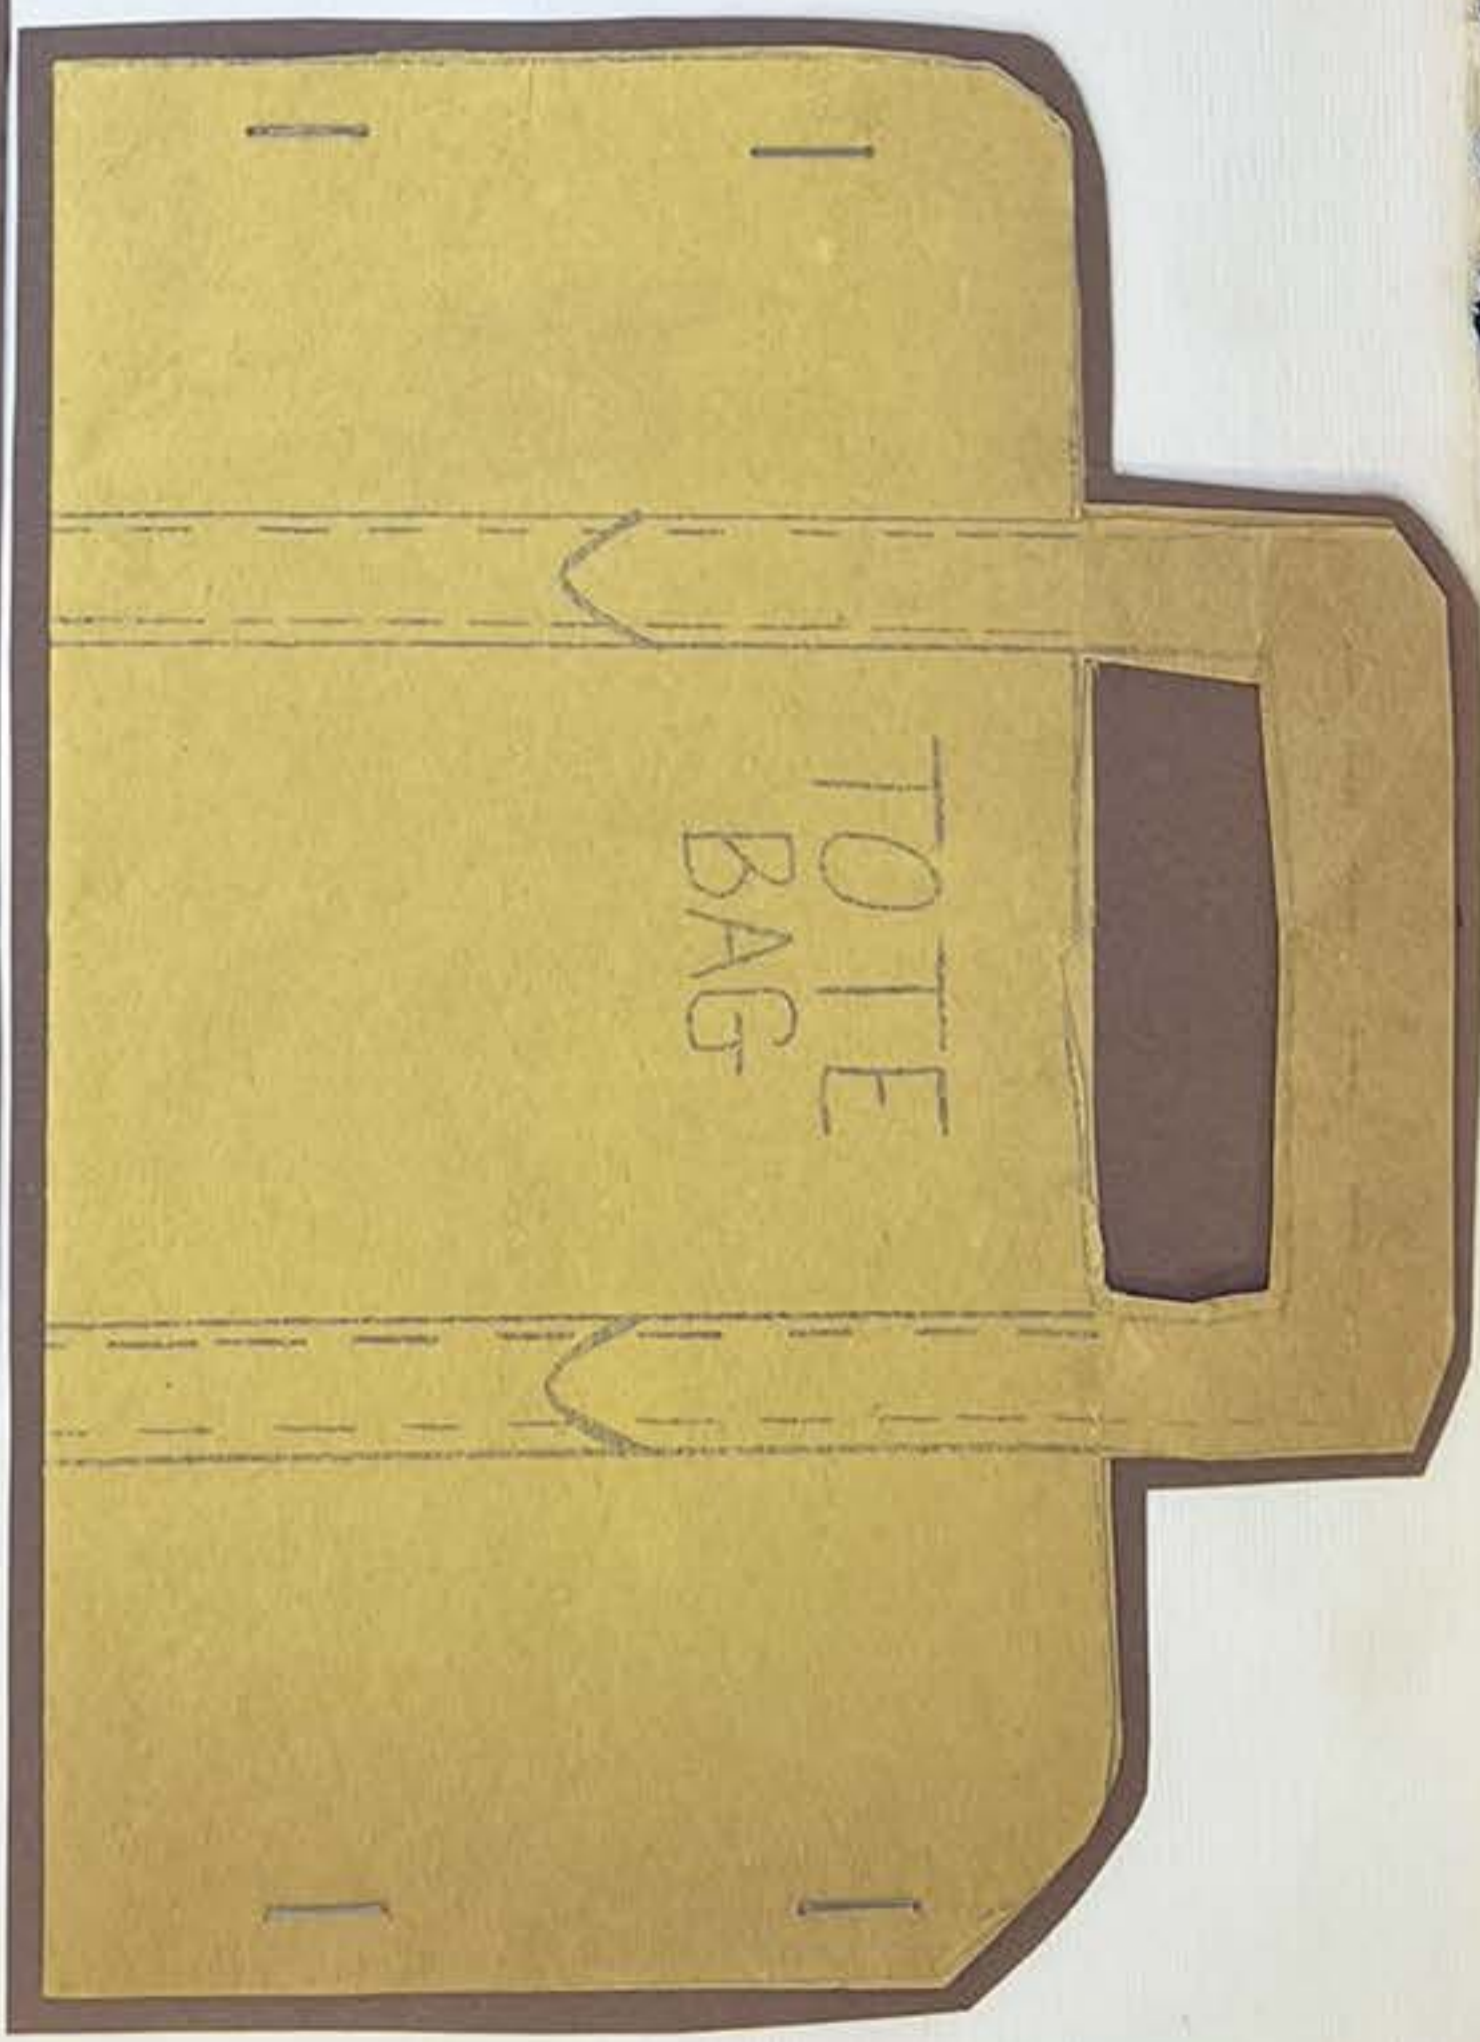

A menu consisting of iced fruit juice, chicken salad in baked patty shells, string beans, ham, spiced apples, candied yams, hot rolls and butter and hot coffee, with ice cream and tiny ice cakes, and mints for dessert.

Approximately 175 guests were present.

Pages were Faye Atkinson, Roslyn Bowers, Laneau Bryant, Kitty Garris, Mary Agnes Pearce and Barbara Storey, all of Jackson.

Dear Club Presidents and Chairman:

Thanks for a job well done in helping to make the district meeting a real success. Everyone has been most complimentary about the meeting and thanks for your many letters and cards. It was your cooperation that helped to make it what it was.

Well Thanksgiving is passed and soon we will be right in the mist of Christmas. I will not be getting out another bulletin so let me say "Merry Christmas to all of you and that it has been a real pleasure to serve you as district president thus far and I am sure that it will continue to be for working with people such as there are in District 14, it could be no other way.

On December 5th, the Oxford Jr. Woman's Club is serving as hostess to the Jr. clubs in our district under the leadership of our District Jr. Director, Joan Fox. There will be a workshop at the Oxford Woman's Club at 11 o'clock and continuing as long as necessary to discuss reports and awards. This is a Jr. workshop but they have been kind enough to say that they would be so glad to have anyone from the Sr. clubs in our district. In fact, they just want you to come. If you would like to come for this workshop, please just drop me a line and say "I'll be there with _____ no. with me". This will enable the hostess club to prepare another sandwich. We are going to have a good time and they are going to let me be there! I think it is fine that the Jr. and Sr. clubs in our district work together so well. After all we are all working for the same program. "To Let our Lights So Shine That They May See Our Good Works and Glorify Our Father In Heaven".

Reports have to be in by the 15th of January. So we can't get to work on them too early in order to meet the deadline.

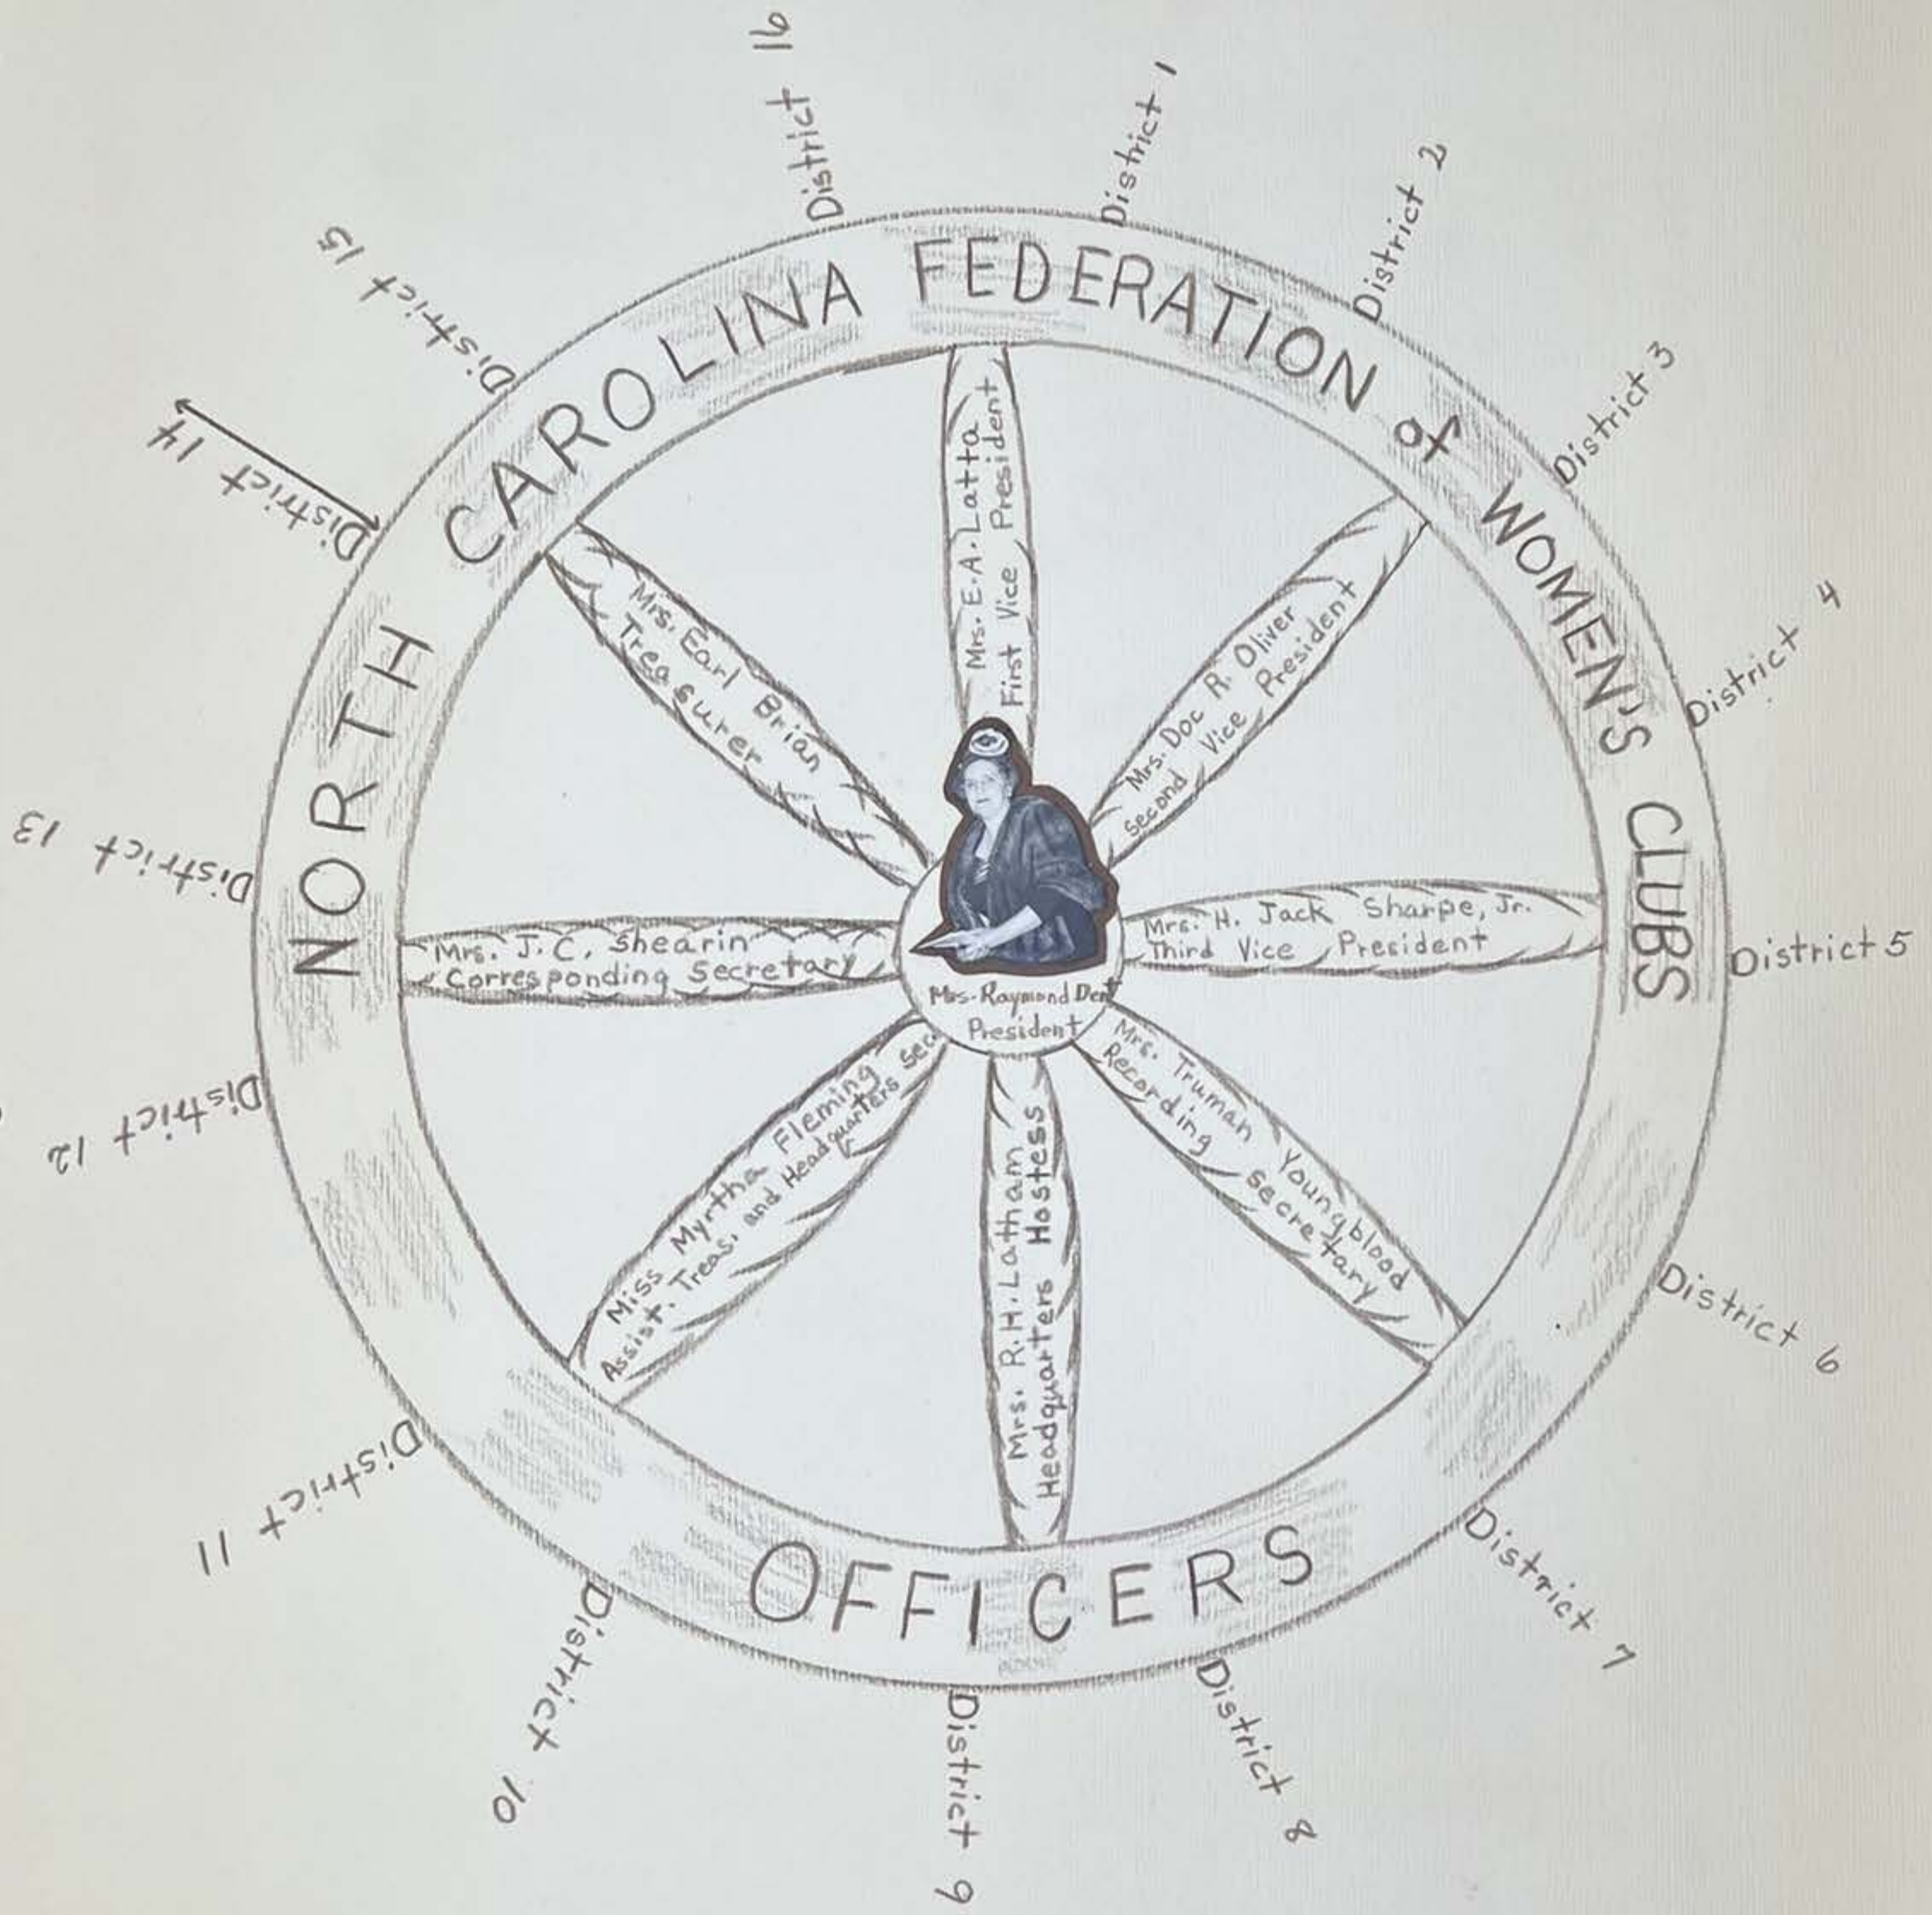

Thanks for all of the awards which you gave from your clubs. You have just been grand and as we get ready for the busy holiday season, please remember that I love all of you and consider it a real privilege to have the pleasure of serving you as district president.

