Lula S. Pegram

Lula Stone Pegram was born in Vance County, North Carolina, January 29, 1914. She was the daughter of Fed Stone and Pearl Holmes Stone. Her husband was McKinley A. Pegram and their marriage was blessed with a daughter, Elaine Pegram, public school teacher of Raleigh, North Carolina, two sons, Emmanuel Pegram, minister of Lillington Baptist Church, Lillington, North Carolina, and Durwood Pegram, Department of Transportation, Raleigh, North Carolina, and two grandchildren. She was a faithful wife and mother for more than thirty-nine years.

Shortly after their marriage, her husband felt God's call to the ministry and she willingly agreed to make whatever sacrifice necessary in order that he make preparation for the ministry. While she did not marry a preacher, she could not have been more faithful in the role of a pastor's wife. She chose not to work outside the home but great sacrifice and faithfulness made her a good wife, mother, and pastor's helpmate. This continuous sacrifice was evident in her cooperation to help secure a college education for all of her children.

Loyalty to her church was demonstrated in places of service as Sunday School teacher of youth, W.M.U. director and president, G.A. and Acteens leader, various positions in Church Training and Vacation Bible School. One of her great joys was the acceptance of Christ by some member of her Sunday School class.

Lula Stone Pegram died October 3, 1974 in Randolph Hospital after a short illness. A Memorial Service was held at Franklinville Baptist Church, where she was a member and her husband was pastor, and burial was in Pine Ridge Baptist Church cemetery, Franklin County, North Carolina, on October 5, 1974.

By her dedicated life, she proved that her price was far above rubies, her children arise to call her blessed and her husband also praiseth her.

We are glad to dedicate the minutes of the Randolph Baptist Association meeting of 1974 to the memory of Mrs. Lula S. Pegram.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the said Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother as to his fitness for the Baptist ministry, and, if he is found qualified, to assist in the ordination.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

The vote on any proposed amendment so presented may be deferred until the second day if requested by a majority vote of the messengers present.

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to the leaders of the Randolph Association. Down through the years it has been my privilege to observe these people at work, each in his or her department. They have been dedicated Christians, well qualified, and the reports that they bring before your Executive Committee have been inspirational, as well as informative and I regret that most of you are not afforded the opportunity of hearing these reports.

Just thought you would like to know. You know who they are, so let them know how much you appreciate what they are doing for your association.

Your Committee held four meetings this past year and all the business handled was of a routine nature.

Respectfully submitted,

17 The Brotherhood Report was presented by Rev. G. T. Patterson.

Brotherhood Report

Brotherhood is the total church mission program involving men and boys. Both the "Baptist Men" and the "Royal Ambassadors" units are divisions of the total local church Brotherhood program.

Church missions is the local church seeking to provide an educational program that will cause its people to be knowledgeable and concerned about the basic needs of people in both your community and around the world. Missions is the church seeking, determining, and implementing activities that involve the membership of the local church in a ministering Christian witness beyond the immediate local church family.

Every church can and should have a Brotherhood program, even if it is a Brotherhood with one leader. He should be called the Brotherhood Director, and is vital to even the simplest form of a church Brotherhood program. He is equally valuable to the more complex programs with several units which consist of Baptist Men, Baptist Young Men, and Royal Ambassadors.

As we close out this church year, I would like to say a personal word of appreciation to the Baptist Men and the Royal Ambassadors of this Association for all of the efforts that each have put forth, and with the sense of well-being that comes from having accomplished many worthwhile things for the glory of our Master. It has been my privilege to visit in a few of our churches and speak to them about their Brotherhood programs in general. I count this as a sincere privilege because I am confident that some good has come from our meetings together.

As we look forward to the coming year, I hope that we will be able to begin Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador work on a much larger Associational level. At the present time I am seeking the Lord's guidance as to the men who He would have serve as directors of these various units within our Associational Brotherhood program. Opportunities for training will be provided at an Associational Brotherhood Workshop to be conducted at the Balfour Baptist Church, October 29, 1974. We are also looking forward to our annual Brotherhood and WMU Meeting at Mund Vista on April 28, 1975, and to an Associational Brotherhood Retreat at Camp Caraway on May 26, 1975.

