NOTICES:

OPPORTUNITIES IN NEW YORK:

Jon F. Meek, Jr., Director of Missions for the Baptist Convention of New York will be on campus Wednesday, October 16. During the afternoon, he will be available to talk to students interested in opportunities in New York. Appointments may be made in the Field Education Office.

RAPID READING CLASS:

The Rapid Reading Class has been confirmed and will meet in Room 101, Appleby, on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. The first meeting will be on Tuesday, October 22 and a registration fee of $2.00 will be payable at that time. Persons who may not be able to be present on Tuesday, may register on Thursday. No one will be admitted after Thursday, October 24.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED IN WAKE FOREST:

The Wake Forest Housing Task Force has been formed in order to help citizens in the community improve their housing situations. Ten students who can donate a few hours' work are needed to inform residents in the Glen Royal area of several federal programs and to discover other housing needs of these families. If you can help, please sign up by Wednesday, October 16 in Mrs. Russell's office, Room 207 of Stealey Hall.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS AVAILABLE:

The seminary has recently received scholarship funds to be awarded to qualified students. Applicants are being considered primarily on the basis of (1) genuine financial need (2) academic performance and (3) dedication and involvement in ministry. If you are interested or desire more information, please see the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall.

NOTICE FROM BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS:

- (A) Buildings and Grounds personnel will not be cutting grass or raking leaves in the housing areas this Fall. Lawnmowers or hand tools can be checked out for a limited time by anyone who wants to "do his own thing!" Please remember to disconnect water hoses that may be attached to outside faucets during freezing weather. Thanks.
- (B) We have received 60 replies to our questionnaires concerning housing repairs; this project will be completed (as far as input is to be considered) as of October 18, 1974. A program for handling painting or other major problems is in the making--routine maintenance calls will be received as usual through the telephone system (ext. 260).
- (C) Please remember to "break down" boxes or other large items BEFORE PLACING THEM IN THE DUMSTERS!
- (D) Suggestions, complaints, or questions concerning Buildings and Grounds? Please call 556-3101 ext. 260, 261, or contact Dave Lee.

EVANGELISM WORKSHOP

Training sessions for witnessing using primarily the Campus Crusade for Christ materials are being organized. All interested students are asked to contact Dan Miles, Room 220, Johnson Dormitory, or Isamu Matsumoto (556-1303).

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall, by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities box, second floor, administration building.