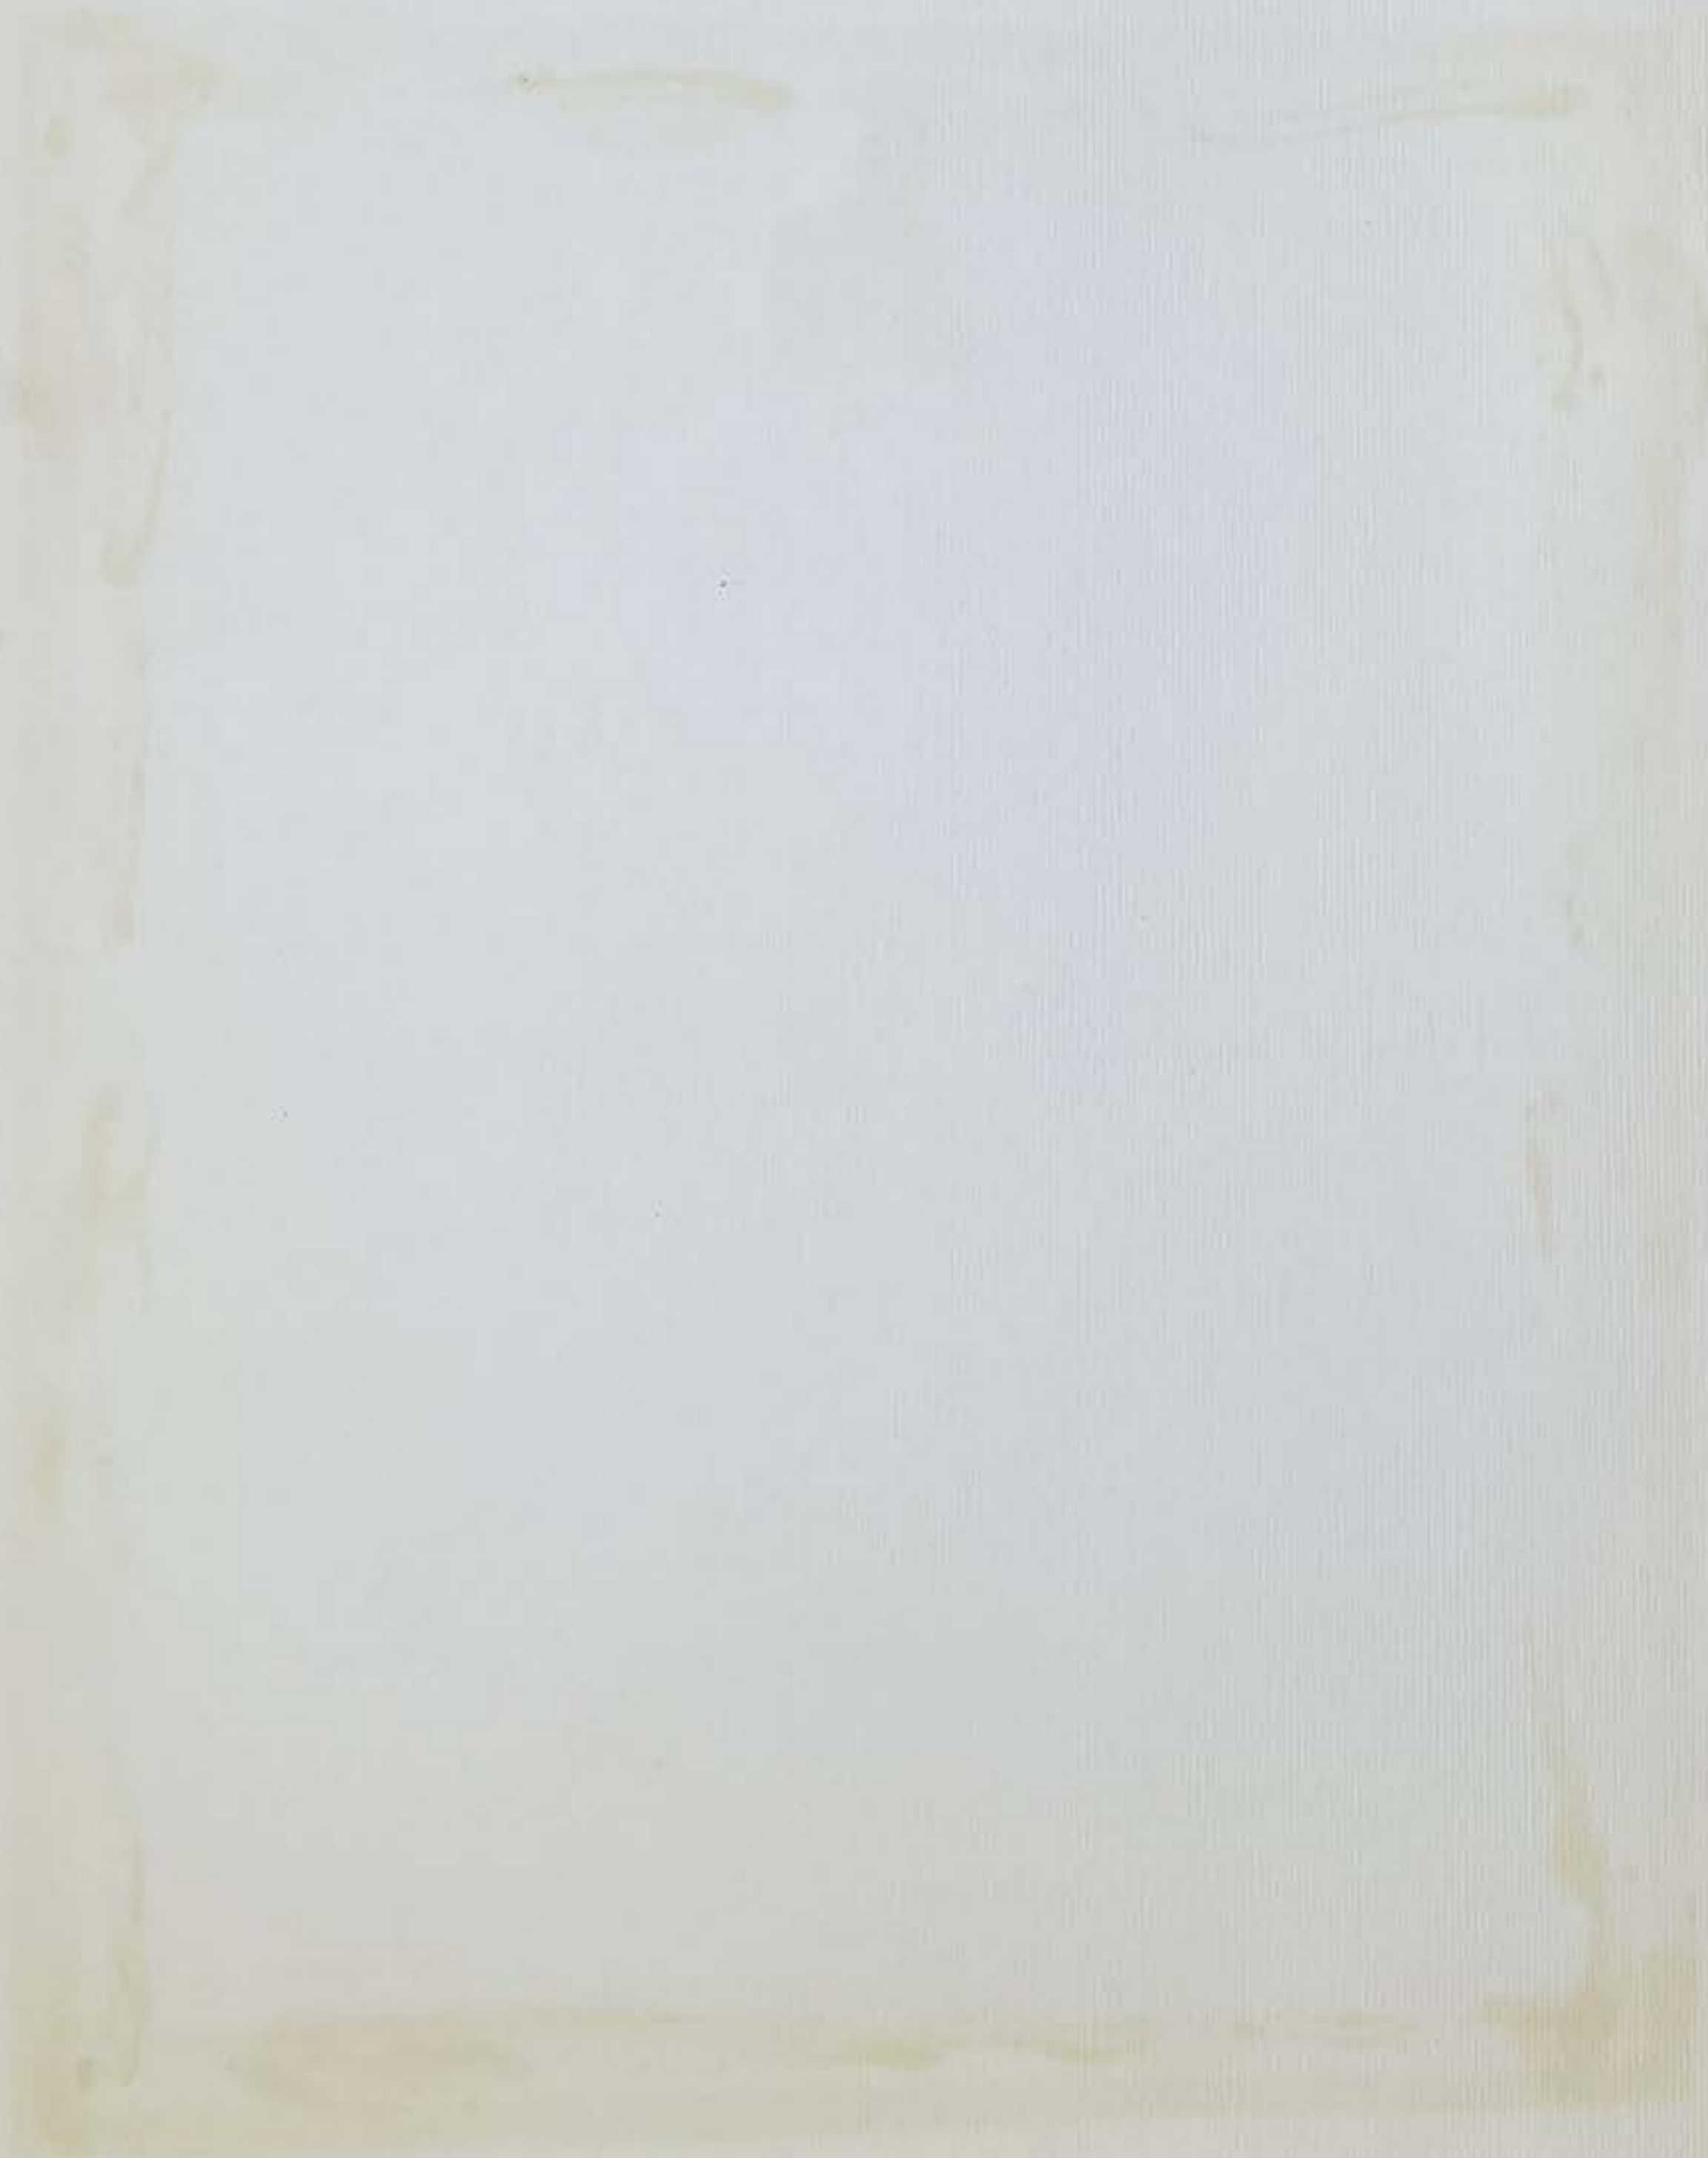

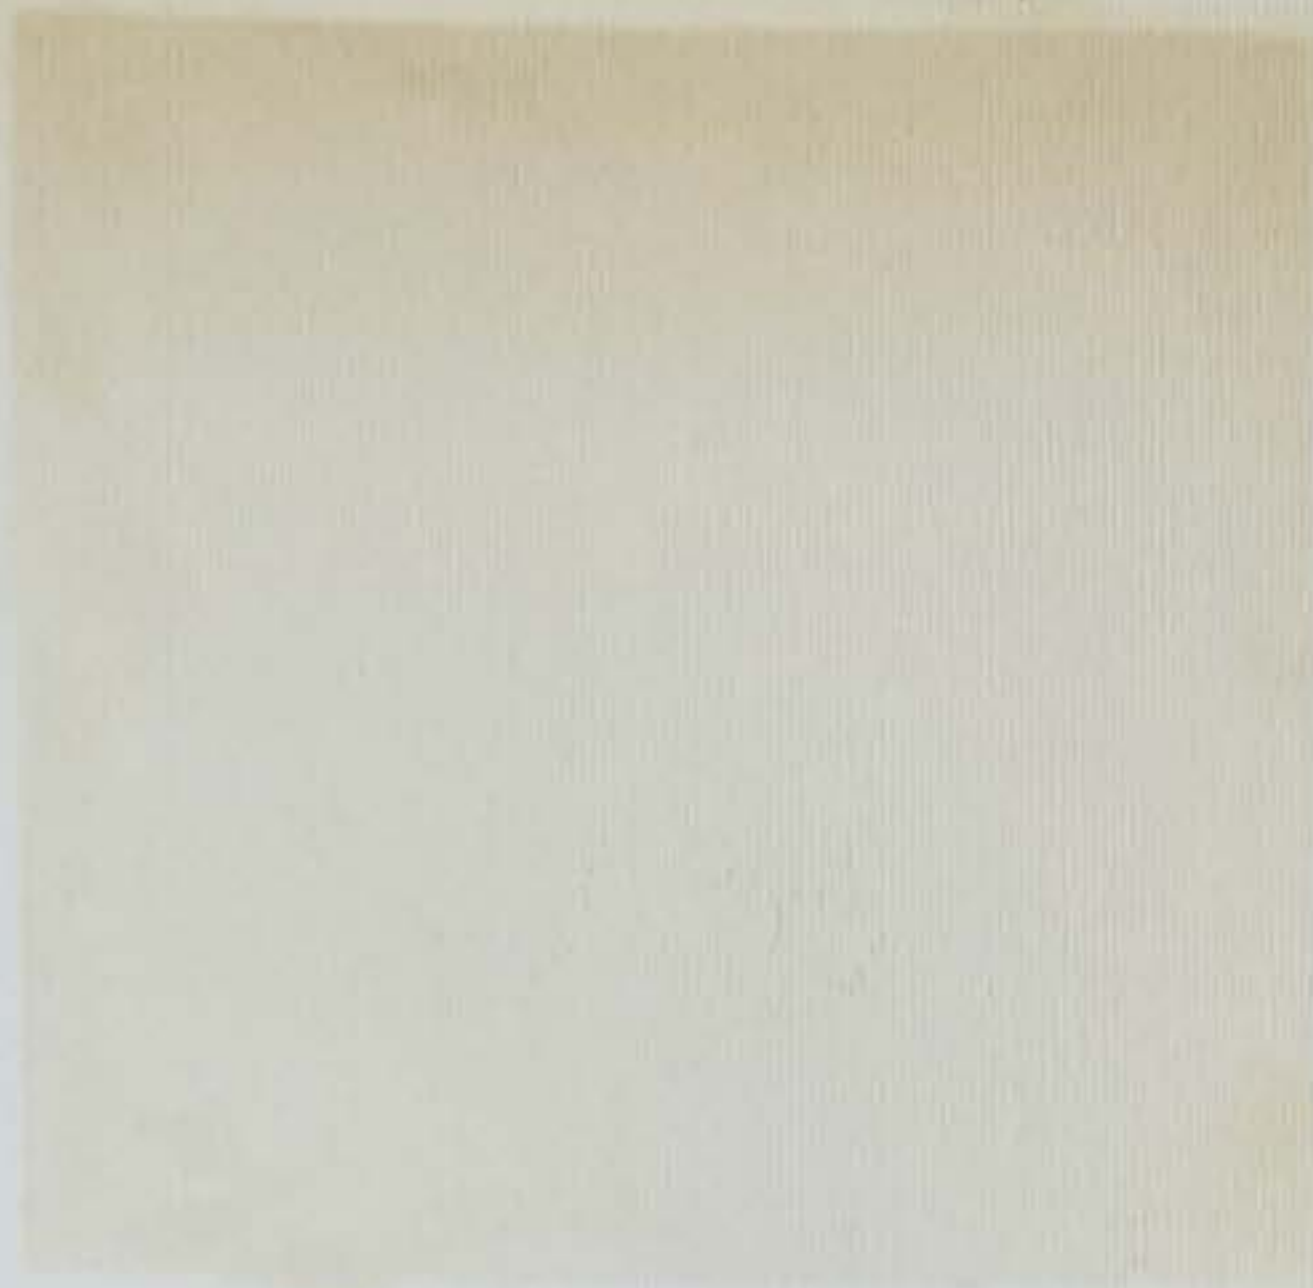

Don't forget the workshop if you would like to come.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OF YOU!

Love,
Louise

1960 Convention - NCFWC -

1960 CONVENTION—

State Women's Clubs To Convene Tuesday

The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs will open its 58th annual Convention on Tuesday in Raleigh. Mrs. Raymond T. Dent, State Federation president, will preside at the three-day meeting which will have its headquarters at the Hotel Sir Walter.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. on Tuesday and will continue throughout the day. At 12:30 p.m. there will be luncheons at the Raleigh Woman's Club for the Board of Trustees, the convention pages, district presidents and vice presidents, junior officers, directors and chairmen. The luncheon for the department and division chairmen will be held at 12 noon at the Raleigh Woman's Club. The finals in the Vogue Fashion Sewing Contest will take place in the Virginia Dare Ballroom of the hotel at 1 p.m. The winners in each of the 16 district contests will compete for the honor of representing North Carolina in the national contest. The winner will be announced on Thursday evening at the banquet.

The board of directors will meet at 2:30 p.m. and the opening business session will convene at 3 p.m. in the Virginia Dare Ballroom, with Mrs. Dent presiding. Appointment of committees and reports from the officers, trustees and headquarters personnel will be heard at this session.

The past presidents will hold their annual dinner in the Budleigh Room at 6 p.m. Hostesses will be Mrs. J. W. Bunn, Mrs. J. Henry Highsmith, Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson and Mrs. R. H. Latham, all past presidents, now living in Raleigh.

The formal opening of the convention will be Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. It will open with the processional, which will include the state officers, trustees, past presidents, district presidents and vice presidents, junior officers, junior directors, junior department chairmen, chairmen of special and standing committees and those holding appointive positions.