Again, if I can be of any assistance to you and to your church in any area of our Brotherhood work, please feel free to call upon me. I am here to serve you.

Tom Patterson

18 Rev. Cecil Baughman presented the State Missions Report.

State Missions Report

State Missions in North Carolina gave support and growth to the local church and to the Kingdom of God. Through State Missions we are able to extend our outreach and develop stronger Christians.

There are over fifty different programs of work in State Missions. These include Baptist Children's Homes, Homes for the Aging, Baptist Hospitals, Resort Ministries, and work with the Deaf. These are just a few. Every day as local churches, we extend our outreach through these ministries.

Many areas of support and growth are given directly to the local church through State Missions. Training is available at one of our State Assemblies. Help is available for Sunday School, Church Training, Music, and Missions activities in the local church. Special help may be requested in financial and building planning. Does your church need a Youth program? State missions work in all of these areas plus many more.

We are fortunate in Randolph Association to have two programs; Mundo Vista and Camp Caraway. We need to make every effort to take every advantage of the opportunities they afford us for support and growth.

Encourage your church to give full support to our State Mission Ministry. Next year set a worthy goal for your State Mission Offering in September.

Respectfully submitted,
Cecil Baughman

19 The Home Missions Report was given by Bro. William Slate.

Home Missions Report

Home Missions means just that to Randolph Baptists. Home Missions continues to exercise its time, efforts, and expenditures here at home as well as across the nation and parts of Latin America.

Home Missions have aided in our own Camp Caraway, summer missionaries and workers.

We have a constant flexion in our number of missionaries, but the number continues to exceed 2,200.

At the last report by the Southern Baptist Convention, Home Missions had reports of 452,000 baptisms due largely to the increased involvement of Lay Witnessing.

Home Missions has a part in twelve separate ministries which include the Chaplaincy, Evangelism Development, establishing new churches and missions, and others.

The work of these missionaries and their involvement in Home Missions takes them to all fifty states, Panama and Puerto Rico.

And to this we say, TO GOD BE THE GLORY!

Respectfully submitted,
William E. Slate

20 Bro. Reginald Dawkins presented the report on Foreign Missions.

Foreign Missions Report

In the Woman's Missionary Union Manual, 1970, are found the following words:

"Each generation of Christians makes its response to the missions imperative. Jesus gave a commission to his followers. They are 'to disciple' the nations. From the time He spoke this mandate, men, women, and youth have been caught up in this mighty movement of world missions. At times the cause of Christ has suffered loss because Christians failed to seize opportunities. In other areas, the cause has moved forward with gigantic strides when persons accepted and fulfilled their roles in God's world plan.

The success of the missions enterprise is sure. But each generation fights anew battle which result in victories for that generation. From decade to decade the same enemies to the cause of Christ prevail. But the same power that has assured past victory is available to Christians who accept it."

As of August 1 1974 the overseas missionary force in 80 countries is divided into the following categories:

Career Missionaries	2,237
Missionary Associates	187
Missionary Journeymen	150
Special Project	3
Total	2,577

Support for Foreign Missions comes chiefly through two channels the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. In 1973 the total gifts received by the Board amounted to $39,438,969. Of this amount $17,135,169 came through the Cooperative Program and $19,794,025 received January through December, 1973) through the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. All other contributions amounted to $2,509,775.

Approximately 50 percent of the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program funds is made available annually for foreign missions. This is the basis upon which sustanide advance can be built. Still needed urgently on overseas fields are land, buildings, and equipment, amounting to several million dollars worth. It is imperative that we increase our mission giving.

Reginald Dawkins

Sunday School Report

Teaching the Bible to people and continuously reaching more and more people for the Bible Study program is and must continue to be the major objectives of any church. The Sunday School has always been one of the best tools any church has in reaching peple for Jesus Christ.

This past year the major emphasis of our Sudaay School Department has been Teacher Improvement. Our Association held a clinic at First Baptist Church, September 23-24, 1974 for the purpose of improving the quality of our Sunday School Bible Teaching Program in our churches.

A major emphasis that is currently underway is the "REACH OUT" effort, a program designed to get the 3,455 churches in North Carolina to reach out to people of our community through concentrated visitation of all unchurched persons on the church prospect file, praying, Bible Reading, and Testifying. This effort will be climaxed with Celebration Sunday on November 17, 1974. Here are the goals for this Sunday:

1. High attendance day
2. Effort to reach the largest number in your Sunday School attendance
3. Effort to involve a half million in North Carolina Baptist Sunday Schools
4. Effort to have five million persons in attendance a record) across the Southern Baptist Convention.

For the next two years we are going to be focusing on adults in the Sunday School: 1974-75 (October to October) on median and senior adults; 1975-76 on young adults.

This year the Sunday School Board has introduced a new magazine entitled the Sunday School Lesson Illustrator, designed to be a Bible Study magazine for the adult class teacher to supplement and give greater depth to the Convention Uniform lesson materials, but may also be used with Life and Work Lessons to add inspirational pictures and materials to improve our Bible teaching program. Each church is urged to obtain this piece of literature for your adult teachers.

The Vacation Bible School Clinic, held at Wingate College in January, introduced a new piece of outreach material, which will be valuable for our churches. It is entitled the Backyard Bible Club Teacher's Book, designed as a flip chart. Every church can find at least one area in which there is a concentration of children and involve youth and/or adults in teaching the life of Christ to children. Many families may be reached for a church by this means of outreach. The day is past when we expect people to automatically come to the church. We must take God's Word to people wherever we find them.

A major event in our association is planned for September 29, 1975 Associational Night. We will be teaching the new leadership books, available January 1, 1975, to the Sunday School officers and teachers. In addition, we will have a Pastor-Sunday Directors Workshop on the same evening. These two important groups will meet at the Balfour Baptist Church.

God bless all our churches as we work to teach the Bible and to reach more people for Christ this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Andrew P. Grose

31 The Church Training report was given at this time by B. C. Owenby.

Church Training Report

Church Training in any church involves just what the term says. The State Convention, however, lists three areas of church training: New Member Orientation, Leadership Training, and the on-going church training groups.

The work on an associational level usually centers around several special events each year. The "M" night program is held to help kick-off the new church year and inspire churches to put new life in church training programs. The 1973 "M" night was held at the Union Grove Church. Rev. Tom Patterson, pastor at Balfour Baptist, brought a most challenging message.

The second associational church training meeting was held in May at Oakhurst Baptist. This was the Scripture Exploring Drill held for young people ages 9-11. The winners in this contest go on to compete in the state drills held at Caswell and Fruitland in the summer.

The associational Youth Night continued to be the most successful meeting of the year. Held again at Caraway, more than 250 young people and their counselors heard Mike and Mona Crane tell about their work as US-2 missionaries. This program climaxed a fine year in the work of our Baptist Churches in Randolph Association.

Justus McKeel

32 The Cooperative Program report was given by B. C. Owenby.

Cooperative Program Report

More than 5,000 missionaries at home and abroad depend on gifts through the Cooperative Program for a salary each month. Over 3,000 of these have a basic ministry of evangelism, with all of the others using their skills as nurses, teachers, doctors, etc. to meet human needs in order to bring these to Christ. Through the Cooperative Program you are helping the widow, the homeless child, the homeless aged, and sick, plus the ministries of preaching and teaching.

Increasing the percentage given through the Cooperative Program is an excellent followthrough for the special offerings your church receives.

Failure to have a good follow-through, in anything, would be frustrating at the least and tragic at the most. Failure to have a good follow-through when you are fishing would cause all of your fish to get away and this would be frustrating. It would be tragic not to have a good follow-through in a baptismal service.

A good follow-through is the lifeline between good planning and good results. You will get excellent results if you plan well your special offerings and let your major emphasis be on the lifeline: YOUR COOPERATIVE PROGRAM.