The program on Tuesday evening will include District Night, under the direction of Mrs. D. R. Oliver of Pine Level, second vice president and director of districts. The featured speaker will be Mrs. Joseph Perkins, treasurer of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

At the conclusion of the program, the clubs of District Eight will be hostesses at a party in the Elizabeth Room.

On Wednesday morning, a business session will be held at 9 o'clock in the ballroom. At this time, reports from the special and standing committees will be heard.

The convention will move to the Memorial Auditorium at 11:30 a.m. when the public is invited to hear Dr. Shane McCarthy, Executive Director of President Eisenhower's Commission on Youth Fitness. Dr. McCarthy will be introduced by Miss Marjorie Yokley, former junior director. Bob Cox, director of the North Carolina Youth Fitness program, will bring greetings.

The Junior Luncheon and business session will be held in the ballroom at 1 p.m. Mrs. H. Jack Sharpe Jr., of Thomasville, who is third vice president of the Federation and Director of Juniors, will preside. Principle speaker will be Mrs. Leo Curtis, General Federation Director of Juniors. In addition to the reports of the officers and chairmen and the presentation of awards and certificates of Merit, the Juniors will vote on their officers for the next two years.

The North Carolina Art Museum will conduct special tours for the convention clubwomen at 3 p.m. Wednesday. Also from 3 to 5 p.m., there will be a tea for delegates and visitors at the Federation Headquarters, 1509 Hillsboro St. Serving with the officers and house committee will be the headquarters personnel. Special buses will be provided to assist the clubwomen attending these functions.

On Wednesday evening the convention will hear Dr. Richard W. Reuter, Executive Director of CARE.

The Community Achievement Awards will be made at the Wednesday evening session, also, climaxing the two year projects in community improvement by approximately 200 clubs.

The highlight of the business session on Thursday morning will be the election of officers. Those nominated include: Mrs. C. Gordon Maddrey, of Ahoskie, president; Mrs. Charles D. Forney Jr. of Lawndale, first vice president; Mrs. J. M. Padgett of Thomasville, second vice president; Mrs. James G. Murphy of Ahoskie, third vice president; Miss Pauline Powell of Asheville, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ed M. Anderson of West Jefferson, member of the Board of Trustees.

The Awards Luncheon at 1 p.m. on Thursday will feature the reports of the department and division chairmen, under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Latta of Henderson, first vice president and director of departments. Mrs. J. M. Jenrette Jr. of Raleigh, State Awards chairman, is serving as Convention Awards Chairman. The Teacher of the Year will be announced, as will the winner of the N.C. Federation of Women's Clubs Scholarship Award.

From 3:30 to 5 p.m., Mrs. Luther H. Hodges will receive the convention at tea at the Executive Mansion.

A banquet on Thursday evening will conclude the convention. The speaker for the evening will be the Honorable Luther H. Hodges, Governor of North Carolina. Following his address, Mrs. E. M. Land, chairman of the Board of Trustees, will install the officers, trustees, department and division chairmen, district presidents and vice presidents.

Raleigh Clubwomen Get Set For Annual State Convention

It has been 10 years since Raleigh served as hostess to the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs' convention.

But the clubwomen of the Raleigh Woman's Club and the Junior Woman's Club are working like it was only yesterday to stage the fifty eighth annual convention at the Sir Walter Hotel on April 5, 6, and 7.

Taking advantage of the opportunities offered only by the Capital City, the hostess clubs have arranged a tour of the N. C. Museum of Art for the convention on Wednesday afternoon, April 6, to be followed by a tea at Federation Headquarters, 1509 Hillsboro St.

Tea At Mansion.

On Thursday afternoon, April 7, Mrs. Luther Hodges will receive the convention at tea at the Executive Mansion. At the banquet on the same evening, Governor Hodges will be featured speaker.

Speakers for the three-day meeting which 1200 women are expected to attend will include Dr. Shane McCarthy, President Eisenhower's appointee to the Youth Fitness program; Richard W. Reuter, executive director of CARE; and Mrs. Joseph Perkins, treasurer of the General Federation.

Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. Past President of the Youngsville Woman's Club, who is currently serving as the State Chairman for the General Federation Clubwoman Magazine, was in Raleigh Wednesday to attend a Board meeting of the State Executive Committee held at the Woman's Club and presided over by State President, Mrs. Dent. Mrs. Weathers reports that many items of business were discussed including plans for the State Convention to be held in Raleigh in April, which sound most interesting. Clubwomen from over the state should be looking forward with anticipation to attending this meeting.

Convention Events Begin

Pre-convention meetings of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs 58th Annual Convention start here today with an executive committee dinner at 6 p.m. at the Woman's Club.

At eight this evening the executive committee will meet in the Governor's Suite of the Hotel Sir Walter.

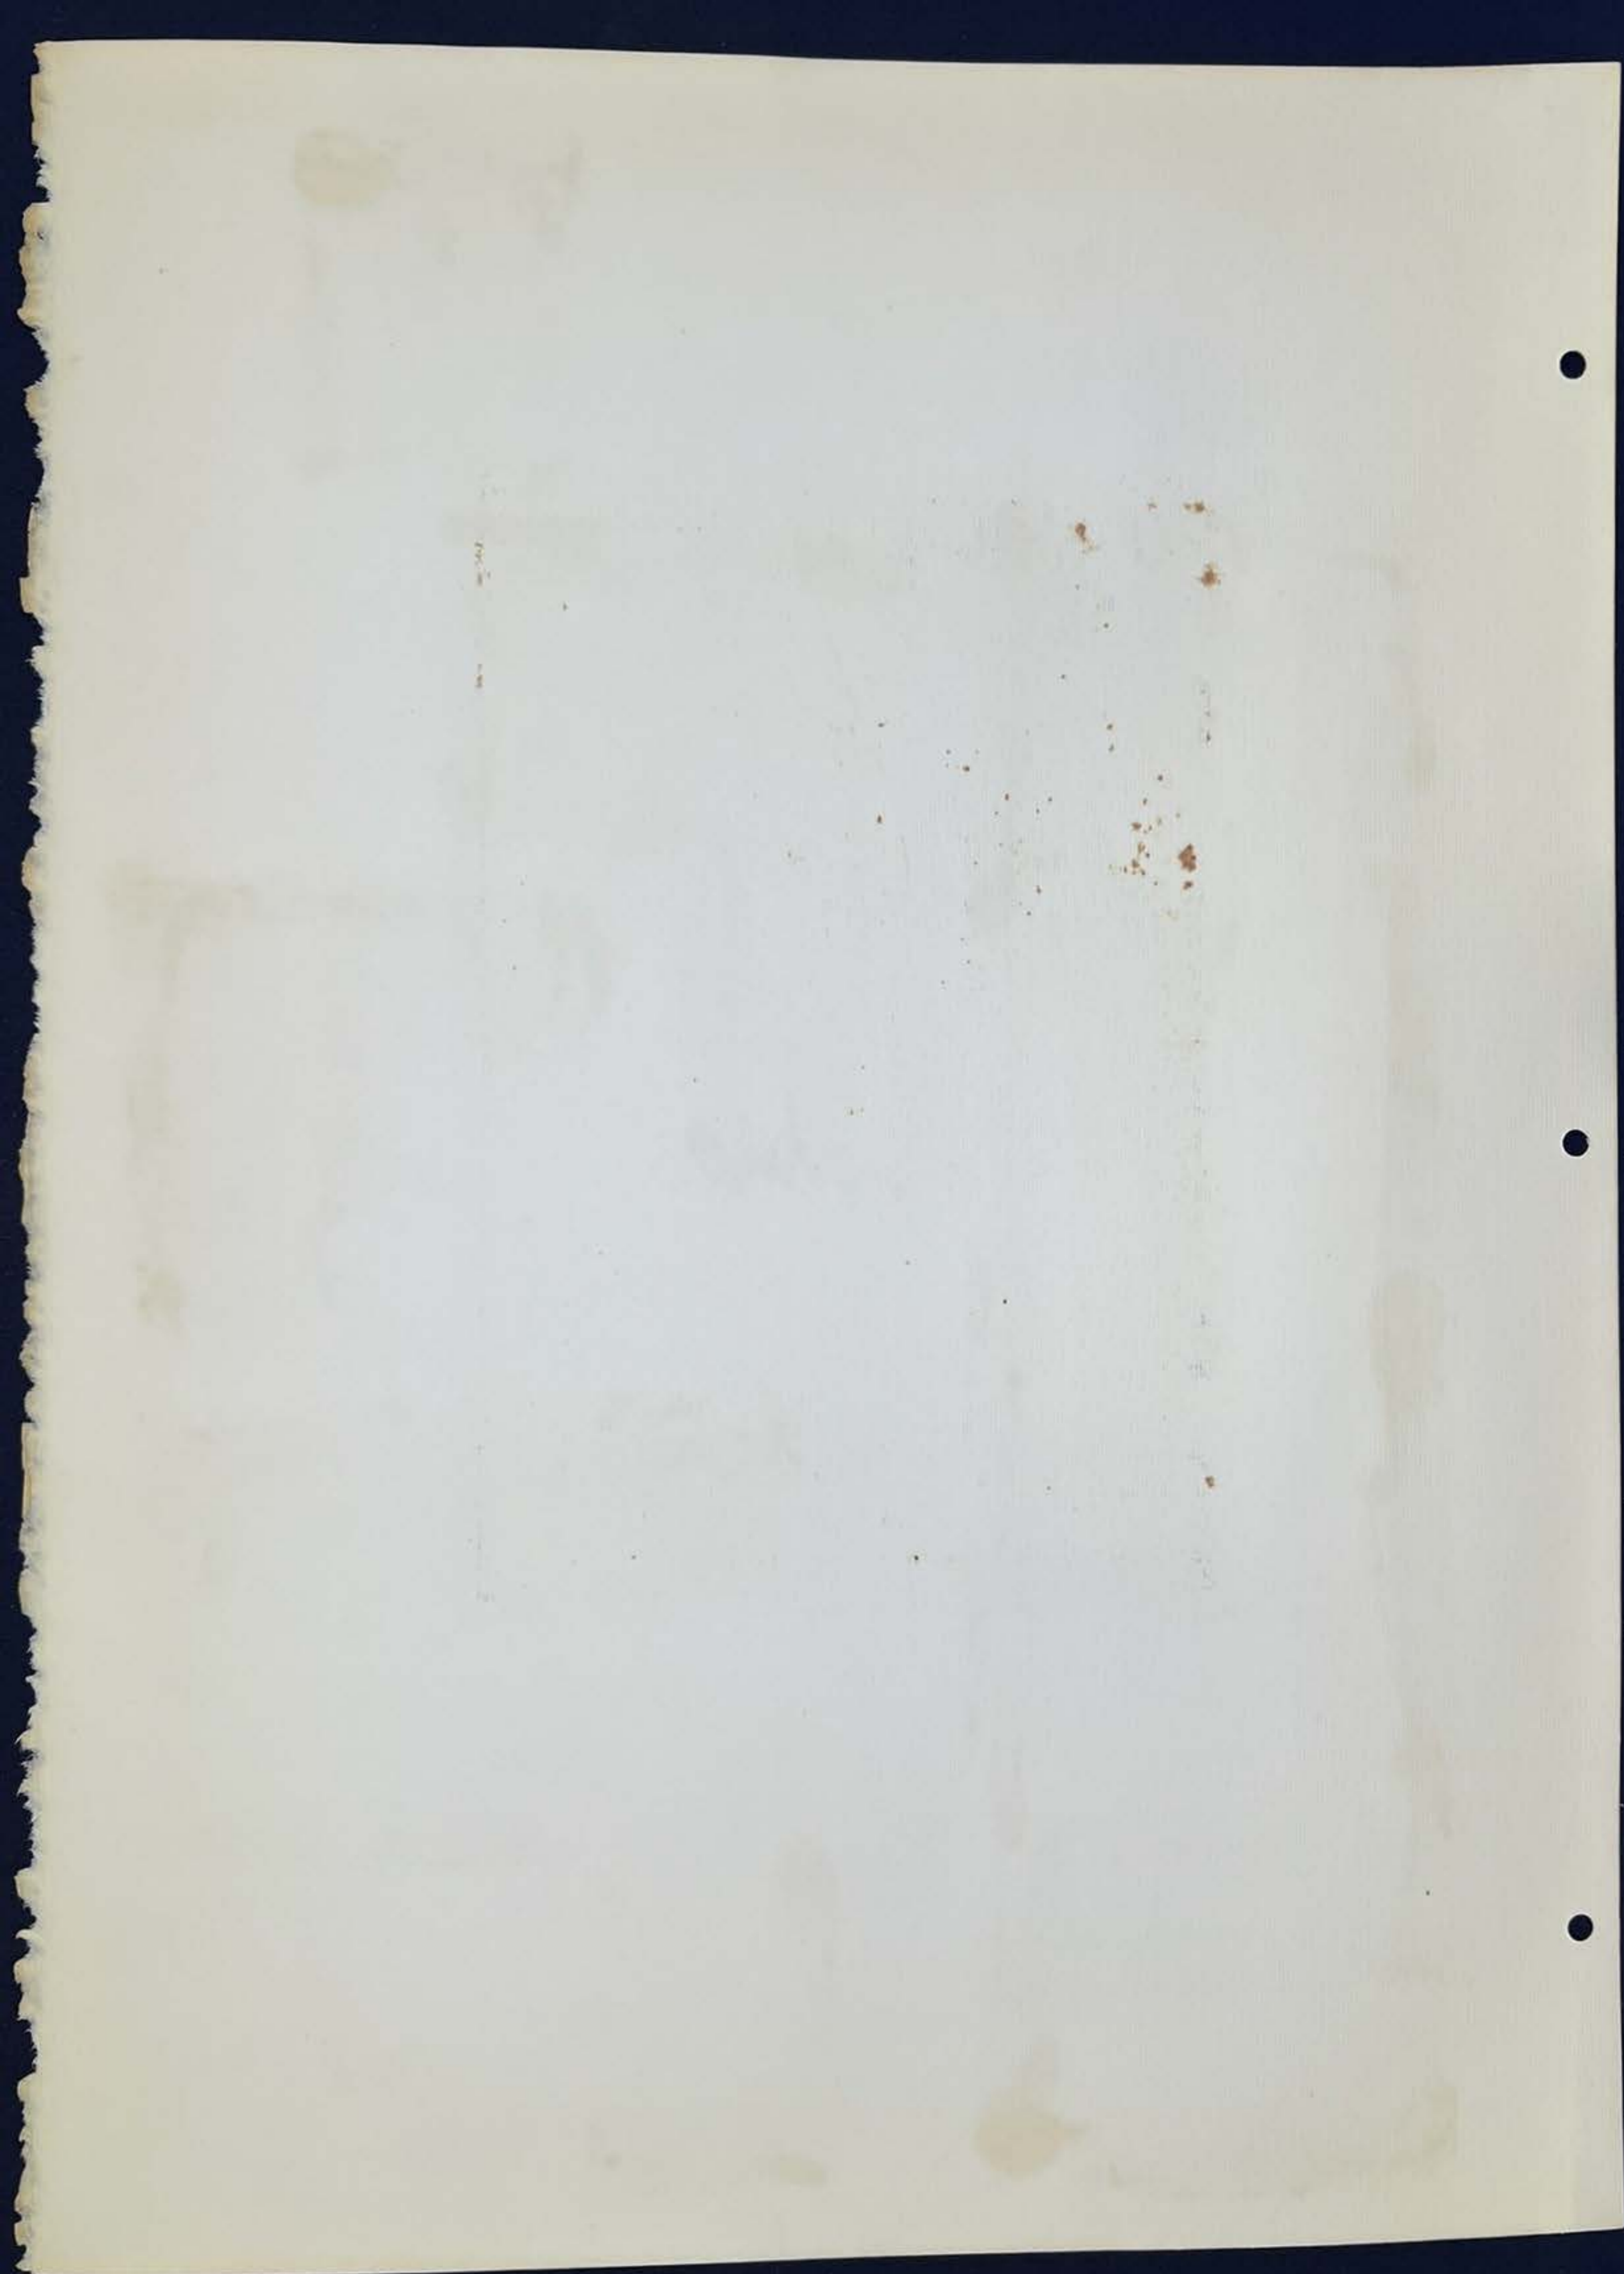

Tomorrow morning at 8:30 a.m. the executive committee will have a breakfast in the Governor's Suite of the Hotel with state Federation president, Mrs. Raymond T. Dent presiding.