Would your church give more if you received more money? If so, you need to have a thorough stewardship program in your church.

Last year 1, 236 church increased Cooperative Program giving by 10 percent or more over what they gave the previous year. Two of the associations in North Carolina had 100 percent of their churches giving through the Cooperative Program in 1973. These two associations were: Flat River and the Tar River.

Will you do four things?:

1. Will you lead the church where you serve to increase Cooperative Program and associational mission giving by 10 percent or more?
2. Will you have a special prayer for your missionaries and other Cooperative Program causes during each service in your church during the October Cooperative Program prayer each month?
3. Will you send your check for Cooperative Program each month to Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Post Office Box 26508, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27611?
4. Will you help us have a good stewardship workshop in your association next spring or summer, so we can: (1) Study recommendations for pastor and staff salary increases; (2) Get an overview of available program helps for each church in stewardship; and (3) Receive a report on where you are in your goals for associational and Cooperative Program giving?

33 Message on the W.M.U. was given by Sara Ann Hobbs of the State Convention.

34 Report on Christian Education by Bro. B. G. Pratt.

35 Speaking to the report was Hargus Taylor, public relations of Chowan College.

Christian Education Report

Despite the tremendous pressures and hostile attacks on the home as an institution, the Christian home remains the most important agent for Christian education in our society. When parents uphold the Lordship of Jesus Christ in their daily lives, engage in family worship, and teach the moral truths of the Bible in word and deed, our children will develop ideals, moral and spiritual traits, and Christian commitments that will make them valuable members of the Christian fellowship. Our youth by and large, will develop attitudes and assume roles in religious matters from their family and home-church experiences. Therefore, our churches are striving to assist parents in the Christian training of their children through a sound, Bible-oriented program for all age groups and interest levels. We try to appeal to families as a family group while allowing time for the family to fulfil its witness through home and civic activities.

We recognize the value of offering a continuing Christian education experience for our young people when they must leave the home community for further vocational training, and we are happy to report that our seven N. C. Baptist Colleges are alive and doing well. These colleges — Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Wingate, Meredith, Wake Forest — offer strong academic programs and maintain a Christian influence through departments of religion, Baptist Student Unions, and many Christian service projects. These colleges are open to all qualified students, but they make a special effort to recruit North Carolina Baptist students through pastors and superintendents of missions. In this day of spiraling college expenses, it is encouraging to know that no qualified student will be turned away simply because of inability to pay. The Directors of Financial Aid work every angle they can to aid deserving students.

In our own church we have had students from our colleges serving through the Baptist Youth Corps. One of these has worked her entire way through college. The one we had this summer commented, "If a student wants to attend one of our Baptist Colleges badly enough, funds will be found to assist him." Gardner-Webb and Campbell offer scholarships to Acteens and R.A.'s who have completed steps on their missionary advancements. Meredith offers a competitive scholarship to Baptist Women from each of our regions. These scholarships are to encourage our youth to develop their leadership abilities and use them in their churches. Alumni from these seven colleges are serving capably in our state and area in various roles of leadership in the professions as well as business, and we can be justly proud for the part, small though it is in the light of their total financial needs that our churches play in their support.

Higher Christian education is a co-operative enterprise between our Baptist churches and Baptist Colleges in North Carolina. This active partnership includes Baptist Youth Corps, student-led worship revival services, visits to the campuses by pastors and other leaders, participation of faculty and staff in associational and local church programs, and special projects of promotion on behalf of the Co-operative Program.

Our main support for these colleges is channeled to them through the Cooperative Program. During 1974 approximately $2,350,000 will undergird the work of North Carolina Baptist colleges. These funds make a tremendous difference in the quality of programs offered by our schools.

It is with gratitude that we make a note of the effective leadership of Dr. Budd E. Smith who resigned the presidency of Wingate College this year after twenty years of service. We welcome to our state the new president of Wingate Dr. Thomas E. Corts of Georgetown, Kentucky, who became Wingate's eleventh president on June 1. He came to this position with excellent preparation and experience.