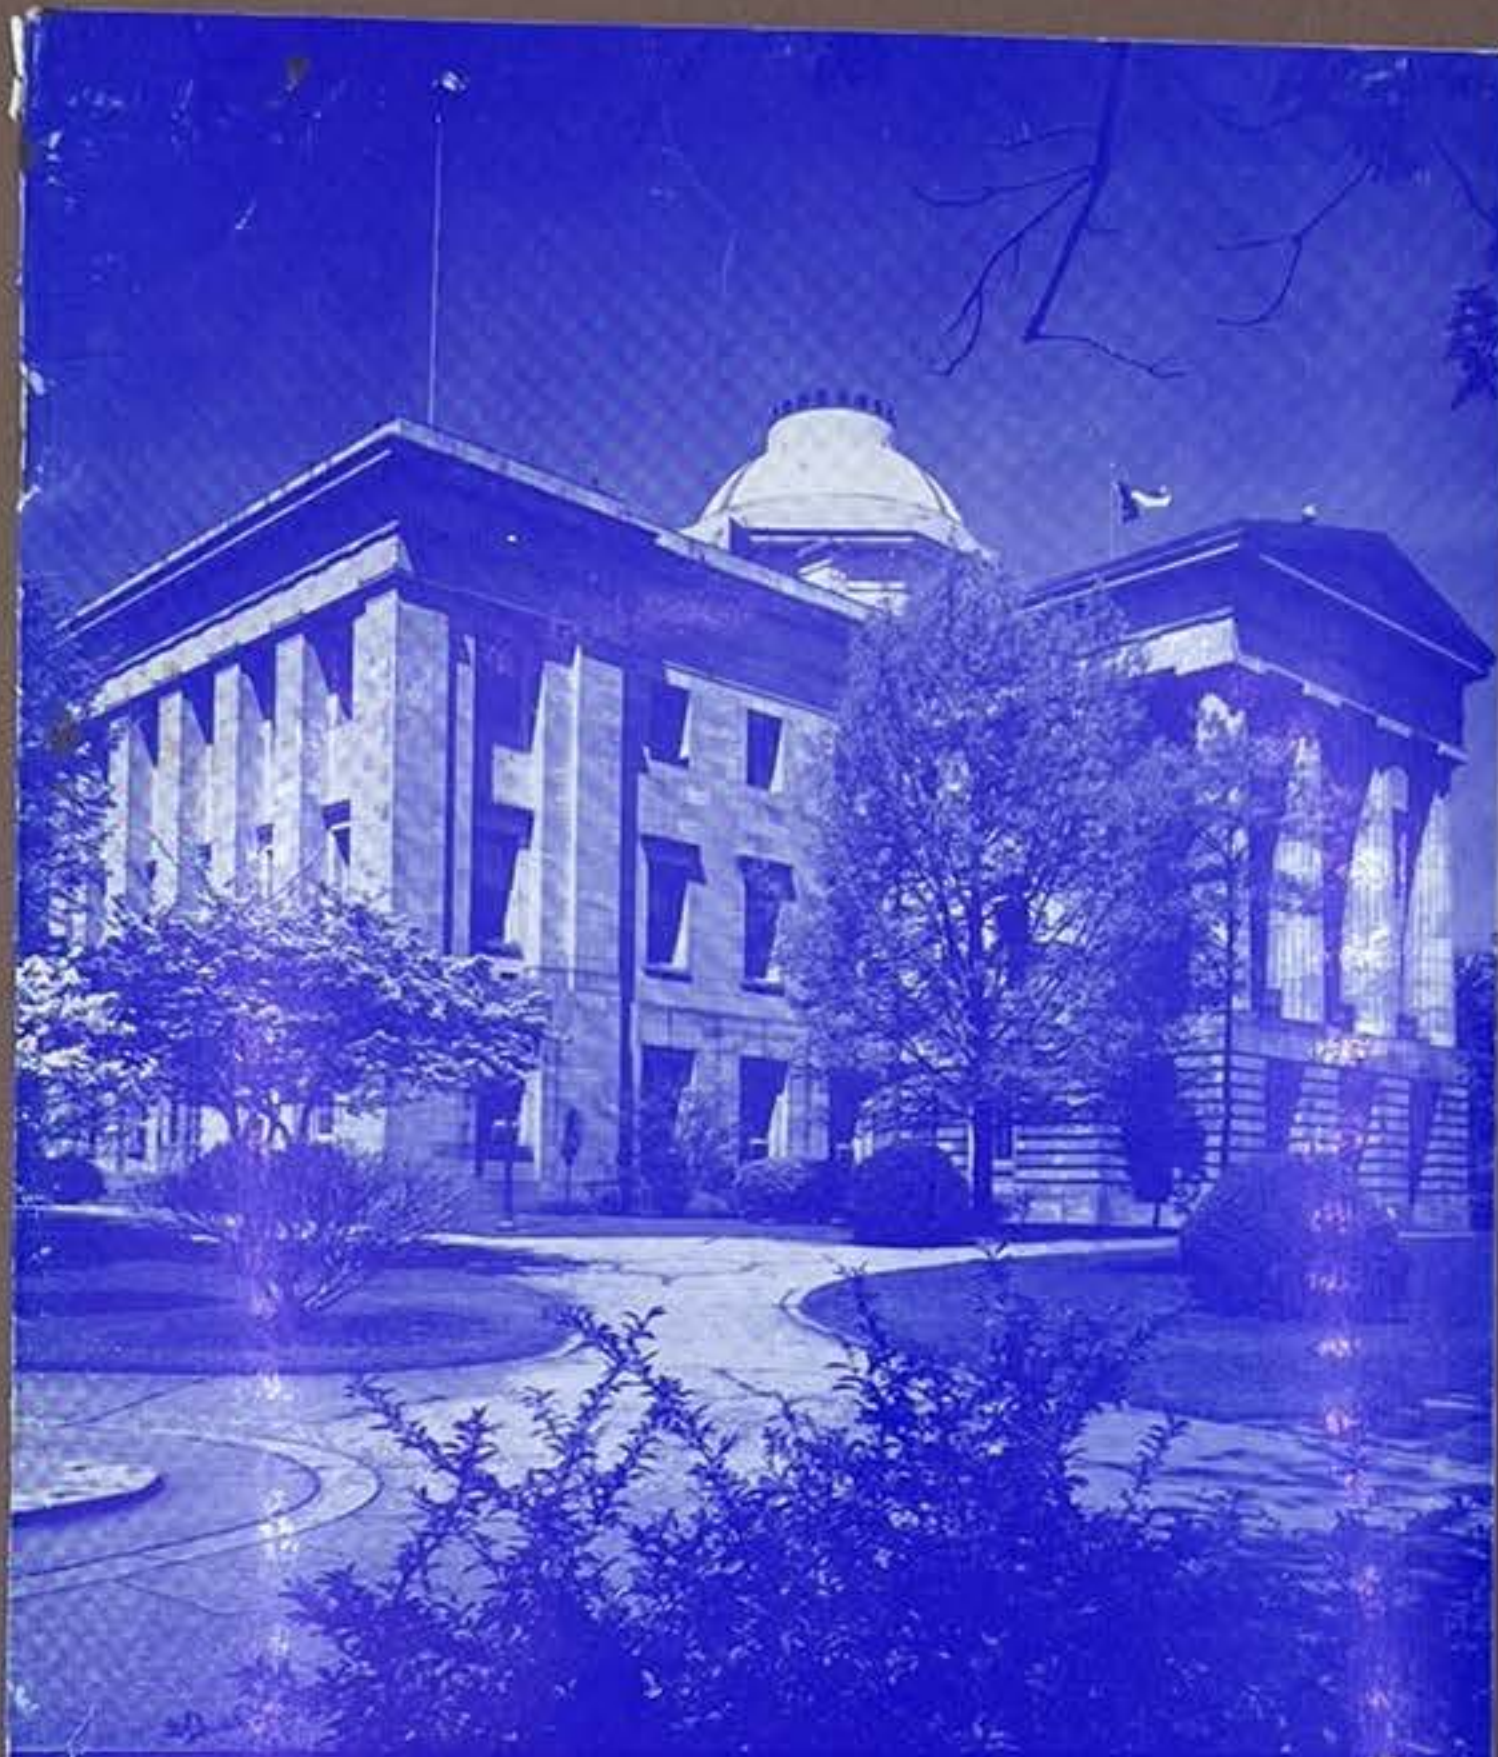

At 10 a.m. tomorrow morning the finance committee will meet in the Governor's Suite. And at 12:30 p.m. luncheons will be held at the Woman's Club for the board of trustees, the pages, the district presidents and the junior officers.

The Past Presidents will have a dinner in the Budleigh Room of the Hotel Sir Walter tomorrow evening at 6 p.m. The formal opening of the state-wide meeting will be held here tomorrow night at 7:45 p.m. in the Sir Walter Hotel Ballroom.

AWARD IN SILVER—Presented by A. C. Edwards, executive vice-president of the N. C. Farm Bureau, to Mrs. L. Y. Ballentine, center, conservation chairman of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs yesterday, was this silver punch bowl, to be awarded for the study of water and soil conducted by a club in the State. Mrs. Ballentine also presented an antique silver samovar to Mrs. R. T. Dent, right, president of the N. C. Federation to be given for the study of minerals through the Conservation Department. Both awards will be made at the state convention here in April.

A Collect for Clubwomen

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness;
Let us be large in thought, in word,
in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding
And leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense
And meet each other face to face Without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment
And always generous.

Let us take time for all things;
Make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses

Straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is
The little things that create differences.

That in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know

The great, common human heart of us all.

And, oh Lord, let us forget not To be kind!

—Mary Stewart

Pledge of Allegiance

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands. One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

The Old North State

Carolina, Carolina,
Heav'n's blessings attend her!
While we live we will cherish,
Protect and defend her.
Tho, the scorners may sneer at
And wittings defame her,
Still our hearts swell with gladness
Whenever we name her.

Then let all those who love us,
Love the land that we live in,
As happy a region
As on this side of heaven,
Where Plenty and Peace,
Love and Joy smile before us
Raise aloud, raise together
The heart-thrilling chorus.

(Chorus)

Hurrah! Hurrah!
The Old North State forever!
Hurrah! Hurrah!
The good Old North State!

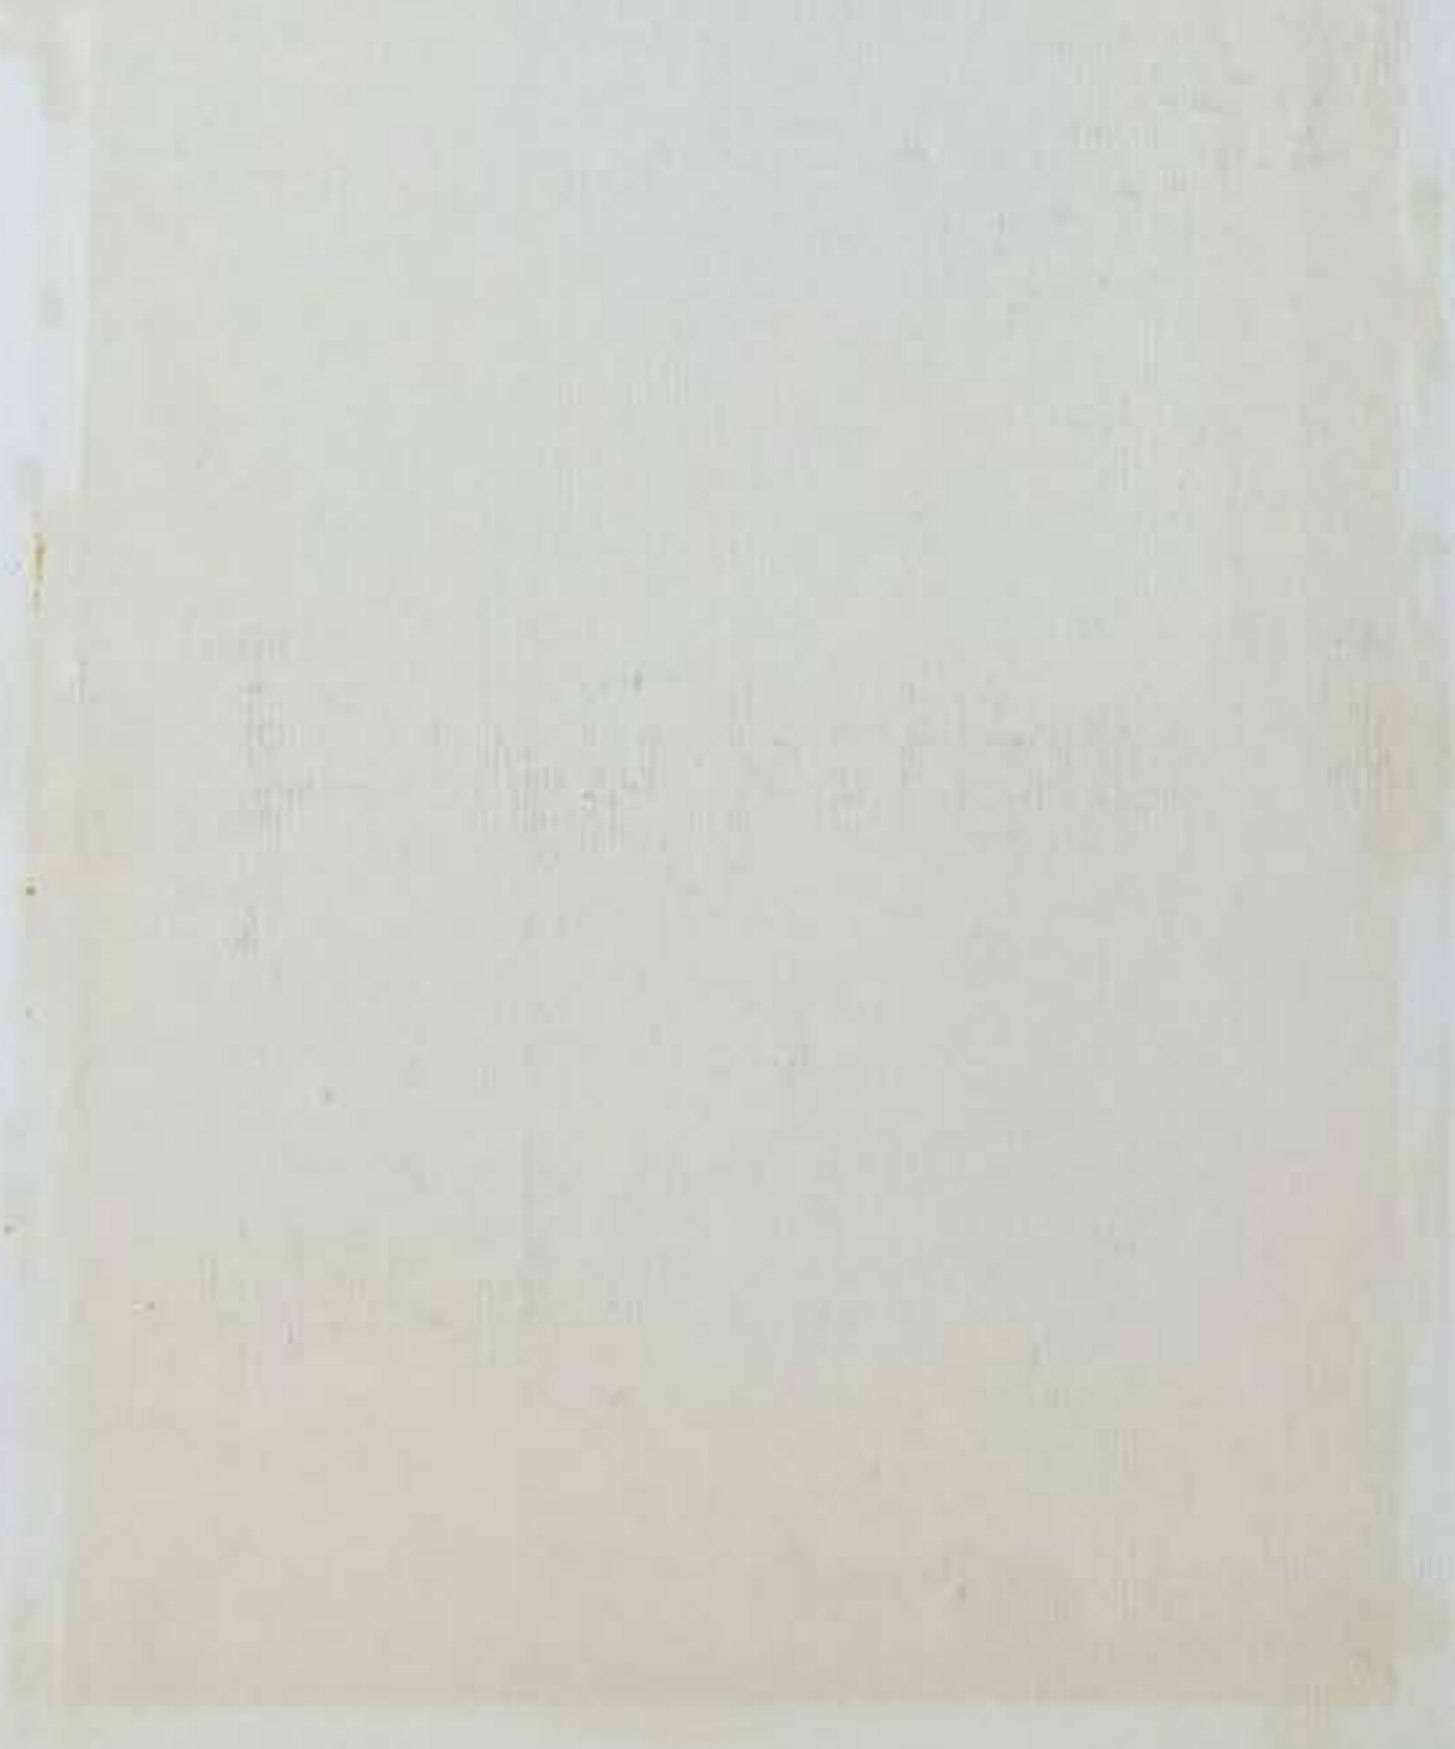

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

Hymn of the Month for April

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain
For purple mountain majesties
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet
Whose stern, impassion'd stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years—
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears.
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

Woman's Club Delegates Arrive Here for 58th Annual Meeting

Hundreds of women began arriving for the 58th Annual Convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs meeting here through Thursday.

On schedule today is a luncheon for the department and division chairmen and luncheons for the Board of Trustees, pages, district presidents and junior officers. After the past presidents' dinner tonight is the formal opening of the convention.

There was a coffee hour this morning. At 1 p.m. the Vogue fashion sewing contest was to be held in the Virginia Dare Ballroom. At 3:30 p.m., the state choral groups contest will be held at the Woman's Club and at 10 p.m. a district party will be held in the Elizabeth Room at the Sir Walter Hotel.

Awards, which will be presented throughout the convention, were announced yesterday by Mrs. J. M. Jenrette Jr., awards chairman. Clubs receiving awards in the Capital area are: Clayton Woman's Club, the C. H. Verne cup in city beautification division and the Lucille Ellington Hocutt tray; Louisburg Junior Woman's Club, Lewelyn W. Robinson bowl for community service; Oxford Woman's Club, the Gulon Griffin Johnson silver tray and a tie for the Carolina Arts Sales Gallery bowl; Raleigh Woman's Club, the Kate Burr Johnson cup for health and welfare work, three conservation awards, the Frances Korner Efrid bowl for graphic arts won by Mrs. Roger Brantley, the Ethel Parker cup for best oil painting other than a portrait, won by Mrs. E. N. Richards, the Past President's cup for literature and drama, won by Miss Bessie Bock, the Norma Foster Edwards Drama award, won by Mrs. William Wright Jones of Raleigh and a tie for the Carolina Arts Sales Gallery bowl.

Raleigh Junior Woman's Club, the Morris Day Silver Tray for excellence in education and a tie for the Carolina Art Sales Gallery Bowl; Millbrook Woman's Club, the William D. Hurst award for work with veterans and a tie for the Carolina Art Sales Gallery bowl; Smithfield Woman's Club, Frances F. Bishopric citizenship cup and the R. J. Reynolds driver training award.

Club Members Welcomed by Federation Hostess

MRS. CHARLES G. DOAK
Times Guest Columnist
When the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs holds its convention here this week, the hundreds of club women will find that one of the most exciting events planned for them will be the open house in their own Federation Headquarters at 1509 Hillsboro Street. At the door to welcome them will be the gracious and beloved hostess, Mrs. Rowland H. Latham.

They will find the warm welcome their Mamie Latham has been extending to club women since 1951 when she brought her lovely old furniture down from Asheville and took over as official hostess of the newly acquired Headquarters.

Air of Colonial Charm

There is an air of colonial charm about the place. The house was built 50 years ago for General Albert L. Cox, then a Raleigh lawyer, who now lives in Washington, D. C. The building contractor was the skilled Joshua James Waynick, father of the present North Carolina Adjutant Major General, Capus M. Waynick. It was one of the first colonial style houses built in Raleigh after the Victorian and "Hudson River Bracketed" types had had their day, and it is similar to many houses in the Albemarle section of Virginia where Mamie Latham was born, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Allen Brown of Charlottesville, where she was educated at the University of Virginia. After her marriage to Rowland H. Latham in 1905, she and her educator husband came to Weldon to live. Mamie became a Tar Heel and a most loyal and devoted one, though she has not completely lost her Virginia accent. She still pronounces "car" the Virginia way.

Organized Book Club

Mrs. Latham helped to organize the Weldon Book Club and saw it safely federated. In 1910 the Lathams regretfully left their host of friends in Weldon and moved to Winston-Salem, where Mr. Latham became superintendent of schools.

Mrs. Latham was soon president of the Woman's Club and was holding that office when the club house was bought.

In 1933 Mr. Latham became superintendent of the city schools of Asheville, remaining in that position until retirement in 1945, on account of ill health. Mrs. Latham was active in two Asheville clubs and taught a Bible class in Central Methodist Church.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs had already recognized Mamie Latham's abilities and claimed her services. She was made chairman of the Literature department; then president of district six; treasurer of the Federation; first vice-president, and then president. Her administration was progressive and resulted in growth of number of clubs and members.

In the General Federation of Women's Clubs Mrs. Latham served as dean of State Presidents; as chairman of the budget committee, then treasurer. She served for a total of 10 years on the executive board, and was consultant to the Education department.

Interest in Schools

Deeply interested in the schools and in welfare work, Mrs. Latham served two terms on the State Board of Public Welfare by appointment of the State's Governor.

The only child of the Lathams died in early manhood. Mr. Latham died in 1948.

In the city of Raleigh Mrs. Latham is to be found in the Twentieth Century Book Club, the Woman's Club, at Edenton Street Methodist Church; and during the General Assembly she often speaks before some committee in behalf of good legislation.

They'll Keep Convention Wheels Turning

By BETSY MARSH

A glittering array of personalities will spin the wheels of the 58th annual convention of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs which opens here Tuesday at the Hotel Sir Walter for a three-day run.

The spokes of this giant wheel are the four noted speakers, the N. C. Federation officers, the three state convention chairmen and all the multitude of convention workers under them.

The four speakers are as follows:

MRS. JOSEPH M. PERKINS, who will address the formal opening session of the convention on Tuesday evening, is treasurer of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. A Texan who was born in Massachusetts and is running for third vice-presidency of the General Federation, she is active in musical, educational and health work and is the only woman to have held the presidency of both the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and the Texas Federation of Music Clubs. From 1945 to 1950 she served the state of Texas as a member of the State Board of Education during which time she secured legislation for the adoption of public school music textbooks. Her research in the health and education of the migrant child has received national recognition.

DR. SHANE McCARTHY, executive director of President Eisenhower's Council of Youth Fitness, is being brought to North Carolina by the Youth Fitness Commission North Carolina and the North Carolina Junior Clubwomen who have been emphasizing their four-fold fitness program during the current administration. A widely-known lecturer both here and abroad, McCarthy will speak at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday in Memorial Auditorium.

MRS. LEO CURTIS is the General Federation's Director of Juniors who will address the junior luncheon here on Wednesday. Wednesday is Junior Day for clubs throughout the State. A woman who joined the Sub - Juniors at age 15, she has held offices on every level, county, district, and state, spoken in 21 states since taking office, and represented the U.S. Junior Clubs at a conference in the Philippines last June at which time she also visited Japan, Hawaii, and Hong Kong clubs.

RICHARD W. REUTER, who will address the Wednesday evening session, is executive director of CARE, the international relief organization. The N. C. Federation has been very active in assistance to CARE. Reuter, a former assistant editor of Town and Country magazine, holds the Philippine Government's Legion of Honor, the Italian Government's Order of Merit, and similar decorations from the governments of Greece and Bolivia.

And the present N. C. Federation of Women's Club officers are:

MRS. RAYMOND T. DENT of Spruce Pine, president of the N. C. Federation. Mrs. Dent has served four years on the committee of the Mitchell County chapter of the American Cancer Society, has been on the boards of the Buncombe County Mental Hygiene Clinic, and the Spruce Pines Public Library, and was formerly recording secretary and second vice-president of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs.

MRS. E. A. LATTA of Henderson is first vice president in charge of departments. The Henderson Business and Professional Women once named her Woman of the Year. The Kiwanis Club also gave her their Good Neighbor award. She has served as president of District 14.

MRS. DOC R. OLIVER of Pine Level, second vice president in charge of districts, is a former vice president and president of District 13. Formerly chairman of the Health and Welfare divisions of the State Federation, she has been director of the Johnston County Library Board, the TB Board, and the Red Cross.

MRS. H. JACK SHARPE JR., of Thomasville is third vice president in charge of Juniors. Quite active in the Thomasville community, she has been president of her local club and received the Junior of the Year award in 1955-56.

MRS. J. C. SHEARIN of Roanoke Rapids is corresponding secretary. She's been chairman of the international affairs department of the State Federation, and recording secretary for the State Federation.

MRS. TRUMAN S. YOUNG-BLOOD of Huntersville is recording secretary. Active in the PTA and in her local Presbyterian Church, she's been president of her local club as well as secretary and president of District Five.

MRS. EARL BRIAN of Raleigh, elected Federation treasurer last June, is also serving as general chairman of the convention here this week. A past president of the Raleigh Woman's Club, she has been state chairman of public relations and international projects for the Federation.

MRS. SAM BEARD of Raleigh, president of the Raleigh Junior Woman's Club, is serving as junior chairman of the Convention. Last year chairman of public relations for her district, she is this year's chairman of the advisory committee for the North Carolina Clubwoman.

MRS. R. B. TALLEY of Fuquay-Varina is District Eight president and as such is district chairman of the convention. A recent nominee for N. C. Mother of the Year she has been president of the Fuquay-Varina Woman's Club and organized the Apex Woman's Club. She has a musical bent, and many of her activities have been in music circles.

Sewing For Three Daughters Keeps Contest Winner Busy

By DOTTY CAMERON.

"I sew constantly," laughed pretty Mrs. O. G. Lane of Derita, who yesterday walked off with top honors in the State Federation's annual Vogue sewing contest.

And well she might, for she is the mother of three daughters. But the tiny, soft-spoken winner, who has short brown hair and sparkling brown eyes, remarked of her winning outfit, "For once, mother made hers first."

She has just finished making a formal for daughter Janice a freshman at Woman's College. "Now I'm making Susan's Easter dress," said the talented mother who looks like a college student herself. Glenda is a senior in high school and the youngest child is three-year-old Susan.

Mother Taught Her.

Ruby Lane, whose husband works for Douglas Aircraft, says her mother taught her to sew when she was a little girl . . . and "I can hardly wait to write mother about winning," she said between hugs of congratulations from fellow members of the Derita Woman's Club. She made her first dress when she was 12 years old.

Mrs. Lane's winning outfit was a smart navy blue linen sheath dress and jacket, which could be changed into many costumes with various accessories. She modelled it first with a polka dot scarf and hat for a daytime club meeting. And she showed the vast audience in the Sir Walter Hotel ballroom how the scarf could be converted into a collar with the addition of a perky bow of the same material, or worn as a sash.

The dress was worn with a navy and white silk printed jacket for Mrs. Lane's second appearance, and for an afternoon tea later in the day, she modelled the dress alone, with a white hat and gloves. An overskirt of navy blue organza and a red rose at the waistline were added for evening wear.

Second Place Twice.

Winning second place in the contest for the second year in a row was Mrs. H. E. Davis of Andrews, who declared she knew she was "the only grandmother" in the contest. She has 12 grandchildren and five married children.

A member of the Konaheeta Woman's Club in Andrews, Mrs. Davis represented district one. A daughter, Mrs. A. G. Swann of Chapel Hill, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. D. W. Davis of Durham, were present to witness her victory.

Mrs. Davis, a widow, says she sewed a great deal when her daughters were small and now makes most of her own clothes. Her outfit of black crepe had three jackets, a stole and overskirt. One reversible jacket had a print lining and she carried a matching umbrella and used the same print on the crown of her straw hat.

For a tea, Mrs. Davis wore her black dress with a stole lined in turquoise velvet and she also had a matching velvet hat and bag. Ready for an evening banquet, she added a lace jacket and overskirt.

Miss Dotty Cameron, woman's editor of The News and Observer was commentator for the fashion show. Mrs. Emmett Pollock of Raleigh served as general chairman.

Judges were Miss Jannie M. Hanyen, Miss Elizabeth Bason and Mrs. Nell Smith. Mrs. J. T. Lynn provided music and Miss Carmen Jones was in charge of staging.

There were 16 contestants, one from each district in the State. The winner received $100 and her outfit will go into national competition. Second prize was $25.

HAPPY WINNER CONGRATULATED . . .

... Mrs. O. G. Lane of Derita, left, who won the Federation's sewing contest yesterday, is congratulated by her district chairman, Mrs. Lark Newsom Jr. of Star.

At the Convention

Women Turn Out in Formal Attire

By MEREDITH COUNCIL
Times Staff Writer

Last night's formal opening of the Annual Convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs was just that—formal.

In Raleigh, where Women's Club members are usually bustling around doing community service projects and attending informal luncheons, it was something to see women in formal gowns.

There was standing room only in the Virginia Dare Ballroom at the Sir Walter Hotel when about 100 women in formal attire marched through the crowd and to the front seats which had been reserved for the "official body" and honor guests of the convention. Many of the officers, guests, past presidents, trustees and district presidents wore white orchid corsages.

Convention pages, headed by Raleigh's Mrs. Robert L. McMillan Jr., wore white dresses and were distinguished by blue sashes.

Mrs. Raymond T. Dent, president of the group, had three personal pages and all of them are recent brides. Her daughter, Mrs. John Curtis of Chapel Hill, her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Raymond T. Dent Jr. of Spruce Pine and her niece, Mrs. Richard M. Royall of Raleigh were her aides.

Mrs. Earl Brian of Raleigh, treasurer of the State Federation, introduced Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, treasurer of General Federation, who spoke on "Our Sheaves We Have Bound," referring to the work completed by the present administrations in the State and in the Nation.

Prizes

Prizes are as much a part of the convention as the women. Yesterday it was announced that the Raleigh Junior Woman's Club won first place in the Class A press book contest and the Oxford Junior Woman's Club won first place in the scrapbook contest, Class B, with Sanford Juniors winning second place. Youngsville Woman's Club won first place and Fuquay-Varina won second place in the Class C scrapbook competition. Clayton Woman's Club won first place in the Class B year-book contest.

The Raleigh Woman's Club Chorus won first place in the new State Choral Group contest in Group A and the Youngsville Woman's Club Choral Group won first place in Group C.

At the State Vogue Fashion Sewing contest Mrs. O. G. Lane of Derita was named winner. The pianist for the show had a broken finger. Mrs. J. T. Lynn of Raleigh went right on playing though and plans to play for a dance this weekend. She broke the finger while she was making up a bed!

Mrs. R. P. Bullard, whose Raleigh Woman's Club Conservation department copped three awards, is proud as can be to get a silver punch bowl, a wooden podium and a cash award for the club.

Familiar faces at the opening session last night included Mrs. M. B. Koonce, Mrs. Maxwell Warlick, Mrs. J. M. Hitch and Mrs. S. B. Hobbs of the Raleigh Woman's Club, Mrs. Guy Penny and Mrs. M. W. Stubbs of the Garner Senior Woman's Club, Mrs. James Stevens of the Garner Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Charles Bradley of the Millbrook Woman's Club and Mrs. W. H. Wendt of the Raleigh Junior Woman's Club.

Choral Group Contest Held

A new project of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs, the State Choral Group Contest, was held here yesterday afternoon at the Woman's Club in conjunction with the State convention now going on.

Participating in the contest were women's club choral groups from throughout the State. Four $50 awards were offered according to membership in the club. Divisions were as follows: Group A, membership of 100 or more members, Group B, membership of 51-100 members, Group C, membership of from 26 to 50 members and Group D membership of 25 or less members.

Participating was in Groups A and C only.

Winners were: Group A, the Raleigh Choral Group of the Raleigh Woman's Club and Group B, the Youngsville Choral Group of the Youngsville Woman's Club.

Mrs. H. E. Reese is director and Mrs. Coite Jones, accompanist, of the 22-member Raleigh Choral Group. Mrs. A. N. Courteney is director and Mrs. Rufus Potts, accompanist for the 15-member Youngsville Group.

Judges were Dr. Raymond T. Kriner, head of the voice department at Peace College, and Harold Shoemaker, minister of music at Tabernacle Baptist Church.

State Teacher Of Year Is Wake Native

By DOTTY CAMERON

"Love of teaching stems from a deep love of children," Mrs. Lee H. Edwards of Asheville, North Carolina's new Teacher of the Year, said here yesterday.

A widow who raised and educated three children of her own, and who has been teaching and loving her first-grade students for 32 years, Mrs. Edwards says she finds today's students little different from those she taught following her graduation from Meredith College. She will retire at the end of this school year and is looking forward to "doing all the things I haven't had time to do before."

The former Elia Norris grew up in Holly Springs and later married her high school sweetheart, who was a principal in the Greensboro City School system when she was teaching there. They moved to Asheville in 1924, where he was principal of the high school, and Mrs. Edwards teaching career stopped temporarily.

When her husband died seven years later, she was left with two sons and a daughter, all pre-school age. The new senior high school, which was completed the year of her husband's death, now bears his name.

Educates Own Children.

Mrs. Edwards taught winters and during summer sessions, selling books in between to support her family. One son, the Rev. Carl N. Edwards, is pastor of Gillespie Methodist Church in Charlotte, and now has two children of his own. He is a graduate of Duke University and Union Theological Seminary in New York, and studied for a year in Germany on a Rotary scholarship.

Her daughter, now Mrs. Peter Homans of Chicago, Ill., was graduated from Greensboro College and received her masters degree from Northwestern University. She is now regional director of Girl Scouts and her husband will complete work on his doctorate at the University of Chicago in June.

Mrs. Edwards' unmarried son, Lee Jr., was graduated from the University of North Carolina and is associated with Pan American Equipment Company in Miami, Fla.

"There is no such thing as loving a child too much if you teach him right living, respect for others and give him deep religious training," remarked the tall, gracious Mrs. Edwards, whose motherly face reflects amazing vitality and an interest in all that goes on around her.

The teacher of the year thinks North Carolina has a good school system, but "there's always room for improvement; nothing should stand still." Especially needed, she thinks, are smaller classes and a state-supported pre-school program.

It takes more to keep today's

STATE TEACHER OF YEAR . . .

. . . Mrs. Lee H. Edwards of Asheville is a native of Wake County.

children interested, she says, because of "all the modern inventions and opportunities to learn they have out of school." But this just makes teaching more of a challenge.

Problem Parents.

"You don't have problem children; you have problem parents," Mrs. Edwards says, and she spends a great deal of time outside the classroom working with parents. Education is a four-person program, consisting of father, mother, child and teacher, according to the veteran teacher.

Still maintaining her family home, where she likes to entertain frequently, Mrs. Edwards declares she never wants to live alone. Now she has an "adopted family"—two young male school teachers and a working girl who live with her—and "we have fun all the time."

Two recent deaths have marred the excitement surrounding Mrs. Edwards' award. News of her "oscar" came the day after the funeral of her 92-year-old mother, who had lived with her for many years. And a family maid of 23 years died several weeks before.

Climax To Career.

Mrs. Edwards considers her new honor a "wonderful climax" to her teaching career and it sent her out shopping for a new dress and hat for her awards luncheon yesterday—"something that helps any woman's spirits."

She doesn't expect to be idle next year when she isn't in the classroom every day. The always-busy Mrs. Edwards has already accepted the presidency of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at her church for next year. Her church work has been her relaxation through the years, she says, and she has taught Sunday School and served as superintendent of the children's division.

Active in a number of professional organizations, she is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma honorary society and has been state president of the Association for Childhood Education. She'll continue this work because she feels retired teachers can contribute much when they have "nothing personal at stake."

Mrs. Edwards will be back in the classroom this morning, missing only one day of school when coming to Raleigh to receive her award. She couldn't even tell her children why she was away as the winner was kept a secret until the convention.

But there'll doubtless be some proud students in the first grade of Newton Elementary School today.

Youngsville Woman's Club Choral Group

Youngsville Woman's Club Lists Convention Honors

Youngsville—Members of the Youngsville Woman's Club have been in Raleigh this week attending the annual North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs convention which is being held at the Hotel Sir Walter.

SCRAPBOOK

Among the display of winning Scrapbooks at the hotel was the Youngsville book which won first place in the state in its respective category which is based on club membership. "The Green Door" was the theme used by Scrapbook Chairman Mrs. J. W. Weather's, Jr., who did an outstanding job of compiling and composing the book which is filled with pages depicting the wide and various activities of the club. It is evident that much time and original thought was put forth in the creation of this book. As state winner, the scrapbook will now be entered into national competition.