Our colleges work with our Baptist State Convention through the Council on Christian Higher Education. The Council office seeks to promote understanding and cooperation between the churches and colleges as they deal creatively with persons in the name of our Lord.

May we remember that Christian education is the task of each one of us as we work together through our homes, our churches, and our colleges. Let us support all efforts in Christian education with our prayers and resources that we may touch and bring to greater maturity and usefulness more people for our Master.

Bob Pratt

36 Hymn No 41 — "To God be the Glory" led by Carl King, with Juanita Luther at the piano.

37 Rev. Tom Patterson presented the report on Temperance and Morals.

Temperance and Morals Report

I do not think I have ever seen the time when the word "moral" means so little in our society. It seems it is just a word, without meaning across our land and our own communities.

The American Dictionary defines "morals" (1) Of, or concern with the judgement of goodness or badness of human action and character pertaining to discernment of good and evil. (2) Designed to teach goodness or correctness of character and behavior; instructive of what is good and bad.

We as Christians see the sins that are heaped upon our society, because men, women, boys and girls are morally unconcerned.

We as Christians should turn our volumes up, that our voices can be heard as one in Christ; not to please man, but to please God. Praying to God to be led by the Holy Spirit to say or do something that will be a deterrent to those things that are morally wrong in our communities.

We realize to serve God that we are not always in the majority, but at the same time, we know that God and One is a majority.

We know when all our voices are heard, wonderful things happen: (Example) The liquor by the drink referendum of last year. We are still rejoicing in the wonderful victory God gave to us, to receive over 70 percent of the vote in our favor and to carry 97 counties in the state is remarkable indeed. It is a tribute to the wonderful spirit of the people of the state of North Carolina. We know that we cannot rest upon this victory alone, but through it, it renews our faith and if our voices are heard in a Christian manner, God will answer and give us more victories.

38 The Christian Literature report was given by Rev. H. C. Neathery.

Literature Report

The chief publication agency of the Southern Baptist Convention is the Broadman Publication Division. In the past year, 1972-73, Broadman introduced 408 new products including 72 books, 3 motion pictures, 38 filmstrips, 46 cassettes, 11 recordings, 9 instrumental tapes, 1 multimedia pack, 11 choral works, 11 miscellaneous products were dropped by being declared out-of-print or out-of-release. Those dropped included 33 books, 33 supplies, 9 audio-visuals, and 115 pieces of music. Broadman, therefore, had a net increase of 218 new products in the past year.

The Broadman Bible Commentary publishing project was completed with the publication of the Broadman Bible Commentary Volume I - Revised. This commentary is being purchased by many thousands of Southern Baptists. It is making and should continue to make a significant contribution to Southern Baptist theological thought and study.

Broadman has traditionally published to meet continuing needs of Christians in subject areas like Bible study, prayer, and church history, it also tries to remain flexible enough to respond quickly to areas of particularly intense current interest among Christians. In line with this philosophy Broadman has published two books on tongues speaking, three books on angels, demons and Satan, and one book on triumph of faith in POW camp.

Church growth plans, which include People-to-People and Church, the Sunday Night Place have already helped many churches in re-establishing a positive spirit and have turned their membership enrollment patterns from decline to growth.

The 12 issues of our foreign missions magazine, The Commission, for 1973 contained more than 200 articles, including special features on 50 of the 77 countries to which Southern Baptist missionaries are assigned.

In the department of Home Missions two professional books of note have been published — The Greening of the Church by Findley B. Edge and The Psychology of Religion by Wayne E. Oates. These have been especially well received by civilian and military chaplains. The department has produced many tracts, plan books, etc., on such programs as Evangelism Development, Church Extension Pioneer Missions, Rural-Urban Missions, Christian Social Ministries and Inter-faith Witness.

Woman's Missionary Union published three quarterly magazines: Dimension for Woman's Missionary Union officers, Aware for Girls in Action leaders, and Start for Mission Friends leaders, and four monthly magazines; Royal Service for Baptist Women, Contempo for Baptist Young Women, Accent for members of Acteens, and Discovery for members of Girls in Action. In addition to the member edition of Accent, a leader edition was produced for Acteen leaders.