CHORAL GROUP

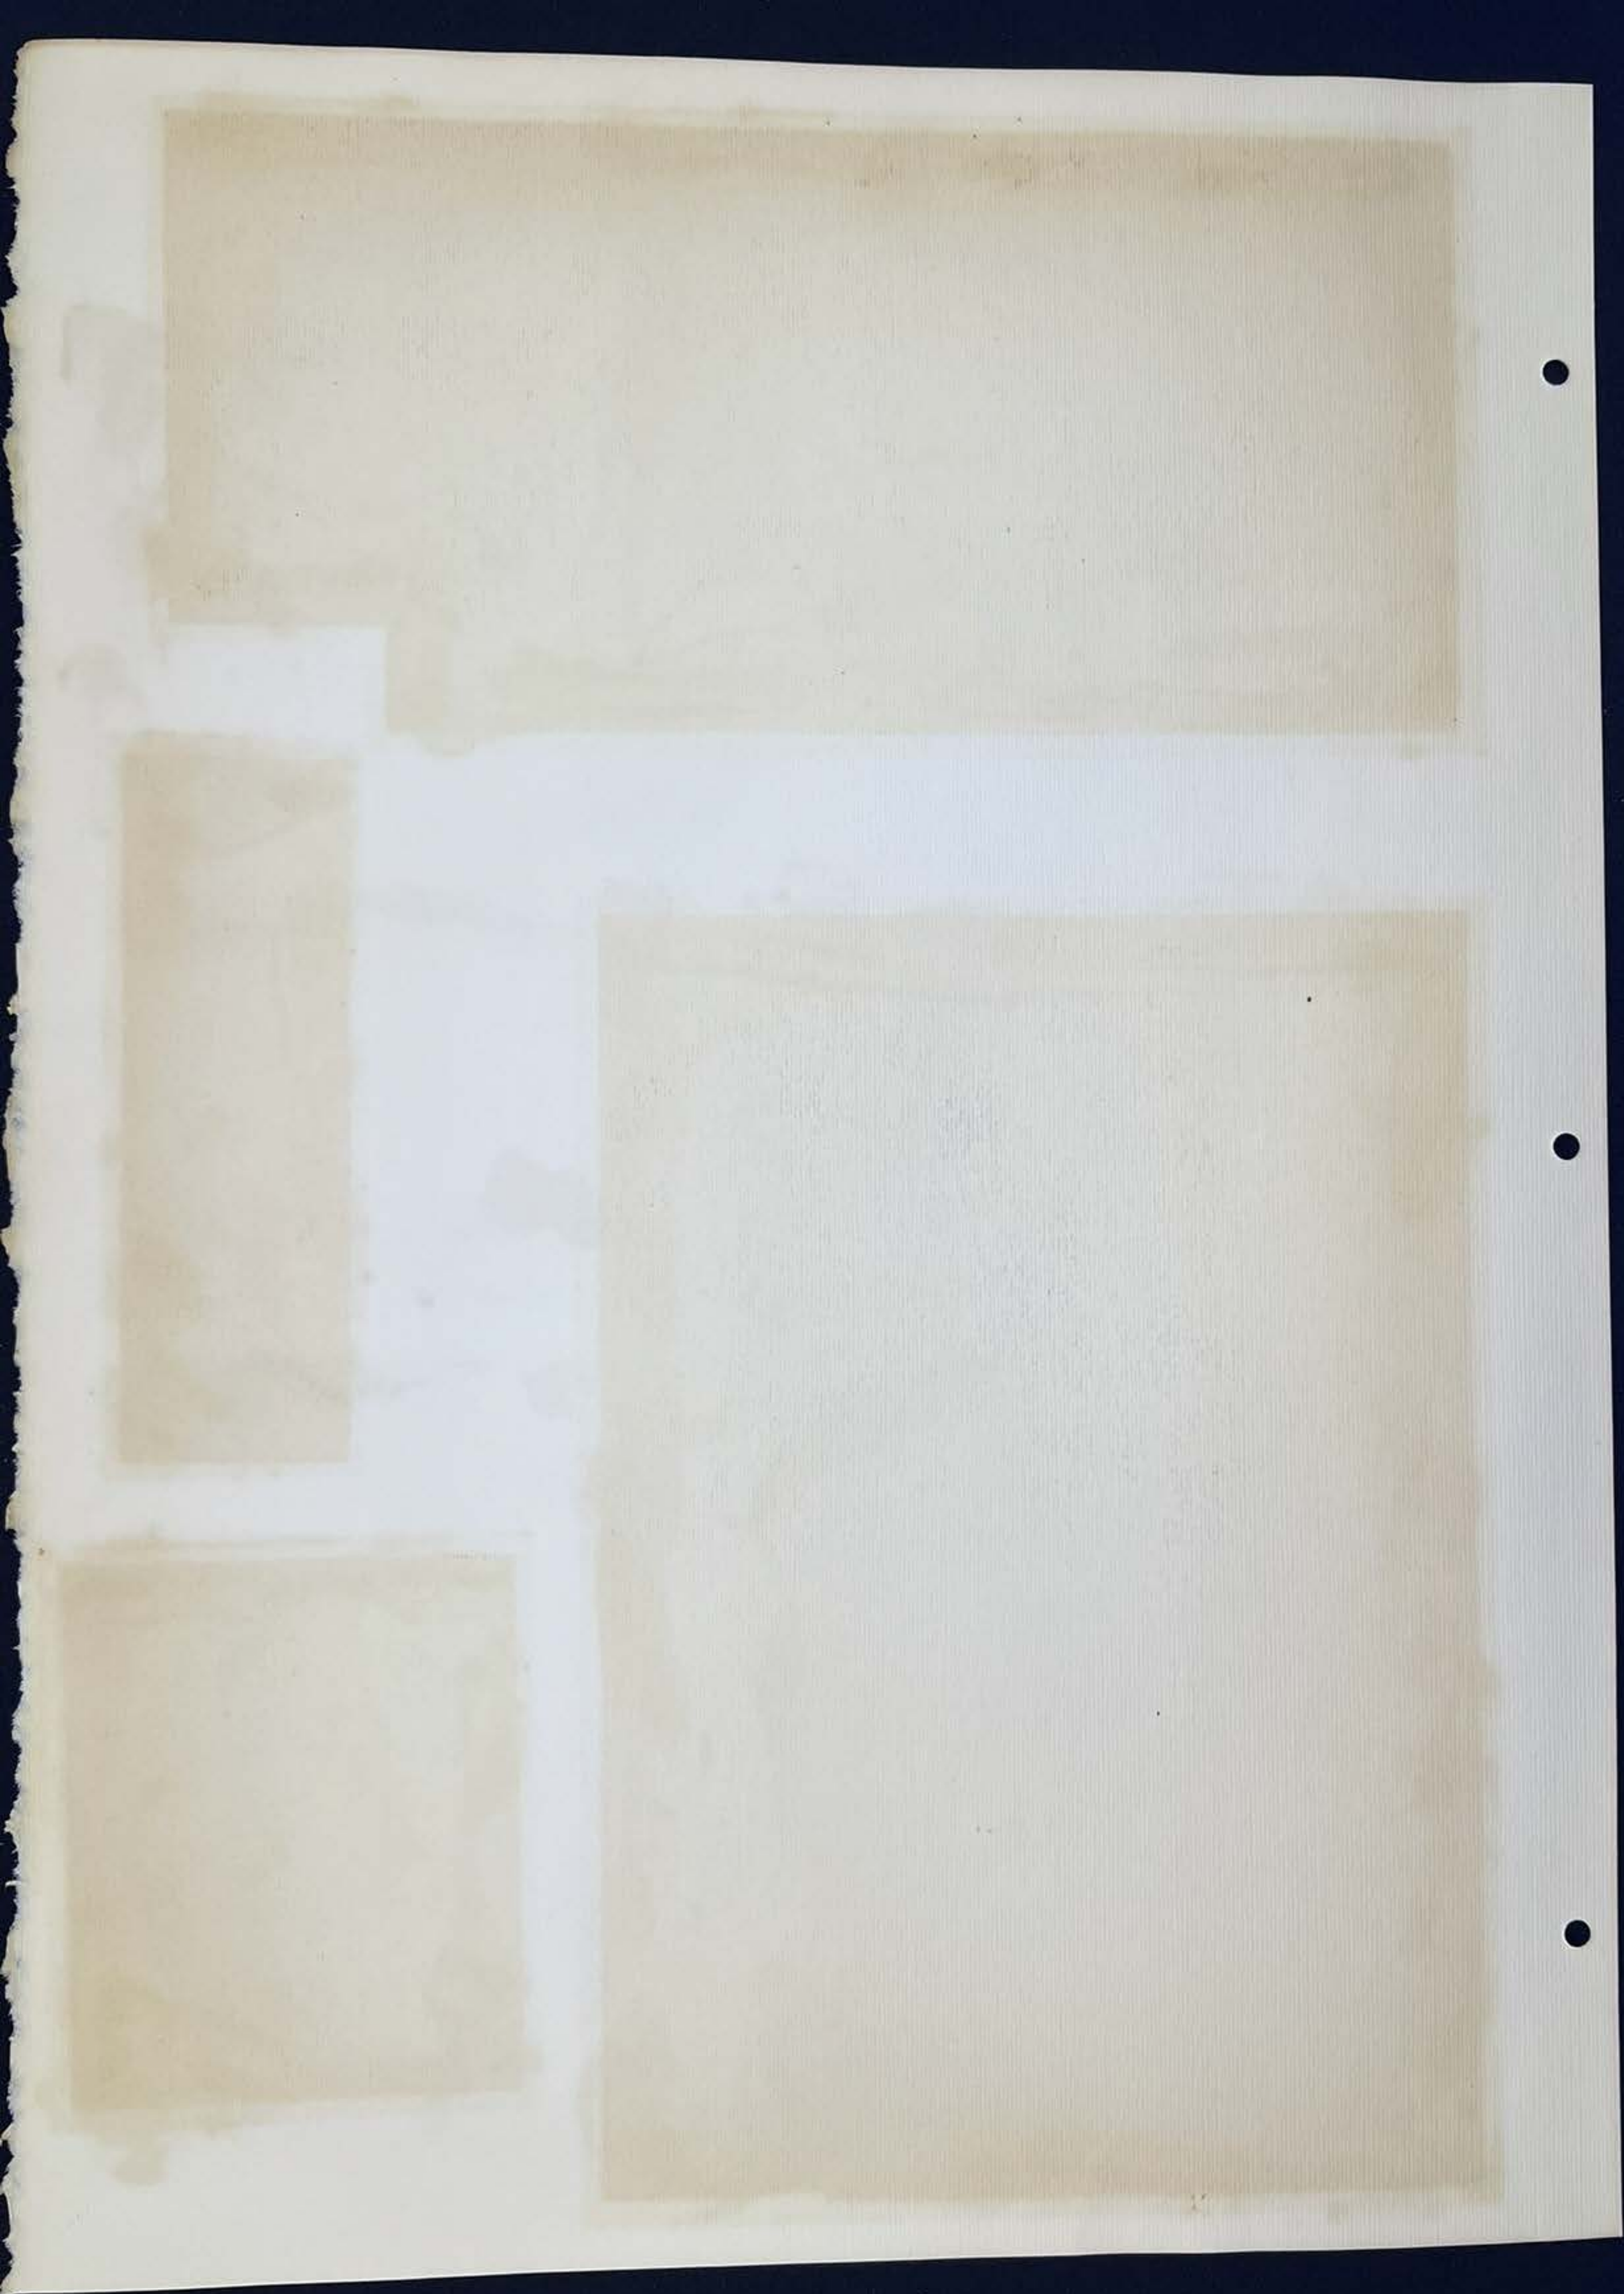

The local choral group also brought top honors to the club by emerging as winner in the State Choral Group contest which was held Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's Club in Raleigh. Along with the honor of winning, they will bring back to the club the fifty dollar award presented by the State Federation. For the Youngsville group Mrs. A. N.

Corpening is director and Mrs. R. F. Potts is accompanist.

Club members who participated were Mesdames J. E. Underwood, G. E. Winston, W. G. Scarborough, J. T. Moss, A. E. Hall, Patsie Justice, Alice Roberts, E. R. Tarrington, Effie Roberts, Elsie Timberlake, J. W. Weathers, Jr., W. F. Mitchell, B. H. Patterson. Some members of this group who say they do not have trained voices and are not members of a choir, state that the challenge of participating in a new experience has meant a great deal to them. The entire group spent many hours of practice with their capable directors.

Representing the local club as convention delegates are Mrs. R. E. Cheatham and Mrs. N. A. Brown and alternates Mrs. W. F. Mitchell and Mrs. B. H. Patterson. Attending the Vogue sewing contest, fashion show on Tuesday were the 2 delegates, Mrs. J. H. Winston, Mrs. E. J. Pearce and Mrs. C. F. Talley.

They were particularly interested in seeing our district representative from Lenoir model her outstanding ensemble; and also in seeing the wife of a former Youngsville resident, Cicero Talley, who modeled her attractive outfit representing the district which included her home of Fuquay.

By JEAN POWELL

Governor Luther H. Hodges praised the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs for its "significant contribution to the growth and development of North Carolina since its establishment more than half a century ago" in his address at the banquet last night, the closing meeting of the annual convention.

"The number of your clubs has grown to 357, with a membership of approximately 18,000. And, certainly, there is reason for pride that your 98 Junior Clubs boast a membership of 4,000 young North Carolina women who, through association with this organization, learn early the real meaning of citizenship responsibility—a virtue that cannot fail to make their own lives more meaningful and their contribution to our society more significant."

"I would like particularly to thank each of you on behalf of the State for the extensive beautification program you have carried out on the grounds at Samarcand. You can be assured that the $9,000 you have spent to build terraces, plant shrubbery and erect a new sign at the institution represents very material contribution to the work of rehabilitating the young people at that facility."

Notes Projects.

The Governor commented on the Federation's Help-A-Home project, the work it has done in the Community Achievement Contest, and the CARE program. The Federation made a sizeable contribution to Greece and the Philippines through CARE.

His speech took a political turn when he said, "I would urge each of you to take greater interest and a more active part in matters relating to government. This is especially important in this election year when the people are given the direct responsibility of charting their own future through the selection of competent, courageous government officials. This is a great privilege and, at the same time, a great and perplexing responsibility. For this reason you must demand of the candidates for public office at all levels clear, concise statements regarding the issues that confront us. Do not accept generalities or vague, carefully-worded promises."

In conclusion, the governor emphasized the importance of accepting and practicing more local responsibility in support of schools.

Officers Installed.

Mrs. Gordon C. Maddrey of Ahoskie was installed for a two-year term as president of the Federation. She and other officers were elected at yesterday morning's business session. Other officers installed were Mrs. Charles SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS—Mrs. T. Fred Henry of Salisbury, chairman of the Federation of Women's Clubs scholarship project, tells the two winners about the award, to be used in any of the three branches of the University of North Carolina. Jane Grossnickle of Castle Hayne, center, won the $1,000 annual scholarship for her four years at Woman's College and Kay Hall of Rowland, right, the $500 annual runner-up award. She will also attend WC.

D. Forney, of Lawndale, first vice president; Mrs. J. M. Badgett of Thomasville, second vice president; Mrs. James G. Murphy of Ahoskie, third vice president; Miss Pauline Powell of Asheville, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Edward M. Anderson of West Jefferson, trustee.

Mrs. Lee H. Edwards, Asheville first grade teacher and widow of the high school principal for whom the school is named, received the state "Oscars for Teachers" award. She retires this year after teaching some 30 years. The award was presented at yesterday's luncheon.

The Federation's four-year scholarship award of $1,000 annually went to Jane Grossnickle of Castle Hayne. She is a senior at New Hanover High School in Wilmington. Kay Hall, runner-up, will receive $500 for each of her four college years. Both will enter Woman's College in the fall.

Approximately $1,670 was contributed towards the scholarship fund at yesterday's business meeting.

Awards Made.

Six awards were given in connection with the Samarcand Project. The Charlotte Club was recognized as having contributed the largest amount to the project, $250. An award went to the Ahoskie Junior Woman's Club for the club (under 50 members) contributing the largest amount, $180. Four district awards were made for 100 percent club contribution in the district. These awards were presented to the following district vice presidents:

Mrs. Joseph Thorud of Edenton, District 16; Mrs. W. D. Clark of Rocky Mount, District 13; Miss Dorothy Forbes of Wilmington, District 11; Mrs. Robert Glass of Cary, District 8.

Winning the Preservation of Antiquities Award was the Edenton Woman's Club. The two Help-A-Home awards went to the Oxford Intermediate Woman's Club, senior winner, and the Smithfield Junior Club, junior winner of this new award. The Kitty Cope Odom award went to the Greensboro Juniors. Second and third places were awarded the Morganton and Norlina Woman's Clubs.

Other business of the convention saw adoption of a followup program for girls leaving Samarcand, a correctional home for girls. This home is a major project of the Federation. In this program, guidance and counseling will be offered the girls after their release.

Adopt Resolutions.

The group also adopted these resolutions: 1. Approved the program of the State Legislative Council for 1962. This program includes legislation supporting safe transportation of migrant workers and increase in widow's allotment received while husband's estate is being settled. It also includes a continuation of a study of abolition of capital punishment and modernization of residence laws, as well as licensing of day care facilities and regulation of small loan companies.

2. Approved a youth fitness program, urging the General Federation to make this a junior project. 3. Commended the State Board of Health for its existing program of community mental health services and urged development of additional mental health clinics with adequate appropriations. 4. Continue to support resolution calling for art instructor in the State Department of Public Instruction.

Place of next year's convention is undecided as no invitation, as yet, has been extended.

First Lady Has Tea

The State's First Lady, Mrs. Luther H. Hodges, entertained the convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs at tea yesterday afternoon in the Executive Mansion.

Mrs. Hodges headed the receiving line, which included the seven state officers of the Federation. Mrs. R. H. Latham introduced the line and Mrs. Maxwell Warlick, introduced a second receiving line that remained in the ballroom throughout the party. A third receiving line was in the library.

Past presidents poured coffee during the party. They were Mrs. Karl Bishopric, Mrs. J. W. Bunn, Mr. Aubrey Mauney, Mrs. Grady E. Kirkman, Mrs. Edward M. Anderson, Mrs. J. Henry Highsmith, Mrs. John D. Robinson and Mrs. George E. Marshall.

Receiving through the mansion were Mrs. Edwin P. Brown, Mrs. Edward M. Land, Mrs. James M. Harper, Mrs. P. R. Rankin, Mrs. John M. Countil, Mrs. Howard G. Etheridge, Mrs. James A. Gupton, Mrs. T. Fred Henry, Mrs. R. R. Cusick, Mrs. John R. Curtis, Mrs. R. T. Dent Jr., Miss Myrtha Fleming, Mrs. Charles U. Harris, Mrs. Kern Holoman and Mrs. Sam Leager.

Passing Scene

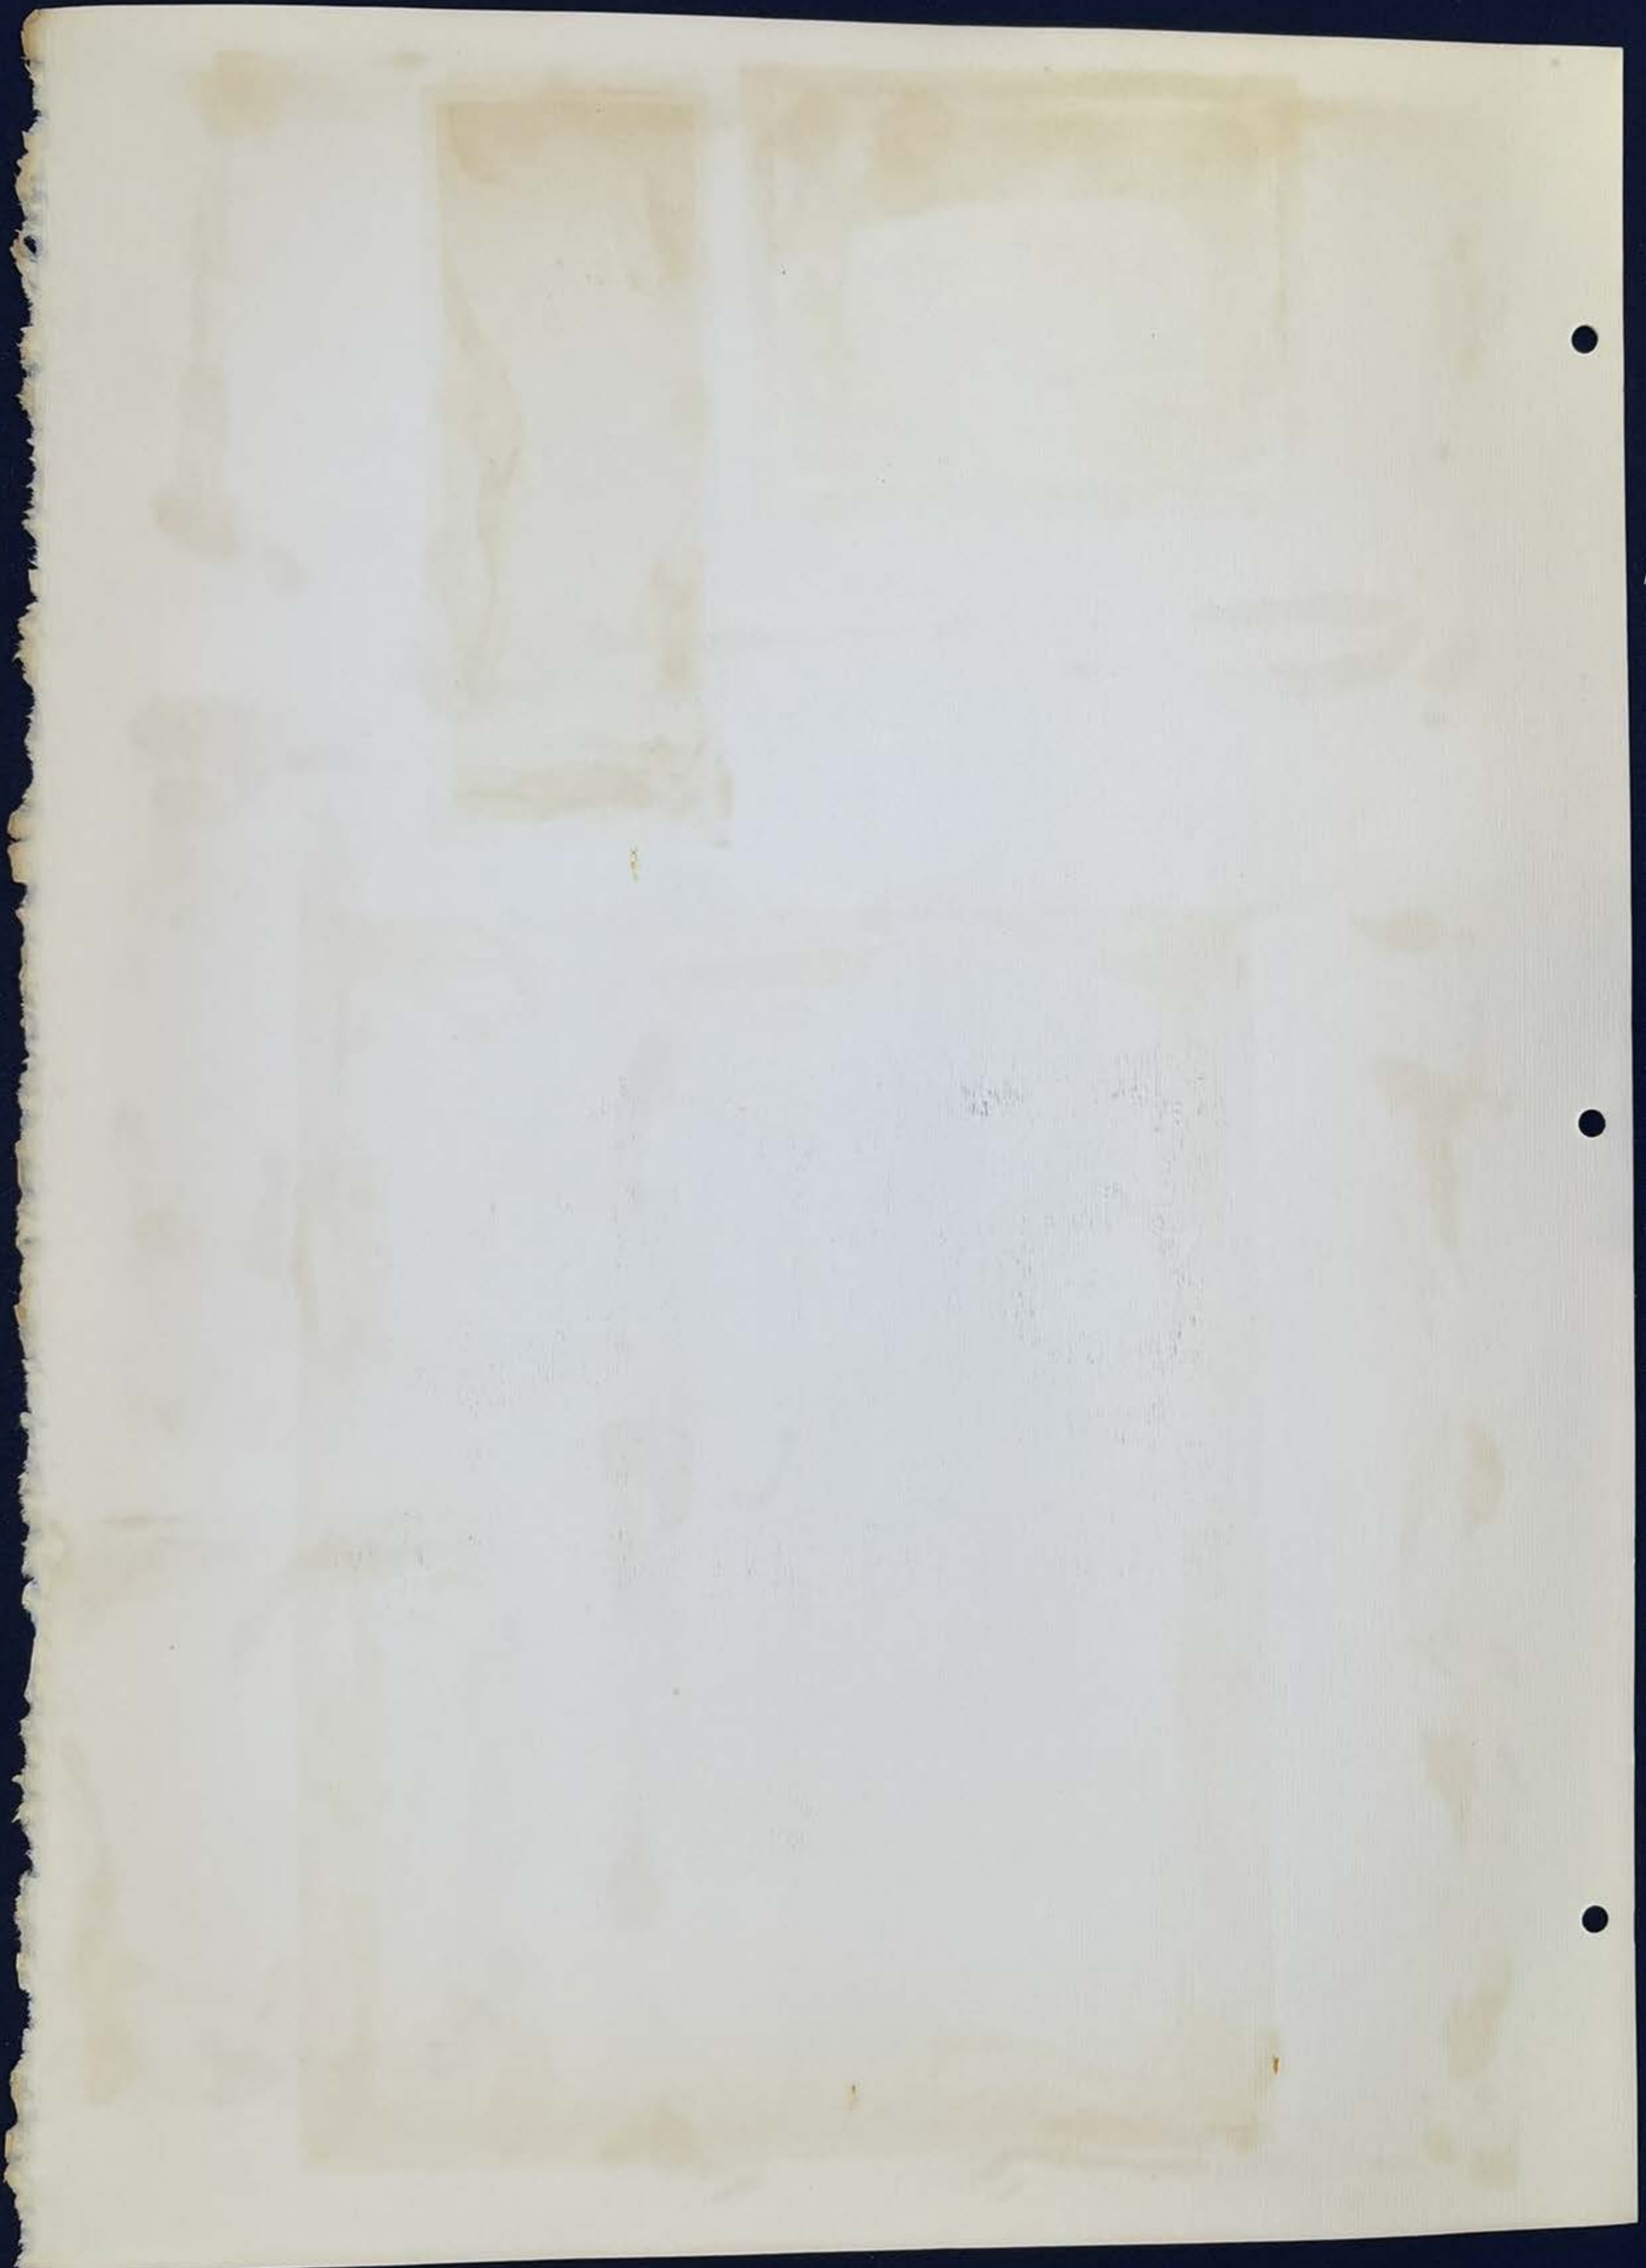

Pretty Day, Tea at Mansion And 'No One Stayed Away'

"I don't think anyone stayed away," said one of several hundred members of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs attending a tea at the Governor's Mansion yesterday.