Perhaps the most important piece of literature introduced by the Brotherhood Commission has been the World Mission Journal, a monthly publication produced as a tabloid newspaper eight times a year, and reduced the subscription price by 30 percent to make it available to more readers.

Another very important item of literature in our Southern Baptist life is our State Baptist papers, valuable for their ministry of dissemination of information regarding the widespread programs of the agencies and institutions of the Southern Baptist Convention. They also keep us abreast of the trend of religious thought in the modern world and alert and sensitive to the moral evils that are ever creeping up on us. Our own state paper, the Biblical Recorder, under its most competent editor, Mr. Marse Grant, remains one of the best.

Statistics show that acceptance of our church literature and convention press materials is greater than it has been in some time. Sales and production are up in most cases. Final circulation of Sunday School quarterly periodicals increased by 73,721 copies or 0.8 percent for the final quarter of 1972. Resource kits for children accounted for 47,361 units of this increase. Life and Work periodicals accounted for 53 percent of Sunday School and adult quarterly periodical sales in 1973 compared to 52 percent in 1972.

However, the Church Training quarterly periodicals declined by 134,529 copies or 8.8 percent under those of a year ago.

When Dr. Cothen, the new presidential successor to Dr. Sullivan of the Sunday School Board, was introduced at the Southern Baptist Convention in Dallas this summer, he announced that his approach in directing the production of literature would be a people centered approach rather than a program centered approach as in the past. So may we observe closely the trend our literature may take in the following years under the new leadership of Dr. Cothen, the outgoing president of New Orleans Baptist Seminary.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. Neathery

39 Bro. Carl King presented the Annuity Report at this time.

Annuity Report

The Southern Baptist Convention Annuity Board paid out a record nearly $16 million in retirement and protection benefits during 1973 to more than 9,000 retired pastors and other church-related vocational workers or their widows.

In addition, the Annuity Board set another record. This one was for funds held in trust for those participating in retirement and protection plans while still in active service. About 38,000 pastors, other church staff and denominational agency employees are included.

The Board issued another 13th Check, or extra benefit, for annuitants shortly before Christmas 1973. It amounted to two extra months' worth of benefits and totaled $1,187,379. The 13th Check helps annuitants, whose benefits are fixed, to meet the rising cost of living. Payment of the 13th Check is over and above the 12 contracted monthly benefits and depends from year to year on investment income.

The Board's decline in equity, or stock, investments paralleled the decline in the market generally, which affected all other types of investors as well. The major market indicators — Dow-Jones, Standard and Poor, and Value Line — all were down during the year.

By comparison, the Board's investments in mortgage loans and real estate leasebacks proved to be profit-making for the year. In an effort to continue earning from real estate investments, the Board announced a new type of Plan C investment called Land Equity Loans. Plan C is the Board's variable benefit plan which supplements the basic retirement program, called Plan A, for ministers.

The following churches are the ones who are now participating in the Annuity Program in our association: Armfield Heights: Asbury, Asheboro First, Balfour, Caraway, Central Falls, Clearview, Deep River, Forest Park, Franklinville, Glenola, Gravel Hill, Greystone, Huldah, Liberty First, Macedonia, Maple Springs, Mt.. Lebanon, Oakhurst, Oakwood Park, Ramseur First, Randleman First, Russells Grove, Union Grove, Worthville and the Randolph Baptist Association.

Additional information on the Annuity Board may be secured from Development Office, SBC Annuity Board, 511 North Akard Building, Dalas, Texas, 75201.

40 The Report on Evangelism was presented by W. A. Gillett.

Evangelism Report

Lay Evangelism Schools continue to produce results. It is most significant that in less than three years over 11,000 North Carolina Baptists have shared in this lay witness training. Over 855 churches and some 44 associations have participated in these sessions.

Approximately 2400 pastors and lay persons attended the 28th Statewide Evangelism Conference held in Greensboro during February.

God blessed the evangelistic ministry of three summer youth evangelism teams. Nine college students led music, preached youth revivals and directed youth training sessions among 27 churches from Pisgah Forest to Edenton.

Richard Hogue, Evangelist, and Darcy and Sharon Hodges, Music Evangelists, led in the 4th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night in August. About 15,000 youth and their leaders attended from across the state.

The Holy Spirit has continued to bless our state throughout this year. Wonderful revivals, city-wide crusades and clinics on Evangelism have opened the way for His further blessings upon us.

Coming events include the 29th Evangelism Conference among North Carolina Baptists.

Remember to pray often for the work of evangelism in all the churches in our association, state, nation, and world.

W. A. Gillett

41 Bro. T. W. Nelson gave the Children's Home Report.

Children's Home Report

Christian child care is a shared adventure. We proceed by faith to build a helping relationship with children and their families in need. We cannot know in advance the final outcome, but we are confident of God's power to work in these relationships for reconciliation and healing.

Much has happened this year to strengthen the foundations for our ministry of child care. The recreation and administration buildings at Broyhill Home are nearing completion. A cottage and two staff residences at Kennedy Home will soon be dedicated. A challenge gift of $100,000 has been received for the development of Greer-Burris Home at Chapel Hill.

"The Mountain Within", a thirty-minute 16mm sound picture, has been filmed to tell the story of the Children's Homes. It was premiered at the Piedmont Area Conference September 12. Following extensive use on statewide television broadcasts, it was released for showings to churches, associations, civic clubs, and other interested groups October 1. Place your order for the film through the Department of Communications of the Baptist State Convention.

Our Piedmont Area services have expanded significantly during the past year. Mills Home continues to provide the highest quality group care to more than two hundred school age children. Wall Home has pioneered with an exciting outdoor high adventure program for a group of teenage boys. Our first Emergency Care Home opened in Burlington May 21, and a similar home was opened in Charlotte in late summer. These two homes represent a cooperative venture with the Mount Zion and Mecklenburg Associations to provide emergency care on the local scene. New foster homes have been licensed and have increased the number of foster home children in care.

The continuing good will and generous support of our friends throughout the State make possible this vigorous and progressive ministry of child care. During the past year, North Carolina Baptists gave more than a million dollars to Christian child care in the North Carolina Baptist Children's Homes through the Cooperative Program, the Thanksgiving offering, and designated gifts and offerings. Rising costs and the need for expanding services challenge all of us — staff and supporters — to continue our investment in the shared adventure of Christian child care.

May God challenge our hearts in Randolph county to bring at least a day's wage from our homes of plenty and tables so bountifully supplied by His hand to this worthy cause.

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. Nelson

42 The report on the Baptist Homes for the Aging was presented by R. L. Hughes.

43 Speaking to the report was Bro. Ralph Cannon, pastor of Mars Hill Baptist Church.

Baptist Homes For The Aging

North Carolina Baptists began this work more than twenty-three years ago with one facility located in Winston-Salem. God has blessed this ministry in a remarkable way. We believe that under His leadership this effort has developed until now we have five Homes plus a nursing care unit. This nursing unit and two of the Homes are located in Winston-Salem. The three other Homes are at Albemarle, Hamilton, and Yanceyville. In these Homes, four out of every five residents depend to some degree upon the love gifts of North Carolina Baptists. This work simply could not continue without your help.

We, as Baptists working together, have made life much happier and more secure for these people who live in our Homes. We have done so through two very helpful means of support:

(1) The Special Offering for the Homes received on the 3rd Sunday of February each year: and

(2) The Cooperative Program

Gifts through these two sources have increased every year. Perhaps the February love offering will exceed $350,000 this next year. That will be more than 30% of the budget needed to operate the 5 Homes and the Nursing Unit.

There is an additional challenge and opportunity coming before us at this time. The Trustees of the Homes have voted to establish a 6th Home to be located in Western North Carolina in the city of Asheville on the Pearson Estate. This is a beautiful twentyone acre site overlooking the city and having a background view of the gorgeous Blue Ridge Mountains. A dedicated group of people in the western part of our state have organized the first initial phase of what will become, it is hoped, a major state-wide fund-raising effort to obtain the necessary funds for building. Of course this will be done only after approval by the General Board and the Baptist State Convention.