They came by chartered buses and in packed cars; in fact, so many had arrived before the appointed 3:30 starting hour and were congregating on the lawn, that Mrs. Hodges started the line moving early. And a long one it was.

The First Lady, used to extending warm but brief greetings on such occasions, had to keep sending word to others receiving further down the line not to hold things up with lengthy conversations. Mrs. Hodges wore a pretty spring print dress in shades of green, and the Federation president, standing next to her in line, had on a similar dress in a blue print. Both wore matching shoes and had white orchid corsages.

The Mansion never looked lovelier, with massive floral arrangements throughout. The giant silver epergne on the dining room table was a different color on every side, yet it was all handsomely blended by the talented fingers of Mrs. R. O. Caveness.

Mrs. J. K. Tharrington, 1958 - 1959 Club president, is pictured holding the "Green Door" scrapbook, which received a blue ribbon - 1st place in state competition - Book made by Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr.

Concluding Events Of State Convention Attended By Women

Several Youngsville Woman's Club members attended the concluding highlights at the State Convention in Raleigh on Thursday. At the banquet which Governor Hodges was the guest speaker, were President Mrs. A. E. Hall and Mrs. J. K. Tharrington, Mrs. J. T. Allen, Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Mrs. L. R. Evans and Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Sr.

On Thursday morning Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham attended the one-hour session on Parliamentary Procedure, the two-hour business session, the two-hour awards luncheon and the tea which was held at the Governor's Mansion.

Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Mrs. W. G. Scarborough and Mrs. B. H. Patterson arrived at noon for the luncheon, and they appeared on the program with the combined Choral Groups to sing the two songs presented in the Choral Contest. They also attended the tea given by Mrs. Hodges at the Mansion. Mrs. J. W. Weathers Jr., who is our 14th District Treasurer and who served as State Chairman of the GFWCM during the past year, was in attendance at the luncheon as well as for other Convention activities and special meetings in line with her official duties.

New 'Madam President' Likes to Travel

By JEAN POWELL.

A woman who loves to travel is the nominee for the office of president of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. She is Mrs. Charles Gordon Maddrey of Ahsokie.

This love will be satisfied if she's elected, because the job demands that she travel the width and breadth of Tarheelia. She'll be shuttling to clubs all over the state—from westernmost Clyde to the Manteo club on the coast.

Seasoned Traveler.
She's a well-seasoned traveler, though. Serving in high offices in her church—Baptist—and the Woman's Club has sent her running to pack a bag and hop in the car on many occasions. She does this with the ease the average woman displays when going to market.

Although nomination is tantamount to election, this candidate is most cautious for fear of being presumptuous. "There might be a nomination from the floor," she said with an engaging smile.

Mabel Claire Maddrey has a big advantage in having her mother, Mrs. C. C. Hoggard, residing at their Ahsokie home. Son, Joseph Gordon, a high school senior, is there with her. The Maddreys' other son, Charles, is attending Carnegie Tech.

Attending meetings, reading, and antiques are hobbies of Mrs. Maddrey. "I would have liked to have done many other things, but much of my time is taken up with club and church work," Mrs. Maddrey explained.

Having known for several months that she is the presidential nominee, Mrs. Maddrey has already done her spring cleaning and shopped for spring and summer wardrobe.

If elected, she has three emphases for her two-year administration. They are: 1. Leadership training through institutes; 2. Extension (organization of new clubs); 3. Membership standards.

She has been a Woman's Club member for 23 years, first joining in Scotland Neck when her husband was principal of a school there. She has since held membership in the Raleigh and Ahsokie clubs. She lived in Raleigh 15 years ago when her husband was with the State Department of Public Instruction.

State Offices.

On the State level, Mrs. Maddrey has served as first vice president (1956-58), chairman of the Public Affairs Department, and chairman of the International Affairs Department.

Currently, she's president of the Ahsokie Club. Four years ago, she organized the Ahsokie Juniors and has been advisor since.

Mabel Claire Maddrey has an excellent background for presidency on a State level, having been president, for five years, of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina. She has been a member of the executive board of this organization since 1933 and is the only woman member of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention.

In addition to traveling over the State, Mrs. Maddrey will commute between their Ahsokie home and Raleigh. Already she's been dividing her time between the two places since her husband's appointment as probation director for North Carolina last summer. She'll probably be hanging her hat at their Grayson Garden Apartments residence here even more often after her election, since Federation Headquarters are here.

Already since coming to Raleigh this week, she has made a move. This morning she took up residence at the Sir Walter Hotel, where she'll remain until the State Convention adjourns.

Slate of New State Officers Ready For Convention Vote

An outstanding slate of officers will be proposed for the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, which opens its annual convention here today. The election will take place Thursday.

Heading the list as president is Mrs. Gordon Maddrey of Ahsokie and Raleigh (see interview on this page).

Nominated for first vice president is Mrs. Charles D. Forney Jr. of Lawndale.

Her husband is secretary and superintendent of Cleveland Mills Company and they have three children—Charles III, 16; Michael, 15; and Frances Carol, 13.

Active in club work for the past 18 years, Mrs. Forney is a charter member of the Lawndale Woman's Club and served as its first president. She has held many local offices, was district president and the State Federation's chairman of the American Home Department. A member of the Lawndale Baptist Church, she has been church treasurer for the past seven years and is a former president of the Woman's Missionary Union. She is now serving her second year as president of the WMU of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

Second vice president nominee is Mrs. J. M. Badgett of Thomasville, now a co-partner with her husband in the manufacture of fabric sample books for the furniture and textile industry. She has a married daughter and a 19-year-old stepson who is a freshman at State College.

Mrs. Badgett is active in the First Methodist Church, a charter member of the Denton Business and Professional Women's Club and served two terms as president of the Denton Woman's Club. She has also held numerous local and district offices and was State chairman of Consumer Division.

For the office of third vice president, Mrs. James G. Murphy of Ahsokie has been nominated. A graduate of Meredith College, she took graduate work in Journalism at the University of North Carolina. The Murphys have three children—James Gunn Jr., age seven; Carey, six; and Martha, 17 months.

Mrs. Murphy is active in the First Baptist Church and in all phases of Junior club work. She was charter president of the Ahsokie Junior Woman's Club when it was organized three years ago and has served as State Junior chairman of Community Affairs. She is now assistant Junior director.

Miss Pauline Powell of Asheville has been nominated for corresponding secretary. Director of Nurses at Asheville Orthopedic Hospital, she is a member of Carr's Hill Baptist Church and a past president of the Rhododendron Club.

Mrs. Edward POWELL M. Anderson of West Jefferson completes the single slate as nominee for the trustee post. Educated at the Universities of Virginia and North Carolina and Woman's College, she is editor of the Skyland Post and the Alleghany News as well as supervising over ation of several other newspapers and radio stations. Mrs. Anderson has one daughter, Billie. A member of the Methodist Church, the daughters of the American Revolution and the North Carolina Press Association, she has served on numerous boards and committees of statewide and national scope. Long active in Federation activities, she served as president from 1950-52. She has also held several offices in the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Women's Clubs Choose Pinehurst For Next Year's Convention Site

In accepting the invitation of its District 16 to hold the 1961 state convention at Pinehurst with the 16 clubs of the district as hostesses, the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs shattered precedent. According to Mrs. C. Gordon Maddrey of Ahsokie, president of the State Federation, this will be the first time in the 59 year history of the organization that a club or district has entertained the convention at a location geographically removed from the hostess group.

Mrs. Edwin P. Brown of Murfreesboro, a past president of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, has been named convention chairman and Mrs. Julian Porter, of Severn, president of District 16, convention hostess. Mrs. Frank Kramer of Elizabeth City will serve as Junior Chairman for convention.

The Carolina Hotel at Pinehurst will be convention headquarters and Mrs. C. Wallace Jackson of Fayetteville will act as local convention coordinator.

To Write History.

Mrs. Maddrey announced the appointment of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney of Kings Mountain as chairman of a special committee to supervise the writing of a History of the organization scheduled for distribution at the 1962 convention. This will mark the 60th anniversary of the organization of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. Named to the committee with Mrs.

Mauney are Mrs. Walter Owings of Winston-Salem, Mrs. P. R. Rankin of Mount Gilead, Mrs. John Dearman of Statesville and Mrs. Charles Deak of Raleigh, who is Historian for the Federation.

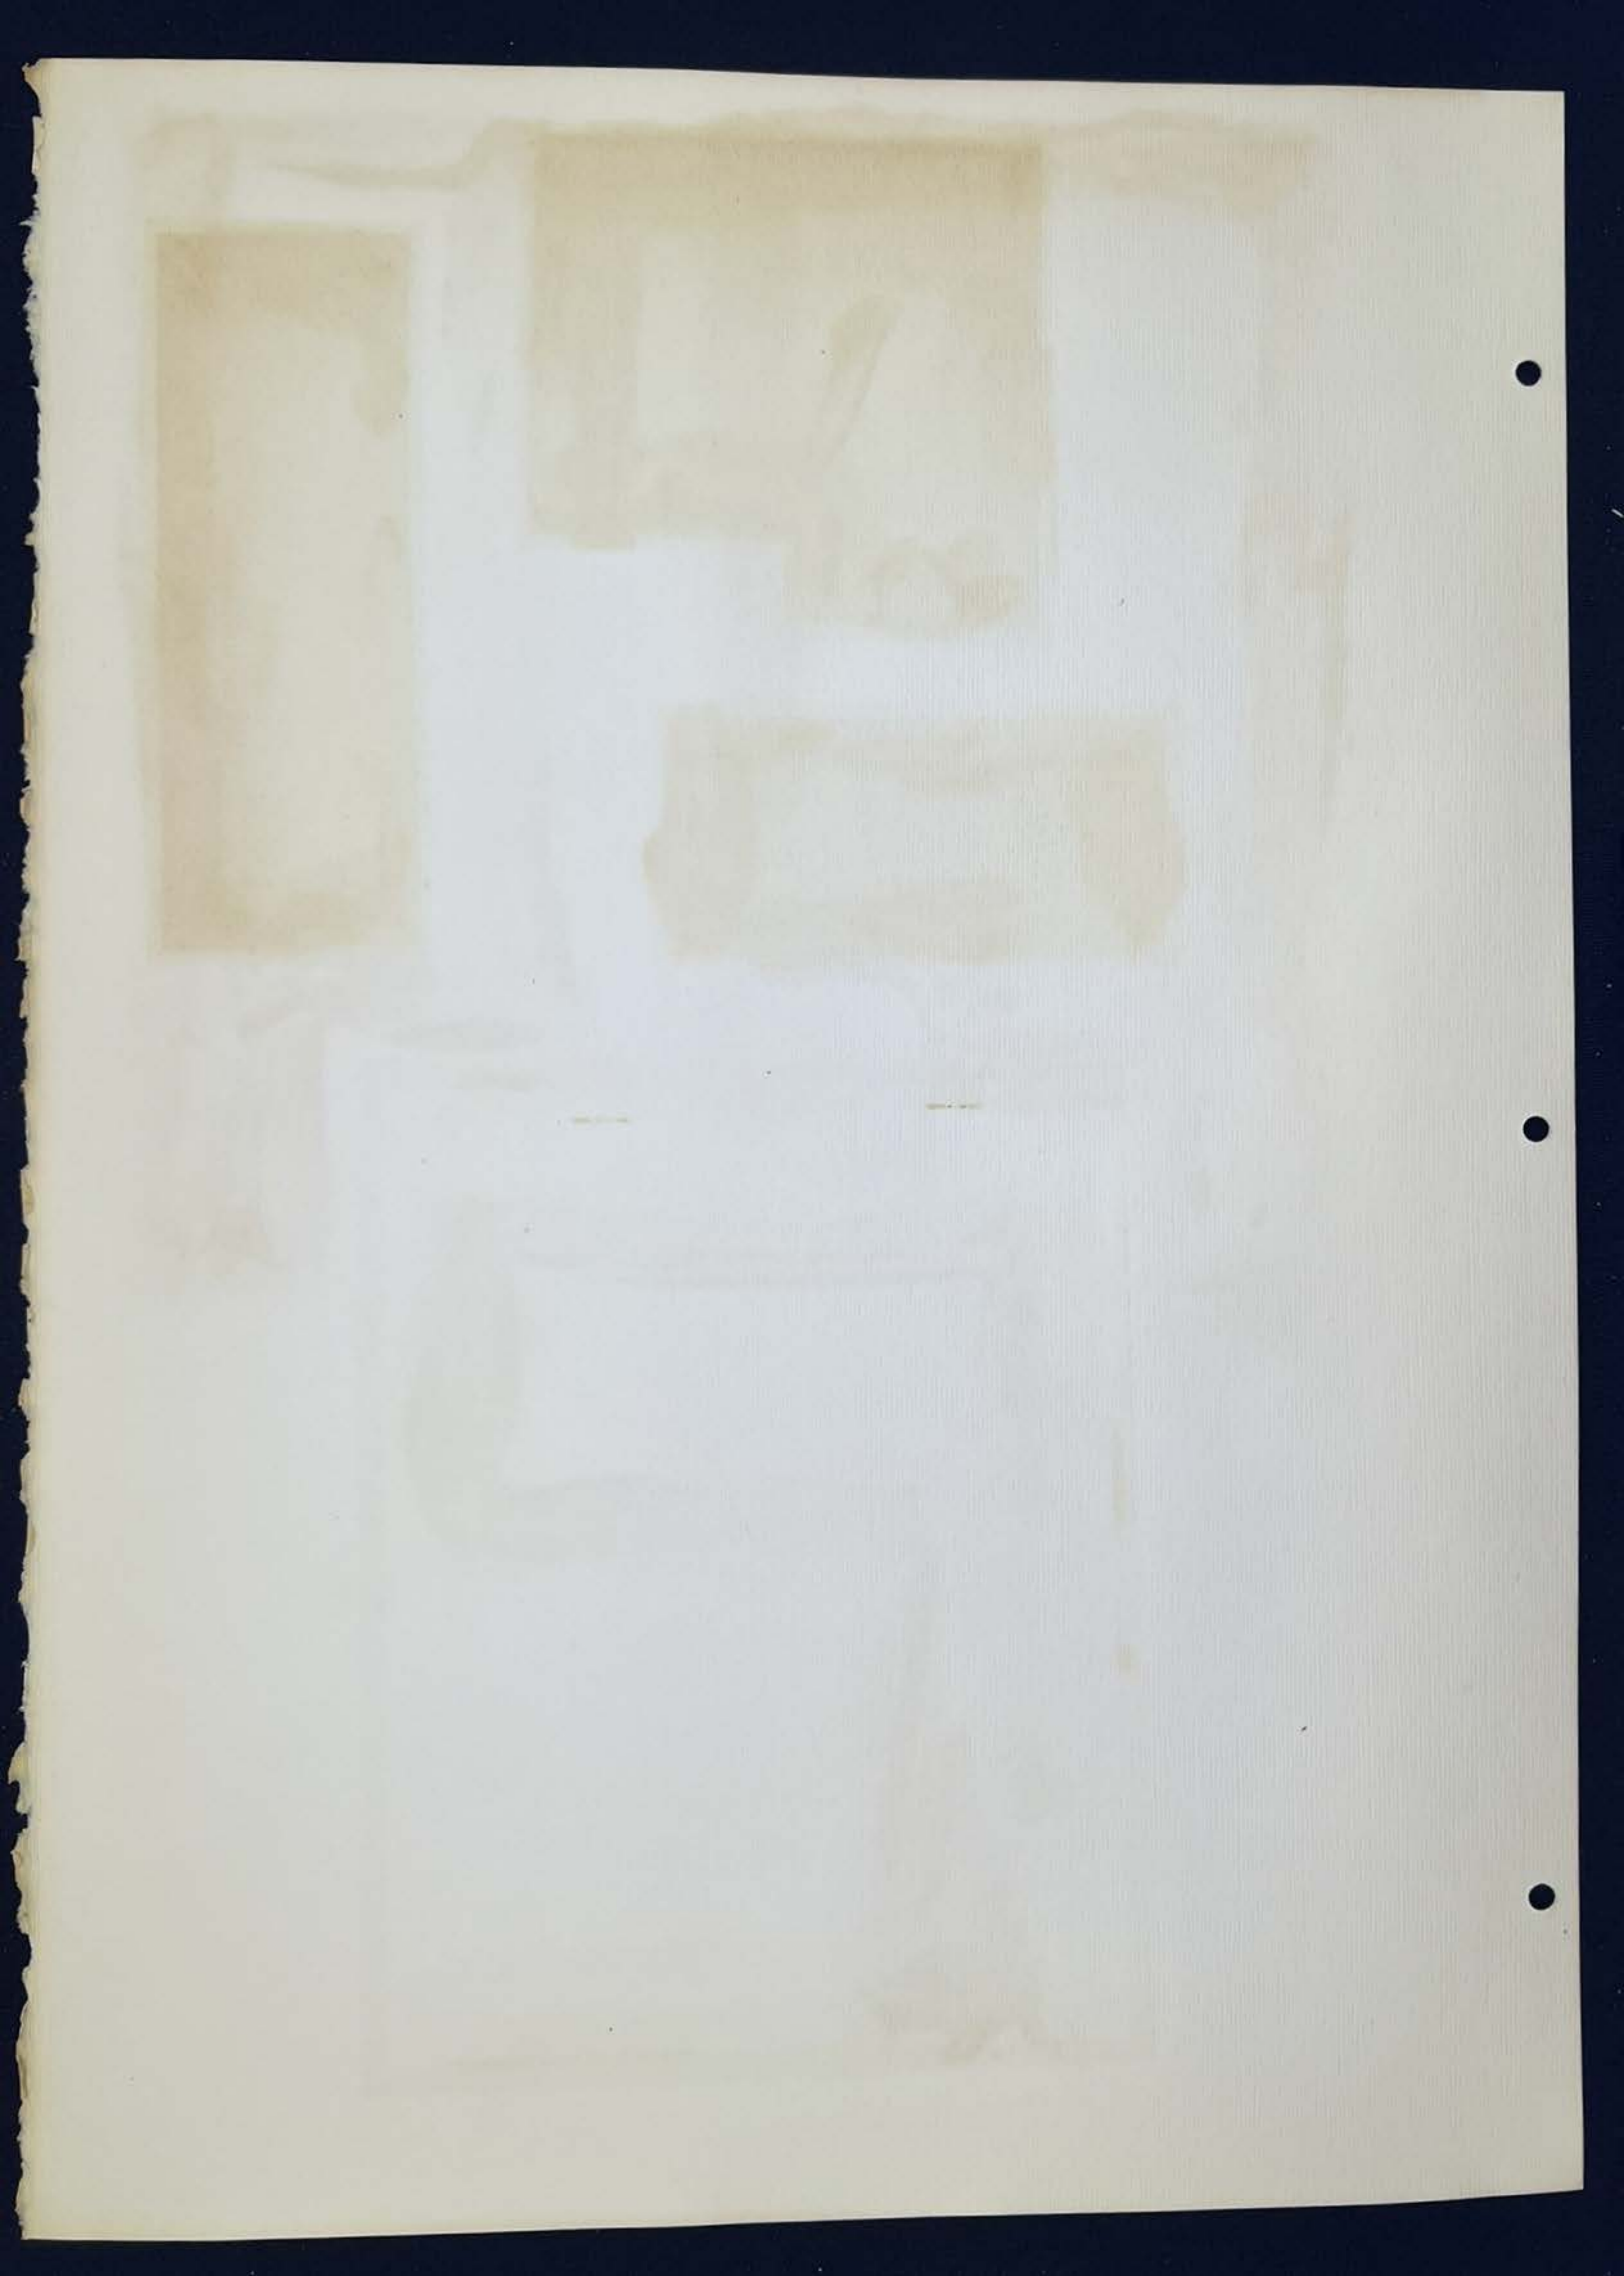

Mrs. Harold Orringer of New Bern, Mrs. R. B. Talley of Fuquay Springs and Mrs. L. E. Kling of Washington have been named to the Boys' Home Committee. The Federation has recently added this institution at Lake Waccamaw to its list of projects.