Now, as we consider this challenge before us and as we keep in mind the spiraling cost of all things, and as we recognize the ever-increasing need of older people, we see that it is most urgent that all of us be more generous than ever before in our support for the Homes which we already have, and perhaps there will be some people who will want to make a special 'over and above' gift for the Western N. C. Home.

We believe that ministry to an older person is a direct ministry unto Christ Himself and, we feel sure, it is most pleasing to Him.

Respectfully submitted,
R. L. Hughes

44 Bro. John Jackson presented the report on the Baptist Hospital.

Baptist Hospital Report

In spite of the growth in size and complexity at your Baptist Hospital, the emphasis is still upon "ministering with skill and understanding." Evidence of this is a typical patient's remark recently: "From the head surgeon, to the aide who handed me a glass of water, with all the doctors, nurses, people in the business offices and chaplains in between, I was cheerfully given every personal consideration."

Changes and additions continue to be made for the purpose of providing better hospital care. Renovation of the Progressive Care Unit has been completed, and the South and West Wings of the hospital building are now being renovated. Construction of the Ambulatory Care Unit is well under way and is scheduled for completion in the spring, or early summer, of 1975.

New discoveries continue to make possible better medical care. For example, a new EMI-Scanner is to be installed and is expected to be in use before the end of this year. This device, which combines the use of X-rays and computers, will make it possible to detect brain tumors, blood clots, and strokes more accurately and more quickly. Scans can be completed in about 30 minutes and the results can be available in another five minutes. There is no risk or discomfort involved, and the patient does not have to be admitted to the hospital.

New approaches are also being made in the hospital's ministry to the emotional and spiritual needs of people. The Division of Human Enrichment and Development, in the Department of Pastoral Care, is conducting retreats, seminars, and workshops designed to help appropriate the resources of the Christian faith to the various areas and experiences of life. The Pastoral Care Department has also opened its first satellite center, in Fayetteville, to offer counseling and training to people in that area. Your Cooperative Program gifts help to support these ministries.

The School of Nursing graduated its last class in May. The school has been in the process of phasing out for the past three years, as the result of a trustee decision in 1971.

In January the hospital had its only room rate increase in the past three and one half years. Nevertheless, the hospital continues to operate "in the black". The 1974 Mother's Day Offerings amounted to $375,000. At the time of this writing, our 1974 Mother's Day gifts are running ahead of the same time last year. These gifts are used to assist patients with the most urgent financial needs. A special committee of five Baptists from the Winston-Salem area assists personnel from the hospital Business Office and the Department of Denominational Relations in administering these funds.

Your hospital staff, and the people they serve, are grateful for your interest, your prayers and your financial support.

Respectfully submitted,
John Jackson

Memorials

We have the promises of God as thick as daisies in summer meadows, that death, which men most fear, shall be to us the most blessed of experience, if we trust in Him. Death is unclasping; joy, breaking out in the desert; the heart, come to its blossoming time! Do we call it dying when the bud burst into flower?

Henry Ward Beecher

By the reading of the following names, we do therefore honor the memory of those who have passed from our midst since our last Annual Associational Meeting.

52 Mrs. Roy McNeill presented the report on Appreciation.

Appreciation

We, the Randolph Baptist Association, have so much to be thankful for, God has blessed us this another year through the leadership of our dedicated pastors and Rev. Talmadge Smith, our Superintendent of Missions, to each of you we want to say "Thank You."

To our fine Moderator, Clerk, and those who brought the messages in word and in song, thank you for a job well done. We are grateful for each one who labored long hours just to bring us the committee reports.

Truly our host churches, Franklinville and Ramseur First have made each of us feel more than welcome. They supplied over and above our needs with the refreshments and meal as well as their kindness.

As we start a new year let each of us pray for the leadership of the Sweet Holy Spirit for our own individual lives and our Churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Roy H. McNeill
Mrs. Lela Carter