Also announced was the appointment of Mrs. James A. Gupton of Charlotte, past President of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, as chairman of the organization's Resolutions Committee. Serving with her will be Mrs. W. B. Pittard of Taylorsville, Mrs. R. N. Simms, of Raleigh, Mrs. C. W. Beasley of Colerain and Mrs. George E. Marshall of Mount Airy.

Mrs. Colin Churchill of Wilmington was named Chairman of the General Federation Clubwoman Subscriptions Committee.

TWO CLUB WOMEN HAVE STATE OFFICES

Youngville Woman's has two members who have been selected as state officers by Mrs. Gordon C. Maddrey, President of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. J. T. Moss, Past President of the Youngville Woman's Club who has held various offices in the local club and also in the District, has now been appointed to serve as the new State Chairman for Scrapbooks, Passbooks and Yearbooks.

Mrs. Moss will be notifying and advising clubwomen over the state in matters relating to these books. In accordance with new rules, the books will not be judged at the state level this year but will be only judged in the district. However the winning books in the districts will be on display at the State Convention.

Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr. of Youngville has been appointed as State Help-A-Home Chairman during the next two-year term.

Mrs. Weathers will be working with personnel of the State Department of Public Welfare to promote activity in all junior and senior clubs in North Carolina.

The Help-A-Home project is a community service project. Its purpose is to supply items needed for good homemaking to families which do not have resources for home improvements. A Silver Candelabra, and a Silver Plate are awarded annually to the club contributing most to the Help-A-Home Project.

Mrs. Weathers is a past President of the Youngville Woman's Club and served two years as treasurer of District 14. During the past year she served as State Chairman, for the General Federation Club-woman's Magazine.

Mrs. Weathers, New State "Clubwoman" Chairman, Is Active

Mrs. J. W. Weathers, Jr., Past President of the Youngville Woman's Club who is serving as the Fourteenth District Treasurer, is now busy also with her newest job which is a State office. She has been appointed by Mrs. R. T. Dent, President of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs to serve as State Chairman for the General Federation Club-woman.

Mrs. Weathers is the chairman of a sixteen-member committee composed of a district chairman from each of the sixteen districts in North Carolina. Her duties will be to promote interest and effective ways of soliciting subscriptions to the General Federation Clubwoman through these chairmen in their respective districts. She must keep an accurate record of every subscription sent to her.

Mrs. Weathers will work directly with General Federation Headquarters in Washington, D. C., in connection with the orders, therefore, every subscription must go through the State Chairman. Mrs. Weathers has written a skit which will be mailed to each district chairman soon.

A silver plaque is awarded each year to the district having the most subscriptions, and a Federation Plate is given to the District President in the winning district.

Mrs. Moss Gets State Chairmanship

Youngville — Mrs. Margaret Moss, Past President of the Youngville Woman's Club who has held various offices in the local club and also in the District, has now been appointed to serve as a State Chairman. She has been selected by State President of NCFWC Mrs. Gordon Maddrey, as the new State Chairman for Scrapbooks, Passbooks and Yearbooks. Mrs. Moss will be notifying and advising clubwomen over the state in matters relating to these books. In accordance with new rules, the books will not be judged at the state level this year but will be only judged in the district. However the winning books in the districts will be on display at the State Convention.

Dear Helen,

As district scrapbook chairman, I would like to congratulate the club upon receiving the blue ribbon for the outstanding scrapbook at the state convention. This recognition was justly deserved, and the scrapbook chairman is to be congratulated for a job well done.

I was doubly pleased that both scrapbooks from our district (Asford Junior Women's Club and Youngville Woman's Club) were awarded top honors within their respective classes. I am sure because of this, Mrs. Gordon Maddrey, president of NCFWC, has asked me to serve as state Press and Scrapbook Chairmen for the next two years.

Mrs. J. Inez Bryan of Asford has already replaced me as chairman in ...the project was very important, with a meeting place for the study of our goal.

In 1958, one of our members and assistant agent leader, Mrs. Kathleen Brown, very generously donated a lot on which the building was to be placed. Plans had already been drawn for the proposed building, and with a lot, some several hundred dollars in the bank and the agreement for the lot, the way was paved for the actual beginning of construction of our new building. The success of our project depends on the leadership and skills of the club members and the good landscape very working toward making them a reality. We were fortunate in having our club member, Mrs. J. B. Hall, our 1958-59 club president, spearheaded the project. Mrs. Hall gave much time and effort and many volunteers were available for building supply work in the area. Our working efforts were supported at every step by the "young" club members. The way, other interested citizens of the community offered a helping hand. The fact that we were able to complete the project, and one of the most important projects in the history of the organization of the club.

I COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

(A) YOUTH and WELFARE

1. Girl Scout Hut

There is no question as to what the most outstanding project was for the Youngville Woman's Club in 1958-59, the building of a Girl Scout Hut.

With the organization of the club in 1953, the club decided to organize and sponsor a Girl Scout troop in Youngville. The problem then was where to meet, and so, money making projects were begun, with a meeting place for the scouts as our goal.

In 1958, one of our own members and assistant scout leader, Mrs Kathleen Croom, very generously donated a lot on which the hut might be placed. Plans had already been drawn for the proposed building. So, with a lot, some several hundred dollars in the bank and the blueprint for the hut, the way was paved for the actual beginning of construction of the Girl Scout Hut. The success of any project depends on its leadership, and while the club president and the scout leaders were working toward getting the hut underway, we were fortunate in having one club member, Mrs. A.E. Hall, our 1959-60 club president, spearheaded the project. Mrs Hall drove countless miles and spent numerous hours soliciting materials from building supply houses in the area. Her untiring efforts were successful at every stop. With the Woman's Club leading the way, other interested citizens of the community offered a helping hand. The Lions Club supported us with their time and effort, and one of the Lions was especially helpful in supervision of the construction of the building.

Today the Scouts are thrilled over their hut, which is a beautiful 16 x 30 foot white cement block building. The interior consists of a large club room, kitchenette and half bath. Curtains were made and donated by an interested club member and the building is well on the way to being completely furnished. This fall, we added a completely automatic heating system with the very generous help of a local heating concern. The building is valued at $3,000.00.

The hut is named "Cro-Al-Ha" in honor of the three people who went far beyond the call of duty for this project.

- Cro - for Mrs Kathleen Croom who gave the lot.
- Al - for J T. Allen who supervised the construction of the building.
- Ha - for Mrs. A.E. Hall who spent many hours traveling and talking to secure materials for the building.

This project helped Youngville win the outstanding community award of $100.00 in the district in the Finer Carolina Program, which Carolina Power and Light Company sponsors each year. We are especially pleased that the Scout Hut project was selected as one of the outstanding projects on the district level and won an additional $50.00 prize.

The Girl Scout Hut is an attractive addition to our town. We, of the Youngville Woman's Club feel this is an example of what can be accomplished when all groups work cooperatively toward a common goal. We all take pride in our project which was successfully completed in June 1959.

We did not stop with the building of the Scout Hut for our girls. This fall we have installed a fully automatic heating system and work has begun on the lockers. The bar separating the kitchenette from the club room has been installed and twelve folding chairs recently added. One of our club members donated a combination radio and record player. Oil has been donated by a local jobber in the amount of 200 gallons. He plans to furnish enough for one year. The Woman's Club has assumed the responsibility of the light bill.

2. Youth Organizations

An outstanding project for our club each year is the sponsoring of the three Girl Scout Troops in Youngville. The Woman's Club organized the Scout program in 1955 and has continued to promote and support this worthy cause ever since. Besides financial aid to all three groups, we entertain at Christmas for each troop with club members planning entertainment and serving refreshments. Presently there are 30 girls in the Brownie, Intermediate and Senior troops enjoying the benefits which scouting offers. Their leaders are all active club women doing an outstanding job which any club might take pride in.

The Teenage Club which is sponsored by the Youngville Woman's Club meets every second and fourth Saturday night from eight o'clock until ten for supervised recreation under the chaperonage of the active club members. While dancing is the most popular form of entertainment, games such as ping pong, checkers, rook, etc., are available to those who prefer some other form of recreation. This group is also entertained at a formal dance at the Christmas season. They also have additional entertainment from time to time, such as skating, swimming and participation on Top Ten Dance Party on WTVD television, with Club Members furnishing transportation and chaperoning at all times. We are proud of our Teenage club in Youngville. We each have a responsibility toward our youth and feel this is one of the best ways of combating juvenile delinquency. We highly recommend a program such as this to other communities.

3. State Supported Projects -

Our club is happy for the opportunity to support and give aid to projects sponsored by the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Youngville Woman's Club participates in the Birthday Remembrance program. Two gifts were taken to the District Meeting to be used in this program. We sent forty-seven wrapped Christmas gifts and forty-three religious books to Caswell Training School at Christmas time.

We are participating in the Boys Home Coupon Project and have a coupon chairman who is making this collection for the Boy's Home of North Carolina Inc. at Lake Waccamaw, N.C.

Our club was an honor club due to its financial contribution of $.50 per member to the Samaritan Manor Project last year. This year we have already contributed $21.50 toward this project.

4. Help-a-Home

Each club member brought a grocery item to the December meeting. Our Help-a-Home Chairman prepared boxes and delivered these items to two needy families. The total value of these gifts was $40.00.

5. Aged and Shut-ins

During the Christmas season our club remembered twelve of our older friends and shut-ins with lovely poinsettias. One blind girl in Youngville was remembered with a gift of candy from the club.

Get-well and Sympathy cards are sent by the club to everyone in our community who is sick or has suffered the loss of a loved one.

6. Drives-

Our club sponsored the March of Dimes Drive in our community with club members soliciting. We also sponsor the Heart Fund Drive and the Crippled Children's Drive and participate in all other community drives. This year we are sponsoring the Crippled Children's Drive on a county wide basis.

7. Care of Community House -

The care and improvement of the Community House continues to be one of the major projects of the club. A committee from the club checks the building after each use and a general cleaning is given once a month. The latest improvement was the purchase of new shades for the kitchen by one of our members. Work has begun on getting a new stove and tile for the kitchen floor.

II EDUCATION

(A) Character Education

1. Girl Scouts

One of the outstanding project for our club year is the sponsoring of the three Girl Scout troops in Youngville. The Woman's Club organized the Scout program in 1955 and has continued to promote and support this worthy cause ever since. Besides financial aid to all three groups, the club entertains at Christmas for each troop with club members planning entertainment and serving refreshments. Presently, there are approximately 30 girls in the Brownies, Intermediate and Senior troops enjoying the benefits which scouting offers. Their leaders are all active club women doing an outstanding job which any club might take pride in.

2. Building Scout Hut

With organizing the Girl Scouts in Youngville, there arose the problem of "where to meet"; and so, money-making projects were begun with a meeting place for the Girl Scouts as the ultimate goal.

In 1958, our own Kathleen Croom very generously donated a lot on which the scout hut might be placed. Plans had already been drawn for the proposed building. So, with a lot, some several hundred dollars in the bank and the blueprint for the hut, the way was being paved for the actual construction of a Girl Scout hut.

In the fall of 1958, under the able leadership of Mrs. A.E.Hall, 1959-60 President of the Youngville Woman's Club, the club and scouts began to discover that a dream can become a reality. Mrs Hall was indeed the spearhead of the Scout hut project. She drove countless miles and spent numerous hours soliciting materials from building supply houses in the area. Her untiring efforts were successful at every stop.

With the Woman's Club leading the way, other interested citizens of the community offered a helping hand.

Mr. J.T. Allen was especially helpful in supervising the construction of the building, and many of his fellow Lions gave generously of their time and effort.

Today, the Scouts are thrilled over their hut, which is a beautiful 20 x 40 foot white cement block building.

The interior consists of a large club room, kitchenette and half-bath. Curtains were made by an interested club member, and the building is well on the way to being completely furnished. It is valued at approximately $3,000.

The hut is named "Cro-al-ha" in honor of the three people who went far beyond the call of duty for this project.

Cro- for Mrs Kathleen Croom who gave the lot.

Al - for Mr. J T. Allen who supervised the construction of the building.

Ha - for Mrs A.E. Hall who spent many hours traveling and talking to secure materials for the building.

This project helped Youngville win the outstanding Community Award of $100.00 in the district in the 1958-59 Finer Carolina Program which Carolina Power and Light Company sponsors each year. We are especially pleased that the Scout Hut project was selected as one of the outstanding projects in the North and South Carolina areas served by Carolina Power and Light Company and won an additional $50.00 prize.

We of the Youngville Woman's Club feel this is an example of what can be accomplished when everyone works cooperatively toward a common goal. We all take pride in this project which was successfully completed in the 1958-59 club year.

Franklin County's Girl Scout organization has just been accepted as members of the Wake-Johnson-Wilson Girl Scout Council. The Youngville Woman's Club and Scout leaders are happy to be a part of the Council and believe there are many advantages in being a part of a Council.

The club conducted the first fund raising drive in the fall which was very successful.

3. Teenage Club

The Teenage Club, which is sponsored by the Youngville Woman's Club, meets each Saturday from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock for supervised recreation under the chaperonage of active club members. While dancing is the most popular form of entertainment, games such as ping pong, checkers, rook, etc., are available to those who prefer some other form of recreation.

Dues of the Teenage Club are small and are used to help defray expenses of refreshments which are served each night.

The Woman's Club entertains in December with a special Christmas party. They also have additional entertainment from time to time; such as skating and swimming parties and participation on Top-Ten Dance Party on WTVD television, with club members furnishing transportation and chaperoning at all times.

We are proud of our Teenage Club in Youngville. We each have a responsibility toward our teenagers and feel this is one of the best ways of combating juvenile delinquency. We highly recommend a program such as this to other communities.

4. Church Leadership

Our members are 100% in church attendance. We have fifteen of our forty three members teaching Sunday School classes, others are Y.W.A, G.A., Sunbeam leaders and Choir Mothers and still others belong to Missionary Societies and Training Unions in their respective churches.

(B) Public Education

1. Teacher's Night

One of the outstanding projects in this division is the "Teachers Night" sponsored each year by the club. All teachers in the local school are invited along with the County Superintendent and local board members. Teachers are introduced and given words of appreciation for their wonderful contribution to the community. Each teacher is remembered with a gift from the club.

2. Citizenship Medal

A citizenship medal is given by the club each year to the most outstanding senior in the local high school. The award is based on scholarship, leadership, and social development. A committee from the club and the high school faculty decide on the recipient.

(C) Adult Education

1. Home Nursing

Much interest was shown in home nursing so our Education Department arranged for us to have a home nursing course, taught by one of our own members who is a registered nurse.

3. Federation Magazine

Approximately 75% of our club members subscribe to the General Federation Clubwoman, thus learning more about the Federation.

4. Program

Intelligent Woman's Guide to 1959 from Mrs J.M. Royster, President, District 14. NCFWC presented an interesting and informative talk on "Know your Federation".

III FINE ARTS

(A) Crafts

1. Craft Night

We observed Craft Night at the Club. Mrs G.E. Winston, one of our own members gave a demonstration on Ceramics. She showed the different steps from the slip to the finished product. She had on display many items that she had completed. Much interest was shown and as a result some of the members went to the Ceramic Center in Raleigh and began work. Also a workshop was held with the scouts in Ceramics.

2. Hobby Night

We also observed Hobby Night on December 8. Each member brought interesting articles she had made, or had in

3. Crafts Course

Several members of our club attended crafts course held at State College.

(B) Art

1. State Art Museum

The Fine Arts Chairman arranged a trip for the club to visit the State Art Museum in Raleigh. This was a most rewarding trip. We toured the museum and then attended a concert by Ethel Casey. Each member received a booklet entitled "The Intelligent Woman's Guide to Art" from the Fine Arts chairman.

2. Ten Penny Art Fund

Our club contributed $4.30 to Ten Penny Art Fund.

3. Programs

Mrs George Paschall presented an interesting program on the State Art Museum. Her lecture included an informative biographical sketch of the museum and was highlighted with colorful slides.

4. Art Course

One member of our club attended a five month art course in Raleigh at Peace College.

She also wrote the Christmas pageant entitled "O Little Town of Bethlehem" that was presented by all the churches in our town at the Baptist Church on December 23, 1959, and our Pledge to the Woman's Club.

(D) Music

1. Choral Group

A Choral group was organized from our membership and we sang at three rest homes for aged at Christmas. The organist and choir director for one of the local churches comes from our club. Several members sing in the choir and others serve as Choir Mothers.

2. Vocal Contestant

Our club sponsored Miss Nancy Mitchell in the Vocal Music Contest, sponsored by the Federation and held in Raleigh last spring.

IV AMERICAN HOME

1. Outdoor Decoration Contest

To further promote interest and enthusiasm in the beautification of our city, we sponsored a Christmas outdoor decoration contest. A ribbon was given for first, second and third place. Participation was almost one hundred percent by club members and many other citizens of the town entered the contest. Out of town judges were secured. In addition to this a committee from the club decorated the interior of the Community Building for the Yuletide

2. Care and Upkeep of Community Building

The care and improvement of the Community House continues to be one of the major projects of the club. A committee from the club checks the building after each use and a general cleaning is given once a month. The latest improvement was the purchase of new shades for the kitchen by one of our members. Work has begun on getting a new stove and tile for the kitchen.

3. Furnishing and Maintenance of Scout Hut

We did not stop with the building of the Scout Hut for our girls. This fall we have installed a fully automatic heating unit and work has begun on the lockers. The bar separating the kitchenette from the club room has been installed and twelve folding chairs recently added.

One of our club members donated a combination radio and record player. Oil has been donated by a local jobber in the amount of 200 gallons. He plans to furnish enough for one year. The club has assumed the responsibility of the light bill for the hut.

4. Program

An interesting program on "Flower Arrangements" was presented by Mrs. H.C. Taylor Jr. and the members of the Louisburg Garden Club.

(B) Family Life and Religion

Outstanding Project Toward Beautification of Town
Youngville Woman's Club 1958-59 Club Year

There is no question as to what the biggest thing the Woman's Club did toward beautifying the Town of Youngville --- built a Girl Scout Hut!

The idea of this project was not conceived and completed during the past club year. But, as in the case of most things in life which are worthwhile, it has taken many years of planning and working to make a dream become a reality. Perhaps a little background information might be helpful in understanding just how important and significant the completion of this project has been to the Youngville Woman's Club and to all the community.

With the organization of the Woman's Club in 1955, the club decided to organize and sponsor a Girl Scout troop in Youngville. There was the problem of where to meet, and so, money-making projects were begun, with a meeting place for the Girl Scouts as our goal.

In 1958, Mrs. Kathleen Croom, an active club member, very generously donated a lot on which the Scout Hut might be placed. Mr. John Parrish, husband of another club member, had already drawn plans for the proposed building. So, with lot, some several hundred dollars in the bank and the blueprint for the hut, the way was being paved for the actual construction of the Girl Scout Hut.

The success of any project depends upon its leadership, and while the club president and the Scout leaders were working toward getting the hut underway, we were fortunate in having one club member, Mrs. A. E. Hall, our 1959-60 club president, spearhead the project. Mrs. Hall drove countless miles and spent numerous hours soliciting materials from building supply houses in the area. Her untiring efforts were successful at every step.

With the Woman's Club leading the way, other interested citizens of the community offered a helping hand. Mr. J. T. Allen was especially helpful in supervising the construction of the building, and many of his fellow Lions gave generously of their time and effort.

In addition to the actual construction of the building two large adjoining vacant lots were cleared of several unsightly buildings, bushes and weeds. Shrubbery for the hut has been donated for fall planting. This added greatly to the appearance of the hut and the entire town.

Today the Scouts are thrilled over their hut, which is a beautiful 16x30 foot white cement block building. The interior consists of a large club room kitchenette and half bath. Curtains were made by an interested club member, and the building is well on the way to being completely furnished. It is valued at approximately $3000.00
